THE BIBLE IN LIVING ENGLISH

Translated by Steven T. Byington

This Bible has been printed as its translator, Steven T. Byington, prepared it. The spelling of names, choice of words, sentence structure and punctuation are according to his typewritten manuscript.

Chapter and verse divisions are largely the same as in other translations. But it will be observed that, in some places, the verse numbers are not in numerical order, or a certain verse number may not appear at all. Frequently the reason is explained in the Marginal Notes.

TRANSLATOR'S PREFACE

When I began making this translation, the chief topic of a preface would have been the reasons why a new translation of the Bible should be made. At present its first duty is to tell how this one differs from other new translations now extant.

The central purpose of this translation, the reason for which it exists, is to put the Bible into living present-day English. Such was the motive of William Tyndale when he made the translation which, with some revisions, is now in general use; and the same reasons which made his work necessary make the like work necessary today. If the Bible is worth much for the man on the street, it must speak to him in his language. A man who was brought up on the Bible and Shakespeare should presume himself incompetent to perceive how far their language is a foreign language to most people today.

In general, the Bible is not an archaic book except so far as it is foreign. In general, the original Hebrew and Greek was living Hebrew and Greek when it was written down. No doubt there are cases where the original has a word which was archaic when it was written, and in such a case an archaic English expression will be appropriate; but such cases are exceptional.

But I say "put the Bible into" such language. I conceive that the Bible does not consist only of the gist of what the prophets and apostles said, but includes also their way of saying it. To say in my own words what I thought the prophet or apostle was driving at would not, to my mind, be real translation; nor yet to analyze into a string of separate words all the implications which the original may have carried in one word; the difference between conciseness and prolixity is one difference between the Bible and something else. So far as a translation does not keep to this standard, it is a commentary rather than a translation: a very legitimate and useful form of commentary, but it leaves the field of translation unfilled. I think some recent translations have not sufficiently resisted these temptations. Undoubtedly a translation cannot in these respects be perfect, and these are matters in which the work of limited human powers is sure to be even less perfect than it might and should be; but at least I have kept these aims before me. I have felt that the familiar old version set about the right standard for the degree of literalness.

The new official Revised Standard Version has taken the view that the New Testament was written at a time when the Greek language was no longer used with precision by ordinary people, so that an attempt at great precision in translation is superfluous, and a rather free translation may rightly be used for the sake of smooth English. My view, on the contrary, is that everything in this world has a cause; when anybody uses one word and not another, there is always a cause for its being this word and not that; and it is a translator's business to come as near as he can to the ideal of always recognizing the cause and reproducing the effect. The person, educated or uneducated, who uses one word without discrimination of its strict meaning will use another word with very strict discrimination, and the word that he does not discriminate is likely to be discriminated by his next-door neighbor. And the effort to gain smoothness by abandoning precision is not favorable even to English literary style: it tends toward monotony; it tends to lose the sharp flavor that the original got by choosing an unobvious word; and of course, when the original expressed an epigrammatic significance in crabbed language because no other language would have expressed it without prolixity, the insistence on smoothness tends to lose this significance. Phrases in my translation which look like fanciful attempts to decorate my style are likely to be simply careful attempts to reproduce the original with unwonted precision. Even where a distinction between two forms of expression means no more than that different forms are habitual to different writers, or that a writer varied his form for the sake of avoiding monotony, the distinction should not be abandoned without considering what could have been done to keep it.

But this principle of keeping to the original writer's form of expression permits, and even demands, a departure from what is ordinarily understood by literalness when his form of expression was dictated by some constraint in his language, and English is exempt from that constraint. Thus, Hebrew and Greek, like most languages, are much less thorough than present-day English in distinguishing between such forms as "walks" and "is walking." It is the translator's business to make the distinction, even though the imperfection of the ancient languages requires him to make it more or less by guess; if he fails to make it he is not using twentieth-century English but sixteenth-century English, and is obscuring the sense as the original did not obscure it. If Hebrew has no way to say "never" except by just saying "not," then where I find "not" in Hebrew I am right in saying "never" if it seems preferable in English; for the Hebrew writer had used the only way he had to say "never." I might well have said "never" in my Old Testament oftener than I have. If in order to express the idea of "servant" and cover both sexes the Hebrew has to use a separate word for each sex, then my proper translation for the Hebrew combination of two nouns and an "and" is the one word "servant," not a lengthening of the English by prefixing to "servant" another word to indicate the sex (which the Hebrew does not do) and saying "manservant or maidservant." The test is generally whether the English, translated into Hebrew or Greek, would have had to give what the Hebrew or Greek writer wrote. This also is a principle hard to live up to, but I have aimed at remembering it.

Our knowledge of Hebrew is to a considerable extent dependent on traditions which are by no means free from error. So is our knowledge of New Testament Greek, slightly, and so are our habits of translating New Testament Greek, not so slightly. One of the commonest tendencies to error has been the tendency to forget the specific meaning of a word and to substitute, by guess, a broader meaning which is broad enough to cover whatever that word can probably have meant. Thus our Hebrew dictionary gets an oversupply of loose synonyms for broad meanings with a tendency toward the abstract, and an undersupply of distinctive terms for specific things. For instance, the Hebrews were troubled with lions, and had a good vocabulary for lions; they had a specific name for a young beast that was about as formidable as any in a fight, but yet was readily distinguishable from an adult. Considering the way in which lions grow, this can hardly be other than the male that has reached full size but has not yet got its mane; it is then two years old. If our forefathers had found these creatures in America, they would probably have said "two-year-old" unless they were able to borrow an Indian word. Our traditional rendering is the loose "young lion," which often looks as if it meant a mere cub. "Two-year-old" gives the conception more accurately; and, as in the case of most words, the more accurate rendering is the more picturesque, though in part of the poetical passages "young lion" may stand. Generally the attempt to recover the specific meaning of a word by comparing the passages in which the word is used is more or less uncertain; but, considering the general course that tradition has followed, the cumulation of loose broad synonyms has seemed to me so very unlikely to be right that the chance of being right in recovering the specific sense has really been the more probable chance.

Where good American usage and good British usage are known to differ, as between "rareripe" and "rather ripe," I have been American. Apart from any reasons for thinking that America is now best entitled to set the standard of the English language, I have done this because American is the language I know. If I had tried to follow British usage, the result could only have been a patchwork product. In one respect, at least, it is historically impossible for British English to be as good a language for translating the Bible as American English. For the scene of a great part of the Bible lies in a semiarid cattle country such as never existed in the British Isles, so that the English language never had an opportunity to acquire words for the conditions of such a country till the English race spread to America, South Africa, and Australia. If my translation ever comes to be reprinted in South Africa (an event of which there is no immediate prospect), the editor of the South African edition is hereby authorized to say "veldt" where I have said "range," and sometimes where I have not, and similarly to make my "arroyo" into a "spruit."

Many critics will find it hard to bear that in addressing God I have said "thou" in the New Testament and "you" in the Old; they will say I ought at least to have been uniform. Perhaps I ought; but my feeling was that the New Testament men had nearly the same feelings as we have about addressing God, but the Old Testament men, those of them who had most to say to God, such as Abraham, Moses, Elijah, Jeremiah, had not such feelings as lead us to give God a special pronoun. Really, Exodus 33:11 is a formal notification that it would be mistranslation to make Moses use one pronoun in speaking to God and a different pronoun in speaking to Joshua. No doubt I could reasonably have handled some of the latest parts of the Old Testament as I handled the New, but it seemed less conveniently practicable to draw the line between parts of the Old than between Old and New.

As to the Old Testament name of God, certainly the spelling and pronunciation "Jehovah" were originally a blunder. But the spelling and the pronunciation are not highly important. What is highly important is to keep it clear that this is a personal name. There are several texts that cannot be properly understood if we translate this name by a common noun like "Lord," or, much worse, by a substantivized adjective.

It is customary for the preface of a new translation of the Bible to say that this translation is to be used only for certain limited purposes, and for most purposes the old version, or a conservative revision of it, should still be preferred. I say the contrary: I sincerely recommend that my translation be used in preference to the old for all purposes, under all circumstances where mine is available. I do not say, observe, that mine is better than any other that can or will be made; neither do I say that it is probable that mine will become everybody's Bible. What I have more right to expect, and what I am bound to be content with, is that when a Bible is made which shall be everybody's Bible, my work will have contributed part of the material which will go into it; what I am here recommending is that when a choice is to be made between mine and the old version, and a version better than either is not available, mine be chosen rather than the old.

It is time we were done with taking the old version as our standard. It should be understood by everybody that where the present revised versions and new versions agree with each other, as they do in a good many points, these are presumably the genuine Bible and the old version is not. One school of thought among us makes much of the texts which forbid man to cut out any part of God's word. They do not seem to pay as much attention to the fact that the same texts, and more texts, forbid us to add to it. Yet it is with reason that the Bible has more to say against adding than against subtracting, for certainly it is a grosser blasphemy to put forward our own figments as God's word than to cut out parts of the word either by "higher criticism" or, what is commoner, by merely not reading those parts. The old version contains forged texts. The most glaring case is the words about the three witnesses in heaven in 1 John 5:7. The translators of the old version found these words in what they supposed was the original Greek. But those words never were in the Greek till after the invention of printing; we have a fair probability of being right in telling the name and post-office address of the Englishman who put that forgery into the Greek. There are other cases not quite so glaring, but not substantially less certain. A man who uses the old version as his standard Bible has no right to claim that he is treating the Bible respectfully as the word of God.

The literary merits of the Bible are the work of the prophets and apostles, and will remain in any reasonably faithful translation. The supposed extraordinary superiority of the old version to other versions is largely a matter of familiarity. Anybody who has for many years used the revised version as his only habitual Bible, and then has occasion to reread the old version, will see that when he thus comes to the old as an unfamiliar version it falls short of its reputation. A man has a right to like the language of the old version either just because of familiarity or because of a personal taste for archaism; but this does not justify him in inflicting the old version on those for whom archaic English slows up the understanding. In any case, a new translator may claim it as his right that if the old version is judged by its best passages, his own shall be judged by its best too; or that if his is to be judged by its worst, these shall be compared with such passages of the old as Genesis 22:20 and 1 Corinthians 16:14.

Like other translators, I have added some notes on places where the text might have been differently translated, or where the ancient copies differ from each other as to the original words. Among these notes, most readers will perhaps think that in the Old Testament there are too many which express doubt whether we have a correct copy of the original Hebrew, or say that the translator has depended on a guess as to what may have been the original Hebrew word, or that perhaps he ought to have depended on a guess. This calls for some explanation.

As soon as the New Testament books were written, the Christians at once began to make many copies of them, because many of the Christians could read and they all recognized the value of such fundamental books. Consequently we have many copies of those books, including a few copies that are very ancient and very reliable, so that we know the exact words of the New Testament with greater certainty than those of any of the other famous ancient Greek and Latin writers. But the Old Testament books were written when comparatively few people could read, and few copies of them were made at first. And at first less pains than you might expect were taken to make the copies accurate. Where one book of the Bible has copied something out of another, we can often see, for instance, that Chronicles has made a mistake in copying out of Samuel or Kings in one place, or that in another place Chronicles had the word right but our copies of Samuel or Kings have it wrong, a mistake having been made in copying them at some time after Chronicles was written. Sometimes even intentional changes were made. Jeremiah 8:8 says that in Jeremiah's time the commonly accepted copies of the law of Moses were so incorrect as to contain substantial falsehoods; Jeremiah's words seem to mean that the false matter had been willfully put in; and it would be hard to prove that our copies of the law are not made from the ones that were commonly accepted in Jeremiah's time. Professor Welch thinks Jeremiah meant that a certain paragraph had been added by somebody, which had the effect of changing the apparent meaning of several other paragraphs; and Professor Welch thinks he can tell what the change was. That is for him to prove; in my translation I have not attended to guesses of that sort.

But we know from the ancient translations of the Old Testament into other languages, especially into Greek, that in some places the men who made those translations had a Hebrew text different from the one we now have; and we can see that in some places they seem to have had the right text, though in more places our Hebrew text seems to be right. But this Hebrew text of ours has been through much trouble. The Jewish religion has been persecuted by enemies who tried to destroy all the copies of the Bible they could lay their hands on. King Antiochus Epiphanes of Syria undertook to do this. There was a persecution under the Roman emperor Hadrian; Professor de Lagarde guesses that Hadrian did a worse job than Antiochus. Even the persecutions of the Jews by the Christians in later times did some harm along this line. Meanwhile, the Jews reformed their habits of copying, and began taking extraordinary pains to make all their copies agree exactly with certain standard copies. Opinions differ as to just how good these standard copies were; but by the Jews' own account they were not absolutely faultless; and the rule of conforming all copies to this standard had the effect of destroying all different copies which might in some places have been right. The consequence is that in some places we do have to see how well we can do with guessing. Sometimes the Hebrew gives reason for suspecting a mistake in copying where no reason is apparent in the English.

I have found in a copy of the English Bible a text where the word "book" was misprinted "took." Suppose I were a missionary translating the Bible into the language of some island; suppose the only thing I had to translate from was this misprinted English Bible. Should I translate "took"? I should not. I should know by the sense, and by comparing other texts where the same phrase was found, that this was a printer's error; and I should translate "book." This would be a guess of mine. There are in the Hebrew Bible some such slips which are preserved under the Jews' present rule of exact copying, but which it is understood to be the business of every user of the Bible to correct in his mind, or, if he reads aloud, in his voice. But some cases are not so simple. There will be a text that everybody agrees must be wrong; different students will make a dozen different guesses as to what might have been the way it was originally written. Somebody else will say that the chances may be five to one that the text that comes to us is wrong, but they are ten to one that the best guess that has been made is wrong, so that we have really more chance of being right by not trying to guess even though we are fairly sure that there has been some mistake in copying. Then they begin calling each other names: the man who has made no guess says that the man who has guessed is treating the Bible lazily, carelessly, disrespectfully, and the man who has guessed says that the man who did not is treating the Bible lazily, carelessly, disrespectfully. Generally the accusation is false on both sides. Each man is conscientiously and carefully doing his best to have the genuine words of the Bible as they were originally written, and often there is much to be said on both sides. Of course there can be laziness either way: a man can be too lazy to make a difficult guess when he ought to see that it is his duty, or a man can lazily make a guess to get out of the trouble of understanding a hard text which he could have understood by putting a little more work on it; and laziness is never the right way to study the Bible. But most of them are working honestly and giving real help. At any rate there is one good thing in having a Bible that tells you where guessing is to be thought of: you may suppose that where it makes no note you are sure enough; and you will find that after all most of the text is straight and sure.

Sometimes a difference that seems very sweeping in English will be made by a very little difference in Hebrew. You know that "feather" does not look so much like either "leather" or "father" in French as it does in English; and that the only difference in English writing between "nowhere" and "now here" is the space between the words—and in ancient times the separation between words was generally left to the reader's judgment. You know that in some people's handwriting it is hard to tell "there" from "then" or "these" or "three." If a sentence begins with one of these words, the difference between these words may make a difference with the meaning of the other words; the trouble you often have in the first reading of a newspaper headline teaches you how much the meaning and connection of the words may depend on the way you start to read the line. And the Hebrew alphabet has at all times been much plagued with letters that look almost alike. In my Hebrew Bible, which is on the whole the best that I know of, the well-known words "blossom as the rose" are misprinted "blossom with roses"; the difference is so slight a difference in the shape of one letter that the proofreaders never noticed it. Luckily or unluckily, it makes good sense either way: luckily, because no great harm comes from reading it wrongly; unluckily, because the reader cannot see for himself that this must be a mistake. And you positively have to get used to the question whether to read "because" or "with me," they look so much alike. Nevertheless, take a warning against books that tell you that the guess they adopt is "a slight change" in the Hebrew: usually the man calls every change that he wants to make "slight." But a prudent man will be shy of guessing unless the change from a recorded form is really a slight one.

Please believe that in my work of many years, with the help of the books of many good students, I have done my best to give you in English the genuine Bible as the prophets and apostles wrote it, and that you are not unsafe in taking what you find here.

EXPLANATIONS OF ABBREVIATIONS USED IN MARGINAL NOTES

Codd. - Codices. The translation given represents what it is guessed may have been written originally; the ancient codices or copies of the text, or those of them that seem to be most reliable, read as follows, but in the original language it seems impossible that this can be right.

Conj. - Conjecture. The translation given is that of the text found in those ancient copies that seem likeliest to be right, but there is a guess that all these are miscopied and that the original writer wrote as follows.

(The guess referred to by "Conj." and "Codd." is usually that of some famous commentator, recorded in critical commentaries on the books; often one that is adopted by many commentators. In a few cases it is a guess of my own.)

Lit. - Literally. The form of expression in the original is more nearly as follows.

Susp. - Suspected. It is suspected that all copies of the text have some mistake made in copying, but we cannot guess what this mistake was.

Unc. - Uncertain. There is uncertainty here as to the meaning of the original.

Var. - Variant. The translation given is according to some of what seem to be the most reliable ancient copies of the text, but other copies read as follows. In some cases the translation preferred is from the Septuagint, and a rendering from the Masoretic text is shown in the Marginal Notes.

- - Where one of the above abbreviations is followed by an asterisk, the difference of reading in question is not in the Hebrew letters but in the vowel points added to the letters by Jewish tradition. These "points" were first written down in the Middle Ages; in general they are the record of a tradition centuries older than their writing down, probably sometimes many centuries older, but in no case going back to a written record by the original writer.

Where the Marginal Note begins with "Or," it indicates that the original might also be reasonably translated as follows.

In connection with certain proper names in this translation there is a raised reverse comma. This is to represent the Hebrew letter 'ayin, for which there is no exact equivalent in the English language.

Adjustments made by the Publishers are indicated by the use of square brackets.

THE BOOK OF GENESIS

CHAPTER 1

1 2 At the beginning of God's creating the heavens and the earth the earth was a blank chaos, and there was darkness over the surface of the deep; and God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the 3 4 waters. And God said "Let there be light," and there was light. And God saw the light was good; and God parted the light from the 5 darkness; and God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And evening came, and morning came: one day.

6 And God said "Let there be a firmament through the waters to 7 part waters from waters"; and God made the firmament and parted the waters below the firmament from the waters above the firmament, 8 and it was so; and God called the firmament Sky. And evening came, and morning came: a second day.

9 And God said "Let the waters below the firmament collect in one 10 basin and let the dry ground appear," and it was so; and God called the dry ground Earth, and the basin of waters he called Seas; and 11 God saw that it was good. And God said "Let the earth grow vegetation, herbage bearing seed, fruit-trees producing fruit which has their 12 seed in it on the earth"; and it was so, and the earth put out vegetation, the various kinds of herbage bearing seed and the various kinds of trees producing fruit which has their seed in it; and God saw that 13 it was good. And evening came, and morning came: a third day.

14 And God said "Let there be lights in the firmament of the sky to part the day from the night, and let them be for signs and dates and 15 days and years, and for lights in the firmament of the sky to give 16 light on the earth"; and it was so. And God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night, 17 and the stars; and God put them in the firmament of the sky to give 18 light on the earth and to rule over the day and the night and to part 19 the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good. And evening came, and morning came: a fourth day.

20 And God said "Let the water swarm with animals and let birds 21 fly over the earth across the face of the sky"; and God created the great whales and all the various kinds of gliding animals that the water swarmed with, and all the various kinds of winged birds; and 22 God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying "Breed and multiply, and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds multiply 23 on the earth." And evening came, and morning came: a fifth day.

24 And God said "Let the earth bring out the various kinds of animals, 25 cattle and reptiles and wild beasts"; and it was so. And God made the various kinds of wild beasts and of cattle, and all the various kinds of 26 ground reptiles; and God saw that it was good. And God said "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, to bear empire over the fishes of the sea and the birds of the sky and the cattle and all the wild beasts of the earth and all the reptiles that creep on the earth.”

27 And God created man in his image; in the image of God he created 28 him; male and female he created them; and God blessed them. And God said to them “Breed and multiply, and fill the earth and subju-29 gate it, and bear empire over the fishes of the sea and the birds of the sky and all the animals that move about on the earth”; and God said “Here I have given you every seed-bearing herb on the surface of 30 the earth, and every tree on which there is seed-bearing tree-fruit: they shall be yours for food; and to all the wild animals and all the birds of the sky and all the creatures that creep on the earth, that have animal life in them, all green herbage for food”; and it was so.
31 And God saw all that he had made, and found it very good. And evening came, and morning came: a sixth day.

1 And the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their legions; 2 and God finished on the seventh day his work that he had done, and 3 left off on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it he had 4 left off from all his work that he had done in creating. This is the line of the heavens and the earth at their creation.

5 On the day that God Jehovah made earth and sky, when there was not yet in the earth any field bush, or any field herbage sprung up, because God Jehovah had not made it rain on the earth and there 6 were no men to work the soil, and a mist used to come up out of the 7 earth and water all the surface of the soil, God Jehovah shaped man in clay from the soil, and blew into his nostrils breath of life: and the man became a living person.

8 And God Jehovah planted a garden in 'Eden on the east, and put 9 there the man he had shaped. And God Jehovah caused to spring from the soil every tree inviting in looks and good for food, and the tree of life in the middle of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of 10 good and bad. And a river came out of 'Eden to water the garden, 11 and from there it divided and made four heads: the name of the first was Pishon, that is the one that goes all round the country of 12 Havilah, where the gold is (and the gold of that country is good); 13 that is where there is bdellium and beryl; and the name of the second river was Gihon, that is the one that goes all round the Negroes' 14 country; and the name of the third river was Tigris, that is the one that runs east of Asshur; and the fourth river was the Euphrates.
15 And God Jehovah took the man and put him down in the garden of 16 'Eden to work it and to watch it. And God Jehovah gave the man 17 orders: “From all the trees of the garden you are to eat, but from the tree of knowledge of good and bad you are not to eat, because on the day you eat from it you shall die.”

18 And God Jehovah said "The man's being alone is not good; I will 19 make him a helper to match him." And God Jehovah shaped out of the soil all the wild beasts and all the birds of the air and brought them to the man to see what he would call them, and whatever the 20 man called an animal was its name. And the man named all the cattle, and the birds of the air, and all the wild beasts; and for man he did 21 not find a helper to match him. And God Jehovah threw the man into a trance so that he lay asleep, and took one of his ribs and closed 22 up flesh in its place; and God Jehovah built the rib he had taken out 23 of the man into a woman and brought her to the man. And the man said "This, now, is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh; this 24 shall be called Woman, because this was taken out of man." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and keeps with his wife, and they become one flesh.
25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and felt no shame.

CHAPTER 3

1 And the snake was the shrewdest of all the wild beasts that God Jehovah had made; and it said to the woman "A pity God said you 2 were not to eat off all the trees in the garden." And the woman said 3 to the snake "Fruit from the trees in the garden we are to eat, but as to the fruit of this tree in the middle of the garden God said 'You 4 are not to eat any of it, nor touch it, or you will die.'" And the 5 snake said to the woman "Die you would not; but God knows that on the day you eat any of it your eyes will be opened and you will be 6 like gods, knowing good and bad." And the woman saw that the tree was good for food and a fascination to the eyes, and the tree was an inviting thing to consider, and she took some of its fruit and ate it, 7 and gave some to her husband with her, and he ate it. And they both had their eyes opened and knew they were naked; and they pinned fig-leaves together and made themselves belts.

8 And they heard God Jehovah walking in the garden at the breezy part of the day; and the man and his wife hid themselves from God 9 Jehovah among the trees of the garden. And God Jehovah called out 10 to the man "Where are you?" and he said "I heard you in the garden, 11 and was afraid because I was naked, and I hid." And he said "Who told you you were naked? have you eaten anything from the tree I 12 ordered you not to?" And the man said "The woman you put with 13 me, she gave me something from the tree and I ate it." And God Jehovah said to the woman "What is this you have done?" and the woman said "The snake deluded me, and I ate."

14 And God Jehovah said to the snake "Because you did this, cursed are you beyond all cattle and all wild beasts; you shall go on your 15 belly and eat dust all your life, and I will set up enmity between you and the woman and between your issue and hers, it bursting your head and you bursting its heel."

- 16 To the woman he said "I will greatly increase your pains and pregnancies; in pain you shall bear children; and your impulse shall be to your husband, and he shall rule over you."
- 17 And to the man he said "Because you listened to your wife's voice and ate from the tree that I ordered you not to, cursed is the soil on 18 your account: by pains you shall feed on it all your life, and it shall sprout thorns and thistles for you, and you shall eat the herbage of 19 the field. By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread, till you go back into the soil, because you were taken out of it. For you are clay, and into clay you shall go back."
- 20 And the man named his wife Eve, because she became the mother of all that live.
- 21 And God Jehovah made shirts of skin for the man and his wife, and clothed them.
- 22 And God Jehovah said "Here the man has become like one of us, knowing good and bad, and now he may put out his hand and take 23 something from the tree of life too, and eat it and live forever"; and God Jehovah turned him out of the garden of 'Eden to work the soil 24 he had been taken from. And he banished the man, and sent to perch on the east of the garden of 'Eden the Cherubs and the Blaze of the Whirling Sword, to guard the road to the tree of life.

- 1 And the man knew his wife Eve, and she conceived and had a son 2 Cain, and said "I have framed a man along with Jehovah." And then she had another son, his brother Abel. And Abel became a herder of sheep and goats, and Cain a cultivator of the soil.
- 3 And after a while Cain brought an offering to Jehovah out of the 4 fruits of the soil, and Abel too brought some of the firstborn young of his flocks and the fat pieces. And Jehovah noticed Abel and his 5 offering, but he had not noticed Cain and his offering; and Cain was 6 very angry, and his face grew glum. And Jehovah said to Cain "What 7 are you angry for, and why is your face glum? If you do right does it not come up? and if not, sin lies outstretched at the door, and its impulse is toward you, but you are to rule over it."
- 8 And Cain said to his brother Abel "Let us go out on the range"; and when they were out on the range Cain stood up against his 9 brother Abel and killed him. And Jehovah said to Cain "Where is your brother Abel?" and he said "I do not know; am I my brother's 10 keeper?" And he said "What have you done? I hear your brother's 11 blood crying out to me from the soil. And now you are cursed off from the soil which has opened her mouth to receive your brother's blood 12 from your hands: when you cultivate the soil it shall no longer give 13 you its strength; you shall be a rover and roamer in the earth." And 14 Cain said to Jehovah "My sentence is too great to bear. Here you have banished me off the soil, and I shall be out of sight of your face and be a rover and roamer in the earth, and whenever anyone finds 15 me he will kill me." And Jehovah said to him "Then whenever anyone kills Cain it shall be avenged seven times over"; and Jehovah 16 marked a token on Cain that whenever anyone found him he might not kill him. And Cain went out from Jehovah's presence and lived in the country of Nod, east of 'Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and had a son Enoc.
And he became a city-builder, and named the city for his son, Enoc.
18 And to Enoc was born a son 'Irada; and 'Irada had a son Mehujael, 19 and Mehujael a son Methushael, and Methushael a son Lemec. And Lemec took two wives, the first named 'Adah and the second named 20 Sillah; and 'Adah had a son Jabal—he was father of those who live 21 in tents and with stock; and his brother's name was Jubal—he was 22 father of all who handle lyre and pipe. And Sillah too had a son, Tubal-Cain, pioneer of all who work in bronze and iron; and Tubal-23 Cain's sister was Na'amah. And Lemec said to his wives

"'Adah and Sillah, listen to my voice; wives of Lemec, give ear to my say;
For I have killed a man for my scratch, a child for my bruise,

24 Because Cain is avenged seven times over and Lemec seventy-seven."

25 And the man knew his wife again, and she had a son and named him Sheth "because God has set me another issue in place of Abel, 26 because Cain killed him." And Sheth too had a son born to him, and named him Enosh; it was he who began invoking the name of Jehovah.

1 This is the record of the line of Man. On the day that God created 2 man, in the likeness of God he made them, male and female he created them, and blessed them and named them Man [in Hebrew, 3 Adam] on the day they were created. And Man lived a hundred and thirty years and begot one in his own likeness, after his own image, 4 and named him Sheth. And Man's time after he begot Sheth was 5 eight hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters; and all the time that Man lived was nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

6 7 And Sheth lived a hundred and five years and begot Enosh. And after Sheth begot Enosh he lived eight hundred and seven years, and 8 begot sons and daughters; and all Sheth's life was nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

9 10 And Enosh lived ninety years and begot Kenan. And after Enosh begot Kenan he lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and begot sons 11 and daughters; and all Enosh's life was nine hundred and five years; and he died.

12 13 And Kenan lived seventy years and begot Mahalalel. And after Kenan begot Mahalalel he lived eight hundred and forty years, and

- 14 begot sons and daughters; and all Kenan's life was nine hundred and ten years; and he died.
- 15 16 And Mahalalel lived sixty-five years and begot Jered. And after Mahalalel begot Jered he lived eight hundred and thirty years, and 17 begot sons and daughters; and all Mahalalel's life was eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.
- 18 19 And Jered lived sixty-two years and begot Enoc. And after Jered begot Enoc he lived seven hundred and eighty-five years, and begot 20 sons and daughters; and all Jered's life was eight hundred and forty-seven years; and he died.
- 21 22 And Enoc lived sixty-five years and begot Methushelah. And after Enoc begot Methushelah he walked in God's company three hundred 23 years, and begot sons and daughters; and all Enoc's life was three 24 hundred and sixty-five years; and Enoc went walking with God, and was missing, because God had taken him.
- 25 26 And Methushelah lived sixty-seven years and begot Lemec. And after Methushelah begot Lemec he lived six hundred and fifty-three 27 years, and begot sons and daughters; and all Methushelah's life was seven hundred and twenty years; and he died.
- 28 29 And Lemec lived fifty-three years and begot a son, and named him Noah, saying "This one will give us solace for our work and the 30 pains of our arms out of the soil that Jehovah cursed." And after Lemec begot Noah he lived six hundred years, and begot sons and 31 daughters; and all Lemec's life was six hundred and fifty-three years; and he died.
- 32 And Noah came to the age of five hundred years and begot Shem, Ham, and Jepheth.

- 1 And when men began to multiply over the soil, and daughters 2 were born to them, the sons of God saw the daughters of men were 3 fine, and they took wives from any that they chose. And Jehovah said "My spirit shall not be implanted in man forever by their misstep; he is flesh, and his time shall be a hundred and twenty 4 years." The Nephilim were on earth in those days, and afterward too, when the sons of God went in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them: those were the ancient heroes, the men of fame.
- 5 And Jehovah saw that men's wickedness was great on earth, and the whole drift of the thoughts of their minds was purely bad all day 6 long. And Jehovah repented of having made men on earth, and was 7 pained at heart. And Jehovah said "I will obliterate off the soil the men that I created,—men, cattle, reptiles, and birds of the air,—for 8 I am sorry I made them." But Jehovah liked Noah.
- 9 This is Noah's line. Noah was an upright man, living a conscientious 10 life among his contemporaries; Noah used to walk with God; and Noah 11 begot three sons, Shem, Ham, and Jepheth. And the earth grew 12 vicious before God, and the earth grew full of outrage; and God saw 13 the earth and found it vicious, because every kind of flesh had taken 14 to vicious courses on the earth. And God said to Noah "Every kind 15 of flesh has come to its end before me; for the earth is full of outrage 16 because of them, and here I am going to make away with them, earth 17 and all. Make yourself a gopher-wood box; make the box full of 18 compartments, and coat it with bitumen inside and out. And this is 19 the size you are to make it: four hundred and fifty feet the length of 20 the box, fifty its width, and thirty its height. You shall make a gabled 21 roof to the box, and finish it at the top up to eighteen inches; and 22 the door of the box you shall put in its side. You shall make it with first, second, and third stories. As for me, I am bringing the deluge (water) upon the earth to make away with every kind of flesh under the sky that has the breath of life in it: everything on earth shall perish. But I will make good my covenant with you, and you shall go into the box, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you; and of everything living, of every kind of flesh, you shall bring two of each into the box to be kept alive with you; a male and a female they shall be. Of the various kinds of birds and of the various kinds of beasts, and of all the various kinds of ground reptiles, two of each shall come in to you to be kept alive. And on your part get yourself some of every kind of food that is eaten, and stow it with you, so as to have it for your eating and for theirs."

22 And Noah did it: just as God had ordered him, so he did.

1 And Jehovah said to Noah "Go into the box, you and all your 2 family; for you I see to be an upright man before me in this genera-3 tion. Of every clean beast you shall take seven mated pairs, and of 4 every beast that is not clean two, a mated pair; also of the birds of 5 the air seven each, male and female,—to keep alive the breed all 6 over the earth. For in seven days more I am going to have it rain on 7 the earth forty days and nights, and I will obliterate off the soil all 8 the beings I have made." And Noah did just as God had ordered him.

6 And when Noah was six hundred years old, came the deluge 7 (water) over the earth; and Noah, and his sons and his wife and his 8 sons' wives with him, went into the box for fear of the water of the 9 deluge. Of clean beasts and of beasts not clean, and of birds and of 10 everything that creeps on the ground, two of each came into the box 11 to Noah, a male and a female, as Jehovah had ordered Noah. And 12 with the seven days came the water of the deluge over the earth. In 13 the year six hundred of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on this day all the water-holes leading from the great deep split wide, and the hatches of the sky were opened, and there was a rain on the earth for forty days and nights.
On this very day Noah went in, and Noah's sons Shem, Ham, and Jepheth, and Noah's wife and his sons' three wives with them, into 14 the box, they and all the various kinds of beasts and of cattle, and all the various kinds of reptiles that creep on the earth, and all the various kinds of flying creatures, every bird, everything with wings: 15 they went into the box to Noah, two each of every kind of flesh that 16 had the breath of life in it, and those that went in went in a male and a female of every kind of flesh, as God had ordered him; and God shut the door on him.

17 And the deluge was over the earth forty days; and the water 18 increased and lifted up the box, and it rose off the earth; and the water swelled and increased greatly over the earth, and the box went 19 on the surface of the water. And the water swelled very high over the earth, and all the high mountains under the sky were covered; 20 four fathoms above them the water swelled, and the mountains were 21 covered. And every kind of flesh that crept on the earth perished, bird and cattle and wild beast and all creatures that swarm over the earth, 22 and all mankind; of all things on the solid ground, everything that 23 had the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils died. And all beings all over the soil were obliterated, from men to cattle, reptiles, and birds of the air; they were obliterated from the earth, and only Noah 24 and those who were in the box with him remained. And the water swelled over the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

1 And God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were in the box with him; and God sent a wind across the earth, 2 and the water was checked; and the water-holes leading from the deep and the hatches of the sky were blocked, and the rain was shut off 3 from the sky. And the water gradually drew back off the earth; and 4 at the end of a hundred and fifty days the water grew shallow, and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the box 5 rested on the mountains of Armenia. And the water grew shallower and shallower till the tenth month; in the tenth, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains were visible.

6 And at the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the box 7 he had made and let out the raven, and it went out and back and 8 forth till the water dried off from the earth. And he let the pigeon 9 loose to see if the water over the soil had lessened; and the pigeon found no resting-place for its foot, and came back to the box to him, because there was water all over the earth; and he put out his hand 10 and took it and drew it into the box to him. And he waited again, a 11 week, and let the pigeon out of the box once more; and the pigeon came to him at evening, and had a fresh olive-leaf in its bill; and 12 Noah knew the water over the ground had lessened. And he waited again, a week, and let the pigeon out, and the pigeon never came back to him again.

13 And in the year six hundred and one, in the first month, on the first of the month, the water had left the earth dry, and Noah took off the cover of the box and looked, and found the surface of the 14 soil was dry; and in the second month, on the twenty-seventh of the 15 16 month, the earth had dried out, and God told Noah "Come out of the box, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you.
 17 All the animals you have with you of every kind of flesh, bird and beast and every reptile that creeps on the earth, bring out with you, and they shall swarm about the earth and breed and multiply on the 18 earth." And Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' 19 wives with him; and all the wild beasts, and all the cattle, and all the birds, and all the reptiles that creep on the earth, went out of the box tribe by tribe.

20 And Noah built an altar to Jehovah, and took some of all clean cattle and of all clean birds and offered burnt-offerings to Jehovah.
 21 And Jehovah smelled the genial odor; and Jehovah said to himself
 "I will never again curse the soil on man's account because the drift of man's mind is bad from his childhood up; and I will never again 22 smite every living thing as I did. As long as the earth lasts, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day

1 and night, shall never cease." And God blessed Noah and his sons, 2 and said to them "Breed and multiply, and fill the earth; and fear of you, and daunting before you, shall be on all the beasts of the earth and on all the birds of the air and on everything that creeps on the ground and on all the fishes of the sea: into your hands I 3 have given them. All the animals shall be yours for food like the 4 green herbage; I have given you everything; only that you shall 5 not eat flesh with its life, its blood, and only that for your own lifeblood I will call all to account: I will call every beast to account, and men, as to each other, I will call to account for human life.
 6 He who sheds man's blood shall have his blood shed for the man, 7 because in his image God made man. And for your part breed and multiply, and swarm on earth and increase there."

8 9 And God said to Noah, and to his sons with him, "And I for my part establish my covenant with you and with your descendants after 10 you, and with all animate life along with you, bird and cattle and every wild beast you have with you of all that have come out of the 11 box, every beast of the earth: I establish my covenant with you, and all flesh shall not again be exterminated by the water of the deluge, nor shall there again be a deluge to make away with the earth."

12 And God said "This is the token I am giving of the covenant between me and you and all the animal life you have with you, to the 13 remotest generation: I have put my bow in the clouds, and it shall 14 be the token of a covenant between me and the earth; and when I

15 gather clouds over the earth, the bow will show in the clouds, and I will remember my covenant between myself and you and all animal life in every kind of flesh, and the water shall not again become a 16 deluge to make away with every kind of flesh. And the bow shall be in the clouds, and I shall see it to remember a perpetual covenant 17 between God and all animal life in every kind of flesh on earth." And God said to Noah "This is the token of the covenant I have established between myself and every kind of flesh on earth."

18 And Noah's sons who came out of the box were Shem and Ham and 19 Jepheth, Ham being the father of Canaan. These three were Noah's sons; and from these all the earth scattered out.

20 21 And Farmer Noah planted the first vineyard, and drank some of 22 the wine and got drunk, and exposed his person inside his tent. And Ham, Canaan's father, saw his father's nakedness, and told his two 23 brothers outside. And Shem and Jepheth took the blanket on their shoulders and went backward and covered their father's nakedness, with their faces backward and not seeing their father's nakedness.
24 And Noah sobered up and found out what his youngest son had done 25 to him, and said "Cursed be Canaan: he shall be slave of slaves to 26 his brothers." And he said "Blessed be Shem's God Jehovah, and be 27 Canaan slave to him. God widen Jepheth and take up his abode in Shem's tents, and be Canaan slave to him."

28 And after the deluge Noah lived three hundred and fifty years; 29 and all Noah's life was nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

1 And this is the line of Noah's sons Shem, Ham, and Jepheth: they had sons born to them after the deluge.

2 Jepheth's sons were Gomer and Magog and Media and Greece and 3 Tubal and Moshe and Tyrrhenia; and Gomer's were Ashkenaz and 4 Riphath and Togarmah; and Greece's were Sicily and Spain, Cyprus 5 and Rhodes; from these the colonies on the foreign coasts branched off. These are the sons of Jepheth in their countries, by their several languages, by their clans, in their nationalities.

6 7 Ham's sons were Nubia and Egypt and Put and Canaan; and Nubia's were Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Ragmah and Sab-8 tekah; and Ragmah's were Sheba and Dedan. And Nubia had a son 9 Nimrod: he was the first to become a potentate on earth. He became a champion hunter before Jehovah; hence they say "Like Nimrod, a 10 champion hunter before Jehovah." And the nucleus of his empire was Babylon and Erec and Accad and Calneh, in the country of 11 Shinear. From that country he went out to Assyria and built Nineveh 12 and Rehoboth-'Ir and Calah and Resen between Nineveh and Calah; 13 that is the Great City. And Egypt had sons, the Ludites and the 14 'Anamites and the Lehabites and the Naphtuhites and the Pathrusites and the Caslubites and the Caphtorites (where the Philistines came 15 16 from). And Canaan had sons, Sidon his eldest and Heth, and the 17 Jebusites and the Amorites and the Girgashites and the Hivvites 18 and the 'Arkites and the Sinites and the Arvadites and the Semarites and the Hamathites; and afterward the Canaanite clans spread out, 19 and the Canaanite territory came to be from Sidon toward Gerar as far as Ghaza, toward Sodom and Ghomorrah and Admah and Sebojim 20 as far as Lasha'. These are the sons of Ham by their clans, by their languages, in their countries, in their nationalities.

21 And Shem too had children born to him, Jepheth's elder brother, the father of all the sons of 'Eber. Shem's sons were 'Elam and As-23 syria and Arpacshad and Lud and Syria; and Syria's were 'Us and 24 Hul and Gether and Mash. And Arpacshad had a son Shelah; and 25 Shelah had a son 'Eber. And 'Eber had two sons born to him; the one's name was Peleg, because in his time the earth was divided, and 26 his brother's name was Joktan. And Joktan had sons, Almodad and 27 Sheleph and Hadramaut and Jerah and Hadoram and Uzal and 28 29 Diklah and 'Obal and Abimael and Sheba and Ophir and Havilah 30 and Jobab: all these were Joktan's sons, and their settlement was from 31 Mesha till you come to Sephar, the mountain on the east. These are the sons of Shem by their clans, by their languages, in their countries, by their nationalities.

32 These are the clans of the sons of Noah by their lines, in their nations; and from these the nations branched off after the deluge.

1 2 And all the earth had the same speech and the same words. And as they moved along in the East they found a river-bottom in the 3 country of Shinear and lived there. And they said to each other "Come on, let us make bricks and burn them hard," and had bricks 4 for stone and asphalt for mortar, and said "Come on, let us build us a city and a tower with its top in the sky and make a name for our-5 selves, for fear we should scatter all over the earth." And Jehovah came down to see the city and tower that the sons of men had been 6 building; and Jehovah said "Here they are one people and all have the same speech, and this is what they do to begin with; now nothing 7 that they design to do will be impossible to them. Come on, let us go down and mix up their speech there, so that they shall not under-8 stand each other's speech"; and Jehovah scattered them from there all 9 over the earth, and they left off building the city. For this reason it is named Babylon, because there Jehovah mixed up the speech of all the earth, and from there Jehovah scattered them all over the earth.

10 This is Shem's line. Shem, a hundred years old, begot Arpacshad 11 two years after the Deluge. And after Shem begot Arpacshad he lived five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

12 13 And Arpacshad lived sixty-five years and begot Shelah; and after Arpacshad begot Shelah he lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.

14 15 And Shelah lived thirty years and begot 'Eber; and after Shelah begot 'Eber he lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters.

16 17 And 'Eber lived thirty-four years and begot Peleg; and after 'Eber begot Peleg he lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters.

18 19 And Peleg lived thirty years and begot Reghu; and after Peleg begot Reghu he lived two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters.

20 21 And Reghu lived thirty-two years and begot Serug; and after Reghu begot Serug he lived two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters.

22 23 And Serug lived thirty years and begot Nahor; and after Serug begot Nahor he lived two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

24 25 And Nahor lived twenty-nine years and begot Terah; and after Nahor begot Terah he lived a hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 This is Terah's line. Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. And 28 Haran begot Lot; and Haran died in his native country, in Ur of the 29 Chaldeans, while his father Terah was head of the family. And Abram and Nahor married: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's was Milcah, daughter of Haran the father of 30 Milcah and of Iscah; but Sarai was barren, had no child.

31 And Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot the son of Haran and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and went out from Ur of the Chaldeans with them to go to the country of 32 Canaan; and he came to Harran and stayed there. And Terah lived to the age of two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Harran.

1 And Jehovah said to Abram "Betake yourself from your country, 2 your home, and your family, to the country I will show you, and I will make you a great nation and bless you and make your name 3 famous, and it shall be a blessing; and I will bless those who bless you, and whoever misspeaks you I will curse; and all the clans of the 4 world shall bless by you." And Abram went, as Jehovah had told him, and Lot went with him; and Abram was seventy-five years old when 5 he went out of Harran. And Abram took his wife Sarai and his nephew Lot, and all their chattels that they had accumulated and the persons that they had acquired in Harran, and they went out to go to Canaan.

6 And they came to Canaan, and Abram passed along through the country to Shekem's place, to the Oak of Moreh; and the Canaanites 7 were in the country then. And Jehovah appeared to Abram and said "To your descendants I will give this country"; and he built an 8 altar there to Jehovah who had appeared to him. And he moved on from there to the highland on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and the Ghai on the east, and built an altar 9 there to Jehovah and invoked Jehovah's name. And Abram shifted his camp further and further toward the South.

10 And there came a famine in the country; and Abram went down to Egypt to live there as an immigrant, because the famine was severe 11 in the country. And when he was just going to enter Egypt he said 12 to his wife Sarai "Here, you know you are a beauty; and when the Egyptians see you and think 'This is his wife' they will kill me and 13 keep you alive. Say you are my sister, in order that I may be well treated for your sake and may have my life preserved on your ac-14 count." And when Abram came into Egypt the Egyptians saw the 15 woman was very beautiful; and the Pharaoh's generals saw her and praised her to the Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into the Pha-16 raoh's palace; and he treated Abram well for her sake, and he got sheep and cows, a great fortune in cattle, and slaves and donkeys and camels.

17 But Jehovah struck the Pharaoh down with severe ailments, and 18 his family, for the affair with Abram's wife Sarai. And the Pharaoh summoned Abram and said "What is this you have been doing to me?
19 why did you not tell me she was your wife? why did you say 'She is my sister' and have me take her for my wife? Now here is your wife: 20 take her and go." And the Pharaoh gave men orders about him, and they saw him off, him and his wife and everything that belonged to him.

1 And Abram came up out of Egypt, he and his wife and everything 2 that belonged to him, and Lot with him, into the South; and Abram 3 was very rich in stock and silver and gold. And he went by successive stages from the South up to Bethel, to the place where his tent had 4 been to begin with, between Bethel and the Ghai, to the place of the altar he had made there at first; and there Abram invoked Jehovah's name.

5 And Lot too, who accompanied Abram, had sheep and cows and 6 tents. And the country did not support them living together, because 7 their chattels were numerous, and they could not live together. And there came disputes between the herders of Abram's stock and of Lot's; and the Canaanites and Perizzites were living in the country 8 then. And Abram said to Lot "Let us not have anything disputed between you and me, or between my herders and yours, because we 9 are brothers. You have the whole country before you—break away from me: if to the left, I will go to the right; if to the right, I will go to the left." And Lot raised his eyes and saw all the Pale of the Jordan, how it was all watered land, before Jehovah made away with Sodom and Ghomorrah, like Jehovah's garden, like Egypt, as you come to Soghar; and Lot chose all the Pale of the Jordan, and Lot moved east. So the brothers broke away from each other: Abram lived in Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the Plain and shifted his home clear to Sodom. And the men of Sodom were very wicked sinners against Jehovah.

And Jehovah said to Abram after Lot had broken away from him "Raise your eyes and see the place where you are, north and south and east and west: for all the country you see I will give to you and to your descendants forever, and will make your descendants like the dust of the earth, so that if a man can count the dust of the earth, then your descendants too shall be countable. Up, rove through the country lengthwise and crosswise: for I will give it to you." And Abram shifted his home and came and lived at the Oaks of Mamre at Hebron, and built an altar to Jehovah there.

And it befell in the days of King Amraphel of Shinear, King Arjoe of Ellasar, King Kedor-Laghomer of 'Elam, and King Tideal of Gojim, that they made war with King Bera' of Sodom, King Birsha' of Ghomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, and King Shemeber of Sebojim, and the king of Bela' (that is, Soghar). All these had formed a conspiracy about Terrace Vale, that is, the Dead Sea. Twelve years they had been subject to Kedor-Laghomer, and in the thirteenth they broke their allegiance; and in the fourteenth Kedor-Laghomer and the kings he had with him came and struck the ogres at 'Ashtart-Karnaim and the Zuzites at Ham and the Emities on the plain of Kirjathaim and the Horites on their highland Se'ir to El-Paran by the wilderness, and came back again to Judgment Spring (that is, Kadesh) and struck all the 'Amalekite countryside and also the Amorites that lived at Hasason-Tamar; and the king of Sodom and the king of Ghomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Sebojim and the king of Bela' (that is, Soghar) went out and offered battle to them in Terrace Vale—to King Kedor-Laghomer of 'Elam and King Tideal of Gojim and King Amraphel of Shinear and King Arjoe of Ellasar: four kings against the five.

And Terrace Vale had asphalt wells all through it; and Sodom and Ghomorrah were routed, and fell in there in their flight, and the remainder fled to the highlands. And they took all the chattels of Sodom and Ghomorrah, and all their food, and went. And they took Lot and his chattels, Abram's nephew, and went; he being a resident of Sodom.

And a man who got away came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was settled at the Oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol

14 and of 'Aner, all of whom were in alliance with Abram; and Abram, hearing that his brother was carried off, mustered his henchmen, the men born in his household, three hundred and eighteen of them, and 15 pursued to Dan. And he surprised them on different sides at night, he and his servants, and defeated them and pursued them to Hobah 16 north of Damascus; and he brought back all the chattels, and also brought back his brother Lot and his chattels, and also the women and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom came out to meet him after he came back from defeating Kedor-Laghomer and the kings he had with him, to 18 the Vale of Shaveh, that is, the King's Vale. And King Malkisedek of Shalem brought out bread and wine; and he was priest to God the 19 Lord Above, and he blessed him, saying "Blessed is Abram of 20 God the Lord Above, framer of sky and earth; and blessed is God the Lord Above, who delivered your foes into your hands." And he gave 21 him a tenth of everything. And the king of Sodom said to Abram 22 "Give me the persons and take the chattels for yourself." But Abram said to the king of Sodom "I lift up my hand to Jehovah, God the 23 Lord Above, framer of sky and earth, that not a thread nor a shoe-string nor anything at all of yours will I take: you shall not say 'It 24 was I who made Abram rich'; except only what the boys have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me, 'Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their share."

1 After these things Jehovah's word came to Abram in a vision "Do not be afraid, Abram: you have me as shield; your reward shall be 2 very great." And Abram said "Lord Jehovah, what will you give me, seeing I am going away childless and the heir presumptive of my house is Dammeseck Eli'ezer?"

3 And Abram said "Here you have given me no issue, and the son 4 of my household is to succeed to my possessions." But he found Jehovah's word coming to him "This man shall not succeed you; the 5 one who shall come out of your own body, he shall succeed you." And he had him go outside, and said "Look at the sky, and count up the stars if you are able to"; and he said to him "Such shall your de-6 scendants be." And he believed Jehovah, and he credited it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said to him "I am Jehovah, who brought you out of Ur of 8 the Chaldeans to give you this country to possess." And he said "Lord Jehovah, by what shall I know that I am to possess it?" And he said 9 to him "Get me a three-year-old heifer and a three-year-old she-goat 10 and a turtledove and a squab." And he got all these, and clove them through the middle and put each cleft opposite its mate, but did not 11 cleave the birds; and the vultures came down on the carcasses and 12 Abram shooed them off. And when the sun was about to set Abram fell into a trance and felt a terror, a great darkness falling upon him; 13 and he said to Abram "You shall know that your descendants will be immigrants in a country not their own, and be enslaved to them, and 14 they will be wearing them down, four hundred years; but, withal, the nation they are enslaved to I will bring to justice; and after that 15 they shall go out with great chattels. But you yourself shall go to 16 your fathers untroubled; you shall be buried in good old age. And in the fourth generation they shall come back here. For the guilt of the 17 Amorites is not complete as yet." And when the sun had set and it was dark, there was a smoking firepot and a burning torch that passed between those pieces.

18 That day Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, "To your descendants I give this country, from the River of Egypt to the Great 19 River, the river Euphrates: the Cainites and the Kenizzites and the 20 21 Kadmonites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the ogres and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Girgashites and the Jebusites."

CHAPTER 16

1 And Abram's wife Sarai had never borne children to him; and she 2 had an Egyptian maid named Hagar, and Sarai said to Abram "Here Jehovah has barred me from having children: go in to my maid; perhaps I shall have a family out of her"; and Abram listened to Sarai.
3 And Abram's wife Sarai took her Egyptian maid Hagar at the end of the first ten years of Abram's living in Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram as wife.

4 And he went in to Hagar, and she became pregnant; and she saw 5 she was pregnant, and looked down on her mistress. And Sarai said to Abram "May you answer for the outrage I suffer: I gave my maid to lie in your bosom, and she sees she is pregnant and looks down on 6 me; Jehovah give judgment between you and me." And Abram said to Sarai "Your maid is at your disposal: do as you think best with her"; and Sarai gave her hard treatment to tame her, and she ran away from her.

7 And the Angel of Jehovah found her by a spring in the wilderness, 8 the spring on the road to Shur, and said "Hagar, maid of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?" And she said 9 "I am running away from my mistress Sarai." And the Angel of Jehovah said to her "Go back to your mistress and tame yourself 10 under her hands." And the Angel of Jehovah said to her "I will multiply your descendants, and they shall be too numerous to be 11 counted." And the Angel of Jehovah said to her "You are pregnant and will have a son, and you shall name him Ishma'el, because 12 Jehovah has heard your wretchedness; and he will be a wild-ass man, his hand against everybody and everybody's hand against him, and will live front to front with all his brothers."

13 And she named the Jehovah who talked to her El-Roi, "God of

- 14 Seeing," because she said "Have I even seen God and lived after my seeing?" That is why they call the well Beer-Lahai-Roi; it is to be found between Kadesh and Bered.
- 15 And Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram named his son born of 16 Hagar "Ishma'el," "God-will-hear." And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishma'el to Abram.

- 1 And when Abram was ninety-nine years old Jehovah appeared to Abram and said to him "I am El Shaddai: walk before me and be 2 conscientious, and I will institute my covenant between me and you, and multiply you very greatly."
- 3 And Abram threw himself down on his face; and God spoke with 4 him, saying "There, my covenant shall be with you and you shall be 5 father of a host of nations. And you shall no longer be named Abram:
your name shall be Abraham, because I have destined you for father 6 of a host of nations, and I will make you very prolific indeed and 7 make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. And I will establish my covenant between myself and you and your descendants after you, generation after generation, as a perpetual covenant, to let 8 you and your descendants after you have me for your God. And I will give to you and your descendants after you as a perpetual holding the country in which your immigrant life has been spent, all Canaan; and they shall have me for their God."
- 9 And God said to Abraham "And you for your part shall keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you, generation after 10 generation. This is my covenant that you are to keep between me and you and your descendants after you, that every male of yours be 11 circumcised: you shall have the flesh of your foreskin circumcised, 12 and it shall be the token of a covenant between me and you; every male of yours shall be circumcised at a week old, generation after generation. Anyone born in the house or bought with money, of all 13 foreigners who are not of your blood, shall be circumcised: anyone born in your house or bought with your money. And you shall have 14 my covenant in your flesh as a perpetual covenant. And a foreskinned male who does not circumcise the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his kinsfolk: he has broken my covenant."
- 15 And God said to Abraham "Your wife Sarai shall no longer be 16 named Sarai, for her name is Sarah. And I will bless her, and give you a son from her too, and I will bless her and she shall become 17 nations: there shall be kings out of her." And Abraham threw himself down on his face and laughed, and said to himself "Will a man a hundred years old have a child born to him? or will Sarah, ninety 18 years old, bear a child?" and Abraham said to God "If only by your 19 favor Ishma'el might live!" And God said "Nay, your wife Sarah is to bear you a son, and you shall name him Isaac; and I will establish my covenant with him as a perpetual covenant for his descendants 20 after him. And as to Ishma'el I listen to you: here I bless him and will make him prolific and multiply him very greatly: twelve princes 21 he shall beget, and I will make a great nation of him. But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at 22 this season next year." And he ended talking with him.

23 And God withdrew from Abraham; and Abraham took his son Ishma'el and everybody born in his house and everybody bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that same day when God had 24 talked with him. And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he 25 had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised; and his son Ishma'el was thirteen years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised; 26 27 that same day Abraham and his son Ishma'el were circumcised, and all the men of his house, those born in the house and those bought with money, were circumcised with him.

1 And Jehovah appeared to him at the Oaks of Mamre; he was 2 sitting at the door of his tent in the hottest part of the day, and he raised his eyes and saw that three men were standing near him. And he saw them and ran from the tent door to meet them, and bent to 3 the ground to do reverence, and said "Sirs, please do not pass your 4 servant by: let a little water be brought, and wash your feet and 5 make yourselves comfortable under the tree, and I will get a bit of bread to brace you up, and afterward you shall pass on—seeing that you are passing by your servant." And they said "All right: do as you say."

6 And Abraham hastened to the tent to Sarah and said "Quick, get 7 forty quarts of farina, knead it up and make biscuits"; and Abraham ran to the cattle and took a fine tender young bull and gave it to a 8 man who made haste to prepare it; and he took clabber and milk and the bull he had prepared and put it before them, while he stood near them under the tree; and they ate.

9 And he said to him "Where is your wife Sarah?" and he said 10 "Right in the tent." And he said "I will come back to you again next year, and your wife Sarah will have a son." And Sarah was listening 11 in the tent door, it being behind him; and Abraham and Sarah were old people, far gone in years,—Sarah had ceased to have her courses 12 as a woman,—and Sarah laughed inwardly, thinking "After I am 13 worn out do I have gratification, with my lord old?" And Jehovah said to Abraham "What did Sarah laugh for, thinking 'Shall I really 14 have a child when I am old?' Is anything beyond Jehovah? at the time I set I will come back to you, next year, and Sarah will have a son." 15 And Sarah lied and said "I did not laugh," because she was afraid; but he said "No, you did laugh."

16 And the men rose and went from there and looked off toward 17 Sodom; and Abraham was going with them to see them off. And Jehovah thought "Shall I bury away from Abraham what I am doing, 18 when Abraham is to become a great and numerous nation and all the 19 nations on earth are to bless by him, because I have made him my acquaintance in order that he may command his children and his family after him and that they may keep Jehovah's path, doing what is right and lawful, that Jehovah may bring on for Abraham what he promised for him?"

20 And Jehovah said

"The outcry of Sodom and Ghomorraah, because it is great, and their sin, because it is very heavy,

21 I will go down and see;

Whether in accordance with the outcry of it that has come to me they have done the utmost, or not, I will know."

22 And the men turned round from there and went to Sodom; but 23 Jehovah still stood before Abraham. And Abraham approached and 24 said "Will you just sweep away honest man with knave? There may be fifty honest men in the city: will you just sweep away, and not 25 pardon the place on account of the fifty honest men in it? Away with the thought of your doing such a thing as this, bringing death on honest man with knave so that honest man and knave should fare alike; away with the thought; shall not the Judge of all the earth do justly?"

26 And Jehovah said "If I find at Sodom fifty honest men in the city I will pardon the whole place for their sake."

27 And Abraham answered "Here I have taken it upon me to speak 28 to my Lord when I am dust and ashes—there may be five lacking of the fifty honest men: will you make away with the whole city for five?"

And he said "I will not make away with it if I find forty-five there."

29 And he spoke to him yet again and said "There may be forty found there."

And he said "I will not, for the sake of the forty."

30 And he said "Let my Lord not be angry, and I will speak—there may be thirty found there."

And he said "I will not if I find thirty there."

31 And he said "Here I have taken it upon me to speak to my Lord—there may be twenty found there."

And he said "I will not make away with it, for the sake of the twenty."

32 And he said "Let my Lord not be angry, and I will speak just this once—there may be ten found there."

And he said "I will not make away with it, for the sake of the ten."

- 33 And Jehovah went when he had finished speaking to Abraham; and Abraham went back to his own place.

CHAPTER 19

- 1 And the two angels came into Sodom at evening; and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and stood to meet 2 them, and did reverence with his face to the ground, and said "Here, gentlemen, turn in to your servant's house for the night, and wash your feet, and the first thing in the morning you shall go on your 3 way." And they said "No, we will spend the night in the square"; but he urged them hard, and they turned off to him and came into his house, and he set out drinks for them and baked matzoth for them to eat.

- 4 They had not yet gone to bed when the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, from boy to old man, all the people indiscriminately, and called to Lot "Where are the men who went 5 into your house tonight? bring them out so we can know them." And 6 Lot went out to them at the door, and shut the door behind him, and 7 said "Do not do anything bad, brothers; here I have two daughters that have never known men, let me bring them out to you, and do with them as you think best; only do nothing to these men, seeing 8 they have come under my roof." And they said "Get out!" and said "The incomparable man came in for an immigrant and is setting up 9 for a judge—now we will do worse to you than to them!" and pressed 10 the man (Lot) hard, and came up to break the door. But the men put out their hands and drew Lot into the house where they were, 11 and shut the door, and the men at the door of the house they struck with an illusion, great and small, and they tried in vain to find the door.

- 12 And the men said to Lot "Whom else have you here? bring out of the place your sons and daughters and whomever you have in the 13 city, because we are going to make away with this place, because its outcry is great in Jehovah's face and Jehovah has sent us to make 14 away with it." And Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, those who were to marry his daughters, and said "Get right out of this place, because Jehovah is going to make away with the city"; but his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

- 15 And as the dawn came up the angels hurried Lot on, saying "Off with you, take your wife and your two daughters that you have here, 16 for fear you should be swept away for the crime of the city." But he delayed. And the men took him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, in Jehovah's mercy on him, and brought him out and 17 planted him outside the city; and when they had brought them outside they said "Escape for your life; do not look behind you, nor halt anywhere in the Pale; escape to the highland, for fear you should be swept away."

18 19 But Lot said to them "No, sirs; here you have done your servant a favor and a great act of friendship in saving my life, and I cannot escape to the highland, for fear harm should overtake me and I should die. Here this city is close by to take flight to, and it is a little bit—let me escape there, it is such a little bit, and have my life saved." And he said to him "There, I give you personal indulgence in this matter too, not overthrowing the city you speak of. Be quick, escape there, for I cannot do anything till you get there." (That is why they named the city Soghar.)

23 The sun was just out over the earth, and Lot had just got to Soghar, when Jehovah rained on Sodom and Ghomorrah sulfur and fire from Jehovah, out of the sky, and overthrew these cities and all the Pale and all the inhabitants of the cities and the growth of the soil. And Lot's wife looked away from following him, and became a pillar of salt.

27 And the first thing in the morning Abraham went to the place where he had stood face to face with Jehovah, and looked off toward Sodom and Ghomorrah and all over the country of the Pale, and saw that the smoke-cloud of the country had gone up like that of a kiln. But when God made away with the cities of the Pale, God remembered Abraham and let Lot out from the overthrow when he overthrew the cities Lot was living in.

30 And Lot went up from Soghar and lived in the highland, his two daughters accompanying him, because he was afraid to live in Soghar and he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters. And the elder daughter said to the younger "Father is old, and there is no man in the country to go in to us in the way of all the earth; come, let us give father wine and lie with him, and preserve living issue from father." And they gave their father wine that night, and the elder went in and lay with her father, who was not conscious of her lying down nor of her getting up. And the next day the elder said to the younger "Here I lay with father yesterday; let us give him wine tonight too, and you go in and lie with him, and let us preserve living issue from father." And they gave their father wine that night too, and the younger stood up and lay with him, he not being conscious of her lying down nor of her getting up. And Lot's two daughters became pregnant by their father, and the elder had a son and named him Moab—he is the father of the Moabites to this day; and the younger had a son and named him Ben-'Ammi—he is the father of the Bene-'Ammon to this day.

1 And Abraham moved his camp from there to the South country, and settled between Kadesh and Shur. And he lived in Gerar as an

2 immigrant; and Abraham said of his wife Sarah "She is my sister," and King Abimelec of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 And God came to Abimelec in a dream at night and said to him "You are a dead man on account of the woman you took when she 4 had a husband." But Abimelec had not come near her; and he said 5 "Lord, will you kill even an honest man? Did he not say to me 'She is my sister'? and so did she say 'He is my brother'; it was unintentionally and innocently that I did this." And God said to him in the 6 dream "I myself knew it was unintentionally that you did this, and I on my part held you back from sinning against me; that was why I 7 would not let you touch her. But now give the man's wife back, because he is a prophet, and he shall pray for you and you shall live; but if you do not give her back, know that you shall die, you and all who belong to you."

8 And the first thing in the morning Abimelec called all his servants and told them the whole story, and the men were very much afraid.
9 And Abimelec called Abraham and said to him "What have you been doing to us? and what wrong have I done you, that you have brought a great sin on me and my kingdom? you have treated me in an 10 unheard-of way." And Abimelec said to Abraham "Who set you to 11 doing this?" And Abraham said "Because I thought decidedly there would be no fear of God in this place, and they would kill me on 12 account of my wife. And besides, she really is my sister; she is my 13 father's daughter, only not my mother's, and she became my wife; and when God made me a wanderer away from my father's home I said to her 'This is the way you shall befriend me: in every place we come to, say 'He is my brother.''"

14 And Abimelec took sheep and cattle and slaves and gave them to 15 Abraham, and gave him back his wife Sarah. And Abimelec said "Here you have my country before you: live in the part that seems 16 best to you." And to Sarah he said "Here I have given your brother a thousand shekels of silver; here you have it for an eye-cover for 17 everyone who is with you, and with everyone you are vindicated."
18 And Abraham prayed to God, and God made Abimelec and his wife and his slave-women sound again, and they had children; for Jehovah had barred every womb in Abimelec's family by reason of Abraham's wife Sarah.

1 And Jehovah visited Sarah as he had said he would, and Jehovah 2 did to Sarah as he had promised, and she became pregnant; and Sarah bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the date Jehovah had 3 named. And Abraham named the son that was born to him, whom 4 Sarah bore to him, Isaac. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac at a 5 week old, as God had commanded him. And Abraham was a hundred 6 years old when his son Isaac was born to him; and Sarah said "God

7 has made a laugh at me: everyone who hears it will laugh at me." And she said "Who has told Abraham 'Sarah is nursing sons'? for I have borne a son to his old age."

8 And the child grew and was weaned; and Abraham gave a great 9 banquet on the day of Isaac's weaning. And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with 10 her son Isaac, and said to Abraham "Turn out this slave-woman and her son; for this slave-woman's son shall not be heir along with my 11 son Isaac." And Abraham took the matter very hard as to his son; but God said to Abraham "Do not take it hard about the boy and 12 your slave-woman: obey Sarah in everything she says to you, because it will be by Isaac that issue shall be called yours. And the slave-13 woman's son too I will make a nation, because he is of your blood." And the first thing in the morning Abraham took bread and a bag of 14 water and gave them to Hagar, and laid the child on her shoulder, and sent her off; and she went away.

15 And she lost her way in the wilderness of Beer-Sheba', and the water in the bag gave out, and she dropped the child under one of 16 the bushes, and went away and sat opposite him at the distance of an archer's range, because she thought "I do not want to look on at the child's death"; and she sat down opposite, and raised her voice and sobbed.

17 And Jehovah heard the boy's voice; and the Angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky "What is the matter, Hagar? do not be afraid, because God has heard the child's voice where he is. Stand up, take 18 up the boy, and hold on to him; for I will make him into a great nation." And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and 19 she went and filled the bag with water and gave the boy a drink. And God was with the boy, and he grew, and lived in the wilderness, and 20 became a bowman. And he settled in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got him a wife from Egypt.

22 And at that time Abimelec and his general Picol said to Abraham 23 "God is with you in everything you do; now swear to me by God that you will not plot against me nor against chick or child of mine: in the same way as I have befriended you, you shall befriend me and the 24 country you were an immigrant in." And Abraham said "I will swear." But Abraham reproached Abimelec about the well of water 25 Abimelec's servants had appropriated; and Abimelec said "I do not know who did this thing, neither had you told me, nor had I heard 26 of it except today." And Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelec, and the two made a treaty. But Abraham set seven 27 ewe lambs by themselves; and Abimelec said to Abraham "What do these seven ewe lambs you have set by themselves mean?" and he 28 said "You are to take these seven ewe lambs from me to the end that it may be an attestation that I dug this well." (That is why they call 29 the place Beer-Sheba', because the two swore there.) And they made a treaty at Beer-Sheba'; and Abimelec and his general Picol stood 33 up and went back to the Philistine country, but Abraham planted a tamarisk at Beer-Sheba' and invoked there the name of Jehovah the 34 Eternal Deity. And Abraham lived a good while as an immigrant in the Philistine country.
32

1 And after these events God put Abraham to the test, and said to 2 him "Abraham, Abraham!" and he said "Here I am." And he said
"Please take your son, your only and well-loved son Isaac, and go to the country of Morijah and offer him there as a burnt-offering on 3 one of the mountains which I will tell you of." And the first thing in the morning Abraham saddled his donkey, and took his two men with him, and his son Isaac, and split wood for a burnt-offering, and went off to the place God had told him of.

4 On the third day Abraham raised his eyes and saw the place in the 5 distance; and Abraham said to his men "Stay here with the donkey, while I and the boy go yonder and do reverence and come back to 6 you." And Abraham took the wood for the burnt-offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and took in his own hands the fire and the knife, 7 and the two went on together. And Isaac said to his father Abraham "Father!" and he said "Here I am, son"; and he said "Here are the 8 fire and the wood, but where is the sheep for a burnt-offering?" And Abraham said "Jehovah will look himself up a sheep for a burnt-offering, son"; and the two went on together.

9 And they came to the place God had told him of; and Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood, and tied up his son Isaac and 10 laid him on the altar on top of the wood, and reached out and took the knife to cut his son's throat; and God's Angel called to him out 11 of the sky "Abraham, Abraham!" and he said "Here I am." And he said "Do not lay hands on the boy nor do anything to him; for now I know you are a God-fearing man and have not kept back your son 12 from me, your only son."

13 And Abraham raised his eyes, and there he saw a single ram caught in the thicket by its horns; and he went and took the ram and 14 offered it as a burnt-offering instead of his son. And Abraham named that place Jehovah-Will-Look-Up, as it is said today "At Jehovah's mountain it will be looked out for."

15 And Jehovah's Angel called to Abraham out of the sky a second 16 time "By myself I swear, quoth Jehovah, since you have done this 17 thing and not kept back your son, your only son, that I will bless you and make your descendants numerous as the stars in the sky or as the sand on the seashore, and your descendants shall occupy their 18 enemies' gate, and all the nations on earth shall bless by your descendants, because you obeyed me."

19 And Abraham went back to his men, and they rose and went on together to Beer-Sheba'; and Abraham remained at Beer-Sheba'.

20 And after these events Abraham was told "Here has Milcah too 21 borne children to your brother Nahor: 'Us the eldest and his brother 22 Buz, and Kemuel (the father of Syria) and Kesed and Hazo and 23 Pildash and Idlaph and Bethuel. (And Bethuel became the father of Rebekah.) These eight Milcah bore to Abraham's brother Nahor; 24 and his concubine too, whose name was Reumah, bore him Tebah and Gaham and Tahash and Ma'acah.

1 And Sarah lived to the age of a hundred and twenty-seven years, 2 and died at Kirjath-Arbogh (that is, Hebron) in the Canaanite country. And Abraham went in to bewail Sarah and to weep over her;
3 and Abraham stood up from bending over his dead and spoke to the 4 sons of Heth, saying "I am an immigrant alien among you: give me a graveyard property, so that I may bury away my dead."

5 6 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham "O listen, sir: you are a worshipful prince among us: bury your dead in the pick of our burial-places; not a man of us will shut his burial-place against your burying your dead."

7 And Abraham stood up and did reverence to the people of the 8 country, and the sons of Heth, and spoke with them, saying "If it is your mind that I bury away my dead, listen to me and get in touch 9 with Ghephron the son of Sohar for me, to have him give me his cave of Macpelah, in the edge of his field: let him give it to me among you 10 for cash for a graveyard property." And Ghephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; and Ghephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, all who went in at the gate of his 11 city, "O, sir, listen to me: I give you the field, and I give you the cave in it; in the sight of the sons of my people I give it to you: bury 12 your dead." And Abraham did reverence before the people of the 13 country, and addressed Ghephron in the hearing of the people of the country with the words "Only, if you consent, O listen to me: I give the money for the field; take it from me and let me bury my dead 14 15 there." And Ghephron said to Abraham "O, sir, listen to me: between you and me what is four hundred shekels of silver's worth of land? bury your dead."

16 And Abraham took Ghephron at his word and weighed out to him the silver he had mentioned in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four 17 hundred shekels of silver of traders' standard; and the title to Ghephron's field in Macpelah, on the east of Mamre, the field and the cave in it and all the trees in the field, within all its limits all around, 18 passed to Abraham in fee under the eyes of the sons of Heth, all who 19 went in at the gate of his city. And after that Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Macpelah on the east of Mamre, 30 that is, Hebron, in the country of Canaan. And the title to the field and the cave in it passed to Abraham from the sons of Heth, as a graveyard property.

1 And when Abraham was an old man, far gone in years, and Jehovah 2 had blessed Abraham in everything, Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who was in authority over everything he had, 3 "Put your hand under my thigh and let me swear you by Jehovah, God of the heavens and of the earth, that you will not marry my son to any of the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I am 4 living, but will go to my own native country and get a wife for my 5 son Isaac." And the servant said to him "The woman may not be willing to follow me to this country; am I to take your son back to the 6 country you came out from?" And Abraham said to him "See that you 7 do not. Jehovah, God of the heavens, who took me out of my family and my native country and promised me and swore to me 'To your descendants I will give this country,' he will send his Angel before 8 you, and you shall marry my son to a woman from there. And if the woman is not willing to follow you, you shall be clear of this 9 oath to me; only do not take my son back there." And the servant put his hand under his master Abraham's thigh and swore to him to this effect.

10 And the servant took ten of his master's camels and went, having with him the best of everything his master had; and he went off to 11 Nahor's city in Aram-Naharaim. And he couched the camels outside the city by the water-well at the evening hour, at the hour when 12 the women that drew the water came out; and he said "Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, make it happen right for me today, and 13 befriend my master Abraham. Here I am taking my stand by the spring, and the girls of the city are coming out to draw water; and 14 let the girl to whom I say 'Let down your jar and let me drink,' and she says 'Drink, and I will water your camels too,' be the one you have decided on for your servant Isaac, and thereby I shall know you befriend my master."

15 And before he had finished speaking there was Rebekah coming out, the daughter that Bethuel the son of Abraham's brother Nahor's 16 wife Milcah had had, with her jar on her shoulder; and she was a very handsome girl, a maiden whom no man had known. And she 17 went down to the spring and filled her jar and came up, and the servant ran to meet her and said "Let me have a swallow of water 18 out of your jar"; and she said "Drink, sir," and brought her jar right 19 down to her arm and gave him a drink. And when she had finished letting him drink she said "I will draw for your camels too till they 20 are done drinking," and poured her jar right into the watering-trough 21 and ran to the well again to draw, and drew for all his camels, while the man gazed at her waiting to find out whether Jehovah had made his errand successful or not.

22 And when the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold nose-ring that weighed a quarter of an ounce, and two bracelets for 23 her arms that weighed five ounces of gold, and said "Whose daughter are you? tell me. Is there room at your home for us to lodge for the 24 night?" And she said to him "I am daughter to Bethuel, Milcah's son 25 by Nahor." And she said to him "We have at our house plenty of both 26 straw and feed, and room for lodging too." And the man bowed down 27 and did reverence to Jehovah and said "Blessed be my master Abraham's God Jehovah who has not left off his friendship and loyalty toward my master: I am on the course, Jehovah has guided me to the home of my master's brother."

28 29 And the girl ran and told her mother's family every word. And Rebekah had a brother named Laban; and Laban ran out to the man 30 at the spring. And when he saw the nose-ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and when he heard his sister Rebekah's words "That was the way the man spoke to me," he came to the man and found 31 him standing by the camels by the spring, and said "Come in, man blessed by Jehovah; why are you standing outside when I have 32 cleared up the house and there is room for the camels?" and brought the man into the house and loosened the camels' girths and gave straw and feed for the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of 33 the men he had with him, and set out food for him to eat. But he said "I will not eat till I have told my business." And he said "Tell it."

34 35 And he said "I am Abraham's servant; and Jehovah has blessed my master greatly so that he grew wealthy, and has given him sheep and cattle and silver and gold and slaves and camels and donkeys.
36 And my master's wife Sarah bore my master a son after she had 37 grown old, and he has given him everything he had. And my master swore me to be faithful to his charge 'You shall not marry my son to any of the daughters of the Canaanites in whose country I am 38 living, but go to my family and clan and get a wife for my son.' 39 40 And I said to my master 'Maybe the woman will not follow me'; and he said to me 'Jehovah, before whom I have walked, will send his Angel with you and make your errand successful, and you shall get 41 my son a wife out of my clan and family. The condition on which you shall be immune from my curse is that you come to my clan, and if they do not give you any, you shall be immune from my 42 curse.' And I came to the spring today and said 'Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, if you are making my errand that I am going on 43 successful, here I take my stand by the spring of water; and let the lass that comes out to draw, and I say to her "Give me a little drink 44 of water out of your jar," and she says to me "Drink yourself, and I will draw for your camels too," be the wife you have decided on for 45 my master's son.' Before I had finished speaking to myself, there was Rebekah coming out with her jar on her shoulder; and she went 46 down to the spring and drew, and I said to her 'Give me a drink,' and she brought her jar right down off her shoulder and said 'Drink, 47 and I will water your camels too'; and I drank, and she watered the camels too. And I asked her 'Whose daughter are you?' and she said 48 'Daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son whom Milcah bore to him.' And I put the ring in her nose and the bracelet on her arm; and I bowed down and did reverence to Jehovah and blessed my master Abraham's 49 God Jehovah who had guided me on the right road to get my master's brother's daughter for his son. And now, if you befriend my master loyally, tell me; and if not, tell me and I will turn to the right or

50 And Laban and Bethuel answered "The thing comes from Jehovah; 51 we have nothing to say about it. Here you have Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be wife to your master's son as Jehovah says."

52 And when Abraham's servant heard these words he bent to the 53 ground to do reverence to Jehovah. And the servant brought out articles of silver and gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah; and he gave rich objects to her brother and her mother.

54 And he and the men he had with him ate and drank and lodged for the night, and rose in the morning, and he said "Send me off to 55 my master." And her brother and mother said "Let the girl stay with 56 us a few days, ten or so; afterward she shall go"; but he said to them "Do not delay me when Jehovah has made my errand successful; 57 send me off to go to my master." And they said "Let the girl be called 58 and let us ask her voice"; and they called Rebekah and said to her 59 "Will you go with this man?" and she said "Yes." And they sent off their sister Rebekah, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his 60 men, and blessed Rebekah and said to her "Sister, grow to millions, and may your descendants occupy the gate of those who hate them." 61 And Rebekah and her maids set out, riding on the camels, and followed the man.

62 And the servant took Rebekah and went. And Isaac had gone into the wilderness of Beer-Lahai-Roi (his residence being in the South 63 country); and Isaac went out for a stroll on the range as evening drew on, and he raised his eyes and saw there were camels coming.
64 And Rebekah raised her eyes and saw Isaac; and she dropped down 65 from the camel and said to the servant "Who is yonder man walking out on the range to meet us?" and the servant said "That is my 66 master," and she took a muffler and covered herself. And the servant 67 recounted to Isaac all the things he had done, and Isaac had her go into the tent; and he took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her, and Isaac recovered his spirits after his mother.

1 2 And Abraham took one more wife, whose name was Keturah; and she bore him Zimran and Jokshan and Medan and Midian and Ishbak
3 and Shuah. And Jokshan had sons Sheba and Dedan; and Dedan's 4 sons were the Asshurites and the Letushites and the Leummites. And Midian's sons were Ghephah and Ghepher and Hanoc and Abida' and Elda'ah. All these were Keturah's sons.

5 6 And Abraham gave everything he had to Isaac; but to Abraham's sons by concubines Abraham gave gifts and sent them off out of his son Isaac's way, while he was still alive, eastward into the East Country.

7 And this is the age Abraham lived to: a hundred and seventy-five 8 years. And Abraham breathed his last and died with good white hair, old and satisfied to live no more; and he was gathered to his kinsfolk, 9 and his sons Isaac and Ishma'el buried him in the cave of Macpelah, in Ghephron the son of Sohar the Hittite's field on the east of Mamre, 10 the field Abraham had bought from the sons of Heth: there Abraham was buried, and his wife Sarah.

11 And after Abraham's death God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac lived near Beer-Lahai-Roi.

12 And this is the line of Abraham's son Ishma'el, the one whom 13 Sarah's Egyptian maid Hagar bore to Abraham: these are the names of Ishma'el's sons, named line by line: Ishma'el's firstborn Nebajoth, 14 and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, and Mishma', and Dunah, and 15 16 Massa, Hadad and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These are Ishma'el's sons, and these their names, by their villages and their 17 encampments, twelve princes of their septs. (And this is the time that Ishma'el lived: a hundred and thirty-seven years. And he 18 breathed his last and died and was gathered to his kinsfolk.) And they lived from Havilah to Shur along the front of Egypt as you come to Asshur; he had fallen front to front with all his brothers.

19 And this is the line of Abraham's son Isaac: Abraham begot Isaac, 20 and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian, sister of Laban the Syrian, from Paddan-Aram. And Isaac invoked Jehovah with regard to his wife, because 21 she was barren; and Jehovah let himself be invoked, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant. And the children were convulsive within 22 her, and she said "If it is this way, what am I for?" and went to inquire of Jehovah. And Jehovah said to her "You have two nations 23 in your body, and two folks shall branch apart from within you; and folk shall overmatch folk and senior be subject to junior."

24 And her time came full for giving birth, and she found she had 25 twins in her body. And the first came out red, all over like a fur 26 mantle; and they named him 'Esau. And afterward his brother came out with his hand grasping 'Esau's heel; and they named him Jacob

[that is, Catch-Heel]. And Isaac was sixty years old when she gave birth to them.

27 And the boys grew, and 'Esau turned out a skilled hunter, an out-28 door man, and Jacob a steady domestic man. And Isaac loved 'Esau, because his talk was full of hunting; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 And Jacob cooked a stew; and 'Esau came in from outdoors faint 30 with hunger. And 'Esau said to Jacob "Give me a snack of that red sauce [in Hebrew, edom adom], because I am faint." (From that they 31 named him Edom.) And Jacob said "First sell me your rights as 32 eldest son." And 'Esau said "Here I am fit to die, and what do I care 33 for rights as eldest son?" And Jacob said "First swear to me"; and 34 he swore to him, and sold his rights as eldest son to Jacob, and Jacob gave him bread and lentil stew; and he ate and drank and rose and went off. And 'Esau thought nothing of the rights as eldest son.

1 And there came a famine in the country, besides the first famine in Abraham's time; and Isaac went to Gerar to King Abimelec of 2 Philistia. And Jehovah appeared to him and said "Do not go down 3 to Egypt; live in the country I tell you to; live in an immigrant's condition in this country, and I will be with you and bless you, because to you and your descendants I will give all these countries and 4 make good the oath I swore to your father Abraham. And I will make your descendants numerous as the stars in the sky, and give your descendants all these countries, and all the nations of the earth 5 shall bless by your descendants, because Abraham obeyed me and kept 6 my charge, my commands, rules, and instructions"; and Isaac lived in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked about his wife, and he said "She is my sister," because he was afraid to say wife "for fear the men of the place should kill me on Rebekah's account because she is so handsome." But when he had been there a good while King Abimelec of 8 Philistia looked out at a window and saw that Isaac was amusing 9 himself with his wife Rebekah; and Abimelec called Isaac and said "Why, it must be she is your wife; and how was it you said 'She is my sister'?" And Isaac said to him "Because I thought I might come 10 to my death on her account." And Abimelec said "What does this mean that you have done to us? one of the people might have lain 11 with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us"; and Abimelec gave all his people the order "Whoever touches this man and his wife must die."

12 And Isaac sowed in that country, and got a hundredfold in that 13 year; and Jehovah blessed him, and the man grew wealthy, and 14 wealthier and wealthier, till he was very wealthy indeed. And he had property in flocks and herds, and a great body of slaves; and the 15 Philistines were jealous of him, and all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham the Philistines 16 choked and filled up with earth. And Abimelec said to Isaac "Go away from us, because you are too much for us."

17 And Isaac went from there and made a camp in Gerar Arroyo 18 and lived there; and Isaac dug over again the wells of water which they had dug in the time of his father Abraham and which the Philistines had choked after Abraham's death, and named them after 19 the names his father had called them by. And Isaac's servants dug 20 in the arroyo and found a flowing well there; and the Gerarite herders disputed with Isaac's herders, saying the water was theirs; and he named the well 'Esek because they had kept him in trouble.
21 And they dug another well, and they disputed over that also; and he 22 named it Sitnah [Antagonism]. And he moved on from there and dug another well, and they did not dispute over it; and he named it Rehoboth and said "Because now Jehovah has made room for us and we shall increase in the country."

23 24 And he went up from there to Beer-Sheba'; and Jehovah appeared to him that night and said "I am your father Abraham's God; do not be afraid, because I am with you and will bless you and make your 25 descendants numerous for the sake of my servant Abraham," and he built an altar there and invoked Jehovah's name, and pitched his 26 tent there, and Isaac's servants dug for a well. And Abimelec went to him from Gerar, and his friend Ahuzzath and his general Picol; 27 and Isaac said to them "How is it you have come to me, when you 28 hate me and sent me out of your company?" And they said "We have seen that Jehovah was with you, and we thought 'Let there be an adjuration between us, between us and you, and let us make a 29 treaty with you that you will do nothing bad by us, as we did not touch you and as we did nothing but good by you and sent you off 30 in peace'; you now are blessed of Jehovah." And he made a banquet 31 for them, and they ate and drank; and the first thing in the morning they swore each to each, and Isaac sent them off, and they went from 32 him in peace. And that day Isaac's servants came and reported to him as to the well they had dug, and told him "We have found water," 33 and he called it Shib'ah; that is why the name of the city is Beer-Sheba' to this day.

34 And when 'Esau was forty years old he married Jehudith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hivvite, and they were a bitter grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

1 And when Isaac was old, and his eyes had grown too dim to see, he called his eldest son, 'Esau, and said to him "Son," and he said 2 to him "Here I am." And he said "Here, I have grown old and do 3 not know what day I shall die: now pick up your things, your quiver 4 and your bow, and go out on the range and kill me some game, and make me a dainty dish such as I like and bring it to me and let me eat it, for the sake of having me feel just right for blessing you before I am dead.” And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to his son ‘Esau.

And ‘Esau went off on the range to kill game for bringing in. And Rebekah said to her son Jacob “Here, I heard your father telling your brother ‘Esau ‘Bring me some game and make me a dainty dish so I may eat it and bless you before I die.’ Now, son, obey my orders: go to the flock and get me two nice kids from there, and I will make them into a dainty dish for your father, such as he likes, and you shall take it in to your father and have him eat, for the sake of having him bless you before he dies.”

But Jacob said to his mother Rebekah “There is my brother ‘Esau a hairy man, and I am a smooth man; maybe father will feel of me and take it that I am trying a practical joke on him, and I shall bring a curse on myself and not a blessing.”

But his mother said to him “Your curse be on me, son, only obey me and go fetch me what I want.” And he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made them into a dainty dish such as his father liked; and Rebekah took her elder son ‘Esau’s best clothes, which she had with her in the house, and dressed her younger son Jacob in them, and clothed his hands and arms and the smooth of his neck with the kids’ skins, and put the dainty dish and the bread she had made in her son Jacob’s hands, and he went in to his father.

And he said “Father,” and he said “Here I am; who are you, son?” And Jacob said to his father “I am your eldest son ‘Esau; I have done as you told me; stand up and eat some of my game for the sake of feeling like blessing me.” And Isaac said to his son “How was it you found it so quick, son?” and he said “Because your God Jehovah sent it in my way.” And Isaac said to Jacob “Come here and let me feel of you, son, whether this is you, son ‘Esau, or not.” And Jacob came up to his father Isaac, and he felt of him and said “The voice is Jacob’s, but the arms are ‘Esau’s,” and did not recognize him, because his arms were like his brother ‘Esau’s, hairy; and he blessed him. And he said “This is you, son ‘Esau,” and he said “Yes.” And he said “Bring it here to me and let me eat some of your game, son, so as to feel like blessing you”; and he brought it to him and he ate, and he brought him wine and he drank. And his father Isaac said to him “Come here and kiss me, son”; and he came up and kissed him, and he smelled the scent of his clothes and blessed him and said “See, my son’s scent is like the scent of a countryside that Jehovah has blessed; and may God give you out of the dew of the sky and out of the richness of the earth, and plenty of grain and grape-juice. Let peoples be subject to you and let folk after folk do reverence to you; be master of your brothers, and let your mother’s sons do reverence to you; be your cursers cursed and your blessers blessed.”

30 And when Isaac had finished blessing his son Jacob, the next thing was that when Jacob had just gone out from his father Isaac's 31 presence his brother 'Esau came in from his hunting, and he too made a dainty dish and brought it in to his father and said to his father "Will father please sit up and eat some of his son's game for 32 the sake of feeling like blessing me?" And his father Isaac said to 33 him "Who are you?" and he said "I am your eldest son 'Esau." And Isaac was in the utmost consternation and said "Then who was it that killed game and brought it in to me and I ate of everything 34 before you had come in, and I blessed him? and blessed he is!" And when 'Esau heard his father's words he gave a very loud and bitter 35 cry and said to his father "Bless me too, father!" But he said "Your 36 brother came with trickery and got your blessing." But he said "Is it because he was named Jacob that he has jacobed me these two times? he got my seniority, and here he has got my blessing now." And he said "Have you not any blessing laid by for me?"

37 And Isaac answered 'Esau "Here I have made him master of you, and given him all his brothers for subjects, and given him support 38 in grain and grape-juice, and what am I to do then for you, son?" And 'Esau said to his father "Is that the only blessing you have? bless 39 me too, father!" and 'Esau wept aloud. And his father Isaac answered him "Here, out of the richness of the earth your home shall be, and 40 out of the dew of the sky above; and you shall live by your sword; and you shall be subject to your brother, but when you grow restless you shall tear his yoke off from your neck."

41 And 'Esau held a grudge against Jacob on account of the blessing his father had given him; and 'Esau said to himself "The time of 42 mourning for father is near, and I will kill my brother Jacob." And Rebekah was told of her son 'Esau's words; and she sent and called her younger son Jacob and said to him "Here is your brother 'Esau 43 going to satisfy his spite against you by killing you. Now obey me, 44 son, and get away to my brother Laban in Harran and stay with him 45 a few days till your brother gets over his temper—till your brother gets over being angry at you and forgets what you did to him, and I send and fetch you from there—why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?"

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac "I am sick of my life because of the Hittite girls; if Jacob marries one of the Hittite girls like these, one

- 1 of the girls of the country, what would life be worth to me?" And Isaac called Jacob and gave him a parting blessing and commands,
- 2 and said to him "You are not to marry one of the Canaanite girls; be off to Paddan-Aram, the home of your mother's father Bethuel, and marry a wife from there, a daughter of your mother's brother Laban.
- 3 And may El Shaddai bless you and make you prolific and multiply

4 you, and may you become an assembly of peoples; and may he give you Abraham's blessing, you and your descendants with you, to possess the country in which your immigrant life has been spent, 5 which God gave to Abraham." And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, brother to Rebekah the mother of Jacob and 'Esau.

6 And 'Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-Aram to marry a wife from there, when he blessed him and gave him the command "Do not marry one of the Canaanite girls," 7 and Jacob listened to his father and mother and went to Paddan-8 Aram; and 'Esau saw that his father Isaac did not like the Canaanite 9 girls, and 'Esau went to Ishma'el and married Mahalath the daughter of Ishma'el the son of Abraham, the sister of Nebajoth, besides the wives he had.

10 And Jacob went out from Beer-Sheba' and went toward Harran.
11 And he happened upon a place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place 12 and laid it for his pillow, and lay down to sleep in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, and its top 13 touched the sky, and that angels were going up and down on it; and that Jehovah stood over him and said "I am Jehovah, the God of your father Abraham and of Isaac; the land you are lying on I will 14 give to you and your descendants, and your descendants shall be like the dust on the ground, and you shall spread west and east and north and south; and all the clans of the world shall bless by you 15 and by your descendants. And I am with you and will guard you wherever you go and bring you back to this soil; for I will never 16 quit you till I have done what I promised you to." And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said "Why, Jehovah is in this place and I 17 did not know it"; and he was afraid and said "How terrible this place is! this is nothing else than God's house, and this is the gate to the skies."

18 And the first thing in the morning Jacob took the stone he had laid for his pillow and set it for an obelisk and poured oil on the top 19 of it and named that place Bethel (but the name of the city was 20 Luz originally); and Jacob made a vow, "If God shall be with me and guard me on this journey I am going on and give me food to eat 21 and clothing to wear, and I come safe back home, then I will have 22 Jehovah for my God, and this stone I have set for an obelisk shall be God's house, and everything you give me I will tithe to you."

CHAPTER 29

1 And Jacob trudged on, and came to the country of the Eastern 2 Beduins. And he saw there was a well out on the range, and that there were three flocks of sheep lying down by it, because they watered the flocks out of that well; and the stone was a great one on 3 the mouth of the well, and all the flocks would come together there and they would roll the stone off the mouth of the well and water the sheep and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

4 And Jacob said to them "Where are you from, brothers?" and 5 they said "We are from Haran." And he said to them "Do you know 6 Laban the son of Nahor?" and they said "Yes." And he said to them 7 "Is he doing well?" and they said "Yes, and there is his daughter 8 Rachel coming with the sheep." And he said "Here it is broad daylight 9 still, it is not time for the stock to come together: water the sheep 10 and go pasture"; and they said "We cannot until all the flocks come 11 together and they roll the stone off the mouth of the well and we 12 water the sheep." He was still talking with them when Rachel came 13 with the sheep that belonged to her father, because she was shepherd-14 ess; and when Jacob saw his uncle Laban's daughter Rachel and his 15 uncle Laban's sheep, Jacob went up and rolled the stone off the mouth 16 of the well and watered his uncle Laban's sheep.

11 12 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and raised his voice and wept; and Jacob 13 told Rachel he was her father's brother, because he was Rebekah's 14 son; and she ran and told her father. And when Laban heard the 15 news about his nephew Jacob he ran to meet him and hugged him 16 and kissed him and brought him to his house. And he told Laban 17 the story of all these things; and Laban said to him "Why, you are 18 my own flesh and blood!" and he stayed with him a month.

15 And Laban said to Jacob "Because you are my brother should you 16 serve me for nothing? tell me what pay you will have." And Laban 17 had two daughters, the elder named Leah and the younger named 18 Rachel; and Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was a beauty in form 19 and feature; and Jacob fell in love with Rachel, and said "I will serve 20 you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel." And Laban 21 said "It will be better for me to give her to you than to some other 22 husband; stay with me." And Jacob served seven years for Rachel 23 and it seemed a few days to him, he loved her so.

21 And Jacob said to Laban "Give me my wife, because the time is 22 up, and let me go in to her." And Laban brought together all the 23 men of the place and gave a drinking-party, and in the evening he 24 took his daughter Leah and brought her to him, and he went in to 25 her; and Laban gave her, his daughter Leah, his maid Zilpah for a 26 maid. And in the morning he found it was Leah; and he said to 27 Laban "What is this you have done to me? I served with you for 28 Rachel, didn't I? and why have you played this trick on me?" And 29 Laban said "Such a thing is never done in our place, to marry off 30 the younger before the elder. Complete this one's week and I will give 31 you that one too for the work you are to do for me seven years more." 32 And Jacob did so and completed that one's week, and he gave him 33 his daughter Rachel as wife; and Laban gave his daughter Rachel 34 his maid Bilhah for her maid. And he went in to Rachel too, and loved Rachel better than Leah, and he served with him seven years more.

- 31 And Jehovah saw that Leah was hated, and opened her womb, while 32 Rachel was barren. And Leah became pregnant and bore a son and named him Reuben, because she thought "Jehovah has raah be'onyi, looked upon my wretched state; for now my husband will love me." 33 And she became pregnant again and bore a son and thought "Because Jehovah has shama', heard, that I am hated, he has given me this 34 one too," and named him Shim'on, Simeon. And she became pregnant again and bore a son and thought "Now this time my husband will be levu, united, to me because I have borne him three sons"; con-35 sequently she named him Levi. And she became pregnant again and bore a son and thought "This time I will hodah, thank, Jehovah"; consequently she named him Jehudah, Judah. And she stopped bearing.

- 1 And Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, and was jealous of her sister and said to Jacob "Give me children or else I am a dead 2 woman." And Jacob was angry at Rachel and said "Am I to take the 3 place of God, who has refused you fruit from your body?" And she said "Here is my servant Bilhah; go in to her and let her bear chil-4 dren on my knees, and let me have a family by her"; and she gave 5 him her maid Bilhah as wife, and Jacob went in to her. And Bilhah 6 became pregnant and bore Jacob a son; and Rachel thought "God has dan, pronounced judgment, for me, and listened to my voice too 7 and given me a son," consequently she named him Dan. And Rachel's maid Bilhah became pregnant again and bore Jacob a second son; 8 and Rachel thought "I have niphtal, played, a famous naphtul, trick, on my sister, and succeeded," and named him Naphtali.
9 And Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, and she took her maid 10 Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as wife; and Leah's maid Zilpah bore 11 Jacob a son, and Leah thought "In gad, luck!" and named him Gad.
12 13 And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son; and Leah thought "In osher, good fortune, to me, because lasses will assher, congratulate me!" and named him Asher.
14 And Reuben, in the time of wheat harvest, went and found mandrake-apples out on the range, and brought them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to Leah "Give me some of your son's mandrake-15 apples." And she said to her "Is it too little that you have got my ish, husband, and are you after getting my son's mandrake-apples too?" And Rachel said "As to that, he shall lie with you tonight for 16 your son's mandrake-apples." And Jacob came in off the range at evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said to him "You are to come in to me, because I have sacar, rented, you for my son's 17 mandrake-apples"; and he lay with her that night. And Jehovah listened to Leah, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth 18 son; and Leah thought "God has given me my sacar, pay, for giving 19 my maid to my ish, husband," and named him Issacar. And Leah 20 became pregnant again and bore Jacob a sixth son; and Leah thought "God has zabad, dowered, me with a good zebed, dowry; this time my husband will zabal, reside in, me, because I have borne him six sons," 21 and named him Zebulun. And afterward she bore a daughter and named her Dinah.

22 And God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb, and she became pregnant and bore a son; and she thought 23 "God has asaph, taken off, my opprobrium," and named him Joseph, 24 thinking "Jehovah joseph, add, another son to me."

25 And when Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban "Let me 26 go to my own place and my own country: give me my wives and children that I have served you for and let me go, for you know the 27 service I have paid you." But Laban said to him "If you please, I have observed the signs, and Jehovah has blessed me on your account," 28 29 and said "Name your wages to me and I will pay." And he said to him "You know how I have served you and how your stock have 30 been with me: that what you had before me was a little, and it spread to a great deal and Jehovah blessed you behind me; and now how soon shall I be doing something for my own family?"

31 And he said "What shall I give you?" And Jacob said "You shall not give me anything if you will do this for me. I will go back to 32 pasturing your flocks, keeping them safe; I will go through all your flocks today taking out every speckled and blotched animal, and every dark animal, among the sheep, and any blotched and speckled among 33 the goats; and it shall be my pay. And my honesty shall testify against me tomorrow, when you go over my pay personally: anything that is not speckled and blotched among the goats, and dark among 34 the sheep, is stolen goods in my possession." And Laban said "That's 35 the thing: we'll have it as you say." And that day he took out the striped and blotched he-goats and all the speckled and blotched she-goats, everything that had white in it, and everything dark among 36 the sheep, and put them in the hands of his sons, and set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob.

37 And Jacob tended the rest of Laban's flocks; and Jacob took staves of fresh-cut storax and almond and plane-tree and peeled them in 38 white patches, laying bare the whiteness in the staves, and placed the peeled staves in the troughs, the watering-troughs where the sheep and goats came to drink, in front of the animals; and they were in 39 heat when they came to drink. And the animals in heat had their minds on the staves, and the animals bore striped and speckled and 40 blotched. And Jacob separated the lambs and put the animals' faces toward [here some words, of which the last should be "everything," seem to be missing] striped and everything dark among Laban's animals, and set up blocks exclusively his own and did not combine 41 them with Laban's animals. And at every time of heat of the more robust animals Jacob set the staves in the troughs under the animals' 42 eyes for their attention while they were in heat, but when the animals were feebler he did not; so it came about that the feebler were Laban's 43 and the more robust Jacob's. And the man made very great progress, and had sheep and goats in plenty and slaves and camels and donkeys.

1 And he heard the talk of Laban's sons, "Jacob has taken all father's property, and out of father's property he has made all this fortune." 2 And Jacob saw Laban's face and found he was not the same toward 3 him as he had been. And Jehovah said to Jacob "Go back to your fathers' country, your birthplace, and I will be with you."

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the flocks out on 5 the range, and said to them "I see by your father's face that he is not the same toward me as he was; but it was my father's God who 6 was with me, and you know yourselves I worked with all my might 7 for your father. And your father trifled with me and changed my wages ten ways; but God did not give him success in doing me harm.
8 If he would say 'Your pay shall be speckled ones' all the animals bore speckled, and if he would say 'Your pay shall be striped ones' all the 9 animals bore striped, and Jehovah brought off your father's stock 10 and gave it to me. And at the time the animals were in heat I raised my eyes and saw in a dream that the bucks that were covering the 11 animals were striped, speckled, and dappled. And the Angel of God 12 said to me in the dream 'Jacob,' and I said 'Here I am,' and he said 'Raise your eyes and see all the bucks that are covering the animals 13 striped, speckled, and dappled, because I have seen everything that Laban is doing to you. I am the Deity at Bethel where you anointed an obelisk, where you made a vow to me. Now up with you, go out of this country and back to your native country.'"

14 And Rachel and Leah answered him "Have we any longer a share 15 or estate in our father's house? do not we rank as strangers to him, 16 when he has sold us and then eaten up the money for us? for all the wealth God has brought off from our father belongs to us and our children. Now do just as God has told you."

17 And Jacob went to work and loaded his children and wives on the 18 camels, and drove along all his stock and all his chattels that he had accumulated, his stock of cattle that he had accumulated in Paddan-19 Aram, to go to his father Isaac in Canaan. And Laban had gone to 20 shear his sheep, and Rachel stole the teraphim her father had. And Jacob hoodwinked Laban the Syrian in that he did not tell him that 21 he was leaving the country; and he left, he and everything he had, and was up and across the River and heading for the highland of Gilead.

22 And Laban got word on the third day that Jacob had left the 23 country; and he took his brothers with him and pursued him seven 24 days' journey, and overtook him in the highland of Gilead. And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream at night and said to him "Take care that you do not talk with Jacob, good talk or bad talk."

25 And Laban caught up with Jacob; and Jacob had pitched his tent on the mountain, and Laban pitched with his brothers on Mount 26 Gilead. And Laban said to Jacob "What have you done, hoodwinking 27 me and driving my daughters off like slaves taken in war? Why did you leave the country clandestinely and keep me in the dark, and not tell me and have me send you off with merrymaking and singing, 28 with tambourine and lyre? and you have not given me a chance to kiss 29 my children; you have gone and made a fool of yourself. It is in my power to do you harm; but your father's God said to me last night 30 'Take care not to talk with Jacob, good talk or bad talk.' And then when you did go because you did yearn after your family, why did you steal my gods?"

31 And Jacob answered Laban "Because I was afraid, because I 32 thought you might kidnap your daughters away from me. Whomever you find your gods with, he shall not live; identify before our brothers what of yours is with me and take it to you"—and he did not know Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's and into the two slave-women's, and did not find anything. And he went out of 34 Leah's tent and into Rachel's; and Rachel had taken the teraphim and laid them in the camel-howdah and sat down on them, and Laban 35 rummaged the whole tent and did not find anything. And she said to her father "Do not take offense, sir, that I cannot get up on your account, because I am the way women are"; and he searched and did not find the teraphim.

36 And Jacob grew angry and upbraided Laban; and Jacob answered Laban "What is my crime, what is my wrongdoing, that you have 37 been chasing me? When you rummaged all my things, what of all your household's things did you find? lay it here before my brothers and yours, and let them give their verdict between the two of us.
38 These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and goats did 39 not miss their births and the rams of your flocks I never ate. An animal that got killed I never brought to you; I took the blame for 40 it, you came on me for it, day stealings and night stealings. I have had the drought eating me up by day and the frost by night, and 41 sleep flitting away from my eyes. This makes twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your sheep and goats, and you changed my 42 wages ten ways; if I had not had my father's God, Abraham's God and Isaac's Dread, you would have sent me away now empty-handed.
God has seen my hard lot and what came of the toil of my hands, and given his verdict last night."

43 And Laban answered Jacob "The girls are my daughters, and the children are my children, and the animals are my animals, and everything you see is mine; but what shall I do to my own daughters, to 44 these now or to their children whom they shall bear? Now come, let us give each other a pledge, you and I, and have it for a witness between us."

45 46 And Jacob took a stone and reared it as an obelisk. And Jacob said to his brothers "Pile up stones"; and they took stones and made 47 a cairn and ate there by the cairn; and Laban called it Jegar Saha-48 dutha, and Jacob called it Galeed. And Laban said "This cairn is a witness between you and me today"; that is why it is named "Galeed," 49 and "Mispah," as he said "Jehovah look out between you and me, 50 because we shall be out of each other's sight. If you ill-treat my daughters, or if you marry wives besides my daughters, there is no 51 man between us; see, God is witness between you and me." And Laban said to Jacob "Here this cairn, and here the obelisk that I 52 have set, is between you and me. This cairn is witness, and so is the obelisk, that I am never to pass this cairn toward you, nor you to 53 pass this cairn and this obelisk toward me, for harm. The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor judge between us." And Jacob 54 swore by the Dread of his father Isaac. And Jacob killed a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his brothers to a meal; and they ate a meal and spent the night on the mountain.

55 And the first thing in the morning Laban kissed his children and blessed them and went off. And Laban went back to his own place,

1 2 and Jacob went on his way; and he encountered God's angels. And Jacob, when he saw them, said "This is God's camp," and named the place Mahanaim.

3 And Jacob sent messengers ahead to his brother 'Esau in the 4 country of Se'ir, the wolds of Edom, and gave them the order "You are to say to my brother 'Esau 'Says your servant Jacob, I have 5 been living with Laban and stayed on till now, and have got cattle and donkeys and sheep and goats and servants; and I have sent to 6 tell you, sir, in hope of your goodwill.'" And the messengers came back to Jacob with the word "We have been to your brother 'Esau, and he is on his way too to you, and four hundred men with him." 7 And Jacob was much afraid and distressed; and he divided his company into two camps, people and sheep and goats and cattle and 8 camels and all, and thought "If 'Esau comes to one camp and cuts it down, the remaining camp will survive."

9 And Jacob said "God of my father Abraham and my father Isaac, Jehovah, you who said to me 'Go back to your own country and 10 your birthplace and I will do well by you,' I am too insignificant for all the friendship and loyalty you have shown to your servant; for 11 I crossed this Jordan with my staff and have now come to be two camps. Deliver me out of my brother's hands, 'Esau's, for I am 12 afraid of him, that he will come and cut me down, mother with children, and you said 'I will do well by you and render your descendants like the sand of the sea, too numerous to be counted.'"

13 And he spent the night there.

And he took out of what he had brought with him a present for 14 his brother 'Esau, two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two 15 hundred ewes and twenty rams, thirty camels with sucking foals, 16 forty heifers and ten young bulls, twenty she-asses and ten jacks, and put them in the hands of his servants, each drove by itself, and said to his servants "Pass on before me, and leave a space between one 17 drove and another." And he gave the first the order "When you meet with my brother 'Esau and he asks you 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and whose are these that you have 18 before you?' say 'They are your servant Jacob's; it is a present sent 19 to my lord 'Esau; and he himself is behind us.'" And to the second too, and the third, and all who went behind the droves, he gave the order "You are to speak in this form to 'Esau when you find him, 20 and to say 'Your servant Jacob himself is behind us'"; for he thought
"I will propitiate him with the present that goes before me, and after 21 that I will face him; perhaps he will favor me." And the present 22 went over in front, and he spent that night in the camp. And he rose during that night and took his two wives and his two maids and his eleven children and crossed Jabbok Ford.

23 And he took them and sent them across the arroyo, and sent across 24 what he had, and Jacob was left alone. And a man wrestled with 25 him till the dawn came up; and he saw that he could not do anything with him, and he touched his groin; and Jacob's groin was sprained 26 in his wrestling with him. And he said "Let me go, because the 27 dawn has come up"; but he said "I will not unless you bless me." And 28 he said "What is your name?" and he said "Jacob." And he said "No longer Jacob shall you be named, but Israel, because you have strug-29 gled with God and with men and succeeded." And Jacob asked "Tell me your name"; but he said "What do you ask my name for?" 30 and blessed him there. And Jacob named the place Penuel, "because 31 I saw God face to face and came off with my life." And the sun rose 32 on him as he limped over Penuel on his lame thigh. This is why to this day the sons of Israel never eat the nasheh-sinew, which is over the groin, because he touched Jacob's groin on the nasheh-sinew.

CHAPTER 33

1 And Jacob raised his eyes and saw that 'Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him; and he divided the children to Leah 2 and Rachel and the two maids, and set the maids and their children first, and Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last, made a scandal in Israel, lying with Jacob's daughter, which is not done. And Hamor spoke with them, saying "My son Shekem has a fancy for your girl; give her to him as wife, and have matrimonial relations with us, give us your daughters and take ours, and you shall live with us and have the country open to you, trade in it and hold real estate in it." And Shekem said to her father and brothers "Please do it, and I will give what you say. Set the price and the gift good and high, and I will give as you say; but give me the girl for my wife."

And Jacob's sons gave Shekem and his father Hamor an insidious answer, for the reason that he had defiled their sister Dinah, and said to them "We cannot do such a thing as this, to give our sister to a man with an uncircumcised body, because that would be a slur on us. We will agree to it on this condition only, if you will be like us, having every male of yours circumcised; and we will give you our daughters and take yours, and live with you and become one people with you. But if you will not listen to us as to being circumcised we will take our girl and go."

And Hamor and Hamor's son Shekem thought well of their proposal; and the young man was not backward about doing the thing, because he had taken a fancy to Jacob's daughter, and he was the most looked up to of all his family. And Hamor and his son Shekem went into the gate of their city and talked to the men of their city, saying "These men are peaceable; let them live with us in the country and trade in it, there is plenty of room for them in the country: let us marry their daughters and give them ours. The men will agree to live with us, becoming one people with us, on this condition only, that every male of ours be circumcised the same as they are. We get their assets and effects and all their cattle, you see; only let us agree to their condition and they will live with us." And all who went out of the gate of Hamor's city listened to him and his son Shekem and had every male in their families circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

And on the third day, while they were suffering, Jacob's two sons Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and fell upon the city without fear of risk and killed every male, and killed Hamor and his son Shekem as if they were at war, and took Dinah out of Shekem's house and went out. And Jacob's sons fell upon the dead and plundered the city for having defiled their sister, took their sheep and goats and horned cattle and donkeys and what was in the city and what was out on the range, and all their wealth, and carried off as slaves all their children and women, and plundered everything indoors.

And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi "You have bred trouble for me, setting me at deadly feud with the inhabitants of the country, the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and, we being few people, they

3 and he went on before them; and he bent to the ground seven times 4 over to do reverence until he was near his brother. And 'Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and threw himself on his neck and kissed 5 him, and they wept; and he raised his eyes and saw the women and the children and said "Who are these you have here?" and he said 6 "The children God has graciously given your servant," and the maids 7 came near, they and their children, and did reverence, and Leah too and her children came near and did reverence, and afterward Joseph 8 and Rachel came near and did reverence. And he said "Who were all this camp of yours that I met with?" and he said "To have your good-9 will, sir." And 'Esau said "I have plenty; brother, keep what you 10 have"; but Jacob said "No, please do accept my present, seeing that I have seen your face, as if I were seeing God's, and you were propi-11 tious to me. Take my token of goodwill that was brought to you, because God has favored me and I have everything." And he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said "Let us be traveling: I will keep in touch with you." 13 But he said to him "You know, sir, I have on my hands the children that are weak, and the sheep and cows that have sucking young; 14 overdrive them one day and all the sheep will die. Go along before your servant, sir, and I will take it easy, stage by stage, at the pace of the stock I have before me and of the children, till I come to you 15 in Se'ir." And 'Esau said "Let me detach some of the men I have with me to accompany you"; but he said "What for? no, sir, please."

16 17 And 'Esau went back on his road to Se'ir that day; and Jacob moved on to Succoth and built himself a house, and made booths for his stock—that is why the place is named Succoth, "Booths."

18 And Jacob came peaceably to the city of Shekem in Canaan when he came from Paddan-Aram, and camped near the front of the city, 19 and bought the lot of open country where he had pitched his tent from the sons of Hamor the father of Shekem for a hundred kesitahs, 20 and set up an altar there and named it El-Elohe-Israel.

CHAPTER 34

1 And Leah's daughter Dinah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went 2 out to see the girls of the country, and Shekem the son of Hamor the Hivvite, the prince of the country, saw her and took her and lay 3 with her and deflowered her. And he was seriously taken with Jacob's daughter Dinah, and fell in love with the girl and talked to her of love.

4 And Shekem said to his father Hamor "Get me this child for my 5 wife." And Jacob heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah; but his sons were out on the range with the stock, and Jacob kept quiet 6 till they came in. And Shekem's father Hamor came out to Jacob to 7 talk with him; and Jacob's sons had come in off the range when they heard, and the men were pained and very angry because he had will get together against us and strike us down, and I and my family 31 will be rooted out." But they said "Is our sister to be treated like a prostitute?"

1 And God said to Jacob "Up with you to Bethel and live there, and make an altar there to the Deity that appeared to you when you were 2 a refugee from your brother 'Esau." And Jacob said to his family and to all who were with him "Clear away the foreign gods you have 3 among you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes, and we will be going up to Bethel and I will make an altar there to the deity that answered me in my day of distress and was with me on the 4 journey I went on." And they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had in their possession, and the earrings they had in their ears, and Jacob buried them under the terebinth near Shekem.

5 And they marched away, and a dismay from God came over the 6 cities around them and they did not pursue Jacob's sons. And Jacob came to Luz in Canaan, that is, Bethel, he and all the people he had 7 with him; and he built an altar there and called the place El-Bethel because the divinities had revealed themselves to him there when he was a refugee from his brother.

8 And Rachel's nurse Deborah died and was buried below Bethel under the Oak, and it was named Weeping Oak.

9 And God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-10 Aram, and blessed him; and God said to him "Your name is Jacob; you shall no longer be named Jacob, but your name shall be Israel," 11 and named him Israel. And God said to him "I am El Shaddai; breed and multiply: a nation and a community of nations shall come 12 from you, and kings shall spring from your body. The country I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you, and to your descen-13 dants after you I will give the country." And God went up from him 14 at the place where he had spoken with him; and Jacob set up an obelisk at the place where he had spoken with him, a stone obelisk, 15 and offered a libation on it and poured oil on it. And Jacob named the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.

16 And he marched away from Bethel; and when it was a considerable way to Ephrath, Rachel gave birth to a child. And the birth went 17 hard; and while she was making hard work of the birth the midwife 18 said to her "Do not be afraid, this too will be a son for you." And as her life was passing out (for she died) she named him Benoni; but 19 his father called him Benjamin. And Rachel died, and was buried on 20 the road to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem. And Jacob set up an obelisk over her grave, which is the Obelisk of Rachel's Grave until today.

21 And Israel moved camp and pitched his tent beyond Migdal-'Eder.
22 And while Israel was making his home in that country Reuben went and lay with his father's concubine Bilhah; and Israel heard of it.

23 And there were twelve of Jacob's sons: Leah's sons, Reuben Jacob's eldest and Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issacar and Zebulun; 24 25 Rachel's sons, Joseph and Benjamin; Rachel's maid Bilhah's sons, 26 Dan and Naphtali; Leah's maid Zilpah's sons, Gad and Asher. These are Jacob's sons, born to him in Paddan-Aram.
 27 And Jacob came to his father Isaac in Mamre at Kiriath-Arbogh (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had lived the immigrant 28 29 life. And Isaac's life was a hundred and eighty years; and Isaac breathed his last, and died and was gathered to his kinsfolk, old and satisfied to live no more; and his sons 'Esau and Jacob buried him.

1 2 And this is the line of 'Esau, that is, Edom. 'Esau married women of Canaan, 'Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite and Oholibamah 3 the daughter of Ghamah the daughter of Sibeon the Hivvite, and 4 Basemath the daughter of Ishma'el, the sister of Nebajoth. And 'Adah 5 had by 'Esau a son Eliphaz, and Basemath a son Reghuel, and Oho-libamah had sons Jeghush and Ja'lam and Korah; these were 'Esau's 6 sons who were born to him in Canaan; and 'Esau took his wives and his children and all the persons of his household, and his stock and all his cattle and all his assets that he had accumulated in Canaan, 7 and went to Se'ir to get away from his brother Jacob, because there was too much of their chattels for living together, and their adopted country was not able to support them on account of their stock; 8 and 'Esau lived in Se'ir—'Esau is Edom.

9 This is the line of 'Esau the father of Edom in the highland of 10 Se'ir. These are the names of 'Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of 'Esau's 11 wife 'Adah, Reghuel the son of 'Esau's wife Basemath,—and these were Eliphaz's sons: Teman, Omar, Sepho, and Ga'tam and Kenaz, 12 and Timna' was concubine to 'Esau's son Eliphaz and had a son 13 'Amalek by Eliphaz; these were the sons of 'Esau's wife 'Adah; and these were Reghuel's sons: Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah; 14 these were the sons of 'Esau's wife Basemath,—and these were the sons of 'Esau's wife Oholibamah the daughter of Ghanah the daughter of Sibeon: she had by 'Esau sons Jeghush and Ja'lam and Korah.

15 These are the allufs of the sons of 'Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, 'Esau's eldest: the alluf of Teman, the alluf of Omar, the alluf of 16 Sepho, the alluf of Kenaz, the alluf of Korah, the alluf of Ga'tam, the alluf of 'Amalek, these are the allufs of Eliphaz in the country 17 of Edom; these are the sons of 'Adah. And these are the sons of 'Esau's son Reghuel: the alluf of Nahath, the alluf of Zerah, the alluf of Shammah, the alluf of Mizzah, these are the allufs of Reghuel in the country of Edom; these are the sons of 'Esau's wife Basemath.

 Jeghush, the alluf of Ja'lam, the alluf of Korah, these are the allufs 19 of 'Esau's wife Oholibamah the daughter of Ghanah. These are 'Esau's sons and these their allufs; he is Edom.

20 These are the sons of Se'ir the Horite, the inhabitants of the 21 country: Lotan and Shobal and Sibeon and Ghanah and Dishon and 22 Eser and Dishan, these are the allufs of the Horites, the sons of 23 Se'ir, in the country of Edom. And Lotan's sons were Hori and 24 Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna'. And these were Shobal's 24 sons: Ghalvan and Manahath and 'Ebal, Shepho and Onam. And 25 these were Sibeon's sons: Aijah and Ghanah (this was the Ghanah 25 that found the hot springs in the wilderness while he was tending 26 the donkeys for his father Sibeon). And these were Ghanah's sons: 26 Dishon, and Ghanah's daughter Oholibamah. And these were Dishon's 27 sons: Hemdan and Eshban and Ithran and Keran. These were Eser's 28 sons: Bilhan and Za'van and 'Akan. These were Dishan's sons: 'Us 29 and Aran. These are the allufs of the Horites: the alluf of Lotan, 30 the alluf of Shobal, the alluf of Sibeon, the alluf of Ghanah, the alluf 30 of Dishon, the alluf of Eser, the alluf of Dishan; these are the allufs 30 of the Horites, alluf by alluf, in the country of Se'ir.

31 These are the kings that reigned in Edom before the sons of Israel 32 had a king reign: there reigned in Edom Bela' the son of Be'or, whose 33 capital was named Dinhabah; and Bela' died, and Jobab the son of 34 Zerah from Bosrah succeeded him; and Jobab died, and Husham from 35 the Temanite country succeeded him; and Husham died, and Hadad 36 the son of Bedad succeeded him, who defeated Midian on the wolds 36 of Moab; his capital was named Ghavith; and Hadad died, and Sam-37 lah from Masrekah succeeded him; and Samlah died, and Saul from 38 Rehoboth-hannahar succeeded him; and Saul died, and Baal-Hanan 39 the son of 'Achor succeeded him; and Baal-Hanan the son of 'Achor 39 died, and Hadar succeeded him, whose capital was named Paghu 39 and whose wife was named Mehetabel the daughter of Matred the 39 daughter of Me-Zahab.

40 And these are the names of the allufs of 'Esau clan by clan, place 40 by place, by name: the alluf of Timna', the alluf of 'Alvah, the alluf 41 of Jetheth, the alluf of Oholibamah, the alluf of Elah, the alluf of 42 Pinon, the alluf of Kenaz, the alluf of Teman, the alluf of Mibsar, 43 the alluf of Magdiel, the alluf of 'Iram; these are the allufs of Edom 43 by their domiciles in their lawful country; that is, 'Esau the father 43 of Edom.

1 And Jacob lived in Canaan, his father's adopted country.

2 This is Jacob's line. Joseph, at the age of seventeen years, was 2 helping his brothers about tending the sheep, as a boy with the sons 2 of his father's wives Bilhah and Zilpah; and Joseph tattled to his 3 father about their faults. And Israel loved Joseph most of all his 3 sons, because he was a son born in his old age; and he made him a 4 long tunic with sleeves. And his brothers saw that he was the one his father loved most of all his sons, and they hated him and could not speak a friendly word to him.

5 6 And Joseph had a dream, and told his brothers of it, and said to 7 them "Listen to this dream I had: we were binding sheaves out in the field, and my sheaf went and got up and stood erect, and yours 8 came round it and did reverence to mine." And his brothers said to him "Are you to be king over us or to govern us?" and hated him more than ever for his dreams and his talk.

9 And he dreamed another dream too, and told his brothers the story, and said to them "I have had a dream again, that the sun and 10 the moon and eleven stars were doing reverence to me." And his father rebuked him, and said to him "What sort of dream is this you have had? am I and your mother and your brothers to come doing 11 reverence to you?" And his brothers were jealous of him; but his father laid the matter up.

12 And his brothers went to pasture their father's sheep and goats at 13 Shekem. And Israel said to Joseph "Your brothers are pasturing at Shekem—come, I will send you to them"; and he said to him "All 14 right." And he said to him "Go and see how your brothers are doing and how the sheep and goats are doing, and bring me back word"; 15 and he sent him from Hebron Vale, and he came to Shekem. And a man found him, and saw he was wandering over the range; and the 16 man asked him "What are you looking for?" And he said "Looking 17 for my brothers; please tell me where they are pasturing." And the man said "They must have moved from here, because I heard them saying 'Let us go to Dothan.'" And Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan.

18 And they saw him in the distance, and before he neared them they 19 plotted to put him to death, and said to each other "Yonder comes 20 the one with the dreams; now come, let us kill him and throw him into one of the cisterns and say a beast of prey has eaten him, and see what his dreams will come to."

21 But Reuben heard it and rescued him from them, and said "Let 22 us not strike at his life." And Reuben said to them "Let us not shed blood: throw him into this cistern in the wilderness, but do not take your hands to him," in order to rescue him, to get him back to his 23 father. And when Joseph came to his brothers they stripped Joseph 24 of his tunic, the sleeved tunic that he had on, and took him and threw him into the cistern; and the cistern was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat a meal; and they raised their eyes and saw that a caravan of Ishma'elites was coming from Gilead, and camels carrying gum and balm and labdanum, taking them down to Egypt.
26 And Judah said to his brothers "What shall we have out of it when 27 we kill our brother and cover up his blood? come, let us sell him to the Ishma'elites, and not have our hands doing anything to him, because he is our brother, our own flesh and blood." And his brothers 28 listened to him. And some trading Midianites passed by, and they drew Joseph up out of the cistern, and they sold Joseph to the Ishma'elites for twenty shekels of silver, and they brought Joseph to Egypt.

29 And Reuben went back to the cistern and found there was no 30 Joseph in the cistern; and he tore his clothes and came back to his brothers and said "The lad is gone, and where am I to go?" And they 31 took Joseph's tunic and slaughtered an old goat and dipped the tunic in the blood, and sent the sleeved tunic and brought it to their father and said "We found this; decide whether it is your son's tunic or not."
32 And he recognized it and said "My son's tunic! Joseph has been taken 33 by the wild beasts!" And Jacob tore his cloak and put a sackcloth round his waist and went into mourning for his son for a long time.
34 And all his sons and all his daughters rose to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted and said "But I will go down mourning to my son in the world of the dead." And his father wept for him; 35 but the Midianites sold him in Egypt to the Pharaoh's eunuch Potiphar, captain of the guard.

1 And at that time Judah went down from his brothers' company, 2 and got to a certain 'Adullamite named Hirah. And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite named Shua', and took her and 3 went in to her, and she became pregnant and had a son, whom she 4 named 'Er; and again she became pregnant and had a son, whom 5 she named Onan; and she had one more son and named him Shelah; she was at Kezib when he was born.

6 And Judah married his eldest son 'Er to a wife named Tamar.
7 And Judah's eldest son 'Er displeased Jehovah, and Jehovah caused 8 his death. And Judah said to Onan "Go in to your brother's widow and do a brother-in-law's duty by her and set up a posterity for 9 your brother." And Onan knew the posterity would not belong to him; and if he went in to his brother's wife he wasted his germs on 10 the ground so as not to give his brother a posterity. And what Onan did displeased Jehovah, and he caused his death too. And Judah 11 said to his daughter-in-law Tamar "Stay at your father's as widow till my son Shelah grows up," because he thought "He too might die like his brothers." And Tamar went and stayed at her father's.

12 And a long time elapsed, and Shua's daughter, Judah's wife, died, and Judah got through mourning and went up to Timnah to his 13 sheepshearing, he and his associate Hirah the 'Adullamite. And Tamar was told "There your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear 14 his sheep"; and she laid off her widow's weeds and covered herself with a muffler and disguised herself and sat down in the gateway of 15 'Enan on the road to Timnah, because she saw that Shelah had grown 16 up and she had not been married to him. And Judah saw her and took her for a prostitute because she had covered her face; and he turned off to her on the way and said "Say, let me go in to you," because he did not know it was his daughter-in-law. And she said 17 "What will you give to come in to me?" and he said "I will send you a kid from the flock of goats." And she said "If you will give security 18 till you do." And he said "What is to be the security I give you?"

and she said "Your seal and your cord and the stick you have in your hand." And he gave them to her and went in to her, and she became 19 pregnant by him. And she rose and went away and laid off her muffler and put on her widow's weeds.

20 And Judah sent the kid by his 'Adullamite friend to take up the 21 security from the woman's hands; and he did not find her, and asked the men of the place "Where is that religious girl at 'Enan by the roadside?" and they said "There has not been any religious girl 22 around here." And he went back to Judah and said "I did not find her," and the men of the place too said "There has not been any re-23 ligious girl around here." And Judah said "Let her have them, for fear we should cut a bad figure: here I have sent the kid and you did not find her."

24 And after about three months Judah was told "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has been unchaste and is actually going to have an illegiti-25 mate child." And Judah said "Take her out and have her burned." When she came to be led out she sent word to her father-in-law "It is by the man these belong to that I have a child coming"; and she said 26 "Identify whose this seal and these cords and this stick are." And Judah recognized them and said "She has the right on her side, seeing I had not married her to my son Shelah," but he never knew her again.

27 And at the time for the birth she found she had twins in her body.
28 And as she was giving birth a hand showed, and the midwife tied a 29 bit of scarlet on the hand to mean "This one came out first"; but when he drew his hand back out came his brother, and she said "What a burst you made for yourself!" and he was named Peres, "Burst." 30 And afterward his brother came out, who had the scarlet on his hand, and he was named Zerah.

1 And Joseph was taken down to Egypt, and was bought by the Pharaoh's eunuch Potiphar, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, from 2 the Ishma'elites who had brought him down there. And Jehovah was with Joseph, and he became a successful man; and he was in his 3 Egyptian master's house, and his master saw that Jehovah was with 4 him and Jehovah made everything he did succeed in his hands; and Joseph found favor in his eyes and was his attendant, and he gave him charge over his house and put into his hands everything he had;

5 and from the time he gave him charge of his house, and over everything he had, Jehovah blessed the Egyptian's house on Joseph's account, and Jehovah's blessing was on everything he had in the 6 house and in the field. And he left everything he had in Joseph's hands and did not look into anything but the food he ate. And Joseph was handsome in form and feature.

7 And after these things his master's wife raised her eyes to Joseph 8 and said "Lie with me." But he refused and said to his master's wife "Here master is not looking into anything he has in the house;
9 and has put everything he has in my hands, he does not amount to more in the house than I do, and he has not held out anything from me except you, by reason that you are his wife; and how should I do 10 this great wrong and sin against God?" And while she talked to Joseph day after day he would not listen to her to lie by her to be with her.

11 And on a particular day he came into the house to do his business, and of the men of the household there was not a man there in the 12 house, and she caught him by his cloak, saying "Lie with me," and he left his cloak in her hands and ran away outside. And when she saw 13 that he had left his cloak in her hands and run away outside, she called the men of her household and said to them "Look, he has 14 brought us a Hebrew man to fool with us: he came in to me to lie with me, and I screamed; and when he heard me scream at the top 15 of my voice he left his cloak in my hands and ran away outside." And she laid his cloak down beside her till his master came into the 16 house; and she talked to him in the same way, saying "The Hebrew slave that you brought us came in to me to fool with me, but when 17 I screamed at the top of my voice he left his cloak by my side and ran away outside."

18 And when his master heard his wife's words, "Your slave did 19 like this to me," he was angry. And Joseph's master took him and put him in the roundhouse, the place where the king's prisoners were 20 imprisoned; and he was there in the roundhouse. And Jehovah was with Joseph and gave him favor in the eyes of the provost of the 21 roundhouse; and the provost of the roundhouse put into Joseph's hands all the prisoners in the roundhouse, and whatever they did was 22 his doing. The provost of the roundhouse did not look into anything in his hands, inasmuch as Jehovah was with him and Jehovah made 23 what he did succeed.

1 And after these events the king of Egypt's cupbearer and baker misconducted themselves toward their sovereign the king of Egypt; 2 and the Pharaoh was incensed at his two eunuchs, the chief cupbearer 3 and the chief baker, and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, the roundhouse, the place where Joseph was 4 imprisoned. And the captain of the guard put Joseph in charge of them, and he waited on them.

5 And they were in custody for some time; and they each had a dream, both in one night, each a dream with special meaning, the cupbearer and baker of the king of Egypt who were imprisoned in the 6 roundhouse. And in the morning Joseph went in where they were 7 and saw they were annoyed; and he asked the Pharaoh's eunuchs who were in custody in his master's house "How comes it that you are 8 downcast today?" And they said to him "We have had a dream and there is nobody to interpret it." And Joseph said to them "Interpretations are God's affair—tell me about it."

9 And the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream: "In my dream I 10 found myself with a grapevine before me, and on the vine three canes; and it seemed to be sprouting, sprang into bloom, its clusters 11 ripened grapes, and I had the Pharaoh's cup in my hand and I took the grapes and squeezed them into the Pharaoh's cup and put the 12 cup in the Pharaoh's hand." And Joseph said to him "This is the interpretation of it: the three canes mean three days; in three days 13 more the Pharaoh will take you out and reinstate you, and you will hand the Pharaoh's cup to him in accordance with your former 14 function as cupbearer. But just remember me in thought when you are well off, and befriend me, and mention me to the Pharaoh and 15 have him take me out of this house; for I was simply stolen out of the Hebrew country, and I have not done anything here either that they should have put me in the dungeon."

16 And the chief baker saw that he had given a favorable interpretation, and said to Joseph "In my dream too I found myself with 17 three baskets of white bread on my head, and in the topmost basket pastry of all kinds for the Pharaoh's eating, and the birds were eating 18 them out of the basket, off my head." And Joseph said "This is the interpretation of it: the three baskets mean three days: in three 19 days more the Pharaoh will take you out and hang you on a stake and the birds will eat your flesh off you."

20 And on the third day came the Pharaoh's birthday, and he made a banquet for all his officers; and he took the chief cupbearer and 21 the chief baker out among his officers and reinstated the chief cupbearer as cupbearer, and he handed the cup to the Pharaoh, but the 22 chief baker he hanged—as Joseph had given them the interpretation.
23 But the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

CHAPTER 41

1 And at the end of two years' time the Pharaoh dreamed that he 2 was standing by the Nile, and seven handsome plump cows came up 3 out of the Nile and grazed in the fens, and seven other cows, lean and ugly, came up out of the Nile after them and stood beside them 4 on the bank of the Nile; and the ugly lean cows ate up the seven 5 handsome plump cows, and the Pharaoh woke up. And he went to sleep and dreamed over again that seven handsome plump ears of 6 grain came out on one stalk, and seven thin ears blasted by the desert 7 wind sprouted after them; and the thin ears swallowed the plump full ears, and the Pharaoh woke up and found it was a dream.

8 And in the morning he was uncomfortable about it, and sent for all the scholars of Egypt and all the sages. And the Pharaoh told them the story of his dream, and there was nobody who would interpret it to the Pharaoh.

9 And the chief cupbearer spoke to the Pharaoh, saying "I have a 10 confession to make today. The Pharaoh was incensed at his servants and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, 11 me and the chief baker; and we had a dream, he and I in the same 12 night; we each dreamed something with a special meaning. And we had with us there a young Hebrew, a slave of the captain of the 13 guard, and we told him about it, and he interpreted to us; and as he interpreted to us, so it came out: me he reinstated and him he hanged."

14 And the Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and they took him out of the dungeon, and he shaved and changed his clothes and went in to the 15 Pharaoh. And the Pharaoh said to Joseph "I have had a dream, and I have nobody who will interpret it to me; and I have heard it said 16 of you that you understand a dream so as to interpret it." And Joseph answered the Pharaoh "Not at all; God will answer about the Pharaoh's prosperity."

17 And the Pharaoh told Joseph "In my dream I found myself 18 standing on the bank of the Nile, and seven handsome plump cows coming up out of the Nile and grazing in the fens, and seven other 19 cows, lean and very ugly and scrawny, coming up after them—I never saw their like in all Egypt for ugliness; and the ugly lean cows 20 ate up the first seven plump cows, and when they had gone into them there was no indication that they had gone into them, they were as 21 ugly as at first; and I woke up. And I saw in my dream that seven 22 handsome full ears of grain came up on one stalk, and seven thin 23 dried-up ears, blasted by the desert wind, sprouted after them; and the thin ears swallowed the seven handsome ears. And I spoke to the 24 scholars, but there was nobody who would tell me."

25 And Joseph said to the Pharaoh "The Pharaoh's dream is all one; 26 God has told the Pharaoh what he is going to do. The seven handsome cows are seven years and the seven handsome ears are seven 27 years; it is all one dream. And the seven ugly thin cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty wind-blasted 28 ears: there will be seven years of famine, this is the thing I foretell to the Pharaoh; God has let the Pharaoh see what he is going to do.

29 30 Here are seven years coming with great abundance in all Egypt; and there will appear seven years of famine after them, and all the abundance will be forgotten in Egypt, and the famine will undo all the country, and there will be no indication of the abundance because of the famine afterward, because it will be very severe. And as to the dream's coming to the Pharaoh in duplicate, it is because the thing is definitely appointed by God and God is speeding the doing of it.

"And now let the Pharaoh pick out a wise and intelligent man and set him over Egypt; let the Pharaoh appoint and empower commissioners over the country, and take a fifth of the crops of Egypt in the seven years of abundance, and let them collect all the foodstuffs of Egypt in these good years that are coming and accumulate grain under the Pharaoh's hands as food in the cities and preserve it; and the foodstuffs will be an insurance to the country for the seven years of famine which there will be in Egypt, and the country will not be wiped out by the famine."

And the Pharaoh and all his officers thought well of the proposal; and the Pharaoh said to his officers "Shall we find anybody like this, a man who has God's spirit in him?" And the Pharaoh said to Joseph "After God has made known all this to you there is nobody so wise and intelligent as you: you shall be steward of my palace, and all my people shall go by your word; only by the throne will I be greater than you." And the Pharaoh said to Joseph "See, I have put you over all Egypt." And the Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's, and dressed him in garments of lawn and laid a necklace round his neck, and had him ride in his second chariot, and they called out "Abrec" before him; so he put him over all Egypt. And the Pharaoh said to Joseph "As sure as I am Pharaoh, nobody shall lift hand or foot in Egypt without your authorization." And the Pharaoh named Joseph Saphenath-Pa'eneah and married him to Asenath the daughter of Poti-phera' the priest of On; and Joseph went out administering all Egypt. And Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.

And Joseph went out from before the Pharaoh and made a tour of all Egypt. And in the seven years of abundance the land yielded profusely, and he collected all the foodstuffs of seven years that there were in Egypt, and put foodstuffs in the cities, putting in a city the foodstuffs of the countryside surrounding it. And Joseph accumulated grain in vast quantity, like the sand on the seashore, till they left off keeping accounts because there was no counting it.

And Joseph had two sons born to him before the famine year came, sons whom Asenath the daughter of Poti-phera' the priest of On bore to him; and Joseph named the elder Manasseh "because God has made me forget all my hard life and my old home," and the second he named Ephraim "because God has let me breed in the country of my troubles."

And the seven years of abundance that there had been in Egypt

54 came to an end, and the seven years of famine began to come as Joseph had said, and there was famine in all countries, but in all 55 Egypt there was bread. And all Egypt grew hungry, and the people cried out to the Pharaoh for bread, and the Pharaoh said to all the 56 Egyptians "Go to Joseph, you are to do as he tells you." And the famine came all over the face of the earth; and Joseph opened all the places that had grain in them and sold to the Egyptians.
57 And the famine pressed hard in Egypt, and all the earth were coming to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine pressed

1 hard all over the earth. And Jacob saw that there was grain to be had in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons "Why are you looking at each 2 other?" and "Here, I have heard that there is grain to be had in Egypt: go down there and buy us some food there, so that we shall 3 remain alive and not die." And Joseph's brothers, ten of them, went 4 down to buy grain from Egypt; but Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, because he thought "He might come to harm."

5 And Israel's sons came to buy among those that were coming, 6 because the famine was in Canaan; and Joseph was the dictator of the country, the one who sold to the populace, and Joseph's brothers 7 came and did reverence to him with their faces to the ground. And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but disguised himself from them and spoke harshly to them and said "Where do you come 8 from?" and they said "From Canaan, to buy food." And Joseph 9 recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him; and Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamed of them.

And he said to them "You are spying; it was to see the vulnerable 10 points of the country that you came." And they said to him "No, sir, 11 your servants came to buy food. We are all one man's sons; we are 12 honest men; your servants have not been spying." And he said to them "No, you came to see the vulnerable points of the country." 13 And they said "Your servants are twelve brothers; we are sons of one man in Canaan; and the youngest is with our father today, and one is no longer with us."

14 15 And Joseph said to them "Just as I said, you are spies. This shall be the test for you: by the Pharaoh's life, you shall not go out from 16 here except by your youngest brother's coming here. Send one of you to fetch your brother, and the rest of you stand committed, and your words will be tested, whether there is truth in you; and if not, 17 by the Pharaoh's life you are spies"; and he clapped them into prison for three days.

18 And Joseph said to them on the third day "Do this and save your 19 lives: I am a God-fearing man. If you are honest men, let one brother of yours stand committed in your prison, and the rest of you go 20 carry grain for your starving families, and bring your brother to me, and your words will be verified and you shall not die"; and they 21 did so. And they said to each other "Well, we owed a penalty about our brother, that we saw his distress when he pleaded with us and 22 we would not listen; that is why this distress has come on us." And Reuben answered them "Didn't I say to you 'Don't do wrong by the child,' and you would not listen? and here we are being called to 23 account for his very blood." And they did not know Joseph understood, because there was the interpreter between them.

24 And he turned aside from them and wept, and came back to them and spoke to them, and took Simeon out of the group and fettered 25 him before their eyes. And Joseph gave orders and they filled their things with grain, and orders to put their money back in each man's sack and to give them provisions for the journey; and they did so 26 for them, and they loaded their grain on their donkeys and went from there.

27 And one opened his sack to give his donkey feed at their stopping-place for the night, and saw how his money was in the mouth of his 28 bag; and he said to his brothers "My money is returned, and here it is in my very bag." And they were bewildered, and said to each other in a panic "What is this God has done to us?"

29 And they came to Canaan to their father Jacob and told him all 30 the things that had happened to them, saying "The man, the master of the country, spoke harshly with us and made out that we were 31 spying the country. And we said to him 'We are honest men, we are 32 not spies; we are twelve brothers, one father's sons, and one is no longer among us, and the youngest is with our father in Canaan 33 today.' And the man, the master of the country, said to us 'This is how I shall know you are honest men: leave one of your brothers 34 with me and take what your starving families need and go, and bring your youngest brother to me so that I shall know you are not spies but honest men; I will give you your brother and you shall have freedom of trade in the country.'"

35 But as they were emptying their sacks they found that each one's bundle of money was in his sack; and they saw the bundles of money, 36 they and their father, and were afraid. And their father Jacob said to them "You have been robbing me of my children: Joseph is gone and Simeon is gone and you are going to take Benjamin—it all falls 37 on me." But Reuben said to his father "Put my two sons to death if I do not bring him to you; put him in my hands and I will get him 38 back to you." But he said "My son shall not go down with you, because his brother is dead and he is the only one left, and if he comes to harm on the errand you are going on you will make my gray head carry sorrow down to the world of the dead."

1 2 But the famine was severe in the country; and when they had finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt their father said to them "Go buy us a little food again." And Judah said to him "The man gave us fair warning 'You are not to see my face unless your brother is with you.' If you let our brother go with us we will go down and buy you food; but if you do not, we will not go down because the man said to us 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'" And Israel said "Why did you make trouble for me telling the man whether you had another brother?" And they said "The man asked about us and about our home, 'Is your father still alive?' 'Have you a brother?' and we answered him correspondingly; were we to know he would say 'Bring your brother down'?" and Judah said to his father Israel "Send the boy with me, and let us make a start and go, and keep ourselves alive and not die ourselves and you and our children. I will be responsible for him; you may demand him from my hands; if I do not bring him to you and set him before you I shall be criminal before you always. For if we had not delayed we should have been back twice already."

11 And their father Israel said to them "Well, if that is the way it is, do this: take in your packs some of the specialties of the country and carry them down to the man as a present—a little balm and a little honey, gum and labdanum, pistachio nuts and almonds—and take double money with you, and take back in your hands the money that was returned in the mouths of your bags; it may have been a mistake. And take your brother and start off and go back to the man; and may El Shaddai grant that a feeling of sympathy comes before the man's mind, and may he let your other brother go, and Benjamin; and as for me, when I am robbed of my children I am."

15 And the men took this present, and double money with them, and Benjamin, and started off and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph. And Joseph saw Benjamin with them, and said to the steward of his house "Take the men into the house and kill some meat and get things ready, because the men are to eat with me at noon"; and the man did as Joseph said, and took the men into Joseph's house. 18 And the men were afraid because they were taken into Joseph's house, and said "It is for the affair about the money that came back in our bags at first that we are being brought in, so as to spring a charge against us and fall foul of us and take us for slaves, and our donkeys." And they approached the steward of Joseph's house and spoke to him at the door of the house and said "O, sir, we did come down at first to buy food; and when we came to our stopping-place for the night we opened our bags and found everyone's money in the mouth of his bag, our silver in full weight; and we have brought it back with us, and brought down other money with us to buy food. 23 We do not know who laid our money in our bags." And he said "You are all right; do not be afraid; your God, your father's God, has given you treasure trove in your bags; your money reached me"; and he brought Simeon out to them. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water to wash their feet, and gave feed for their donkeys.

And they got the present ready for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they were to eat the meal there. And Joseph came into the house, and they brought the present they had with them into the house to him and bent to the ground to do him reverence; and he asked them how they were, and said "Is your old father of whom you spoke all right? is he still alive?" And they said "Your servant our father is all right, he is still alive"; and they bowed down and did reverence. And he raised his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said "Is this your youngest brother whom you told me of?" and he said "God be gracious to you, son." And Joseph, because his feelings were stirred and he wanted to weep, hurried into his chamber and wept there; and he washed his face and came out and repressed his feelings and said "Set on the dinner." And they set for him separately and for them separately and for the Egyptians who ate with him separately, because the Egyptians cannot eat with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. And they were seated before him the elder suitably to his seniority and the younger to his juniority; and the men were mystified and called each other's attention. And he had helpings from before him carried to them; and Benjamin's helping was five times greater than the helping of any of them. And they drank with him till the wine overcame them.

And he gave the steward of his house the order "Fill the men's bags with food, as much as they can carry, and place each one's money in the mouth of his bag. And my bowl, the silver bowl, you are to place in the mouth of the youngest one's bag, and the money for his grain." And he did according to Joseph's directions.

Daylight had come and the men had been sent off, they and their donkeys; they had got outside the city, but not far, when Joseph said to the steward of his house "Up with you, follow the men up and overtake them and say to them 'Why have you repaid a good turn with a bad one? this is what my master drinks in, and he looks in it for signs—it is a bad thing you have done.'" And he overtook them and said these things to them; but they said to him "Why should my lord use such language? away with the thought of your servants' doing such a thing. Here we brought back to you from Canaan silver that we had found in the mouths of our bags, and how should we steal silver or gold out of your master's house? The one of your servants that it is found with shall die, and we will be slaves to my 10 lord too." And he said "Now then, as you say: the one that it is 11 found with shall be slave to me, and you shall go free." And they 12 took their bags right down to the ground and each opened his bag; 13 and he searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest; and the bowl was found in Benjamin's bag. And they tore their clothes and loaded up their donkeys and went back to the city.

14 And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house; and he was still there, and they threw themselves on the ground before him.
15 And Joseph said to them "What does this piece of work you have 16 done mean? do you not know a man like me reads signs?" And Judah said "What shall we say to my lord? what language shall we use, and what defense shall we make? God has detected your servants' guilt; here we are slaves to my lord, both we and the one in whose hands 17 the bowl was found." But he said "Away with the thought of my doing this; the man in whose hands the bowl was found shall be slave to me, but as for you, go up to your father and good betide you."

18 And Judah approached him and said "O, sir, let your servant speak a word in my lord's hearing, and do not be angry at your 19 servant; for you are the same as the Pharaoh. My lord asked his 20 servants 'Have you a father or a brother?' and we said to my lord
'We have an old father and a young lad born in his father's old age;
and his brother is dead, and he is the only one left of his mother, 21 and his father loves him.' And you said to your servants 'Bring him 22 down to me and let me set my eyes on him'; and we said to my lord
'The boy cannot leave his father; let him leave his father and he 23 will die'; and you said to your servants 'Unless your youngest brother 24 comes down with you you shall not see my face again.' And when we had gone up to your servant our father and had told him my 25 26 lord's words, our father said 'Go buy us a little food again' and we said 'We cannot go down; if we have our youngest brother with us we will go down, but we should not be able to see the man's face not 27 having our youngest brother with us.' And your servant our 28 father said to us 'You know my wife bore two to me, and one of them went out from being in my company—and I said "He must have been taken by the wild beasts," and have never seen him up to 29 now. And you are going to take this one too out of my presence, and harm will come to him, and you will make my gray head carry mis-30 fortune down to the world of the dead.' And now when I come to your servant my father and do not have the boy with me, while his 31 life is tied up with his, when he sees that the boy is missing he will die, and your servants will be making your servant our father's 32 gray head carry sorrow down to the world of the dead. For your servant took the responsibility for the boy in taking him from his father, saying 'If I do not bring him to you I shall be criminal against 33 my father always.' Now let your servant stay in the boy's place as 34 slave to my lord, and let the boy go up with his brothers; for how should I go up to my father and not have the boy with me? I should see the evil that would come upon my father."

1 And Joseph could not repress his feelings before all who stood about him, and he called out "Send every man out of the way"; and no man stood with him when Joseph made himself known to his 2 brothers. And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard it, and the 3 Pharaoh's palace heard of it. And Joseph said to his brothers "I am Joseph; is father still alive?" and his brothers could not answer him, 4 because they were in consternation at finding him. And Joseph said to his brothers "Come close to me"; and they did; and he said "I am 5 your brother Joseph whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not grieve nor think it a sore subject that you sold me here, because God 6 sent me before you for a life-preserver. For the famine has been in the country these two years, and there are five years yet that there
7 shall be no plowing and harvesting; and God sent me before you to secure you a remnant in the earth and to keep you alive as a great 8 survival. So it was not you that sent me here, but God; and he has made me father of the Pharaoh and master of all his palace and ruler 9 throughout Egypt. Go right up to father and say to him 'Says your son Joseph, God has made me master of all Egypt; come down to me, 10 do not wait, and live in Goshen and be near me, you and your children and grandchildren and your sheep and goats and cattle and all 11 that belong to you, and I will support you there, because there are five years of famine yet, for fear you and your family and all that 12 belong to you should be impoverished.' Here your eyes see, and my brother Benjamin's eyes, that it is my own mouth that is speaking 13 to you, and you will tell father of all my dignity in Egypt and every-14 thing you have seen, and bring father right down here." And he threw himself on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Ben-15 jamin wept on his neck; and he kissed all his brothers and wept on them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

16 And the bruit was heard in the Pharaoh's palace, "Joseph's brothers 17 have come"; and the Pharaoh and his officers liked it. And the Pharaoh said to Joseph "Say to your brothers 'Load your beasts and go, 18 get to Canaan and take your father and your families and come to me, and I will give you the best there is in Egypt and you shall eat 19 the fat of the land.' And give them the order yourself, 'Do this way: take yourselves wagons from Egypt for your children and wives, and 20 take up your father and come; and do not grudge for your things, because the best there is in all Egypt is yours.'"

21 And Israel's sons did so; and Joseph gave them wagons by the 22 Pharaoh's direction, and gave them provisions for the road. And he gave them all a suit of clothes apiece, but to Benjamin he gave three 23 hundred shekels of silver and five suits of clothes. And to his father he sent this: ten jacks carrying Egyptian specialties and ten sheasses carrying grain and bread and provender for his father for the 24 journey. And he sent off his brothers, and they went; and he said to 25 them "Do not lose your tempers on the road." And they went up from 26 Egypt and came to their father Jacob in Canaan, and told him

"Joseph is still alive," and that he was ruler over all Egypt. And he 27 was stunned, because he did not believe them; and they repeated to him all Joseph's words that he had said to them, and he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to carry him, and their father Jacob's spirit 28 revived. And Israel said "That will do; my son Joseph is still alive; I will go and see him before I die."

CHAPTER 46

1 And Israel, with all that he had, moved and came to Beer-Sheba' 2 and offered sacrifices to his father Isaac's God. And God said to 3 Israel in night visions "Jacob, Jacob!" and he said "Here I am." And he said "I am the Deity, your father's God; do not be afraid of going down to Egypt, because I will make you into a great nation there.
4 I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will bring you up too; and Joseph shall lay his hand on your eyes."

5 And Jacob started from Beer-Sheba'; and Israel's sons carried their father Jacob and their children and their wives in the wagons 6 the Pharaoh had sent to carry him. And they took their stock, and the chattels they had acquired in Canaan, and came to Egypt, Jacob 7 and all his issue with him: his sons and his grandsons with him, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his issue he brought with 8 him to Egypt. And these are the names of Israel's sons that came to 9 Egypt, Jacob and his children. Jacob's eldest son was Reuben; and 10 Reuben's sons were Hanoc and Pallu and Hesron and Carmi. And Simeon's sons were Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jakin and 11 Sohar, and Saul the Canaanite woman's son. And Levi's sons were 12 Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And Judah's sons were 'Er and Onan and Peres and Zerah, but 'Er and Onan died in Canaan; and Peres's 13 sons were Hesron and Hamul. And Issacar's sons were Tola' and Puvah and Jashub and Shimron. And Zebulun's sons were Sered 14 and Elon and Jahleel. These were Leah's sons whom she had borne to 15 Jacob in Paddan-Aram, and her daughter Dinah; of all the persons, 16 her sons and her daughters, there were thirty-three. And Gad's sons were Siphjon and Haggi, Shuni and Esbon, 'Eri and Arodi and Areli.
17 And Asher's sons were Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beri'ah, and 18 their sister Serah; and Beri'ah's sons were Heber and Malkiel. These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Leah 19 and she had borne these to Jacob, sixteen persons. The sons of Jacob's 20 wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. And there were born to Joseph in Egypt, borne to him by Asenath the daughter of Poti-21 phera' the priest of On, Manasseh and Ephraim. And Benjamin's sons were Bela' and Beker and Ashbel, Gera and Na'aman, Ehi and 22 Rosh, Muppm and Huppm and Ard. These were Rachel's sons whom 23 she had borne to Jacob, fourteen persons in all. And Dan's sons were 24 Hushim. And Naphtali's sons were Jahseel and Guni and Jeser and 25 Shillem. These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Rachel and she had borne these to Jacob, seven persons in 26 all. Of all the persons of Jacob's that came to Egypt, the issue of his body, aside from Jacob's sons' wives, the total was sixty-six persons.

27 And Joseph's sons who had been born to him in Egypt were two persons; the total of the persons of Jacob's family that came to Egypt was seventy.

28 And he sent Judah ahead to Joseph to have him send instructions 29 to Goshen ahead of him; and they came to Goshen, and Joseph harnessed his chariot and went up to meet his father Israel in Goshen, and appeared to him and threw himself on his neck and kept weeping 30 on his neck. And Israel said to Joseph "Now let me die, now that I have seen your face and seen you are still alive."

31 And Joseph said to his brothers "I will go up and report to the Pharaoh 'My brothers and family who were in Canaan have come to 32 me; and the men are shepherds, because they have been stockmen, and they have brought their sheep and goats and everything they 33 had'; and when the Pharaoh summons you and says 'What is your 34 business?' say 'Your servants have been stockmen from our boyhood till now, both we and our fathers,' in order that you may settle in Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

1 And Joseph went in and reported to the Pharaoh "My father and brothers and their sheep and goats and cattle and everything they 2 own have come out of Canaan, and here they are in Goshen"; and from among his brothers he took five men and presented them before 3 the Pharaoh. And the Pharaoh said to his brothers "What is your business?" and they said to the Pharaoh "Your servants are shepherds, 4 both we and our fathers." And they said to the Pharaoh "We have come to live in the country as immigrants, because there is no pasture for those sheep and goats of your servants', because the famine is 5 severe in Canaan; now let your servants live in Goshen." And the Pharaoh said to Joseph "Let them live in Goshen, and if you know there are efficient men among them place them as chiefs of stock over mine."

And Jacob and his sons came to Joseph in Egypt; and the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, heard of it, and the Pharaoh said to Joseph "Your 6 father and brothers have come to you: you have Egypt before you, 7 settle your father and brothers in the best of the country." And Joseph brought his father Jacob in and introduced him before the 8 Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed the Pharaoh. And the Pharaoh said to 9 Jacob "How many years old are you?" and Jacob said to the Pharaoh

"I have lived on alien soil a hundred and thirty years; few and 10 disastrous the years of my life have been, and not equaled the years of 11 my fathers' lives in their days on alien soil." And Jacob blessed the Pharaoh and went out from before the Pharaoh. And Joseph settled his father and brothers and gave them a property in Egypt in the best of the country, in the country about Ra'meses, as the Pharaoh 12 had ordered. And Joseph supplied his father and brothers and all his father's family with bread proportionate to their children.

13 And there was no bread anywhere in the country, because the famine was very severe; and Egypt and Canaan were desperate with 14 the famine. And Joseph picked up for the grain they were buying all the money that was to be found in Egypt and in Canaan; and Joseph 15 took the money into the Pharaoh's palace. And the money in Egypt and Canaan came to an end; and all the Egyptians came to Joseph saying "Hand us out some bread: why should we die before your face 16 because the money is gone?" And Joseph said "Hand in your stock 17 and I will give you bread for your stock if the money is gone." And they brought their stock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread for their ponies and stock in sheep and cattle and their donkeys, and carried them on with bread that year for all their stock.

18 And that year came to an end, and they came to him the next year and said to him "We will not conceal from your highness that the money is gone and the stock of cattle, gone to your highness; there remains before your highness nothing save our bodies and our 19 land. Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be slaves to the Pharaoh; and give seed, and let us not die and the land be 20 desolate." And Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for the Pharaoh, because the Egyptians sold their fields because the famine was 21 pressing them hard; and the land became the Pharaoh's, and the people he reduced to serfdom from one end of Egypt to the other.
22 Only the priests' land he did not buy, because the priests had rations from the Pharaoh and ate their rations that the Pharaoh gave them; for this reason they did not sell their land.

23 And Joseph said to the people "Here I have bought you today, and your land, for the Pharaoh; here is seed for you, sow the land, 24 and in the crops you shall give a fifth to the Pharaoh and have the four fifths for seed for the fields and food for you and those who are 25 in your houses." And they said "You have saved our lives; we thank 26 your highness, and we will be slaves to the Pharaoh." And Joseph established it as a rule for all the land in Egypt to this day to give the Pharaoh a fifth; only the land of the priests alone did not become the Pharaoh's.

27 And the Israelites stayed in Egypt, in Goshen, and held real estate 28 in it, and bred and multiplied greatly. And Jacob lived seventeen years in Egypt, and Jacob's age, the years he lived, came to be a 29 hundred and forty-seven years. And Israel's time for dying drew near; and he called his son Joseph and said to him "If you have any goodwill for me, put your hand under my thigh and do kindly 30 and loyally by me: do not bury me in Egypt; I am to lie down to rest with my fathers and you are to carry me out of Egypt and bury 31 me in their grave." And he said "I will do as you say." And he said "Swear to me"; and he swore to him; and Israel did reverence on the head of his bed.

1 And after these things Joseph was told "Your father is sick"; and 2 he took with him his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim. And Jacob was informed "Here is your son Joseph coming to you"; and Israel mustered his strength and sat up in his bed.

3 And Jacob said to Joseph "El Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in 4 Canaan and blessed me, and said to me 'Here, I am causing you to breed and multiply, and will make you an assembly of peoples and give this country to your descendants after you as a perpetual prop-5 erty.' And now your two sons that were born to you in Egypt before I came to Egypt to you are mine: Ephraim and Manasseh, the same 6 as Reuben and Simeon, shall be mine. And your offspring that you have had born since then shall be yours; they shall be called 7 by their brothers' names in their tenure of estate. And I—when I was coming from Paddan my Rachel died in Canaan on the way, where it was a considerable way to Ephrath, and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath—" (that is, Bethlehem).

8 9 And Israel saw Joseph's sons and said "Who are these?" And Joseph said to his father "They are my sons whom God has given me in this country." And he said "Fetch them to me and let me bless 10 them." And Israel's eyes were decrepit with old age, he could not see; and he brought them up to him, and he kissed them and hugged 11 them. And Israel said to Joseph "To see your face was a thing I did 12 not think of, and here God has let me see your offspring too." And Joseph brought them out from his knees, and prostrated himself on 13 the ground in reverence. And Joseph took them both, Ephraim with his right hand, at Israel's left, and Manasseh with his left, at Israel's 14 right, and brought them up to him. And Israel put out his right hand and laid it on Ephraim's head, when he was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head; he laid his hands out of order, be-15 cause Manasseh was the eldest. And he blessed Joseph and said "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God 16 who has tended me ever since I existed to this day, the Angel who has seen me clear of all disaster, bless the boys; and let them be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them teem profusely in the heart of the land."

- 17 And Joseph saw that his father would lay his right hand on Ephraim's head, and did not like it; and he grasped his father's 18 hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's. And Joseph said to his father "Not like that, father, because this is the eldest; 19 lay your right hand on his head." But his father refused and said
"I know, my son, I know: he too will become a people and he too 20 will be great; but his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will be the plenitude of the nations"; and he blessed them that day in the words "By you shall Israel bless, saying 'God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh,'" and set Ephraim before Manasseh.
- 21 And Israel said to Joseph "Here I am dying, but God will be with 22 you and bring you back to your fathers' country; and I give you one shoulder above your brothers, which I took out of the hands of the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

CHAPTER 49

- 1 And Jacob summoned his sons and said "Come together and I will tell you what shall befall you in future days:
- 2 Gather and listen, sons of Jacob, and listen to your father Israel.
- 3 Reuben, you are my eldest, my strength, the firstfruit of my powers, Far forward in prestige, far forward in might—4 in water-like recklessness go not far!
For you went up on your father's bed, there you profaned the couch of joy.
- 5 Simeon and Levi are brothers, tools of outrage are their daggers.
- 6 Do not come into their circle, my soul, do not unite in their assembly, my mind, Because in their anger they killed men and in their wantonness they hamstrung oxen.
- 7 Cursed their anger, that it was strong, and their wrath, that it was cruel; I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.
- 8 Judah, you your brothers shall praise; your hand shall be on your enemies' necks, your father's sons shall do reverence to you.
- 9 Judah is a lion-cub;
from your kill, my son, you have come up;
He lies down, he makes himself comfortable, like a lion and like a lioness; who will stir him up?
- 10 Scepter shall not pass away from Judah nor chieftain's staff from between his feet

- Till He comes whose it is;
 and his shall be the obedience of the peoples.
- 11 Tying his donkey to the grapevine, his ass to the vine of Sorek grapes, He has washed his clothing in wine, his vesture in the blood of grapes,
- 12 Darker of eyes than wine, whiter of teeth than milk.
- 13 Zebulun shall live by the seabeach and become a beach for ships, with his rear reaching to Sidon.
- 14 Issacar is a big-boned donkey lying down in the fork of the paths;
- 15 And he saw rest was good and the country was attractive, And bent his shoulder to carry loads and become a slaving corvée.
- 16 Dan shall pronounce judgment for his people like any of the tribes of Israel.
- 17 Be Dan a snake by the road, a horned viper by the trail, That bites the pony's heels and his rider has fallen backward.
- 18 For your salvation, Jehovah, I have waited.
- 19 Gad raiders shall raid, but he shall raid their retreat.
- 20 Asher's bread shall be fat and he shall yield kings' luxuries.
- 21 Naphtali is a doe sent out;
 he has given goodly words.
- 22 Joseph is a young wild ass, a young wild ass by a spring, a bunch of wild asses on a rock-wall.
- 23 Archers had a spite at him and went to shooting and assailing him;
- 24 But their bowstrings were broken and their arms shook At the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, at the name of the Shepherd of Israel's Stone,
- 25 At your father's Deity; and he shall help you, El Shaddai, he shall bless you,
 With blessings of the skies above, blessings of the deep that lies prostrate beneath, blessings of breast and of womb.
- 26 Your father's blessings have outgone

- the blessings of sempiternal mountains, the cravings of perpetual hills.
Be they for Joseph's head, for his brow who among his brothers was devotee.
27 Benjamin is a wolf making its kill:
in the morning he eats prey and at evening he divides booty."
- 28 All these are the tribes of Israel, twelve of them; and this is what their father told them and blessed them, blessed them each with his appropriate blessing.
- 29 And he laid a command on them, and said to them "I am being gathered to my kinsfolk: bury me with my fathers in the cave in 30 Ghephron the Hittite's field, in the cave in the field of Macpelah in front of Mamre in Canaan, which field Abraham bought from Ghe-31 phron the Hittite for a graveyard property. There they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah, there they buried Isaac and his wife 32 Rebekah, and there I buried Leah; the fee-simple of the field and the 33 cave in it is from the sons of Heth." And Jacob finished laying his commands on his sons, and drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last and was gathered to his kinsfolk.

- 1 And Joseph threw himself on his father's face and wept over him 2 and kissed him. And Joseph gave orders to his servants the physicians 3 to embalm his father, and the physicians embalmed Israel. And he was given full forty days—for that is full time for embalming—and 4 the Egyptians wept for him seventy days. And when the days of weeping for him were past Joseph spoke to the Pharaoh's household, 5 saying "Please say before the Pharaoh, my father bound me by an oath, saying 'Here I am dying; it shall be in my grave that I dug 6 for myself in Canaan that you bury me'; now let me go up and bury 7 my father, and I will come back." And the Pharaoh said "Go up and 8 bury your father as he swore you to." And Joseph went up to bury his father, and all the Pharaoh's officers went up with him, the elders 9 of his household and all the elders of Egypt, and all Joseph's household and his brothers and the family; only their children and sheep 10 and cows they left in Goshen. And chariotry and cavalry also went up with him, so that the camp was an immense one. And they came to Thorn-Bush Threshing-Floor on the other side of the Jordan and held a great and very notable wailing there; and he made a seven 11 days' mourning for his father. And the inhabitants of the country, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at Thorn-Bush Threshing-Floor and said "This is a notable mourning of the Egyptians"; that is why 12 it is named Egypt Meadow, on the other side of the Jordan. And his 13 sons did with him as he had commanded them, and his sons carried him to Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Macpelah,

- which field Abraham bought for a graveyard-property from Ghephron the Hittite, in front of Mamre. And Joseph went back to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.
- And Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, and thought "If Joseph were holding a grudge against us, he would pay us back the mischief we did him." And they had Joseph told "Your father gave us a command before he died, 'You are to say to Joseph, Do pardon your brothers' crime and sin, that they did you a mischief.' Now pardon the crime of the worshipers of your father's God." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. And his brothers too went and threw themselves down before him and said "Now we are to be slaves to you." But Joseph said to them "Do not be afraid: am I to take the place of God? You meant mischief against me; God meant it for good, in order to do as today he has, saving the lives of a great people. Now do not be afraid; I will support you and your children"; and he comforted them and spoke lovingly to them. And Joseph lived in Egypt, he and his father's family.
- And Joseph lived a hundred and ten years; and Joseph saw grandsons of Ephraim; the children of Manasseh's son Makir too were born on Joseph's knees. And Joseph said to his brothers "I am dying; but God will visit you and bring you up out of this country to the country he swore to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob." And Joseph bound the sons of Israel by an oath, saying "God will visit you, and you shall carry my bones up from here." And Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten years; and they embalmed him, and he was laid in a mummy-case in Egypt.

1 And these are the names of Israel's sons who came into Egypt—2 came with Jacob, each bringing his family: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and 3 4 Judah; Issacar, Zebulun, and Benjamin; Dan and Naphtali; Gad 5 and Asher; and the total of the persons that had come of Jacob's 6 body was seventy persons. And Joseph was already in Egypt. And 7 Joseph and all his brothers died, and all that generation; and the sons of Israel bred and swarmed and multiplied, and grew very numerous indeed, and the country was full of them.

8 And there arose over Egypt a new king who had not known Joseph; 9 and he said to his people "Here is the people of the sons of Israel 10 greater and more numerous than we: come, let us use shrewd policy with them, for fear they should multiply and when we get into a war they should reinforce our ill-wishers and attack us and get up out of 11 the country." And he set corvée captains over them to wear them down with the loads they carried; and they built storage cities, Pithom 12 and Ra'amses, for the Pharaoh. But the more they wore them down, the more they multiplied and the more they spread; and the Egyptians 13 conceived a horror of the sons of Israel, and exploited them ruthlessly, 14 and embittered their lives with overwork on brick and mortar and all field work, all their work that they exploited them on.

15 And the king of Egypt said to the midwives who attended the Hebrew women, of whom the name of the first was Shiphrah and 16 the name of the second Pu'ah, "When you are attending the Hebrew women, see while they are on the birthstool: if it is a son have it die, 17 but if it is a daughter let it live"; but the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt told them, but spared the children's 18 lives. And the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them "How came you to do such a thing and spare the children's 19 lives?" and the midwives said to the Pharaoh "Because Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women, because they are so vigorous: before 20 the midwife gets to them they have given birth." And God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very numerous.
 21 And because the midwives had feared God he made them heads of families.

22 And the Pharaoh gave all his people the order "Every son that is born, throw it in the Nile, but save the life of every daughter."

CHAPTER 2

1 And a man of the family of Levi went and married Levi's daughter; 2 and the woman conceived and had a son, and saw it was a fine 3 one, and kept him under cover three months, but could not any longer.
 And she took a box made of papyrus stalks, and asphalted it with asphalt and pitch, and laid the child in it and laid it in the weeds 4 along the Nile; and his sister took her stand at a distance to find out 5 what would be done with him. And the Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe by the Nile, and her maids went along the Nile; and she saw the box among the weeds, and reached out her hand and took 6 it, and opened it and saw, and found it was a crying boy; and she did not want it hurt, and said "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

7 And his sister said to the Pharaoh's daughter "Shall I go and call a nursing woman for you, one of the Hebrews, to nurse the child for 8 you?" And the Pharaoh's daughter said "Go"; and the lass went and 9 called the child's mother, and the Pharaoh's daughter said to her "Take this child along and nurse him for me, and I will pay you."

10 And the woman took the child and nursed him; and the child grew big, and she brought him to the Pharaoh's daughter, and he became son to her. And she named him Moses, and said "Because I drew him out of the water."

11 And in those days Moses grew up and went out where his brothers were and saw the loads they carried; and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brothers. And he turned his head this way and that, and saw there was nobody, and he struck down the Egyptian and covered him up in the sand. And he went out the next day and found two Hebrews tussling, and said to the aggressor "What are you striking your mate for?" and he said "Who appointed you captain and judge over us? are you thinking of killing me as you did the Egyptian?" and Moses was afraid, and said "Why, the affair has become known." And the Pharaoh heard of this affair, and tried to kill Moses; and Moses left the country for fear of the Pharaoh, and settled in the country of Midian.

And he came into the country of Midian and sat down by the well.
16 And the priest of Midian had seven daughters; and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock, and the men shepherds came and drove them away; and Moses stood up and gave them help and watered their flock. And they came to their father Reghuel, and he said "How comes it you are in early today?" and they said "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds, and drew water for us too, and watered the flock." And he said to his daughters "And where is he? what did you leave the man there for? invite him to come to me and have something to eat." And Moses consented to stay with the man; and he gave his daughter Sipporah to Moses, and she had a son, whom he named Gershom, because he thought "I was an emigrant in a foreign country."

23 And during that long time the king of Egypt died; and the sons of Israel moaned at their slavery; and they cried out, and their clamor at their slavery went up to God, and God heard their groaning. And God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; 25 and God saw the sons of Israel, and God took cognizance.

1 And Moses was tending the flock for his father-in-law Priest Ithro of Midian; and he drove the flock back of the wilderness, and came 2 to God's mountain Horeb, and Jehovah's Angel appeared to him in a blaze of fire out of the middle of a bush; and he saw, there was the 3 bush burning with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And Moses thought "I must step up and see this remarkable sight, how it is that the bush does not burn up."

4 And Jehovah saw that he was stepping up to see, and God called out to him from the middle of the bush "Moses, Moses!" and he said 5 "Here I am," and he said "Do not come near here; slip your shoes off your feet, because the place you are standing on is sacred soil."

6 And he said "I am your father's God, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob." And Moses veiled his face, because he was afraid to look on God.

7 And Jehovah said "I have seen my people's wretched state in Egypt, and have heard their outcry because of their overseers; for I 8 know their pain; and I have come down to deliver them out of the Egyptians' hands and to bring them up out of that country to a broad and good country, a country that runs milk and honey, the place of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the 9 Perizzites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites. Now the outcry of the sons of Israel has come to me, and I have seen the oppression the 10 Egyptians are inflicting on them. Now come on, I will send you to the Pharaoh; and bring my people the sons of Israel out of Egypt." And 11 Moses said to God "Who am I to go to the Pharaoh and bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?" And he said "Because I am to be with 12 you; and this is the token you are to have that it was I who sent you: when you bring the people out of Egypt you shall worship God on this mountain."

13 And Moses said to God "Suppose I come to the sons of Israel and say to them 'Your fathers' God has sent me to you,' and they say 14 to me 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" And God said to Moses "I will be what I will be"; and he said "You are to say to the sons of Israel 'Will Be has sent me to you.'"

15 And God said to Moses again "You are to say to the sons of Israel 'Jehovah, your fathers' God, Abraham's God, Isaac's God, Jacob's God, has sent me to you'; this is my name forever, and this my 16 identification for generation after generation. Go bring together the elders of Israel and say to them 'Your fathers' God Jehovah has appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, with the message 17 "I have taken up your case, and what is being done to you in Egypt; and I have said I will bring you up out of Egyptian wretchedness to the country of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites, 18 to a country that runs milk and honey"; and they will listen to you. And you and the elders of Israel shall go in to the king of Egypt and say to him 'Jehovah, the Hebrews' God, has met us: now let us 19 go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to our God Jehovah.' And I know the king of Egypt will not give you a chance 20 to go without force; but I will put out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will do among them, and after that he 21 will let you go. And I will give the people favor in the Egyptians' eyes, and when you go you shall not go empty-handed, but each 22 woman shall ask her neighbor and her lodger for articles of gold and silver and clothing, and you shall put them on your children and despoil the Egyptians."

1 And Moses answered "And suppose they do not believe me nor 2 obey me, because they say 'Jehovah has not appeared to you?'" And 3 Jehovah said to him "What's that in your hand?" and he said "A 4 stick." And he said "Throw it on the ground!" and he did, and it 5 turned to a snake, and Moses ran away from it. And Jehovah said 6 to Moses "Put out your hand and take it by the tail!" and he put out 7 his hand and grasped it, and it turned to a stick in his hand. "In 8 order that they may believe that Jehovah, their fathers' God, Abra-9 ham's God, Isaac's God, Jacob's God, has appeared to you." And 10 again Jehovah said to him "Put your hand into your bosom!" and 11 he did, and drew it out and found his hand snowy with leprosy. And 12 he said "Put your hand back in your bosom!" and he did, and drew it 13 out of his bosom and found it had turned back to be like the rest of 14 his flesh. "And if they do not believe you nor listen to the first token, 15 they will believe the second; and if they do not believe both the tokens 16 nor listen to you, take Nile water and pour it out on the dry ground, 17 and the water you took from the Nile shall become blood on the dry 18 ground."

19 And Moses said to Jehovah "O Lord, I am no talker, I never was one 20 and I am not since you have spoken to your servant, but I have a 21 clumsy mouth and tongue." And Jehovah said to him "Who put a 22 mouth in man? or who renders one dumb or deaf, or clear-sighted or 23 blind? am I not Jehovah? Now go, and I will be with your mouth 24 and instruct you what to say."

25 But Moses said "O Lord, send by somebody or other." And Jehovah 26 was angry at Moses, and said "Aaron the Levite is your brother, is 27 he not? I know he does talk; and he is coming right out to meet you, 28 too, and will be joyful. And you shall speak to him and put the 29 words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth and with his, 30 and instruct you both what to do; and he shall speak to the people 31 for you; and you shall have him for mouth and he shall have you 32 for God. And you are to take in your hand this stick, with which 33 you are to do the tokens."

34 And Moses went his way, and went back to his father-in-law Ithro 35 and said to him "Let me go and revisit my brothers in Egypt and 36 see if they are still alive"; and Ithro said to Moses "Go, and good 37 betide you."

38 And Jehovah said to Moses in Midian "Go, return to Egypt, because 39 all the men who were looking for your life are dead"; and Moses 40 took his wife and sons on a donkey and went back to Egypt; and 41 Moses took along God's stick in his hand. And Jehovah said to Moses 42 as he took his way back to Egypt "See, all the miracles I have put 43 into your power you shall do before the Pharaoh; but I will make him 44 headstrong, and he will not let the people go. And you shall say to 45 the Pharaoh 'See, Israel is my son, my eldest-born; and I said to you

"Let my son go to worship me," and you refused to let him go: I am going to kill your son, your eldest-born.' "

24 And on the road, at a halting-place for the night, he met with 25 Jehovah, who tried to kill him. And Sipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin and touched it to his legs and said "Because you 26 are blood-bridegroom of mine"; and he let him alone. She then said "blood-bridegroom" of circumcisions.

27 And Jehovah said to Aaron "Go to the wilderness to meet Moses"; and he went, and met with him at the Mount of God, and kissed him.
28 And Moses told Aaron all Jehovah's message that he had sent him with, and all the tokens he had charged him with.

29 And Moses and Aaron went and brought together all the elders of 30 the sons of Israel; and Aaron recited all the words that Jehovah had 31 spoken to Moses and did the tokens before the people; and the people believed, and rejoiced that Jehovah had taken up the case of the sons of Israel and had seen their wretched condition. And they bowed down and did reverence.

1 And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and said to the Pharaoh "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Let my people go and hold a feast to 2 me in the wilderness." But the Pharaoh said "Who is Jehovah that I should obey him and let Israel go? I do not know Jehovah; and I am not going to let Israel go."

3 And they said "The God of the Hebrews has met us: let us go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to our God Jehovah, 4 for fear he should cut us down with pestilence or war." But the king of Egypt said to them "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, set the people to neglecting their work? Go carry your loads!"

5 And the Pharaoh said "Here there are too many of the populace already, and you are having them leave off carrying their loads." 6 And the Pharaoh gave orders to the overseers of the people, and to 7 their foremen, "Do not give the people straw for making the bricks any longer as you have been doing: let them go and pick up straw for 8 themselves. And set them the same rate of bricks they have been making, do not reduce it, because they are having it too easy and that 9 is why they cry out 'let us go and sacrifice to our God.' Load the men heavily with work to do, and do not have them paying attention to 10 fictions." And the people's overseers and foremen went out and said 11 to the people "Says the Pharaoh, I am not giving you straw; go yourselves and get yourselves straw wherever you find it, because 12 there is no reduction being made in your work." And the people 13 scattered all through Egypt to pick up stubble and straw; and the overseers hurried them, saying "Finish your work, a day's stint in a 14 day, as you did when there was straw"; and the foremen of the sons of Israel, whom the Pharaoh's overseers had set over them, were beaten and told "How comes it you have not finished your quota of 15 brickmaking as you used to, neither yesterday nor today?" And the foremen of the sons of Israel came and cried out to the Pharaoh "Why 16 should you do like this to your servants? Your servants are given no straw, and bricks they tell us to make; and here your servants are 17 being beaten, and you are doing wrong." But he said "You are having it too easy, too easy; that is why you are saying 'Let us go sacrifice 18 to Jehovah.' Now go work; and you shall not be given straw, and you shall deliver the same quantity of bricks."

19 And the foremen of the sons of Israel saw them in trouble at 20 "You shall not reduce your bricks, a day's stint in a day"; and Moses and Aaron found them standing to meet them as they came out from 21 the Pharaoh, and they said to them "Jehovah look on you and give judgment for your having made the Pharaoh and his officers hate the sight of us, putting a sword into their hands to kill us."

22 And Moses went back to Jehovah and said "Lord, why have you 23 done mischief to this people? what did you send me for, when from the time I went in to the Pharaoh to speak in your name he has done mischief to this people, and you have not been delivering your

CHAPTER 6

1 people?" And Jehovah said to Moses "Now you shall see what I will do to the Pharaoh; for by force he shall let you go and by force he shall expel you from his country."

2 3 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, and said to him "I am Jehovah; and I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as El Shaddai, not being 4 known to them by my name Jehovah, and also established my covenant with them, to give them the country of Canaan, the country in 5 which they lived their immigrant life. And I have also heard the groaning of the sons of Israel whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and 6 have remembered my covenant. So say to the sons of Israel 'I am Jehovah, and will bring you out from under the Egyptian loads and deliver you from slavery to them, and claim my rights in you with 7 outstretched arm and with great judgments, and take you to have you for my people and let you have me for your God; and you shall know that I am your God Jehovah who brings you out from under 8 the Egyptian loads. And I will bring you into the country I pledged myself to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and will give it to you in 9 possession, I Jehovah.'" And Moses spoke so to the sons of Israel; but they did not listen to Moses for desperation and for hard work.

10 11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Go in and speak to the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to have him let the sons of Israel go out 12 of his country." And Moses spoke before God, saying "Here the sons of Israel have not listened to me, and how is the Pharaoh to listen to me when I am uncircumcised in lips?"

13 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them a commission to the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel 14 out of Egypt. These are the heads of their families: the sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, were Hanoc and Pallu, Hesron and Carmi: 15 these are the clans of the Reubenites. And the sons of Simeon were Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jakin and Sohar and Shaul the 16 Canaanite woman's son: these are the clans of the Simeonites. And these are the names of the sons of Levi by their line: Gershon and Kehath and Merari; and the length of Levi's life was a hundred and 17 thirty-seven years. The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei by 18 their clans; and the sons of Kehath were 'Amram and Ishar and Hebron and 'Uzziel, and the length of Kehath's life was a hundred and 19 thirty-three years; and the sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.

20 These are the clans of the Levites by their line. And 'Amram married his aunt Jokebed, and she had sons, Aaron and Moses; and the length 21 of 'Amram's life was a hundred and thirty-seven years. And the sons 22 of Ishar were Korah and Nepheg and Zicri; and the sons of 'Uzziel 23 were Mishael and Elsaphan and Sithri. And Aaron married Elisheba the daughter of 'Amminadab, Nahshon's sister, and she bore sons to 24 him, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. And the sons of Korah were Assir and Elkanah and Abiasaph: these are the clans of the 25 Korahites. And Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him a son Pinehas. These are the heads of 26 the families of the Levites by their clans. This was the Aaron and Moses to whom Jehovah said "Bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt 27 corps by corps." These it was who spoke to the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt—this Moses and Aaron.

29 And on the day that Jehovah spoke to Moses in Egypt Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "I am Jehovah: tell the Pharaoh, the king of 30 Egypt, everything that I am telling you." And Moses said before Jehovah "Here I am uncircumcised in lips, and how is the Pharaoh

CHAPTER 7

1 to listen to me?" And Jehovah said to Moses "See, I make you a god 2 to the Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet. You shall speak everything that I commission you to, and your brother Aaron shall speak to the Pharaoh, and he shall let the sons of Israel 3 go out of Egypt. But I will make the Pharaoh obstinate, and will 4 multiply my tokens and miracles in Egypt and the Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I will put my hand on Egypt and bring out of Egypt by great judgments my armies, my people, the sons of Israel; 5 and the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah when I stretch my hand out over Egypt and bring the sons of Israel out from among 6 them." And Moses and Aaron did it: as Jehovah had commanded 7 them, so they did. And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three, when they spoke to the Pharaoh.

8 9 And Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron "When the Pharaoh tells you 'Present a miracle,' say to Aaron 'Take your stick and throw 10 it down before the Pharaoh to become a dragon.'" And Moses and Aaron went in to the Pharaoh and did so, as Jehovah had ordered, and Aaron threw down his stick before the Pharaoh and his officers, 11 and it became a dragon. And the Pharaoh summoned the sages and the wizards, and they too, the scholars of Egypt, did the like by their 12 occult arts, and each threw down his stick and they became dragons.
13 And Aaron's stick swallowed theirs; but the Pharaoh was headstrong and would not listen to them, as Jehovah had predicted.

14 And Jehovah said to Moses "The Pharaoh is haughty, he refuses 15 to let the people go. Go to the Pharaoh in the morning; you will find him coming out to the water, and you shall take your stand on the bank of the Nile to meet him; and you shall take in your hand the 16 stick that was turned to a snake. And say to him 'Jehovah, the Hebrews' God, sent us to you with the message 'Let my people go to worship me in the wilderness'; and here you have not listened till 17 now. Says Jehovah, By this you shall know that I am Jehovah. I am going to strike with the stick I have in my hand on the water in 18 the Nile, and it shall turn to blood, and the fish in the Nile shall die, and the Nile shall smell, and the Egyptians shall try in vain to drink Nile water.'"

19 And Jehovah said to Moses "Say to Aaron 'Take your stick and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, its streams, its arms of the Nile, and its pools, and everything in it that holds water, and have it become blood; and it shall become blood throughout Egypt, 20 both in its natural places and in wood and stone.'" And Moses and Aaron did so, as Jehovah had ordered; and he swung the stick high and struck the water in the Nile in sight of the Pharaoh and of his 21 officers, and all the water in the Nile turned to blood. And the fish in the Nile died, and the Nile smelled, and the Egyptians could not 22 drink Nile water, and the blood was all through Egypt. And the scholars of Egypt did the like by their occult arts, and the Pharaoh was headstrong and would not listen to them, as Jehovah had pre-23 dicted; and the Pharaoh turned round and went into his palace, and 24 disregarded this too. And all the Egyptians dug around the Nile for drinking-water, because they could not drink the Nile water.

25 1 And a week elapsed after Jehovah struck the Nile; and Jehovah said to Moses "Go in to the Pharaoh and say to him 'Says Jehovah, 2 Let my people go to worship me; and if you refuse to let them go I 3 am going to plague all your territory with frogs, and the Nile shall swarm with frogs and they shall come up and go into your house and into your sleeping-room and on your bed and into the houses of your officers and your people, and into your baking-crocks and mixing-bowls: on you and on all your people the frogs shall come up.' ”

And Jehovah said to Moses “Say to Aaron ‘Stretch out your hand with the stick over the streams, the arms of the Nile, and the pools, and bring up the frogs over Egypt.’ ” And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered Egypt. And the scholars did the like by their occult arts and brought up the frogs over Egypt. And the Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said “Intercede with Jehovah and have him take away the frogs from me and my people, and I will let the people go and sacrifice to Jehovah.” And Moses said to the Pharaoh “Specify to me for what time I shall intercede with Jehovah for you and your officers and your people, to rid you and your houses of the frogs—they shall be left only in the Nile.” And he said “For tomorrow.” And he said “As you say, in order that you may know that there is no one like our God Jehovah; and the frogs shall pass away from you and your houses and your officers and your people, they shall be left only in the Nile.” And Moses and Aaron went out from the Pharaoh’s presence, and Moses cried out to Jehovah regarding the frogs he had set on the Pharaoh, and Jehovah did as Moses said, and the frogs died out of the houses and the yards and the fields, and they piled them up in heaps, and the country smelled. And the Pharaoh saw that relief had come, and acted haughtily and would not listen to them, as Jehovah had predicted.

And Jehovah said to Moses “Say to Aaron ‘Stretch out your stick and strike the dust on the ground and have it become mosquitoes throughout Egypt.’ ” And Aaron stretched out his hand with his stick and struck the dust on the ground, and the mosquitoes came on man and beast: all the dust on the ground became mosquitoes throughout Egypt. And the scholars did the like with their occult arts, bringing out mosquitoes, but could not; and the mosquitoes came on man and beast. And the scholars said to the Pharaoh “It is the finger of God”; but the Pharaoh was headstrong and would not listen to them, as Jehovah had predicted.

And Jehovah said to Moses “The first thing in the morning take your stand before the Pharaoh—you will find him coming out to the water—and say to him ‘Says Jehovah, Let my people go to worship me: for if you do not let my people go, here I am sending the ‘arob flies on you and your officers and your people and your families, and the houses of Egypt shall be full of the ‘arob flies, and so shall the ground they are on. And on that day I will distinguish the country of Goshen, on which my people stands, by not letting there be ‘arob flies there, that you may know that I Jehovah am in the country. And I will set a redemption between my people and yours. This token shall be for tomorrow.’ ”

And Jehovah did so, and an enormous number of ‘arob flies came into the Pharaoh's palace and the houses of his officers and into all 25 Egypt, and the country was ruined with the 'arob flies. And the Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said "Go sacrifice to your 26 god in the country." But Moses said "It would not be the thing to do so, because we shall be sacrificing to our God Jehovah what the Egyptians abominate: suppose we sacrifice before the Egyptians' eyes 27 what they abominate, will they not stone us? Three days' journey into the wilderness we will go, and sacrifice to our God Jehovah as 28 he will tell us to." And the Pharaoh said "I will let you go and you shall sacrifice to your god in the wilderness; only do not go far.

 29 Intercede for me!" And Moses said "Here I am going out from your presence and will intercede with Jehovah, and the 'arob flies shall pass away from the Pharaoh, his officers, and his people tomorrow; only let the Pharaoh no longer trifle with his word, not letting the 30 children of Israel go to sacrifice to Jehovah." And Moses went out 31 from the Pharaoh's presence and interceded with Jehovah, and Jehovah did as Moses said and the 'arob flies passed away from the Pha-32 raoh, his officers, and his people; there was not one left. But the Pharaoh acted haughtily this time too, and would not let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

1 And Jehovah said to Moses "Go in to the Pharaoh and tell him 'Says the Hebrews' God Jehovah, Let my people go to worship me.
 2 3 For if you refuse to let them go, and still hold on to them, here is Jehovah's hand on your stock in the field, the ponies and the donkeys and the camels and the cows and the sheep and goats, a very severe 4 outbreak of disease. And Jehovah will distinguish between the Israelites' stock and the Egyptians' stock, and of all that belongs to 5 the sons of Israel nothing shall die. And Jehovah has set a date, "To-6 morrow Jehovah will do this thing in the country."'" And Jehovah did this thing the next day, and all the Egyptians' stock died, but of 7 the stock that belonged to the sons of Israel not one died. And the Pharaoh sent and found that of the Israelites' stock not one had died; but the Pharaoh was haughty and would not let the people go.

8 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron "Take double handfuls of soot from a kiln, and let Moses toss it up into the air in the Pharaoh's 9 sight; and it shall become a dust-cloud all over Egypt, and it shall become an eruption of pustules on man and beast throughout Egypt." 10 And they took the kiln-soot and stood before the Pharaoh and Moses tossed it up into the air, and it became an eruption of pustules on man 11 and beast; and the scholars could not stand before Moses owing to the eruption, because the eruption was on the scholars and on all the 12 Egyptians. But Jehovah made the Pharaoh headstrong, and he would not listen to Moses, as Jehovah had predicted to Moses.

13 And Jehovah said to Moses "The first thing in the morning take your stand before the Pharaoh and say to him 'Says the Hebrews'

14 God Jehovah, Let my people go to worship me. For this time I am sending all these plagues of mine upon you and your officers and 15 people for the sake of your knowing that there is no one like me in all the earth. For I would now have put out my hand and struck 16 you and your people with a pestilence, and you would have been extirpated from the earth, but I let you stand for this sake, for the 17 sake of showing you my power, and in order that my fame may be told of throughout the earth. You are still thwarting my people, not 18 letting them go: here I am going to shower down a very heavy hailstorm at this time tomorrow, such as there has never been in 19 Egypt from the day it was founded to now. Now send and get your stock under cover, and everything you have in the field: whatever men and beasts are found in the field and not taken into the house the hail will come down on, and be their death.’”

20 Those of the Pharaoh’s officers who feared Jehovah’s word hustled 21 their slaves and stock into the houses, and those who did not pay 22 attention to Jehovah’s word left their slaves and stock in the field. And Jehovah said to Moses “Stretch your hand out to the sky and let there be hail throughout Egypt on man and beast and on the herbage 23 of the field in Egypt.” And Moses stretched his stick out toward the sky, and Jehovah gave thunder and hail, and fire ran on the ground; 24 and Jehovah showered hailstones on Egypt, and there was hail and dancing fire amid the hail, very heavy, such as there had never been 25 in Egypt since it became a nation. And throughout Egypt the hail struck down whatever was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail struck down all the herbage of the field and broke the branches 26 of every tree in the field; only in the country of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, there was no hail.

27 And the Pharaoh sent and summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them “I did amiss this time; Jehovah is in the right and I and my 28 people in the wrong. Intercede with Jehovah and let us have no more sounds of God’s voice and hail, and I will let you go, you shall stay 29 no longer.” And Moses said to him “When I go out of the city I will spread out my hands to Jehovah: the sounds shall cease, and there shall no longer be the hail, in order that you may know that the earth 30 belongs to Jehovah. But you and your officers I know will not yet stand in fear of God Jehovah.”

31 And the flax and the barley had been struck down, because the 32 barley was showing ears and the flax was in bud; but the wheat and 33 the spelt had not, because they are late. And Moses went out of the city from the Pharaoh’s presence and spread out his hands to Jehovah, and the sounds and the hail ceased, and no rain poured down 34 on the earth. And the Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the sounds had ceased, and went on sinning, and acted haughtily, he 35 and his officers. And the Pharaoh was headstrong and would not let the sons of Israel go, as Jehovah had predicted through Moses.

1 And Jehovah said to Moses "Go in to the Pharaoh, because I have made the Pharaoh and his officers haughty in order that I may set 2 these tokens of mine in among them, and that you may tell in the hearing of child and grandchild the tale of how I did my will on the Egyptians, and the tokens I exhibited among them, and may know that I am Jehovah."

3 And Moses and Aaron went in to the Pharaoh and said to him "Says the Hebrews' God Jehovah, How long are you refusing to 4 give in before me? let my people go, to worship me; for if you refuse to let my people go, here I am going to bring grasshoppers into your 5 territory tomorrow, and they will cover the surface of the earth and it will not be possible to see the earth; and they will eat up whatever 6 is left you of remnant that escaped the hail, and eat up out of the fields all the sprouting wood you have, and fill your own houses and 7 all your officers' houses and the houses of all the Egyptians,—such as your fathers and forefathers had never seen from the day when they came into existence on earth to this day." And he turned round and went out from the Pharaoh's presence.

7 And the Pharaoh's officers said to him "How long are we to have the fellow for a deathtrap? let the men go to worship their God 8 Jehovah; do you not know yet that Egypt is ruined?" And Moses and Aaron came back to the Pharaoh, and he said to them "Go 9 worship your God Jehovah: just who is it that are to go?" And Moses said "We shall go with our boys and our old men, we shall go with 10 our sons and our daughters, with our sheep and our cattle, because we have Jehovah's feast to keep." And he said to them "So be Jehovah 11 with you as I will let you go women and children and all: look out, you are headed toward trouble. No, go you men and worship Jehovah—that is what you have been asking for." And they drove them out from the Pharaoh's presence.

12 And Jehovah said to Moses "Stretch out your hand over Egypt for the grasshoppers, to have them come up over Egypt and eat all the 13 herbage of the ground, everything the hail has left." And Moses stretched out his stick over Egypt, and Jehovah directed an east wind on the country all that day and all that night; as morning came 14 the east wind was carrying the grasshoppers. And the grasshoppers came up all over Egypt and lighted all through the territory of Egypt in a great mass; there had never before been such a flight of 15 grasshoppers as that, and there never will be again. And they covered the surface of the earth, and the earth grew dark; and they ate up all the herbage on the ground and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had left, and there was no green left, on trees or in herbage on the ground, in all Egypt.

16 And the Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron in haste, and said 17 "I have done amiss against your God and against you; but now pardon my sin this once and intercede with your God Jehovah that he may 18 rid me of just this death." And Moses went out from the Pharaoh's 19 presence and interceded with Jehovah, and Jehovah brought round a very strong west wind which carried the grasshoppers off and plunged them in the Red Sea; there was not one grasshopper left in all the 20 territory of Egypt. But Jehovah made the Pharaoh headstrong, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

21 And Jehovah said to Moses "Stretch out your hand toward the sky and have darkness come on Egypt and set them groping in dark-22 ness." And Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there 23 came a murky darkness throughout Egypt for three days: one man could not see another, and they did not stand up from the place where each was for three days; but all the sons of Israel had light 24 in their places of residence. And the Pharaoh summoned Moses and said "Go worship Jehovah, only let your sheep and cattle be kept in 25 place; your women and children may go with you too." But Moses said
"We must both have you hand over sacrifices and burnt-offerings to us 26 for us to offer to our God Jehovah and have our stock go out with us, not a hoof remaining behind, because we are to take some of it for worshipping our God Jehovah and we do not know with what we are to worship Jehovah till we get there."

27 But Jehovah made the Pharaoh headstrong and he was not willing 28 to let them go. And the Pharaoh said to him "Take yourself off; see to it that you do not see my face again, because on the day that you 29 see my face you shall die." And Moses said "As you say; I will never

1 again see your face." (And Jehovah said to Moses "One more calamity I will bring on the Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you go from here. When he does let you go he will altogether expel you 2 from here. Give the people the word to ask their acquaintances for 3 articles of silver and of gold." And Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians; Moses's personal prestige in Egypt, too, 4 was very great among the Pharaoh's officers and all the people.) And Moses said "Says Jehovah, At midnight I am going out among the 5 Egyptians, and every firstborn in Egypt shall die, from the Pharaoh's firstborn who was to sit on his throne to the firstborn of the house-6 maid behind the mill, and all the firstborn of cattle, and there shall be a great outcry throughout Egypt such as there never was nor 7 will be again; but against any of the sons of Israel not a dog shall put out his tongue, man or beast, that you may all know that Jehovah 8 distinguishes between the Egyptians and the Israelites. And all these officers of yours will come down to me and do me reverence and say
'Go out, you and all the people you have at your back'; and after that I will go out." And he went out from the Pharaoh's presence in angry mood.

9 And Jehovah said to Moses "The Pharaoh will not listen to you, in 10 order that there may be many of my miracles in Egypt"; and Moses and Aaron did all these miracles before the Pharaoh, but Jehovah made the Pharaoh headstrong and he would not let the sons of Israel go out of his country.

1 2 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt "This month is your New Year's month: it is the first of the months of the year for 3 you. Tell all the congregation of Israel, on the tenth of this month they are to take themselves a sheep or goat apiece per family, an 4 animal to a household. And if the household is too small for an animal let him and his next-door neighbor take by rating of appetites: you 5 shall rate each one for the animal in proportion to his eating. You shall have it a faultless yearling male; you shall take from the sheep 6 and from the goats. And you shall have it in safekeeping till the fourteenth day of this month; and all the assembly of the congregation 7 of Israel shall slaughter it in the evening hours and take some of the blood and put it on both jambs of the door and on the lintel 8 on the houses they are eating it in. And they shall eat the flesh that same night: they shall eat it as fire-roast, and matzoth with spring 9 salad. Eat none of it raw nor as boiled meat, cooked with water, but 10 as fire-roast, head and legs and entrails and all. And you are not to leave any of it till morning; what is left till morning of it you are 11 to burn up. And this is the way you are to eat it: your waists belted your sandals on your feet, your staves in your hands; and you shall eat it hurriedly; it is a passover for Jehovah.

12 "And I will pass through Egypt this night and strike dead every firstborn in Egypt, both of man and of beast, and on all the gods of 13 Egypt I will execute judgments—I am Jehovah—and you shall have the blood for a token on the houses where you are, and I will see the blood and pass over you, and there shall not be any ravaging calamity among you when I am smiting in Egypt.

14 "And this day shall be a commemoration of yours, and you shall keep it as a feast to Jehovah: generation after generation you shall 15 keep it as a perpetual institution. Seven days you shall eat matzoth on the first day you must clean out yeast from your homes, because whoever eats anything raised, that person shall be cut off from Israel 16 from the first day to the seventh. And on the first day you shall have a sacred meeting, and on the seventh day a sacred meeting: no work shall be done among you; only what is to be eaten by each person, that 17 alone shall be prepared for you. And you shall keep the matzoth, because it was on this very day that he brought your legions out of Egypt, and you shall keep this day generation after generation as a 18 perpetual institution. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, you shall eat matzoth and keep it up till the 19 twenty-first day of the month at evening. For seven days no yeast shall be found in your homes, because whoever eats anything raised, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, immigrant 20 and native. You shall not eat anything raised whatever: in all your abodes you shall eat matzoth."

21 And Moses called all the elders of Israel and said to them "March off and take yourselves sheep and goats clan by clan, and slaughter 22 the passover; and take a bunch of marjoram and dip it in the blood on the threshold, and touch blood off the threshold to the lintel and both the jambs; and you shall not go out of your doors till morning.
23 And Jehovah will pass along to smite the Egyptians, and will see the blood on the lintel and both the jambs, and Jehovah will pass over 24 the door and not let the ravager go into your homes to smite. And you shall keep this rite as an institution for yourself and your sons 25 forever; and when you go into the country that Jehovah will give you as he promised, you shall keep up this service. And when your sons 26 ask you 'What do you mean by this service?' you shall say 'It is a passover sacrifice to Jehovah, because he passed over the homes of the 27 sons of Israel in Egypt when he smote the Egyptians, and brought our homes off safe.'" And the people bowed down and did reverence; 28 and the sons of Israel went and did it: as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

29 And at midnight Jehovah struck every firstborn in Egypt, from the Pharaoh's firstborn who was to sit on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoners of war in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle.
30 And the Pharaoh rose in the night, he and all his officers and all the Egyptians; and there was a great outcry in Egypt, because there was 31 not a house where there was not somebody dead. And he called Moses and Aaron in the night and said "Off with you, get out from among my people, you and the sons of Israel too, and go worship 32 Jehovah as you have been saying. Take your flocks and herds too, as you said, and go; and bless me too." And the Egyptians insisted on 33 sending the people out of the country in all haste, because they thought "We are all dead men"; and the people took their dough up 34 before it had had the yeast put in, taking their mixing-bowls wrapped up in their blankets on their shoulders. And the sons of Israel did as 35 Moses had said, and asked the Egyptians for articles of gold and silver and clothing, and Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes 36 of the Egyptians and they handed them over; and they despoiled the Egyptians.

37 And the sons of Israel marched from Ra'meses to Succoth, the men 38 about six hundred thousand of foot, besides women and children; and a great mass of drifters too went up with them, and sheep and goats 39 and cows, an immense drove of stock. And they baked the dough they had brought out of Egypt in flat matzoth, because it had not had any yeast put in because they were expelled from Egypt and could not delay, and they had not supplied themselves with provisions either.

40 And the stay of the sons of Israel in Egypt was four hundred and 41 thirty years; and at the end of four hundred and thirty years, this 42 very day, all Jehovah's armies came out of Egypt. That was a watch-night of Jehovah's for bringing them out of Egypt; this night is a watch-night to Jehovah for all the sons of Israel generation after generation.

43 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron "This is the rule for the 44 passover: No foreigner shall eat of it. But everyone who is any man's slave, bought with money, you shall circumcise: then he shall eat of 45 46 it. Dependent and hired man shall not eat of it. It shall be eaten in one house: you shall not take any of the meat outside the house; and 47 no bone in it shall be broken. All the congregation of Israel shall 48 celebrate it; and when an immigrant lives among you and is to celebrate a passover to Jehovah, he must have every male of his circumcised; then he shall be admitted to celebrate it, and shall be like the 49 native-born; but nobody uncircumcised shall eat of it. There shall be one ruling for the native and for the immigrant who lives among you." 50 And all the sons of Israel did as Jehovah had commanded Moses 51 and Aaron; so they did. And this very day Jehovah brought the sons

1 of Israel out of Egypt corps by corps. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 2 saying "Consecrate to me every firstborn, everyone who has started a womb among the sons of Israel, man and beast: mine he is." 3 And Moses said to the people "Remember this day when you came out from Egypt, from the slave-quarters, because Jehovah brought you out of here by main force and you are not to eat raised bread.
4 5 Today you are going out, in the green-ear month; and when Jehovah brings you to the country of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites that he swore to your fathers to give you, a country that runs milk and honey, you shall 6 present this service in this month: seven days you shall eat matzoth, 7 and on the seventh day shall be a feast to Jehovah. Matzoth shall be eaten through the seven days, and you shall have nothing raised 8 seen in all your territory. And you shall tell your son on that day 'For the sake of that that Jehovah did for me when I came out of 9 Egypt.' And you shall have it as a sign on your arm and a memento between your eyes, in order that you may have Jehovah's instructions in your mouth, because Jehovah brought you out of Egypt with a 10 strong hand. And you shall keep this usage at the season for it year by year.
11 "And when Jehovah brings you into the Canaanite country as he 12 swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, you shall consign to Jehovah everyone that has started a womb; and every offspring of cattle of yours that has started a womb, the males, shall belong to Jehovah, and every donkey that has started a womb you shall redeem with a sheep or goat, or if you do not redeem it you shall break its neck, and every human firstborn among your sons you shall redeem. And when your son asks you tomorrow 'What does this mean?' you shall say to him 'Jehovah brought us out of Egypt, out of the slave-quarters, by main force, and when the Pharaoh behaved obstinately about letting us go Jehovah killed every firstborn among the Egyptians, both firstborn of men and firstborn of cattle; that is why I sacrifice to Jehovah every male that has started a womb and redeem every firstborn of my sons.' And you shall have it as a sign on your arm and as amulets between your eyes, because Jehovah brought you out of Egypt by main force."

And when the Pharaoh let the people go God did not guide them by the road to the Philistine country (for that was the nearest), because God thought "The people might change their mind when they saw war, and go back to Egypt"; but God took the people around by the wilderness road to the Red Sea.

And the sons of Israel went up under arms out of Egypt. And Moses took Joseph's bones with him, because he had sworn the sons of Israel to it, saying "God will take up your case and you shall carry my bones up from here with you."

And they marched from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. And Jehovah went in front of them, by day in a pillar of cloud to guide them on the route and by night in a pillar of fire. The pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, never left its place in front of the people.

And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel to turn back and camp in front of Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baal-Sephon: you shall camp opposite it, by the sea. And the Pharaoh will say of the sons of Israel 'They are wandering about the country at random; the wilderness shuts them in'; and I will make the Pharaoh headstrong and he shall pursue you, and I will earn glory on the Pharaoh and all his troops, and the Egyptians shall find out that I am Jehovah"; and they did so.

And it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had made off; and the Pharaoh and his officers reversed their attitude toward the people and said "What is this we have been doing, to let the Israelites go out of our service?" and he hitched up his chariot and took his soldiery with him, and took six hundred picked chariots and all the chariots in Egypt, and knights on all of them, and Jehovah made the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, headstrong, and he pursued the sons of Israel while the sons of Israel were going out with a high hand. And the Egyptians pursued them, and overtook them camping by the sea, all the Pharaoh's chariot-ponies and cavalry horses and his troops, by Pi-Hahiroth, in front of Baal-Sephon.

10 And as the Pharaoh drew near, the sons of Israel raised their eyes and found that the Egyptians were marching after them, and 11 were much afraid; and the sons of Israel cried out to Jehovah, and said to Moses "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you took us to die in the wilderness? what is this you have done to us, bringing us out of Egypt? Is not this the very thing we told you in Egypt, 'Let the matter drop and let us stay slaves to the Egyptians because we are better off as slaves to the Egyptians than dying in the wilderness'?" And Moses said to the people "Do not be afraid. Stand your ground and see Jehovah's succor that he is going to give you today; for, while you do see the Egyptians today, you are never to see them again. Jehovah will fight for you, and you shall be quiet."

15 And Jehovah said to Moses "What are you doing crying to me? Give the sons of Israel the word to march, and do you lift up your stick and stretch out your hand over the sea and split it apart for the sons of Israel to go into the middle of the sea on dry ground."
17 And I am going to make the Egyptians so headstrong that they will go in after them, and I will earn glory on the Pharaoh and all his troops, his chariots and cavalry, and the Egyptians shall find out that I am Jehovah when I earn glory on the Pharaoh, his chariots, and his cavalry."

19 And the Angel of God who was going before the Israelite host moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them and came between the Egyptian host and the Israelite host; and there was clouding and darkening and the night went past and the one had not come near the other all night. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and Jehovah ran the sea off by a strong east wind all night and laid the sea dry, and the water split apart, and the sons of Israel went into the middle of the sea on dry ground, with the water for a wall on their right and their left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and went in after them, all the Pharaoh's ponies, his chariots and his cavalry, into the middle of the sea. And in the morning watch Jehovah showed himself looking toward the Egyptian army in a pillar of fire and cloud and threw the Egyptian army into confusion, and clogged their chariot wheels so that they had heavy driving; and the Egyptians said "Let us get away from the Israelites, because Jehovah is fighting for them against the Egyptians."

26 And Jehovah said to Moses "Stretch out your hand over the sea and have the water come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and over their cavalry." And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea came back to its level as morning drew on, while the Egyptians in their flight rushed to meet it; and Jehovah tumbled 28 the Egyptians about in the middle of the sea. And the water came back and covered the chariots and the cavalry, all the Pharaoh's 29 forces that had followed them into the sea: there was not one left of them; but the sons of Israel had gone on dry ground in the middle of the sea, with the water for a wall on their right and their left.

30 And Jehovah saved the Israelites that day out of the hands of the Egyptians, and the Israelites saw the Egyptians dead on the sea-31 beach. And the Israelites saw the great feat Jehovah had done against the Egyptians, and the people feared Jehovah and trusted Jehovah and his servant Moses.

1 Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to Jehovah:
"Sing I Jehovah, for proudly, proudly did he;
pony and rider he shot into the sea.
2 My strength and hymn is Jehovah, and he has been to me salvation;
This is my Deity, whose beauty I will tell, my father's God, whom I will exalt.
3 Jehovah is a man of war:
his name is Jehovah.
4 The Pharaoh's chariots and troops he hurled into the sea, And the pick of his knights are drowned in the Red Sea, 5 The deeps cover them, they went down into the ooze like a stone.
6 Your right hand, Jehovah, is grand in strength; your right hand, Jehovah, mauls an enemy; 7 And most proudly you demolish those who stand up against you and send out your angry breath to consume them like stubble.
8 And by the breath of your nostrils water piled up, liquid stood up like a heap, deeps set solid in the heart of the sea.
9 An enemy said 'I will pursue, will overtake, will divide booty, my appetite shall be gorged with them,
I will bare my sword, my hands shall despoil them';
10 You sent a puff of your wind, the sea covered them;
they sank in the vast water like a plummet.

who is like you, grand in holiness,
terrible in praises, doing wonders?

10 You sent a puff of your wind, the sea covered them;
they sank in the vast water like a plummet.
11 Who among deities is like you, Jehovah?
who is like you, grand in holiness,
terrible in praises, doing wonders?

- 12 You stretched out your right hand and the earth swallowed them.
- 13 You guided in your friendliness the people you had brought off, conducted them in your might to your sacred ground:
- 14 Peoples heard and were disquieted, nervousness seized the inhabitants of Philistia;
- 15 Then the allufs of Edom were in consternation, quaking seized the arels of Moab, all the inhabitants of Canaan collapsed,
- 16 Terror and dread fell upon them, at the greatness of your arm they were still as a stone, Till your people passed, Jehovah, till the people passed whom you had bought.
- 17 You would bring them in and plant them in your highland estate, the abode you wrought for yourself, Jehovah, the Lord's sanctuary that your hands established.
- 18 Jehovah shall reign forever and ever."
- 19 —because the Pharaoh's ponies had gone into the sea with his chariots and cavalry, and Jehovah had brought the water of the sea back on them, but the sons of Israel had walked on dry ground in the middle of the sea.
- 20 And the prophetess Miriam, Aaron's sister, took tambourine in hand, and all the women came out behind her with tambourine and
- 21 dance. And Miriam answered the men "Sing Jehovah, for proudly, proudly did he;
pony and rider he shot into the sea."
- 22 And Moses marched the Israelites away from the Red Sea, and they came into the wilderness of Shur; and they were three days in the
- 23 wilderness and did not find water; and they came to Marah and could not drink water out of Marah because it was bitter—that is
- 24 why it is named Marah, "Bitterness." And the people complained against Moses and said "What are we to drink?" and Moses cried to
- 25 Jehovah, and Jehovah indicated a tree to him, and he threw it into the water and the water grew sweet.
- 26 There he set them a rule and law, and there he tested them; and he said "If you obey your God Jehovah and give ear to his commandments and keep his rules, I will never lay on you any of the maladies I laid on Egypt; for I am Jehovah your Healer."
- 27 And they came to Elim, and there there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; and they camped there by the water.

1 And they marched from Elim, and all the sons of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which lies between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month from their coming out of Egypt.
 2 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel complained against 3 Moses and Aaron in the wilderness, and said to them "It would have been a good thing if we had died by Jehovah's hand in Egypt when we sat by the pots of meat and ate all the bread we wanted to; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to have all this assembly die of starvation."

4 And Jehovah said to Moses "Here, I am going to rain bread out of the sky for you, and the people shall go out and pick up each day's supply on that day, so that I may test you to see whether you will 5 go by my instructions or not; but on the sixth day they shall lay in a provision of what they bring in, which shall be double what they 6 pick up day by day." And Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel "At evening you shall know it was Jehovah that brought you 7 out of Egypt, and at morning you shall see Jehovah's glory, as he hears your complaints against Jehovah—what are we that you should 8 complain against us?" and Moses said "by Jehovah's giving you in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to fill you full, as Jehovah hears your complaints that you are making against him—who are we? your complaints are not against us but against Jehovah."

9 And Moses said to Aaron "Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel 'Come up before Jehovah, because he has heard your complaints.' " But while Aaron was speaking to all the congregation of the sons of Israel they turned round toward the wilderness and 11 found that Jehovah's glory had appeared in the cloud. And Jehovah 12 spoke to Moses, saying "I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel; tell them 'In the evening hours you shall eat meat and in the morning you shall have a full meal of bread, and you shall know that I am your God Jehovah.' "

13 And in the evening the quails came up and covered the camp; and 14 in the morning there was a fall of dew around the camp, and when the fall of dew evaporated they found overspreading the wilderness 15 a thin flaky deposit, thin as hoarfrost on the ground. And the sons of Israel saw it and said to each other "It is man" [this being a word in some language for what], because they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them "That is the bread Jehovah has given you for 16 food. This is the order Jehovah gives: pick it up in amounts proportional to each one's eating; a ghomer per head, by count of persons, 17 you shall each take for those in his house." And the sons of Israel 18 did so, and picked it up, some more and some less; and they measured it in a ghomer, and the one who had taken more had no surplus and the one who had taken less had no shortage; each had picked up in proportion to his eating.

19 And Moses said to them "Let nobody leave any of it over till 20 morning." But they did not listen to Moses, and some left some of it over till morning, and it was all over worms and smelt badly; and Moses was incensed at them.

21 And they picked it up morning by morning, each in proportion 22 to his eating, and then the sun grew hot and it melted away. And on the sixth day they picked up double food, two ghomers apiece; and all the princes of the congregation came and reported it to Moses.
23 And he said to them "It is what Jehovah promised: tomorrow is sabbath rest, a sacred sabbath of Jehovah's; bake what you are to bake and boil what you are to boil and lay the surplus by for keeping 24 till morning." And they laid it by till morning as Moses commanded, 25 and it did not smell badly and there were no worms in it. And Moses said "Eat it today, because Jehovah has a sabbath today, today you 26 will not find it on the countryside. Six days you are to pick it up, but on the seventh day there is sabbath, there will not be any on it."

27 And on the seventh day some of the people went out to pick up 28 and did not find any. And Jehovah said to Moses "How long do you 29 refuse to keep my commandments and instructions? See, because Jehovah has given you the sabbath, therefore he is giving you two days' bread on the sixth day; stay where you each are, let no one go 30 away from his place on the seventh day." And the people kept sabbath on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel named it "manna"; and it was like white 32 coriander seed, and its flavor was like crackers with honey. And Moses said "This is the order Jehovah gives: a ghomerful of it to be kept generation after generation in order that your posterity may see the bread I fed you on in the wilderness when I brought you 33 out of Egypt." And Moses said to Aaron "Take a vase and put a ghomerful of manna there and deposit it before Jehovah to be kept 34 generation after generation." And Aaron did as Jehovah had commanded Moses, and deposited it before the congregation to be kept.

35 And the sons of Israel ate the manna forty years till they came to a settled country; they ate the manna till they came to the edge of 36 Canaan. And a ghomer is a tenth of a bushel.

1 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel marched from the wilderness of Sin stage by stage, by Jehovah's direction, and camped 2 at Rephidim; and there was no water for the people to drink. And the people upbraided Moses and said "Give us water to drink"; and Moses said to them "What are you upbraiding me for? what are you 3 trying out Jehovah for?" And the people were thirsty for water there; and the people complained against Moses and said "What did you bring us up out of Egypt for, to have us and our children and 4 our stock die of thirst?" And Moses cried to Jehovah "What shall I

5 do for this people? a little more and they will stone me." And Jehovah said to Moses "Go over before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand your stick that you struck the Nile with, and go. You will find me standing there in Horeb before you on the rock; and you shall strike on the rock, and there shall come out of it water which the people shall drink." And Moses did so before the eyes of the elders of Israel. And the place is named Massah, "Tryout," and Meribah, "Upbraiding," because of the upbraiding by the sons of Israel and because of their trying out Jehovah, asking "Is Jehovah among us or not?"

8 9 And the 'Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. And Moses said to Joshua' "Pick us out men and go out and attack the 'Amalekites tomorrow; I will be standing on the hilltop with God's stick in my hand." And Joshua' did as Moses told him to, attacking the 'Amalekites; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up on the hilltop. 10 And when Moses raised his hand the Israelites had the better; and 11 when he put down his hand, the 'Amalekites. But Moses's hands were heavy; and they took a stone and placed it under him, and he sat down on it, and Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on this side and one on that, and his hands were steady till the sun went down, 12 and Joshua' slaughtered the 'Amalekites and their company without 13 quarter. And Jehovah said to Moses "Write this in a book for a memorial, and plant it in Joshua's ears, that I will obliterate the remembrance of 'Amalek from under the heavens." And Moses built 14 an altar and named it Jehovah-is-my-Banner, and said "Because there was a hand against Jehovah's throne, Jehovah is at war with 'Amalek from the remotest generations."

1 And Ithro the priest of Midian, Moses's father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, that Jehovah 2 had brought the Israelites out of Egypt. And Moses's father-in-law 3 Ithro took Moses's wife Sipporah, after her separation, and her two sons, of whom the one was named Gershom because he thought "I 4 have been an immigrant in a foreign country," and the other Eli'ezer "because my father's God stands my friend and has delivered me from 5 the Pharaoh's sword," and Moses's father-in-law Ithro and his sons and his wife came to Moses in the wilderness where he was camping, 6 God's mountain; and Moses was told "Here is your father-in-law 7 Ithro coming to you, and your wife and her two sons with her"; and Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and did reverence and kissed him, and they asked each other how they did, and he brought him 8 to his tent. And Moses told his father-in-law the whole story of what Jehovah had done to the Pharaoh and Egypt with reference to Israel, and all the hard experience they had had on the way, 9 that Jehovah had delivered them from; and Ithro was delighted at all the good things Jehovah had done for Israel whom he had delivered out of the hands of the Egyptians; and Ithro said "Blessed be Jehovah, who has delivered you out of the hands of the Egyptians and of the Pharaoh. Now I know that Jehovah is the god of gods, because in the thing that they were arrogant against them—" And Moses's father-in-law Ithro took a burnt-offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron and some of the elders of Israel came to eat a meal with Moses's father-in-law before God.

And on the next day Moses sat down to judge the people, and the people stood round Moses from morning till evening. And Moses's father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, and said "What is this that you are doing for the people? how is it you alone sit down and all the people stand round you from morning till evening?" And Moses said to his father-in-law "Because the people come to me to inquire of God: when they have a question they come to me, and I judge between man and man and inform them of God's rules and instructions." And Moses's father-in-law said to him "It is not a good thing you are doing. Both you and this people you have with you will break down, because the business is too heavy a load for you, you will not be able to do it alone. Now take my advice and have God with you: be you the people's representative to God and bring questions to God, and notify them of the rules and instructions, and acquaint them with the road they are to go in and the acts they are to do; and do you single out from the people high-principled men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate jobbery, and appoint them over them as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens, and let them judge the people at all times. And every large question they shall bring to you, and every small question they shall judge themselves; and they will relieve you and share your load. If you do this thing and God gives you orders, you will be able to stand and all the people too will come safe to its place."

And Moses listened to his father-in-law and did just as he said; and Moses chose high-principled men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens, and they judged the people at all times; a hard question they brought to Moses, but every small question they judged themselves. And Moses let his father-in-law go, and he went to his own country.

At new moon of the third month of the coming of the sons of Israel out of Egypt, this day they came to the wilderness of Sinai. And they marched from Rephidim and came to the wilderness of Sinai and camped in the wilderness; and the Israelites camped there before the mountain.

And Moses went up to God, and God called to him out of the mountain "You will say to the house of Jacob, and tell the sons of 4 Israel, You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried 5 you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. And now if you obey me and keep my covenant you shall be my own special reserve 6 out of all the nations—for all the earth is mine—and I will have you for a kingdom of priests, a sacred nation. These are the words you shall speak to the sons of Israel."

7 And Moses came and called the elders of the people and said 8 before them all these things that Jehovah had charged him to. And all the people answered together "We will do just as Jehovah has said"; and Moses took the people's answer back to Jehovah.

9 And Jehovah said to Moses "I am going to come to you in thick cloud, for the sake of having the people hear when I speak with you, and believe in you too forever"; and Moses reported the people's 10 words to Jehovah, and Jehovah said to Moses "Go to the people and hallow them today and tomorrow, and have them wash their cloaks 11 and be ready for day after tomorrow, because day after tomorrow Jehovah will come down on Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the 12 people. And set bounds for the people on all sides, telling them 'Beware of going up on the mountain and of touching its edge; anyone 13 who touches the mountain shall be put to death. No hand shall touch him, but he shall be stoned or shot; whether beast or man, he shall not live.' At the winding of the bugle they shall come up on the 14 mountain." And Moses came down from the mountain to the people 15 and hallowed the people, and they washed their cloaks; and he said to the people "Be ready for day after tomorrow; do not come near a woman."

16 And on the third day, when morning came, there were noises and lightnings and a heavy cloud over the mountain, and a very powerful sound of a horn, and all the people in the camp were frightened.
17 And Moses brought the people out from the camp to meet God, and 18 they took their stand at the bottom of the mountain. And Mount Sinai was smoking all over because Jehovah had come down on it in fire, and the smoke from it went up like the smoke from a kiln; 19 and all the people were greatly frightened. And the sound of the horn grew more and more powerful, Moses speaking and God answering him with sound.

20 And Jehovah came down on Mount Sinai, on the summit of the mountain, and Jehovah called Moses to the summit of the mountain, 21 and Moses went up. And Jehovah said to Moses "Go down and warn the people, lest they should break through to Jehovah to see, and 22 many of them fall; and let the priests too who approach Jehovah 23 hallow themselves for fear Jehovah should scathe them." And Moses said to Jehovah "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, because you warned us yourself 'Set bounds for the mountain and 24 hallow it.'" And Jehovah said to him "Go on down, and come up yourself and Aaron with you; but let the priests and the people not break through to come up to Jehovah, for fear Jehovah should 25 scathe them." And Moses went down to the people and told them.

1 And God spoke all these words:

2 "I am your God Jehovah who brought you out of Egypt, out of the slave-quarters.

3 "You shall have no other gods to face me down.

4 "You shall not make yourself a statue nor any form in the skies
5 above or on the earth beneath or in the water beneath the earth: you shall not do reverence to them nor worship them; because I, your God Jehovah, am a jealous deity, visiting fathers' guilt on children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren for those who hate me, 6 and befriending thousands for those who love me and keep my commandments.

7 "You shall not take the name of your God Jehovah in vain; for Jehovah will not acquit him who takes his name in vain.

8 9 "Mind the sabbath day, keeping it sacred. Six days you shall 10 labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath for your God Jehovah: you shall not do any work, you nor your son or daughter, your servant nor your beast nor your immigrant within your 11 gates, because for six days Jehovah was making the sky and the earth and the sea and everything in it, and he rested on the seventh day; for this reason Jehovah blessed the sabbath day and made it sacred.

12 "Honor your father and your mother, so that your time may be long on the soil your God Jehovah is giving you.

13 "You shall not murder.

14 "You shall not commit adultery.

15 "You shall not steal.

16 "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.

17 "You shall not desire your neighbor's house: you shall not desire your neighbor's wife nor his slave nor his cow nor his donkey nor anything of your neighbor's."

18 And all the people were seeing the noises and the bursts of fire and the sound of the horn and the mountain smoking; and the people 19 were afraid, and swayed about and stood at a distance, and said to Moses "Speak with us yourself and we will listen; but let God 20 not speak with us, for fear we should die." And Moses said to the people "Do not be afraid, because it is for the sake of testing you that God has come, and for the sake of having you confronted with 21 his fear, that you may not sin." And the people stood at a distance, and Moses approached the thick air where God was.

22 And Jehovah said to Moses "You are to say to the sons of Israel, 23 You have seen that I have talked with you out of the sky. You shall not make other gods with me; silver gods and golden gods you shall 24 not make for yourselves. An altar of earth you shall make me, and sacrifice on it your burnt-offerings and your welfare-sacrifices, your sheep and your cattle; in every place where I have my name com-25 memorated I will come to you and bless you. And if you make me a stone altar you shall not build it of dressed stones, because by having 26 put your blade to it you would have profaned it. And you shall not go up my altar by steps, that your nakedness may not be uncovered on it.

1 "And these are the laws you shall set before them:

2 "When you get a Hebrew male slave he shall serve you six years, 3 and in the seventh he shall go free without paying anything. If he came single he shall go single; if a married man, his wife shall go 4 with him; if his master gives him a wife and she bears him children, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he shall go 5 single. And if the slave says 'I love my master, my wife, and my 6 children; I will not go free,' his master shall take him to God and take him to the door or the jamb, and his master shall punch his ear with an awl, and he shall be slave to him permanently.

7 "But when a man sells his daughter for a slave she shall not go 8 out as the male slaves do. If she does not please her master who has appropriated her to himself, he shall let her be bought off; he shall not have authority to sell her to an alien people, when his blanket 9 has been over her. And if he appropriates her to his son he shall give 10 her the treatment of daughters. If he takes another he shall not cut 11 short her meat, covering, and cohabitation. And if he does not do these three things for her she shall go out gratis, without payment.

12 "One who strikes a man so that he dies shall be put to death.
13 But in case he had no malice prepense and God brought him under 14 his hand I will set a place for you to which he shall flee. But when one high-handedly kills another by foul play you shall take him from my altar for death.

15 "And he who strikes his father or mother shall be put to death.
16 And he who steals a man, and sells him or he is found in his hands, 17 shall be put to death. And he who curses his father or mother shall be put to death.

18 "And when men are quarreling and one strikes the other with 19 stone or fist and he does not die but takes to his bed, if he gets up and walks outdoors on his staff the man who struck the blow shall be held innocent, only he shall pay for his lost time and his medical treatment.

20 "And when a man strikes his slave with a cudgel and he dies under 21 his hand he shall be punished; only if he lasts a day or two he shall not be punished, because he is his money.

22 "And when men are scuffling and run against a pregnant woman and she has a premature birth, but there is no bodily damage, he shall pay such fine as the woman's husband fixes for him, and give in 23 with arbitrators. And if there is bodily damage he shall give life 24 for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot 25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

26 "And when a man strikes his slave's eye and spoils it he shall let 27 him go free to make up for his eye. And if he knocks out his slave's tooth he shall let him go free to make up for his tooth.

28 "And when a bull gores a man or woman and he dies, the bull shall be stoned and its flesh not eaten, but the owner of the bull shall be 29 held innocent. But if it has already been a goring bull, and its owner is notified and does not take care of it, and it kills a man or woman, 30 the bull is to be stoned and its owner too is to be put to death; if a price for clearing him is fixed, he shall give ransom for his life at 31 whatever rate is fixed for him. In case it gores a son or daughter, the 32 same law shall be followed. If the bull gores a slave he shall give his master thirty shekels of silver and the bull shall be stoned.

33 "And when a man opens a cistern, or when a man digs a cistern 34 and does not cover it, and a bull or donkey falls into it, the owner of the cistern shall pay, shall reimburse its owner in cash, and shall have the dead animal.

35 "And when one man's bull fights another's and causes its death, they shall sell the live bull and divide the proceeds, and divide the 36 dead bull also. In case it was already known to be a goring bull, and its owner was not taking care of it, he shall pay bull for bull and have the dead one.

1 "When a man steals an animal and butchers it and sells it, he shall pay five for one of horned cattle and four for one of sheep or goats.
2 If the thief is caught breaking in and is struck dead, there is no 3 bloodguilt on his account; if the sun had risen on him, there is; he 4 must pay—if he has not enough he is to be sold for his theft. If the stolen property, of horned cattle or donkeys or sheep or goats, is found in his hands alive, he shall pay two for one.

5 "When a man is having a field or vineyard eaten down and lets out the cattle and they eat down in another field, he shall pay in 6 the best produce of his own field or vineyard. When a fire gets away into thorn-stalks and consumes grain in stacks or standing, or wild growth, the one who lighted it must pay for the burning.

7 "When a man gives another man money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is caught he shall pay 8 double; if the thief is not caught the owner of the house shall present himself to God as to whether he has not put his hand to the other 9 man's stock. For every question of delinquency regarding bull or cow, donkey, sheep or goat, blanket, or any missing thing that is said to be identified, the case of both parties shall be brought to God: the one that God finds to be in the wrong shall pay double to the other.

10 "When a man gives another man an animal to keep, and it dies or 11 breaks a bone or is taken by raiders, no one seeing it, there shall be between them an oath by Jehovah as to whether he has not put his hand to the other man's stock, and its owner shall receive it and he 12 shall not pay. But if it be stolen from him he shall pay the owner.
13 If it falls a prey to wild beasts he shall bring it as evidence; he shall not pay for the damage of wild beasts.

14 "And when a man borrows from another man, and it breaks a bone 15 or dies, its owner not being with it, he must pay. If its owner was with it, he shall not pay. If it was hired, it came for its hire.

16 "And when a man inveigles an unbetrothed maiden and lies with 17 her, he must pay for her and marry her. If her father refuses to give her to him he shall pay the price of a maiden in cash.

18 "You shall not let a witch remain alive.

19 "Anyone who lies with a beast shall be put to death.

20 "One who sacrifices to other gods shall die without quarter.

21 "And an immigrant you shall not ill-treat nor oppress, because 22 you were immigrants in Egypt. Any widow or orphan you shall not 24 victimize; if you do, if he cries out to me I shall hear his cry and be angry and kill you in war, and your wives shall be widows and your children orphans.

25 "If you advance money to your neighbor in trouble you shall not be like a professional moneylender to him. You shall not charge him 26 interest; if you take your neighbor's cloak as a pawn you shall return 27 it to him by sunset, because it is his only covering, it is his blanket for his skin; what is he to sleep in? and when he cries out to me I will listen, because I am kindly.

28 "You shall not talk scurrilously of God nor curse a prince in your people.

29 "You shall not be backward in delivering your fillings and your 30 tricklings. You shall give me the firstborn of your sons. You shall do the same with your horned cattle and your sheep and goats: seven days it shall be with its mother, and on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

31 "You shall be hallowed men of mine, and not eat flesh out on the range, killed by beasts; you shall throw it to the dogs.

1 "You shall not raise a baseless report.

"Do not join hands with a knave to become a witness for injustice.

2 "You shall not follow numbers into mischief, nor in a case at law give testimony leaning to the popular side so as to warp the decision.

3 "You shall not make too much of great man's claim or poor man's.

"Do not join hands with a knave to become a witness for injustice.

2 "You shall not follow numbers into mischief, nor in a case at law give testimony leaning to the popular side so as to warp the decision.

3 "You shall not make too much of great man's claim or poor man's.

4 "When you encounter your enemy's cow or donkey straying you must get it back to him.

5 "When you see lying down under its load a donkey belonging to a man who hates you, and you are hanging back from unloading it for him, you must help him unload.

6 "You shall not warp the law in your enemy's case.

7 "You shall keep aloof from falsehood and not kill the innocent and the man who has right on his side, because I will never treat as in the right one who is in the wrong.

8 "And you shall not take a bribe, because a bribe blinds wide-awake men and upsets honest men's business.

9 "And an immigrant you shall not oppress; you know an immigrant's feelings because you were immigrants in Egypt.

10 "And for six years you shall sow your land and get in its produce, 11 but the seventh you shall leave it fallow and let it alone for the poor of your people to eat from, and what they leave the wild beasts shall eat. You shall do the same with your vineyards and your olive-trees.

12 "For six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall keep sabbath, in order that your ox and donkey may rest and that your slave and your immigrant may freshen up.

13 "And in everything that I tell you you shall be on your guard; and you shall not mention the names of other gods, they shall not be heard on your lips.

14 15 "Thrice a year you shall hold a feast to me. The feast of matzoth you shall observe: for seven days you shall eat matzoth, as I have commanded you, at the regular date in the green-ear month, because in it you came out of Egypt,—and you shall not appear before me 16 empty-handed,—and the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of your crops that you sowed in the fields, and the feast of harvest-home when the 17 year goes out, when you get in your crops from the fields. Three times a year every male of yours shall appear before the Lord Jehovah.

18 "You shall not sacrifice the blood of my sacrifice on yeast bread.

"The fat of my feast shall not stay over till morning.

19 "The first of the earliest cuttings from your land you shall bring to the house of your God Jehovah.

"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

20 "I am sending my Angel before you to guard you on the way and 21 bring you to the place I have prepared. Beware of offending him; obey him. Do not be disobedient, because he will not pardon your 22 offenses, because my name is in him. For if you obey him and do everything that I say, I will be enemy to your enemies and will 23 assail those who assail you, because my Angel will go before you and bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites, the Hivvites and the Jebusites, and I will ex-24 tirpate them. You shall not do reverence to their gods nor worship them, nor do like their doings, for you are to demolish their altars

25 and break their obelisks to pieces and worship your God Jehovah, and he will bless your bread and your water and remove maladies 26 from among you. There shall never be a barren woman, or one whose births miscarry, in your country; I will make the number of your days full.

27 "I will send my terror before you and throw into confusion all the people among whom you are to go in, and I will give you the 28 backs of all your enemies; and I will send hornets before you which shall expel the Hivvites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites, from before 29 you. I will not expel them before you in one year, for fear the country should become a desolation and wild beasts should multiply 30 in it; I will expel them before you little by little till you breed and 31 occupy the country. And I will set your boundaries from the Red Sea to the Philistine Sea and from the wilderness to the River, because I will give the inhabitants of the country into your hands and you 32 shall expel them before you. You shall make no terms with them 33 nor with their gods; they shall not remain in your country, for fear they should make you sin against me because you would worship their gods, because they would be a snare to you."

1 And to Moses he said "Come up to Jehovah, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and do rever-2 ence at a distance; and let Moses alone approach Jehovah, but not they; and let the people not come up with him."

3 And Moses came and told the people about all Jehovah's words and all his laws, and all the people answered unanimously "All the 4 things Jehovah has spoken of we will do." And Moses wrote down all Jehovah's words, and the first thing in the morning he built an altar under the mountain, and twelve obelisks for the twelve tribes of 5 Israel, and sent the young men of the sons of Israel, who offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed steers as welfare-sacrifices to Jehovah.
6 And Moses took half the blood and put it in bowls, and half the 7 blood he threw against the altar; and he took the minutes of the covenant and read them in the hearing of the people, and they said 8 "Everything that Jehovah spoke of we will do and obey." And Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and said "Here is the blood of the covenant Jehovah has made with you on all these terms."

9 And Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the 10 elders of Israel, went up, and they saw the God of Israel; and he had under his feet something like a sapphire tiling, like the very sky 11 for purity; and to the representatives of the sons of Israel he did not put out his hand; and they gazed on God and ate and drank.

12 And Jehovah said to Moses "Come up on the mountain to me and be there, and I will give you the stone tablets and the instruction 13 and commandment that I have written down to instruct them." And Moses and his assistant Joshua' rose and went up to God's mountain; and to the elders he said "Stay here till I come back to you; here you have with you Aaron and Hur; whoever has business may apply to them." And Moses went up the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain; and Jehovah's glory alighted on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days, and he called to Moses on the seventh day out of the midst of the cloud. And the appearance of Jehovah's glory was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in sight of the sons of Israel. And Moses went into the midst of the cloud and up the mountain, and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel to take a contribution for me; from every man whose heart moves him to generosity you shall take my contribution. And this is the contribution you are to take from them: gold and silver and bronze and violet and purple and scarlet and lawn and goats' hair and red morocco and sea-cow skins and acacia wood, oil for the light, spices for the oil for anointing and for the aromatic incense, beryls and stones for setting for the ephod and the pectoral. And have them make me a sanctuary, and I will take up my abode among them. Just as I show you the design of the tabernacle and of all its furnishings, so you shall make it.

10 "And they shall make an ark of acacia wood forty-five inches in length and twenty-seven inches in breadth and twenty-seven inches in depth. And you shall gild it with pure gold, gild it inside and outside, and make a gold molding around it, and cast four gold rings and put them on its four legs, two rings on one side and two on the other. And you shall make poles of acacia wood and gild them, and insert the poles in the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark by. The poles shall be in the rings of the ark, they shall never be taken off from it. And you shall put in the ark the Lessons I will give to you. And you shall make a mercy-seat of pure gold forty-five inches in length and twenty-seven inches in breadth; and you shall make two golden cherubs, make them of chased work, at the two ends of the mercy-seat, and make one cherub at this end and one cherub at that end; you shall make the cherubs in one piece with the mercy-seat, at its two ends. And the cherubs shall be stretching out their wings above, overarching the mercy-seat with their wings, their faces toward each other: the cherubs' faces shall be toward the mercy-seat. And you shall put the mercy-seat on top of the ark, and into the ark you shall put the Lessons I will give to you. And I will be there to meet you, and will speak to you off the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubs on the Ark of the Lessons, telling you everything that I command you for the sons of Israel.

23 "And you shall make a table of acacia wood three feet in length 24 and eighteen inches in breadth and twenty-seven inches in height, 25 and gild it with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it.
26 And you shall make a three-inch border around it, and make a gold 27 molding around its border, and make four gold rings for it and put the rings on the four broadsides of its four legs: the rings shall be close by the border, for eyes for the poles for carrying the table.
28 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and gild them, and the 29 table shall be carried by them. And you shall make its plates and its pans and its flagons and its chalices that libations are to be poured 30 with, make them of pure gold. And you shall put showbread on the table before me regularly.

31 "And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold: the lampstand shall be made of chased work; its base and its stem, its bowls, its 32 bulbs, and its petals, shall be in one piece. And there shall be six stems coming out of its sides, three lampstand-stems on one side 33 and three lampstand-stems on the other; three almond-flower bowls on one stem, bulbs and petals, and three almond-flower bowls on one stem, bulbs and petals, so for the six stems that come out of the 34 lampstand; and on the lampstand four almond-flower bowls, its 35 bulbs and its petals; and a bulb under the two stems, in one piece with it, and a bulb under the two stems, in one piece with it, and a bulb under the two stems, in one piece with it, for the six stems that 36 come out of the lampstand. Their bulbs and their stems shall be in one 37 piece with it, all a single piece of chased work of pure gold. And you shall make its lamps, seven of them, and set up its lamps and 38 have it throw the light to its front side; and its pincers and its fire-39 pans, pure gold. You shall make it, with all these furnishings, of a 40 hundredweight of pure gold. And see that you make them by the design you are shown on the mountain.

1 "And you shall make the tabernacle in ten breadths; of spun-thread lawn and violet and purple and scarlet, cherubs in tapestry, 2 you shall make them. Each breadth shall be forty-two feet long and each six feet wide; all the breadths shall be of the same measure.
3 Five breadths shall be fastened to each other and five shall be fastened 4 to each other; and you shall make violet loops on the border of the side breadth in one set, and likewise on the border of the last breadth 5 in the second set: fifty loops you shall make on the first breadth, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the breadth in the second 6 set, the loops to come opposite each other. And you shall make fifty gold links and fasten the breadths to each other with the links, and have the tabernacle one piece.

7 "And you shall make breadths of goats' hair for a tent over the 8 tabernacle: you shall make eleven of the breadths. Each breadth shall be forty-five feet long and each six feet wide; the eleven breadths 9 shall be of the same measure. And you shall fasten together five breadths by themselves and six breadths by themselves; and you are 10 to fold over the sixth breadth at the front of the tent. And you shall make fifty loops on the border of the last breadth in a set, and 11 fifty loops on the border of the breadth in the second set; and you shall make fifty bronze links and insert the links in the loops and 12 couple the tent and have it be one piece. And the margin of surplus in the breadths of the tent, the extra half-breadth, shall hang down 13 the back of the tent; and the eighteen inches on each side from the extra length of the breadths of the tent shall hang down the sides 14 of the tent on each side to cover it. And you shall make a red morocco cover for the tent, and a sea-cow skin cover on top.

15 "And you shall make the frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood, 16 standing: a frame shall be fifteen feet long, and each twenty-seven 17 inches wide; two sidepieces to each frame, braced one to the other; 18 you shall do the same for all the frames of the tabernacle. And you shall make the frames for the tabernacle, twenty frames for the 19 right-hand face to the south, and make forty silver plinths to go under the twenty frames, two plinths under each frame for its two 20 sidepieces; and for the second side of the tabernacle, the north face, 21 twenty frames, and forty silver plinths, two plinths under each 22 frame. And for the rear of the tabernacle, to the west, you shall make 23 six frames; and you shall make two frames for the corners of the 24 tabernacle at the rear, which shall be twin below and united at the top to the first ring: it shall be the same for both of them, both 25 corners shall have them, and there shall be eight frames and their silver plinths, sixteen plinths, two plinths under each frame.

26 "And you shall make bars of acacia wood, five bars for the frames 27 of one face of the tabernacle and five bars for the frames of the second face of the tabernacle and five bars for the frames of the rear 28 of the tabernacle, to the west; and the middle bar, at the middle of the frames, shall run through from end to end.

29 "And you shall gild the frames, and make their rings of gold as 30 eyes for the bars, and gild the bars, and set the tabernacle up in the fashion that you were shown on the mountain.

31 "And you shall make a veil of violet and purple and scarlet and 32 spun-thread lawn; he shall make it with cherubs in tapestry. And you shall put it on four gilded acacia pillars with gold hooks, on four 33 silver plinths. And you shall put the veil under the links, and take the ark of the Lessons in there, inside the veil; and you shall have the veil 34 to mark off the holy place from the holiest of the holy. And you shall put the veil over the ark of the Lessons in the holiest of the 35 holy, and set the table outside the veil and the lampstand opposite the table on the south side of the table, and put the table on the north side.

36 "And you shall make a screen for the entrance of the tent, of violet and purple and scarlet and spun-thread lawn, embroidered 37 work, and make five acacia pillars for the screen and gild them and give them gold hooks, and cast five bronze plinths for them.

1 "And you shall make the altar of acacia wood, seven and a half feet long and seven and a half wide—the altar is to be square—and 2 four and a half feet high; and make its horns on its four corners—the 3 horns are to be in one piece with it—and plate it with bronze. And you shall make its pots to carry off its ashes and its shovels and bowls and forks and firepans: all its furnishings you shall make in bronze.
4 And you shall make it a grating of bronze network, and make on 5 the net four bronze rings on its four corners, and put it underneath 6 the rim of the altar, the net reaching halfway down the altar. And you shall make poles for the altar, acacia-wood poles, and plate them 7 with bronze. And the poles shall be inserted in the rings, and the 8 poles shall be on two sides of the altar when it is carried. You shall make it hollow, of boards, as it was shown to you on the mountain; thus they shall do.

9 "And you shall make the court of the tabernacle: for the right-hand face toward the south, curtains for the court in spun-thread 10 lawn, a hundred and fifty feet long for one face; and its pillars, twenty, and their plinths, twenty, in bronze, the hooks of the pillars 11 and their fillets in silver. And the same for the north face, curtains a hundred and fifty long, and its pillars, twenty, and their plinths, twenty, in bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their fillets in silver.
12 And as breadth of the court, for the west face, seventy-five feet of 13 curtains, their pillars ten and their plinths ten. And as breadth of 14 the court for the east side toward the sunrise seventy-five feet; and twenty-two and a half feet of curtains for one side of the front, 15 their pillars three and their plinths three, and for the other side twenty-two and a half of curtains, their pillars three and their plinths 16 three; and for the gate of the court a screen of thirty feet of violet and purple and scarlet and spun-thread lawn embroidered, their 17 pillars four and their plinths four. All the pillars of the court on all sides shall be filleted with silver, their hooks silver and their plinths 18 bronze. The length of the court shall be a hundred and fifty feet and its breadth seventy-five, and its height seven and a half feet; and 19 their plinths bronze. As for all the tabernacle tools for all work about it, and all its tent-pegs and all the tent-pegs of the court, bronze.

20 "And do you give the order to the sons of Israel and take from them pure beaten olive oil for the light, to set up a lamp regularly.
21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the veil over the Lessons, Aaron and his sons shall set it out from evening till morning before Jehovah as a perpetual usage due them from the sons of Israel generation after generation.

CHAPTER 28

1 "And do you bring near to yourself your brother Aaron and his sons with him from among the sons of Israel to install him as priest to me: Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.
2 And you shall make sacred garments for your brother Aaron for 3 dignity and magnificence. And you shall speak to every artist whom I have filled with artistic inspiration, and they shall make Aaron's 4 garments to consecrate him, to install him as priest to me. And these are the garments they shall make: a pectoral and an ephod and a robe and a cord-quilted tunic, a turban and a sash; and they shall make sacred garments for Aaron and his sons to install him as priest 5 to me. And they shall receive the gold and the violet and the purple and the scarlet and the lawn.

6 "And they shall make the ephod of gold, violet, and purple, scarlet and spun-thread lawn, in tapestry work. It shall have two joining 7 shoulder-pieces: it shall be joined on at both ends. And the ephodage ribbon on it shall be in one piece with it, of the same work, gold, 8 violet, and purple and scarlet and spun-thread lawn. And you shall take the two stones, beryls, and engrave on them the names of Israel's 9 sons, six of the names on one stone and the names of the other six 10 on the other stone, in order of birth; in lapidary work, in seal-engraving style, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of 11 Israel's sons. Surrounded with gold filigree you shall make them, and place the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod as commemorative stones for the sons of Israel, and Aaron shall carry their names before Jehovah on his two shoulder-pieces for a commemoration.

12 13 14 "And you shall make pieces of gold filigree, and two twisted cords of pure gold; you shall make them of ropework, and put the rope cords on the filigrees.

15 "And you shall make a pectoral of judgment: in tapestry work you shall make it, like the work of the ephod; of gold, violet, and purple 16 and scarlet and spun-thread lawn, you shall make it. It shall be square, double, nine inches long and nine wide, and you shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of a sard, a chrysolite, 17 and a rock-crystal the first row, and the second row a garnet, a lapis lazuli, and a chalcedony, and the third row a cairngorm, an agate, 18 and an amethyst, and the fourth row a yellow jasper, a beryl, and a green jasper; they shall be enclosed in gold filigree in their setting.
19 20 21 And the stones shall be for the names of the sons of Israel, twelve of them for their names; they shall be seal-engravings, each for its name, for twelve tribes.

22 "And you shall make for the pectoral twisted cords of ropework in 23 pure gold; and you shall make for the pectoral two gold rings, and

24 put the two rings on the two edges of the pectoral, and put the two 25 gold ropes in the two rings on the edges of the pectoral; and the two ends of the two ropes you shall put on the two filigrees, and put them 26 on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, facing forward. And you shall make two gold rings and place them on the two edges of the pectoral 27 on its lip on the ephod side, inward; and you shall make two gold rings and put them on the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod low 28 down in front close by its juncture, above the ephod-ribbon; and they shall lace the pectoral on, from its rings to the rings of the ephod, with a violet cord, that it may be over the ephod-ribbon and the 29 pectoral may not swing away from the ephod, and Aaron may carry the names of the sons of Israel on his heart in the pectoral of judgment when he goes into the sanctuary, for a reminder before Jehovah 30 always. And you shall put in the pectoral of judgment the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be on Aaron's heart when he goes in before Jehovah; and Aaron shall carry the judgment of the sons of Israel on his heart before Jehovah always.

31 32 "And you shall make the ephod-robe in solid violet. And its head-hole shall be in the middle of it; the hole shall have a woven lip all round; it shall have a hole like that of a linen corselet, not slit.
33 And you shall make on its skirt pomegranates of violet and purple and scarlet, all round on its skirt, and golden bells between them all 34 round, a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pome-35 granate, all round on the skirt of the robe; and Aaron shall have it on him for officiating, and the sound of him shall be heard when he goes into the sanctuary before Jehovah and when he comes out, that he may not die.

36 "And you shall make a plate of pure gold, and engrave on it in 37 seal-engraving 'Sacred to Jehovah,' and put it on a violet cord and 38 let it be on the turban; it shall be in front of the turban, and Aaron shall have it on his forehead; and Aaron shall carry the responsibility for the faults of the sacred things the sons of Israel consecrate, all their sacred gifts, and shall have it on his forehead always to win them acceptance before Jehovah.

39 "And you shall cord-quilt the tunic in lawn; and you shall make a 40 turban in lawn; and a sash you shall make in embroidery. And for Aaron's sons you shall make tunics, and you shall make them sashes, and you shall make head-scarfs for them, for dignity and magnificence.
41 And you shall robe them, your brother Aaron and his sons with him, and anoint them and install them and consecrate them, and they shall 42 be priests to me. And make them linen drawers to cover their nudities; 43 let them be from waist to thigh; and let Aaron and his sons have them on when they go into the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to officiate with sacred things, so as not to bear guilt and die; it is a perpetual usage for him and his descendants after him.

- 1 "And this is the form you shall use to consecrate them to be priests 2 to me: take one steer of horned cattle and two faultless rams, and 3 matzoth and ritual-matzoth shortened with oil and sheet matzoth 4 rubbed over with oil; you shall make them of wheat farina; and put 5 them in one basket, and present them in the basket, and the steer and 6 the two rams. And your brother Aaron and his sons you shall present 7 at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and bathe them with water; and 8 you shall take the garments and put on Aaron the tunic and the 9 ephod-robe and the ephod and the pectoral, and ephod him with the 10 ephod-ribbon, and place the turban on his head and put the sacred 11 diadem on the turban; and you shall take the anointing-oil and pour 12 it on Aaron's head and anoint him. And you shall present his sons 13 and put tunics on them, and belt them with sash and tie head-scarfs 14 for them, and they shall have it as a priesthood for a perpetual right.
- 15 "And you shall install Aaron and his sons. And you shall present 16 the steer before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall 17 lay their hands on the steer's head; and you shall slaughter the steer 18 before Jehovah at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and you shall take 19 some of the steer's blood and put it on the horns of the altar with 20 your finger, and pour all the blood at the base of the altar. And you 21 shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the appendix of 22 the liver, and both kidneys and the fat on them, and burn them on the 23 altar. And the flesh of the steer and its skin and its dung you shall 24 burn up outside the camp; it is a sin-offering. And you shall take the 25 first ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the ram's 26 head, and you shall slaughter the ram and take its blood and throw 27 it against the altar on all sides; and you shall cut the ram in pieces, 28 and wash its entrails and legs and put them on the pieces of it and 29 on its head, and burn all of the ram at the altar: it is a burnt-offering 30 to Jehovah, it is a genial odor, a fire-offering to Jehovah. And you 31 shall take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their 32 hands on the ram's head, and you shall slaughter the ram and take 33 some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and the 34 lobes of his sons' right ears and on their right thumbs and their right 35 great toes, and throw the blood against the altar on all sides. And 36 you shall take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing 37 oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and 38 his sons' garments with him, and they shall become sacred, he and 39 his garments and his sons and his sons' garments with him. And you 40 shall take of the ram the fat and the fat tail and the fat that covers 41 the entrails and the appendix of the liver and both kidneys and the 42 fat on them, and the right leg, because it is an installation ram, 43 and one biscuit and one ritual-cake of shortbread and one sheet-cake 44 out of the basket of matzoth before Jehovah, and lay all on the hands 45 of Aaron and of his sons and wave it as a wave-offering before Jeho-

25 vah, and take it from their hands and burn it at the altar, besides 26 the burnt-offering, for a genial odor before Jehovah; it is a fire-offering to Jehovah. And you shall take the brisket from Aaron's 27 installation ram and wave it as a wave-offering before Jehovah, and you shall have it as your portion; and you shall consecrate the wave-offering brisket and the contribution leg that are waved and contributed out of the installation ram, out of Aaron's and out of that 28 of his sons, and Aaron and his sons shall have it as a perpetual right from the sons of Israel, because it is a contribution. And it shall be a contribution from the sons of Israel out of their welfare-sacrifices, their contribution to Jehovah.

29 "And Aaron's sacred garments shall belong to his sons after him 30 to be anointed and installed in. The one of his sons who succeeds him as priest, who goes into the Tent of Meeting to officiate in the sanctuary, shall wear them seven days.

31 "And the installation ram you shall take and boil its flesh in a 32 holy place, and Aaron and his sons shall eat at the door of the Tent 33 of Meeting the flesh of the ram and the bread in the basket. And those shall eat them who were purged by them to install them and consecrate them; and no outsider shall eat, because they are sacred.
34 And if any of the installation flesh and the bread is left over till morning you shall burn up what is left over: it shall not be eaten, because it is sacred.

35 "And you shall do the same for Aaron and his sons, just as I have 36 commanded you, seven days: you shall install them and do a sin-steer a day for the purgation, and clear away sin from the altar by 37 your purging it, and anoint it to consecrate it. Seven days you shall purge the altar and consecrate it, and the altar shall become holiest of the holy: anything that touches the altar shall become sacred.

38 "And this is what you shall do on the altar: two yearling sheep a 39 day regularly. The first sheep you shall do at morning and the second 40 sheep you shall do in the evening hours; and a tenth of a bushel of farina stirred up with three pints of beaten oil, and a libation of 41 three pints of wine, for the first sheep; and the second sheep you shall do in the evening hours, do for it the same grain-offering and the same libation as in the morning, for a genial odor, a fire-offering 42 to Jehovah, a regular burnt-offering generation after generation at the door of the Tent of Meeting where I meet you to speak to you 43 there; and I will meet the sons of Israel there, and it shall be hallowed 44 by my glory. And I will hallow the Tent of Meeting and the altar, 45 and Aaron and his sons I will hallow to be priests to me; and I will take up my abode among the sons of Israel, and they shall have me 46 for their God and shall know that I am their God Jehovah who brought them out of Egypt when I Jehovah their God have my abode among them.

1 "And you shall make an altar for incense-burning: you shall make 2 it of acacia wood, eighteen inches long and eighteen wide—it is to 3 be square—and three feet high, its horns in one piece with it, and gild 4 it with pure gold, its top and its walls all round and its horns, and 5 make a gold molding around it, and make two gold rings for it under 6 its molding on its two sides, make them both sides of it, and let them 7 be eyes for poles to carry it with; and make the poles of acacia wood 8 and gild them. And put it before the veil that goes over the ark of 9 the Lessons, before the mercy-seat over the Lessons, where I meet 10 you. And Aaron shall burn aromatic incense on it morning by morn-11 ing, burning it when he trims the lamps, and when Aaron sets up the 12 lamps in the evening hours he shall burn it, as a regular incense 13 before Jehovah generation after generation. You shall not offer 14 alien incense on it, nor burnt-offering nor grain-offering, nor pour a 15 libation on it. And Aaron shall purge its horns once a year; with 16 part of the blood of the annual sin-offering of purgation it shall be 17 purged generation after generation; it shall be holiest of the holy 18 to Jehovah."

11 12 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "When you take the census 13 of the sons of Israel by their muster, they shall each give Jehovah 14 composition-money for his life when they are mustered, and there shall 15 not be any calamity among them at mustering them. This they shall 16 give, everyone that passes the muster, half a shekel of the sacred 17 standard, twenty gerahs to a shekel: half a shekel as contribution to 18 Jehovah. Everyone that passes the muster, from twenty years old 19 up, shall give Jehovah's contribution: the rich man shall not increase 20 nor the poor man decrease the half-shekel, giving Jehovah's contri-21 bution to compound for your lives. And you shall take the money for 22 the compounding from the sons of Israel and apply it to the service 23 of the Tent of Meeting, and the sons of Israel shall have it as a 24 memorial before Jehovah to compound for your lives."

17 18 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "And you shall make a bronze 19 laver, with its pedestal bronze, for washing, and put it between the 20 Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in; and Aaron and his 21 sons shall wash their hands and feet out of it. When they go into the 22 Tent of Meeting they shall wash in water, so as not to die; or when 23 they approach the altar to officiate in burning a fire-offering to 24 Jehovah, they shall wash their hands and feet so as not to die. It 25 shall be a perpetual usage for him and his descendants generation 26 after generation."

22 23 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "And do you take first-class 24 spices, free-flowing opobalsam two hundred ounces and spice-cinnamon 25 half of it, one hundred, and spice-flag one hundred, and cassia two 26 hundred, by the sacred standard, and olive oil five quarts, and make 27 them into a sacred anointing-oil, a perfume scented by the perfumer's

26 art; it shall be a sacred anointing-oil. And you shall anoint with it 27 the Tent of Meeting, and the Ark of the Lessons, and the table and all its vessels, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of 28 incense, and the altar of burnt-offering and all its vessels, and the 29 laver and its pedestal, and consecrate them; and they shall be holiest 30 of the holy, everything that touches them shall become sacred. And Aaron and his sons you shall anoint, and consecrate them to be priests 31 to me. And to the sons of Israel you shall speak, saying 'You shall 32 have this as a sacred anointing-oil generation after generation: it shall never be poured on a human body, and you shall never make the like with the same proportions: it is sacred, you shall hold it sacred.
33 Anybody who compounds the like or who puts any of it on an alien object shall be cut off from his kinsfolk."

34 And Jehovah said to Moses "Take aromatics, myrrh and onycha and aromatic galbanum and pure frankincense; part for part it shall be; 35 and make it into a perfume-incense, a work of the perfumer's art, 36 salted, pure, a sacred thing, and powder it fine, and put some of it before the Lessons in the Tent of Meeting where I meet you; you shall 37 hold it holiest of the holy. And in the proportions of the incense you make you shall never make any for yourselves; you shall hold it sacred 38 to Jehovah. Anybody who makes the like to smell it shall be cut off from his kinsfolk."

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Look, I have called by name 3 Besalel the son of Uri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah, and filled him with divine inspiration in art and taste and skill in every craft, 4 to invent designs and to execute them in gold and silver and bronze 5 6 and in gem-carving and wood-carving, to work in every craft. And here I have put with him Oholiab the son of Ahisamac of the tribe of Dan, and have put talent in the heart of every artist, and they 7 shall make everything that I have commanded you, the Tent of Meeting and the ark of the Lessons and the mercy-seat over it and 8 all the vessels of the Tent, and the table and its vessels and the pure 9 lampstand and all its furnishings, and the altar of incense, and the altar of burnt-offering and all its furnishings, and the laver and its 10 pedestal, and the plated garments and the sacred garments for 11 Priest Aaron, and his sons' garments for priestly functions, and the anointing-oil and the aromatic incense for the sanctuary; just as I commanded you they shall do."

13 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "And do you tell the sons of Israel 'Only you shall keep my sabbaths, because that is a token between me and you generation after generation, to know that I am 14 Jehovah who consecrate you. And you shall keep the sabbath, because it is a sacred thing of yours; one who profanes it shall be put to death, because whoever does work on it, that person shall be cut off from

- 15 among his kinsfolk. Six days there shall be work done, but on the seventh day is a sabbath, a sacred sabbath rest of Jehovah's; whoever 16 does work on the sabbath day shall be put to death.' And the sons of Israel shall keep the sabbaths, celebrating the sabbath generation 17 after generation as a perpetual covenant. Between me and the sons of Israel it is a token forever, because Jehovah was six days making the heavens and the earth and on the seventh day he left off and rested up."
- 18 And he gave Moses, when he finished speaking to him on Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the Lessons, stone tablets written with God's own finger.

- 1 And the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain; and the people assembled about Aaron and said to him "Get to work and make us gods that may go before us, because we do not know what has happened to this Moses, the man that brought 2 us up out of Egypt." And Aaron said to them "Strip off the gold earrings your wives and children have in their ears and bring them 3 to me." And all the people stripped off the gold earrings they had in their ears and brought them to Aaron; and he took these from their 4 hands and shaped it with a chisel and made it a cast-metal calf, and they said "These are your gods, Israel, that brought you up out of 5 Egypt." And Aaron saw this and built an altar before it, and proclaimed "There is a feast to Jehovah tomorrow." And the first thing 6 next morning they offered burnt-offerings and brought up welfare-sacrifices, and the people sat down to eat and drink and rose to play.
- 7 And Jehovah spoke to Moses: "Go down and go, because your 8 people that you brought up out of Egypt have turned vicious, they have gone off at once from the course I enjoined on them, they have made themselves a cast-metal calf and done reverence to it and sacrificed to it and said 'These are your gods, Israel, that brought you 10 up out of Egypt.' Now let me be and let my anger break out at them, and I will exterminate them and make you a great people."
11 But Moses propitiated God and said "Jehovah, why should your anger break out against your people whom you have brought out of Egypt 12 with great power and strong hand? why should the Egyptians say 'It was for mischief he brought them out, to kill them among the mountains and to exterminate them off the face of the earth'? Turn 13 back from your anger and repent of the mischief to your people. Remember for your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel what you swore to them by yourself and promised them, 'I will make your descendants numerous as the stars in the sky, and all this country that I have mentioned I will give to your descendants and they shall occupy it 14 forever.'"
- And Jehovah repented of the mischief he had threatened to do to his people.

15 And Moses turned and went down off the mountain with the two 16 tablets of the Lessons in his hands, tablets written on both faces: they 17 were written on this side and on that; and the tablets were God's 18 work, and the writing was God's writing, cut on the tablets. And 19 Joshua' heard the sound of the people cheering, and said to Moses 20 "There is a sound of fighting in the camp." But he said "It is no 21 sound of voices in struggle nor of voices succumbing, what I hear 22 is a sound of singing." And when he neared the camp and saw the 23 calf and dancing Moses was angry, and threw the tablets out of his 24 hands and smashed them under the mountain; and he took the calf 25 they had made and burned it up and ground it to a powder and 26 sprinkled it on the water and had the sons of Israel drink it. And 27 Moses said to Aaron "What had this people done to you that you 28 brought a great sin upon them?" and Aaron said "Do not be angry, 29 sir; you know this people is evil-disposed, and they said to me 'Make 30 us gods that will go before us, because we do not know what has 31 happened to this Moses, the man that brought us up out of Egypt.'
 32 And I said to them 'Who has any gold? strip it off'; and they gave it 33 to me, and I threw it in the fire, and this calf came out." 34 And Moses saw the people were demoralized, because Aaron had 35 demoralized them to be a butt among those who should stand up against them; and Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said
 "Whoever is for Jehovah, come here to me!" and all the sons of Levi came there to him. And he said to them "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Put your swords at your sides; go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp and each kill his brother and friend and neighbor." And the sons of Levi did as Moses said, and there fell of the people on that day about three thousand men. And Moses said "Do your devoir today for Jehovah, because it must be at the price of each man's son and brother that you are to be given a blessing." And the next day Moses said to the people "You have committed a great sin; now I will go up to Jehovah, perhaps I may purge your sin." And Moses went back to Jehovah and said "Ah, this people have committed a great sin and made themselves gold gods. But now if you forgive their sin—but if not, blot me out from your book that you have written." And Jehovah said to Moses "Whoever has sinned against me, him I will blot out from my book. Now go, lead the people where I told you; here shall my Angel go before you; but on my day for punishing I will punish them for their sin." And Jehovah smote the people for their making the calf Aaron made.

CHAPTER 33

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses "Go on, go up from here, you and the people you have brought up out of Egypt, to the country of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, 'I will give it to your 2 descendants,' and I will send before you an Angel and expel the Canaanites, Amorites, and Hittites, and the Perizzites, Hivvites, and Jebusites; to a country that runs milk and honey. For I will not go up among you, because you are a hard-necked people, so that I might exterminate you on the way." And the people heard this bad word, and mourned, and not a man put on his jewelry. And Jehovah said to Moses "Say to the sons of Israel 'You are a hard-necked people; going up among you for one moment I should end you; now lay off your jewelry and I will see what I will do for you'"; and the sons of Israel laid off their jewelry from Mount Horeb on.

And Moses would take the tent and pitch it for him outside the camp, at a distance from the camp, and call it the Tent of Meeting; and everyone who was looking for Jehovah would go out to the Tent of Meeting outside the camp. And when Moses went out to the Tent all the people would rise and take their stand at the doors of their tents and look after Moses till he went into the Tent. And when Moses went into the Tent the pillar of cloud would come down and stand at the door of the Tent and talk with Moses; and all the people would see the pillar of cloud standing at the door of the Tent, and all the people would rise and do reverence at the doors of their tents; and Jehovah would talk with Moses face to face as a man talks with his friend. And he would go back to the camp, but his attendant Joshua' the son of Nun, a young man, never budged from within the Tent.

And Moses said to Jehovah "See, you are saying to me 'Lead this people up,' and you have not made me acquainted with the one you will send with me; and you have said 'I know you by name and you have my goodwill.' Now, if I have your goodwill, make known your paths to me that I may know you, so that I may have your goodwill. And observe that this nation is your own people." And he said "My presence shall go, and I will give you rest." And he said to him "If your presence does not go, do not send us up from here. And by what is it to be known that I have your goodwill, I and your people? is it not by your going with us and our being distinguished, I and your people, from all the people on the face of the earth?" And Jehovah said to Moses "This thing too that you speak of I will do, because you have my goodwill and I know you by name."

And he said "Show me your glory." And he said "I will pass all my goodness before you and proclaim the name of Jehovah before you, and be gracious to whom I am gracious to and merciful to whom I am merciful to." And he said "You cannot see my face, because man does not see my face and live." And Jehovah said "Here I have a place in mind; and you shall take your stand on the rock, and when my glory is passing by I will place you in the cavity of the rock and I will cover over you with my hand till I have gone past; and I will take my hand away and you shall see my back, and my face not be seen."

1 And Jehovah said to Moses "Carve yourself two stone tablets like the original ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were 2 on the original tablets that you broke; and be ready for morning, and come up in the morning on Mount Sinai and stand there for me 3 on top of the mountain. And nobody is to come up with you, nor anybody show himself anywhere on the mountain, nor the sheep and cattle feed on the side toward the mountain either."

4 And Moses carved two stone tablets like the original ones, and the first thing in the morning he went up on Mount Sinai as Jehovah had 5 commanded him to, and took the two stone tablets. And Jehovah came down in the cloud and stood there with him and proclaimed 6 the name of Jehovah; and Jehovah passed by before him, and Jehovah proclaimed "Jehovah is a deity tenderhearted and kindly, patient 7 and very friendly and loyal, keeping friendship for thousands, pardoning guilt and crime and sin but not acquitting an offender, 8 visiting fathers' guilt on children and grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren." And Moses quickly 9 bowed down to the ground and did reverence, and said "If I have your goodwill, my Lord, let my Lord go among us, because it is a hard-necked people but you will forgive our guilt and sin and have us for your own."

10 And he said "Here I make a covenant: before the face of all your people I will do wonders that had never been created anywhere on earth nor in any nation, and all the people among whom you are shall 11 see Jehovah's work to be terrible, that I do together with you. Keep what I command you today: here I am expelling before you the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and 12 the Hivvites and the Jebusites; beware that you do not make terms with the inhabitants of the country you are going in against, lest 13 they should be a snare among you; but you shall pull down their altars and break up their obelisks and cut down their asherahs, 14 because you are not to do reverence to another deity, for Jehovah's name is Jealous; he is a jealous deity, that you may not make terms 15 with the inhabitants of the country, and they prostitute themselves to go after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and they invite you 16 and you eat some of their sacrifice, and you marry your sons to daughters of theirs and their daughters prostitute themselves to go after 17 their gods and seduce your sons into going after their gods. You shall not make yourself metal gods. The feast of matzoth you shall keep:
18 seven days you shall eat matzoth, as I commanded you, at the regular date in the green-ear month, because in the green-ear month you came 19 out of Egypt. Everyone that has started a womb belongs to me: of all your stock you shall sacrifice the male that starts, horned cattle and 20 small cattle; and a donkey that has started a womb you shall redeem with a sheep or goat, or if you do not redeem it you shall break its neck; every firstborn son of yours you shall redeem, and they shall 21 not appear before me empty-handed. Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall keep sabbath; in plowing and in harvest you 22 shall keep sabbath. And you shall celebrate the feast of weeks, the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of harvest-home at the 23 turn of the year. Three times a year every male of yours shall appear 24 before the Lord Jehovah the God of Israel; for I will dispossess nations before you and widen your territories, and nobody shall desire your land when you go up to appear before your God Jehovah 25 three times a year. You shall not let the blood of my sacrifices run on yeast bread; nor shall the sacrifice of the passover feast stay over for 26 morning. The first of the earliest cuttings from your land you shall bring to the house of your God Jehovah. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."

27 And Jehovah said to Moses "Write down these words, because on 28 these terms I make a covenant with you and with Israel." And he was there with Jehovah forty days and forty nights, not eating bread nor drinking water; and he wrote on the tablets the terms of the covenant, the Ten Things.

29 And when Moses came down from Mount Sinai, Moses had the two tablets in his hands as he came down from the mountain, and Moses did not know that the skin of his face was luminous by his talking 30 with him. And Aaron and all the elders of Israel saw Moses and saw that the skin of his face was luminous, and were afraid to approach 31 him. And Moses called them, and Aaron and all the princes of the 32 congregation came back to him, and Moses spoke to them. And after that all the sons of Israel approached and he gave them all the 33 orders of which Jehovah had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. And 34 Moses finished talking with them and put a veil over his face. And when Moses went in before Jehovah to speak with him he would take the veil off till he came out; and he would come out and speak to the 35 sons of Israel, telling them what he was commanded to, and the sons of Israel would see Moses's face was luminous, and Moses would put the veil back on his face till he went in to speak with him.

CHAPTER 35

1 And Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel and 2 said to them "These are the things Jehovah has commanded to do. Six days you shall do work, but on the seventh day you shall have a sacred time of sabbath, a sabbath rest of Jehovah's; everyone who 3 does work on it shall be put to death. You shall never light a fire in any of your domiciles on the sabbath day."

4 And Moses said to all the congregation of the sons of Israel "This 5 is the thing Jehovah has commanded: Take from what you have on hand a contribution for Jehovah; everyone stirred to generosity by his heart shall bring it, Jehovah's contribution in gold and silver and 6 bronze and violet and purple and scarlet and lawn and goats' hair 7 and red morocco and sea-cow skins and acacia wood, and oil for the 8 light, and spices for the oil for anointing and for the aromatic 9 incense, and beryls and stones for setting for the ephod and the 10 pectoral; and let every artist among you come and make everything 11 that Jehovah has commanded, the tabernacle, its tent and its cover, 12 its links and its frames, its bars, its pillars and its plinths, the ark 13 and its poles, the mercy-seat and the screening veil, the table and its 14 poles and all its furnishings, and the lampstand for the light and all 15 its furnishings and its lamps, and the altar for the incense and its 16 poles, and the oil for anointing and the aromatic incense, and the 17 entrance-screen for the entrance of the tabernacle, the altar for the 18 burnt-offerings and its bronze grating, its poles and all its furnishings, 19 the laver and its pedestal, the curtains of the court, its pillars and its 20 plinths, and the screen for the gate of the court, the tent-pegs for the 21 tabernacle and the tent-pegs for the court and their ropes, the platted garments for serving in the holy place and the sacred garments for Priest Aaron and his sons' garments for priestly functions."

20 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel went out from before 21 Moses; and every man who had confidence in his powers came, and everyone whose spirit stirred him to give brought Jehovah's contri-22 bution for the work of the Tent of Meeting and for all its service and for the sacred garments. And the men brought with the women: every generous-hearted one brought brooches and nose-rings and finger-rings and earrings and bangles, every kind of golden article, and whatever wave-offering of gold any man waved before Jehovah.
23 And every man in whose possession was to be found violet and purple and scarlet and lawn and goats' hair and red morocco and sea-cow 24 skins brought them; everyone who made a contribution of silver and bronze brought Jehovah's contribution; and everyone in whose possession was to be found acacia wood for any service in the work 25 brought it. And every woman with artistic gifts spun with her hands and brought yarn, the violet and the purple and the scarlet and the 26 lawn; and all the women who had confidence in their artistic powers spun the goats' hair. And the princes brought the beryls and the 27 stones for setting for the ephod and the pectoral, and the spice and the oil for the light and for the oil for anointing and for the aromatic 28 incense. Every man and woman whose hearts generously stirred them to bring for all the work which Jehovah had by Moses commanded should be done, the sons of Israel brought a voluntary offering to Jehovah.

30 And Moses said to the sons of Israel "Look, Jehovah has called by name Besalel the son of Uri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah, 31 and filled him with divine inspiration in art and taste and skill and 32 in every craft, to invent designs and to execute them in gold and 33 silver and bronze and in gem-carving and wood-carving, to work in

34 every artistic craft, and has endowed him to give directions,—him 35 and Oholiab the son of Ahisamac of the tribe of Dan. He has filled them with artistic power for doing all work of craftsman and artist and embroiderer in violet and purple and scarlet and lawn and

1 weaver, doers of all work and inventors of designs. And Besalel and Oholiab, and every artist into whom Jehovah has put artistry and taste to know how to work, shall do all the work of the sacred service for everything that Jehovah has commanded.”

2 And Moses called Besalel and Oholiab and every artist into whose heart Jehovah had put artistry, everyone who had confidence in his powers, to attack the work and do it. And they took from before Moses the contribution that the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the sacred service, to do it; and they were still bringing 4 voluntary offerings morning by morning. And all the artists who were doing the sacred work came from their several works that they were doing and said to Moses “The people are bringing more than enough for the service of the work that Jehovah commanded should 6 be done.” And Moses gave orders, and they passed the cry through the camp “Let no man or woman do any more work for the sacred 7 contribution,” and the people were checked from bringing. And they had enough material for all the work, to do it and to leave some over.

8 And all the artists among those who did the work made the tabernacle in ten breadths; of spun-thread lawn and violet and purple and 9 scarlet, cherubs in tapestry, they made them. Each breadth was forty-two feet long and each six feet wide; all the breadths were of 10 the same measure. And he fastened together five breadths one to another and five breadths one to another, and he made violet loops on the border of the side breadth in one set, likewise on the border of 12 the last breadth in the second set: fifty loops he made on the first breadth, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the breadth in the second set, the loops coming opposite each other. And he made fifty 13 gold links and fastened the breadths to each other with the links, so that the tabernacle was one piece.

14 And he made breadths of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle: he made eleven of the breadths. Each breadth was forty-five feet long and each six feet wide; the eleven breadths were of the same 16 measure. And he fastened together five breadths by themselves and six breadths by themselves; and he made fifty loops on the border of the last breadth in a set, and fifty loops he made on the border of the 18 breadth in the second set. And he made fifty bronze links to fasten the tent so that it should be one piece. And he made a red morocco cover for the tent, and a sea-cow skin cover on top.

20 And he made the frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing: a frame was fifteen feet long, and each twenty-seven inches wide;

22 two sidepieces to each frame, braced one to the other; he did the 23 same for all the frames of the tabernacle. And he made the frames for the tabernacle, twenty frames for the right-hand face to the south, 24 and made forty silver plinths to go under the twenty frames, two 25 plinths under each frame for its two sidepieces; and for the second 26 side of the tabernacle, the north face, twenty frames, and forty silver 27 plinths, two plinths under each frame. And for the rear of the tabernacle, 28 to the west, he made six frames; and he made two frames for 29 the corners of the tabernacle at the rear, which were twin below and united at the top to the first ring: it was the same for both of them, 30 for both corners, and it made eight frames and their silver plinths, sixteen plinths, two plinths under each frame.

31 And he made bars of acacia wood, five bars for the frames of one 32 face of the tabernacle and five bars for the frames of the second face of the tabernacle and five bars for the frames of the rear of the 33 tabernacle, to the west; and he made the middle bar to run through at the middle of the frames from end to end.

34 And he gilded the frames, and made their rings of gold as eyes for the bars, and gilded the bars.

35 And he made the veil of violet and purple and scarlet and spun-36 thread lawn; he made it with cherubs in tapestry. And he made four acacia pillars for it and gilded them, and gave them gold hooks; and 37 he cast four silver plinths for them. And he made a screen for the entrance of the tent, of violet and purple and scarlet and spun-thread 38 lawn, embroidered work, and its pillars, five of them, and their gold hooks, and gilded their tops and their fillets, and gave them five bronze plinths.

CHAPTER 37

1 And Besalel made the ark of acacia wood, forty-five inches in length and twenty-seven inches in breadth and twenty-seven inches in depth, 2 and gilded it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a gold 3 molding around it, and cast four gold rings for it to go on its four 4 legs, two rings on one side and two on the other. And he made poles 5 of acacia wood and gilded them, and inserted the poles in the rings on 6 the sides of the ark, to carry the ark by. And he made a mercy-seat of pure gold forty-five inches in length and twenty-seven inches in 7 breadth, and made two gold cherubs, made them of chased work, at 8 the two ends of the mercy-seat, one cherub at this end and one cherub at that end; he made them in one piece with the mercy-seat, at its 9 two ends. And the cherubs were stretching out their wings above, overarching the mercy-seat with their wings, their faces toward each other: the cherubs' faces were toward the mercy-seat.

10 And he made the table of acacia wood, three feet in length and 11 eighteen inches in breadth and twenty-seven inches in height, and 12 gilded it with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it. And he made a three-inch border around it, and made a gold molding 13 around its border, and cast four gold rings for it and put the rings 14 on the four broadsides of its four legs: the rings were close by the 15 border, as eyes for the poles for carrying the table. And he made the 16 poles of acacia wood and gilded them, for carrying the table. And he made the furnishings on the table, its plates and its pans and its chalices and its flagons that libations were to be poured with, of pure gold.

17 And he made the lampstand of pure gold: he made the lampstand of chased work; its base and its stem, its bowls, its bulbs, and its 18 petals, were in one piece. And there were six stems coming out of its sides, three lampstand-stems on one side and three lampstand-stems 19 on the other; three almond-flower bowls on one stem, bulbs and petals, and three almond-flower bowls on one stem, bulbs and petals, so for 20 the six stems that came out of the lampstand; and on the lampstand 21 four almond-flower bowls, its bulbs and its petals; and a bulb under the two stems, in one piece with it, and a bulb under the two stems, in one piece with it, and a bulb under the two stems, in one piece 22 with it, for the six stems that came out of it. Their bulbs and their stems were in one piece with it, all a single piece of chased work of 23 pure gold. And he made its lamps, seven of them, and its pincers and 24 its firepans, pure gold. He made it, and all its furnishings, of a hundred pounds of pure gold.

25 And he made the altar for incense-burning of acacia wood, eighteen inches long and eighteen wide, square, and three feet high, its horns 26 in one piece with it, and gilded it with pure gold, its top and its walls 27 all round and its horns, and made a gold molding around it, and made two gold rings for it under its molding on its two sides, both 28 sides of it, for eyes for poles to carry it with; and he made the poles of acacia wood and gilded them.

29 And he made the anointing-oil, sacred, and the aromatic incense, pure, a work of the perfumer's art.

1 And he made the altar for the burnt-offerings of acacia wood, seven and a half feet long and seven and a half wide, square, and four and 2 a half feet high; and he made its horns on its four corners—the horns 3 were in one piece with it—and plated it with bronze. And he made all the furnishings of the altar, the pots and the shovels and the bowls and the forks and the firepans: all its furnishings he made in 4 bronze. And he made for the altar a grating of bronze network, under-5 neath its rim, reaching halfway down; and he cast four rings at the 6 four corners of the bronze network, as eyes for the poles. And he 7 made the poles of acacia wood and plated them with bronze, and inserted the poles in the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it by. He made it hollow, of boards.

8 And he made the laver of bronze, and its pedestal of bronze, with the mirrors of the women on service who did duty at the door of the Tent of Meeting.

9 And he made the court: for the right-hand face toward the south, curtains for the court in spun-thread lawn for a hundred and fifty 10 feet, and their pillars, twenty, and their plinths, twenty, in bronze, 11 the hooks of the pillars and their fillets in silver; and for the north face a hundred and fifty feet, their pillars, twenty, and their plinths, 12 twenty, in bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their fillets in silver; 13 and for the west face seventy-five feet of curtains, their pillars ten 14 and their plinths ten, the hooks of the pillars and their fillets in 15 silver; and for the east side toward the sunrise seventy-five feet, 16 twenty-two and a half feet of curtains for one side of the front, their 17 pillars three and their plinths three, and for the other side; on this side and on that side of the gate of the court twenty-two and a half feet of curtains, their pillars three and their plinths three. All the curtains of the court, all round, were spun-thread lawn, and the plinths for the pillars bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their fillets silver and the casing of their tops silver, and themselves filleted with silver, all the pillars of the court.

18 And the screen of the gate of the court, embroidered work in violet and purple and scarlet and spun-thread lawn, thirty feet in length, and in height, breadthwise, seven and a half feet to match the curtains 19 of the court; and their pillars four and their plinths four in bronze, their hooks silver, and the casing of their tops and their fillets silver.
20 And all the tent-pegs for the tabernacle and for the court, all round, bronze.

21 These are the statistics of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Lessons, taken at Moses's direction by the work of the Levites under 22 Ithamar the son of Priest Aaron. Besalel the son of Uri the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that Jehovah had given 23 Moses the order for, and with him Oholiab the son of Ahisamac, of the tribe of Dan, carver and tapestry-designer and embroiderer in 24 violet and purple and scarlet and lawn. All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sacred things, the gold of the wave-offering, amounted to twenty-nine hundredweight and seven 25 hundred and thirty shekels of the sacred standard. And the silver from the muster of the congregation was a hundred hundredweight and seventeen hundred and seventy-five shekels of the sacred standard: a beka' per capita, half a shekel of the sacred standard, for 26 everyone that passed the muster from twenty years old up, for six 27 hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty. And a hundred hundredweight of the silver went for casting the plinths of the sanctuary and of the veil, a hundred plinths to the hundred hundred-28 weight, a hundredweight to a plinth; and the seventeen hundred and seventy-five shekels he made into hooks for the pillars and cased

29 their tops and filleted them with it. And the bronze of the wave-offering was seventy hundredweight and twenty-four hundred shekels;
30 and he made with it the plinths of the door of the Tent of Meeting and the bronze altar and its bronze network and all the furnishings 31 of the altar, and the plinths of the court all round and the plinths of the gate of the court and all the tent-pegs of the tabernacle and all the tent-pegs of the court all round.

1 And part of the violet and purple and scarlet they made into platted garments for serving in the holy place, and they made Aaron's 2 sacred garments as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And they made the ephod of gold, violet, and purple and scarlet and spun-thread 3 lawn, and beat out the sheets of gold and cut them up into threads to work into the violet and into the purple and into the scarlet and 4 into the lawn in tapestry work. They made joining shoulder-pieces for 5 it; it was joined on at both ends. And the ephodage ribbon on it was in one piece with it, of the same work, gold, violet, and purple and 6 scarlet and spun-thread lawn, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And they made the two stones, beryls, surrounded with gold filigree, en-7 graved in seal-engraving style with the names of Israel's sons, and placed them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod as commemorative stones for the sons of Israel, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

8 And they made the pectoral in tapestry work, like the work of the ephod, of gold, violet, and purple and scarlet and spun-thread lawn.
9 It was square; they made the pectoral double, nine inches long and 10 nine wide, and set in it four rows of stones: a row of a sard, a chryso-11 lite, and a rock-crystal the first row, and the second row a garnet, 12 a lapis lazuli, and a chalcedony, and the third row a cairngorm, an 13 agate, and an amethyst, and the fourth row a yellow jasper, a beryl, 14 and a green jasper, surrounded with gold filigree in their setting: the stones were for the names of the sons of Israel, twelve of them for their names, seal-engravings, each for its name, for twelve tribes.

15 And they made for the pectoral twisted cords of ropework in pure 16 gold, and made two pieces of gold filigree and two gold rings and 17 put the two rings on the two edges of the pectoral and put the two 18 gold ropes in the two rings on the edges of the pectoral, and the two ends of the two ropes they put on the two filigrees and put them on 19 the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, facing forward. And they made two gold rings and placed them on the two edges of the pectoral on its 20 lip on the ephod side, inward, and made two gold rings and put them on the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod low down in front close by 21 its juncture, above the ephod-ribbon, and laced the pectoral on, from its rings to the rings of the ephod, with a violet cord, to have it over the ephod-ribbon and not have the pectoral swing away from the ephod, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

23 And they made the ephod-robe, woven, in solid violet. And the 24 neck of the robe was in the middle of it, like that of a linen corselet; 25 the neck had a woven lip all round, not slit. And they made on the 26 skirt of the robe pomegranates of violet and purple and scarlet, in spun thread; and they made bells of pure gold and put the bells between the pomegranates all round on the skirt of the robe, between the pomegranates, a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all round on the skirt of the robe, for officiating, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

27 And they made the tunics in lawn, woven, for Aaron and his sons, 28 and the turban in lawn, and the scarf headdresses in lawn, and the 29 linen drawers in spun-thread lawn, and the sash in spun-thread lawn and violet and purple and scarlet embroidery, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 And they made the plate for the sacred diadem of pure gold, and 31 inscribed on it in seal-engraving letters "Sacred to Jehovah," and put it on a violet cord to put on the turban at the top, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

32 And all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was 33 finished, and the sons of Israel did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, just so. And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings, its links, its frames, its bars and pillars and plinths, and the red morocco cover and the sea-cow skin cover and the screening veil, the ark of the Lessons and its poles and the mercy-seat, the table with all its furnishings and the showbread, the pure lampstand, its lamps, the lamps of the regular set, and all its furnishings and the oil for the light, and the gold altar, and the oil for anointing, and the aromatic incense, and the screen for the door of the tent, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its poles and all its furnishings, the laver and its pedestal, the curtains for the court, its pillars and its plinths, and the screen for the gate of the court, its ropes and its tent-pegs, and all the tools for work about the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting; the platted garments for serving in the holy place, the sacred garments for Priest Aaron and his sons' garments for priestly service. Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel had done all the work. And Moses saw all the fabric and found they had made it as Jehovah had commanded, done just so; and Moses blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "On the day of the first new 3 moon, the first of the month, you shall set up the tabernacle of the 4 Tent of Meeting. And you shall place there the ark of the Lessons, 5 and screen the ark with the veil, and bring in the table and set it, and bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps, and put the gold altar before the ark of the Lessons for incense, and put in place the 6 screen of the door of the tabernacle, and put the altar for the burnt-7 offering before the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and put the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put 8 water there, and put in place the court around it and put up the 9 screen of the gate of the court, and take the anointing-oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it and hallow it and all its fur-10 nishings and have it sacred, and anoint the altar for the burnt-offering and all its furnishings and hallow the altar and have the altar holiest 11 of the holy, and anoint the laver and its pedestal and hallow it, 12 and bring Aaron and his sons near the door of the Tent of Meeting 13 and bathe them with water, and dress Aaron in the sacred garments 14 and anoint him and hallow him and let him be priest to me, and 15 bring his sons near and dress them in tunics and anoint them as you anointed their father and let them be priests to me, and let them have their anointing take effect for a perpetual priesthood generation after generation."

16 And Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him, did just so.
17 And on the day of the first new moon in the second year, on the first 18 of the month, the tabernacle was set up. And Moses set up the tabernacle and put down its plinths and placed its frames and put in 19 its bars and set up its pillars, and spread the tent over the tabernacle and laid the cover of the tent over it on top, as Jehovah had 20 commanded Moses, and took the Lessons and put them in the ark and placed the poles on the ark and put the mercy-seat on top of the 21 ark, and brought the ark into the tabernacle and put in place the screening veil and screened the ark of the Lessons, as Jehovah had 22 commanded Moses. And he put the table in the Tent of Meeting deep in at the side of the tabernacle on the north, outside the veil, 23 and set it with bread before Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded 24 Moses. And he placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite 25 the table, deep in at the side of the tabernacle on the south, and set 26 up the lamps before Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And 27 he placed the gold altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil, and 28 burned aromatic incense on it, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And 29 he put the door-screen in place for the tabernacle, and placed the altar for the burnt-offering at the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt-offering and the grain-offering, 30 as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And he placed the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water there for washing; 31 and Moses and Aaron would wash their hands and feet out of it 32 when they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they approached 33 the altar they would wash, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And he set up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and put the screen at the gate of the court.

34 And Moses finished the work. And the cloud covered the Tent of 35 Meeting, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle; and Moses could

- not go into the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled down 36 on it and Jehovah's glory had filled it. And when the cloud lifted from the tabernacle the sons of Israel marched, throughout their 37 marches, and if the cloud did not lift they did not march till the day 38 that it lifted. For Jehovah's cloud was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel throughout their marches.

THE BOOK OF LEVITICUS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 And Jehovah called to Moses and spoke to him out of the Tent
- 2 of Meeting, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When a person among
- 3 you presents an oblation to Jehovah of a beast, of horned cattle or
- 4 of small cattle you shall present your oblation. If his oblation be a
- 5 burnt-offering of horned cattle, it shall be a faultless male that he
- 6 presents: at the door of the Tent of Meeting he shall present it for
- 7 acceptance before Jehovah, and he shall lay his hand on the head of
- 8 the burnt-offering, and it will be accepted for him to purge him.
- 9 And he shall slaughter the bull before Jehovah, and the sons of Aaron,
- 10 the priests, shall bring forward the blood and throw the blood against
- 11 the altar at the door of the Tent of Meeting on all sides. And he
- 12 shall skin the burnt-offering and cut it up into the proper pieces; and
- the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall put fire on the altar and lay wood
- on the fire; and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall lay the pieces,
- and the head and the suet, on the wood on the fire on the altar.
- And he shall wash its entrails and its shanks in water, and the priest
- shall burn the whole at the altar; it is a burnt-offering, a fire-offering,
- a genial odor to Jehovah.
- "And if his oblation be of small cattle, of sheep or of goats, for a
- burnt-offering, it shall be a faultless male that he presents. And he
- shall slaughter it before Jehovah by the northwest corner of the
- altar, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall throw the blood against
- the altar on all sides. And he shall cut it up into the proper pieces,
- and the head and the suet, and the priest shall lay them on the wood

- 13 on the fire on the altar. And he shall wash the entrails and the shanks in water, and the priest shall bring forward the whole and burn it at the altar: it is a burnt-offering, a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah.
- 14 "And if his oblation be a burnt-offering of birds to Jehovah, he 15 shall present his oblation of turtledoves or of squabs, and the priest shall bring it forward to the altar and nip off its head and burn it at the altar, and its blood shall run out against the side of the altar.
16 And he shall remove its crop with its contents and throw it down 17 beside the altar on the east, in the place for the fat-ashes, and he shall twist its wings out of joint but not off; and the priest shall burn it at the altar, on the wood on the fire; it is a burnt-offering, a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah.

- 1 "And when a person presents the oblation of a grain-offering to Jehovah, his oblation shall be farina, and he shall pour oil on it and 2 put frankincense on it and bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests; and he shall clutch up off it all his hand can clutch of the farina and the oil, with all the frankincense, and the priest shall burn at the altar 3 the memorial of it as a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah; and the remainder of the grain-offering belongs to Aaron and his sons as holiest of the holy of Jehovah's fire-offerings.
- 4 "And when you present the oblation of a grain-offering baked in a baking-crock, farina in ritual-matzoth shortened with oil and in 5 sheet matzoth rubbed over with oil. And if your oblation is a grain-offering on a griddle, it shall be farina stirred up with oil to a matzah: 6 7 break it into bits and pour oil over it, it is a grain-offering. And if your oblation is a grain-offering in a batter-pan, you shall do it in 8 farina with oil. And you shall bring the grain-offering done in any of these ways to Jehovah and present it to the priest, and he shall 9 bring it up to the altar. And the priest shall take up out of the oblation the memorial of it and burn it at the altar as a fire-offering, 10 a genial odor to Jehovah; and the remainder of the oblation belongs to Aaron and his sons as holiest of the holy of Jehovah's fire-offerings.
- 11 "Any grain-offering that you present to Jehovah you shall not make raised, because you are not to bring as a fire-offering to Jehovah any 12 yeast or honey whatever: you are to present them to Jehovah as handsel-oblation, but not to offer them on the altar for a genial odor.
13 And all your oblations of grain-offerings you shall salt with salt, and not disuse from your grain-offerings the salt of your God's covenant; on all your oblations you shall present salt.
- 14 "And if you present a grain-offering of firstfruits to Jehovah it shall be green ears roasted by fire, pounded green kernels, that you 15 present as your grain-offering of firstfruits; and you shall put oil 16 on it and lay frankincense on it—it is a grain-offering—and the priest shall burn the memorial of it, some of the kernels and oil of it with all its frankincense, as a fire-offering to Jehovah.

1 "And if one's oblation is a welfare-sacrifice, if he presents any of 2 the horned cattle, whether male or female, he shall present it fault-3 less before Jehovah; and he shall lay his hand on the head of his 4 oblation and slaughter it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and 5 Aaron's sons, the priests, shall throw the blood against the altar on 6 all sides. And he shall present out of his welfare-sacrifice a fire-7 offering to Jehovah, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat on 8 the entrails, and both kidneys and the fat on them, on the loins, and 9 the appendix of the liver, which he shall take off over the kidneys, 10 and Aaron's sons shall burn it at the altar on the burnt-offering 11 which is on the wood on the fire as a fire-offering, a genial odor to 12 Jehovah.

13 "And if his oblation be of small cattle for a welfare-sacrifice to 14 Jehovah, male or female, he shall present it faultless. If it is a sheep 15 he is presenting as his oblation, he shall present it before Jehovah; 16 and he shall lay his hand on the head of his oblation and slaughter 17 it before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron's sons shall throw the blood 18 against the altar on all sides. And he shall present out of the welfare-19 sacrifice a fire-offering to Jehovah, its fat, the fat tail entire, which 20 he shall take off next the backbone, and the fat that covers the en-21 trails and all the fat on the entrails, and both kidneys and the fat on 22 them, on the loins, and the appendix of the liver, which he shall 23 take off over the kidneys, and the priest shall burn it at the altar, a 24 fire-offering meal for Jehovah.

25 "And if his oblation be a goat he shall present it before Jehovah; 26 and he shall lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the 27 Tent of Meeting, and Aaron's sons shall throw the blood against 28 the altar on all sides. And he shall present out of it his oblation as 29 fire-offering to Jehovah, the fat that covers the entrails and all the 30 fat on the entrails and both kidneys and the fat on them, on the 31 loins, and the appendix of the liver, which he shall take off over the 32 kidneys, and the priest shall burn it at the altar, a fire-offering meal, 33 for a genial odor. All fat belongs to Jehovah as a perpetual rule, 34 generation after generation, in all your places of settlement: you are 35 not to eat any fat nor any blood."

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When 3 a person sins by misstep as to any of Jehovah's prohibitions and does 4 any of the prohibited things, if the anointed priest sins bringing guilt 5 on the people, he shall present to Jehovah for his sin that he has com-6 mitted a faultless steer of horned cattle as a sin-offering. And he 7 shall bring the steer to the door of the Tent of Meeting before Je-

5 hovah, and lay his hand on the head of the steer, and slaughter the 6 steer before Jehovah. And the anointed priest shall take some of the 7 steer's blood and bring it into the Tent of Meeting, and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven 8 times before Jehovah close in front of the veil of the sanctuary. And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for the aromatic incense before Jehovah, which is in the Tent of Meeting, and pour all the steer's blood at the base of the altar for the burnt-9 offerings which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And all the fat of the sin-steer he shall take out of it, the fat that covers the 10 entrails and all the fat on the entrails and both kidneys and the fat on them, on the loins, and the appendix of the liver, which he shall take off over the kidneys, as it is taken out of the welfare-sacrifice 11 bull, and the priest shall burn it on the altar for the burnt-offerings.
 And the steer's skin and all its flesh, head and shanks and entrails 12 and dung and all, he shall bring out, the whole steer, outside the camp to a clean place, to the ash-dump for the altar, and burn it up on a fire of wood: on the ash-dump for the altar it shall be burned.
 13 "And if all the congregation of Israel misstep and the assembly is ignorant of something and they do any one of the things prohibited 14 by Jehovah and are liable, and the sin they have committed against the prohibition becomes known, the assembly shall present a steer of horned cattle for a sin-offering and bring it before the Tent of 15 Meeting, and the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the steer before Jehovah, and one shall slaughter the steer 16 before Jehovah. And the anointed priest shall bring some of the steer's blood into the Tent of Meeting, and the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood and sprinkle it seven times before Jehovah 17 close in front of the veil; and some of the blood he shall put on the horns of the altar that is before Jehovah in the Tent of Meeting, and pour all the blood at the base of the altar for the burnt-offerings 18 which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting; and all its fat he shall take out of it and burn it at the altar, and do with the steer the same as he did with the sin-steer: the priest shall purge them, and they 19 shall be forgiven. And he shall bring the steer out outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first steer: it is the assembly's sin-offering.
 20 "And in case a chief sins and does any one of the things prohibited 21 by Jehovah by misstep and is liable, and his sin wherein he has sinned is made known to him, he shall bring as his oblation a faultless old 22 male goat; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it at the place where they slaughter the burnt-offerings, 23 before Jehovah: it is a sin-offering. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for the burnt-offerings, and its blood he shall pour at the 24 base of the altar for the burnt-offerings, and all its fat he shall burn at the altar like the fat of the welfare-sacrifice: the priest shall purge him from his sin and he shall be forgiven.

27 "And if one person of the common people sins by misstep by doing 28 one of the things prohibited by Jehovah and is liable, and his sin that he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his oblation a faultless old female goat for his sin that he has committed;
29 and he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering and slaughter 30 the sin-offering at the place for the burnt-offerings; and the priest shall take some of its blood on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for the burnt-offerings, and all its blood he shall pour at 31 the base of the altar, and all its fat he shall take off as fat was taken off from the welfare-sacrifice, and the priest shall burn it at the altar for a genial odor to Jehovah: the priest shall purge him, and he shall be forgiven.

32 "And if he bring a sheep as his oblation for sin, it shall be a faultless female that he brings; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering and slaughter it for a sin-offering at the place where 33 they slaughter the burnt-offerings, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for the burnt-offerings, and all its blood he shall pour 34 at the base of the altar, and all its fat he shall take off as the sheep-fat is taken off from the welfare-sacrifice, and the priest shall burn them at the altar on Jehovah's fire-offerings: the priest shall purge him for his sin that he has committed, and he shall be forgiven.

1 "And when a person sins and hears a voice of imprecation, when he is a witness or has seen or knows, if he does not tell he shall 2 bear his guilt. Or a person who touches any unclean thing, or the carcass of an unclean wild beast or of an unclean domestic animal or of an unclean vermin, being ignorant of it and becoming unclean, 3 he is liable; or when he touches a human uncleanness, any uncleanness of humanity by which it is defiled, being ignorant of it, but finds it 4 out, he is liable. Or when a person swears thoughtlessly to do a wrong thing or a right, any thoughtlessness that men may commit in swearing, and does not realize it: when he finds it out, he is liable for 5 any one of these things. And when he is liable for any one of these things he shall confess the point in respect to which he has sinned, 6 and bring his indemnity to Jehovah for his sin that he has committed, a female of the sheep or goats for a sin-offering, and the priest shall purge him of his sin.

7 "And if he cannot raise enough for a sheep or goat, he shall bring as his indemnity for having sinned two turtledoves or two squabs for Jehovah, one for a sin-offering and one for a burnt-offering.
8 And he shall bring them to the priest, and present the one for the sin-offering first, and nip off its head where it meets the neck, but

9 not separate it; and he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin-offering against the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall 10 run out at the base of the altar: it is a sin-offering; and the second he shall make a burnt-offering in due form. And the priest shall purge him of his sin that he has committed, and he shall be forgiven.

11 "And if he cannot get two turtledoves or two squabs, he shall bring as his oblation for his sin a tenth of a bushel of farina for a sin-offering: he shall not put oil on it nor lay frankincense on it, because 12 it is a sin-offering. And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall clutch up off it all his hand can clutch as the memorial of it and burn it at the altar on Jehovah's fire-offerings: it is a sin-offering.
13 The priest shall purge him for his sin that he has committed in any of these respects, and he shall be forgiven; and it shall belong to the priest like the grain-offering."

14 15 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "When a person commits an unfaithfulness and sins by misstep as to Jehovah's sacred things, he shall bring his indemnity to Jehovah, a faultless ram of an assessed value in silver of shekels by the sacred standard for an indemnity.
16 And what he has misused of the sacred things he shall make good, and add to it a fifth of it, and give it to the priest; and the priest shall purge him with the indemnity ram, and he shall be forgiven.
17 "And when a person sins and does any one of the things prohibited by Jehovah and does not know it, but is liable and is bearing his 18 guilt, he shall bring a faultless ram of an assessed value for an indemnity to the priest, and the priest shall purge him of such misstep 19 as he has made, he not knowing it, and he shall be forgiven. It is an indemnity: he has paid indemnity to Jehovah."

CHAPTER 6

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "When a person sins and commits an unfaithfulness against Jehovah and misrepresents to his neighbor about a deposit or a trust or stolen goods, or has held out 3 what was due his neighbor or found lost property and misrepresents about it, and swears to a lie as to any one of the wrongful acts a man
4 may commit, when he sins and is liable he shall restore the goods he has stolen or the due he has held out or the deposit that was entrusted 5 to him or the lost property he found, or whatever he swears to a lie about, and pay the principal of it and add one-fifth to it; he shall 6 give it to the one it belongs to on the day of giving his indemnity, and he shall bring his indemnity to Jehovah, a faultless ram of an assessed value for an indemnity, to the priest; and the priest shall 7 purge him before Jehovah, and he shall be forgiven for any one thing he has done so as to become liable by it."

8 9 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Give Aaron and his sons the command 'These are the instructions for the burnt-offering: it, the burnt-offering, shall be on its fire on the altar all night till morn-

10 ing, and the altar fire shall be kept alight with it. And the priest shall put on a linen habiliment, and put on linen drawers over his 11 flesh, and take up the ashes to which the fire has reduced the burnt-offering on the altar, and place them beside the altar. And he shall take off his garments and put on other garments and take the ashes 12 outside the camp to a clean place. And the altar fire shall be kept alight with it, shall not go out; and the priest shall make the fire up with wood every morning and lay the burnt-offering on it and burn 13 the fat of the welfare-sacrifices on it. A continuous fire shall be kept alight on the altar; it shall not go out.

14 “‘And these are the instructions for the grain-offering: for Aaron’s 15 sons to present it before Jehovah at the front of the altar, and one to take up from it in his clutch some of the farina of the grain-offering and of its oil, and burn it on the altar as a genial odor, the memorial 16 of it to Jehovah. And the remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat: it shall be eaten as matzoth in a sacred place, in the court of the 17 Tent of Meeting they shall eat it. It shall not be baked raised: I have given it as their share out of my fire-offerings, it is holiest of the holy 18 like the sin-offering and the indemnity. Every male among the sons of Aaron shall eat it as a perpetual right generation after generation out of Jehovah’s fire-offerings, which anyone who touches is hallowed.’”

20 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “This is the oblation of Aaron and his sons which they are to present to Jehovah on the day of his being anointed: a tenth of a bushel of farina as grain-offering regu-21 larly, half in the morning and half in the evening. It shall be done on a griddle with oil; you shall bring it beaten together; rusks of a crumbled grain-offering you shall present as genial odor to Jehovah.
22 And the priest among his sons who is anointed his successor shall do 23 it as a perpetual institution; it shall be burned entire. And every grain-offering of a priest is an entire offering; it is not to be eaten.”

25 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Tell Aaron and his sons, These are the instructions for the sin-offering: the sin-offering is to be slaughtered before Jehovah at the place where the burnt-offering 26 is slaughtered; it is holiest of the holy. And the priest who offers it for sin shall eat it; it shall be eaten in a sacred place, in the court 27 of the Tent of Meeting. Anyone who touches the flesh of it shall be hallowed; and when any of the blood of it spirts on a garment the 28 spot it spirts on shall be washed in a sacred place; and an earthen article that it is boiled in shall be broken, and if it has been boiled 29 in a bronze article it shall be scoured and rinsed with water. Every 30 male among the priests shall eat it; it is holiest of the holy. But any sin-offering some of whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to purge in the sanctuary shall not be eaten; it shall be burned up.

1 "And these are the instructions for the indemnity: it is holiest of 2 the holy. In the place where they slaughter the burnt-offering they 3 shall slaughter the indemnity, and one shall throw its blood against 4 the altar on all sides. And all the fat out of it he shall present, the 5 fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat on the 6 entrails and both kidneys and the fat on them, on the loins, and the 7 appendix of the liver, which he shall take off over the kidneys, and 8 the priest shall burn them at the altar as a fire-offering to Jehovah: 9 it is an indemnity. Every male among the priests shall eat it; it shall 10 be eaten in a sacred place; it is holiest of the holy. The indemnity 11 is analogous to the sin-offering; the instructions for them are the 12 same; he who purges with it, his it shall be. And the priest that 13 presents a man's burnt-offering shall have the skin of the burnt-14 offering he has presented; his it shall be. And any grain-offering that 15 is baked in a baking-crock and every one done in a batter-pan or on a 16 griddle shall belong to the priest that presents it; his it shall be.
17 And any grain-offering stirred up with oil or dry shall belong to 18 all the sons of Aaron equally.

19 "And these are the instructions for the welfare-sacrifice that one 20 presents to Jehovah: if he presents it for thanks he shall present 21 with his thank-offering ritual-matzoth shortened with oil and sheet 22 matzoth rubbed over with oil and semolina beaten up with oil. With 23 ritual-cakes of raised bread he shall present his oblation with his 24 welfare-sacrifice of thanks. And he shall present out of it one of each 25 oblation as a contribution to Jehovah for the priest who throws the 26 blood of the welfare-sacrifice; his it shall be. And the flesh of his 27 welfare-sacrifice of thanks shall be eaten on the day of his oblation; 28 he shall not leave any of it till morning.

29 "And if the sacrifice of his oblation is a vow or a voluntary offering, 30 on the day that he presents his sacrifice it shall be eaten, and on the 31 next day what is left over of it shall be eaten, and what of the flesh 32 of the sacrifice is left over on the third day shall be burned up.
33 And if any of the flesh of his welfare-sacrifice is eaten on the third 34 day the one who presented it will not be accepted; it will not count 35 for its presenter; it will be foul food, and the person who eats any 36 of it will bear his guilt. And the flesh that touches anything unclean 37 shall not be eaten; it shall be burned up. And as for the flesh in 38 general, everyone who is clean shall eat flesh, but the person who eats 39 flesh from Jehovah's welfare-sacrifice with his uncleanness on him, 40 that person shall be cut off from his kinsfolk. And when a person 41 touches anything unclean, human uncleanness or an unclean beast 42 or any unclean vermin, and eats any of the flesh of Jehovah's welfare-43 sacrifice, that person shall be cut off from his kinsfolk."

44 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, Any 45 fat of horned cattle or sheep or goats you shall not eat. And fat of creatures that have died a natural death and of creatures killed by wild beasts shall be used for all kinds of work, but you shall not eat it. For whoever eats fat from the beasts from which they present fire-offerings to Jehovah, the person that eats it shall be cut off from his kinsfolk. And you shall not eat any blood in any of your places of residence, of bird or of beast; whatever person eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his kinsfolk."

8 29 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, He who presents his welfare-sacrifice to Jehovah shall bring his oblation to Jehovah out of his welfare-sacrifice. His own hands shall bring Jehovah's fire-offerings: the fat, which he shall bring on the brisket, and the brisket, to be waved as a wave-offering before Jehovah. And the priest shall burn the fat at the altar, and Aaron and his sons shall have the brisket. And the right leg you shall give as a contribution to the priest out of the welfare-sacrifices. He of the sons of Aaron who presents the blood of the welfare-sacrifice and the fat shall have the right leg as his portion, because the wave-brisket and the contribution-leg I have taken from the sons of Israel out of their welfare-sacrifices, and have given them to Priest Aaron and his sons as a perpetual right from the sons of Israel. This is the endowment of Aaron and of his sons out of Jehovah's fire-offerings on the day of their being presented to serve as priests to Jehovah, which Jehovah on the day that he anointed them commanded to be given to them from the sons of Israel as a perpetual right generation after generation."

37 These are the instructions for the burnt-offering and for the grain-offering and for the sin-offering and for the indemnity and for the welfare-sacrifice, which Jehovah enjoined upon Moses on Mount Sinai on the day when he commanded the sons of Israel to present their oblations to Jehovah, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Take your brother Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments and the anointing-oil, and the steer for the sin-offering and the two rams and the basket of matzoth, and assemble all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Meeting." 3 And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him; and the congregation assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and Moses said to the congregation "This is the thing Jehovah has commanded to be done." 4 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons to the door and bathed them with water, and put the tunic on him and belted him with the sash and dressed him in the robe and put the ephod on him and belted him with the ephod-ribbon and ephoded him with it, and placed the pectoral on him and put the Urim and the Thummim in the pectoral, 5 and placed the turban on his head and placed on the turban, on its front, the gold plate, the sacred diadem, as Jehovah had commanded 6 Moses. And Moses took the anointing-oil and anointed the tabernacle

11 and everything in it and hallowed them, and sprinkled some of it 12 on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its furnishings, and the laver and its pedestal, to hallow them. And Moses poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to hallow him.
 13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons to the door and dressed them in tunics and belted them with sash and tied head-scarfs for them, as 14 Jehovah had commanded him. And he brought on the steer for the sin-offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of 15 the steer for the sin-offering; and he slaughtered it, and Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar all round with his finger and cleared away sin from the altar, and poured the blood 16 out at the base of the altar and hallowed it, purging it. And he took all the fat on the entrails, and the appendix of the liver, and the two 17 kidneys and their fat, and Moses burned them at the altar. And the steer and its skin and its flesh and its dung he burned up outside 18 the camp, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And he presented the ram for the burnt-offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands 19 on the ram's head; and he slaughtered it, and Moses threw the blood 20 against the altar on all sides, and the ram he cut up into the proper 21 pieces and Moses burned head and pieces and suet; and the entrails and the shanks he washed in water, and Moses burned all the ram at the altar; it was a burnt-offering for a genial odor, it was a fire-offering to Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
 22 And he presented the second ram, the installation ram, and Aaron 23 and his sons laid their hands on the ram's head; and he slaughtered it, and Moses took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's 24 right ear and on his right thumb and on his right great toe; and he presented Aaron's sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears and on their right thumbs and on their right great toes; and Moses threw the blood against the altar on all sides.
 25 And Moses took the fat, the fat tail and all the fat on the entrails and the appendix of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat, and 26 the right leg, and out of the basket of matzoth before Jehovah he took one ritual-matzah and one ritual-cake of shortbread and one 27 sheet-cake and laid them on the fats and the right leg, and put all on the hands of Aaron and of his sons, and waved it as a wave-offering 28 before Jehovah, and Moses took it off their hands and burned it at the altar, on the burnt-offering; it was an installation, for a genial 29 odor, it was a fire-offering to Jehovah. And Moses took the brisket and waved it as a wave-offering before Jehovah; from the installation ram Moses had it as his portion, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
 30 And Moses took some of the anointing-oil and some of the blood on the altar and sprinkled it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and his sons' garments with him, and hallowed Aaron and his 31 garments and his sons and his sons' garments with him. And Moses said to Aaron and his sons "Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting: there you are to eat it and the bread in the installation-basket, as I was given the command 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it'; 33 and what is left over, flesh and bread, you shall burn up. And from the door of the Tent of Meeting you shall not go away for seven days, till the day that your days of installation are full, because he 34 is to be seven days installing you. As he did this day Jehovah has 35 given orders to do, to purge you, and at the door of the Tent of Meeting you are to stay day and night for seven days and keep Jehovah's charge so as not to die, for so I was commanded." And Aaron 36 and his sons did all the things Jehovah had commanded by Moses.

1 And on the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel and said to Aaron "Take a bull calf for a sin-offering and a ram for a burnt-offering, both faultless, and present them 3 before Jehovah. And you are to tell the sons of Israel 'Take an old goat for a sin-offering, and a calf and a sheep, faultless yearlings, for 4 a burnt-offering, and a bull and a ram for welfare-sacrifices to sacrifice before Jehovah, and a grain-offering stirred up with oil, because 5 today Jehovah is appearing to you.'" And he took what Moses commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and all the congregation came up and stood before Jehovah; and Moses said "This is the thing Jehovah commands that you do, that Jehovah's glory may 7 appear to you." And Moses said to Aaron "Come up to the altar and do your sin-offering and your burnt-offering and purge yourself and the people, and do the people's oblation and purge them, as Jehovah 8 has commanded"; and Aaron came up to the altar and slaughtered 9 his sin-calf; and Aaron's sons presented the blood to him and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, 10 and poured the blood out at the base of the altar, and the fat of the sin-offering, and the kidneys, and the appendix of the liver, he burned 11 at the altar, as Jehovah had commanded Moses; and the flesh and the skin he burned up outside the camp. And he slaughtered the 12 burnt-offering, and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he threw it against the altar on all sides. And they handed the burnt-offering to him piece by piece, and the head, and he burned it on the 14 altar. And he washed the entrails and the shanks and burned them 15 on the burnt-offering at the altar. And he presented the people's oblation, and took the people's sin-goat and slaughtered it and made a 16 sin-offering of it like the first. And he presented the burnt-offering and offered it in due form. And he presented the grain-offering and took his hand full out of it and burned it on the altar, besides the 18 morning burnt-offering. And he slaughtered the bull and the ram, the people's welfare-sacrifices; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to 19 him and he threw it against the altar on all sides; and they handed him the pieces of fat of the bull, and of the ram the fat tail and 20 what covered the kidneys and the appendix of the liver, and he laid the pieces of fat on the briskets and burned the pieces of fat at the 21 altar, and the briskets and the right legs Aaron waved as a wave-offering before Jehovah as he had commanded Moses.

22 And Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin-offering and the burnt-offering 23 and the welfare-sacrifices. And Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out and blessed the people; and Jehovah's glory 24 appeared to all the people, and fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed on the altar the burnt-offering and the fat pieces; and

CHAPTER 10

1 all the people shouted and threw themselves on their faces. And Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu took their firepans and put fire in them and laid incense on it and presented before Jehovah alien fire 2 which he had not commanded them to; and fire came out from before 3 Jehovah and consumed them, and they died before Jehovah. And Moses said to Aaron "That is what Jehovah meant in saying 'I will vindicate my sanctity upon those who are near to me, and my honor 4 before all the people'"; and Aaron was silent. And Moses called Mishael and Elsaphan the sons of Aaron's uncle 'Uzziel and said to them "Come up and carry your brothers from before the sanctuary 5 away outside the camp"; and they came up and carried them in their 6 tunics away outside the camp, as Moses told them to. And Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar "Do not dishevel your heads nor tear your clothes, that you may not die and Jehovah be incensed at all the congregation; but your brothers, all the house of 7 Israel, shall weep for the burning Jehovah has inflicted. And you are not to vacate the door of the Tent of Meeting, for fear you should die, because you have Jehovah's anointing-oil on you." And they did as Moses said.
8 9 And Jehovah spoke to Aaron, saying "Do not drink wine or beer, you and your sons with you, when you are going into the Tent of Meeting, that you may not die, as a perpetual rule generation after 10 generation; and see to keeping apart sacred and profane, unclean 11 and clean, and to instructing the sons of Israel in all the rules Jehovah gave out to you by Moses." 12 And Moses spoke to Aaron and those who were left of his sons, Eleazar and Ithamar: "Take what is left of the grain-offering from Jehovah's fire-offering and eat it in matzoth beside the altar, because 13 it is holiest of the holy and you are to eat it in a holy place, for it is your right and your sons' right out of Jehovah's fire-offerings; for 14 so I was commanded. And the wave-brisket and the contribution-leg you are to eat in a clean place, you and your sons and daughters with you, because as your right and your sons' right they are given 15 out of the welfare-sacrifices of the sons of Israel. The contribution-leg and the wave-brisket they shall bring on the fire-offerings of fat pieces to be waved as a wave-offering before Jehovah and it shall belong to you and your sons with you as a perpetual right, as Jehovah commanded."

- 16 And Moses looked up the sin-goat and found it had been burned; and he was incensed at Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's surviving sons, 17 and said "How came it you did not eat the sin-offering in the sacred place? for it is holiest of the holy, and he has given it to you to carry 18 the guilt of the congregation, to purge them before Jehovah. You see, its blood was not brought inside into the sacred place; you were 19 to eat it in the sacred place as I ordered." But Aaron told Moses "Suppose when today they had presented their sin-offering and burnt-offering before Jehovah, and things like these had happened to me, I were to eat a sin-offering today, would Jehovah like it?" 20 and Moses listened and approved it.

CHAPTER 11

- 1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them "Tell the sons of Israel, These are the beasts you are to eat, out of all the 3 quadrupeds on the ground: everything cloven-footed with a fissure severing half-hoofs, that chews the cud, among quadrupeds it you 4 shall eat, only that this you shall not eat of those that chew the cud and of those that have cloven hoofs: the camel, because it chews the 5 cud but has no cloven hoofs,—it is unclean for you; and the dassy, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hoofs,—it is unclean for you; and the hare, because it chews the cud but does not 6 have cloven hoofs,—it is unclean for you; and the hog, because it has cloven hoofs with a fissure severing half-hoofs but it does not chew 8 the cud,—it is unclean for you. You are not to eat any of their flesh nor touch their carcasses: they are unclean for you.
9 "This you are to eat out of everything in the water: whatever has fins and scales in the water, in seas or in streams, it you are to eat;
10 and what has not fins and scales in seas or in streams, any of the aquatic invertebrates or any living creature in the water, they are 11 carrion to you, and you are to hold them as carrion, not eat any of their flesh and avoid touching their carcasses. Everything without 12 fins and scales in the water is carrion to you.
13 "And these you are to avoid of uneatable birds; they are carrion: the vulture and the lammergeier and the eagle and the falcon and 14 the various kinds of kite, all the various kinds of raven, and the ostrich and the nighthawk and the gull and the various kinds of 18 hawk and the little owl and the cormorant and the great owl and the water-hen and the barn-owl and the Egyptian vulture and the stork 19 and the various kinds of heron and the hoopoe and the bat, and every 20 winged insect that goes on all fours—it is carrion for you. Only this 21 you are to eat out of all winged insects that go on all fours: what has a pair of legs with knee-joints above its other legs, to hop on the ground with: these of them you are to eat, the various kinds of common grasshopper and the various kinds of sol'am grasshopper and the various kinds of hargol grasshopper and the various kinds of hagab grasshopper; but four-footed winged insects in general are carrion to you.

“And for these you shall become unclean; anyone who touches their carcasses shall be unclean till evening, and anyone who takes up any of their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening: for all quadrupeds that are cloven-footed but do not have a severing fissure and do not chew the cud: they are unclean to you; anyone who touches them shall be unclean. And whatever goes on paws among all the beasts that go on all fours: they are unclean to you; anyone who touches their carcasses shall be unclean till evening, and the one who takes up their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening; they are unclean to you.

“And this is what is unclean to you among the vermin that swarm over the earth: the weasel and the mouse and the various kinds of great lizard and the gecko and the chameleon and the little lizard and the snail and the centipede: these shall be to you most unclean of all vermin; anyone who touches them when they are dead shall be unclean till evening, and anything that any of them fall on when they are dead shall be unclean, any wooden utensil or article of woolen cloth or leather or sackcloth, any article that is put to any use; it shall be put into water and be unclean till evening, and be clean. And in the case of any earthen article that any of them falls inside of, whatever is inside it shall be unclean, and it you shall break. Of any food that is to be eaten, what water comes on shall be unclean, and any drink that is to be drunk in any vessel shall be unclean. And anything that any of their carcasses falls on shall be unclean: baking-crock and boiling-brazier shall be demolished; they are unclean and you shall treat them as unclean. Only a spring or cistern, a body of water, shall be clean, but what touches their carcasses shall be unclean. And when any of their carcasses falls on any planting-seed that is to be sown, it is clean; but when water is put on seed and any of their carcasses falls on it you shall treat it as unclean.

“And when any of the quadrupeds that serve you for food dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean till evening. And he who eats any of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening. And he who takes up its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening.

“And all the vermin that swarm over the earth are carrion: they are not to be eaten. All that goes on its belly and all that goes on all fours, and also all that has many feet, all the vermin that swarm over the earth, you shall not eat, because they are carrion. Do not carrionize your persons with any swarming vermin, nor defile your-

44 selves with them so as to be unclean by them, because I Jehovah am your God and you are to hallow yourselves and be holy because I am holy, and not defile your persons with any vermin that creeps on 45 the earth. For it was I Jehovah who brought you up out of Egypt to have me for your God, and you are to be holy because I am holy.” 46 This is the code for quadrupeds and birds and all animal life that 47 stirs in the water and all life that swarms on the earth, for discriminating between the unclean and the clean and between eatable and uneatable beasts.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying ‘When a woman has issue and bears a male she shall be unclean seven days; she shall have the same uncleanness as in her days of 3 menstruation. And on the eighth day he shall have the flesh of his 4 foreskin circumcised, and thirty-three days she shall stay in blood of cleansing; she shall not touch anything sacred nor go into the 5 sanctuary till her days of cleansing are complete. And if she bears a female she shall be unclean fourteen days as in her menstruation, 6 and sixty-six days she shall stay in blood of cleansing. And when her days of cleansing are complete, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the same year for a burnt-offering and a squab or turtledove for a sin-offering to the door of the Tent of Meeting 7 to the priest, and he shall present it before Jehovah and purge her and cleanse her from her flow of blood. These are the instructions 8 for a woman who gives birth, whether to a male or to a female. And if she cannot lay hands on enough for a sheep she shall take two turtledoves or two squabs, one for a burnt-offering and one for a sin-offering, and the priest shall purge her and she shall be clean.’”

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying “When a man has a swelling or eruption or bright spot come in his skin, and it becomes in his skin a leprosy canker, and it is brought to Priest Aaron or to 3 one of the priests his sons and the priest sees the canker in the skin, and hair in the canker has turned white and the canker looks deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy canker; and the priest, seeing it, shall 4 declare him unclean. And if it is a white bright spot in his skin and does not look deeper than the skin and its hair has not turned white, 5 and the priest quarantines the case seven days, and the priest sees him on the seventh day and finds that the canker has kept its color, the canker has not spread in the skin, and the priest quarantines 6 him a second time seven days, and the priest sees him on the seventh day a second time and finds that the canker has grown dimmer and the canker has not spread in the skin, the priest shall declare him clean; it is an eruption; and he shall wash his clothes 7 and be clean. But if the eruption shall spread in the skin after it has been exhibited to the priest for declaring clean, and it is exhibited 8 to the priest a second time, and the priest sees it and finds the eruption has spread in the skin, the priest shall declare him unclean; it is leprosy.

9 "And when a leprosy canker comes in a man and is brought to the 10 priest, and the priest sees it and finds there is a white swelling in the skin and it has turned hair white, and there is a show of raw flesh 11 in the swelling, it is chronic leprosy in his skin, and the priest shall declare him unclean; he shall not quarantine him, because he is unclean. But if the leprosy makes progress in the skin, and the leprosy 12 covers all the skin of the case from head to foot as far as the priest's eyes see, and the priest sees and finds that the leprosy has covered 13 all his flesh, he shall declare the case clean; he has all turned white, he is clean. But on the day that raw flesh makes its appearance on 14 him he shall become unclean, and the priest shall see the raw flesh and declare him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.
16 When the raw flesh turns white again, however, and he comes to the 17 priest and the priest sees him and finds that the canker has turned white, the priest shall declare the case clean; he is clean.

18 19 "And when flesh has in its skin an ulcer and it is healed, and on the place where the ulcer was there comes a white swelling or a reddish-white bright spot, and it is exhibited to the priest, and the priest 20 sees it and finds that it looks lower than the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest shall declare him unclean; it is a leprosy 21 canker cropping out in the ulcer. But if the priest sees it and finds that there is no white hair in it and it is not lower than the skin and 22 it has grown dimmer, the priest shall quarantine him seven days; and if it spreads in the skin, the priest shall declare him unclean; it is 23 a canker; but if the bright spot stands still where it was, has not spread, it is the scar of the ulcer, and the priest shall declare him clean.

24 "Or when flesh has in its skin a burn, and the place where the 25 burn heals becomes a reddish-white or white bright spot, and the priest sees it and finds that hair has turned white in the bright spot and it looks deeper than the skin, it is leprosy cropping out in the burn, and the priest shall declare him unclean; it is a leprosy canker.
26 But if the priest sees it and finds that there is no white hair in the bright spot and it is not lower than the skin and it has grown dimmer, 27 and the priest quarantines him seven days, and the priest sees him on the seventh day, if it spreads in the skin the priest shall declare him 28 unclean; it is a leprosy canker; but if the bright spot stands still where it was, has not spread in the skin, and has grown dimmer, it is the swelling of the healed spot, and the priest shall declare him clean, because it is the scar of the burn.

29 "And when a man or woman has a canker come in his hair or beard, 30 and the priest sees the canker and finds that it looks deeper than the skin and that it has thin yellow hair in it, the priest shall declare 31 him unclean; it is scaldhead, it is a leprosy of his head or beard. And when the priest sees the scaldhead-canker and finds it does not look 32 deeper than the skin and it has no black hair in it, and the priest quarantines the case of scaldhead seven days, and the priest sees the 33 canker on the seventh day and finds that the scaldhead has not spread and no yellow hair has come in it, and the scaldhead does not look 34 deeper than the skin, and the man shaves but does not shave the scaldhead, and the priest quarantines the case a second time seven 35 days, and the priest sees the scaldhead on the seventh day and finds that the scaldhead has not spread in the skin and it does not look 36 deeper than the skin, the priest shall declare him clean, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean. But if the scaldhead spreads in the 37 skin after he is declared clean, and the priest sees him and finds that the scaldhead has spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for the yellow hair; he is unclean. But if the scaldhead has kept its color, and black hair has sprouted in it, the scaldhead has healed: he is clean, and the priest shall declare him clean.

38 "And when a man or woman has bright spots come in his skin, 39 white bright spots, and the priest sees him and finds that there are dull white bright spots in his skin, it is bohak that has come out in the skin, he is clean.

0 41 "And if a man's head loses its hair, he is bald; he is clean. And if his head loses its hair on the front side, he is forehead-bald; he is 42 clean. But when there comes in his bald crown or forehead a reddish-white canker, it is an outcropping leprosy in his bald crown or fore-43 head; and the priest shall see it and find that the swelling of the canker is reddish-white in his bald crown or forehead, looking like 44 leprosy of the skin of fleshy parts. He is a leprous man; he is unclean; the priest shall declare him unclean; he has his canker in his head.

45 "And the leprous man who has the canker in him shall wear his clothes torn and his head disheveled and a covering over his mustache, 46 and call out "Unclean, unclean!" Throughout the time that he has the canker in him he shall be unclean; unclean he is; he shall live by himself, his quarter shall be outside the camp.

47 "And when clothing gets a canker of leprosy in it, in woolen 48 clothing or in linen clothing, or in warp or in weft, be it linen or wool, 49 or in leather or anything into which leather enters, and the canker is greenish or reddish in the clothing or the warp or the weft or any article of leather, it is a leprosy-canker; it shall be shown to the 50 priest, and the priest shall see the canker and quarantine the case 51 seven days and on the seventh day see the canker to have spread in the clothing or the warp or the weft or the leather, whatever work leather is made into: the canker is a septic leprosy, it is unclean, 52 and he shall burn the clothing or the warp or the weft in wool or in linen, or any article of leather, in which the canker comes, because 53 it is a septic leprosy which is to be burned up. And if the priest sees it and finds that the canker has not spread in the clothing or the 54 warp or the weft or any article of leather, and the priest gives orders and they wash what has the canker in it and he quarantines it a 55 second time seven days, and the priest sees it after the washing of the canker and finds that the canker has not turned color and the canker has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it up; it is a 56 corrosion on the bald front or the bald back. And if the priest sees it and finds that the canker has grown dimmer after its washing, he shall tear it out of the clothing or the leather or the warp or the 57 weft; and if it appears again in the clothing or warp or weft or any article of leather, it is the outcropping kind: you shall burn up what 58 has the canker in it. And the clothing or warp or weft or any article of leather that you wash and the canker comes out of them shall be 59 washed a second time and be clean. These are the instructions for the leprosy-canker of woolen or linen clothing or warp or weft or any article of leather, for declaring it clean or unclean."

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "These shall be the instructions for the man who has had leprosy, on the day that he is declared clean: 3 he shall be brought to the priest, and the priest shall go outside the camp, and the priest shall see and find that the leprosy-canker has 4 healed out of the leprous man; and the priest shall give orders, and they shall take for the man who is having himself purified two live 5 clean birds, and cedarwood and scarlet stuff and marjoram; and the priest shall give orders, and they shall cut the throat of one bird and 6 let the blood run into an earthen dish over living water. And he shall take the live bird, it and the cedarwood and the scarlet and the marjoram, and dip them and the live bird in the blood of the slaugh-7 tered bird over the living water, and sprinkle it on the man who is having himself purified from the leprosy seven times and purify him, 8 and let the live bird go over the fields. And the man who is having himself purified shall wash his clothes and shave off all his hair and bathe in water and be clean; and afterward he shall come into the 9 camp, but shall stay outside his tent seven days. And on the seventh day he shall shave off all his hair, his head and his beard and his eyebrows and shave off all his hair, and wash his clothes and bathe in water and be clean.

10 "And on the eighth day he shall take two faultless sheep and one faultless ewe lamb of the same year and three tenths of a bushel of farina as grain-offering, stirred up with oil, and one pint of oil; 11 and the priest who does the purifying shall have the man who is having himself purified, and these, stand before Jehovah at the door 12 of the Tent of Meeting. And the priest shall take one sheep and present it for an indemnity, and the pint of oil, and shall wave them

13 as a wave-offering before Jehovah; and they shall slaughter the sheep at the place where they slaughter the sin-offering and the burnt-offering, in the place for sacred things, because the indemnity, like 14 the sin-offering, belongs to the priest: it is holiest of the holy. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the indemnity, and the priest shall put it on the lobe of the right ear of the man who is having himself purified and on his right thumb and on his right 15 great toe. And the priest shall take some of the pint of oil and pour 16 it into the priest's left hand, and the priest shall dip his right finger 17 in the oil in his left hand and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before Jehovah; and some of the rest of the oil in his hand the priest shall put on the lobe of the right ear of the man who is
 18 great toe, on the blood of the indemnity; and what is left of the oil in his hand the priest shall put on the head of the man who is having himself purified, and the priest shall purge him before 19 Jehovah. And the priest shall do the sin-offering and purge the man who is having himself purified from his uncleanness; and 20 afterward he shall slaughter the burnt-offering, and the priest shall offer the burnt-offering and the grain-offering at the altar; and the priest shall purge him and he shall be clean.

21 "And if he is a poor man and cannot afford expense, he shall take one sheep as indemnity, for a wave-offering to purge him, and one tenth of a bushel of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering, 22 and a pint of oil, and two turtledoves or two squabs, what he can 23 afford, one to be sin-offering and one burnt-offering; and on the eighth day of his purification he shall bring them to the priest at the 24 door of the Tent of Meeting before Jehovah. And the priest shall take the indemnity sheep and the pint of oil, and the priest shall 25 wave them as a wave-offering before Jehovah; and they shall slaughter the indemnity sheep, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the indemnity and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the man who is having himself purified and on his right thumb and on his 26 right great toe; and some of the oil the priest shall put in the priest's 27 left hand, and the priest shall sprinkle some of the oil in his left hand 28 with his right finger seven times before Jehovah, and the priest shall put some of the oil in his hand on the lobe of the right ear of the man who is having himself purified and on his right thumb and on his right great toe, on the place where the blood of the indemnity is; 29 and what is left of the oil in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the man who is having himself purified to purge him before 30 Jehovah. And he shall do one of the two turtledoves or squabs, what 31 he could afford, one as sin-offering and one as burnt-offering on the grain-offering, and the priest shall purge the man who is having 32 himself purified before Jehovah. These are the instructions for one who has a leprosy-canker in him who cannot afford expense at his being declared clean."

33 34 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying "When you come into the country of Canaan that I am giving you for your property, 35 and I put a leprosy-canker in a house of your property-country, and the one the house belongs to comes and reports to the priest 'I have 36 something like a canker showing in my house,' and the priest gives orders and they clear out the house before the priest goes in to see the canker, not to have everything in the house be unclean, and 37 after that the priest goes in to see the house and sees the canker and finds that the canker is in the walls of the house, greenish or reddish 38 eatings that look lower than the wall, and the priest goes out of the house to the house door and quarantines the house for seven days, 39 and the priest comes back on the seventh day and sees, and finds 40 that the canker has spread in the walls of the house, the priest shall give orders and they shall pry out the stones that have the canker in 41 them and throw them in an unclean place outside the city; and they shall scrape the house all over inside and pour out the earth they 42 scrape off in an unclean place outside the city, and they shall take other stones and put them in instead of the stones, and take other 43 earth and plaster the house. And if the canker breaks out again in the house after the prying out of the stones and the scraping and 44 plastering of the house, and the priest comes and sees and finds that the canker has spread in the house, it is a septic leprosy in the house, 45 it is unclean, and they shall pull down the house, its stones and its woodwork and all the earth of the house, and take it out to an unclean 46 place outside the city. And one who enters the house during all the time it is quarantined shall be unclean till evening; and one who 47 lies down in the house shall wash his clothes; and one who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 "And if the priest shall go in and see and find that the canker has not spread in the house after the plastering of the house, the priest 49 shall declare the house clean, because the canker is disinfected; and to clear away sin from the house they shall take two birds and cedar-50 wood and scarlet stuff and marjoram, and cut the throat of one bird 51 and let the blood run into an earthen dish over living water, and he shall take the cedarwood and the marjoram and the scarlet and the live bird and dip them into the blood of the slaughtered bird and 52 into the living water and sprinkle the house seven times and clear away sin from the house with the bird's blood and the living water and the live bird and the cedarwood and the marjoram and the 53 scarlet, and let the live bird go outside the city over the fields, and purge the house, and it shall be clean.

54 "These are the instructions for every leprosy-canker, and for 55 56 scaldhead, and for leprosy of clothing, and for a house, and for a 57 swelling, and for an eruption, and for a bright spot, to instruct on the day of being made unclean and on the day of being made clean. These are the instructions for leprosy."

CHAPTER 15

- 1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying "Tell the sons of 3 Israel 'When any man has a discharge from his organ, his discharge 4 is unclean. This is the uncleanness he shall have by his discharge: 5 whether his organ oozes his discharge or retains his discharge, he is 6 unclean all the time that his organ discharges or retains his discharge; 7 it is his uncleanness. Every couch that the man with the discharge 8 lies down on shall be unclean, and every article that he sits on shall 9 be unclean; and any man who touches his couch shall wash his clothes 10 and bathe in water and be unclean till evening; and he who sits on 11 the article the man with the discharge sits on shall wash his clothes 12 and bathe in water and be unclean till evening; and he who touches 13 the flesh of the man with the discharge shall wash his clothes and 14 bathe in water and be unclean till evening. And if the man with the 15 discharge spits on a clean man he shall wash his clothes and bathe 16 in water and be unclean till evening. And any vehicle or saddle that 17 the man with the discharge rides in shall be unclean; and anyone who 18 touches anything that is under him shall be unclean till evening; 19 and he who takes them up shall wash his clothes and bathe in water 20 and be unclean till evening. And anyone whom the man with the 21 discharge touches without having rinsed his hands with water shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean till evening. And an earthen article which the man with the discharge touches shall be smashed; and any wooden article shall be rinsed with water.
- 13 "And when the man with the discharge becomes clean from his discharge, he shall count seven days for his becoming clean, and wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in living water, and be clean.
14 And on the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two squabs, and come before Jehovah to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give 15 them to the priest, and the priest shall do them one as a sin-offering and one as a burnt-offering, and the priest shall purge him from his discharge before Jehovah.
- 16 "And when a man has an emission of semen he shall bathe all 17 his flesh in water and be unclean till evening. And every cloth and every leather on which there is semen shall be washed in water and 18 be unclean till evening. And in the case of a woman with whom a man lies so as to emit semen, they shall bathe in water and be unclean till evening.
- 19 "And when a woman has a discharge, her discharge being blood 20 in her organ, she shall be in her pollution seven days, and anyone who touches her shall be unclean till evening. And everything she lies down on during her pollution shall be unclean, and everything 21 she sits on shall be unclean; and anyone who touches her couch shall 22 wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean till evening, and 23 anyone who touches any article she sits on shall wash his clothes 24 and bathe in water and be unclean till evening, and if he is on a couch or an article on which she sits down while he is in contact with it he shall be unclean till evening. And if a man shall lie with her, her pollution shall be on him, and he shall be unclean seven days and every couch he lies on shall be unclean.

25 “‘And when a woman shall have her discharge of blood for many days out of her periodic time, or when she has a discharge additional to her menstruation, all the time of her unclean discharge shall be 26 like her time of menstruation: she is unclean. Every couch she lies down on in all the time of her discharge shall be to her like her couch of menstruation, and every article she sits on shall be unclean 27 as with her uncleanness by menstruation, and anyone who touches them shall be unclean and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water 28 and be unclean till evening. And if she becomes clean from her discharge, she shall count seven days, and afterward she shall be clean.
29 And on the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two squabs 30 and bring them to the priest at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and the priest shall do one as a sin-offering and one as a burnt-offering, and the priest shall purge her from her unclean discharge before Jehovah.’

31 “And put the sons of Israel on their guard against their uncleanness, so as not to have them die by their uncleanness, by their defiling my tabernacle which is among them.”

32 These are the instructions for the man who has a discharge and 33 him from whom semen comes out so as to cause uncleanness, and her who suffers a menstruation, and the one whose discharge runs, male or female, and the man that lies with the unclean woman.

CHAPTER 16

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses after the death of Aaron's two sons 2 when they came near before Jehovah and died; and Jehovah said to Moses “Tell your brother Aaron that he is not to come on all occasions into the holy place inside the veil, before the mercy-seat on the ark, so as not to die, because I shall appear in the cloud on the mercy-seat.
3 With this Aaron is to come into the holy place: with a steer of horned 4 cattle for a sin-offering and a ram for a burnt-offering; he shall wear a consecrated linen tunic and have linen drawers on his body, and be belted with a linen sash and turbaned with a linen turban; they are sacred garments, and he shall bathe his flesh with water to put them 5 on. And from the congregation of the sons of Israel he shall take two 6 old goats for sin-offering and one ram for burnt-offering; and Aaron 7 shall present his own sin-steer and purge himself and his family, and he shall take the two goats and set them before Jehovah at the door of 8 the Tent of Meeting. And Aaron shall deal lots for the two goats,

- 9 one lot for Jehovah and one lot for 'Azazel; and Aaron shall present the goat for which the lot for Jehovah came up, and make a sin-offering of it, and the goat for which the lot for 'Azazel came up he shall set alive before Jehovah to purge it for sending off to the wilderness for 'Azazel.
- 11 "And Aaron shall present his own sin-steer and purge himself and 12 his family; and he shall slaughter his sin-steer and take a firepan full of live coals off the altar, from before Jehovah, and a double handful of powdered aromatic incense, and bring it inside the veil and put 13 the incense on the fire before Jehovah and have the cloud of incense-smoke cover the mercy-seat over the Lessons so that he does not die.
14 And he shall take some of the steer's blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the front side of the mercy-seat, the east side, and before the mercy-seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood seven times with 15 his finger. And he shall slaughter the people's sin-goat and bring its blood inside the veil, and do with its blood as he did with the steer's blood and sprinkle it on the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat, 16 and purge the holy place from the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel and from their offenses in all their sins, and do the same for the Tent of Meeting that is quartered with them in the midst of their 17 uncleannesses. And there shall not be a human being in the Tent of Meeting when he goes in to purge in the holy place, until he comes out; and he shall purge himself and his family and the whole assembly 18 of Israel. And he shall come out to the altar before Jehovah and purge it, and take blood from the steer and blood from the goat and put it 19 on the horns of the altar all round, and sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, and cleanse and hallow it from the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel.
- 20 "And, having finished purging the holy place and the Tent of 21 Meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat; and Aaron shall lay both his hands on the live goat's head and confess over it all the guilts of the sons of Israel and all their offenses in all their sins, and put them on the head of the live goat, and send it off by a convenient 22 man to the wilderness, and the goat shall carry upon him all their guilts to an isolated country. And he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.
- 23 "And Aaron shall go into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments he had on when he went into the holy place and lay them 24 down there, and bathe his flesh with water in a holy place and put on his own garments and do his own burnt-offering and the people's burnt-offering, and purge himself and the people; and the fat of the sin-offering he shall burn at the altar.
- 26 "And the one who lets the goat go for 'Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh with water, and after that he shall come into the camp.
- 27 "And the sin-steer and the sin-goat, whose blood was brought in to purge in the holy place, shall be carried out outside the camp, and they shall burn up their skins and their flesh and their dung; and the one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh with water, and after that he shall come into the camp.

“And you shall have it as a perpetual usage: in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month, you shall deny yourselves the gratification of appetites and not carry on any activity, the native and the immigrant that lives among you, because on that day he purges you to cleanse you; from all your sins before Jehovah you are to become clean. It is to you a sabbath, a sabbath rest of yours, and you are to deny yourselves the gratification of appetites, as a perpetual usage; and the priest who is anointed and installed as his father’s successor in office shall do the purging. And he shall put on the linen garments, the sacred garments, and purge the sacred sanctuary; the Tent of Meeting and the altar he shall purge, and the priests and all the people of the assembly he shall purge. And you shall have this for a perpetual usage, to purge the sons of Israel from all their sins once a year.” And he did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 17

And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Tell Aaron and his sons and all the sons of Israel ‘This is the thing Jehovah has commanded: Any man of the house of Israel who slaughters a bull or cow or sheep or goat in the camp, or who slaughters it outside the camp, and does not bring it to the door of the Tent of Meeting to present an oblation to Jehovah before Jehovah’s tabernacle, that man shall be chargeable with bloodguilt: he has shed blood, and that person shall be cut off from among his kinsfolk,’ in order that the sons of Israel may bring to Jehovah, to the priest, at the door of the Tent of Meeting, their sacrifices that they are sacrificing all over the range, and sacrifice them as welfare-sacrifices to Jehovah, and the priest may throw their blood against Jehovah’s altar at the door of the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat for a genial odor to Jehovah, and they may no longer sacrifice their sacrifices to the satyrs that they prostitute themselves to follow: they shall have this as a perpetual usage generation after generation.

“And to them you shall say ‘Any man of the house of Israel or of the immigrants that live among them who does a burnt-offering or sacrifice and does not bring it to the door of the Tent of Meeting to do it to Jehovah, that man shall be cut off from his kinsfolk.

“‘And any man of the house of Israel or of the immigrants that live among them who eats any blood, I will set my face against the soul that ate the blood and cut him off from among his kinsfolk, because the creature’s soul is in the blood and I have given it to you on the altar to purge your souls, because the blood purges by the soul. This is why I say to the sons of Israel “Not any soul of you shall eat blood”; and the immigrant that lives among you shall not eat

- 13 blood. And any man of the sons of Israel or of the immigrants that 14 live among them who kills game, eatable beast or bird, shall let its blood run out and cover it with earth, because every creature's blood is its soul, and I have said to the sons of Israel "You shall not eat the blood of any creature, because every creature's blood is its soul:
everyone who eats it shall be cut off." 15 "And every person who eats meat from a creature that has died a natural death or been killed by wild beasts, be he native or immigrant, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean 16 till evening, and be clean. But if he does not wash nor bathe his body he shall bear his guilt."

CHAPTER 18

- 1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, I am 3 your God Jehovah. You are not to do like the doings of the country of Egypt, in which you have been living, nor like the doings of the country of Canaan, into which I am bringing you, nor go by their 4 usages. You are to live up to my laws and keep my usages, going by 5 them: I am Jehovah your God. And you are to keep my usages and my laws, which man is to practice and have life by them: I am Jehovah.
6 "You shall not any man of you near any next of kin of his to 7 uncover nakedness: I am Jehovah. Your father's nakedness and your mother's you shall not uncover: she is your mother, you shall not 8 uncover her nakedness. Your father's wife's nakedness you shall not 9 uncover: it is your father's nakedness. The nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter or your mother's, born in the home or outside, 10 you shall not uncover. Your son's daughter's nakedness or your daughter's daughter's you shall not uncover, because they are your 11 own nakedness. Your father's wife's daughter's nakedness you shall not uncover: she is your father's progeny, your sister; you shall not 12 uncover her nakedness. Your father's sister's nakedness you shall not 13 uncover: she is your father's next. Your mother's sister's nakedness 14 you shall not uncover: she is your mother's next. Your father's brother's nakedness you shall not uncover, you shall not near his 15 wife: she is your aunt. Your daughter-in-law's nakedness you shall not uncover: she is your son's wife, you shall not uncover her naked-16 ness. Your brother's wife's nakedness you shall not uncover: it is 17 your brother's nakedness. The nakedness of a woman and of her daughter you shall not uncover; you shall not take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, uncovering her nakedness: they are your 18 next, it is lewdness. You shall not take a woman to be rival-wife with her sister, uncovering her nakedness during her life in her despite.
19 "Nor shall you near a woman in her uncleanness of menstruation 20 to uncover her nakedness; nor give neighbor's wife the emission of 21 your semen, to become unclean by her; nor give issue of yours to be sent over to Melec, and pollute the name of your God; I am Jehovah.

22 Neither shall you lie with a male as if a woman; it is an abomination; 23 nor give your emission to any beast, to become unclean by it; nor shall a woman stand before a beast to be covered; it is demoralization.
24 "Do not defile yourselves with any of these things; for with all these things the nations I am turning out before you defiled themselves, and the country became unclean and I punished it for its guilt, 25 and the country spat out its inhabitants. And you are to keep my usages and laws and not do any of these abominable things, the 26 native nor the immigrant living among you, because all these abominable things the men who had the country before you did and the 27 country became unclean; that the country may not spit you out at 28 your defiling it, as it spat out the nation before you. For anybody who does any of these abominations, the persons that do so shall be 29 cut off from among their kinsfolk. And you are to keep my charge, not practicing any of the usages of abomination that were practiced before you, and not defiling yourselves with them; I am your God Jehovah."

CHAPTER 19

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell all the congregation of the sons of Israel 'You are to be holy, because I your God Jehovah 3 am holy. You shall each fear your mother and father, and shall keep 4 my sabbaths; I am your God Jehovah. Do not face toward trumperies nor make yourselves metal gods; I am your God Jehovah.
5 "'And when you sacrifice a welfare-sacrifice to Jehovah you shall 6 sacrifice acceptably. It shall be eaten on the day of your sacrificing and on the next day, and what is left over to the third day shall be 7 burned up; but if it be eaten on the third day it is foul food, it will 8 not be accepted and the one who eats it shall bear his guilt because he has taken liberties with Jehovah's sacred things, and that person shall be cut off from his kinsfolk.
9 "'And when you are reaping the harvest of your country, you shall not finish the margin of your field in reaping nor glean the 10 fallen heads of your harvest, nor go over your vineyard for leavings, nor glean the fallen grapes in your vineyard: you shall leave them for the poverty-stricken and the immigrant; I am your God Jehovah.
11 "'You shall not steal, nor misrepresent, nor one neighbor lie to 12 another, nor swear by my name to a lie, making free with the name of your God; I am Jehovah. You shall not bilk a man you deal with, 13 nor rob. A hired man's earnings shall not stay in your hands overnight. You shall not curse a deaf man nor put an obstacle to trip 14 up a blind man, but fear your God; I am Jehovah.
15 "'You shall not commit fraud in giving a verdict: you shall not favor a poor man nor defer to a big man; you shall judge your neighbor's case fairly. You shall not carry scandal among your people;

17 you shall not stand by your fellowman's blood; I am Jehovah. You shall not hate your brother in your heart: you shall correct your 18 neighbor and not bear a sin over him. You shall not take revenge, nor hold grudges toward the sons of your people, but love your fellowman as yourself; I am Jehovah.
 19 "You shall keep to my usages. You shall not mate your beasts to a different species; you shall not sow mixed seed; you shall not put 20 on a garment of mixed goods, linsey-woolsey. And when a man lies sexually with a woman who is a bondmaid acquired by a man and has not been bought off nor had her freedom given her, it shall be actionable; they shall not be put to death, because she had not been 21 freed, but he shall bring his indemnity to Jehovah at the door of 22 the Tent of Meeting, an indemnity-ram, and the priest shall purge him before Jehovah with the indemnity-ram for his sin that he has committed, and he shall be forgiven for his sin that he has committed.
 23 "And when you come into the country and plant any food tree you shall count out its forecrop (its fruit): three years you shall 24 regard it as in forecrop, it shall not be eaten from, and in the fourth 25 year all its fruit shall be sacred, a handsel to Jehovah, and in the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may keep bearing; I am your God Jehovah.
 26 "You shall not eat with the blood. You shall not believe in signs 27 nor tell fortunes. You shall not shave the edges of your hair nor 28 crop the sides of your beard, nor shall you make cuts for deceased persons in your flesh nor inscribe tattoo marks on you; I am Jehovah.
 29 Do not debase your daughter by making a prostitute of her, that the country may not become unchaste and full of lewdness.
 30 "You shall keep my sabbaths and fear my sanctuary; I am Jeho-31 vah. Do not consult mediums of any kind, becoming unclean by them; 32 I am your God Jehovah. Before gray hair you shall stand up, and honor an old man's face, and fear your God; I am Jehovah.
 33 "And when an immigrant lives with you in your country you shall 34 not make it hard for him. The immigrant that lives with you shall be the same to you as a native of your own stock, and you shall love him as yourself, because you were immigrants in Egypt; I am your 35 God Jehovah. You shall not commit fraud in verdict, in measure, nor 36 in weight: you shall have honest scales, honest weights, an honest bushel, and an honest gallon; I am your God Jehovah who brought 37 you out of Egypt. And you shall keep all my usages and all my laws, and live up to them; I am Jehovah.' "

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "And to the sons of Israel you shall say 'Any man of the sons of Israel or of the immigrants that live in Israel who gives offspring of his to Melec shall be put 3 to death; the people of the country shall stone him; and I will set my face against that man and cut him off from among his people, because he gave offspring of his to Melec, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name. And if the people of the country shall ignore that man when he gives offspring of his to Melec, not putting him to death, I will set my face against that man and his clan, and cut off him and all who prostitute themselves to follow him, prostituting themselves to follow Melec, from among their people. And the person that looks toward the mediums of whatever kind, prostituting himself to follow them, I will set my face against that person and cut him off from among his people.

“And you shall hallow yourselves and be holy, because I am your God Jehovah; and you shall keep my usages and live up to them: I am Jehovah who hallows you. For when any man curses his father and his mother he shall be put to death: he cursed his father and mother, his blood is on himself. And when a man commits adultery with another's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death. And when a man lies with his father's wife, he has uncovered his father's nakedness; they shall both be put to death, their blood is on themselves. And when a man lies with his daughter-in-law, they shall both be put to death; they have committed an act of demoralization, their blood is on themselves. And when a man lies with a male as if with a woman, they have both committed an abomination; they shall be put to death, their blood is on themselves. And when a man takes a woman and her mother, it is a lewdness; they shall burn up him and them, and there shall not be lewdness among you. And when a man puts his embrace to a beast, he shall be put to death and you shall kill the beast. And when a woman nears any beast for it to cover her, you shall kill the woman and the beast; they shall be put to death, their blood is on themselves. And when a man takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's, and sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is an infamous act, and they shall be cut off in sight of the sons of their people; he uncovered his sister's nakedness, he shall bear his guilt. And when a man lies with a menstruating woman and uncovers her nakedness, he has bared her flow and she has uncovered her flow of blood, and they shall both be cut off from among their people. And the nakedness of your mother's or father's sister you shall not uncover; because he bared his next of kin, they shall bear their guilt. And when a man lies with his uncle's wife he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall bear their sin, they shall die childless. And when a man takes his brother's wife it is filthiness; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness, they shall be childless.

“And you shall keep all my usages and all my laws, and live up to them, that the country I am bringing you into to live in it may not spit you out; and you shall not go by the usages of the nations that I am turning out before you, because they did all these things and 24 I was nauseated at them and said to you "You shall take possession of their soil, and I will give it to you to possess, a country that runs milk and honey. I am your God Jehovah who distinguish you 25 from the peoples['']; and you shall distinguish between the clean beasts and the unclean and between the unclean birds and the clean, and not carrionize your persons with beast or bird or anything that crawls on the ground that I have distinguished for you as unclean;

26 and you shall be holy for me because I, Jehovah, am holy and have distinguished you from the peoples to be mine. And a man or woman 27 that has in them a spirit controlling them as medium of any kind must die; they shall stone them; their blood is on themselves.'"

CHAPTER 21

1 And Jehovah said to Moses "Tell the priests, Aaron's sons, one of them is not to defile himself among his kinsfolk for a deceased person
2 except for his next of kin, his mother and his father and his son 3 and his daughter and his brother, and his maiden sister who is close to him, who has not belonged to a husband—for her he shall 4 defile himself. He shall not defile himself, husband, among his kinsfolk, to profane him. They shall not produce baldness on their heads 5 nor shave the sides of their beards nor make scars in their flesh.
6 They shall be holy to their God and not profane their God's name, because it is they who present Jehovah's fire-offerings, the bread of 7 their God, and they are to be sacred. They shall not marry an unchaste or violated woman nor a divorced woman. For he is holy to 8 his God, and you are to hallow him because it is he who presents your God's bread; you shall hold him holy, because I Jehovah who 9 hallow you am holy. And when any priest's daughter debases herself to be unchaste she is debasing her father; she shall be burned up.
10 "And the high priest, he on whose head the anointing-oil is poured and who is installed to wear the garments, shall not dishevel his 11 head nor tear his clothes nor go in to any dead person; not for his father nor his mother shall he defile himself; and he shall not go out 12 from the sanctuary so as not to profane the sanctuary of his God, because he has upon him his God's sign of devotion in anointing-oil; 14 I am Jehovah. And he shall marry a wife in her maidenhood; a widow or a divorced woman or a violated woman or an unchaste woman, 15 these he shall not marry, but shall marry a maiden of his kinsfolk, and not desecrate his descendants among his kinsfolk, because I am Jehovah who hallows him." 17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell Aaron 'Any man of your descendants, generation after generation, who has in him a 18 bodily fault, shall not come near to present his God's bread: any man who has in him a bodily fault shall not come near, a blind man 19 or a lame man or a man with features disfigured or deformed or a 20 man with a broken leg or arm or a hunchback or a gaunt man or a man with a cataract in his eye or a man with scab or eruption or 21 rupture,—any man of Priest Aaron's issue who has in him a bodily fault shall not approach to present Jehovah's fire-offerings. He has a 22 fault in him, he shall not approach to present his God's bread. His God's bread, from the holiest of the holy and from the holy, he shall 23 eat; only he shall not go in to the veil nor approach the altar, because he has a fault in him, and not profane my sanctuary, because 24 I am Jehovah who hallows them.'" And Moses told Aaron and his sons and all the sons of Israel.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell Aaron and his sons to hold aloof from the sacred things of the sons of Israel so as not to profane my holy name, the things they dedicate to me; I am Jehovah.
3 Say to them 'Generation after generation, every man of your descendants who while he has his uncleanness on him nears the sacred things that the sons of Israel dedicate to Jehovah, that person shall 4 be cut off from before me; I am Jehovah. Any man of Aaron's descendants who has leprosy or a discharge shall not eat sacred things till he becomes clean; and he who touches anything unclean by a 5 deceased person, or a man who has an emission of semen, or a man who touches any defiling vermin or defiling human being for any 6 defilement, the person who touches it shall be unclean till evening, and he shall not eat any of the sacred things unless he has bathed his 7 flesh with water; but when the sun sets he becomes clean, and afterward he shall eat sacred things, because they are his daily bread.
8 Meat from a creature that has died a natural death or been killed by wild beasts he shall not eat, defiling himself with it; I am Jehovah.
9 And they shall keep my charge, that they may not bear sin over it all and die by it because they profane it; I am Jehovah who hallows them.

10 "'And no outsider shall eat a sacred thing. A priest's dependent 11 or hired man shall not eat a sacred thing. But when a priest invests his money in buying a person, he shall eat them; and servants born 12 in the family, they shall eat at his meals. And when a priest's daughter belongs to an outside husband she shall not eat sacred contri-13 butions; but when a priest's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no issue, and goes back to her father's house as in her girlhood, she 14 shall eat of her father's meals, but no outsider shall. And when a man eats a sacred thing by misadventure he shall add a fifth to it 15 and give the priest the sacred thing. And they shall not profane the sacred things of the sons of Israel, what they contribute to Jehovah, 16 and cause them to bear by eating their sacred things a guilt that would call for an indemnity, because I am Jehovah who hallows them.'"

17 18 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell Aaron and his sons and all the sons of Israel 'Any man of the house of Israel, or of the immigrants that live among Israel, who presents his oblation for any of their vows or voluntary offerings that they present to Jehovah for burnt-offerings, for acceptance it shall be faultless, a male, of horned cattle, of sheep, or of goats. Anything that has a fault in it you shall not present, because it would not be acceptable to Jehovah for you. And when a man presents a welfare-sacrifice to Jehovah for a special vow or as a voluntary offering, of horned cattle or small cattle, for acceptance it shall be faultless, not have any fault in it. A blind creature, or one with a broken bone or a cut or warts or scab or an eruption, these you shall not present to Jehovah, nor put a fire-offering of them on Jehovah's altar. A deformed or stunted animal you may do as a voluntary offering, but it will not be acceptable for a vow; and anything castrated by pressure or pounding or tearing or cutting you shall not present to Jehovah; in your country you shall not do the things, and from a foreigner's hands you shall not present your God's food out of any of them, because the mutilation of them is a fault in them: they would not be acceptable for you.'

6 27 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "When bull or sheep or goat is born it shall be under its mother seven days, and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable for an oblation as fire-offering to Jehovah. And you shall not slaughter in one day a bull or cow or sheep or goat and its offspring. And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanks to Jehovah you shall sacrifice acceptably. It shall be eaten that day; you shall not leave any of it till morning; I am Jehovah.

31 "And you shall keep my commandments and live up to them; I am Jehovah. And you shall not profane my holy name, but my holiness shall be recognized among the sons of Israel; I am Jehovah who hallows you, who brought you out of Egypt to have me for your God; I am Jehovah.

CHAPTER 23

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel 'Jehovah's dates which you are to proclaim as sacred meetings, my dates, are these:

3 "Six days you shall do work, but on the seventh day is a sabbath, a sabbath rest, a sacred meeting; you shall not do any work; it is a sabbath of Jehovah's in all your domiciles.

4 "These are Jehovah's dates, sacred meetings which you are to proclaim at their dates:

5 "In the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, in the evening hours, is a passover of Jehovah's.

6 "And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast of matzoth to Jehovah: seven days you shall eat matzoth. On the first day you shall have a sacred meeting; you shall not do any business work. And

9 10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Tell the sons of Israel ‘When you come into the country I am giving you and reap your harvest, you shall bring the first-cut shock of your harvest to the priest, 11 and he shall wave the shock before Jehovah that you may have acceptance; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. 12 And on the day of your waving the shock you shall do a faultless 13 lamb of the same year as a burnt-offering to Jehovah, and its grain-offering, two tenths of a bushel of farina stirred up with oil as fire-offering to Jehovah, a genial odor, and its libation, three pints of 14 wine. And you shall not eat bread nor roasted ears nor green ears till that very day, till you have brought your God’s oblation, as a perpetual usage generation after generation in all your domiciles.

15 “‘And you shall count off from the day after the sabbath, from the day of your bringing the wave-shock, seven weeks, which are 16 to be complete; to the day after the seventh sabbath you shall count 17 fifty days, and present a new offering to Jehovah. Out of your domiciles you shall bring two cakes of wave-bread; they shall be of 18 two tenths of a bushel of farina; you shall bake them raised, as firstfruits to Jehovah. And you shall present besides the bread seven 19 faultless yearling sheep and one steer of horned cattle and two rams, which shall be faultless, as a burnt-offering to Jehovah, and 20 their grain-offering and their libations, a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah. And you shall do one old goat for a sin-offering, and two 21 yearling sheep for a welfare-sacrifice. And the priest shall wave them besides the firstfruit bread as a wave-offering before Jehovah, besides two sheep; they shall be a sacred thing of Jehovah’s for the 22 priest. And on that very day you shall proclaim a meeting: you shall have it as sacred time, you shall not do any business work, as a perpetual usage in all your domiciles generation after generation. 23 And when you are reaping the harvest of your country you shall not finish the margin of your field in reaping, nor glean the fallen heads of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poverty-stricken and the immigrant; I am your God Jehovah.’”

23 24 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying ‘In the seventh month, on the first of the month, you shall have a sabbath rest, a commemoration with cheers and trumpet-calls, 25 a sacred meeting. You shall not do any business work, and you shall present a fire-offering to Jehovah.’”

26 27 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “But on the tenth of this seventh month is the day of purgation; you shall have a sacred meeting, and deny yourselves the gratification of appetites, and 28 present a fire-offering to Jehovah, and you shall not do any work this same day, because it is a day of purgation to purge you before 29 your God Jehovah. For any person that does not deny himself grati-

30 fications this same day shall be cut off from his kinsfolk; and any 31 person that does any work this same day, that person I will destroy 32 from among his people. You are not to do any work, as a perpetual usage generation after generation in all your domiciles. You shall have it as a sabbath, a sabbath rest, and deny yourselves the gratification of appetites. On the ninth of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your sabbath."

3 34 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying 'On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of 35 booths for seven days in honor of Jehovah. On the first day is a 36 sacred meeting; you shall not do any business work. Seven days you shall present a fire-offering to Jehovah; on the eighth day you shall have a sacred meeting and present a fire-offering to Jehovah: it is a holiday, you shall not do any business work.

37 "These are Jehovah's dates which you are to proclaim as sacred meetings to present fire-offering to Jehovah, burnt-offering and grain-38 offering, sacrifice and libations, each item on its day, besides Jehovah's sabbaths and besides your gifts and besides all your vows and besides all your voluntary offerings that you give to Jehovah.

39 "'Only on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you are getting in the produce of the country, you shall keep Jehovah's feast seven days; on the first day shall be a sabbath rest and on the eighth 40 a sabbath rest. And you shall take on the first day myrtle boughs, palm leaves, and branches of leafy trees and of arroyo poplars, and 41 you shall make merry before your God Jehovah seven days. And you shall keep it as a feast to Jehovah seven days in the year as a perpetual usage generation after generation; in the seventh month you 42 shall keep it. You shall live in booths seven days, every native-born 43 Israelite shall live in booths, in order that your generations may know that I had the sons of Israel live in booths in my bringing them out of Egypt; I am your God Jehovah.'"

44 And Moses told the sons of Israel Jehovah's dates.

CHAPTER 24

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Command the sons of Israel to get you pure beaten olive-oil for the light, to set up a lamp regu-3 larly. Outside the veil of the Lessons in the Tent of Meeting Aaron shall set it out from evening till morning before Jehovah regularly 4 as a perpetual usage generation after generation. On the pure lamp-stand he shall set out the lamps before Jehovah regularly.

5 "And you shall take farina and bake it in twelve ritual-cakes, one 6 cake being two tenths of a bushel, and place them in two stacks of 7 six each on the pure table before Jehovah. And you shall put on a stack pure frankincense, which the bread shall have for a memorial, 8 a fire-offering to Jehovah. On sabbath days regularly you shall set it out before Jehovah from the sons of Israel as a perpetual covenant.

9 And Aaron and his sons shall have it and shall eat it in a sacred place, because he has it as holiest of the holy out of Jehovah's fire-offerings by perpetual institution."

10 And an Israelite woman's son, he being the son of an Egyptian man, came out among the sons of Israel. And the Israelite woman's son and an Israelite man had a squabble in the camp, and the Israelite woman's son cursed the Name and used bad language; and they brought him to Moses. (And his mother's name was Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) And they left him under guard to have a ruling specified by Jehovah's direction.

13 14 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Take the one who used the bad language outside the camp, and have all who heard it lay their hands on his head, and have all the congregation stone him. And tell the sons of Israel 'Every man who talks scurrilously of his God shall bear his sin, but he who curses Jehovah's name shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him, immigrant and native-born alike, when he curses Jehovah's name.

17 "'And when a man strikes any human being a deadly blow he shall be put to death.

18 "'And one who strikes a domestic animal a deadly blow shall pay for it, life for life.

19 "'And when a man damages his neighbor's person, the same as he did shall be done to him: break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, as he damaged the person of a human being, he shall be damaged the same.

21 "'And he who kills a domestic animal shall pay for it; and he who kills a human being shall be put to death. You shall have one law: the immigrant shall be the same as the native-born; because I am your God Jehovah.'"

23 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they took the one who used the bad language outside the camp and stoned him. And the sons of Israel did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When you come into the country I am giving to you, the land shall keep a sabbath for Jehovah. Six years you shall sow your field and six years prune your vineyard, and gather its crop; but in the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath, a sabbath rest, a sabbath of Jehovah's: you shall not sow your field nor prune your vineyard. The self-sown crop of your harvest you shall not reap and of the grapes of your untrimmed vines you shall not make a picking; 6 it shall be a year of sabbath rest for the land. And the land's sabbath growth shall be for food for you; for yourself and your slave and your hired man and dependent who are living as your tenants, and for your cattle and for the animals in your country, all its crop shall be for food.

8 "And you shall count off seven weeks of years, seven years seven times; the time of your seven weeks of years will come to forty-nine 9 years; and you shall pass along a signal ram-horn in the seventh month on the tenth of the month—on the day of purgation you shall 10 pass along a ram-horn throughout your country—and hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty in the country for all its inhabitants; you shall have that as ram-horn time, and go back each to his 11 own property, and each come back into his own clan. It, the fiftieth year, shall be ram-horn time for you; you shall not sow, nor reap 12 its self-sown crop, nor make a picking of its untrimmed vines, because it is ram-horn time; you shall hold it sacred; you shall eat its crop out of the field.

13 "In this ram-horn year you shall go back each to his own property.
14 And when you sell a property to your neighbor or buy from your 15 neighbor, you shall not be hard on each other. By number of years after the ram-horn you shall buy from your neighbor, and by number 16 of years of crops you shall sell to him. In proportion to the numerous-ness of the years you shall make the purchase price large, and in proportion to the fewness of the years make the purchase price small, because it is a certain number of crops that he is selling to you; 17 and you shall not be hard on each other, but fear your God, because 18 I am your God Jehovah, and you are to live up to my usages and keep my laws and live up to them and live in the country in security, 19 and the country shall give its fruit, and you shall eat your fill and live in security in it.

20 "And as you will think 'What shall we eat in the seventh year, 21 supposing we do not sow nor gather our crop?' I will ordain my blessing for you in the sixth year and it shall make the crop for the 22 three years. And you shall sow the eighth year, and eat old stock of the crop; till the ninth year, till its crop comes in, you shall eat old stock.

23 "And the land shall not be sold in perpetuity, because the land is 24 mine; for you are visitors and tenants with me. And in all the country that you have as your property you shall grant a right of redemption 25 for the land. When your brother is impoverished and sells some of his property, his nearest competent representative shall come and 26 redeem what his brother sold. And when a man has no competent representative, and he can afford to spend and can find enough for 27 the redemption of it, he shall calculate the years of his sale and return the surplus to the man he sold it to, and go back to his property.
28 But if he does not find enough to return to him, what he sold shall be in the hands of the one who bought it till the ram-horn year, but it shall pass out of them at the ram-horn and he shall go back to his property.

29 "And when a man sells a dwelling-house in a walled city, the right 30 of redemption for it shall be till the year of its sale runs out; the right of redemption for it shall be for a limited time. And if it is unredeemed till the completion of an entire year, the house in the walled city shall vest in its buyer in perpetuity, generation after 31 generation; it shall not pass out at the ram-horn. But the houses of unwalled villages shall be deemed to pertain to the countryside: there shall be a right of redemption for them and at the ram-horn they 32 shall pass out. And for the Levites' cities, the houses of the cities of their property, the Levites shall have a perpetual right of redemption.
33 And for him of the Levites who does not redeem, his sold house in the city of his property shall pass out at the ram-horn, because the houses of the Levites' cities are their property among the sons of 34 Israel. And the glebe area of their cities shall not be sold, because they have it as a perpetual possession.

35 "And when your brother is impoverished and becomes helpless alongside you, you shall take hold to help him; as visitor and de-36 pendent he shall be kept alive with you. Do not take interest or bonus from him, but fear your God and let your brother be kept alive with 37 you; you are not to furnish him money at interest nor food for a bonus; I am your God Jehovah who brought you out of Egypt to 38 give you the country of Canaan, to let you have me for your God.

39 "And when your brother is impoverished alongside you and sells 40 himself to you, you shall not work him like a slave: he shall be like a hired man or a dependent guest with you. He shall serve with you 41 till the ram-horn year, and go out from you, he and his children with him, and go back to his clan and back to his fathers' property.
42 For they are my property that I brought up out of Egypt; they are 43 not to be sold in slave fashion. You shall not exploit him, but fear 44 your God. But the slaves you are to have shall be these: out of the 45 nations around you you may buy slaves, and also out of the sons of those who live among you as alien immigrants, any of them you may buy or of their tribe that you have with you that they have had born 46 to them in your country, and they shall become your property, and you shall bequeath them to your children after you to be possessed as perpetual property: them you shall use as slaves, but your brothers the sons of Israel, each other, you shall not exploit.

47 "And when an immigrant alien among you can afford to spend and your brother is impoverished alongside him and sells himself to 48 an immigrant alien among you or to a scion of immigrant stock, after he is sold there shall be a right of redemption for him; one of his 49 brothers may redeem him, or his uncle or cousin may redeem him, or any of his next of kin in his clan may redeem him, or he may be-50 come able to afford it and redeem himself. And he shall calculate with his owner from the year of his being sold to him to the ram-horn year, and the money for his sale shall be for a number of years;

51 he shall be with him like a hired man's time. If there are still many 52 of the years, he shall return a proportionate part of his purchase-money as redemption; or if few of the years remain till ram-horn 53 year, he shall make his calculation and return his redemption proportionately to his years. He is to be with him like a hired man, by 54 the year; he is not to exploit him under your eyes; and if he is not redeemed in these ways he shall pass out in the ram-horn year, he 55 and his children with him. For the sons of Israel are property of mine; they are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt; I am your God Jehovah.

1 "You shall not make yourselves trumpery gods, nor erect for yourselves statue or obelisk, nor put a pictured stone in your country to 2 do reverence on, because I am your God Jehovah. My sabbaths you shall keep and my sanctuary you shall fear; I am Jehovah.

3 "If you go by my usages and keep my commandments and live 4 up to them, I will give you rains at their seasons and the land shall 5 give its growth and the trees of the field shall give their fruit; and you shall have threshing reach to vintage and vintage to seeding, and you shall eat full meals. And you shall live in your country in 6 security, and I will make all well in the country, and you shall lie down and have no one to alarm you; and I will clean out dangerous beasts from the country, and warfare shall never pass through your 7 country. And you shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before 8 you in warfare; and five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand, and your enemies shall fall before 9 you in warfare. And I will face toward you and make you prolific 10 and make you numerous, and make good my covenant with you. And you shall eat old stock long stored, and you shall take out old stock 11 to make room for new. And I will put my dwelling among you and 12 take no aversion to you; and I will walk among you, and you shall 13 have me for your God and I will have you for my people. I am your God Jehovah who have brought you out of the Egyptians' country, from being slaves to them, and broken the bows of your yoke and set you to going erect.

14 "But if you do not listen to me nor live by these commandments 15 of mine, if you repudiate my usages and take an aversion to my laws, 16 not living by my commandments, breaking my covenant, I on my part will do this to you and commit you to consternation, the slow fever and the quick fever, consuming eyes and famishing souls, and 17 you shall sow your seed in vain and your enemies shall eat it. And I will set my face against you and you shall be beaten by your enemies, and those who hate you shall have the upper hand of you, and you shall run without anybody chasing you.

18 "And if so far you do not listen to me I will go on to chastise you

19 seven times over for your sins, and break your pride of might and 20 make your sky like iron and your earth like brass, and your strength shall be exhausted in vain and your land shall not give its growth and the trees of the land shall not give their fruit.

21 "And if you oppose me and will not consent to listen to me I will 22 buffet you more, seven times over for your sins, and will send upon you the wild beasts, and they shall rob you of your children and sweep away your children and thin your numbers, and your roads shall lie desolate.

23 "And if with these things I do not find you disciplined, but you 24 oppose me, I on my part will oppose you and I myself will strike you 25 seven times over for your sins, and bring in against you swords taking vengeance for broken faith, and you shall retreat to your cities, and I will send a pestilence among you and you shall be given into your 26 enemies' hands, when I break bread-stocks for you, and ten women shall bake their bread in one baking-crock, and they shall deliver your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not have your hunger satisfied.

27 28 "And if with this you do not listen to me but oppose me, I will hotly oppose you, I on my part will chastise you seven times over for 29 your sins, and you shall eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of 30 your daughters; and I will wreck your heights and sweep away your hammans and put your corpses on the corpses of your fetishes 31 and hold you in aversion; and I will make your cities ruins and 32 desolate your sanctuaries, and not smell your genial odors; and I will desolate the country, and your enemies who shall live in it shall 33 stand aghast over it; and you I will scatter among the nations and will bare swords after you, and your country shall be a desolation and 34 your cities shall be ruins. Then the country shall pay up its sabbaths through all the time of desolation, while you are in your enemies' country; then the country shall keep sabbath and pay up its sabbaths.
35 All the time of desolation it shall do the sabbath-keeping it had not 36 done in your sabbaths when you lived in it. And as for those among you who are left, I will bring cowardice into their hearts in their enemies' countries, and the sound of a windblown leaf shall chase them and they shall run like running from swords and fall with 37 nobody chasing them. And each shall stumble on his brother as if before swords, with nobody chasing them; and you shall have no 38 getting on your feet before your enemies. And you shall perish among 39 the foreigners, and your enemies' country shall eat you up; and those that are left of you shall molder away in their guilt in your enemies' countries, and in the guilt of their fathers too with them they 40 shall molder away. And they shall confess their guilt and their fathers' guilt in the unfaithfulnesses they have committed toward 41 me. And also, as they had opposed me, I on my part will oppose them and bring them into their enemies' country. In case their un-42 circumcised heart then humbles itself and they then plead guilty, I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and my covenant with Isaac too and my covenant with Abraham too I will remember, and I will 43 remember the country; and the country shall be left without them, and shall pay up its sabbaths in desolation without them, and they shall plead guilty, forasmuch as they repudiated my laws and held 44 my usages in aversion; but even at that, when they are in their enemies' country I will not so repudiate them or hold them in aversion as to exterminate them, breaking my covenant with them, 45 because I am their God Jehovah. And I will remember for them the pristine covenant, how I brought them out of Egypt under the eyes of all the nations to have me for their God, I Jehovah.”

46 These are the usages and laws and instructions that Jehovah gave at Mount Sinai by Moses for the relations between him and the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 27

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Tell the sons of Israel, When a man takes a special vow to Jehovah in terms of valuation of persons, 3 for the valuation of a male from twenty years old to sixty the valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver of the sacred standard; and if 4 it be a female the valuation shall be thirty shekels. And if from five years old to twenty, the valuation of a male shall be twenty 6 shekels, and for a female ten shekels. And if from a month old to five years, the valuation of a male shall be five shekels of silver, and 7 the valuation for a female three shekels of silver. And if from sixty years old up, if a male the valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for 8 a female ten shekels. And if he be too impoverished for the valuation he shall set the person before the priest and the priest shall assess him; the priest shall assess him in proportion to the vower's ability.

9 “And if it be a beast of a sort they present an oblation to Jehovah 10 of, everything he gives to Jehovah of that shall be sacred. He shall not throw it out nor substitute for it, worse for better or better for worse; and if he does substitute beast for beast, then it and its 11 substitute shall be sacred. And if any unclean beast of a sort they do not present an oblation to Jehovah of, he shall set the beast before 12 the priest and the priest shall assess it as better or as worse; according to the priest's valuation, so it shall be; and if he redeem it he shall 13 add a fifth to the valuation.

14 “And when a man hallows his house as sacred to Jehovah, the priest shall assess it as better or as worse; as the priest assesses it, 15 so it shall stand; and if the hallower redeems his house, he shall add a fifth of the silver equivalent of the valuation to it, and it shall be his.

16 “And if a man hallows to Jehovah any of his property in land, the valuation shall be in proportion to the seed for it, land sceded 17 with ten bushels of barley at fifty shekels of silver. If he hallows from

- 18 the ram-horn year, it shall stand at the valuation, but if he hallows his land after the ram-horn the priest shall calculate the money for him in proportion to the years that are left till ram-horn year, and a 19 discount shall be made from the valuation. And if the hallower of the land redeem it, he shall add a fifth of the silver equivalent of 20 the valuation to it, and have a clear title; but if he does not redeem the land, and if he sells the land to another man, it shall not be 21 redeemed thenceforth, and when the land passes out at the ram-horn it shall be sacred to Jehovah like deodand land: the priest shall have it as his property.
- 22 "And if he hallows to Jehovah his acquired land, not a part of 23 his own property, the priest shall calculate for him the prorating of the valuation up to ram-horn year, and he shall give the valuation 24 on that day as sacred to Jehovah; and at the ram-horn year the land shall go back to the one he bought it from, the one to whom the proprietorship in the country belongs.
- 25 "And every valuation shall be by the sacred standard shekel: the shekel shall be twenty gerahs.
- 26 "Only a firstborn which comes firstborn for Jehovah among cattle no man shall hallow: if a bull, if a sheep or goat, it belongs to Je-27 hovah; and if among unclean cattle he shall ransom it at the valuation and add a fifth to it, and if not redeemed it shall be sold at the valuation.
- 28 "Only any deodand that a man devotes as such to Jehovah out of anything that belongs to him, of humankind and cattle and of his property in land, shall neither be sold nor redeemed: every deodand 29 is holiest of the holy to Jehovah. Any deodand that is devoted out of humankind shall not be ransomed, it must be put to death.
- 30 "And all the tithe of the ground, of seed of the ground, of fruit 31 of the tree, belongs to Jehovah as sacred to Jehovah; and if a man redeem any of his tithe he shall add a fifth to it. And in all tithe 32 of horned cattle and sheep and goats, everyone that passes under the rod tenth shall be sacred to Jehovah: one shall not examine as to its 33 being good or bad, nor substitute for it; and if one does substitute for it, then it and its substitute shall be sacred, unredeemable."
- 34 These are the commandments Jehovah enjoined on Moses for the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month in the year 2 two of their coming out of Egypt, saying "Take the census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel by clans, by families, by count of 3 names, every male poll by poll; from twenty years old up, all who come out with the militia in Israel, you shall muster them corps by 4 corps, you and Aaron. And with you there shall be a man for each 5 tribe, each man being a chief of his family; and these are the names of the men who shall stand with you:

"For Reuben, Elisur the son of Shedeur.

6 "For Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Surishaddai.

7 "For Judah, Nahshon the son of 'Amminadab.

8 "For Issacar, Nethanel the son of Sughar.

9 "For Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon.

10 "For the sons of Joseph: for Ephraim, Elishama' the son of 'Am-mihud; for Manasseh, Gamliel the son of Pedahsur.

11 "For Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideon.

12 "For Dan, Ahi'ezer the son of 'Ammishaddai.

13 "For Asher, Pag'iel the son of 'Ocran.

14 "For Gad, Eljasaph the son of De'uel.

15 "For Naphtali, Ahira' the son of 'Enan.

16 "These are the notables of the congregation, the princes of their ancestral tribes, the heads of the thousands of Israel."

17 And Moses and Aaron took these men who had been specified by 18 name, and assembled all the congregation on the first of the second month, and they registered by families, clan after clan, by count of 19 names, from twenty years old up, poll by poll, as Jehovah had given Moses the order; and he mustered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the sons of Reuben, Israel's eldest, had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, poll by poll every male, from twenty 21 years old up, all who came out with the militia, the muster of the tribe of Reuben, forty-six thousand and five hundred;

22 The sons of Simeon had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, poll by poll every male, from twenty years old up, 23 all who came out with the militia, the muster of the tribe of Simeon, fifty-nine thousand and three hundred;

24 The sons of Gad had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the 25 militia, the muster of the tribe of Gad, forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty;

26 The sons of Judah had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the militia, 27 the muster of the tribe of Judah, seventy-four thousand and six hundred;

28 The sons of Issacar had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the 29 militia, the muster of the tribe of Issacar, fifty-four thousand and four hundred;

30 The sons of Zebulun had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the 31 militia, the muster of the tribe of Zebulun, fifty-seven thousand and four hundred;

32 For the sons of Joseph, the sons of Ephraim had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all 33 who came out with the militia, the muster of the tribe of Ephraim, forty thousand and five hundred; the sons of Manasseh had of their 34 line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the militia, the muster of the tribe of 35 Manasseh, thirty-two thousand and two hundred;

36 The sons of Benjamin had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with 37 the militia, the muster of the tribe of Benjamin, thirty-five thousand and four hundred;

38 The sons of Dan had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the militia, 39 the muster of the tribe of Dan, sixty-two thousand and seven hundred;

40 The sons of Asher had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the militia, 41 the muster of the tribe of Asher, forty-one thousand and five hundred;

42 The sons of Naphtali had of their line by clans, by families, by count of names, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the 43 militia, the muster of the tribe of Naphtali, fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

44 These were the musters that were taken by Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel, twelve men; they were a man to a tribe for the 45 tribes of their families. And all the muster of the sons of Israel by families, from twenty years old up, all who came out with the militia 46 in Israel, was six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty. And the Levites in their ancestral tribe were not mustered among 47 them.

48 49 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Only the tribe of Levi you 50 are not to muster nor take their census among the sons of Israel; but put the Levites in charge of the tabernacle of the Lessons, and all its furnishings, and everything that belongs to it: they are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they are to tend it, and to 51 camp around the tabernacle. And when the tabernacle starts on the march the Levites are to take it down, and when the tabernacle goes into camp the Levites are to set it up; and an outsider who approaches 52 is to be put to death. And the sons of Israel are to encamp each in 53 his own camp and each by his own division, corps by corps; and the Levites are to encamp around the tabernacle of the Lessons, and there will be no wrath against the congregation of the sons of Israel; and the Levites are to keep guard over the tabernacle of the Lessons.” 54 And the sons of Israel did it: just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so they did.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying “The sons of Israel shall encamp each by his own division by family ensigns; they shall encamp off and around the Tent of Meeting.
- 3 “And those who camp in front, on the east, shall be the division of the camp of Judah, corps by corps; and Nahshon the son of ‘Am-4 minadab shall be prince of the sons of Judah, and his corps and its 5 muster are seventy-four thousand and six hundred. And those who camp by him shall be the tribe of Issacar—and Nethanel the son 6 of Sughar shall be prince of the sons of Issacar, and his corps and its 7 muster are fifty-four thousand and four hundred—and the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon shall be prince of the sons of 8 Zebulun, and his corps and its muster are fifty-seven thousand and 9 four hundred. All the muster of the camp of Judah is a hundred and eighty-six thousand and four hundred, corps by corps; they shall take up the march first.
- 10 “The division of the camp of Reuben is to be on the south, corps by corps; and Elisur the son of Shedeur shall be prince of the sons 11 of Reuben, and his corps and its muster are forty-six thousand and 12 five hundred. And those who camp by him shall be the tribe of Simeon—and Shelumiel the son of Surishaddai shall be prince of the 13 sons of Simeon, and his corps and its muster are fifty-nine thousand and three hundred—and the tribe of Gad, and Eljasaph the son of 14 De’uel shall be prince of the sons of Gad, and his corps and its muster 15 are forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty. All the muster of the camp of Reuben is a hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty, corps by corps; they shall take up the march second.
- 17 “And the Tent of Meeting and the camp of the Levites shall take up the march midmost of the camps; as they encamp, so they shall take up the march, each on his side, division by division.
- 18 “The division of the camp of Ephraim, corps by corps, is to be on the west; and Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud shall be prince of the 19 sons of Ephraim, and his corps and its muster are forty thousand and five hundred; and by him the tribe of Manasseh—and Gamliel 20 the son of Pedahsur shall be prince of the sons of Manasseh, and his corps and its muster are thirty-two thousand and two hundred 21 —and the tribe of Benjamin, and Abidan the son of Gideon shall 22

23 be prince of the sons of Benjamin, and his corps and its muster are 24 thirty-five thousand and four hundred. All the muster of the camp of Ephraim is a hundred and eight thousand and one hundred, corps by corps; they shall take up the march third.

25 "The division of the camp of Dan is to be on the north, corps by corps; and Ahi'ezer the son of 'Ammishaddai shall be prince of the 26 sons of Dan, and his corps and its muster are sixty-two thousand 27 and seven hundred. And those who camp by him shall be the tribe of Asher—and Pag'iel the son of 'Ocran shall be prince of the sons 28 of Asher, and his corps and its muster are forty-one thousand and 29 five hundred—and the tribe of Naphtali, and Ahira' the son of 30 'Enan shall be prince of the sons of Naphtali, and his corps and its 31 muster are fifty-three thousand and four hundred. All the muster of the camp of Dan is a hundred and fifty-seven thousand and six hundred; they shall take up the march last, division by division."

32 This was the muster of the sons of Israel, family by family; all the muster of their camps, corps by corps, was six hundred and three 33 thousand five hundred and fifty, and the Levites were not mustered 34 among the sons of Israel, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. And the sons of Israel did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses; thus they encamped, division by division, and thus they took up their march, each to his clan, by his family.

1 And this is the line of Aaron and Moses on the day that Jehovah 2 spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai. And these are the names of Aaron's 3 sons: Nadab the eldest, and Abihu; Eleazar and Ithamar; these are the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests who were installed 4 into the priesthood. And Nadab and Abihu died when they presented alien fire before Jehovah in the wilderness of Sinai, and had no sons; but Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests along with their father Aaron.

5 6 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Present the tribe of Levi 7 and have them wait on Priest Aaron, attending to his needs, and 8 be on duty for him and care for all the furniture of the Tent of 9 Meeting, doing the work of the tabernacle; and give the Levites to Aaron and his sons: they are a donation given to him from the sons 10 of Israel. And Aaron and his sons you shall appoint, and they shall attend to their priestly duties, and an outsider who approaches is to be put to death."

11 12 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "And I on my part have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of every eldest son that has started a womb among the sons of Israel, and the Levites 13 shall be mine. For every eldest son is mine: on the day when I struck down every eldest-born in Egypt I consecrated to myself every eldest-born in Israel, of man and of beast: mine they are—I am Jehovah."

- 14 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying 15 "Muste the sons of Levi by families, by clans; you are to count 16 every male from a month old up in mustering them." And Moses mustered them by Jehovah's direction as he had been ordered to.
- 17 And these were the sons of Levi by name: Gershon, Kehath, and 18 Merari. And these were the names of the sons of Gershon by clans: 19 Libni and Shimei. And the sons of Kehath by clans: 'Amram and 20 Ishar, Hebron and 'Uzziel. And the sons of Merari by clans: Mahli and Mushi.
- 21 These are the clans of the Levites by families: Of Gershon, the Libnite clan and the Shimeite clan: these are the clans of the Gershon-22 ites. Their muster, enumerating every male from a month old up, was 23 seventy-five hundred. The clan of the Gershonites camped behind 24 the tabernacle, on the west; and the family prince of the Gershonite 25 clan was Eljasaph the son of Lael. And the province of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting was the tabernacle and the tent, its 26 covering, and the screen of the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and the curtains of the court and the screen of the entrance of the court around the tent and the altar, and its ropes for all its purposes.
- 27 And of Kehath, the 'Amramite clan and the Isharite clan and the Hebronite clan and the 'Uzzielite clan: these are the clans of the 28 Kehathites: enumerating every male from a month old up, eighty-six 29 hundred who did duty about the sacred things. The clans of the sons 30 of Kehath camped on the south flank of the tabernacle; and the family prince of the Kehathite clans was Elisaphan the son of 'Uzziel.
31 And their province was the ark and the table and the lampstand and the altars and the sacred articles with which the services are performed, and the screen and all its appurtenances.
- 32 And the supreme prince of the Levites was Eleazar the son of Priest Aaron, in authority over those who did duty about the sacred things.
- 33 Of Merari, the Mahlite clan and the Mushite clan: these are the 34 clans of Merari; and their muster, enumerating every male from a 35 month old up, was sixty-two hundred. And the family prince of the Merarite clans was Suriel the son of Abihail; they camped on the 36 north flank of the tabernacle. And the official province of the sons of Merari was the frames of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its plinths and all its furnishings and all its appurtenances, 37 and the pillars of the court around it and their plinths and their pegs and ropes.
- 38 And those who camped in front of the tabernacle, on the east in front of the Tent of Meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, guarding the sanctuary for the guarding of the sons of Israel; and an outsider who approached was to be put to death.
- 39 All the muster of the Levites, whom Moses mustered by Jehovah's direction clan by clan, every male from a month old up, was twenty-two thousand.

40 And Jehovah said to Moses "Muster all the male firstborn of the 41 sons of Israel, from a month old up, and take the count of their 42 names. And you shall take the Levites for me Jehovah instead of all 43 the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the Levites' cattle instead 44 of all the firstborn among the cattle of the sons of Israel." And 45 Moses, as Jehovah had commanded him, mustered all the firstborn 46 among the sons of Israel; and of all the male firstborn, by count of 47 names, from a month old up, by their muster, there were twenty-two 48 thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

44 45 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Take the Levites instead of all 46 the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the Levites' cattle instead 47 of their cattle; and the Levites shall belong to me Jehovah. And as 48 to the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the first-49 born of the sons of Israel who constitute the excess over the Levites, 50 you shall take five shekels per capita; you shall take it by the sacred 51 standard, twenty gerahs to a shekel; and you shall give the money 52 to Aaron and his sons as redemption for those among them who con-53 stitute the excess."

49 And Moses took the redemption-money from those who were in 50 excess over the Levite redemption: from the firstborn of the sons of 51 Israel he took the money, thirteen hundred and sixty-five shekels by 52 the sacred standard. And Moses gave the redemption-money to Aaron 53 and his sons by Jehovah's direction, as Jehovah had commanded 54 Moses.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "From among the sons of 3 Levi take the census of the sons of Kehath clan by clan, family by 4 family, from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who goes 5 on duty to do work at the Tent of Meeting. This is the service of the 6 sons of Kehath in the Tent of Meeting: the holiest of the holy. And 7 Aaron and his sons shall go in when camp is broken, and take down 8 the screening veil and cover the ark of the Lessons with it, and put 9 over it a covering of sea-cow skin and spread a solid violet cloth on 10 top and put in its poles. And over the showbread-table they shall 11 spread a violet cloth, and put on it the plates and the pans and the 12 chalices and the flagons for the libations, and the regular bread shall 13 be on it; and they shall spread over them a scarlet cloth, and cover it 14 with a cover of sea-cow skin, and put in its poles. And they shall take 15 a violet cloth and cover the lampstand for the light and its lamps and 16 its pincers and its firepans and all the oil-pourers they use in tending 17 it, and put it and all its utensils in a cover of sea-cow skin, and put 18 it on a bar. And over the gold altar they shall spread a violet cloth, 19 and cover it with a cover of sea-cow skin, and put in its poles. And they shall take all the sacred vessels with which they officiate in the sanctuary and put them in a violet cloth and cover them with a cover of sea-cow skin and put them on a bar. And they shall clean the altar of the fat-ashes and spread over it a purple cloth, and put on it all its utensils with which they officiate on it, the firepans and the forks and the shovels and the bowls, all the utensils of the altar, and spread over it a covering of sea-cow skin, and put in its poles. And Aaron and his sons shall finish covering the sacred objects and all the utensils of the sacred objects when camp is broken, and after that the children of Kehath shall go in to take them up, so that they shall not touch the sacred objects and come by their death. This is the portorage of the sons of Kehath about the Tent of Meeting.

“And the province of Eleazar the son of Priest Aaron shall be the oil for the light and the aromatic incense and the regular grain-offering and the oil for anointing, the charge over all the tabernacle and everything it has in it of sacred articles and all their adjuncts.”

And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying “Do not cut off the tribe of the Kehathite clans from among the Levites: this is what you must do for them to have them live and not die when they approach the holiest of the holy: Aaron and his sons must go in and set them each at his service and his portorage, so that they shall not come in to see during the disarranging of the sacred things and die.”

And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “Take the census of the sons of Gershon too, family by family and clan by clan: from thirty years old upward to fifty years old you shall muster them, everyone who goes in to do duty, to perform service at the Tent of Meeting. This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites, serving and carrying. They shall carry the breadths of the tabernacle and the Tent of Meeting, its cover and the cover of sea-cow skin on top over it, and the screen of the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and the curtains of the court and the screen of the gateway of the court around the tent and the altar, and their ropes, and all the tools for their service; and everything that is done about them they shall do the work of. All the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their portorage and all their service, shall be under the direction of Aaron and his sons, and you shall appoint them all their loads by name. This is the service of the clans of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting, and their functions are in the hands of Priest Aaron’s son Ithamar.

“The sons of Merari you shall muster clan by clan, family by family: from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall muster them, everyone who goes in for duty, to perform the service of the Tent of Meeting. And this is their portorage duty for all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the frames of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its plinths, and the pillars of the court around it and their plinths and their pegs and ropes, all their furnishings and all their appurtenances; and you shall appoint to them by name

33 the articles of their portorage duty. This is the service of the clans of the sons of Merari for all their service in the Tent of Meeting, in the hands of Priest Aaron's son Ithamar."

34 And Moses and Aaron and the princes of the congregation mustered 35 the sons of the Kehathites, clan by clan and family by family, from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who went in for 36 duty for service in the Tent of Meeting; and their muster clan by 37 clan was twenty-seven hundred and fifty. This was the muster of the clans of the Kehathites, everyone who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron mustered by Jehovah's direction through Moses.

38 And the muster of the sons of Gershon, clan by clan and family 39 by family, from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who 40 went in for duty for service in the Tent of Meeting, their muster clan 41 by clan, family by family, was twenty-six hundred and thirty. This was the muster of the clans of the sons of Gershon, everyone who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron mustered by Jehovah's direction.

42 And the muster of the clans of the sons of Merari, clan by clan, 43 family by family, from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every-44 one who went in for duty for service in the Tent of Meeting, their 45 muster clan by clan was thirty-two hundred. This was the muster of the clans of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron mustered by Jehovah's direction through Moses.

46 The total muster which Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel 47 took of the Levites, clan by clan and family by family, from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who went in to do sacristan's 48 work or portorage work in the Tent of Meeting, their muster was 49 eighty-five hundred and eighty: by Jehovah's direction they were appointed, through Moses, each to his service and his portorage, and were mustered as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Command the sons of Israel to send out of the camp everyone who has leprosy, and everyone who 3 has a discharge, and everyone who is unclean by a body: both male and female you shall send out, send them outside the camp, and not 4 have their camp desecrated, for I am dwelling in your midst." And the sons of Israel did so, and sent them outside the camp; as Jehovah had told Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

5 6 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When a man or woman commits any human sin, acting unfaithfully toward 7 Jehovah, that person shall be liable for it, and shall confess his sin that he has committed, and return the principal of the sum involved and add a fifth to it, and give it to the man toward whom he made 8 himself liable. And if the man has no representative to return the sum to, the returned sum belongs to Jehovah for the priest, besides the purgation-ram with which he is purged.

9 "And every contribution, all the dedicated things of the sons of 10 Israel that they present to the priest, he shall have; each shall have his own dedicated things; what each man gives the priest he shall have."

13 any man's wife goes wrong and is unfaithful to him, and a man lies with her sexually and her husband is kept in the dark, and it remains concealed while she is defiled, and there is no witness against 14 her and she has not been caught, and there comes over him a spirit of jealousy and he is jealous of his wife, she having been defiled, or there comes over him a spirit of jealousy and he is jealous of his 15 wife, she not having been defiled, the man shall bring his wife to the priest and bring her oblation for her, a tenth of a bushel of barley meal: he shall not pour oil on it nor put frankincense on it, for it is a jealousy-offering, a memorializing offering calling attention to a 16 crime. And the priest shall present her and have her stand before 17 Jehovah; and the priest shall take sacred water in an earthen dish, and the priest shall take some of the dust on the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water, and the priest shall have the woman 18 stand before Jehovah and shall dishevel the woman's head, and put the memorializing offering in her hands—it is a jealousy-offering—; and in the priest's hands shall be the curse-bringing water of bitterness. And the priest shall put her to the oath and say to the woman 19 'If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone foully wrong while under your husband, be immune from this curse-bringing 20 water of bitterness; but as you have gone wrong while under your husband and been defiled, and a man other than your husband has 21 enjoyed your body,'—the priest shall put the woman to an imprecatory oath, and the priest shall say to the woman 'Jehovah make you an imprecation and an oath among your people, in his making 22 your hip fall and your belly swell; and may this curse-bringing water go into your entrails, belly swelling and hip falling'; and the woman 23 shall say 'Amen, amen.' And the priest shall write the imprecation 24 in a note and rub it off into the water of bitterness and give the woman the curse-bringing water of bitterness to drink, and the 25 curse-bringing water of bitterness shall pass into her. And the priest shall take the jealousy-offering out of the woman's hands and wave the offering before Jehovah, and present it at the altar; and the priest 26 shall clutch up out of the offering its memorial and burn it on the altar, and afterward give the woman the water to drink. And he shall 27 give her the water to drink; and if she has been defiled and has been unfaithful to her husband, the curse-bringing water of bitterness shall pass into her and her belly shall swell and her hip fall, and the 28 woman shall become an imprecation among her people; but if the woman has not been defiled, and she is pure, she shall be immune

29 and shall have issue. This is the procedure for jealousies, a woman's 30 going wrong while under her husband and being defiled, or a man's having a spirit of jealousy come over him and his becoming jealous of his wife; he shall set the woman before Jehovah and the priest shall 31 go through all this procedure with her. And the man shall be immune from guilt, but that woman shall bear her guilt."

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When a man or woman takes a devotee's special vow to live devotee to 3 Jehovah, he shall abstain as devotee from wine and beer, he shall not drink wine vinegar nor beer vinegar, nor drink any grape beverage, 4 nor eat grapes fresh or dried. Throughout his time as devotee he shall not eat of anything produced from the grapevine, not even newly-set 5 grapes or green tendrils. Throughout the time of his vow as devotee no razor shall pass over his head; till the days he is to live devotee to Jehovah are full the growth of his head of hair shall be sacred.
6 Throughout the time that he lives devotee to Jehovah he shall not go 7 in where there is a dead person; not for his father or his mother, his brother or his sister, shall he defile himself when they die, be-8 cause he has the sign of his God's devotee on his head: throughout 9 his time as devotee he is sacred to Jehovah. And when anybody dies a sudden death where he is and defiles his devotee head, he shall shave his head on the day of his purification, shave it on the seventh day, 10 and on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two squabs 11 to the door of the Tent of Meeting to the priest, and the priest shall do one as a sin-offering and one as a burnt-offering and purge him from the sin he committed with the corpse; and he shall consecrate 12 his head that day and live devotee to Jehovah for the time he is bound for, and bring a lamb of the same year as an indemnity; and the first days shall drop out because he defiled his sanctity as devotee.
13 "And this is the procedure for the devotee: on the day when his time with the devotee head is completed he shall bring it to the door 14 of the Tent of Meeting and he shall present his oblation to Jehovah, one faultless ram lamb of the same year for a burnt-offering and one faultless ewe lamb for a sin-offering and one faultless ram for a 15 welfare-sacrifice, and a basket of farina matzoth, ritual-cakes shortened with oil and sheet matzoth rubbed over with oil, and their grain-16 offering and their libations. And the priest shall present them before Jehovah and shall do his sin-offering and his burnt-offering; and the 17 ram he shall do as a welfare-sacrifice to Jehovah on the basket of matzoth, and the priest shall do its grain-offering and its libation.
18 And the devotee shall shave his devotee head at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and take the hair of his devotee head and put it on the 19 fire under the welfare-sacrifice. And the priest shall take from the ram the shoulder, boiled, and one ritual-matzah from the basket, and one sheet matzah, and put them in the devotee's hands after he shaves 20 off his devotee hair, and the priest shall wave them as a wave-offering before Jehovah: it is a sacred allowance for the priest in addition to the wave-brisket and the contribution-leg. And afterward the devotee shall drink wine.

21 "This is the procedure for the vowing devotee, his oblation to Jehovah on account of his state as devotee, besides what he can afford. In accordance with the terms of his vow that he vowed, so he shall do, in addition to the procedure for his state as devotee."

22 23 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell Aaron and his sons, 24 Thus you shall bless the sons of Israel: say to them 'Jehovah bless 25 you and keep you; Jehovah show you a shining face and be gracious 26 27 to you; Jehovah raise his face to you and make all well,' and lay my name on the sons of Israel, and I will bless them."

CHAPTER 7

1 And on the day when Moses finished setting up the tabernacle he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings and the altar and all its furnishings, and anointed them and consecrated them.

2 And the princes of Israel, the heads of their families, being the 3 princes of the tribes, those who had stood over the mustering, presented and brought their oblation before Jehovah, six vans and twelve cattle, a cart to two princes and a bull to one, and presented them 4 5 before the tabernacle. And Jehovah said to Moses "Receive them from them and let them be for doing the service of the Tent of Meeting, 6 and give them to the Levites in proportion to each one's service"; and Moses received the carts and the cattle and gave them to the Levites:
7 two carts and four cattle he gave to the sons of Gershon in proportion 8 to their service, and four carts and eight cattle he gave to the sons of Merari in proportion to their service, by Priest Aaron's son Itha-9 mar. But to the sons of Kehath he did not give any, because they were responsible for the service of the sacred things: they carried on the shoulder.

10 And the princes presented the dedication-offering for the altar on the day of its being anointed; and the princes presented their 11 oblation before the altar. And Jehovah said to Moses "Let them present their oblation for the dedication of the altar one prince a day."

12 And the one that presented his oblation on the first day was Nah-13 shon the son of 'Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah; and his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred 14 up with oil for a grain-offering; one pan, five ounces of gold, full 15 of frankincense; one steer of horned cattle, one ram, one lamb of the 16 17 same year, for burnt-offering, one old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Nahshon the son of 'Aminadab.

18 On the second day Nethanel the son of Sughar, prince of Issacar, 19 presented; he presented as his oblation one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering; 20 21 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned 22 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 23 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Nethanel the son of Sughar.

24 On the third day a prince of the sons of Zebulun, Eliab the son 25 of Helon; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both 26 full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering; one pan, five 27 ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned cattle, one 28 ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one old goat for 29 sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Eliab the son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day a prince of the sons of Reuben, Elisur the son 31 of Shedeur; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
32 33 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned
34 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 35 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Elisur the son of Shedeur.

36 On the fifth day a prince of the sons of Simeon, Shelumiel the son 37 of Surishaddai; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
38 39 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned
40 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 41 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Shelumiel the son of Surishaddai.

42 On the sixth day a prince of the sons of Gad, Eljasaph the son of 43 De'uel; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both 44 full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering; one pan, five 45 ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned cattle, one 46 ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one old goat for 47 sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Eljasaph the son of De'uel.

48 On the seventh day a prince of the sons of Ephraim, Elishama' 49 the son of 'Ammihud; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
51 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned 52 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 53 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Elishama' the son of 'Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day a prince of the sons of Manasseh, Gamliel the 55 son of Pedahsur; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
57 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned 58 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 59 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Gamliel the son of Pedahsur.

60 On the ninth day a prince of the sons of Benjamin, Abidan the 61 son of Gideon; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
63 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned
64 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 65 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Abidan the son of Gideon.

66 On the tenth day a prince of the sons of Dan, Ahi'ezer the son of 67 'Ammishaddai; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
69 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned 70 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 71 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Ahi'ezer the son of 'Ammishaddai.

72 On the eleventh day a prince of the sons of Asher, Pag'iel the son 73 of 'Ocran; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, 74 both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering; one pan, 75 five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned cattle, 76 one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one old goat 77 for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Pag'iel the son of 'Ocran.

78 On the twelfth day a prince of the sons of Naphtali, Ahira' the 79 son of 'Enan; his oblation was one silver plate of sixty-five ounces weight and one silver bowl of thirty-five ounces by the sacred standard, both full of farina stirred up with oil for a grain-offering;
80 81 one pan, five ounces of gold, full of frankincense; one steer of horned
82 cattle, one ram, one lamb of the same year, for burnt-offering, one 83 old goat for sin-offering, and for the welfare-sacrifice two horned cattle, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling sheep; this was the oblation of Ahira' the son of 'Enan.

84 This was the dedication-offering for the altar on the day of its being anointed, from the princes of Israel: twelve silver plates, twelve 85 silver bowls, twelve gold pans, sixty-five ounces of silver to a plate and thirty-five to a bowl, the total silver in the vessels twelve hundred 86 ounces by the sacred standard; twelve gold pans full of frankincense, five ounces to a pan by the sacred standard, the total gold in the 87 pans sixty ounces; total of horned cattle for burnt-offering twelve steers, twelve rams, twelve yearling sheep, and their grain-offerings, 88 and twelve old goats for sin-offering; and total of horned cattle for the welfare-sacrifice twenty-four steers, sixty rams, sixty he-goats, sixty yearling sheep. This was the dedication-offering of the altar after its being anointed.

89 And when Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with him he heard the Voice speaking to him off the mercy-seat on the ark of the Lessons, from between the two cherubs; and it spoke to him.

CHAPTER 8

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell Aaron, When you set up the lamps the seven lamps are to throw their light to the front 3 side of the stand." And Aaron did so: he set the lamps up facing the 4 front of the stand, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. (And this is the make of the stand, chased work in gold: base and petals and all, it is chased work; like the vision Jehovah showed Moses, so he made the stand.)

5 6 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Take the Levites from among 7 the sons of Israel and purify them. And thus you shall do to them for their purification: sprinkle sin-water on them, and let them pass a razor over all their flesh, and wash their clothes and clean them-8 selves and take a steer of horned cattle and its grain-offering, farina stirred up with oil, and you shall take a second steer of horned cattle 9 for a sin-offering; and you shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting and assemble all the congregation of the sons of Israel.
10 And you shall present the Levites before Jehovah, and the sons of 11 Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites' heads, and Aaron shall wave the Levites before Jehovah as a wave-offering from the sons of 12 Israel, and they shall be for doing Jehovah's service. And the Levites shall lay their hands on the steers' heads, and he shall do the one as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt-offering to Jehovah to purge 13 the Levites. And you shall set the Levites before Aaron and his sons 14 and wave them as a wave-offering to Jehovah. And you shall set the Levites apart from among the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall 15 become mine; and after that the Levites shall go in to serve the Tent of Meeting.

"And you shall cleanse them and wave them as a wave-offering, 16 because they are a donation given to me from among the sons of Israel; in place of the starter of every womb, everybody's firstborn, 17 of the sons of Israel, I have taken them for mine. For every firstborn among the sons of Israel, man and beast, is mine; on the day that I struck down every firstborn in Egypt I consecrated them to myself.
18 And I have taken the Levites in place of every firstborn among the sons of Israel, and have given the Levites as a donation to Aaron 19 and his sons from among the sons of Israel to do the sons of Israel's service in the Tent of Meeting and to purge the sons of Israel and not have any calamity among the sons of Israel at the sons of Israel's approaching the sacred things."

20 And Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the sons of Israel did it to the Levites; just as Jehovah had commanded Moses 21 for the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them. And the Levites cleared away their sins and washed their clothes, and Aaron waved them as a wave-offering before Jehovah, and Aaron purged them to 22 make them clean; and after that the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron and his sons. As Jehovah had commanded Moses about the Levites, so they did to them.

24 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "This is what is for the Levites: from twenty-five years old up one shall go in to do duty in 25 the service of the Tent of Meeting, and after fifty years old he shall retire from the duty of service and shall no longer serve, but shall 26 officiate with his brothers in the Tent of Meeting to keep charge, but shall not do service. Thus you shall do for the Levites in their functions."

CHAPTER 9

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai in the second year of their coming out of Egypt, in the first month, saying 2 "And have the sons of Israel celebrate the passover at its proper time.
3 On the fourteenth day in this month, in the evening hours, you shall celebrate it at its proper time; in accordance with all its usages and 4 laws you shall celebrate it." And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel of 5 celebrating the passover, and they celebrated the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening hours, in the wilderness of Sinai; just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

6 And there were men who were unclean by human bodies and could not celebrate the passover on that day; and they came up before 7 Moses and Aaron on that day, and those men said to him "We are unclean by human bodies; why should we be cut out from presenting 8 Jehovah's oblation at its proper time among the sons of Israel?" And Moses said to them "Stand still, and I will hear what Jehovah will command for you."

9 10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When any man is unclean by a body or is on a distant journey, of you or of your future generations, he shall celebrate a passover to Jehovah 11 in the second month: on the fourteenth day in the evening hours they shall celebrate it; with matzoth and spring salad they shall eat 12 it; they shall not leave any of it over till morning, and no bone of it shall be broken; they shall celebrate it in accordance with all the 13 usages of the passover. But the man who is clean and not on a journey and fails to celebrate the passover, that person shall be cut off from his kinsfolk because he did not present Jehovah's oblation at its proper 14 time; that man shall bear his sin. And when an immigrant lives with you and celebrates a passover to Jehovah he shall celebrate in accordance with the usages and law of the passover: you shall have one usage for the immigrant and the native-born."

15 And on the day of the setting up of the tabernacle the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Lessons; and at evening there was over the tabernacle an appearance as if of fire until morning.
16 It was so always: the cloud covered it, and by night the appearance 17 of fire. And whenever the cloud lifted from the tabernacle, after that the sons of Israel marched; and in the place where the cloud settled 18 down, there the sons of Israel camped. By Jehovah's direction the sons of Israel marched and by Jehovah's direction they camped; they camped all the time the cloud was settled on the tabernacle, 19 and when the cloud persisted many days on the tabernacle the sons 20 of Israel kept Jehovah's charge and did not march. And at times the cloud was on the tabernacle some days: by Jehovah's direction 21 they camped and by Jehovah's direction they marched. And at times the cloud was from evening till morning, and the cloud lifted in the morning, and they marched; or by day, and by night the cloud 22 lifted and they marched; or two days or a month—when the cloud persisted on the tabernacle, remaining settled on it, the sons of Israel camped and did not march, and when it lifted they marched.
23 By Jehovah's direction they camped and by Jehovah's direction they marched; they kept Jehovah's charge in accordance with Jehovah's direction by Moses.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Make yourself two silver trumpets; you shall make them of chased work; and you shall have 3 them for the summoning of the congregation and for the marching of 4 the camps. And when they are blown all the congregation shall meet 5 with you at the door of the Tent of Meeting; and if they are blown 6 in a single blast the princes, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall 7 meet with you; and when you blow forward-march on them the camps 8 that camp on the east shall march, and when you blow a second 9 forward-march the camps that camp on the south shall march; forward-march shall be blown for their marches, but in convoking the assembly you shall give the blast and not the forward-march. And it shall be Aaron's sons, the priests, that blow the trumpets. And you shall have them for a permanent usage, generation after generation; and when you come into war in your country against the foe that assails you you shall sound the forward-march with the trumpets and have yourselves remembered by your God Jehovah and saved from 10 your enemies. And on your days of rejoicing and your anniversaries and new-moon feasts you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices, and it shall be a reminder of you before your God; I am your God Jehovah."

11 And in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of 12 the month, the cloud lifted from the tabernacle of the Lessons and the sons of Israel took up their marches from the wilderness of Sinai; 13 and the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran. And they took up their march for the first time by Jehovah's direction through 14 Moses; and the division of the camp of the sons of Judah took up the march first, corps by corps; and over his own corps was Nahshon the 15 son of 'Aminadab, and over the corps of the tribe of the sons of 16 Issacar was Nethanel the son of Sughar, and over the corps of the 17 tribe of the sons of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. And the tabernacle was taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of 18 Merari, carrying the tabernacle, took up the march. And the division of the camp of Reuben took up the march corps by corps; and over his 19 own corps was Elisur the son of Shedeur, and over the corps of the 20 tribe of the sons of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Surishaddai, and over the corps of the tribe of the sons of Gad was Eljasaph the son 21 of De'uel. And the Kehathites, carrying the sanctities, took up the march; and they set up the tabernacle to be ready when they came.
22 And the division of the camp of the sons of Ephraim took up the march corps by corps; and over his own corps was Elishama' the son 23 of 'Ammihud, and over the corps of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh 24 was Gamliel the son of Pedahsur, and over the corps of the tribe 25 of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni. And the division of the camp of the sons of Dan, bringing up the rear of all the camps, took up the march corps by corps; and over his own corps

26 was Ahiezer the son of 'Ammishaddai, and over the corps of the 27 tribe of the sons of Asher was Pag'iel the son of 'Ocran, and over the corps of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali was Ahira' the son of 28 'Enan. This was the marching order of the sons of Israel corps by corps. So they took up their march.

29 And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reghuel the Midianite, Moses's father-in-law, "We are taking up our march to the place of which Jehovah has said 'I will give it to you.' Go with us and we will do 30 well by you, because Jehovah has promised good for Israel." But he said to him "I will not, but will go to my own country and birth-31 place." And he said "Do not leave us, seeing that you know the camping-places for us in the wilderness, and you will be eyes for us, 32 and because you go with us we will let you have the same benefits Jehovah bestows on us."

33 And they marched from Jehovah's mountain three days' journey, and the ark of Jehovah's covenant marched three days ahead of them 34 to look out for a resting-place for them; and Jehovah's cloud was over them by day when they took up their march from the camp.

35 And when the ark took up its march Moses said "Stand up, Jehovah, and let your enemies be scattered and your haters take flight before 36 you"; and when it rested he said "Come back, Jehovah, to the myriad thousands of Israel."

CHAPTER 11

1 And the people were doing what sounded to Jehovah like bemoaning misfortune; and Jehovah heard and was angry, and Jehovah's fire burned among them and devoured in the edge of the 2 camp. And the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to 3 Jehovah and the fire went down. And that place is named Taberah, "Burning," because Jehovah's fire burned among them.

4 And the camp-followers they had among them were taken with a craving; and the sons of Israel wept again too, saying "If we only 5 had meat to eat! We remember the fish we ate free in Egypt, the cucumbers, the watermelons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic; 6 and now our senses are dried up, there is nothing at all, except as we 7 look to the manna." (The manna was like coriander seed, and its look 8 was like that of bdellium; the people roved around and picked it up and ground it in a mill or pounded it in a mortar and boiled it in 9 a pot and made it into biscuit, and its flavor was like that of short-bread; and when the dew came down over the camp at night the manna came down over it.)

10 And Moses heard the people weeping clan by clan at the doors of 11 their tents, and Jehovah was very angry, and Moses took it ill. And Moses said to Jehovah "Why have you been so hard on your servant, and had such a grudge against me, as to lay on me the load of all 12 this people? Have I bred all this people in my body, or have I given 13 birth to them, that you say to me 'carry them in your bosom, as a 14 foster-father carries a nursing baby,' to the soil you swore to their 15 fathers? Where should I get meat to give to all this people, that they weep at me with 'Give us meat to eat'? I cannot carry all this people single-handed; it is too heavy for me. If you are going to treat me like this, kill me outright if you have any friendly feeling for me, and let me not be seeing my misfortune."

16 And Jehovah said to Moses "Collect seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders and marshals of the people, 17 and take them with you to the Tent of Meeting and let them take their stand there with you, and I will come down and speak with you there and take off part of the spirit that rests on you and place it on them, and they shall cooperate with you in carrying the load of 18 this people, and you shall not have it to carry single-handed. And to the people you shall say 'Hallow yourselves for tomorrow, because your weeping, "If we only had meat to eat, because we were better off in Egypt," is sounding in Jehovah's ears, and Jehovah will give you 19 meat and you shall eat. It shall not be one day that you eat it, nor 20 two days nor five days nor ten days nor twenty days; it shall be through a month, till it comes out at your noses and is sickening to you, since you have repudiated Jehovah who is in your midst and have wept before him with "What did we come out of Egypt for?"' " 21 But Moses said "Six hundred thousand of foot is the people I am in the midst of, and you say 'I will give them meat that they shall 22 eat for a month.' Will there be slaughtered for them sheep and cattle that will suffice them, or will all the fish of the sea be brought together 23 for them and will it suffice them?" But Jehovah said to Moses "Is Jehovah's arm short? now you shall see whether my words will come on you or not."

24 And Moses went out and repeated Jehovah's words to the people; and he collected seventy men of the elders of the people and had 25 them stand around the Tent, and Jehovah came down in the cloud and spoke to him and took off part of the spirit that rested on him and put it on the seventy elders. And when the spirit alighted on them 26 they were under the power, but not thereafter. And there remained behind in the camp two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, and the spirit alighted on them, they being among those who were written down but not having gone out to the Tent, and they were 27 under the power in the camp. And a boy ran and told Moses "Eldad and Medad are under the power in the camp." And Joshua' the son of 28 Nun, Moses's attendant since his young manhood, answered "My lord Moses, stop them." But Moses said to him "Are you jealous for me? I wish all Jehovah's people were prophets because Jehovah would 30 put his spirit on them!" And Moses came back into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And a wind set out from Jehovah and brought along quails from the sea, and flung them down over the camp, about a day's journey this way and a day's journey that way around the camp, and about 32 three feet above the surface of the ground. And the people got up and gathered the quails all that day and all night and all the next day; the man who got least gathered a hundred bushels; and they 33 spread them out around the camp to dry. They had the flesh still between their teeth, it was not yet chewed to pieces, when Jehovah was angry with the people, and Jehovah struck the people down in 34 very great numbers. And that place is named Kibroth-hat-Taavah, "Craving's Graves," because there they buried the craving people.

35 And from Kibroth-hat-Taavah the people marched to Haseroth and were at Haseroth.

CHAPTER 12

1 And Miriam and Aaron talked against Moses with regard to the Negro wife he had married; for he had married a Negro. And they said "Has Jehovah spoken only with Moses? has he not spoken with 3 us too?" and Jehovah heard it. And Moses was a very modest man, the most modest of all men on earth.

4 And Jehovah said suddenly to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam "Come out to the Tent of Meeting, all three of you"; and they all 5 three went out. And Jehovah came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the door of the Tent and called Aaron and Miriam, and 6 they came out. And he said "Listen to my words. If there be a prophet among you I manifest myself to him in a vision, speak with him in a 7 dream. Not so my servant Moses; he is trusted with all my house. Mouth to mouth I speak with him, visibly and not in riddles, and 8 he gazes on Jehovah's face: how is it you were not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

9 10 And Jehovah was angry at them and went away; and the cloud moved off from the Tent, and there was Miriam a snowy leper; and 11 Aaron turned toward Miriam and found her leprous. And Aaron said to Moses "O, sir, do not count against us as a sin our having 12 made fools of ourselves and done wrong. Do not let us be like a dead man, like an abortion when it comes out of a mother's womb, with 13 half our flesh eaten away." And Moses cried to Jehovah "No, heal her." And Jehovah said to Moses "Suppose her father had spit in 14 her face, she would spend seven days in humiliation, would she not? let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward taken in."
15 And Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did 16 not march till Miriam was taken in. And afterward the people marched from Haseroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Send men who shall reconnoiter the country of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel: one man per tribe you shall send, each a prince among them."

3 And Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran by Jehovah's 4 direction, all of them men that were heads of the sons of Israel. And these are their names: for the tribe of Reuben, Shammua' the son of 5 6 Zaccur; for the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; for the 7 tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; for the tribe of Issacar, 8 Igal the son of Joseph; for the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea' the son 9 10 of Nun; for the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu; for the 11 tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi; for the tribe of Joseph, for 12 the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi; for the tribe of Dan, 13 'Ammiel the son of Gemalli; for the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son 14 15 of Micael; for the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi; for 16 the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Maki. These are the names of the men Moses sent to reconnoiter the country; and Moses called Hoshea' the son of Nun "Joshua'."

17 And Moses sent them to reconnoiter the country of Canaan, and said to them "Go up here into the South and up into the highland, 18 and see what the country is and whether the people living in it are 19 strong or feeble, few or numerous, and what kind of country it is they live in, whether good or bad, and what kind of cities they live 20 in, in camps or in fortified towns, and what the country is like, whether it is fat or lean, whether it has wood in it or not; and do your best to get some of the fruit of the country." (The season was 21 that of the earliest grapes.) And they went up and reconnoitered the country from the wilderness of Sin to Rehob in Lebo-Hamath.

22 And they went up in the South and came to Hebron; there lived Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the breed of the 'Anak. (Hebron was 23 built seven years before So'an in Egypt.) And they came to Cluster Arroyo, and cut from there a vine-branch and one cluster of grapes, which they carried on a bar with two carriers, and some of the 24 pomegranates and the figs. That place is called Cluster Arroyo with 25 reference to the cluster the sons of Israel cut from there. And they came back from reconnoitering the country at the end of forty days.

26 And they went from there and came to Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the sons of Israel at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran, and made their report to them and all the congregation, 27 and showed them the fruit of the country; and they told him the story, "We went into the country you sent us to, and it does run 28 milk and honey; and this is its fruit. The people that inhabits the country is strong, though, and the cities are fortified, very large; 29 and we saw the breed of the 'Anak there too. The 'Amalekites live in the South, and the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites live in the highland, and the Canaanites live by the sea and the bank of the Jordan."

30 And Caleb hushed the people and brought them to Moses and said
"Let us go on up and take possession of it, because we shall be quite 31 able to." But the men that had gone up with him said "We cannot 32 go up to the people, because they are stronger than we are," and told tales to the sons of Israel about the country they had reconnoitered, saying "The country we went through to reconnoiter it is a country that eats up its inhabitants, and all the people we saw in it were tall; 33 and we saw the Nephilim there, and we looked to ourselves like grasshoppers, and so we did to them."

1 And all the congregation raised their voices in chorus, and the 2 people wept that night. And all the sons of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron; and all the congregation said to them "If only we 3 had died in Egypt, or if only it had been in this wilderness! and why is Jehovah bringing us into this country to fall in warfare? Our wives and our children will be taken as plunder. Is it not best for us to go 4 back to Egypt?" And they said to each other "Let us elect a chief and go back to Egypt."

5 And Moses and Aaron threw themselves down on their faces before 6 all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel; and Joshua' the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who had 7 reconnoitered the country, tore their clothes and said to all the congregation of the sons of Israel "The country we went through to recon-8 noiter it is a very good country indeed. If Jehovah likes us he will bring us into this country and give it to us, a country that runs milk 9 and honey. Only do not break your allegiance to Jehovah, and do not you be afraid of the people of the country, because they are for us to eat up: their shelter is gone, and Jehovah is with us; do not be 10 afraid of them." But all the congregation proposed to stone them.

And Jehovah's glory appeared in the Tent of Meeting to all the 11 sons of Israel; and Jehovah said to Moses "How long are this people to be contemptuous of me? how long are they to have no confidence 12 in me, with all the tokens I have done among them? I will strike them with a pestilence and disclaim them and make you into a nation greater and more numerous than they."

13 But Moses said to Jehovah "And have the Egyptians hear, when 14 you brought this people up from among them by your power! and all the inhabitants of this country too have heard that you, Jehovah, are in the midst of this people as you, Jehovah, are seen eye to eye, and your cloud stands over them, and in a pillar of cloud you, Jeho-15 vah, go before them by day and in a pillar of fire by night. Kill all this people like one man, and the nations that have heard tell of you 16 will say 'Because Jehovah was unable to bring this people into the country he had sworn to them he has slaughtered them in the wilder-17 ness.' Now be your power great, Lord, as you promised in your words 18 'Jehovah is patient and very friendly, pardoning guilt and crime but not acquitting an offender, visiting fathers' guilt on children and 19 grandchildren and great-grandchildren'; forgive this people's guilt in accordance with the greatness of your friendliness and with the way you have pardoned this people from Egypt to here."

20 21 And Jehovah said "I forgive as you ask; but by my life all the 22 earth shall be filled with Jehovah's glory, because none of the men that saw my glory and my tokens that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tried me out these ten times and not obeyed me, 23 shall see the country I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those 24 who treated me with contempt see it; but my servant Caleb, because he was governed by another spirit and altogether followed me, I will bring into the country into which he went, and his descendants shall 25 take possession of it. But the 'Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the vale; tomorrow turn round and march into the wilderness toward the Red Sea."

26 27 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying "How long will this vicious company have its way of complaining against me? I hear 28 the complaints of the sons of Israel, which they bring against me. Say to them, By my life, quoth Jehovah, as you have said in my hearing, 29 so I will do to you: in this wilderness your corpses shall fall, all your muster, your whole number, from twenty years old up, who have 30 complained against me: you shall not go into the country I pledged myself to settle you in, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and 31 Joshua' the son of Nun. But your children, who you said would be taken as plunder, I will bring in, and they shall know the country 32 33 you refused; but your own corpses shall fall in this wilderness. And your sons shall be sheep-and-cattle men in the wilderness forty years, and bear the penalty for your wantoning, till your corpses are all 34 down in the wilderness. To the number of the days you were recon-noitering the country, forty days, a day to a year, you shall bear the 35 penalty for your offenses forty years, and know my antagonism. I, Jehovah, declare that this I will do to all this vicious company that have combined against me: in this wilderness they shall all wear away and there they shall die."

36 And the men whom Moses had sent to reconnoiter the country, and who had come back and set all the congregation to complain 37 against him, telling tales about the country,—the men, those who had told malicious tales about the country, died by a stroke before Je-38 hovah. But Joshua' the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive of those men who had gone to reconnoiter the country.

39 And Moses stated all this to all the sons of Israel, and all the people 40 mourned deeply. And the first thing in the morning they went up to the crest of the mountain, saying "Here we are; we will go up to the 41 place Jehovah said, for we were wrong." And Moses said "What are 42 you violating Jehovah's charge for? this will not be successful. Do not go up, because Jehovah is not among you and you would get 43 beaten by your enemies. For you have the 'Amalekites and the Canaanites before you there, and you would fall in warfare, seeing that you had turned back from following Jehovah and Jehovah would 44 not be with you." But they recklessly went up to the crest of the mountain, while the ark of Jehovah's covenant and Moses did not 45 move from within the camp; and the 'Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that highland came down and defeated them and pounded them up clear to Hormah.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When 3 you come into the new home I am giving you, and you make a fire-offering to Jehovah, a burnt-offering or a sacrifice, for a special vow or as a voluntary offering or at your regular times, to make a genial odor to Jehovah, out of the horned cattle or out of the small cattle, 4 and he who presents the offering presents it to Jehovah, you shall do on the burnt-offering or the sacrifice a grain-offering of farina, 5 one tenth of a bushel, stirred up with three pints of oil, and of wine 6 for the libation three pints, for one sheep. And for a ram you shall do a grain-offering of farina, two tenths of a bushel, stirred up with 7 oil two quarts; and you shall present wine for the libation, two quarts; 8 it is a genial odor to Jehovah. And when you do a bull as burnt-offering or sacrifice for a special vow or as a welfare-sacrifice to 9 Jehovah he shall present on the bull a grain-offering of farina, three 10 tenths of a bushel, stirred up with oil three quarts; and you shall present wine for the libation, three quarts; it is a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah. Such shall be the procedure for one bull or one ram 11 or one sheep or goat; whatever number you sacrifice, thus you shall 12 do for each as the number may be. Everyone native-born shall do these things in this way, presenting a fire-offering, a genial odor to 13 Jehovah. And when there is living with you an immigrant, or whoever is in your midst, generation after generation, and he makes a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah, he shall do the same as you do.
14 There shall be one and the same usage for you, the assembly, and for the resident immigrant; as a perpetual usage, generation after 15 generation, you and the immigrant shall be alike before Jehovah; 16 there shall be one code and one law for you and for the immigrant living among you."

17 18 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When 19 you come into the country I am bringing you into, when you eat the bread of the country you shall take out a contribution to Jehovah; 20 the first of your cooked cereals you shall take out in a ritual-cake for a contribution; you shall take it out the same as the contribution 21 from the threshing-floor. Out of the first of your cooked cereals you shall give it to Jehovah as a contribution generation after generation.
22 "And when you make a misstep and do not live up to all these 23 commandments that Jehovah has dictated to Moses, everything that Jehovah has commanded you through Moses, from the day when 24 Jehovah gave commandment onward throughout your generations, if there has been a misstep in action on the responsibility of the congregation all the congregation shall make a burnt-offering of one steer of horned cattle as a genial odor to Jehovah, and its due grain-offering 25 and libation, and a sin-offering of one old goat, and the priest shall purge all the congregation of the sons of Israel and they shall be forgiven, because it was a misstep and they have brought their oblation, a fire-offering to Jehovah, and their sin-offering before 26 Jehovah for their misstep, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel and the immigrants living among you shall be forgiven, because it was by misstep in the case of all the people.

27 "And if one person sins by misstep he shall present a she-goat in 28 its first year as a sin-offering, and the priest shall purge the person that went wrong in a sin by misstep before Jehovah, purging him 29 and having him forgiven. For the native-born among the sons of Israel and for the immigrant who lives among them you shall have 30 one code for him who commits a misstep. But the person who acts high-handedly, native-born or immigrant, is insulting Jehovah, and 31 that person shall be cut off from among his people because he has sighted Jehovah's word and broken his commandment: cut off that person shall be, his guilt shall be upon him."

32 And the sons of Israel were in the wilderness and found a man 33 gathering sticks on the sabbath day; and those who found him gathering sticks presented him to Moses and Aaron and all the congregation.
34 And they left him under guard, because it had never been specified 35 what should be done with him. And Jehovah said to Moses "The man must be put to death, all the congregation stoning him outside the 36 camp." And all the congregation took him outside the camp and stoned him to death as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

37 38 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel to make themselves tassels on the flaps of their garments generation after 39 generation and to put a violet cord on the flap-tassel; and you shall have them for tassels, and shall see them and remember all Jehovah's commandments and live up to them, and not go roving after your 40 hearts and eyes which you wantonly follow, in order that you may remember and live up to all my commandments and be holy to 41 your God. I am your God Jehovah who have brought you out of Egypt to have me for your God; I am your God Jehovah."

CHAPTER 16

1 And Korah the son of Ishar the son of Kehath the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab and On the son of Peleth, 2 sons of Reuben, rose before Moses, and certain men of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty of them, princes of congregation, men 3 summoned to meetings, men of reputation, and assembled round Moses and Aaron and said to them "You have gone far enough; for all the congregation are all holy and have Jehovah among them, so how come you to be lording it over Jehovah's assembly?"

4 5 And Moses heard it and threw himself on his face, and told Korah and all his company "At morning Jehovah will make known the one that belongs to him, and the holy one, the one he admits near him; 6 and the one he chooses he will admit near him. Do this: take firepans, 7 Korah and all his company, and put fire in them and lay incense on them before Jehovah tomorrow, and the man Jehovah chooses is the holy one—you have gone far enough, sons of Levi."

8 9 And Moses said to Korah "Listen, sons of Levi: is it too little for you that the God of Israel has set you apart from the congregation of Israel, admitting you near him to do the work of Jehovah's tabernacle and to stand before the congregation to officiate for them, 10 and has admitted you near, you and all your brothers the sons of 11 Levi with you, and you are trying for priesthood too? so it is against Jehovah you and all your company have combined: what is Aaron that you complain of him?"

12 And Moses sent to summon Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, 13 but they said "We will not go up; is it too little that you have brought us up out of a country that runs milk and honey to have us die in 14 the wilderness, that you should lord it over us too? Neither have you brought us into a country that runs milk and honey and given us an estate of fields and vineyards; will you gouge out these men's eyes? 15 we will not go up." And Moses was very angry and said to Jehovah "Do not look toward their offering: I have never carried off one donkey from them nor wronged any one of them."

16 And Moses said to Korah "You and all your company, be before 17 Jehovah, you and they and Aaron, tomorrow; and take a firepan each and put incense on them, and present a firepan each before Jehovah, two hundred and fifty firepans, and you and Aaron a firepan each." 18 And they took a firepan each and put fire on them and laid incense on them, and stood at the door of the Tent of Meeting, they and 19 Moses and Aaron; and Korah assembled to them all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Meeting.

20 And Jehovah's glory appeared to all the congregation; and Jehovah 21 spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying "Separate yourselves from among 22 this company and let me destroy them in a moment." And they threw themselves on their faces and said "No, God of Spirits of all mortals! shall one man sin and you be incensed against all the congregation?"

23 24 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the congregation, Move away from around the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."

25 And Moses went off to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel 26 followed him. And he told the congregation "Stand clear of these wicked men's tents and do not touch anything that belongs to them, 27 for fear you should be swept away in all their sins." And they moved away from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on all sides. And Dathan and Abiram had come out and taken their stand at their tent doors, and their wives and their sons and their children. And Moses said "By this you shall know that Jehovah has sent me to do these things, that it is not out of my own head: if these die a death like that of all mankind and are visited with the visitation of all mankind, Jehovah has not sent me; but if Jehovah creates a special fate and the ground gapes and swallows them and everything that belongs to them and they go down alive to the world below, you will know that these men have been treating Jehovah with contempt."

And as he finished uttering all these words the ground under them split and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their families and all persons that belonged to Korah and all chattels, and they went down, they and all that belonged to them, alive to the world below, and the earth covered them over; and they were lost from among the assembly. And all Israel on all sides of them ran at the noise they made, because they thought "The earth might swallow us up."

And fire came out from Jehovah's presence and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that were offering the incense. And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell Priest Aaron's son Eleazar to take up the firepans out of the burning, and shake out the fire further off, because these sinners' firepans are made sacred by the extinction of their lives; and they shall make them into beaten plates for a sheathing for the altar, because they presented them before Jehovah and they were made sacred; and it shall be a token to the sons of Israel."

And Priest Eleazar took the bronze firepans that the burned men had presented, and they beat them out into a sheathing for the altar, a reminder for the sons of Israel, in order that no outsider who is not of Aaron's blood may present himself to burn incense before Jehovah and become like Korah and his company; as Jehovah through Moses had told him to.

And all the congregation of the sons of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron next day "You have been causing the death of Jehovah's people." And when the congregation assembled round Moses and Aaron they turned toward the Tent of Meeting and found that the cloud had covered it and Jehovah's glory had appeared. And Moses and Aaron came in front of the Tent of Meeting, and Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Up with you from among this company and let me exterminate them in a moment." And they threw themselves on their faces, and Moses said to Aaron "Take your firepan and put fire off the altar on it and go right to the congregation and purge them, because the wrath has gone out from before Jehovah, the calamity has begun." And Aaron took what Moses told him to and ran among the assembly, and found that the calamity had begun among the people; and he put on the incense and purged the people and stood between the dead and the living, and the deaths were shut off.

49 And of those who died in the plague there were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who had died in connection with 50 Korah's affair. And Aaron came back to the door of the Tent of Meeting to Moses, and the deaths had been shut off.

CHAPTER 17

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Speak to the sons of Israel and take from them a stick for each family; from all their family 3 princes, twelve sticks. Let each write his name on his stick; and you shall write Aaron's name on the stick for Levi, because there is one 4 stick for the head of their families. And you shall deposit them in 5 the Tent of Meeting before the Lessons where I meet you, and the stick of the man I choose shall sprout; and I will rid myself of the complaints which the sons of Israel bring against you."

6 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their princes gave him a stick apiece, family by family, twelve sticks; and Aaron's stick 7 was in the midst of their sticks, and Moses deposited the sticks before 8 Jehovah in the tent of the Lessons. And next day Moses went into the tent of the Lessons and found that Aaron's stick had sprouted for the family of Levi and had put out shoots and blossomed and 9 matured almonds. And Moses brought out all the sticks from before Jehovah to all the sons of Israel, and they saw them and each took his stick.

10 And Jehovah said to Moses "Put Aaron's stick back before the Lessons for preservation as a token for the sons of disobedience, so 11 as to end their complaints against me and not have them die"; and Moses did it: as Jehovah had commanded him, so he did.

12 And the sons of Israel said to Moses "There, we perish, it is all over with us, it is all over with all of us: everybody who comes near Jehovah's tabernacle dies; are we done perishing?"

CHAPTER 18

1 And Jehovah said to Aaron "You, and your sons and your family with you, are to bear the responsibility for the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you are to bear the responsibility for your priestly 2 office. And bring near with you also your brothers the tribe of Levi, your father's stock, and let them become your auxiliaries and wait on you, while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the 3 Lessons; and they shall do duty for you and for the Tent, only not come near the sacred vessels and the altar, when both they and you 4 would die. And they shall become your auxiliaries and do duty for the Tent of Meeting in all service of the Tent; and no outsider shall 5 come near you. And you shall do duty for the sacred things and for the altar, so that there shall not be wrath again against the sons of 6 Israel. And I on my part have taken your brothers the Levites from among the sons of Israel as a gift given to Jehovah for you, to do

- 7 the service of the Tent of Meeting; and you and your sons with you shall attend to your priestly duties for every matter of the altar and of inside the veil and their service. I will give you your priestly duties as a gift-service, and the outsider who comes near shall be put to death."
- 8 And Jehovah spoke to Aaron: "And I on my part give you the keeping of my contributions: all the sacred things of the sons of Israel I give to you as endowment and to your sons as a perpetual right. This you shall have of the holiest of the holy, out of the fire: 9 all their oblations, of all their grain-offerings and all their sin-offerings and all their expiations which they pay to me, shall be holiest of the 10 holy belonging to you and your sons. You shall eat them as holiest 11 of the holy; every male shall eat it; you shall hold it sacred. And this you shall have as contribution of their gift: all the wave-offerings of the sons of Israel I give to you and to your sons and daughters with you as a perpetual right: every clean person in your household 12 shall eat it. All the fat of oil and all the fat of grape-juice and grain, 13 the first of them, which they give to Jehovah, I give to you. The firstfruits of everything in their country, which they bring to Jehovah, shall be yours: every clean person in your household shall eat it. 14 Every deodand in Israel shall be yours. And every birth that has started a womb of any creature, which they present to Jehovah, man and beast, shall be yours; only you shall have the firstborn of man ransomed, and the firstborn of unclean beasts you shall have 15 ransomed. And what are ransomed you shall have ransomed at a month old, for an assessed sum in silver, fifty shekels by the sacred 16 standard, which is twenty gerahs to the shekel. Only the firstborn of horned cattle or of sheep or of goats you shall not have redeemed; it is sacred: their blood you shall throw against the altar and their fat you shall burn as a fire-offering for a genial odor to Jehovah, 17 and their flesh shall be yours: like the wave-brisket and the right 18 leg it shall be yours. All contributions of sacred things that the sons of Israel contribute to Jehovah I give to you and your sons and daughters with you as a perpetual right: it is a perpetual covenant of salt to you and to your descendants with you before Jehovah."
- 19 And Jehovah said to Aaron "You shall not come in for a property in their country nor have a share among them; I am your share and estate among the sons of Israel.
- 20 "And to the sons of Levi I give for estate all tithes in Israel in consideration of their service, that they do the service of the Tent 21 of Meeting and the sons of Israel shall not come near the Tent of 22 Meeting again to incur sin so as to die; but the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they shall bear their responsibility, as a perpetual usage generation after generation; and among 23 the sons of Israel they shall come in for no estate, for the tithes of the sons of Israel which they take out as a contribution to Jehovah I 24 give to the Levites as estate; that is why I say to them 'among the sons of Israel they shall come in for no estate.' ”

25 26 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying “And to the Levites you shall speak and say to them ‘When you take from the sons of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them in their domain, you shall 27 take out Jehovah’s contribution from it, a tithe of the tithe, and your contribution shall count for you like the grain from the 28 threshing-floor and like the fillings from the winepress. In the same way you too shall take out Jehovah’s contribution from all your tithes that you take from the sons of Israel, and give Jehovah’s contribution from it to Priest Aaron. Out of all your gifts you shall take 29 out Jehovah’s contribution, out of all the fat of it, its part set off from it as sacred.’ And you shall say to them ‘When you take out the fat 30 from it, it will rank for the Levites like the produce of threshing-floor or of winepress, and you shall eat it in any place, you and your 31 families, because it is wages that you get in consideration of your service in the Tent of Meeting; and you will not incur sin over it when 32 you take out the fat from it, and will not be profaning the sacred things of the sons of Israel so that you should die.’ ”

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying “This is the rule of instruction that Jehovah has ordered: speak to the sons of Israel and have them take a faultless red cow with no defect in her, one
3 on whose neck a yoke has never gone; and you shall give her to Priest Eleazar, and she shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered 4 before him. And Priest Eleazar shall take some of her blood on his finger and sprinkle some of her blood opposite the front of the Tent
5 of Meeting seven times; and the cow shall be burned under his eyes, burned skin and flesh and blood and dung and all; and the priest 6 shall take cedarwood and marjoram and scarlet and throw them into the midst of the burning of the cow. And the priest shall wash his 7 clothes and bathe his flesh with water, and afterward he shall go into the camp; and the priest shall be unclean till evening. And the one 8 that burns her shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his flesh with water, and be unclean till evening. And a clean man shall 9 collect the ashes of the cow and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and the congregation of the sons of Israel shall have 10 them to be preserved for pollution-water; it is a sin-offering. And the one that collects the ashes of the cow shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening.

“And the sons of Israel and the immigrant who lives among them 11 shall have it for a permanent usage. He who touches a dead body of 12 any human being shall be unclean seven days. He shall clear away his sin with it on the third day and on the seventh, and be clean; and if he does not clear away his sin on the third day and the seventh,

- 13 he shall not be clean. Anyone who touches a dead body, a human being who dies, and does not clear away his sin, has defiled Jehovah's tabernacle, and that person shall be cut off from Israel, because pollution-water was not thrown on him; he is unclean, he still has his uncleanness on him.
- 14 "This is the ruling: when a man dies in a tent, everybody who goes into the tent, and everybody who is in it, shall be unclean seven days.
- 15 And every open receptacle that has no stopper (string) on it is un-
- 16 clean. And anyone who in the open country touches a man killed with a weapon or otherwise dead, or a human bone, or a grave, shall be
- 17 unclean seven days. And they shall take for the unclean man or thing some of the dust from the burning of the sin-offering and put
- 18 living water on it in a dish, and a clean man shall take marjoram and dip it in the water and sprinkle it on the tent and on the things and on the persons who had been there, and on the one who touched
- 19 a bone or a man killed or otherwise dead or a grave; and the clean one shall sprinkle it on the unclean on the third day and on the seventh, and clear away his sin on the seventh day; and he shall wash
- 20 his clothes and bathe with water and be clean at evening. And a man who becomes unclean and does not clear away his sin, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly because he has defiled Jehovah's sanctuary: pollution-water was not thrown on him, he is
- 21 unclean. And they shall have it as a permanent usage. And he who sprinkles the pollution-water shall wash his clothes; and he who
- 22 touches the pollution-water shall be unclean till evening. And everything that the unclean one touches shall be unclean, and the person who touches him shall be unclean till evening."

CHAPTER 20

- 1 And the sons of Israel, all the congregation, came to the wilderness of Sin in the first month; and the people stayed at Kadesh, and
- 2 Miriam died there and was buried there. And there was no water for the congregation; and they assembled round Moses and Aaron.
- 3 And the people upbraided Moses and said "If only we had perished
- 4 when our brothers perished before Jehovah! and why have you brought Jehovah's assembly to this wilderness for us and our beasts
- 5 to die here? and why did you take us up out of Egypt to bring us to this mean place? it is not a place for sowing nor for fig-tree and grapevine and pomegranate, and there is no water to drink."
- 6 And Moses and Aaron came from before the assembly to the door of the Tent of Meeting and threw themselves on their faces; and the
- 7 glory of Jehovah appeared to them. And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
- 8 saying "Take the stick and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aaron, and speak to the cliff before their eyes and it shall give water; and you shall bring out water from the cliff for them and give drink to the congregation and their beasts."

9 And Moses took the stick from before Jehovah as he had commanded 10 him; and Moses and Aaron assembled the assembly in front of the cliff, and he said to them "Listen, you mutineers; are we to bring 11 out water from this cliff for you?" And Moses raised his hand and struck the cliff with his stick twice, and a great deal of water came 12 out and the congregation and their beasts had drink. And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron "Since you did not trust me, recognizing my holiness before the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the country I have given to them."

13 This is Meribah Water, inasmuch as the sons of Israel upbraided Jehovah and he maintained his holiness against them.

14 And Moses sent envoys from Kadesh to the king of Edom: "Says your brother Israel, You know all the hard experience we have had:
15 our fathers went down to Egypt and we lived in Egypt a long time; 16 and the Egyptians maltreated us and our fathers, and we cried out to Jehovah and he listened to our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt; and here we are at Kadesh, a city in the edge of 17 your territory. Let us pass through your country: we will not pass through field nor vineyard, nor drink well water; we will go by the public road, not turning to right or to left, till we are past your territory." But Edom said to him "You are not to pass by me, for 18 fear I should come out to meet you in warfare." And the sons of Israel said to him "We will go up by the highway, and if we drink your water, I and my stock, I will give you the price of it; I will just 19 walk through, nothing else." But he said "You shall not pass," and Edom came out to meet him with formidable numbers and strong 20 hand; and Edom refused to let Israel pass through his territory, and 21 Israel turned off from him and marched away from Kadesh.
22

And the sons of Israel, all the congregation, came to Mount Hor.
23 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor on the boundary 24 of Edom "Aaron is to be gathered to his kinsfolk, because he is not to go into the country I have given to the sons of Israel, on account 25 of your having disobeyed me at Meribah Water: take Aaron and his 26 son Eleazar and take them up on Mount Hor, and strip Aaron of his garments and robe his son Eleazar in them, and Aaron shall be 27 gathered home and die there." And Moses did as Jehovah commanded; and they went up on Mount Hor before the eyes of all the congre-28 gation, and Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and robed his son Eleazar in them, and Aaron died there on the mountaintop. And 29 Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain, and all the congregation saw that Aaron had breathed his last; and all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

CHAPTER 21

1 And the Canaanite, the king of 'Arad, who lived in the South, heard that the Israelites were coming by the Atharim road; and they at-2 tacked the Israelites and took some of them prisoners. And the Israelites made a vow to Jehovah, "If you will give this people into our hands we will destroy their cities without quarter." And Jehovah complied and gave the Canaanites up, and they destroyed them and their cities without quarter and named the place Hormah.

4 And they marched from Mount Hor on the Red Sea road to go round Edom; and the people grew impatient at the march. And the people talked at God and at Moses, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? because there is no bread and no water, and we are sick of the flitting bread." And Jehovah turned loose on the people the wildfire-snakes, and they bit the people and many people of Israel died. And the people came to Moses and said "We did wrong to talk at Jehovah and at you; pray to Jehovah and get him to take the snakes off us." And Moses prayed for the people, and Jehovah said to Moses "Make yourself a wildfire-snake and place it on a pole, and everyone who is bitten and sees it shall get well." And Moses made a bronze snake and placed it on a pole, and if the snakes had bitten a man and he looked at the bronze snake he got well.

11 And the sons of Israel marched, and camped at Oboth. And they marched from Oboth and camped at 'Ijim across the river in the wilderness to the east of Moab. From there they marched and camped at Zered Arroyo. From there they marched and camped on the other side of the wilderness course of the Arnon that comes out of the Amorite territory; for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. That is why it says in the Book of Jehovah's Wars

"Vaheb in Suphah, and the arroyos of the Arnon, 15 And the arroyo-steep that slants toward the site of 'Ar And abuts on the border of Moab."

16 And from there to Beer; that is the well of which Jehovah said to Moses "Bring the people together and I will give them water." Then Israel sang this song:

"Come up, well!
sing to it!

18 Well that captains dug, the nobles of the people sank,
With a baton, with their staves, from wilderness a gift."

20 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, and from Bamoth to the valley in the Moabite countryside at the head of the Pishgah that faces the Jordan.

21 And the Israelites sent envoys to King Sihon of the Amorites with the message "Let us pass through your country: we will not turn off into field or vineyard, we will not drink well water, we will go by 23 the public road till we are past your territory." But Sihon would not grant the Israelites passage through his territory; and Sihon 24 brought together all his people and came out to the wilderness to meet the Israelites, and came to Jahas and fought the Israelites. And the Israelites defeated him, giving no quarter, and took possession of his country from the Arnon to the Jabbok up to the Bene-'Ammon 25 (for Ja'zer is the boundary of the Bene-'Ammon). And the Israelites took all these cities, and the Israelites settled in all the Amorite 26 cities, in Heshbon and all its dependencies, because Heshbon was the capital of King Sihon of the Amorites and he made war on the former king of Moab and took all his country out of his hands up to the 27 Arnon. This is why ballad-singers say "Come to Heshbon, let it be built up and Sihon's city be set firm, 28 Because a fire has gone out from Heshbon, a flame from Sihon's town,

It has devoured 'Ar of Moab, the holders of the heights of the Arnon.
29 Alas for you, Moab!
lost you are, people of Kemosh!
He has given his sons to be fugitives and his daughters to go into slavery to King Sihon of the Amorites.
30 And their lamp is lost, Heshbon to Dibon, And wasted to Nophah is the steep of Medeba."

31 32 And the Israelites settled in the Amorite country. And Moses sent to reconnoiter Ja'zer; and they took its dependencies and dispossessed 33 the Amorites there. And they turned around and went up toward the Bashan, and King 'Og of the Bashan came out to meet them, he 34 and all his people, to battle at Edre'i. And Jehovah said to Moses "Do not be afraid of him, because I have given him and all his people into your hands, and his country, and you shall do to him as you did 35 to King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon." And they defeated him and all his people and killed them till they had left no survivor to him, and took possession of his country.

CHAPTER 22

- 1 And the sons of Israel marched and camped in the Moab flats on the other side of the Jordan at Jericho.
- 2 And Balak the son of Sippor saw all that the Israelites had done 3 to the Amorites; and the Moabites quailed desperately before the people because there were so many of them, and the Moabites con-4 ceived a horror of the sons of Israel, and said to the elders of Midian

"Now this assembly will lick up everything around us as an ox licks up the green stuff on the range."

5 And Balak the son of Sippor was king of Moab at that time; and he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Be'or at Pethor on the River in the country of the Bene-'Ammon to summon him, saying 6 "Here is a people come out of Egypt; it covers the face of the land, and it is settling next me. Now come and curse this people for me, because it is too numerous for me: I might be able to defeat it and dislodge it from the country, for I know what you bless is blessed 7 and what you curse is cursed." And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian went with soothsayer's charms in their hands and came to 8 Balaam and told him Balak's words. And he said to them "Stay here tonight and I will give you your answer in accordance with what Jehovah tells me"; and the captains of Moab stayed with Balaam.
9 And God came to Balaam and said "What are these men after with 10 you?" and Balaam said to God "Balak the son of Sippor, king of 11 Moab, sends me word 'Here is the people that has come out of Egypt and covers the face of the land; now come, lay a curse on it for me;
12 I might be able to make war with it and might dislodge it.'" And God said to Balaam "You are not to go with them; you are not to curse 13 the people, because it is blessed." And Balaam rose in the morning and said to Balak's captains "Go to your own country, because Je-14 hovah has refused to grant me to go with you"; and the captains of Moab started, and came to Balak and said "Balaam refuses to go with us."

15 And again Balak sent chieftains more in number than those and of 16 higher rank; and they came to Balaam and said to him "Says Balak 17 the son of Sippor, Do not demur at coming to me, for I will do the highest honors to you and do whatever you say I should; but come 18 lay a curse on this people for me." And Balaam answered Balak's officers "If Balak gives me his house full of silver and gold I cannot do anything small or great in violation of my God Jehovah's charge.
19 Now stay in town tonight the same as the others did, and I will find 20 out what more Jehovah tells me." And God came to Balaam at night and said to him "If the men have come to invite you, go on with 21 them; only it shall be the thing I tell you that you shall do." And Balaam rose in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the captains of Moab.

22 And God was angry because he was going, and Jehovah's Angel took his stand to antagonize him. And he was riding on his donkey, 23 and had his two men with him. And the donkey saw Jehovah's Angel standing in the road with his drawn sword in his hand, and the donkey turned out of the road and went in the fields; and Balaam 24 beat the donkey to turn it into the road. And Jehovah's Angel stood in the no-man's-land between the vineyards, with a fence on this side 25 and a fence on that; and the donkey saw Jehovah's Angel and crowded up to the wall and jammed Balaam's leg against the wall, and again 26 he beat her. And Jehovah's Angel passed on again and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn out to the right or the left; 27 and the donkey saw Jehovah's Angel and lay down with Balaam, and 28 Balaam was angry and beat his donkey with his staff. And Jehovah opened the donkey's mouth, and she said to Balaam "What have I 29 done to you that you have beaten me these three times?" And Balaam said to the donkey "Because you played tricks at my expense; I wish 30 I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you now." And the donkey said to Balaam "I am your donkey that you have ridden ever since you existed to this day, am I not? have I been in the habit of doing so to you?" and he said "No."

31 And Jehovah unveiled Balaam's eyes, and he saw Jehovah's Angel standing in the road with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed 32 down and did reverence on his face. And Jehovah's Angel said to him "What have you beaten your donkey these three times for? here I had come out as antagonist because the journey was waywardly 33 undertaken before my face, and the donkey saw me and turned out before me these three times; if she had not turned out from me, 34 by this time I should have killed you and left her alive." And Balaam said to Jehovah's Angel "I did wrong, because I did not know you had taken your stand in the road to meet me; now, if it displeases you, I will turn back." But Jehovah's Angel said to Balaam 35 "Go with the men, but it shall be only the thing I tell you that you shall say." And Balaam went with Balak's captains.

36 And Balak heard that Balaam was coming, and went out to meet him at 'Ir-Moab on the Arnon boundary, at the end of the boundary; 37 and Balak said to Balaam "Did I not send to you to invite you? why did you not come to me? am I really not able to do honors to you?"
38 And Balaam said to Balak "Here I have come to you; now am I able to say anything at all? the word that Jehovah dictates to me, that I shall say."

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath-Husoth; 40 and Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep and sent to Balaam and the captains that were with him. And in the morning Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Baal Heights, and from there he saw the

1 edge of the people. And Balaam said to Balak "Build me seven altars 2 here, and get ready seven steers and seven rams here for me." And Balak did as Balaam said, and Balak and Balaam offered a steer and 3 a ram as burnt-offering on each altar. And Balaam said to Balak "Take your stand by your burnt-offering and I will go: maybe Jehovah will meet me, and what word he shows me I will report to 4 you." And he went to a scalp, and God met Balaam, and he said to him "I have reared the seven altars and offered a steer and a ram

5 as burnt-offering on each altar." And God dictated a word to Balaam, and said "Go back to Balak, and thus you are to speak."

6 And he went back to him and found him standing by his burnt-7 offering, him and all the captains of Moab; and he struck up his lay and said

"From Syria Balak leads me, the king of Moab from the mountains of the east:
'Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, be hostile to Israel.'

8 How am I to lay a curse on those on whom the Deity has laid none, how be hostile where Jehovah has not been hostile?
9 Because from the top of rocks I see him, from hills I behold him: Here is a people that lives alone and does not reckon itself among the nations; 10 Who has counted Jacob's dust and numbered the sandstorm of Israel?
May my soul die the death of Jeshurun and my future be like his!"

11 And Balak said to Balaam "What have you done to me? I fetched you to lay a curse on my enemies and here you have gone and blessed 12 them." And he answered "What Jehovah dictates to me I am to take care to say, am I not?"

13 And Balak said to him "Come with me to another place from which you will see them and just see the edge of them and not the whole, 14 and lay a curse on them for me from there." And he took him to the head of the Pishgah, to Lookout Wold, and built seven altars and 15 offered a steer and a ram as burnt-offering on each altar. And he said to Balak "Take your stand here by your burnt-offering and I will 16 meet him there." And Jehovah met Balaam and dictated a word to him, and said "Go back to Balak, and thus you are to speak."

17 And he came to him and found him standing by his burnt-offering, and the captains of Moab with him; and Balak said to him "What did 18 Jehovah speak?" And he struck up his lay and said "Stand up, Balak, and listen;

give ear to me, son of Sippor:

19 The Deity is not a man, to lie, nor human, to change his mind.
Has He said and will not do, promised and will not make it good?
20 Here I have been charged to bless;
he blesses and I am not to turn it back.
21 One does not look on trouble in Jacob nor see suffering in Israel:

- He has his God Jehovah with him and in him the cheers for a king.
 22 It is a Deity that brings him out of Egypt,
 he has pikes like a ure's; 23 For there is no taking signs against Jacob and no soothsaying against Israel; Now it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What has God done!
 24 Here is a people that stands up like a lioness and rears like a lion;
 He will not lie down till he eats prey and drinks the blood of the slain." 25 And Balak said to Balaam "If you wouldn't lay a curse, then you 26 shouldn't bless." But Balaam answered Balak "Did I not tell you 'What Jehovah says, that I do?'" 27 And Balak said to Balaam "Come, I will take you to another place; maybe it will suit God and you will lay a curse on them for me from 28 there"; and Balak took Balaam to the head of the Peghor that faces 29 the Jeshimon. And Balaam said to Balak "Build me seven altars 30 here, and get ready seven steers and seven rams here for me"; and Balak did as Balaam said, and offered a steer and a ram as burnt-

CHAPTER 24

- 1 offering on each altar. And Balaam saw that Jehovah was pleased to bless Israel, and did not go as at other times to meet with signs, but 2 set his face toward the wilderness; and Balaam raised his eyes and 3 saw Israel outspread by tribes, and a spirit of God was upon him, and he struck up his lay and said
 "Quoth Be'or's son Balaam,
 quoth the man enlightened of eye, 4 Quoth he who hears the Deity's say,
 who beholds the vision of Shaddai, fallen down and with unveiled eyes: 5 How goodly are your tents, Jacob, your lodges, Israel!
 6 Like far-stretching glens, like riverside gardens,
 Like spice-trees that Jehovah has planted, like cedars by water.
 7 Let water drip from his buckets, his seed be in much water,
 And his king be loftier than Agag, and his kingdom hold its head high.
 8 It is a Deity that brings him out of Egypt,
 he has pikes like a ure's.

- He shall eat nations, his foes, and crunch their bones and shatter by his arrows.
- 9 He lies down, lies at ease,
Like a lion and like a lioness; who will stir him up?
He who blesses you is blessed and he who curses you is cursed."
- 10 And Balak was angry at Balaam and struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam "It was to lay a curse on my enemies I called you, and here you have been blessing them these three times.
- 11 Now get away to your place; I meant to do honors to you, but here 12 Jehovah has withheld you from honors." And Balaam said to Balak 13 "Did I not tell even your messengers whom you sent to me 'If Balak gives me his house full of silver and gold I cannot do anything good or bad of my own free will in violation of Jehovah's charge: what 14 Jehovah says, that I say'? Now here I am going to my people; come, I will advise you what this people will do to yours in future days."
- 15 And he struck up his lay and said
"Quoth Be'or's son Balaam,
quoth the man enlightened of eye,
16 Quoth he who hears the Deity's say and has the knowledge of the Lord above,
Who beholds the vision of Shaddai,
fallen down and with unveiled eyes:
17 I see him, but not now;
I behold him, but not near:
A star has traveled from Jacob and a scepter has risen from Israel Which will shatter Moab's brow and the crown of all sons of Shuth.
- 18 And Edom will be annexed, And Se'ir will be annexed, his enemies, and Israel gain vigor.
- 19 And one will bear empire out of Jacob and destroy every survivor of every city."
- 20 And he saw the 'Amalekites, and struck up his lay and said
"First of nations was 'Amalek, but in future it will perish evermore."
- 21 And he saw the Cainites, and struck up his lay and said "Permanent is your home, set on a cliff your nest,
- 22 But Cain will come to be nibbled away—How long? Assyria will carry you off to slavery."

- 23 And he struck up his lay and said
"Alas, who will live when Deity causes it?
24 But ships from the Cyprus side Will tame Assyria and tame 'Eber and he too will perish evermore." 25 And Balaam went off, and back to his place; and Balak also went his way.

- 1 And the Israelites stayed at the Acacias, and the people began to 2 follow the Moabite girls for immoral purposes. And the girls invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate of them 3 and did reverence to the girls' gods, and Israel fraternized with the 4 Baal of Peghor; and Jehovah was angry with Israel. And Jehovah said to Moses "Take all the headmen of the people and shelve them up to Jehovah in front of the sun, that Jehovah's anger may turn 5 back from Israel." And Moses said to the judges of Israel "Kill each of you his own men that have fraternized with the Baal of Peghor." 6 And there an Israelite man came in and brought his Midianite girl up to his brothers before the eyes of Moses and all the congregation of the sons of Israel as they were weeping at the door of the Tent 7 of Meeting. And Pinehas the son of Priest Aaron's son Eleazar saw it, and stood up from among the congregation and took a lance in his 8 hand and went in after the Israelite man into the pavilion and ran them both through, the Israelite man and the woman through her organ of sex; and the deaths among the sons of Israel were shut off.
9 And of those who died in the plague there were twenty-four thousand.
10 11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Pinehas the son of Priest Aaron's son Eleazar has turned back my ire from the sons of Israel by his being jealous on my behalf among them, so that I did not 12 exterminate them in my jealousy. So say 'I hereby give him my 13 covenant of goodwill, and he and his descendants after him shall have a covenant of perpetual priesthood, for his having been jealous for his God and purged the sons of Israel.'" 14 And the name of the killed Israelite man, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a family prince of 15 the Simeonites. And the name of the killed Midianite woman was Cozbi the daughter of Sur; he was head of a family sept in Midian.
16 17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Assail the Midianites and 18 strike them down, because they are assailing you with their plots that they are laying against you in the affair of Peghor and in the affair of their sister Cozbi the daughter of the prince of Midian, who was killed in the affair of Peghor."

CHAPTER 26

- 1 And after the plague Jehovah said to Moses and to Priest Eleazar 2 the son of Aaron "Take the census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel from twenty years old up, by families, all who come out with the militia in Israel." And Moses and Priest Eleazar spoke with them in the Moab flats by the Jordan at Jericho, saying "from twenty years old up, as Jehovah has commanded Moses."

And the sons of Israel who had come out of Egypt were: Reuben, Israel's firstborn: Reuben's sons were, Hanoc, the clan of the Hanokites; of Pallu, the clan of the Palluites; of Hesron, the clan of the Hesronites; of Carmi, the clan of the Carmites; these were the clans of the Reubenites, and their muster was forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty. And the sons of Pallu were Eliab, and the sons of Eliab were Nemuel and Dathan and Abiram—these were the Dathan and Abiram, notables of the congregation, who matched themselves against Moses and Aaron in Korah's company when they matched themselves against Jehovah, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and Korah when the company died, when the fire consumed the two hundred and fifty men and they became an example; but Korah's children did not die.

Simeon's sons were, clan by clan, of Nemuel, the clan of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the clan of the Jaminites; of Jakin, the clan of the Jakinites; of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the clan of the Shaulites; these were the clans of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand and two hundred.

Judah's sons were 'Er and Onan—but 'Er and Onan died in Canaan—and Judah's sons were, clan by clan, of Shelah, the clan of the Shelanites; of Peres, the clan of the Peresites; of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites. And Peres's sons were, of Hesron, the clan of the Hesronites; of Hamul, the clan of the Hamulites. These were the clans of Judah by their muster, seventy-six thousand and five hundred.

Issacar's sons were, clan by clan, 'Tola', the clan of the Tola'ites; of Puvah, the clan of the Punites; of Jashub, the clan of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the clan of the Shimronites; these were the clans of Issacar by their muster, sixty-four thousand and three hundred.

Zebulun's sons were, clan by clan, of Sered, the clan of the Seredites; of Elon, the clan of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the clan of the Jahleelites; these were the clans of the Zebulunites by their muster, sixty thousand and five hundred.

Gad's sons were, clan by clan, of Sephon, the clan of the Sephonites; of Haggi, the clan of the Haggites; of Shuni, the clan of the Shunites; of Ozni, the clan of the Oznites; of 'Eri, the clan of the 'Erites; of Arod, the clan of the Arodites; of Areli, the clan of the Arelites; these were the clans of the sons of Gad by their muster, forty thousand and five hundred.

Asher's sons were, clan by clan, of Imnah, the clan of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the clan of the Ishvites; of Beri'ah, the clan of the Beri'ites; of Beri'ah's sons, of Heber, the clan of the Heberites; of Malkiel, the clan of the Malkielites; and the name of Asher's daughter was 47 Sarah. These were the clans of the sons of Asher by their muster, fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

28 29 Joseph's sons were, clan by clan, Manasseh and Ephraim. Manasseh's sons were, of Makir, the clan of the Makirites—and Makir 30 begot Gilead; of Gilead, the clan of the Gileadites. These were Gilead's sons: I'ezer, the clan of the I'ezerites; of Helek, the clan of the 31 Helekites; and Asriel, the clan of the Asrielites; and Shekem, the clan of the Shekemites; and Shemida', the clan of the Shemida'ites; 32 and Hephher, the clan of the Hephherites. And Hephher's son Silpahad did not have any sons, but daughters; and the names of Silpahad's 34 daughters were Mahlah and No'ah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirsah. These were the clans of Manasseh, and their muster was fifty-two thousand 35 and seven hundred. These were Ephraim's sons, clan by clan: of Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahites; of Beker, the clan of the 36 Bekerites; of Tahan, the clan of the Tahanites; and these were Shuthelah's sons: of 'Eran, the clan of the 'Eranites. These were the 37 clans of the sons of Ephraim by their muster, thirty-two thousand and five hundred. These were Joseph's sons, clan by clan.

38 Benjamin's sons were, clan by clan, of Bela', the clan of the Bela'ites; of Ashbel, the clan of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the clan of the Ahiramites; of Shephupham, the clan of the Shephuphamites; 39 of Hupham, the clan of the Huphamites; and Bela's sons were Ard and Na'aman—the clan of the Ardites; of Na'aman, the clan of the 40 Na'amites; these were the sons of Benjamin, clan by clan, and their muster was forty-five thousand and six hundred.

42 These were Dan's sons, clan by clan: of Shuham, the clan of the Shuhamites; these were the sons of Dan, clan by clan; all the clans 43 of the Shuhamites by their muster were sixty-four thousand and four hundred.

48 Naphtali's sons were, clan by clan, of Jahseel, the clan of the Jahseelites; of Guni, the clan of the Gunites; of Jeser, the clan of the Jeserites; of Shillem, the clan of the Shillemites; these were the clans 50 of Naphtali, clan by clan, and their muster was forty-five thousand and four hundred.

51 This was the muster of the sons of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 53 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "To these the country shall 54 be divided as domain, by number of names. The domain of the large tribe you shall make large and the domain of the small you shall make 55 small; each shall be given its domain in proportion to its muster. Only the country shall be divided by lot; they shall take domain by 56 the names of their ancestral tribes. As the lot directs you shall divide their domain between large and small."

57 And this is the muster of the Levites, clan by clan: of Gershon, the clan of the Gershonites; of Kehath, the clan of the Kehathites; of 58 Merari, the clan of the Merarites. These are the clans of Levi: the clan of the Libnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Mahlites, the clan of the Mushites, the clan of the Korahites. And 59 Kehath begot 'Amram; and the name of 'Amram's wife was Jokebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt, and she bore 60 to 'Amram Aaron and Moses and their sister Miriam. And there were 61 born to Aaron Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar; but Nadab 62 and Abihu died when they presented alien fire before Jehovah. And their muster was twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old up; for they were not mustered among the sons of Israel, because they were not given a domain among the sons of Israel.

63 This is the muster of Moses and Priest Eleazar, which they took of the sons of Israel in the Moab flats by the Jordan at Jericho; 64 and among these there was not a man of the muster of Moses and Priest Aaron which they had taken of the sons of Israel in the wilder-65 ness of Sinai, because Jehovah had said to them "You shall die in the wilderness," and there was not a man left of them but Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua' the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27

1 And the daughters of Silpahad the son of Hephher the son of Gilead the son of Makir the son of Joseph came forward—and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah and No'ah and Hoglah and 2 Milcah and Tirsah—and stood before Moses and Priest Eleazar and the princes and all the congregation at the door of the Tent of 3 Meeting, saying "Our father died in the wilderness, not having been among the company that combined against Jehovah in Korah's 4 company, but dying for his own sin, and had no sons. Why should our father's name be subtracted from among his clan because he had no son? give us a property among our father's brothers."

5 6 And Moses presented their case before Jehovah. And Jehovah said 7 to Moses "Silpahad's daughters are right in what they say: you shall give them hereditary property among their father's brothers and let 8 their father's hereditary right pass to them. And you shall tell the sons of Israel, When a man dies and has no son you shall let his in-9 heritance pass to his daughter; and if he has no daughter you shall 10 give his inheritance to his brothers; and if he has no brothers you shall 11 give his inheritance to his father's brothers; and if his father has no brothers you shall give his inheritance to his next of kin in his clan and he shall take possession of it. And the sons of Israel shall have it for a legal usage, as Jehovah commanded Moses."

12 And Jehovah said to Moses "Go up on this highland across the 13 river and see the country I have given to the sons of Israel: you shall see it and be gathered to your kinsfolk too as your brother Aaron 14 was, as you disobeyed my directions in the wilderness of Sin, at the congregation's upbraiding, to recognize my holiness before their eyes at the water." (That is, the water of Meribah-Kadesh, wilderness of Sin.)

15 16 And Moses spoke to Jehovah, saying "Let Jehovah, the God of 17 Spirits of all mortals, appoint a man over the congregation who shall go out before them and go in before them, and lead them out and lead them in, that Jehovah's congregation may not be like sheep that 18 have no shepherd." And Jehovah said to Moses "Take Joshua' the son of Nun, a man who has a spirit in him, and lay your hands on him, 19 and set him before Priest Eleazar and before all the congregation, and 20 commission him before their eyes and put some of your prestige on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel shall hear.
21 And he shall stand before Priest Eleazar, and he shall submit questions to the decision of the Urim before Jehovah for him: by his directions he shall go out and by his directions come in, he and all 22 the sons of Israel with him, and all the congregation." And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him, and took Joshua' and set him before 23 Priest Eleazar and before all the congregation, and laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as Jehovah had directed by Moses.

CHAPTER 28

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Give the sons of Israel the commands 'My oblation of food for my fire-offerings as a genial odor 3 you shall take care to present to me at the proper time.' And you shall say to them 'This is the fire-offering you are to present to Jehovah: two faultless yearling sheep a day as regular burnt-offering.
4 The first sheep you are to do in the morning, and the second sheep 5 you are to do in the evening hours, and a tenth of a bushel of farina 6 for grain-offering, stirred up with three pints of beaten oil: the regular burnt-offering that was done at Mount Sinai, for a genial 7 odor, a fire-offering to Jehovah; and its libation, three pints of wine to one sheep, pour out in the holy place as a liquor-libation to Jehovah.
8 And the second sheep you shall do in the evening hours, do the same grain-offering and libation as in the morning: a fire-offering, a genial odor to Jehovah.

9 "And on the sabbath day two faultless yearling sheep and two tenths of farina as grain-offering, stirred up with oil, and its libation, 10 as burnt-offering sabbath by sabbath, besides the regular burnt-offering and its libation.

11 "And at your first-of-the-month celebrations you shall present a burnt-offering to Jehovah, two steers, one ram, seven faultless year-12 ling sheep, and three tenths of farina as grain-offering, stirred up with oil, for one steer, and two tenths of farina as grain-offering, 13 stirred up with oil, for one ram, and a tenth each of farina as grain-offering, stirred up with oil, for one sheep, as a burnt-offering, a 14 genial odor, a fire-offering to Jehovah; and their libations, three quarts of wine for a steer and two quarts for a ram and three pints 15 for a sheep; this is the burnt-offering month by month for the months of the year; and one old goat for a sin-offering to Jehovah. Besides the regular burnt-offering it shall be done, and its libation.

16 “‘And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is 17 a passover for Jehovah; and on the fifteenth day of this month is 18 a feast: matzoth shall be eaten seven days. On the first day is a 19 sacred meeting: you are not to do any business work; and you shall 20 present a fire-offering, a burnt-offering to Jehovah, two steers and 21 one ram and seven yearling sheep, have them faultless, and their 2 grain-offering of farina stirred up with oil: you shall do three tenths 22 for a steer and two tenths for a ram, and a tenth you shall do for 23 each of the seven sheep; and one sin-goat to purge you. Aside from 24 the morning burnt-offering for the regular burnt-offering you shall 25 do these. The same you shall do each day for seven days as fire-offering food, a genial odor to Jehovah; besides the regular burnt-offering it shall be done, and its libations. And on the seventh day you shall have a sacred meeting: you are not to do any business work.

26 “‘And on the day of firstfruits, when you present a new grain-offering to Jehovah by your weeks, you shall have a sacred meeting: 27 you are not to do any business work; and you shall present a burnt-offering for a genial odor to Jehovah. Two steers, one ram, seven 28 yearling sheep, and their grain-offering of farina stirred up with oil, 29 three tenths for one steer, two tenths for the one ram, a tenth for 0 31 each of the seven sheep, one old goat to purge you, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering, you shall do; have them faultless; and their libations.

CHAPTER 29

1 “‘And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, you shall 2 have a sacred meeting: you shall not do any business work; you 3 shall have it as a day of cheers and trumpet-calls, and you shall do 4 a burnt-offering for a genial odor to Jehovah, one steer of horned 5 cattle, one ram, seven faultless yearling sheep, and their grain-6 offering of farina stirred up with oil, three tenths for the steer, two tenths for the ram, and one tenth per sheep for the seven sheep, and one old goat as a sin-offering to purge you, aside from the monthly burnt-offering and its grain-offering and the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering and their due libations, for a genial odor, a fire-offering to Jehovah.

7 “‘And on the tenth of this seventh month you shall have a sacred meeting and deny yourselves the gratification of appetites; you shall 8 not do any work; and you shall present a burnt-offering to Jehovah as a genial odor, one steer of horned cattle, one ram, seven yearling 9 sheep, have them faultless; and their grain-offering of farina stirred up with oil, three tenths for the steer, two tenths for the one ram, 0 11 a tenth for each of the seven sheep, one old goat as sin-offering, aside from the purgation sin-offering and the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering and their libations.

12 “‘And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a sacred meeting; you shall not do any business work; and you shall 13 keep a feast to Jehovah seven days. And you shall present a burnt-offering, a fire-offering as a genial odor to Jehovah, thirteen steers, 14 two rams, fourteen yearling sheep, which shall be faultless, and their grain-offering of farina stirred up with oil, three tenths per steer 15 for the thirteen steers, two tenths per ram for the two rams, a tenth 16 for each of the fourteen sheep; and one old goat as sin-offering; aside from the regular burnt-offering, its grain-offering, and its libation.
17 And on the second day twelve steers, two rams, fourteen faultless 18 yearling sheep, and their due grain-offering and libations, for the 19 steers, the rams, and the sheep, by number, and one old goat as sin-offering, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering 20 and its libation. And on the third day eleven steers, two rams, four-21 teen faultless yearling sheep, and their due grain-offering and li-22 bations, for the steers, the rams, and the sheep, by number, and one sin-goat, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering 23 and its libation. And on the fourth day ten steers, two rams, fourteen 24 faultless yearling sheep, and their due grain-offering and libations, 25 for the steers, the rams, and the sheep, by number, and one old goat as sin-offering, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-26 offering and its libation. And on the fifth day nine steers, two rams, 27 fourteen faultless yearling sheep, and their due grain-offering and 28 libations, for the steers, the rams, and the sheep, by number, and one sin-goat, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering 29 and its libation. And on the sixth day eight steers, two rams, four-30 teen faultless yearling sheep, and their due grain-offering and li-31 bations, for the steers, the rams, and the sheep, by number, and one sin-goat, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering 32 and its libation. And on the seventh day seven steers, two rams, four-33 teen faultless yearling sheep, and their due grain-offering and li-34 bations, for the steers, the rams, and the sheep, by number, and one sin-goat, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering 35 and its libation. On the eighth day you shall have a holiday: you shall 36 not do any business work; and you shall present a burnt-offering, a fire-offering as a genial odor to Jehovah, one steer, one ram, seven 37 faultless yearling sheep, their due grain-offering and libations, for 38 the steer, the ram, and the sheep, by number, and one sin-goat, aside from the regular burnt-offering and its grain-offering and libation.

39 “‘These you shall do for Jehovah at your stated dates, besides your vows and your voluntary offerings for your burnt-offerings and grain-offerings and libations and welfare-sacrifices.’”

40 And Moses told the sons of Israel all that Jehovah commanded Moses to.

CHAPTER 30

1 And Moses spoke to the heads of tribes of the sons of Israel, saying 2 "This is the order Jehovah has given: When a man makes a vow to Jehovah or swears an oath laying an obligation on himself, he shall not repudiate his word: he shall do just as came out of his mouth.
3 "And when a woman makes a vow to Jehovah or assumes an obli-4 gation in her father's house in her girlhood, and her father hears her vow or the obligation she laid on herself, and her father says nothing to her, all her vows shall stand and any obligation she has 5 laid on herself shall stand. But if her father opposes her on the day that he hears it, none of her vows or the obligations she has laid on herself shall stand; and Jehovah will forgive her, because her father 6 opposed her. And if she shall become a wife while she has upon her 7 her vows or the utterance to which she has obligated herself, and her husband hears on such day as he may hear of it and says nothing to her, her vows shall stand, and her obligations that she has laid on 8 herself shall stand; but if on the day that her husband hears he opposes her, he quashes her vow that she had upon her, and the utterance to which she had obligated herself, and Jehovah will for-9 give her. And a vow of a widow or divorced woman, anything that she 13 obligates herself to, shall stand against her. Every vow, and every obligation to deny herself the gratification of appetites, her husband 15 is to confirm or her husband is to quash. But if he shall quash them 16 after he hears, he shall bear her guilt." These are the usages Jehovah enjoined on Moses as between man and wife, and between father and daughter during her girlhood in her father's house.

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Avenge the sons of Israel on the Midianites; afterward you shall be gathered to your kinsfolk." 3 And Moses spoke to the people, saying "Arm men from among you for an expedition, and they shall be against Midian to take Jehovah's 4 vengeance on Midian: a thousand per tribe for all the tribes of Israel 5 you shall send on the expedition." And there were tendered out of the thousands of Israel a thousand to a tribe, twelve thousand armed 6 for the expedition. And Moses sent them, a thousand to a tribe, on the expedition, them and Priest Eleazâr's son Pinehas with the sacred 7 objects and the trumpets for the martial music in his hands; and they went on the expedition against Midian as Jehovah had com-8 manded Moses, and killed every male, and killed the kings of Midian over the fallen, Evi and Rekem and Sur and Hur and Reba', the 5 kings of Midian; and Balaam the son of Be'or they killed with 9 the sword; and they carried off as slaves the women and children of Midian, and made plunder of all their cattle and stock and all their 10 wealth. And all their cities in their settlements, and all their encamp-11 ments, they burned up; and they took all the booty, and all the 12 captures of man and of beast, and brought to Moses and Priest Eleazar and the congregation of the sons of Israel the slaves and the captures and the booty at the camp on the Moab flats by the Jordan at Jericho.

13 And Moses and Priest Eleazar and all the princes of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp; and Moses was incensed at the officers of the force, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, who were coming in from the war expedition. And Moses said to them "Have you left alive all females? here it was they who at Balaam's word became to the sons of Israel a seduction from Jehovah on the occasion of Peghor, and the plague came in Jehovah's congregation. Now kill every male among the children, and kill every woman who has known man in sexual embrace; and all children among the women, who have never known sexual embrace, keep alive for yourselves. And for yourselves camp outside the camp seven days; everybody who has killed a person and everybody who has touched a fallen man, clear away your sin on the third day and on the seventh, you and your captives. And every garment and every article of leather and every fabric of goats' hair and every article of wood you shall clear of sin."

21 And Priest Eleazar said to the men of the expedition who were coming in from the war "This is the rule of the instruction Jehovah has enjoined on Moses. Just the gold and silver and bronze and iron and tin and lead, every substance that stands fire you shall put through fire and it will be clean, only it is to have its sin cleared away with pollution-water; and everything that does not stand fire you shall put through water. And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you shall come in to the camp."

25 26 And Jehovah said to Moses "Take the census of the captured drove of man and beast, you and Priest Eleazar and the heads of families of the congregation, and halve the captures between the actual fighters who went on the expedition and the whole congregation. And you shall levy a tax for Jehovah from the fighting men who went on the expedition; one person out of five hundred of the human beings and of the horned cattle and of the donkeys and of the small cattle out of their half you shall take and give to Priest Eleazar as Jehovah's contribution. And out of the half for the sons of Israel you shall take one appropriated out of fifty of the human beings, of the horned cattle, of the donkeys, and of the small cattle, out of all the animals, and give them to the Levites who do duty about Jehovah's tabernacle."

31 And Moses and Priest Eleazar did as Jehovah had commanded 32 Moses. And the captures, the rest of the plunder the expeditionaries had plundered, came to six hundred and seventy-five thousand small 33 34 cattle and seventy-two thousand horned cattle and sixty-one thousand 35 donkeys, and of human persons, out of the women who had never 36 known sexual embrace, thirty-two thousand persons in all. And half was the share of those who had gone out on the expedition: the number of small cattle was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand and five hundred, and the tax for Jehovah out of the small cattle came to six hundred and seventy-five; and of the horned cattle there were thirty-six thousand, and the tax of them for Jehovah was seventy-two; and of donkeys there were thirty thousand and five hundred, and the tax of them for Jehovah was sixty-one; and of human persons there were sixteen thousand, and the tax of them for Jehovah was thirty-two persons. And Moses gave the tax of Jehovah's contribution to Priest Eleazar as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

And of the half for the sons of Israel, which Moses divided off from the men that went on the expedition, the congregation's half of the small cattle came to three hundred and thirty-seven thousand and five hundred, and horned cattle thirty-six thousand, and donkeys thirty thousand and five hundred, and human persons sixteen thousand; and from the half for the sons of Israel Moses took what was appropriated, one out of fifty of the human beings and of the cattle, and gave them to the Levites who did duty about Jehovah's tabernacle, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

And the officers of the expeditionary thousands, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, approached Moses and said to Moses "Your servants have gone over the roll of the fighting men under our command, and not a man of us was missing. And we are presenting Jehovah's oblation, what each one has found in articles of gold, armlet and bracelet, finger-ring, earring and bangle, to purge our souls before Jehovah." And Moses and Priest Eleazar received the gold from them, every kind of wrought article; and all the gold of the contribution they made to Jehovah came to eight thousand eight hundred ounces, from the captains of thousands and of hundreds. The men of the expedition had plundered each for himself. And Moses and Priest Eleazar received the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial of the sons of Israel before Jehovah.

1 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a great deal of stock, very numerous; and they saw the Ja'zer country and the 2 Gilead country, and found the place was a place for stock. And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and said to Moses and 3 Priest Eleazar and the princes of the congregation "'Ataroth and Dibon and Ja'zer and Nimrah and Heshbon and Elealeh and Sebam 4 and Nebo and Be'on, the country Jehovah has defeated before the congregation of Israel, is a stock country; and your servants have 5 stock." And they said "Please let this country be given to your servants as a property; do not take us over the Jordan."

6 And Moses said to the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben "Are 7 your brothers to go into battle and you to sit here? And why are you 8 setting the hearts of the sons of Israel against going over to the 9 country Jehovah has given them? that was the way your fathers did 10 when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea' to see the country, and they 11 went up to Cluster Arroyo and saw the country, and set the hearts 12 of the sons of Israel against the idea of going into the country 13 Jehovah had given them; and Jehovah was angry that day and swore 14 "The men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old up, shall 15 not see the soil I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they 16 have not altogether followed me; except Caleb the son of Jephunneh 17 the Kenazite and Joshua' the son of Nun, because they did altogether 18 follow me.' And Jehovah was angry with Israel and set them roving 19 back and forth in the wilderness forty years, till all the generation 20 that had done what displeased Jehovah were gone. And here you are 21 standing up as your fathers' successors, a whole brood of sinful men, 22 to add more to Jehovah's anger against Israel, because you turn 23 back from following him and he will once again leave them in the 24 wilderness, and you will ruin all this people."

25 And they approached him and said "We will build sheepfolds here 26 for our stock, and cities for our children; and we ourselves will arm 27 and go under arms before the sons of Israel till we have brought 28 them to their place, while our children stay in the fortified cities for 29 fear of the natives; we will not come home till the sons of Israel have 30 each received his estate; because we will not take estate with them on the further side of the Jordan, because our estate has come to us on the east side of the Jordan."

And Moses said to them "If you do this thing, if you go armed before Jehovah to the war, and every man of yours that bears arms crosses the Jordan before Jehovah till he dispossesses his enemies before him and the country is subjugated to Jehovah, and afterward you go back, you shall be innocent as regards Jehovah and as regards Israel, and shall have this country for your property before Jehovah, but if you do not do so you will have sinned against Jehovah, and be sure your sin will find you out. Build yourselves cities for your children and folds for your sheep and goats: you are to do what came out of your mouths." And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben said to Moses "Your servants will do as my lord is ordering: our children, our women, our stock, and all our beasts shall be there in the cities of Gilead, and your servants, everyone that bears arms for service, will go over before Jehovah to the war as my lord states."

And Moses gave Priest Eleazar and Joshua' the son of Nun and the tribal heads of families of the sons of Israel orders for their case; and Moses said to them "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben go over the Jordan with you, everyone that bears arms, before Jehovah to the war, and the country is subjected to you, give them the country of Gilead for their property; but if they do not go over armed with you, let them come in for property among you in Canaan."

31 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered "What Jehovah 32 has stated to your servants, that same we will do: we ourselves will go over armed before Jehovah to Canaan, with the property of our estate on the other side of the Jordan vesting in us."

33 And Moses gave them, the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites and the kingdom of King 'Og of the Bashan, the country city by city, by the boundaries of the cities of the country 34 all round. And the sons of Gad built Dibon and 'Ataroth and 'Aro'er 36 and 'Ataroth-Shophan and Ja'zer and Jogbehah and Beth-Nimrah 37 and Beth-haran, fortified cities and folds for flocks. And the sons of 38 Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kirjathaim and Nebo and Baal-Me'on (names to be changed) and Sibmah, and named the cities they built.

39 And the sons of Makir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and 40 took it and dispossessed the Amorites in it. And Moses gave Gilead 41 to Makir the son of Manasseh and they lived in it. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took their havvoth [tent-villages] and called 42 them the Havvoth of Jair. And Nobah went and took Kenath and its dependencies and named it Nobah after himself.

CHAPTER 33

1 These are the stages of the march of the sons of Israel as they came 2 out of Egypt in full force under Moses and Aaron; and Moses wrote down their outward marches stage by stage at Jehovah's direction.
3 And these are their stages, outward march by march. They marched from Ra'meses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the passover the sons of Israel went out with 4 a high hand in sight of all the Egyptians, while the Egyptians were burying those whom Jehovah had killed among them, every firstborn 5 son—and on their gods Jehovah executed judgments. And the sons 6 of Israel marched from Ra'meses and camped at Succoth. And they marched from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the 7 wilderness. And they marched from Etham and went back by Pi-hahiroth which faces Baal-Sephton, and camped in front of Migdol.
8 And they marched from Pi-hahiroth and crossed through the middle of the sea to the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the 9 wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah. And they marched from Marah and came to Elim; and at Elim there were twelve springs of 10 water and seventy palm trees; and they camped there. And they 11 marched from Elim and camped by the Red Sea. And they marched 12 from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin. And they 13 marched from the wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah. And 14 they marched from Dophkah and camped at Alush. And they marched from Alush and camped at Rephidim; and there was no water there 15 for the people to drink. And they marched from Rephidim and 16 camped in the wilderness of Sinai. And they marched from the 17 wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-hat-Taavah. And they 18 marched from Kibroth-hat-Taavah and camped at Haseroth. And 19 they marched from Haseroth and camped at Rithmah. And they 20 marched from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-Peres. And they 21 marched from Rimmon-Peres and camped at Libnah. And they 22 marched from Libnah and camped at Rissah. And they marched 23 from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah. And they marched from 24 Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher. And they marched from 25 Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah. And they marched from 26 Haradah and camped at Makheloth. And they marched from Makhe-27 loth and camped at Tahath. And they marched from Tahath and 28 camped at Terah. And they marched from Terah and camped at 29 Mithkah. And they marched from Mithkah and camped at Hash-30 monah. And they marched from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.

31 And they marched from Moseroth and camped among the Bene-32 Ja'akan. And they marched from the Bene-Ja'akan and camped at 33 Hor-hag-Gidgad. And they marched from Hor-hag-Gidgad and 34 camped at Jotbathah. And they marched from Jotbathah and camped 35 at 'Abronah. And they marched from 'Abronah and camped at 36 Ghesjon-Geber. And they marched from Ghesjon-Geber and camped 37 in the wilderness of Sin (that is, Kadesh). And they marched from 38 Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor in the edge of Edom, and Priest Aaron went up on Mount Hor by Jehovah's direction and died there 39 in the year forty of the exodus of the sons of Israel from Egypt, in 40 the fifth month, on the first of the month; and Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor. And the Canaanite, the king of 'Arad, who lived in Canaan in the South, 41 heard of the coming of the sons of Israel. And they marched from 42 Mount Hor and camped at Salmonah. And they marched from Sal-43 monah and camped at Punon. And they marched from Punon and 44 camped at Oboth. And they marched from Oboth and camped at 45 'Ijim across the river on the boundary of Moab. And they marched 46 from 'Ijim and camped at Dibon-Gad. And they marched from 47 Dibon-Gad and camped at 'Almon-Diblathaim. And they marched from 'Almon-Diblathaim and camped on the highlands across the 48 river before Nebo. And they marched from the highlands across the 49 river and camped on the Moab flats by the Jordan at Jericho, and camped along the Jordan from Beth-ha-Jeshimoth to Acacia Meadow on the Moab flats.

50 And Jehovah spoke to Moses on the Moab flats by the Jordan at 51 Jericho saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When you go over the Jordan 52 into Canaan you shall dispossess all the inhabitants of the country before you, and destroy all their pictures and destroy all their metal 53 images and wreck all their heights, and dispossess the country and live in it, because I have given the country to you to take possession 54 of. And you shall have your estates assigned in the country by lot clan by clan, giving the more numerous more of an estate and the less numerous less of an estate; what the lot for one comes out for he shall have; you shall have your estates assigned by family tribes.

55 And if you do not dispossess the inhabitants of the country before you, those who are left over of them shall be prickles in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and shall assail you in the country you live 56 in; and as I expected to do to them I will do to you."

CHAPTER 34

1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Charge the sons of Israel, When you come into Canaan, this is the country that shall fall to you as domain, the country of Canaan by its boundaries:

3 "Your south border shall be from the wilderness of Sin along by Edom, and your south boundary shall be from the east edge of the 4 Salt Sea, and your boundary shall go round south of Scorpion Pass and over to Sin, and its extremity shall be south of Kadesh-Barnea'; 5 and it shall go out to Hasar-Addar and over to 'Asmon. And the boundary shall go round from 'Asmon to Egypt Arroyo, and have its termination at the sea.

6 "And your west boundary shall be the great sea as boundary; this shall be your west boundary.

7 "And this shall be your north boundary: from the great sea you 8 shall mark Mount Hor, and from Mount Hor you shall mark Lebo-9 Hamath, and the extremity of the boundary shall be at Sadad. And the boundary shall go out to Ziphron, and its termination shall be at Hasar-'Enan: this shall be your north boundary.

10 "And for east boundary from Hasar-'Enan you shall mark She-11 pham, and the boundary shall go down from Shepham to Riblah east of 'Ajin; and the boundary shall go down and skirt the east front of 12 the sea of Kinnereth, and the boundary shall go down to the Jordan, and its termination shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your country boundary by boundary all round."

13 And Moses gave the sons of Israel the command "This is the country which you are to have assigned to you by lot, which Jehovah 14 commanded should be given to the nine and a half tribes; for the tribe of the sons of Reuben family by family, and the tribe of the sons of Gad family by family, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have re-15 ceived their estate: the two and a half tribes have received their estate on the east side, the side toward the sunrise, of the Jordan at Jericho."

17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "These are the names of the men who are to assign the country to you: Priest Eleazar and Joshua' 18 the son of Nun, and one prince out of each tribe you shall take to 19 assign the country. And these are the men's names: for the tribe of 20 Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; for the tribe of the sons of 21 Simeon, Shemuel the son of 'Ammihud; for the tribe of Benjamin, 22 Elidad the son of Kislon; for the tribe of the sons of Dan a prince, 23 Bukki the son of Jagli; for the sons of Joseph, for the tribe of the 24 sons of Manasseh a prince, Hanniel the son of Ephod, and for the tribe of the sons of Ephraim a prince, Kemuel the son of Shipthan; 25 for the tribe of the sons of Zebulun a prince, Elisaphan the son of 26 Parnac; for the tribe of the sons of Issacar a prince, Paltiel the son 27 of 'Azzan; for the tribe of the sons of Asher a prince, Ahihud the 28 son of Shelomi; for the tribe of the sons of Naphtali a prince, Peda-29 hel the son of 'Ammihud. These are the ones Jehovah has commissioned to assign estates to the sons of Israel in Canaan."

CHAPTER 35

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses on the Moab flats by the Jordan at 2 Jericho, saying "Command the sons of Israel so that they may give the Levites out of their estate of property cities to live in; and you 3 shall give the Levites glebe for the cities, all round them. And the cities shall be for them to live in, and their glebes shall be for their 4 livestock and chattels and all their beasts. And the glebes of the cities you are to give the Levites shall be five hundred yards out from the 5 city wall all round; and you shall measure, outside the city, the east border a thousand yards and the south border a thousand and the west border a thousand and the north border a thousand, with the city in the middle: this is what they shall have as city glebes.
 6 And the cities you are to give to the Levites, the six cities of asylum which you are to give for the homicide to take flight to and forty-two 7 cities besides them: the total of the cities which you are to give to 8 the Levites is forty-eight cities, them and their glebes. And the cities which you are to give are to be out of the property of the sons of Israel, more from the greater and less from the lesser; each tribe shall give cities to the Levites in proportion to the estate assigned to it."

9 10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying "Tell the sons of Israel, When 11 you cross the Jordan into Canaan you shall single out cities which you are to have as cities of asylum for a homicide who has struck 12 a deadly blow by misadventure to take flight to; and you shall have the cities for an asylum from the blood-reclaimer, and the homicide shall not die till he stands before the congregation for judgment.
 13 And as for the cities you are to institute, you shall have six cities 14 of asylum: three cities you shall institute on the other side of the Jordan and three cities you shall institute in Canaan; they shall be 15 cities of asylum. For the sons of Israel and for the immigrant and the dependent alien among you these six cities shall be an asylum for everyone who strikes a deadly blow by misadventure to take flight to.
 16 And if he struck him with an iron article so that he died, he is a 17 murderer; the murderer must be put to death. And if he struck him with a stone fitted for use in the hand and suitable to cause death, so that he died, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

18 And if he struck him with a wooden implement fitted for use in the hand and suitable to cause death, so that he died, he is a murderer; 19 the murderer must be put to death. The blood-reclaimer himself shall put the murderer to death; he shall put him to death upon meeting 20 with him. And if he pushed him with ill will, or threw at him with 21 aim, so that he died, or struck him hostilely with his hand so that he died, the killer must be put to death; he is a murderer; the bloodreclaimer shall put the murderer to death upon meeting with him.

22 But if he pushed him accidentally without hostile intent, or threw 23 any implement at him without aim, or threw any stone, suitable to cause death, without seeing, and it fell on him so that he died, he not 24 being an enemy to him nor intending harm to him, the congregation shall judge between the killer and the blood-reclaimer by these laws, 25 and the congregation shall rescue the homicide from the hands of the blood-reclaimer and shall return him to his city of asylum to which he had taken flight, and he shall live in it till the high priest who 26 has been anointed with the sacred oil dies. And if the homicide shall go out of the boundaries of his city of asylum to which he has taken 27 flight, and the blood-reclaimer finds him outside the boundaries of his city of asylum, the blood-reclaimer is to slay the homicide, he 28 incurs no bloodguilt; for he is to stay in his city of asylum till the high priest dies, and after the high priest's death the homicide is to go back to his own land.

29 And these things shall be a legal usage of yours generation after 30 generation in all your domiciles. In every case of one who strikes a deadly blow the homicide shall be found a murderer on the word of witnesses. And one witness shall not be evidence against a person 31 for death. And you shall not take composition-money for the life of a homicide who is guilty and liable to die, but he must be put to 32 death. And you shall not take composition-money for flight to the city of asylum, for coming back to live in the country before the 33 priest dies. And you shall not pollute the country you are in: for blood pollutes the country, and the country will not be purged for the blood shed in it by anything but the blood of the one that shed 34 it. And you shall not defile the country you live in, in the midst of which I dwell; for I Jehovah dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 36

1 And the heads of the families of the clan of the sons of Gilead the son of Makir the son of Manasseh, out of the clans of the sons of Joseph, drew near and spoke before Moses and before the princes, 2 the heads of families of the sons of Israel, and said "Jehovah commanded you, sir, to give the country as estate by lot to the sons of Israel; and you, sir, have been commanded to give our brother Sil-3 pahad's estate to his daughters. And they will marry into one of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and their estate will be subtracted from the estate of our fathers and added to the estate of the tribe they marry into. And it will be subtracted from the lot of our estate, and if the sons of Israel have ram-horn time their estate will be added to the estate of the tribe they have married into, and their estate will be subtracted from the estate of our fathers' tribe."

And Moses gave the sons of Israel the commandment, by Jehovah's direction, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph are right in what they say. This is the commandment Jehovah gives for Silpahad's daughters: They shall marry whom they like, only they shall marry into their father's tribal clan. And an estate of the sons of Israel shall not go round from tribe to tribe, but the sons of Israel shall stick each to the estate of his father's tribe. And every heiress out of the tribes of the sons of Israel shall marry one of the clan of her father's tribe, in order that the sons of Israel may each possess his fathers' estate and an estate may not go round from one tribe to another tribe, because the tribes of the sons of Israel are to stick each to its own estate."

As Jehovah commanded Moses, so Silpahad's daughters did, and Silpahad's daughters Mahlah, Tirshah, and Hoglah and Milcah and No'ah married their first cousins; they married into the clans of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their estate went to the tribe of their father's clan.

These are the commandments and laws that Jehovah enjoined on the sons of Israel by Moses on the Moab flats by the Jordan at Jericho.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

1 These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel on the other side of the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Rift Valley opposite Suph between Paran on the one hand and Tophel and Laban and Haseroth and Di-Zahab on the other. It is eleven days from Horeb by way of the highlands of Se'ir to Kadesh-Barnea'; and in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses spoke to the sons of Israel just as Jehovah had commissioned him to, after he had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, and King 'Og of the Bashan, whose capitals were 'Ashtaroth and Edre'i. On the other side of the Jordan, in the country of Moab, Moses set himself to expound this code, saying

6 "Our God Jehovah told us at Horeb 'No more staying on this highland: turn and march, and go into the Amorite highland and to all its neighbors in the Rift Valley and in the highlands, and in the lowlands and in the South and on the coast, the Canaanite country and the Lebanon, to the great river, the river Euphrates. Look, I have given the country up to your conquest: go in and take possession of the country that Jehovah swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob he would give to them and their descendants after them.'

10 "And I said to you at that time 'I cannot carry you alone. Your God Jehovah has increased you, and here you are today as numerous as the stars in the sky; may your fathers' God Jehovah add to you a thousand times as many and bless you as he promised you! How am I alone to carry the weight and load of you, and your disputes? Nominate wise and clearheaded men, well known in your tribes, whom I may appoint as your heads.' And you answered me 'That is a good idea that you propose.' And I took from among you wise and well-known men and made them heads over you, chiefs of thousands and of hundreds and of fifties and of tens, and marshals for your tribes; and I gave your judges the order at that time 'Hear causes between your brothers, and judge fairly between a man and his brother or his immigrant employee. You are not to recognize persons in judging: you are to listen to great and small alike. You are not to quail before any man, because judgment belongs to God. And a thing that is too hard for you you are to present to me, and I will hear the case.' And I gave you orders at that time for all the things you were to do.

19 "And we marched from Horeb, and went over all the great and terrible wilderness that you have seen toward the Amorite highland, as our God Jehovah had commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-Barnea'. And I said to you 'You have come to the Amorite highland,

21 which our God Jehovah is giving to us. See, your God Jehovah has given the country up to your conquest: go up, take possession, as your fathers' God Jehovah has promised you; do not be afraid nor dismayed.'

22 "And you all came up to me and said 'Let us send some men before us to explore the country for us and bring us back word of the route we are to go up by and the cities we are to come to'; and the idea pleased me, and I took from among you twelve men, one man to a tribe, and they turned and went up to the highland and came to Cluster Arroyo and scouted through it, and took in their hands some of the fruit of the country and brought it down to you, and brought you back word 'The country our God Jehovah is giving us is a good one.' But you were not willing to go up, but disobeyed your God Jehovah and found fault in your tents, and said 'It was in Jehovah's hatred for us that he brought us out of Egypt to give us into the hands of the Amorites to make away with us. Where are we going up to? our brothers have melted down our hearts with their "a race larger and taller than we, large cities fortified up into the sky, and we even saw 'Anakites there.'" And I said to you 'You are not to be overawed or afraid of them: your God Jehovah, who is going before you, he will fight for you, doing just as he did with you before your eyes in Egypt and in the wilderness in which you saw how Jehovah carried you as a man carries his own son all along the road you have come till you came to this place.' But in this matter you did not trust your God Jehovah, who goes before you along the road to look out for a camping-place for you, in fire by night that you may see along the road you are to go on, and in a cloud by day.

34 35 "And Jehovah heard your talk and was incensed, and swore 'Not a man among these men shall see the good country I swore to give their fathers, but Caleb the son of Jephunneh: he shall see it, and to him I will give the country he trod on, and to his sons, since he altogether followed Jehovah.'—At me too Jehovah broke out in anger on your account, saying 'You shall not go in there either: Joshua' the son of Nun, your subaltern, he shall go in there. Encourage him, because he shall establish Israel in it.'—'And your sons, who today do not know good from bad, they shall go in there, and to them I will give the country, and they shall take possession of it. But as for you, turn and march into the wilderness toward the Red Sea.'

41 "And you answered me 'We have sinned against Jehovah: we will go up and fight, just as our God Jehovah commanded us to'; and you belted on your arms and got ready to go up to the highland. But Jehovah said to me 'Tell them not to go up nor to fight, because I am not among them and they would be beaten by their enemies.' And I spoke to you, but you would not listen but disobeyed Jehovah and went up presumptuously to the highland; and the Amorites that live in that highland came out to meet you and chased you as bees do, and 45 pounded you up in Se'ir, clear to Hormah. And you came back and wept before Jehovah; but Jehovah would not obey you nor give ear to you.

46 "And you stayed at Kadesh a long time, as long as you did stay

1 there; and we turned and marched into the wilderness toward the Red Sea, as Jehovah told me, and were a long time going around the highland of Se'ir.

2 3 "And Jehovah said to me 'No more going around this highland:
4 turn north. And give the people orders "You are crossing the territory of your brothers the sons of 'Esau, who live in Se'ir, and they will 5 be afraid of you: be very careful, do not challenge them, because I will not give you of their country enough to plant a foot on; for I 6 have given the highland of Se'ir to 'Esau as a possession. You shall purchase food from them for money for your eating and also purchase 7 water from them for money for your drinking; for your God Jehovah has blessed you in everything you put your hand to, he has known about your going through this great wilderness. These forty years your God Jehovah has been with you: you have not been stinted in any respect."'

8 "And we passed our brothers the sons of 'Esau, who live in Se'ir, from the direction of the Rift Valley, from Elath and Ghesjon-Geber, and turned and passed on in the direction of the wilderness of Moab.
9 And Jehovah said to me 'Do not act hostilely toward the Moabites nor challenge them to battle, because I will not give you a possession out of their country; for I have given 'Ar to the sons of Lot as a possession.' (The Emities lived in it formerly, a great and numerous 10 people, tall as the 'Anakites; they too are classed as ogres, like the 11 'Anakites, but the Moabites call them Emities. And the Horites formerly lived in Se'ir, but the sons of 'Esau dispossessed them and Jehovah rooted them out before them, and they lived there instead of them, as Israel did to the country of their possession which Jehovah 12 had given them.) 'Now forward, and cross Zered Arroyo.' And we crossed Zered Arroyo.

14 "And the time we had been going from Kadesh-Barnea' till we crossed Zered Arroyo was thirty-eight years, till the whole generation, the fighting men, were all gone from the camp, as Jehovah had 15 sworn to them. And Jehovah's hand too had been against them, ravaging them out of the camp, till they were all gone.

16 "And when all the fighting men had finished dying from among 18 the people, Jehovah spoke to me, saying 'Today you are crossing the territory of Moab, 'Ar, and nearing the frontier of the Bene-'Ammon. Do not act hostilely toward them nor challenge them, because I will not give you a possession out of the country of the Bene-'Ammon; 19 for I have given it to the sons of Lot as a possession.' (That too is regarded as a haunted country: ogres used to live in it, the 'Am-21 monites call them Zamzummites—a great and numerous people, tall as the 'Anakites; and Jehovah rooted them out before them, and they 22 dispossessed them and lived there instead of them, as he did for the sons of 'Esau who live in Se'ir, before whom he rooted out the Horites and they dispossessed them and live there instead of them to this day.

 23 And the 'Avvites who lived in villages down to Ghaza the Caphtorites who came out of Caphtor rooted out and lived there instead of them.) 24 'Forward, march, and cross Arnon Arroyo: see, I have given into your hands King Sihon of Heshbon the Amorite, and his country.
 25 Begin taking possession, and challenge him to battle. This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you on the faces of the peoples under the whole sky who shall hear reports of you, and they shall be disquieted and unmanned because of you.
 26 "And I sent envoys from the wilderness of Kedemoth to King 27 Sihon of Heshbon with a peaceful message, 'Let us pass through your country: we will go by the highroad, we will not turn to the right or 28 the left, you shall sell us food for money for our eating and give us water for money for our drinking—only let us pass through on our 29 feet, as the sons of 'Esau who live in Se'ir did, and the Moabites who live in 'Ar, till we get over the Jordan to the country our God Jehovah 30 is giving us.' But King Sihon of Heshbon would not let us pass, because your God Jehovah had made him willful and obdurate in order to give him into your hands as at this day he has.
 31 "And Jehovah said to me 'See, I have begun giving Sihon and his country up to your conquest: begin taking possession by taking 32 his country.' And Sihon came out to meet us, he and all his people, 33 in battle at Jahas; and our God Jehovah gave him up to our conquest, 34 and we struck down him and his sons and all his people. And we took all his cities at that time, and destroyed without quarter every 35 city of men, and the women and children; we left no survivor; only the cattle we took as plunder for ourselves, and the booty of the 36 cities we had taken. From 'Aro'er on the brink of Arnon Arroyo, and the city in the arroyo, to Gilead, there was no town impregnable 37 to us: our God Jehovah gave everything up to our conquest. Only the country of the Bene-'Ammon you did not go near, all the bank of Jabbok Arroyo and the cities of the highland, just as our God Jehovah had commanded.

1 "And we turned around and went up toward the Bashan, and King
 'Og of the Bashan came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle 2 at Edre'i. And Jehovah said to me 'Do not be afraid of him, because I have given him and all his people and his country into your hands, and you shall do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, 3 whose capital was Heshbon.' And our God Jehovah gave into our hands King 'Og of the Bashan too and all his people, and we struck 4 them down till we had left no survivor to him. And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a town we did not take from them:

sixty cities, all the Pale of Argob, 'Og's kingdom in the Bashan—5 all these were fortified cities with high wall and gates and bar—6 besides the very numerous rural cities. And we destroyed them without quarter, as we had done to King Sihon of Heshbon, destroying 7 without quarter every city of men and the women and children; and all the cattle and the booty of the cities we took as plunder for ourselves.

8 "And at that time we took the country out of the hands of the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan from 9 Arnon Arroyo to Mount Hermon (the Phenicians call Hermon Sir-10 jon, and the Amorites call it Senir), all the cities of the level, and all Gilead, and all the Bashan, to Salcah and Edre'i, the cities of 'Og's 11 kingdom in the Bashan. (For King 'Og of the Bashan was the only one left of the remnant of the ogres; his bedstead was an iron one—extant at Rabbah of the Bene-'Ammon—nine cubits long and four 12 cubits wide by a man's cubit.) And of this country we took possession at that time: from 'Aro'er on Arnon Arroyo, and half the highland 13 of Gilead and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites, and the rest of Gilead and all the Bashan, 'Og's kingdom, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh, all the Pale of Argob. (All this Bashan is 14 called a haunted country.) (Jair the son of Manasseh took all the Pale of Argob, up to the boundary of the Geshurites and the Ma'acathites, and named it after himself (the Bashan) the Havvoth of 15 Jair, a name it bears to this day.) And to Makir I gave Gilead; and to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead to Arnon Arroyo, with the middle of the arroyo as boundary, and to the Jabbok 16 Arroyo, the boundary of the Bene-'Ammon, and the Rift Valley, with the Jordan as boundary, from Kinnereth to the Dead Sea, Salt Sea, 17 under the steeps of the Pishgah on the east.

18 "And I gave you the order at that time 'Your God Jehovah has given you this country to take possession of; you shall go over armed 19 before your brothers the sons of Israel, all your stalwart men—only your women and children and your stock (I know you have much 20 stock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you—till Jehovah gives rest to your brothers as he has to you, and they too take possession of the country your God Jehovah is giving to them on the other side of the Jordan, and you shall come back to your possessions that 21 I have given you.' And at that time I gave Joshua' the order 'Your eyes it was that saw all that your God Jehovah did to these two kings: Jehovah will do the same to all the kingdoms over where you are 22 going. Do not be afraid of them, because it is your God Jehovah that fights for you.'

24 "And I petitioned Jehovah at that time 'Lord Jehovah, you have begun to show your servant your greatness and your strong hand—what deity is there, in heaven or on earth, that does the like of your 25 deeds and exploits? Let me go over and see the good country on the 26 other side of the Jordan, this good highland and the Lebanon.' But Jehovah was furious at me on your account, and would not listen to me; and Jehovah said to me 'That will do; never speak to me again 27 about this matter. Go up to the head of the Pishgah and raise your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and 28 see with your eyes; for you are not to go across this Jordan. But commission Joshua', and encourage him to do his best, because he shall go across at the head of this people, and he shall establish them in 29 the country you are to see.' And we stayed in the valley in front of Beth-Peghor.

1 "And now, Israel, listen to the usages and laws that I am teaching you to abide by, so that you may live and go in and take possession 2 of the country that your fathers' God Jehovah is giving you. You shall never add to the word I am enjoining on you, nor subtract from it, keeping to the commandments of your God Jehovah which I am 3 enjoining on you. Your eyes it was that saw what Jehovah did at Baal-Peghor, that your God Jehovah rooted out from among you all 4 the men that followed Baal-Peghor, but you who stood by Jehovah are all alive today. See, I have taught you such usages and laws as 5 Jehovah commissioned me to, for you to do right within the country 6 that you are going across to to take possession of it; and you shall be careful to live up to them, because that will be your wisdom and good sense before the eyes of the peoples who shall hear of all these usages and say 'Decidedly this great nation is a wise and sensible 7 people.' For what great nation is there that has a God near it, as our 8 God Jehovah is whenever we call on him? and what great nation is there that has such just usages and laws as all this code that I am 9 putting before you today? Only be on your guard and guard yourselves well against forgetting all the things your eyes saw, and against letting them pass from your minds as long as you live; but 10 make them known to your children and grandchildren—the day when you stood before your God Jehovah at Horeb when Jehovah said to me 'Assemble me the people and I will let them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me as long as they are alive above ground, 11 and may teach their children'; and you drew near and stood under the mountain while the mountain blazed with fire up to the heart of 12 the sky, with darkness and cloud and thickened air; and your God Jehovah spoke out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of 13 words, but did not see any form, nothing but a voice. And he announced to you his covenant which he commanded you to live by, the Ten Things, and wrote them on two stone tablets.

14 "And Jehovah commanded me at that time to teach you usages and 15 laws for you to live by in the country you are going over into to 16 take possession of it. And keep a sharp watch on your own selves, 17 because you did not see any form on the day when Jehovah spoke to 18 you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire, that you do not viciously 19 make yourselves a statue, a form of any effigy, a figure male or 20 female, a figure of any beast on the earth, a figure of any winged 21 bird that flies in the air, a figure of anything that creeps on the 22 ground, a figure of any fish in the water under the earth, and that 23 you do not raise your eyes skyward and see the sun and the moon and 24 the stars, all the legions of the sky, and get astray and do reverence 25 to them and worship them; when your God Jehovah has allotted them 26 to all the peoples under the sky, but you Jehovah has taken and 27 brought you out of the blast-furnace Egypt, that he might have in 28 you a people who should be an estate of his own, as you are this day.
 29 And Jehovah was angry at me on your account and swore I was not 30 to cross the Jordan and not to go into the good country your God 31 is giving you as your estate; for I am dying in this country, I am 32 not crossing the Jordan, but you are crossing it and taking possession 33 of this good country. Be on your guard that you do not forget your 34 God Jehovah's covenant which he made with you, and make yourselves a statue, a form of anything, as your God Jehovah has for-bidden you to; for your God Jehovah is a devouring fire, a jealous deity.

25 "When you beget children and grandchildren and come to be 26 natives of the country, and grow vicious and make a statue, a form 27 of anything, and do what displeases your God Jehovah, provoking 28 him, I call the sky and the earth to witness against you today that 29 you shall perish quickly off the country you are crossing the Jordan 30 into to take possession of it; you shall not have a long time on it, 31 but shall be rooted out, and Jehovah will scatter you among the 32 peoples and you shall be left a few persons among the nations to 33 which Jehovah will drive you, and there you shall worship man-made 34 gods, wood and stone, that cannot see nor hear nor eat nor smell.
 And from there you shall look about for your God Jehovah, and find him when you seek him with all your heart and soul, when you are in distress and all these things have befallen you in the future days, and you turn back to your God Jehovah and obey him. For your God Jehovah is a tenderhearted deity who will not neglect you nor make away with you, nor forget your fathers' covenant sworn to by him.
 For ask as to olden days before your time, since the day that God created man on earth, and as to any place from edge to edge of the sky, whether the like of this great thing has taken place or been heard of: whether a people has heard a God's voice speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you did, and has lived, or whether a God has tried coming to take himself a people out from among another people with tests and tokens and prodigies and war and with a strong hand and an outstretched arm and with great terrors, like all that your God Jehovah did for you in Egypt before your eyes.

35 "You have been shown, so that you may know, that Jehovah is 36 God: there is no other besides him. Out of the sky he let you hear his voice to bring it home to you, and on earth he showed you his 37 great fire and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire. And in return for his having loved your fathers and chosen their descendants after them and personally taken you out of Egypt by his great 38 power, dispossessing before you nations greater and more numerous than you, bringing you in to give you their country as your domain, 39 as he is this day doing, recognize today and put yourselves in mind that Jehovah is God in the heavens above and on the earth below; 40 there is no other; and you are to keep his usages and commandments which I am enjoining on you today, that it may be well with you and with your sons after you, and in order that you may have a long time on the soil your God Jehovah is giving to you for all time."

41 Then Moses set apart three cities on the east side of the Jordan 42 for the homicide to flee to who had committed manslaughter without knowing it, and had not been hating his neighbor previously, and 43 should flee to one of these cities and have his life: Beser in the wilderness, in the level country, for the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in the Bashan for the Manassites.

44 45 And this is the code Moses set before the sons of Israel; these are the lessons and usages and laws that Moses pronounced to the sons 46 of Israel at their coming out of Egypt, on the other side of the Jordan in the valley in front of Beth-Peghor in the country of King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, whom Moses and 47 the sons of Israel defeated at their coming out of Egypt and took possession of his country and of the country of King 'Og of the Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites on the east side of the Jordan, 48 from 'Aro'er on the brink of Arnon Arroyo to Mount Sion, that is, 49 Hermon, and all the Rift Valley on the east side of the Jordan, and

CHAPTER 5

1 to the Dead Sea under the steepes of the Pisgah: Moses called out to all Israel

"Listen, Israel, to the usages and laws that I am publishing to you 2 today, and learn them and take care to live up to them. Our God 3 Jehovah made a covenant with us at Horeb: it was not with our fathers that Jehovah made this covenant, but with us ourselves who 4 are all alive here today. Face to face Jehovah spoke with you at the 5 mountain out of the midst of the fire, I standing between Jehovah and you at that time to tell you Jehovah's word because you were afraid at the fire and did not go up on the mountainside:—

- 6 "I am your God Jehovah who brought you out of Egypt, out of the slave-quarters.
- 7 "You shall not have other gods to face me down.
- 8 "You shall not make yourself a statue of any form in the skies
- 9 above or on the earth beneath or in the water beneath the earth: you shall not do reverence to them nor worship them; because I, your God Jehovah, am a jealous deity, visiting fathers' guilt on children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren for those who hate me, and befriending thousands for those who love me and keep my commandments.
- 10
- 11 "You shall not take the name of your God Jehovah in vain; for Jehovah will not acquit him who takes his name in vain.
- 12 "Mind the sabbath day, keeping it sacred, as your God Jehovah
- 13 commanded you. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath for your God Jehovah: you shall not do any work, you nor your son or daughter nor your servant nor your ox or donkey or any of your cattle nor your immigrant within your
- 14 gates, in order that your servant may rest as well as you. And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt and your God Jehovah brought you out from there with strong hand and outstretched arm: for this reason your God Jehovah has commanded you to keep the sabbath day.
- 15
- 16 "Honor your father and your mother, as your God Jehovah has commanded you, so that your time may be long, and it may be well with you, on the soil your God Jehovah is giving you.
- 17 "You shall not murder.
- 18 "You shall not commit adultery.
- 19 "You shall not steal.
- 20 "You shall not give made-up testimony against your neighbor.
- 21 "You shall not desire your neighbor's wife, nor hanker after your neighbor's house, his field nor his slave, his cow nor his donkey, nor anything of your neighbor's.'
- 22 "These words Jehovah spoke to all your assembly out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick air, in a great voice, and went no further; and he wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.
- 23 "And when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, with the mountain burning with fire, you approached me, all your
- 24 heads of tribes and your elders, and said 'Here our God Jehovah has let us see his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire; this day we have seen that God speaks
- 25 with men and they live; and now why should we die? for this great fire will devour us if we go on listening to our God Jehovah's voice
- 26 any longer, and so we shall die. For what mortal is there who has heard the voice of a living God speaking out of the midst of the fire as
- 27 we did, and has lived? Go near yourself and hear everything that our God Jehovah says, and tell us yourself everything that our God 28 Jehovah tells you, and we will listen and do it.' And Jehovah heard your words as you spoke to me, and Jehovah said to me 'I heard the 29 words of this people which they spoke to you; they are right in everything they say. Would that they would be of this mind, to fear me and keep all my commandments, all the time, that it might be well 30 with them and their sons forever! Go say to them "Go back to your 31 tents"; but stay here with me yourself and I will tell you the commandment, the usages and laws, that you are to teach them and they are to abide by in the country I am giving to them to take possession 32 of.' You are to take care then to do as your God Jehovah has com-33 manded you; you are not to turn from it to right or to left; you are to walk altogether in the path your God Jehovah has commanded you, that you may live, and it may be well with you, and you may have a long time, in the country you are to take possession of.

1 "And this is the commandment, the usages and the laws, that your God Jehovah gave the command to teach you to abide by in the 2 country you are going over into to take possession of it, so that you may fear your God Jehovah, keeping all his usages and commandments which I am enjoining upon you, you and your son and your 3 grandson, all your lifetime, and so that your time may be long. So listen, Israel, and take care to do accordingly, that it may be well with you and that you may multiply greatly, as your fathers' God Jehovah promised you—a country that runs milk and honey.

4 5 "Listen, Israel: our God is Jehovah; Jehovah is one; and you are to love your God Jehovah with all your heart and all your soul and 6 all your being. And you are to take to heart these words which I am 7 enjoining upon you today, and inculcate them on your children, and talk of them when you are sitting in your house and when you are walking on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are 8 getting up, and you are to tie them as a token on your arm and 9 have them as amulets between your eyes, and write them on the jambs of your house doors and on your gates.

10 "And when your God Jehovah brings you into the country he swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give you, great 11 fine cities that you did not build, and houses full of all sorts of good things that you did not fill, and rock-hewn cisterns that you did not hew out, vineyards and olive-trees that you did not plant, and you 12 have eaten your fill, beware of forgetting Jehovah who brought you 13 out of Egypt, out of the slave-quarters; your God Jehovah you shall fear, and him you shall worship, and by his name you shall swear.
14 You shall not follow other gods, gods of the peoples around you, 15 because you have among you a jealous deity, your God Jehovah; lest your God Jehovah should be angry with you and extirpate you off the face of the earth.

16 "You shall not put your God Jehovah on trial, as you did at 17 Massah. You shall keep your God Jehovah's commandments and les-18 sons and usages which he has enjoined upon you, and do what Jehovah approves and likes, so that it may be well with you and 19 that you may go in and take possession of the good country as to which Jehovah swore to your fathers he would push all your enemies out of your way, as Jehovah promised.

20 "And when your son asks you tomorrow 'What is it about the lessons and usages and laws that our God Jehovah enjoined upon you?' 21 you shall say to your son 'We had been slaves to the Pharaoh in Egypt, and Jehovah had brought us out of Egypt with strong hand, 22 and Jehovah had dealt out tokens and great and baleful miracles in Egypt upon the Pharaoh and all his household before our eyes, and 23 had brought us out from there in order to bring us in here, giving us the country he swore to our fathers; and Jehovah commanded us 24 to abide by all these usages, fearing our God Jehovah, that he might be good to us evermore and keep us alive as at this day; and it will 25 be the right thing on our part when we take care to abide by all these commandments before our God Jehovah as he ordered us.'

CHAPTER 7

1 "When your God Jehovah brings you into the country you are going into to take possession of it, and clears out many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites, 2 seven nations greater and more numerous than you, and your God Jehovah gives them up to your conquest and you defeat them, you shall destroy them without quarter: you shall not make terms with 3 them nor give them grace. Neither shall you intermarry with them:
you shall not give his son your daughter nor take his daughter for 4 your son, because he would turn your son from following me and they would worship other gods, and Jehovah would be angry with you 5 and quickly root you out. But this is what you are to do to them: pull down their altars, and break up their obelisks, and chop down their 6 asherahs, and burn off their carvings, because you are a people holy to your God Jehovah: your God Jehovah has chosen you to be a people 7 specially his own out of all the peoples on earth. It was not for your being largest of all peoples that Jehovah took a fancy to you and 8 chose you, for you were the smallest of all peoples; but it was for Jehovah's love to you, and because he was keeping the oath he had sworn to your fathers, that Jehovah brought you out with strong hand and redeemed you out of the slave-quarters, out of the hands 9 of the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. And you are to know that your God Jehovah is God, the faithful deity who keeps covenant and friendship to a thousand generations toward those who love him and 10 keep his commandments, and repays his hater in person, bringing him to destruction; he will not delay for his hater, he will repay 11 him in person. And you are to keep the commandment, the usages and laws that I am commanding you today to abide by.

12 “And because you listen to these laws and take care to live up to them, your God Jehovah will keep toward you the covenant and 13 friendship that he swore to your fathers, and will love you and bless you and multiply you and bless your fruit of body and your fruit of soil, your grain and your grape-juice and your oil, the propagation of your kine and of your sheep, on the soil he swore to your fathers 14 to give you; you shall be most blessed of all peoples; there shall not be 15 a barren male or female among you nor among your cattle; and Jehovah will keep every disease away from you, and not give you any of the malignant distempers of Egypt that you knew about, but will put 16 them on all your haters. And you shall eat up all the peoples your God Jehovah gives you; your eye shall not have mercy on them, and you shall not worship their gods, because it would be a snare to you.

17 “When you think to yourself “These nations are too many for me; 18 how shall I be able to dispossess them?” you shall not be afraid of them; you shall remember what your God Jehovah did to the Pharaoh 19 and all the Egyptians, the great tests your eyes saw, the tokens and prodigies and the strong hand and outstretched arm wherewith your God Jehovah brought you out; so will your God Jehovah do to all 20 the peoples you are afraid of, and hornets too your God Jehovah will send among them till the survivors that are in hiding from you perish.
21 You shall not stand in awe of them, because you have in your midst 22 your God Jehovah, a great and terrible deity, and your God Jehovah will clear out these nations before you little by little—you shall not be able to make an end of them quickly, for fear the wild beasts 23 should multiply against you—and your God Jehovah will give them up to your conquest, and will throw them into utter confusion till 24 they are rooted out. And he will give their kings into your hands, and you shall obliterate their name from under the sky; not a man shall stand his ground before you until you have rooted them out.
25 The carvings of their gods you shall burn off; you shall not covet silver and gold for them and take it to you, for fear you should be 26 ensnared by it, for it is a thing your God Jehovah abominates. And you shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become deodand like it: you shall disdain it and abominate it, because it is deodand.

1 “All the commandment I am enjoining on you today you shall take care to live up to, in order that you may live and multiply and go in 2 and take possession of the country Jehovah swore to your fathers; and you shall remember all the road your God Jehovah took you over through these forty years in the wilderness in order to tame you, to test you to know what you had in your hearts, whether you would 3 keep his commandments or not. And he kept you under, and had you go hungry, and had you eat the manna, which you had never been acquainted with, nor your fathers either, in order to have you know 4 that man is not to live by bread alone; man is to live by everything 5 that comes out of Jehovah's mouth. Your cloak did not give out nor your foot blister, these forty years. And you shall be conscious that 6 as a man disciplines his son your God is disciplining you, and you shall keep your God Jehovah's commandments, walking in his ways and fearing him.

7 "For your God Jehovah is bringing you into a good country, a country of watercourses, springs and floods coming out in vale and 8 hill; a country of wheat and barley and grapevine and fig-tree and 9 pomegranate, a country of oil-olives and honey; a country in which you shall eat bread without privation, shall not want for anything; a country whose stones are iron and out of whose mountains you 10 shall mine copper; and you shall eat your fill and bless your God 11 Jehovah for the good country he has given you. Beware that you do not forget your God Jehovah, not keeping his commandments and 12 laws and usages that I am enjoining on you today; that you do not 13 eat your fill, and build good houses and live in them, and have your herds and flocks increasing, and increasing stocks of silver and gold, 14 and everything you have increasing, and grow lofty and forget your God Jehovah who brought you out of Egypt, out of the slave-quarters, 15 and on through the terrible great wilderness of wildfire-snake and scorpion and of waterless desert, who brought out water for you 16 from the pyrite rock, who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers had never been acquainted with, in order to tame 17 you and to test you for your future good, and that you do not say to yourself 'My power and the might of my arm has acquired this 18 wealth for me'; but remember your God Jehovah, because it is he who gives you power to acquire wealth, in order to make good his 19 covenant which he swore to your fathers, as he is doing today. But if you do forget your God Jehovah and follow other gods and worship them and do them reverence, I warn you today that you shall perish.
20 Like the nations Jehovah is destroying before you, so you shall perish, because you do not obey your God Jehovah.

1 "Listen, Israel: you are crossing the Jordan today to go in to dispossess nations greater and more numerous than yourselves, great 2 cities fortified up to the sky, a people great and tall, sons of 'Anakites, of whom you know and of whom you have heard say 'Who 3 makes a stand before the sons of 'Anak?' so know today that it is your God Jehovah who is crossing before you, a devouring fire: he will root them out, and he will humble them before you and dispossess

4 them and destroy them quickly, as Jehovah promised you. Do not say to yourself when Jehovah pushes them out of the way before you
 'It is for my saintliness Jehovah has brought me in to take possession of this country,' when it is for the wickedness of these nations Jeho-5 vah is dispossessing them before you. It is not for your saintliness and right-mindedness that you are going in to take possession of their country, but because of the wickedness of these nations your God Jehovah is dispossessing them before you, and in order to make good the word that Jehovah swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and 6 Jacob; so know it is not for your saintliness your God Jehovah is giving you this good country to take possession of, because you are a hard-necked people.
 7 "Remember, do not forget, how you incensed your God Jehovah in the wilderness; from the day you came out of Egypt till you came 8 to this place you have been disobedient toward Jehovah; and at Horeb you incensed Jehovah and Jehovah was angry at you to the 9 point of rooting you out, when I went up on the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant Jehovah had made with you, and I stayed on the mountain forty days and nights not eating 10 food nor drinking water, and Jehovah gave me the two stone tablets written by the divine finger, and on them all the words Jehovah had spoken with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the 11 day of the assembly. And at the end of forty days and nights Jehovah 12 gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant; but Jehovah said to me 'Up with you, go down at once from here, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have turned vicious, they have gone off at once from the course I enjoined on them, they have 13 made themselves a metal statue.' And Jehovah said to me 'I see this 14 people is a hard-necked people; let me alone and I will root them out and obliterate their name from under the sky, and will make you 15 into a nation greater and more numerous than they.' And I turned round and went down off the mountain, while the mountain burned 16 with fire, with the two tablets of the covenant on my two arms. And I saw that you had sinned against your God Jehovah, had made yourselves a metal calf, had gone off at once from the course Jehovah 17 had enjoined on you; and I grasped the two tablets and threw them 18 off my two arms and broke them in pieces before your eyes. And I flung myself down before Jehovah as I had at first, forty days and nights, not eating food nor drinking water, for all your sins that you had committed in doing what displeased Jehovah, provoking him; 19 for I quailed at the anger and resentment to which Jehovah was incensed against you to root you out; but Jehovah listened to me that 20 time too. And Jehovah was very angry at Aaron, to the point of 21 rooting him out, but I prayed on Aaron's behalf too that time. And your sin that you had made, the calf, I took and burned in a fire, and pounded it up, grinding it thoroughly till it was fine as dust, and threw the dust of it into the arroyo that ran down from the mountain.

22 “And at Taberah and at Massah and at Kibroth-hat-Taavah you 23 kept incensing Jehovah; and when Jehovah sent you from Kadesh-Barnea’ with the order ‘Go up and take possession of the country I have given you’ you disobeyed your God Jehovah, you did not trust 24 him and obey him. You have been disobedient toward Jehovah ever since I knew you.

25 “And I flung myself down before Jehovah for the forty days and 26 nights that I did so because Jehovah talked of rooting you out; but I prayed to Jehovah and said ‘Lord Jehovah, do not make away with your people, your estate, which you have redeemed in your greatness, which you have brought out of Egypt with a strong hand.
27 Remember for your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not turn 28 your eyes toward this people’s obstinacy and wickedness and sin, lest the country you brought us out of should say “It was because of Jehovah’s inability to bring them into the country he had promised them, and because he hated them, that he led them out to bring them 29 to their death in the wilderness,” when they are your own people and your own estate which you have brought out by your great strength and your outstretched arm.’

CHAPTER 10

1 “At that time Jehovah said to me ‘Shape yourself two stone tablets like the original ones and come up on the mountain to me, and make 2 yourself a wooden ark, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the original tablets which you broke in pieces, and you 3 shall place them in the ark.’ And I made an acacia-wood ark and shaped two stone tablets like the original ones, and went up on the 4 mountain with the two tablets in my hands, and he wrote on the tablets the same as the original inscription, the ten words that Jehovah had spoken to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire 5 on the day of the assembly; and Jehovah gave them to me, and I turned round and came down from the mountain and placed the tablets in the ark I had made, so that they are there as Jehovah commanded me.”

6 (And the sons of Israel marched from the wells of the Bene-Ja’akan to Moserah; there Aaron died, and he was buried there, and his son 7 Eleazar succeeded him in the priesthood. From there they marched to the Gudgodah, and from the Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a country of 8 arroyos of water. At that time Jehovah set apart the tribe of the Levites to carry the ark of Jehovah’s covenant, to stand before Jeho-9 vah to wait on him, and to bless in his name, to this day. This is why the Levites do not have share and estate with their brothers: Jehovah is their estate, as your God Jehovah promised them.)

10 “And I stayed on the mountain a time equal to the first, forty days and forty nights; and Jehovah listened to me that time too, and 11 Jehovah would not make away with you. And Jehovah said to me 'Set out on the march before the people, and let them go in and take possession of the country I swore to their fathers to give them.' 12 "And now, Israel, what does your God Jehovah ask of you but to fear your God Jehovah, to walk altogether in his ways, and to love him and serve your God Jehovah with all your hearts and all your 13 souls, to keep Jehovah's commandments and usages which I am en-14 joining upon you today for your good? Why, the sky and the sky of the sky belong to your God Jehovah, the world and everything in 15 it; Jehovah simply took to loving your fathers, and chose their descendants after them, you, out of all peoples, as the case stands this 16 day; so circumcise your hearts and do not keep on stiffening your 17 necks. For your God Jehovah is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, invincible, terrible Deity who shows no favor and takes no 18 bribe, who does justice for orphan and widow and loves an immigrant, 19 granting him food and clothing—and you are to love the immigrant, 20 because you were immigrants in Egypt. Your God Jehovah you shall fear, him you shall worship and to him hold fast, and by his name 21 you shall swear. He is your praise and he is your God, who has done with you these great and terrible things that your eyes have seen.

 22 With seventy souls your fathers went down to Egypt, and now your God Jehovah has made you numerous as the stars of the sky.

1 "And you shall love your God Jehovah and keep his charge, his 2 usages and his laws and his commandments, through all time. And you shall recognize today that it was not with your sons, who had not known nor seen your God Jehovah's discipline, his greatness, his 3 strong hand and outstretched arm and his tokens and his deeds that he did inside of Egypt to King Pharaoh of Egypt and all his country, 4 and that he did to the Egyptian troops, their ponies and their chariots, over whose faces he rolled the water of the Red Sea when they pursued 5 you; Jehovah destroyed them, and it is so to this day; and what he 6 did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place, and what he did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab the son of Reuben, how the earth gaped and swallowed them and their families and their tents and all the beings they had at their back in the midst of 7 all Israel; but it is your eyes that have seen all Jehovah's great work 8 that he has done. And you shall keep all the commandment I am enjoining upon you today, in order that you may be strong and go in and take possession of the country you are going over into to 9 take possession of it, and in order that you may have a long time on the soil Jehovah swore to your fathers to give to them and their descendants, a country that runs milk and honey.
 10 "For the country you are going into to take possession of it is not like the Egypt you have come out of, where you sow your seed 11 and water it with your feet like a vegetable garden, but the country 12 you are going into to take possession of it is a country of mountains and vales, that drinks rainwater from the sky, a country that your God Jehovah cares for, which has your God Jehovah's eye on it 13 always from year's beginning to year's end. And if you obey all my commands that I am enjoining upon you today, loving your God 14 Jehovah and serving him with all your hearts and souls, I will give your country its rain in season, fall rains and spring rains, and you 15 shall gather your grain and grape-juice and oil; and I will give herb-16 age on your range for your cattle; and you shall eat your fill. Take care not to be so simpleminded that you turn off and worship other 17 gods and do them reverence, and Jehovah be angry with you and bar the sky so that there is no rain and the soil does not give its growth, and you perish quickly off the good country Jehovah is giving 18 you. But fix these words of mine in your hearts and souls, and tie them as a token on your arms and have them as amulets between 19 your eyes, and teach them to your children, talking of them when you are sitting in your house and when you are walking on the road, 20 when you are going to bed and when you are getting up, and write 21 them on the jambs of your house doors and on your gates, in order that you and your children may have as many days on the soil that Jehovah swore to your fathers to give you as the days of the sky over the earth.

22 "For if you do keep all this commandment that I am enjoining you to abide by, loving your God Jehovah, walking altogether in his 23 ways and holding fast to him, Jehovah will dispossess all these nations before you and you shall take the possessions of nations greater and 24 more numerous than yourselves. Every place that your foot treads on shall be yours: from the wilderness and the Lebanon, from the River, 25 the river Euphrates, to the western sea, shall be your territory. Not a man shall stand his ground before you; your God Jehovah will spread the dread and fear of you over all the country you tread on, as he promised you.

26 "Look, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse: 27 the blessing for listening to your God Jehovah's commandments that 28 I am enjoining on you today, and the curse if you do not listen to your God Jehovah's commandments but turn off from the path I am enjoining on you today, following other gods that you have never 29 known. And when your God Jehovah brings you into the country you are coming into to take possession of it you shall put the blessing 30 on Mount Gerizzim and the curse on Mount 'Ebal—they are across the Jordan beyond the West Road, in the country of the Canaanites that live in the Rift Valley, opposite the Gilgal, alongside the Oak of 31 Moreh. For you are crossing the Jordan to go in to take possession of the country your God Jehovah is giving you, and are to possess 32 it and live in it, and you are to take care to live up to all the usages and laws I am setting before you today.

CHAPTER 12

1 "These are the usages and laws that you are to take care to live up to in the country your fathers' God Jehovah has given you to possess, as long as you are alive above ground.

2 "You must destroy all the places where the nations you are dispossessing worshiped their gods on the high mountains and the hills
3 and under every verdant tree, and pull down their altars and break up their obelisks and burn up their asherahs and hack away the carvings 4 of their gods and stamp out their name from that place. You shall 5 not do so for your God Jehovah, but shall resort to the place your God Jehovah shall choose out of all your tribes to place his name there 6 for his dwelling, and come there and bring your burnt-offerings and sacrifices and tithes and contributions and vows and voluntary offerings 7 and the firstborn of your flocks and herds, and you shall eat there before your God Jehovah and rejoice over all your undertakings, you and your families, as your God Jehovah has blessed you.

8 "You are not to do just as we do here today, everybody whatever 9 suits him. For as yet you have not come to the rest and establishment 10 that your God Jehovah is giving you; but you are to cross the Jordan and settle in the country your God Jehovah is establishing you in, and he will give you rest from all your enemies on all sides, and you shall 11 live in security, and to the place that your God Jehovah shall choose to install his name in you shall bring everything that I enjoin on you, your burnt-offerings and sacrifices and tithes and contributions and 12 all choicest vows that you vow to Jehovah, and rejoice before your God Jehovah, you and your children and your slaves, and the Levite of your locality, because he does not have share and estate with you.
13 14 Beware of offering your burnt-offerings in any place you see; but in the place Jehovah shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt-offerings and there you shall do everything that I enjoin on you.

15 "Only you are to kill and eat meat at your pleasure in accordance with Jehovah's blessing which he has given you, in all your localities: the unclean and the clean shall eat it, as with the gazelle and the 16 deer. Only the blood you shall not eat; you shall let it run out on the ground like water.

17 "You cannot eat in your locality the tithe of your grain, grape-juice, and oil, nor the firstborn of your flocks and herds, nor any vow you 18 vow, nor your voluntary offerings, nor your contributions, but you shall eat such a thing before your God Jehovah in the place your God Jehovah chooses, you and your child and your slave and the Levite of your locality, and rejoice before your God Jehovah in all

- 19 your undertakings. Take care never to neglect the Levite all the time you are on your soil.
- 20 "When your God Jehovah broadens your territory as he has promised you, and you think 'I will eat some meat because I feel an appetite for meat,' you are to eat meat at your pleasure. When the place Jehovah chooses to place his name there is distant from you, you shall kill animals out of your flocks and herds that Jehovah has given you as I have ordered you, and eat them in your localities at your pleasure, only you shall eat them in such fashion as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, the unclean and the clean shall eat them together. Only make a point of not eating the blood, because the blood is the life, and you are not to eat the life with the flesh. You shall not eat it; you shall let it run out on the ground like water; you shall not eat it, in order that all may be well with you and with your sons after you because you do what Jehovah approves. Only your dedicated things, such as you shall have, and your vows, you shall take up and come to the place Jehovah shall choose, and you shall make your burnt-offerings, the flesh and the blood, on your God Jehovah's altar, and of your sacrifices the blood shall be poured on your God Jehovah's altar but the flesh you shall eat. Take care to listen to all these words that I am enjoining on you, in order that it may be well with you and with your sons after you forever because you do what your God Jehovah likes and approves.
- 29 "When your God Jehovah exterminates before you the nations you are going among to take their possessions, and you do take their possessions and settle in their country, beware of being stampeded into following them after they have been rooted out before you, and of studying their gods, asking 'How did these nations worship their gods? I will do the same way.' You are not to do the same way for your God Jehovah, because they had done for their gods all Jehovah's abhorrences that he hates; for they even burn up their children for their gods.
- 32 "All the matter that I am enjoining on you you are to take care to live up to; you are not to add to it nor subtract from it.

- 1 "When there arises among you a prophet or a dream-seer, and he gives you a token or a prodigy, and the token and prodigy that he told you of in saying 'Let us follow other gods that you have never known and worship them' comes true, you are not to listen to that prophet's words or to that dream-seer, because your God Jehovah is testing you to know whether you do love your God Jehovah with all your hearts and with all your souls. You are to follow your God Jehovah and fear him and keep his commandments and obey him and worship him and hold fast to him. That prophet or dream-seer is to be put to death because he has spoken wrongfully against your God

Jehovah who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you out of the slave-quarters, to lead you astray out of the road your God Jehovah commanded you to go in; and you are to rout out the mischief from among you.

6 "When your brother, your own father's son or your mother's, or your son or daughter, or your bosom wife, or your friend who is a second self to you, cajoles you in secret, saying 'Let us go and worship other gods,'—gods that neither you nor your fathers have known, 7 any of the gods of the nations around you, near you or far off from 8 you from end to end of the earth,—you are not to consent nor listen to him, nor shall your eye have mercy on him, nor shall you spare 9 him or screen him, but kill him; your hand shall be against him first for putting him to death, and the hands of all the people after-10 ward, and you shall stone him to death because he tried to lead you astray from your God Jehovah who brought you out of Egypt, out 11 of the slave-quarters; and all Israel shall hear and be afraid, and never again do among you such a wicked thing as this.

12 "When you hear of one of your cities that your God Jehovah is 13 giving you to live in that some reprobates have gone out from among you and led the inhabitants of their city astray, saying 'Let us go and 14 worship other gods that you have never known,' you are to look it up and investigate and inquire thoroughly, and, finding the fact is really 15 authentic, this detestable thing has been done among you, you are to kill off the inhabitants of that city, destroying it and all in it as 16 deodand. And all the booty from it you shall collect in the middle of its square, and burn up the city and all the booty from it as a holocaust to your God Jehovah; and it shall be a permanent ruin, never 17 rebuilt. Not a bit of what was deodand shall stick to your hands, in order that Jehovah may come back from his anger and give you the benefit of sympathy and feel a tenderness for you and multiply you as 18 he swore to your fathers he would, because you obey your God Jehovah, keeping all his commandments that I am enjoining on you today, doing what your God Jehovah approves.

1 "You are sons of your God Jehovah; you shall not hack yourselves 2 nor produce a bald spot between your eyes for a dead person, because you are a people holy to your God Jehovah and Jehovah has commanded you to be a people specially his own out of all the peoples on earth.
3 4 "You shall not eat anything abominable. These are the quadrupeds 5 you are to eat: ox, sheep and goat, deer and gazelle and roe and wild goat and spiral-horned antelope and long-horned antelope and 6 mountain sheep, and every cloven-footed quadruped with a fissure severing two half-hoofs, that chews the cud, among quadrupeds it 7 you shall eat; only that this you shall not eat of those that chew the 8 cud and of those that have cloven hoofs with a fissure: the camel and the hare and the dassy—because they chew the cud and do not have cloven hoofs they are unclean for you,—and the hog—because it has cloven hoofs and no cud it is unclean for you. You are not to eat any of their flesh nor touch their carcasses.

9 “This you are to eat out of everything in the water: whatever 10 has fins and scales you shall eat, and whatever has not fins and scales you shall not, it is unclean for you.

11 “Every clean bird you are to eat. And this is what you are not to eat of them: the vulture and the lammergeier and the eagle and the falcon and the various kinds of kite and all the various kinds of raven and the ostrich and the nighthawk and the gull and the various kinds of hawk and the little owl and the great owl and the water-hen 12 and the barn-owl and the Egyptian vulture and the cormorant and the stork and the various kinds of heron and the hoopoe and the bat; and all winged insects are unclean for you, they are not to be eaten.
 13 Every clean winged creature you are to eat.

14 “You shall not eat any carcass found dead; you shall give it to the immigrant in your locality to eat, or sell it to a foreigner; because you are a people holy to your God Jehovah.

15 “You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

16 “You shall tithe all the produce of your seed that goes out to the field year by year, and eat before your God Jehovah, in the place he chooses to install his name in, the tithe of your grain, grape-juice, and oil, and the firstborn of your flocks and herds, in order that you may learn to fear your God Jehovah evermore. And when the distance is too great for you because you cannot carry it, because the place your God Jehovah chooses to place his name in is far off from you, 17 because your God Jehovah blesses you, you shall turn it into money and take the package of money in your hand and go to the place your God Jehovah chooses and spend the money for whatever your appetite craves in the way of cattle and sheep and goats and wine and beer and everything your appetite asks you for, and eat it there before your God Jehovah and rejoice, you and your family and the Levite of your locality: you are not to abandon him, because he does not have share and estate with you.

18 “Once in three years you shall bring out all the tithe of your produce in that year and deposit it in your gate, and the Levite (because he does not have share and estate with you) and the immigrant and orphan and widow of your locality shall come and eat their fill, in order that your God Jehovah may bless you in all your activities.

1 2 “Once in seven years you shall make a remission. And this is the definition of the remission: ‘every creditor to remit his claim that he holds over his neighbor'; he is not to exact anything from his neighbor and brother, because a remission on Jehovah's account is proclaimed. From a foreigner you may exact, but what you have in your brother's hands you shall remit your claim on. There will not be any poor man among you, though, because Jehovah will bless you in the country Jehovah is giving to you as an estate to take possession of, if only you obey your God Jehovah, taking care to live up to all this commandment that I am enjoining on you today, because your God Jehovah will have blessed you as he promised you and you shall lend to many nations and not borrow yourselves, and rule over many nations and not be ruled over by them.

"When there is among you a poor man, any one of your brothers in any of your localities in your country that your God Jehovah is giving you, you shall not be obdurate and shut your hand against your poor brother, but open your hand to him and lend him the amount he is in want of. Beware of harboring a vicious suggestion, 'The seventh year, the year of the remission, is near,' and begrudging your poor brother the help and not giving it to him, and letting him cry to Jehovah against you, which would be sin in you; you shall give to him and not feel badly over giving to him, because on account of this your God Jehovah will bless you in all your doings and undertakings. For never will a poor man cease to be found in the country: for this reason I give you the command 'You shall open your hand to your brother, your downtrodden and your poor, in your country.'

"When your Hebrew brother or sister is sold to you, he shall serve you six years, and in the seventh year you shall let him go free. And when you let him go free you shall not send him off empty-handed: you shall garnish him out of your flocks and your threshing and your winepress; as your God Jehovah has blessed you you shall give to him. And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and your God Jehovah redeemed you; that is why I give you this commandment today.

"And when he says to you 'I will not go out from you' because he likes you and your house because he is well off with you, you shall take an awl and run it through his ear into the door, and he shall be permanently your slave; and you shall do the same with your maid too.

"You shall not think it hard when you let him go free, because for six years his service to you has been twice a hired man's pay; and your God Jehovah will bless you in everything you do.

"Every firstborn male that is born in your flocks and herds you shall consecrate to your God Jehovah: you shall not work your firstborn bull nor shear your firstborn sheep; before your God Jehovah you shall eat it annually at the place Jehovah chooses, you and your family. And when there is a defect in it, lame or blind, any bad defect, you shall not sacrifice it to your God Jehovah, you shall eat it in

- your locality, the unclean and the clean together, like the gazelle and the deer; only its blood you shall not eat, you shall let it run out on the ground like water.

CHAPTER 16

- 1 "Observe the green-ear month and celebrate a passover to your God Jehovah, because in the green-ear month your God Jehovah 2 brought you out of Egypt by night. And you shall sacrifice as pass-over to your God Jehovah sheep and goats and cattle, in the place
3 Jehovah chooses to install his name in. You shall not eat with it anything raised; for seven days you shall eat matzoth with it, hard-times bread, because you came out of Egypt hurriedly, in order that you may remember the day of your coming out of Egypt as long as you 4 live; and you shall not have yeast seen anywhere in your territory for seven days. And none of the meat you kill at evening on the first 5 day shall lie over till morning. You cannot kill the passover in any 6 of your localities that your God Jehovah gives you, but at the place your God Jehovah chooses to install his name in, there you shall kill 7 the passover at sunset, the date of your coming out of Egypt; and you shall boil it and eat it at the place your God Jehovah chooses, 8 and turn round in the morning and go home. Six days you shall eat matzoth, and on the seventh day there is a holiday in honor of your God Jehovah; you shall do no work.

- 9 "You shall count seven weeks, beginning your count of seven weeks 10 from the sickle's first touching the stalks, and celebrate a feast of weeks in honor of your God Jehovah with whatever voluntary offering 11 you can afford to give, as your God Jehovah shall bless you; and you shall rejoice before your God Jehovah, you and your son and daughter and your slave and the Levite of your locality, and the immigrant and orphan and widow you have among you, at the place your God 12 Jehovah shall choose to install his name in. And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and take care to put these usages in practice.

- 13 "The feast of booths you shall celebrate for seven days when you are putting away the produce from your threshing-floor and wine-press, and rejoice in your feast, you and your son and daughter and your slave and the Levite and immigrant and orphan and widow 14 of your locality: for seven days you shall keep festival in honor of your God Jehovah at the place Jehovah shall choose, because your God Jehovah blesses you in all your revenues and all your activities; and you shall be altogether joyous.

- 16 "Three times in a year all your males shall appear before your God Jehovah at the place he shall choose, at the feast of matzoth and at the feast of weeks and at the feast of booths, and they shall not 17 appear before Jehovah empty-handed, but each with such gift as he can, in accordance with the blessing of your God Jehovah that he has given you.

18 "You shall establish judges and marshals in all your towns that your God Jehovah gives you tribe by tribe, and they shall judge the 19 people with just decisions. You shall not warp the law; you shall not recognize persons; you shall not take a bribe, because a bribe blinds 20 wise men's eyes and upsets honest men's business. You shall aim at evenhanded justice in order that you may live and possess the country your God Jehovah is giving you.

21 "You shall not plant an asherah of any wood beside your God 22 Jehovah's altar that you make to him. You shall not set yourself up an obelisk, which your God Jehovah hates.

1 "You shall not sacrifice to your God Jehovah a bull or sheep that has a defect about it, anything bad, because it is a thing your God Jehovah detests.

2 "When there is found among you in one of your towns that your God Jehovah gives you a man or woman who does what displeases 3 Jehovah, overstepping his covenant, and goes and worships other gods and does reverence to them and to the sun or the moon or all 4 the legions of the sky, which I have commanded you not to do, and you are told of it and, hearing, investigate thoroughly and find the fact is really authentic, this detestable thing has been done in Israel, 5 you shall bring that man or woman who have done this vile thing out 6 to your gates and stone them to death. On the word of two witnesses or of three the culprit shall be put to death; he shall not be put to 7 death on the word of one witness. The witnesses' hands shall be at him first in putting him to death, and the hands of all the people afterward; and you shall rout out the mischief from among you.

8 "When a question for judgment is too exceptional for you, between bloodshed and bloodshed, claim and claim, assault and assault, questions under litigation in your locality, you shall stand up and go to 9 the place your God Jehovah shall choose and come to the Levite priests and to such judge as there shall be in those days and inquire, 10 and they shall tell you the ruling; and you shall conform to the word they report to you from that place that Jehovah chooses, and 11 take care to do just as they instruct you. To the instructions they give you and the law they state to you you shall conform; you shall 12 not turn off to right or left from the word they report to you. And the man who takes a presumptuous course, not listening to the priest who stands to wait on your God Jehovah there or to the judge, that 13 man shall die and you shall rout out the mischief from Israel, and all the people shall hear and be afraid and not be presumptuous again.

14 "When you come to the country your God Jehovah is giving you and take possession of it and settle in it, and think 'We will establish 15 a king over us like all the nations around us,' you shall establish a king over you, whomever your God Jehovah chooses; it shall be from among your brothers that you establish a king over you; you cannot 16 put over you any foreigner who is not your brother. Only let him not have many ponies and send the people back to Egypt to get many ponies, when Jehovah has said to you 'You shall never go back over 17 that road again'; and he shall not have many wives and have his heart warped from its course; and of silver and gold he shall not 18 have very much. And when he takes his seat on his royal throne he shall write himself a copy of these instructions in a book from before 19 the Levite priests, and have it by him and read in it all his life, in order that he may learn to fear his God Jehovah, keeping his mind on all the points of these instructions and on these usages, to live up 20 to them, not feeling superior to his brothers and not turning aside from the commandment to right or to left, in order that he may long continue to reign among the Israelites, he and his sons.

CHAPTER 18

1 "The Levite priests, all the tribe of Levi, shall not have share and estate among the Israelites: they shall eat Jehovah's fire-offerings, 2 Jehovah's entail. And they shall have no estate among their brothers; Jehovah is their estate, as he promised them.

3 "This shall be the priests' due from the people: from the offerers of sacrifice, whether bull or sheep, the priest shall be given the 4 shoulder and the cheeks and the maw; the first of your grain, grape-juice, and oil, and the first of the fleeces of your sheep, you shall give 5 to him; because him Jehovah has chosen out of all your tribes to have him stand to officiate in Jehovah's name, him and his sons, evermore.

6 "And when a Levite comes from one of your localities anywhere in Israel where he has been finding a home, and comes in good earnest 7 to the place Jehovah chooses and officiates in the name of your God Jehovah like all his fellow-Levites who stand there before Jehovah, 8 they shall eat share and share alike, aside from his family acquaintances.

9 "When you come into the country your God Jehovah is giving you, you shall not learn to do like the detestable doings of those nations.
10 There shall not be found among you one who sends his child over through the fire, practices soothsaying or fortune-telling, or believes 11 in signs, or a wizard or sorcerer, or one who puts questions to a medium of any kind, or who consults the dead; for anyone who does these things is detestable to Jehovah, and it is on account of these 12 detestable doings that Jehovah is dispossessing them before you. You shall be straightforward with your God Jehovah.

14 "For these nations that you are dispossessing used to listen to fortune-tellers and soothsayers; but not so has your God Jehovah 15 given to you. Your God Jehovah will raise up for you a prophet from among yourselves, a brother of yours, like me; to him you shall listen.

16 Just as you asked your God Jehovah at Horeb on the day of the assembly, 'Let us not hear our God Jehovah's voice anymore, nor see 17 this great fire again, that we may not come to our death,' and Jehovah 18 said to me 'They are right in what they say; I will raise up for them a prophet from among their brothers, like you, and put my words in 19 his mouth, and he shall tell them whatever I commission him to; and the man who does not listen to his words which he speaks in my name 20 I will call to account. Only a prophet who has the audacity to speak in my name a word I have not commanded him to, or who speaks in 21 the name of other gods, that prophet shall die. And as to your saying to yourself 'How shall we know the word that Jehovah did not speak?' 22 what a prophet speaks in Jehovah's name and the thing is not a fact and does not come true, that is the thing Jehovah did not speak:
you shall not quail at him.

CHAPTER 19

1 "When your God Jehovah exterminates the nations whose country your God Jehovah is giving you, and you succeed to their possessions 2 and live in their cities and houses, you shall set apart three cities in your country that your God Jehovah is giving you to take possession 3 of; you shall prepare the road, and shall divide into three parts your territory that your God Jehovah bestows on you; and there shall 4 be a chance for every homicide to flee to them. And this is the definition of the homicide who is to flee to them and have his life spared:
'he who strikes his neighbor down without knowing it, not having 5 previously hated him.' And he who goes into the badlands with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand takes a swing with the ax to cut down a tree and the head slips off from the handle and hits his neighbor and causes his death, shall flee to one of these cities and 6 have his life spared. That the blood-reclaimer may not pursue the homicide while his heart is hot, and overtake him because the distance is too great, and strike to his life, when there was no capital case 7 against him because he had not previously hated him, this is the reason 8 why I give you the command 'You shall set apart three cities'; and if your God Jehovah enlarges your territory as he swore to your fathers and gives you all the country he promised your fathers to give, 9 because you take care to live up to all this commandment that I am enjoining on you today, loving your God Jehovah and walking in his ways evermore, then you shall add three cities more to these three, 10 and not have innocent blood shed in your country that your God Jehovah is giving you as your estate, which would be a bloodstain in you.

11 "And when there shall be a man who hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him and stands up against him and strikes at his life so

- 12 that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities, the elders of his city 13 shall send and take him from there and give him into the hands of the blood-reclaimer to die. Your eye shall not have mercy on him, but you shall rout out the innocent blood from Israel, and it will be well for you.
- 14 "You shall not displace your neighbor's boundary-mark, which men of the old time located, in your estate which you are to enter upon in the country your God Jehovah is giving you to take possession of.
- 15 "One witness shall not appear against a man for any crime or misdemeanor in regard to any misdeed that one may commit: a point 16 shall be established on the word of two witnesses or of three. When a malicious witness appears against a man to testify wrongfully against 17 him, and the two men who are at issue stand before Jehovah, before 18 the priests and judges that there shall be in those days, and the judges look into it thoroughly and find that the witness is a false 19 witness, he has testified to a lie against his brother, you shall do to him as he designed to do to his brother, and rout out the mischief 20 from among you; and the rest shall hear of it and be afraid, and 21 never again do such a wicked thing among you. And your eye shall not have mercy: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, arm for arm, leg for leg.

- 1 "When you go out to battle against your enemies and see ponies and chariots and superior numbers, you shall not be afraid of them, because you have with you your God Jehovah who brought you up 2 out of Egypt. And when you join battle the priest shall come up and 3 speak to the men and say to them 'Listen, Israel: you are joining battle with your enemies today; do not be discouraged or afraid, 4 nervous or overawed, because of them, for it is your God Jehovah that goes with you fighting for you against your enemies, making you victorious.'
- 5 "And the marshals shall speak to the men and say to them 'Who is there that has built a new house and not performed the rites for beginning to use it? let him go home, for fear he should die in the 6 battle and another man perform the rites. And who is there that has set out a vineyard and not enjoyed fruit from it? let him go home, for fear he should die in the battle and another man have the first 7 enjoyment of the fruit. And who is there that has betrothed a wife and not married her? let him go home, for fear he should die in the 8 battle and another man marry her.' And the marshals shall go on to say to the men 'Who is there that is afraid and downhearted? let him go home and not have his brothers' hearts melt down like his.'
- 9 And when the marshals finish speaking to the men they shall appoint generals to head the men.

- 10 "When you approach a city to attack it you shall summon it to 11 surrender peaceably; and if it agrees to surrender and opens to you, 12 then all the people that are found in it shall be liable to forced labor 13 and be your subjects; but if it does not come to terms with you but 14 makes war with you, and you besiege it and Jehovah gives it into your 15 hands, you shall massacre all its males. Only the women and children 16 and cattle and everything in the city, all its booty, you shall plunder 17 for yourselves, and eat the booty of your enemies, which your God 18 Jehovah has given you. Thus you shall do to all the cities very distant 19 from you, which are not cities of these nations. Only of the cities 20 of these peoples that your God Jehovah is giving you as your estate you shall not leave alive anything that breathes, but destroy without quarter the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivvites and the Jebusites, as your God Jehovah has commanded you to, in order that they may not teach you to do the like of all the detestable things they do for their gods, so that you should sin against your God Jehovah.
- 19 "When you besiege a city for a long time, attacking it to capture it, you shall not ravage its trees, using an ax on them, but eat from them and not cut them; for are the trees of the countryside human, 20 to be besieged by you? Only the trees you know are not good for food you shall cut and use up, and build siege-works against the city that is making war with you till it comes down.

- 1 "When a man killed by violence is found lying in the open on the soil your God Jehovah gives you to possess, and it is unknown who 2 killed him, your elders and marshals shall go out and measure to 3 the cities around the murdered man; and whatever city is nearest to 4 the murdered man, the elders of that city shall take an unworked heifer, one that has never drawn in a yoke, and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to an unworked and unsown valley of a permanent stream and break the heifer's neck there in the valley; 5 and the priests, the sons of Levi, shall step up to it, because they are the ones your God Jehovah has chosen to officiate to him and to bless 6 in Jehovah's name, and every dispute and assault shall be judicable by their ruling; and all the elders of that city, those who are nearest 7 to the murdered man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose 8 neck has been broken in the valley and answer 'Our hands did not shed this blood and our eyes did not see the act; purge your people Israel whom you redeemed, Jehovah, and do not let innocent blood 9 stand against your people Israel,' and the blood shall be purged for them. And you shall rout out the innocent blood from among you when you do what Jehovah approves.
- 10 "When you go out to war against your enemies and your God Jehovah gives them into your hands and you carry off the non-

11 combatants as slaves, and you see among the captives a beautiful 12 woman and you take a fancy to her and take her as wife, you shall bring her indoors, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails 13 and take off the garment she had on when she was brought, and stay in your house and weep for her father and mother for a month; and after that you shall go in to her and assume a husband's rights, and 14 have her as wife. And if she does not suit your fancy you shall let her go as her own mistress, and not sell her for money; you must not make her an object of trade, considering that you deflowered her.

15 "When a man has two wives, one that he loves and one that he hates, and the one he loves and the one he hates bear him sons, and 16 the eldest son belongs to the one he hates, on the day when he settles his property on his sons he cannot give precedence to the son of the one he loves to the derogation of the elder-born son of the one he 17 hates, but shall recognize the eldest, the son of the one he hates, giving him a double share in everything of his that can be found, because he is the firstfruit of his powers, he has the rights of elder birth.

18 "When a man has a stubborn and disobedient son, one who will not do as his father and mother say, and chastises him but he does not 19 listen to them, his father and mother shall arrest him and bring him out to the gate of his place to the elders of his city and say to the 20 men of his city 'This son of ours is stubborn and disobedient, will not do as we say, eats and drinks recklessly,' and all the men of 21 his city shall stone him to death, and you shall rout out the mischief from among you, and all Israel shall hear and be afraid.

22 "And when a man is guilty of a capital offense and is put to death, 23 and you hang him on a tree, his body shall not stay on the tree overnight, but shall be buried the same day, because a man hanging is an insult to God; and you shall not defile your soil that your God Jehovah is giving you as your estate.

CHAPTER 22

1 "You shall not see your brother's cow or bull or sheep or goat running away and disregard it: you must get it back to your brother.
2 And if your brother is not near to you and is not known to you, you shall take it home into your house and keep it with you till your 3 brother inquires for it, and return it to him. And you shall do the same for his donkey, and the same for his cloak, and the same for any stray property of your brother's which he loses and you find:
you cannot disregard it.

4 "You shall not see your brother's donkey or ox fallen in the road and disregard them; you must help get them up.

5 "A woman shall not have on her a man's article, and a man shall not put on a woman's garment, because anyone who does these things is an abomination to your God Jehovah.

6 "When a bird's nestful happens in your way, in any tree or on the ground, chicks or eggs and the mother brooding the chicks or eggs, you shall not take the mother with the brood; you shall let the mother go and take the brood for yourself, so that it may be well with you and your time may be long.

"When you build a new house you shall make a parapet for your roof, and not get bloodguilt on your house when someone falls from it.

"You shall not sow your vineyard for a twofold crop for fear the filling should be forfeit to sacred uses, the crop you sow and the produce of the vineyard.

"You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

"You shall not wear linsey-woolsey, woolen and linen together.

"You shall make yourself fringes on all four flap-edges of the garment you cover yourself with.

"When a man takes a wife and goes in to her and takes an aversion to her and lays outrageous charges against her and defames her, and says 'I married this woman and cohabited with her and did not find evidence of her virginity,' the girl's father and mother shall take the evidence of the girl's virginity and bring it out to the gate of the city to the elders, and the girl's father shall say to the elders 'I gave this man my daughter in marriage and he took an aversion to her, and here he has laid outrageous charges saying "I did not find evidence of your daughter's virginity," when this is the evidence of my daughter's virginity,' and they shall spread out the blanket before the elders of the city. And the elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him, and fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give it to the girl's father, because he defamed Israelite maidenhood; and he shall have her as wife, he cannot divorce her as long as he lives.

"But if this charge is true, evidence of the girl's virginity was not found, they shall bring the girl out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death because she has committed a scandal in Israel, prostituting her father's house; and you shall rout out the mischief from among you.

"When a man is found lying with a married woman they shall both die, the man that lay with the woman and the woman herself, and you shall rout out the mischief from among you.

"When there is a maiden girl betrothed to a man, and a man finds her in town and lies with her, you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city and stone them to death, the girl for her not having screamed in town and the man for his having deflowered another's wife; and you shall rout out the mischief from among you.

"But if it is in the open country that the man finds the betrothed girl and takes hold of her and lies with her, only the man that lies with her shall die; you shall not do anything to the girl; the girl has no capital guilt, for this case is the same as when a man sets upon another and murders him, because it was in the open country that he found her; the betrothed girl screamed and there was nobody to help her.

28 "When a man finds an unbetrothed maiden girl and seizes her and 29 lies with her, and they are found, the man that lies with her shall give the girl's father fifty shekels of silver and shall have her as his wife; considering that he deflowered her, he cannot divorce her as long as he lives.

30 "A man shall not take his father's wife and turn back the flap of his father's blanket.

1 "A man with the organ of sex mutilated shall not come into Jehovah's assembly.

2 "A child of incest shall not come into Jehovah's assembly, nor shall even a descendant of his in the tenth generation.

3 "An 'Ammonite or Moabite shall not come into Jehovah's assembly, nor shall even a descendant of theirs in the tenth generation, forever, 4 for their not having offered you bread and water on the way at your coming out of Egypt and their having hired Balaam the son of Be'or
5 against you from Pethor in Mesopotamia to misspeak you—but your God Jehovah would not listen to Balaam, and your God Jehovah 6 turned the curse into a blessing for you, because your God Jehovah loved you. You shall never in all your days attempt anything for their welfare or advantage, world without end.

7 "You shall not hold an Edomite in abhorrence, because he is your brother; nor an Egyptian, because you were an immigrant in his 8 country. Descendants of theirs in the third generation shall come into Jehovah's assembly.

9 "When you go out on a campaign against your enemies you shall 10 be on your guard against any bad thing. When there is among you a man who becomes unclean by an occurrence in the night, he shall go 11 outside the camp, shall not come inside the camp; and when evening is drawing on he shall bathe in water, and at sunset he shall come 12 inside the camp. And you shall have a signpost outside the camp, 13 and go outside there; and you shall have a spud on your weapon, and when you sit down outside you shall dig a hole with it and cover 14 your droppings up again. For your God Jehovah is walking about within your camp to see you through and give your enemies to be defeated before you; and your camp shall be holy, and he shall not see any piece of indecency among you and go back from following you.

15 "You shall not hand over to his master a slave who makes his escape from his master to you; he shall live with you, in your midst, in the place he chooses, in any of your localities where he is well off; you shall not make it hard for him.

17 "There shall not be a religious prostitute, of either sex, who comes from the sons of Israel.

- 18 "You shall not bring a prostitute's tip or a dog's price into the house of your God Jehovah for any vow, because both are things your God Jehovah detests.
- 19 "You shall not charge your brother interest on money, interest on food, interest on anything that may bear interest. To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not, in order that your God Jehovah may bless you in all your undertakings in the country you are going into to take possession of it.
- 21 "When you make a vow to your God Jehovah you shall not be backward about fulfilling it; for your God Jehovah would call you to account for it, and it would count against you as a sin, but when you refrain from vowing it does not count as a sin. What has come out of your lips you shall take care to do, as you have vowed to your God Jehovah a voluntary offering that you promised with your own mouth.
- 24 "When you go into your neighbor's vineyard you shall eat your fill of grapes as your appetite bids you, but not put any into any receptacle of yours. When you go into your neighbor's grainfield you shall pick green ears in your hand, but you shall not put a sickle to your neighbor's grainfield.

CHAPTER 24

- 1 "When a man marries a woman, if he is dissatisfied with her because he has found something wrong with her, and writes her a certificate of divorce and hands it to her and sends her out of his house, and she goes out of his house and goes and belongs to another man, and the later husband hates her and writes her a certificate of divorce and sends her out of his house, or when the later husband who has married her dies, her former husband who had divorced her cannot take her for his wife again after she has been defiled, because that is an abomination before Jehovah; and you shall not make the country your God Jehovah is giving to you as your estate sinful.
- 5 "When a man has taken a new wife he shall not come out with the militia nor be counted in it for any purpose; he shall be exempt for his home for one year and enjoy himself with the wife he has married.
- 6 "One shall not hold a quern or quern-stone as a pawn, for he would be holding a life.
- 7 "When a man is found stealing a person who is one of his brothers the sons of Israel, and making him an object of trade and selling him, that thief shall die and you shall rout out the mischief from among you.
- 8 "Be on your guard about leprosy, taking the utmost care and doing just as the Levite priests instruct you; as I have commanded them
- 9 you shall take care to do. Remember what your God Jehovah did with Miriam on the way while we were coming out of Egypt.
- 10 "When you lend your neighbor any sort of loan you shall not go

- 11 into his house to get his pledge: you shall stand outside and the 12 man you are lending to shall bring the pledge outside to you. And if he is a man in straitened circumstances you shall not go to bed 13 in his pledge: you must return the pledge to him at sunset, and he will go to bed in his blanket and bless you, and it will be a good deed of yours before your God Jehovah.
- 14 "You shall not hold up the pay of a poor and needy hired man, either a brother of yours or one of your immigrants in your country, 15 in your localities: you shall give him his pay on the day it is due, the sun shall not go down on it, because he is needy and is counting on it; and he will not call out against you to Jehovah, which would count against you for a sin.
- 16 "Fathers shall not be put to death for children, nor children for fathers; each shall be put to death for his own misdoing.
- 17 "You shall not warp the law against an immigrant, an orphan, 18 or a widow, nor take a widow's garment in pawn, but remember that you were a slave in Egypt and your God Jehovah redeemed you from there—that is why I am commanding you to do this.
- 19 "When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a shock in the field you shall not go back to get it; the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow shall have it, so that your God Jehovah may bless you 20 in everything you put your hands to. When you beat your olive-tree you shall not go over it again branch by branch; the immigrant, the 21 orphan, and the widow shall have it. When you pick your grapes you shall not hunt over for the leavings; the immigrant, the orphan, and 22 the widow shall have them. And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt—that is why I am commanding you to do this.

- 1 "When there is a litigation between men and they come into court and are judged, and you decide for the one who is in the right and 2 condemn the one who is in the wrong, if the one who is in the wrong is to have a beating the judge shall have him laid down and beaten 3 before him by count in proportion to his guilt. He shall give forty strokes and no more, lest he should give many more than this and your brother be cheapened before you.
- 4 "You shall not muzzle a bull when it treads a threshing.
- 5 "When brothers are living together and one of them dies childless, the dead man's wife shall not pass to an outsider; her brother-in-law shall go in to her and marry her and do a brother-in-law's duty by 6 her; and the eldest son she bears shall be counted in the name of his dead brother, and his name shall not be obliterated out of Israel.
- 7 But if the man does not feel like marrying his sister-in-law, and his sister-in-law goes up to the gate to the elders and says 'My brother-in-law refuses to set up a name in Israel for his brother, he is not 8 willing to do a brother-in-law's duty by me,' and the elders of his city summon him and speak to him, and he stands and says 'I do 9 not feel like marrying her,' then his sister-in-law shall step up to him under the eyes of the elders and take off his shoe from his foot and spit in his face and testify 'This is the way the man who does not 10 build up his brother's house is treated,' and he shall be designated in Israel as 'Shoe-Off's family.'

11 "When men are tussling together, brother with brother, and the wife of one comes up to rescue her husband out of the hands of the one who is striking him and puts out her hand and takes hold of 12 his private parts, you shall cut off her hand, your eye shall have no mercy.

13 "You shall not have in your bag different weights, a larger and a 14 smaller. You shall not have in your house different bushels, a larger 15 and a smaller. You shall have a full and honest weight, a full and honest bushel, in order that you may have a long time on the soil 16 your God Jehovah is giving you; for anyone who does these things, anyone who commits fraud, is detestable to your God Jehovah.

17 "Remember what the 'Amalekites did to you on the way when you 18 were coming out of Egypt, how they met you on the way and cut off all the exhausted ones that had fallen behind you when you were 19 faint and tired, and they had no fear of God. And when your God Jehovah has given you rest from all your enemies on all sides in the country your God Jehovah is giving you as an estate to take possession of, you shall obliterate the memory of 'Amalek from under the heavens; you are not to forget it.

CHAPTER 26

1 "And when you come into the country your God Jehovah is giving 2 you as your estate, and take possession of it and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the soil that you get in off your country that your God Jehovah is giving to you, and lay it in a basket and go to the place your God Jehovah chooses to install 3 his name in, and you shall come to the priest that there shall be in those days and say to him 'I avow today to my God Jehovah that I have come to the country Jehovah swore to our fathers to give to us'; 4 and the priest shall take the basket out of your hands and set it 5 down before the altar of your God Jehovah. And you shall testify before your God Jehovah 'My father was a Syrian at death's door who went down to Egypt and settled there as an immigrant with a few people, and there he became a great and goodly and numerous 6 nation; and the Egyptians ill-treated us and wore us down and over-7 worked us, and we cried to our fathers' God Jehovah, and Jehovah listened to our voice and saw our wretched state and our suffering and 8 our oppression; and Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand and an outstretched arm and with a great terror and with 9 tokens and prodigies, and brought us to this place and gave us this

10 country, a country that runs milk and honey. And now here I have brought the first of the fruit of the soil you have given me, Jehovah.' And you shall set it down before your God Jehovah and do reverence 11 before your God Jehovah, and rejoice in all the good things your God Jehovah has given you, you and your family and the Levite and the immigrant you have among you.

12 "When you finish taking out all the tithe of your produce in the third year, the tithing year, you shall give it to the Levite, the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow, and they shall eat their fill of it 13 in your locality. And you shall say before your God Jehovah 'I have both routed out the sacred from my house and given it to the Levite and the immigrant, the orphan and the widow, in full accordance with the command you gave me; I have not broken nor forgotten any of 14 your commands. I have not eaten any of it in trouble, nor routed out any of it in any unclean way, nor given any of it to a dead person; I have obeyed my God Jehovah, I have done just as you commanded 15 me. Look down from your holy dwelling heaven and bless your people Israel and the soil that you have given to us as you swore to our fathers that you would, a country that runs milk and honey.'

16 "This day your God Jehovah is commanding you to live by these usages and laws; and you shall take care that you do live up to them 17 with all your heart and soul. You have engaged Jehovah today to let you have him for your God and walk in his ways and keep his 18 usages and commandments and laws and obey him; and Jehovah has engaged you today to be a people specially his own, as he promised 19 you, and to keep all his commandments, and that he should set you high over all the nations he has made for praise and fame and glory, and that you should be a holy people to your God Jehovah as he promised."

CHAPTER 27

1 And Moses and the elders of Israel gave the people a command, 2 "Keep all of this commandment that I am giving you today, and on the day that you cross the Jordan into the country your God Jehovah 3 is giving to you set up great stones and coat them with plaster and write on them all the words of this code, when you go across, in order that you may come into the country your God Jehovah is giving to 4 you, a country that runs milk and honey, as your fathers' God Jehovah promised you. And when you cross the Jordan you shall set up on Mount 'Ebal these stones about which I am giving you this 5 order today, and coat them with plaster; and you shall build an altar there to your God Jehovah, an altar of stones to which you do 6 not put iron. Of natural stones you shall build the altar of your 7 God Jehovah, and offer on it burnt-offerings to your God Jehovah and sacrifice welfare-sacrifices, and eat there and rejoice before your God

8 Jehovah. And you shall write on the stones all the words of this code very plainly."

9 And Moses and the Levite priests spoke to all Israel, saying "Be quiet and listen, Israel: this day you have become your God Jehovah's own people, and you are to obey your God Jehovah and live up to his commandments and usages which I am enjoining on you today."

11 12 And on that day Moses gave the people the order "These shall stand to bless the people, on Mount Gerizzim, when you cross the Jordan: Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issacar and Joseph and Benjamin. And these shall stand for the curse, on Mount 'Ebal: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. And the Levites shall testify to all the men of Israel in a loud voice, 15 "'Cursed is the man who makes a statue of any material, an abomination to Jehovah, a work of a craftsman's hands, and sets it up in secret'; and all the people shall answer 'Amen.'

16 "'Cursed is he who treats his father and mother disrespectfully'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

17 "'Cursed is he who displaces his neighbor's boundary-mark'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

18 "'Cursed is he who misdirects a blind man on his way'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

19 "'Cursed is he who warps the law against an immigrant, an orphan, or a widow'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

20 "'Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, because he has turned back the flap of his father's blanket'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

21 "'Cursed is he who lies with any beast'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

22 "'Cursed is he who lies with his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

23 "'Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

24 "'Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor down in secret'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

25 "'Cursed is he who takes a bribe to strike at life, shedding innocent blood'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

26 "'Cursed is he who does not accept all the clauses of this code to live by them'; and all the people shall say 'Amen.'

1 "And if you obey your God Jehovah, taking care to live up to all his commandments which I am enjoining on you today, your God Jehovah will set you high over all the nations on earth, and all these blessings will come true for you and overtake you, because you obey your God Jehovah: Blessed shall you be in the city and blessed in the field. Blessed shall be your fruit of body and your fruit of soil

5 6 and your fruit of cattle, the propagation of your kine and of your 7 sheep. Blessed shall be your basket and your mixing-bowl. Blessed 8 shall you be when you come in and blessed when you go out. Jehovah 9 will give your enemies who stand up against you to be beaten by you: 10 they shall come out at you on one road and run from you on seven.
11 Jehovah will bid the blessing accompany you into your barns and into 12 all your undertakings, and will bless you in the country your God 13 Jehovah is giving you. Jehovah will adopt you as his own holy people, 14 as he swore to you, when you keep all your God Jehovah's command-15 ments and walk in his ways; and all the peoples of the earth will 16 see that you wear Jehovah's name and be afraid of you. And Jehovah 17 will make you affluent in fruit of body and fruit of cattle and fruit 18 of soil on the soil Jehovah swore to your fathers to give you. Jehovah 19 will open for you his good treasury the sky, giving your country its 20 rain seasonably and blessing all your doings; and you shall lend to 21 many nations, but you shall not borrow. And Jehovah will make you 22 head and never tail, and you will constantly be up and never down, 23 when you listen to your God Jehovah's commandments which I am 24 enjoining on you today, taking care to live up to them, and do not 25 deviate to right or to left from any of the things I am enjoining on 26 you today, following other gods to worship them.

27 "But if you do not obey your God Jehovah, taking care to live up 28 to all his commandments and usages which I am enjoining on you 29 today, all these maledictions will come true for you and overtake 30 you: Cursed shall you be in the city and cursed in the field. Cursed 31 shall be your basket and your mixing-bowl. Cursed shall be your fruit 32 of body and your fruit of soil, the propagation of your kine and of 33 your sheep. Cursed shall you be when you come in and cursed when 34 you go out. Jehovah will send upon you curse and confusion and 35 condemnation in every action you undertake, until you are ruined 36 and perish quickly for the viciousness of your behavior in leaving me.
37 Jehovah will make pestilence persistent among you till he exterminates 38 you off the soil you are going to to take possession of it. Jehovah 39 will smite you with slow fever and quick fever, with ague and with 40 influenza, and with drought and blasting and mildew, and they will 41 follow you up till you perish. And your sky over your heads will be 42 bronze, and the earth under your feet iron; Jehovah will make the 43 rain of your country dust and powder coming down on you out of 44 the sky till you are ruined. Jehovah will give you to be beaten by 45 your enemies: you will go out at them on one road and run from 46 them on seven; and you will be victims to all kingdoms on earth.
47 And your bodies will be food for all the birds of the air and all the 48 beasts on the earth, with nobody scaring them.

49 "Jehovah will smite you with the Egyptian pustule and with buboes 50 and the scab and the itch incurably. Jehovah will smite you with 29 insanity and blindness and imbecility, and you will be groping at noon as a blind man gropes in the gloom, and not succeed in your pursuits; and you will be just robbed and refused justice all the time 30 and have no one to take your part. You will betroth a woman and another man will embrace her; you will build a house and not live in 31 it; you will plant a vineyard and not eat fruit from it. Your bull will be slaughtered before your eyes and you not eat any of it, your donkey stolen in your presence and you not get it back, your sheep 32 be given to your enemy and you have no one to take your part; your sons and daughters will be given to another people with your eyes 33 seeing it and pining for them all day, and you be helpless; a people that you do not know will eat the fruit of your soil and all that comes of your toil, and you will be simply persecuted and refused jus-34 35 tice all the time; and you will go insane at the sights you see. Jehovah will smite you with virulent pustules in your legs and thighs, infecting 36 you incurably from head to foot. Jehovah will consign you and your king whom you set up over you to a nation that you and your fathers had never known, and there you will worship other gods, wood and 37 stone. And you will be a horror, a byword, and a jeer among all the peoples to which Jehovah will drive you.

38 "You will carry much seed out to the field and get in little because 39 the grasshoppers gnaw it down. You will plant and work vineyards and not drink wine nor pack away raisins, because the worms eat 40 it up. You will have olive-trees all through your territory and not 41 rub yourself with oil, because your olive-trees drop their fruit. You will beget children and not have them, because they go into foreign 42 43 slavery. All your trees and crops the crickets will appropriate. The immigrant among you will come up and up over you, and you go down 44 and down; he will lend to you and you not lend to him; he will come 45 to be head and you to be tail. And all these curses will come true for you, and follow you up and overtake you till you are ruined, because you did not obey your God Jehovah, keeping his commandments and 46 usages which he enjoined upon you; and they will be a token and a portent on you and on your descendants forever.

47 "In return for not having worshiped Jehovah in cheer and jollity 48 over abundance of everything, you will slave for your enemy whom Jehovah sends upon you in hunger and thirst and nakedness and destitution of everything, and he will put on your neck an iron 49 yoke till he exterminates you. Jehovah will fetch a nation against you from afar, from the edge of the earth, as a vulture swoops down: 50 a nation whose language you do not understand, a hard-faced nation 51 that shows no respect to old man nor favor to child; and it will eat the fruit of your cattle and of your soil till you are ruined because it does not leave you grain, grape-juice, nor oil, the propagation of 52 your kine nor of your sheep, till it destroys you. And it will besiege you in all your localities till your high castled walls in which you trust go down throughout your country; and it will besiege you in all your localities throughout your country that your God Jehovah 53 has given you, and you will eat the fruit of your body, the flesh of your children whom your God Jehovah has given you, in the hard-54 pressed siege with which your enemy presses you: the very daintiest and most delicate man among you will be too stingy with his brother and his bosom wife and the rest of his children whom he lets be left 55 to give one of them any of his children's flesh that he eats, because he has nothing left at all in the hard-pressed siege with which your 56 enemy presses you in all your localities. The daintiest and most delicate woman among you, who for delicacy and daintiness has not tried her foot for resting her weight on the ground, will be stingy 57 with her bosom husband and her son and daughter over her after-birth that comes out of her own body and her children that she gives birth to, when for lack of everything she eats them in secret in the hard-pressed siege with which your enemy presses you in your localities.

58 "If you do not take care to live up to all the points of this code, which are written in this book, fearing this glorious and fearful name 59 YOUR GOD JEHOVAH, Jehovah will deal extraordinary blows at you and at your descendants, great and sure blows and malignant and obstinate 60 diseases, and send back on you all the Egyptian distempers before 61 which you quailed, and they will persist among you. Jehovah will also bring down on you every disease and every blow that is not 62 written in the book of this code till you are ruined; and you will remain a few people, whereas you had been like the stars of the sky
63 in number, because you did not obey your God Jehovah; and as Jehovah had delighted in doing you good and multiplying you, so Jehovah will delight in destroying you and ruining you, and you will be torn off from the soil you are going to take possession of 64 it. And Jehovah will scatter you through all the peoples from end to end of the earth, and there you will worship other gods that 65 neither you nor your fathers knew, wood and stone; and among those nations you will not take your ease and will get no resting-place for your feet, but Jehovah will give you there an unquiet heart and 66 consuming eyes and a despairing soul. And your life will be dangling before your face, and you will be in dread night and day and have 67 no confidence in your life. In the morning you will say 'O for evening!' and in the evening 'O for morning!' for the dread at heart that you 68 feel and the sights that you see. And Jehovah will send you back to Egypt on ships over the road that I told you you should never see again; and there you will offer to sell yourselves to your enemies as slaves and there will be no buyer."

1 These are the terms of the covenant Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in Moab, besides the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.

2 And Moses called all Israel and said to them "You have seen all that Jehovah did before your eyes in Egypt to the Pharaoh and all his subjects and all his country, the great tests that your eyes saw and those tokens and prodigies; but Jehovah did not give you a heart to know nor eyes to see nor ears to hear, to this day. And I took you through the wilderness for forty years: your clothes and shoes did not give out, you did not eat bread nor drink wine or beer, in order that you might know that I am your God Jehovah. And you came to this place and King Sihon of Heshbon and King 'Og of the Bashan came out to meet us in battle, and we defeated them and took their country and gave it as a domain to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh. So keep the terms of this covenant and live up to them, in order that you may do well in everything you have in hand.

10 "You have taken your stand today before your God Jehovah, your chiefs, your tribes, your elders, and your marshals, all the men of Israel, your children, your wives, and your foreign inmates in your camp, your wood-gatherer and your water-carrier, to pass into the scope of your God Jehovah's covenant and adjuration in which your God Jehovah engages with you today in order to establish you today as his people and himself as your God, as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And it is not with you alone that I am engaging in this covenant and adjuration, but it is with him who is standing here with us today before your God Jehovah and with him who is not here with us today, because you know how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through the midst of the nations we did pass through, and you have seen their trash of fetishes, wood and stone, silver and gold, that they have among them, that there may not be in your community a man or woman or clan or tribe whose heart turns today from our God to go worshipping the gods of those nations; that there may not be among you a root that bears opium and wormwood, and when he hears the words of this adjuration he inwardly blesses himself, saying 'All right for me though I do walk in my willful way,' so as to sweep away meadow with sandbank. Jehovah will not consent to forgive him, but Jehovah's anger and jealousy will then be smoking hot against that man, and all the adjuration written in this book will stick fast to him, and Jehovah will obliterate his name from under the heavens, and Jehovah will set him apart out of all the tribes of Israel for disaster in accordance with all the adjuration of the covenant written in this book of the code.

22 "And the later generation, your sons who stand up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant country, who sees the blows that fall on that country and the infections Jehovah will taint it with, sulfur and alkali, all the country burnt over, never planted, never sprouting, no green things growing in it, like the place of the overthrow of Sodom and Ghomorrah, Admah and Sebojim, which Jehovah overthrew in his anger and choler,—all the nations will say ‘On what account did Jehovah do like that to this country? what does this great anger mean?’ and they will say ‘On account of their having abandoned the covenant of their fathers’ God Jehovah which he had made with them when he brought them out of Egypt, and gone and worshiped other gods and done reverence to them, gods that they had never known nor had them allotted to them; and Jehovah was angry with this country, bringing upon it all the curse written in this book, and Jehovah uprooted them from their soil in anger and resentment and great wrath and threw them into another country as at this day.’

“Veiled things belong to our God Jehovah, but revealed things to us and our children forever, to live up to all the points of this code.

“And when all these things come true for you, the blessing and the curse that I have put before you, and you turn your hearts back among all the nations where your God Jehovah has banished you, and turn back to your God Jehovah and obey him just as I am commanding you today, you and your sons, with all your heart and soul, your God Jehovah will come back to you and feel a tenderness for you and turn back and gather you out of all the peoples where your God Jehovah has scattered you: if your exile be at the edge of the sky, from there your God Jehovah will gather you and from there he will take you, and your God Jehovah will bring you to the country your fathers had possessed, and you shall possess it, and he will do you good and make you more numerous than your fathers. And your God Jehovah will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants to love your God Jehovah with all your heart and soul so that you may live; and your God Jehovah will put all these maledictions on your enemies and haters who have been pursuing you; and you will come back to obeying Jehovah and living up to all his commandments which I am enjoining on you today. And your God Jehovah will make you affluent in all your affairs, in fruit of body and fruit of cattle and fruit of soil, because Jehovah will come back to delighting in your welfare as he did in your fathers’ welfare, when you obey your God Jehovah, keeping his commandments and usages written in this book of the code, because you turn back to your God Jehovah with all your heart and soul.

“For this commandment that I am enjoining on you today is nothing impracticable nor remote; it is not in the sky for you to say ‘If only someone would go up to the sky for us and get it for us and 13 let us have it and we might live up to it!' neither is it across the sea for you to say 'If only someone would cross to the other side of the sea for us and get it for us and let us have it and we might live up 14 to it!' but the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, for you to live up to.

15 "See, I have put before you today life and good, and death and 16 evil. If you listen to the commandments of your God Jehovah that I am enjoining on you today, loving your God Jehovah, walking in his ways and keeping his usages and laws, you shall live and multiply and your God Jehovah will bless you in the country you are going 17 into to take possession of it; but if your heart turns and you do not listen, but get astray and do reverence to other gods and worship 18 them, I tell you today you shall perish; you shall not have a long time on the soil you are crossing the Jordan to get to to take pos-19 session of it. I call to witness against you today the heavens and the earth, life and death I have put before you, the blessing and the curse: choose life, so that you may live, you and your descendants; 20 choose life, to love your God Jehovah, to obey him and hold fast to him, because that is life for you and a long time to stay on the soil Jehovah swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give to them."

CHAPTER 31

1 2 And Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel; and he said to them "I am a hundred and twenty years old today, I can no longer go out or in, and Jehovah has said to me 'You are not to cross 3 this Jordan.' Your God Jehovah, he is crossing before you; he will root out these nations before you and you shall have their possessions.
 4 Joshua', he is crossing before you, as Jehovah promised. And Jehovah will do to them as he did to Kings Sihon and 'Og of the Amorites 5 and to their country, whom he rooted out; and Jehovah will give them up to your conquest, and you shall treat them in full conformity with 6 the orders I have given you. Courage, and do your best; do not be afraid nor stand in awe of them, because it is your God Jehovah who goes with you; he will not neglect you nor abandon you."

7 And Moses called Joshua' and said to him before the eyes of all Israel "Courage, and do your best, because it is you that are to bring this people to the country Jehovah swore to their fathers to give to 8 them, and it is you that are to assign it to them, and it is Jehovah who goes before you; he will be with you, he will not neglect you nor abandon you; do not be afraid nor dismayed."

9 And Moses wrote down this code and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of Jehovah's covenant, and 10 to all the elders of Israel. And Moses gave them the command "Once in seven years, at the period of the year of remission, at the feast of 11 booths, when all Israel come to appear before your God Jehovah at the place he chooses, you shall read this code in the presence and 12 hearing of all Israel, assembling the people, men and women and children and your immigrants who live in your localities, in order that they may hear and may learn and fear your God Jehovah and take 13 care to live up to all the clauses of this code; and their sons who had not known shall hear and learn to fear your God Jehovah all the time you are alive on the soil you are crossing the Jordan to to take possession of it."

14 And Jehovah said to Moses "Here your time for dying has almost come; call Joshua', and you and he take your stand at the Tent of Meeting, and I will commission him." And Moses and Joshua' took 15 their stand at the Tent of Meeting, and Jehovah appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood at the door of the Tent.

16 And Jehovah said to Moses "Here you are to go to rest with your fathers, and this people will start out and prostitute themselves to follow foreign gods, and abandon me and break my covenant that I 17 have made with them; and I shall be angry with them in that day and abandon them and veil my face from them, and they will be for eating up, and great mischiefs and distresses will come upon them; and they will think in that day 'It must be because we do not have 18 our God among us that these mischiefs have come upon us.' But I shall be veiling my face from them in that day because of all the mischiefs 19 they have done in that they turned to other gods. And now write down this song and teach it to the sons of Israel, put it in their mouths, in order that I may have this song as a witness against the 20 sons of Israel. For I will bring them to the soil I swore to their fathers, that runs milk and honey, and they will eat their fill and fatten and turn to other gods and worship them and treat me with 21 contempt and break my covenant; and when great mischiefs and distresses come upon them this song shall testify before them as a witness, because it will not be forgotten out of the mouths of their descendants. For I know their drift that they are acting on today be-22 fore I have brought them into the country I swore to." And Moses wrote this song on that day and taught it to the sons of Israel.

23 And he commissioned Joshua' the son of Nun and said "Courage, and do your best, because it is you that are to bring the sons of Israel to the country I swore to them; and I will be with you."

24 And when Moses finished writing the words of this code in a book, 25 clear to the end, Moses gave the Levites who carried the ark of 26 Jehovah's covenant the order "Take this book of the code and place it beside the ark of Jehovah's covenant to be a witness there against 27 your nation; for I know your disobedience and hard-neckedness.
Here while I am still alive with you today you have been disobedient 28 toward Jehovah; how much more after my death! Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your marshals and let me speak

- these words in their hearing and call the heavens and the earth to 29 witness against them, because I know after my death you will be vicious and turn off from the road I commanded you to follow, and mischievous will meet you in future days because you do what displeases 30 Jehovah, provoking him with your handiwork." And Moses recited in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song clear to the end.

CHAPTER 32

- 1 "Listen, heavens, and I will speak;
hear, earth, the words of my mouth.
2 My prompting shall drop like rain, my say shall trickle like dew, Like fine rain on plants and like showers on herbage, 3 Because I will proclaim Jehovah's name.
Give greatness to our God!
4 The Rock, his doing is faultless, for all his paths are the right;
A deity of fair dealing and no cheating, honest and straightforward is he.
5 Sons of disgrace have done viciously by him, a devious and shiftless generation.
6 Will you treat Jehovah thus, unreasonable and unwise people?
Is not he your Father that framed you, himself made you and organized you?
7 Remember the days of old, consider the years generation upon generation; Ask your father and let him tell you, your elders and let them say to you: 8 When the Lord above distributed nations, when he separated the sons of men, He set the boundaries of the peoples by the number of the sons of Deity, 9 Because Jehovah's portion is his people, Jacob is his marked-out estate.
10 He found them in wilderness country and in the howling chaos of the desert, He cared for them, gave his mind to them, guarded them like the apple of his eye; 11 Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, hovers over its young, Spreads its wings and takes them, carries them on its pinions,

- 12 Sole Jehovah led them and had no foreign deity with him.
- 13 He mounted them on earth's heights, and they ate crops of the champaign;
And he let them suck honey from cliffs and oil from pyrite rocks,
- 14 Clabber of cows and milk of sheep with fat of lambs,
And Bashan-bred rams, and he-goats, with richest wheat, and blood of grapes you drink in foam;
- 15 And Jeshurun grew fat and kicked, you grew fat, burly, lusty, And he abandoned the God who made him and held cheap the Rock of his salvation.
- 16 They took to stirring his jealousy with alien rivals, provoking him with abominations,
- 17 Sacrificing to non-divine demons, gods they did not know,
New ones that have come from the neighborhood, of whom your fathers never felt apprehensions.
- 18 Of the Rock that brought you forth you are unmindful and have forgotten the Deity who gave you birth.
- 19 And Jehovah saw, and was contemptuous at the provocation from his sons and daughters,
- 20 And said 'I will conceal my face from them, I will see what their future will be,
Because they are an ill-natured generation, children with no loyalty in them.
- 21 They have challenged my jealousy with what is not a deity, provoked me with their superstitions;
And I will challenge their jealousy with what is not a people, provoke them with an uncivilized nation.
- 22 For a fire of anger is kindled in my breath, and burns to the lowest of the world of the dead;
It will consume the earth and its growth and set ablaze the foundations of mountains.
- 23 I will sweep mischiefs upon them, exhaust my arrows on them:
- 24 Wasted with famine, fed on by firebolt and bitter infection, I will let loose beasts' teeth on them with venom of crawlers of the dust;
- 25 From outside shall the sword bereave, and out of the closets terror,

Of both youth and maiden, nursing babe with gray-haired man.
 26 I had thought I would dissipate them, abolish the memory of them from mankind, 27 But that I dreaded the insolence of enemies, for fear their foes should misconceive, For fear they should say "Our hand goes high, and it was not Jehovah that did all this," 28 Because they are an ill-advised nation, with no sense in them.
 29 If they were wise they would look into this, would consider their future: 30 How should one be chasing a thousand and two putting ten thousand to flight Unless their Rock had sold them and Jehovah had handed them over!
 31 For their Rock is not like ours even letting our enemies be judges.
 32 For their vine comes of the vines of Sodom and of the terraces of Ghomorrah, Their grapes are poison-berries, virulent clusters are theirs, 33 Reptiles' venom is their wine and vipers' cruel poison.
 34 Do I not have it laid away, sealed up in my arsenals, 35 For the day of vengeance and requital, for the time when their foot slips?
 For their day of calamity is near and destiny is hastening for them, 36 Because Jehovah will pronounce judgment for his people and repent as to his servants When he sees their powers are gone and there is nobody barred or unbarred, 37 And thinks 'Where are their gods, the rock that they took refuge in, 38 Those that eat the fat of their sacrifices, drink the wine of their libations?
 Let them stand up and help you,
 be a screen over you!
 39 See now that it is I, I, and there is no God with me;
 I put to death and bring to life, have mangled and I will heal, and there is no deliverer out of my hands.

40 For I raise my hand skyward and say "By my eternal life, 41 If I whet my lightning-sword and take judgment in hand I will pay my foes off in vengeance and settle with my haters, 42 I will let my arrows drink deep of their blood, and my sword shall eat flesh,
Of blood of battle-slain and prisoners, of the heads of the enemy's braves."' 43 Applaud his people, nations, because he avenges his servants' blood, He pays his foes off in vengeance and purges the guilt of his people's soil."

44 And Moses came and recited all the words of this song publicly 45 before the people, he and Joshua' the son of Nun. And Moses finished 46 telling all Israel all the words of this song, and said to them "Pay attention to all the words which I am inculcating on you today, that you enjoin them on your sons, to take care to live up to all the points 47 of this code, because it is not a thing too ideal for you, for it is your life and by this thing you will have a long time on the soil you are crossing the Jordan to to take possession of it."

48 49 And Jehovah said to Moses this very day "Go up on this highland across the river, Mount Nebo in Moab, facing Jericho, and see the country of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel as their 50 property, and die on the mountain you go up and be gathered to your kinsfolk, as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered 51 to his kinsfolk, for your having acted unfaithfully toward me among the sons of Israel at Meribah Water in Kadesh in the wilderness of Sin, for your not having recognized my holiness among the sons of 52 Israel. For you are to see the country before you, but not go in there, into the country I am giving to the sons of Israel."

CHAPTER 33

1 And this is the blessing Moses the man of God pronounced on the 2 sons of Israel before his death. Said he, "Jehovah came from Sinai and rose in the sky from Se'ir for them, Beamed from the highland of Paran and came from Meribah-of-Kadesh, from the right hand of the steep of Moab.
3 He cared for his people, all his sacred ones, with his own hand;
And they fell in behind you, took up words of yours

- 4 (a code Moses commanded to us).
His possession is the assemblage of Jacob, 5 and he became king in Jeshurun When heads of the people came together, the tribes of Israel unitedly.”
- 6 “Live Reuben long, not die, but be his people few.”
- 7 And this is for Judah; and he said “Hear Judah’s voice, Jehovah, and bring him in to his people;
His own hands took his part, and a help against his foes you will be.”
- 8 And for Levi he said “Give to Levi your Thummim, your Urim to the man of your friendship, Whom you tested at Massah, embroiled at Meribah Water, 9 Who said of his father and of his mother ‘I never saw him’ and did not recognize his brothers nor know his sons, Because they have kept your say and observe your covenant.
- 10 Let them instruct Jacob in your laws and Israel in your code, Lay burning under your nostril and holocaust on your altar.
- 11 Bless his valor, Jehovah, and accept his handiwork; Shatter the loins of those who stand up against him and those who hate him, beyond their standing up.”
- 12 For Benjamin he said “Jehovah’s darling shall dwell in safety:
He overarches him all day and dwells between his shoulders.”
- 13 And for Joseph he said “Blessed of Jehovah be his country By dower of sky above and by the deep that lies prostrate beneath, 14 By dower of crops of sun and by dower of output of moons 15 And by tops of ancient mountains and by dower of eternal hills 16 And by dower of earth and what it holds

- and the goodwill of the Bush-Dweller.
 Let them come for Joseph's head and for the brow of him who among his brothers was devotee.
- 17 His firstborn bull has stately port and his horns are the horns of a ure:
 With them he shall gore peoples, the ends of the earth together.
 These are the myriads of Ephraim and these the thousands of Manasseh."
- 18 And for Zebulun he said
 "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your outlet, and, Issacar, in your tents.
- 19 They shall call peoples mountainward, there they shall offer rightful sacrifices, For they shall suck tides of seas and the deepest-covered of things buried in sand."
- 20 And for Gad he said
 "Blessed be Gad's widener!
 He has lodged himself like a lion and chews up arm and pate too.
- 21 And he looked out a prime part for himself When their portions were determined there and the heads of the people came together.
 He did Jehovah's righteous work and his deeds of justice with Israel."
- 22 And for Dan he said
 "Dan is a lion-cub that sallies out from the Bashan."
- 23 And for Naphtali he said
 "Naphtali, replete with Jehovah's favor and full of his blessing, sea and south possess."
- 24 And for Asher he said
 "Most blessed of sons is Asher; Be he esteemed by his brothers and may he dip his feet in oil."
- 25 "Be your locks iron and bronze, and your strength match your lifetime.
- 26 There is none like Jeshurun's Deity, who rides the skies for his help, the heavens for his pride:
- 27 The old-time God is his covert and the eternal arms are underneath,

- And he has expelled enemies before him and said 'Root them out,' 28 And installed Israel in security, Jacob's spring alone,
In a country of grain and grape-juice;
his skies also drip dew.
29 Happy are you, Israel! who is like you, a people saved by Jehovah, Your shield of help and your sword of pride, That your enemies may cringe to you while you tread their heights."

CHAPTER 34

- 1 And Moses went up from the Moab flats to Mount Nebo, the head of the Pisgah facing Jericho, and Jehovah showed him all the country, 2 Gilead to Dan, and all Naphtali and the Ephraimite and Manassite 3 country and all the country of Judah to the western sea, and the South, and the Pale, the river-plain of Jericho the City of Palms, 4 down to Soghar. And Jehovah said to him "This is the country of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob 'To your descendants I will give it'; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not go 5 over there." And Jehovah's servant Moses died there in Moab by 6 Jehovah's decree, and he buried him in the valley, in Moab, in front 7 of Beth-Peghor; and no man knows his grave to this day. And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died; his eyes had not 8 grown dim nor his freshness taken flight. And the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the Moab flats thirty days.
9 And the days of mourning for Moses came to an end. And Joshua' the son of Nun was full of inspired wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the sons of Israel listened to him and did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
10 But there has not again stood up in Israel a prophet like Moses, 11 whom Jehovah knew face to face, for all the tokens and prodigies Jehovah sent him to do in Egypt to the Pharaoh and all his subjects 12 and all his country, and for all the strong hand and all the great terror that Moses achieved before the eyes of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA'

CHAPTER 1

- 1 And after the death of Jehovah's servant Moses, Jehovah said to 2 Joshua' the son of Nun, Moses's attendant, "My servant Moses is 3 dead; now set out and cross this Jordan, you and all this people, to 4 the country I am giving to them. Every place that your foot shall 5 tread on I have given to you, as I promised Moses. From the wilder-6 ness and the Lebanon to the great river, the river Euphrates, and to 7 the great sea where the sun sets, shall be your territory. Not a man 8 shall stand his ground before you as long as you live; as I was with 9 Moses I will be with you; I will not neglect you nor abandon you.
10 Courage, and do your best, because you shall establish this people in 11 the country I swore to their fathers to give them. Only courage, and 12 do your very best to take care to live up to all that my servant Moses 13 enjoined upon you; do not turn from it to right or to left, in order 14 that you may do well wherever you go. This book of the code is never 15 to pass out of your mouth: you are to study it day and night, in 16 order that you may take care to live up to everything that is written 17 in it, because then you will succeed in your efforts and will do well.
18 You have my orders: courage, and do your best; do not be overawed 19 nor dismayed, because your God Jehovah is with you wherever you 20 go." And Joshua' gave orders to the marshals of the people, "Pass 21 through the interior of the camp and give the people the order 'Get 22 ready provisions for yourselves, because in three days more you are 23 crossing this Jordan to go in to take possession of the country your 24 God Jehovah is giving to you to possess.' "
- 25 And to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of 26 Manasseh Joshua' said "Remember the thing Jehovah's servant Moses 27 enjoined on you: your God Jehovah is bringing you to rest and 28 giving you this country; your women, your children, and your stock 29 shall stay in the country Jehovah's servant Moses gave you on the 30 other side of the Jordan, but you shall go over under arms before 31 your brothers, all the first-class men, and help them, till Jehovah 32 brings your brothers to rest like you and they too take possession of 33 the country your God Jehovah is giving them, and you come back 34 to the country that is your possession, which Jehovah's servant 35 Moses gave to you on the other side of the Jordan." And they an-36 swered Joshua' "We will do just as you have ordered us and go 37 wherever you send us; we will obey you just the same as we obeyed 38 Moses; only your God Jehovah be with you as he was with Moses. Any 39 man who disobeys you and does not listen to your words as to any 40 order you give us shall be put to death; only courage, and do your 41 best."

1 And Joshua' the son of Nun sent from the Acacias two men as scouts quietly, with the commission "Go see the country, and Jericho." And they went, and came into the house of a prostitute named Rahab, and went to bed.

2 And the king of Jericho was told "Men from the sons of Israel have 3 come here tonight to examine the country"; and the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab "Hand out the men that went in to you, that have come to you, that have come to your house, because it was to 4 examine all the country that they came." And the woman took the two men and secreted them, and said "The men did come in to me, 5 but I did not know where they were from; and when the gate was going to be shut at dark the men went out. I do not know where the 6 men went; follow them up quick, you will overtake them." But she had taken them up on the roof and buried them in the flax-stalks 7 she had laid out on the roof; and the men pursued them on the Jordan road to the fords, and they shut the gate when the men pursuing them had gone out.

8 And they had not yet gone to bed when she came up on the roof 9 to them and said to the men "I know that Jehovah has given the 10 country to you, and that the terror of you has fallen on us because we have heard how Jehovah dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and 11 'Og, whom you cut down without quarter and we heard of it and our hearts melted down, and no spirit stood up again in anybody because of you, because your god Jehovah is a god in the sky above and on 12 the earth below. Now swear to me by Jehovah, because I have befriended you, and befriend me and my family and give me a pledge of loyalty, and keep my father and mother and brothers and sisters 13 alive, and all that belongs to them, and rescue our persons from death." And the men said to her "Our persons instead of yours for 14 death if you do not tell this affair of ours; and when Jehovah gives us the country we will befriend you loyally."

15 And she let them down by a cord through the window, because her house was built into the wall and she lived against the wall, 16 and said to them "Go to the highland, for fear you should meet with the pursuers, and hide there three days till the pursuers get back, and afterward you may go your own way." And the men said to 17 her "We are clear of this oath of ours that you had us swear. Here, when we are coming into the country you shall tie this skein of scarlet thread in the window you let us down by, and get in your 18 father and mother and brothers and all your family into the house 19 with you; and anyone who goes outside the doors of your house, his blood shall be on his own head and we shall be clear; but anyone who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our heads if hands

20 are laid on him. But if you tell this affair of ours we are to be clear 21 of your oath that you had us swear." And she said "That is right, as you say," and sent them off, and they went; and she tied the skein of scarlet in the window.
22 And they went off into the highland and stayed there three days till the pursuers had got back; and the pursuers looked all along the 23 road and did not find anybody. And the two men came down again out of the highland and across to Joshua' the son of Nun, and told 24 him the story of everything that had happened to them; and they said to Joshua' "Jehovah has given all the country into our hands, all the inhabitants of the country are in collapse before us."

1 And the first thing in the morning Joshua', he and all the sons of Israel, marched from the Acacias and came to the Jordan; and 2 they bivouacked there, not crossing yet. And at the end of three 3 days the marshals passed through the camp and gave the people orders, "When you see the ark of the covenant of our God Jehovah, and the Levite priests carrying it, take up the march yourselves 4 from your places and follow it. Only have a long distance between you and it, a full half-mile; do not come near it, in order that you may know the road you are to go by, because you have never gone over this road before."

5 And Joshua' said to the people "Hallow yourselves, because tomorrow Jehovah will do wonders among you." And Joshua' said to the 6 priests "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass before the people"; and they took up the ark of the covenant and went, before the people.

7 And Jehovah said to Joshua' "This day I will begin to make you great before the eyes of all Israel, who shall know that as I was with 8 Moses I will be with you. And do you give the priests who carry the ark of the covenant the order 'When you come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, stand still in the Jordan.'"

9 And Joshua' said to the sons of Israel "Come here and listen to 10 the words of your God Jehovah." And Joshua' said "By this you are to know that you have a living Deity among you and he will dispossess before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivvites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the 11 Jebusites. Here is the ark of the covenant of the Lord of All the 12 Earth going along before you into the Jordan. Now take twelve men 13 out of the tribes of Israel, one man to a tribe; and when the feet of the priests who carry the ark of Jehovah the Lord of All the Earth rest in the water of the Jordan, the water of the Jordan will be cut off, the water that comes down from above, and stand up in one heap."

14 And when the people took up the march from their tents to cross the Jordan, the priests that carried the ark of the covenant were ahead 15 of the people; and when the bearers of the ark came to the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the ark dipped into the edge of the water (and the Jordan was full all over its flood-plain throughout harvesttime) the water that came down from above stood still, rose up in one heap at a great distance, at Adam, the city to one side of Sarethan, and what was running down to the Dead Sea, the Sea of Salt, exhausted itself and was gone, and the people crossed over opposite Jericho. And the priests that carried the ark of Jehovah's covenant stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel were going across on dry ground, till all the nation were done crossing the Jordan.

1 And when all the nation were done crossing the Jordan, Jehovah 2 spoke to Joshua', saying "Take out of the people twelve men, one 3 man out of a tribe, and give them the order 'Take up from here, from the middle of the Jordan, from the standing-place of the priests' 4 feet, twelve stones, and take them over with you and put them down at the halting-place where you halt for the night.'" And Joshua' 5 called the twelve men he had made ready out of the sons of Israel, one man out of a tribe; and Joshua' said to them "Go over before the 6 ark of your God Jehovah to the middle of the Jordan and lift to your shoulders one stone each, for the number of the tribes of the 7 sons of Israel, in order that this may be a token among you, because your sons shall ask you tomorrow 'What do you mean by these stones?'" 8 and you shall say 'That the water of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of Jehovah's covenant when it crossed the Jordan'; and these 9 stones shall be a commemoration to the sons of Israel forever." And the sons of Israel did so, as Joshua' had commanded, and took up 10 twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as Jehovah had told Joshua', for the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and took them over with them to the halting-place and put them down there.
11 And Joshua' set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan on the standing-place of the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the 12 covenant, and they are there to this day. And the priests who carried the ark stood still in the middle of the Jordan till all the matter that Jehovah commanded Joshua' to tell the people was done; and the 13 people went across in haste; and when all the people were done crossing, the ark of Jehovah and the priests went across before the 14 people. And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh went across under arms before the sons of Israel as Moses had told them. About forty thousand, armed for service, 15 went across before Jehovah to the flats of Jericho to the war. That day Jehovah made Joshua' great before the eyes of all Israel; and they stood in fear of him as they had stood in fear of Moses as long as he lived.

15 16 And Jehovah spoke to Joshua', saying "Give the priests who carry 17 the ark of the Lessons the order to come up out of the Jordan." And 18 Joshua' gave the priests the order "Come up out of the Jordan"; and when the priests who carried the ark of Jehovah's covenant came up out of the middle of the Jordan, the priests' feet were drawn out 19 to the dry ground as the water of the Jordan came back to its place and ran as it had been doing, all over its flood-plain. And the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth of the first month and camped 20 at the Gilgal, on the east edge of Jericho's territory. And Joshua' set up at the Gilgal these twelve stones which they had taken out 21 of the Jordan; and he said to the sons of Israel "When hereafter 22 your children ask their fathers 'What do these stones mean?' you are to inform your children 'On dry ground Israel came across this 23 Jordan,' because your God Jehovah dried up the water of the Jordan before you till you had come across, as your God Jehovah did to the 24 Red Sea, which he dried up before you till you had come across, in order that all the peoples of the earth might know Jehovah's hand was strong, in order that you might fear your God Jehovah evermore."

1 And when all the kings of the Amorites on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites by the seaside, heard that Jehovah had dried up the water of the Jordan before the sons of Israel till they had come across, their hearts melted down and they no longer had any spirit in them because of the sons of Israel.
2 At that time Jehovah said to Joshua' "Make yourself flint blades 3 and re-circumcise the sons of Israel"; and Joshua' made himself flint 4 blades and circumcised the sons of Israel at Foreskin Hill. And this was the occasion of Joshua's circumcising: all the males of the people that had come out of Egypt, all the fighting men, had died 5 in the wilderness on the way as they came out of Egypt—for all the people that came out had been circumcised, but all the people that were born in the wilderness on the way as they came out of 6 Egypt had not, because the sons of Israel had been going in the wilderness forty years till all the nation were gone, the fighting men that had come out of Egypt, who had not obeyed Jehovah, to whom Jehovah had sworn that he would not have them see the country Jehovah had sworn to their fathers to give us, a country that runs 7 milk and honey; and he had raised up their sons in their place. Them Joshua' circumcised, because they were uncircumcised; for they had 8 not circumcised them on the way. And when all the nation were done being circumcised, they stayed in camp where they were till they were 9 well. And Jehovah said to Joshua' "Today I have galal, rolled off, the slur of the Egyptians from you," and that place has been named Gilgal to this day.
10 And the sons of Israel camped at the Gilgal, and celebrated the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, in the flats

- 11 of Jericho. And they ate corn of the country on the day after the 12 passover, matzoth and roasted grain. That very day the manna left off, on their eating corn of the country, and the sons of Israel no longer had manna but ate produce of Canaan that year.
- 13 And while Joshua' was at Jericho he raised his eyes and found a man standing before him with his sword drawn in his hand; and Joshua' went to him and said "Are you on our side or the enemy's?" 14 And he said "No, I am Jehovah's general, I have just come." And Joshua' threw himself on his face on the ground and did reverence, 15 and said to him "What has my lord to say to his servant?" And Jehovah's general said to Joshua' "Slip your shoes off your feet, because the place you are standing on is sacred"; and Joshua' did so.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 And Jericho was locked and blocked for fear of the sons of Israel, 2 nobody going out or coming in. And Jehovah said to Joshua' "See,
I have given into your hands Jericho and its king, the stalwart men.
3 And you shall go round the city, all the fighting men, making the 4 round of the city once; thus you shall do six days. And seven priests shall carry the seven bugle-horns before the ark. And on the seventh day you shall go round the city seven times, the priests blowing the 5 horns; and at the winding of the bugle-horn, when you hear the horn-blast, all the people shall give a loud cheer, and the wall of the city will fall flat and the people shall go up each man straight in."
- 6 And Joshua' the son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry 7 seven bugle-horns before Jehovah's ark"; and he said to the people "Pass on and go round the city, and let the armed contingent from 8 the east pass ahead of Jehovah's ark, and let seven priests carrying the seven bugle-horns before Jehovah pass on and blow the horns, 9 the ark of Jehovah's covenant going behind them and the armed contingent from the east going before the priests that blow the horns and the rearguard going behind the ark blowing horns as they 10 go." And to the people Joshua' gave the order "Do not cheer nor make your voices heard nor let a word come out of your mouths 11 till the day that I say to you 'Cheer' and you cheer." And Jehovah's ark went round the city, making one round; and they came to the camp and spent the night in camp.
- 12 And the first thing Joshua' did in the morning, the priests took 13 up Jehovah's ark, with seven priests carrying the seven bugle-horns before Jehovah, going along blowing the horns as they went, and the armed contingent from the east going before them and the rearguard 14 going behind Jehovah's ark blowing horns as they went, and they went round the city once on the second day and back to the camp.
15 So they did six days. And on the seventh day the first thing in the morning, at dawn, they went round the city this same way seven times (it was only on that day that they went round the city seven 16 times), and at the seventh time the priests blew the horns and Joshua' 17 said to the people "Cheer, because Jehovah has given you the city; and the city shall be deodand to Jehovah for destruction, it and all that is in it—only the prostitute Rahab is to live, she and all that are 18 with her in the house, because she hid the messengers we sent. Only for your part beware of the deodand, that you do not covet and take any of the deodand and render the Israelite camp deodand 19 and breed trouble for it. And all silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron are sacred to Jehovah; they shall come into Jehovah's 20 treasury." And the people cheered, and they blew the horns, and when the people heard the horn-blast the people gave a loud cheer, and the wall fell flat and the people went up to the city every man 21 straight in, and took the city, and massacred all in the city, man and woman, boy and graybeard and cow and sheep and donkey, without quarter.

22 And to the two men who had reconnoitered the country Joshua' said "Go into the prostitute woman's house and bring out from there 23 the woman and all that belong to her, as you swore to her." And the young men who had reconnoitered went in and brought out Rahab and her father and mother and brothers and all that belonged to her, and brought out all her clan, and left them outside the Israelite camp.

24 And the city they burned up, and all in it; only the silver and gold and the bronze and iron articles they put in the treasury of 25 Jehovah's house, and the prostitute Rahab and her family and all that belonged to her Joshua' kept alive and they have lived among the Israelites to this day because she had hid the messengers Joshua' 26 sent to reconnoiter Jericho. And Joshua' imposed an oath at that time, "Cursed be the man before Jehovah who stands up and fortifies the city, Jericho: with his firstborn he shall lay its foundation and with his youngest son he shall set up its gates."

27 And Jehovah was with Joshua', and his fame was all through the country.

CHAPTER 7

1 But the sons of Israel were guilty of unfaithfulness in the deodand, and 'Acan the son of 'Carmi the son of Zabdi the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the deodand, and Jehovah was angry with the sons of Israel.

2 And Joshua' sent men from Jericho to the Ghai near Beth-Aven east of Bethel, and said to them "Go up and reconnoiter the country."

3 And the men went up and reconnoitered the Ghai, and came back to Joshua' and said to him "Do not have all the people go up; have about two or three thousand men go up and conquer the Ghai; do not get all the people tired out going there, because there are not 4 many of the townsmen." And about three thousand men of the people 5 went up there, and were put to flight before the men of the Ghai, and the men of the Ghai killed about thirty-six men at that time, and chased them before the gate to the Breaks and cut them down on the downward road. And the people's hearts melted down to water, 6 and Joshua' tore his garments and threw himself down on his face on the ground before Jehovah till evening, he and the elders of Israel, 7 and put earth over their heads; and Joshua' said "O, O, Lord Jehovah, why have you brought this people across the Jordan to give us into the hands of the Amorites to be destroyed? if only we had been willing 8 to stay on the other side of the Jordan! O, what shall I say, Lord, 9 after Israel has turned his back before his enemy, and the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the country will hear of it and surround us and sweep away our name from the earth, and what will you do for your great name?"

10 And Jehovah said to Joshua' "Stand up; what are you down on 11 your face for? Israel has sinned, they have overstepped my covenant that I enjoined on them, they have taken some of the deodand, they 12 have stolen, they have lied, they have pocketed it, and the sons of Israel cannot stand up before their enemies, they turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become deodand; I will not be with you anymore unless you root out the deodand from among 13 you. Stand up, hallow the people and say 'Hallow yourselves for tomorrow, because Israel's God Jehovah says "There is deodand among you, Israel; you cannot stand up before your enemies till you remove 14 the deodand from among you." And present yourselves in the morning by tribes, and the tribe Jehovah fixes upon shall come forward by clans, and the clan Jehovah fixes upon shall come forward family by family, and the family Jehovah fixes upon shall come forward man 15 by man, and the one who is detected with the deodand shall be burned up, he and all that belong to him, because he has overstepped Jehovah's covenant and has committed a scandal in Israel.' "

16 And the first thing in the morning Joshua' brought Israel forward 17 by tribes, and the tribe of Judah was fixed upon. And he brought forward the clans of Judah, and he fixed on the clan of the Zerahites.
And he brought forward the clan of the Zerahites by families, and 18 Zabdi was fixed upon. And he brought forward his family man by man, and 'Acan the son of Carmi the son of Zabdi the son of Zerah was fixed upon.

19 And Joshua' said to 'Acan "My son, accord glory to Israel's God Jehovah and give him praise, and tell me what you have done; do 20 not refuse to answer." And 'Acan answered Joshua' "I have indeed 21 sinned against Israel's God Jehovah, and done like this: I saw among the booty one fine Shinear mantle and a hundred ounces of silver and one ingot of gold that weighed twenty-five ounces, and I wanted them and took them; you will find them buried in the ground inside 22 my tent, and the silver under it." And Joshua' sent messengers who ran to the tent and found it buried in his tent and the silver under 23 it; and they took them from inside the tent and brought them to Joshua' and all the sons of Israel, and set them down before Jehovah.

24 And Joshua', and all Israel with him, took 'Acan the son of Zerah and his children and his cow and donkey and sheep and goats and his tent and everything he had, and they brought them up to Trouble 25 Vale, and Joshua' said "How you have troubled us! Jehovah will trouble you today," and all Israel stoned him, and burned them up 26 and threw stones all over them, and raised over him a great cairn of stones which is there to this day. And Jehovah came back from his anger. That is why the place is named Trouble Vale to this day.

1 And Jehovah said to Joshua' "Do not be afraid nor dismayed; take with you all the fighting people, and up with you to the Ghai; see, I have given into your hands the king of the Ghai and his people 2 and his city and his country, and you shall do to the Ghai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king; only its booty and cattle you shall plunder for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the Ghai in its rear." 3 And Joshua' and all the fighting people set out for the Ghai; and Joshua' chose thirty thousand stalwart men and sent them by night, 4 and gave them the order "See, you will be in ambush for the city in the rear of the city; do not get very far from the city; and all of 5 you be ready, and I and all the people I have with me will come up to the city, and when they come out to meet us as they did the first 6 time we will run before them and they will come out after us till we break them away from the city, because they will think 'Running 7 before us the same as the first time'; and you shall rise from the ambush and take possession of the city, and Jehovah will give it into 8 your hands, and when you capture the city you shall set the city 9 on fire. This is what you are to do; you have your orders." And Joshua' sent them off, and they went to the place of ambush and sat down between Bethel and the Ghai, westward of the Ghai.
10 And Joshua' spent that night among the people. And the first thing in the morning Joshua' mustered the people and went up, he 11 and the elders of Israel, before the people to the Ghai; and all the people he had with him went up and approached and came before the city and camped northward of the Ghai, with the valley between 12 him and the Ghai. And he took about five thousand men and stationed them as an ambush between Bethel and the Ghai, west of the Ghai.
13 And they stationed the people, all the camp northward of the city, and its heel west of the city; and Joshua' went in the middle of the 14 vale that night. And when the king of the Ghai saw it the men of the city went out in haste the first thing in the morning to meet the Israelites in battle, he and all his people, to the assigned place facing the Rift Valley, he not knowing that he had an ambush waiting for him behind the city. And Joshua' and all Israel were beaten by them, and ran toward the wilderness; and all the people in the city turned out to pursue them, and pursued Joshua' and broke away from the city, and there did not remain men in the Ghai who had not gone out after the Israelites; and they left the city open and pursued the Israelites.

And Jehovah said to Joshua' "Stretch out the javelin in your hand toward the Ghai, because I will give it into your hands"; and Joshua' stretched out the javelin in his hand toward the city. And the ambush rose instantly from its place and ran, when he stretched out his hand, and entered the city and took it, and instantly set the city on fire. And the men of the city turned their heads back and saw the smoke of the city was going up to the sky, and became helpless, running away this way and that; and the people that had been running away to the wilderness turned round upon the pursuers.

And Joshua' and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city had gone up, and turned back and cut down the men of the Ghai, and these came out of the city to meet them, and Israel had them in the middle, these on one side and those on the other; and they cut them down till they did not leave survivor or refugee of them. And the king of the Ghai they captured alive and brought him to Joshua'. And when the Israelites had finished killing all the inhabitants of the Ghai out on the range, in the wilderness they pursued them in, and they had all been put to the sword till they were all gone, all Israel came back to the Ghai and put it to the sword; and of all who fell that day, men and women, there were twelve thousand, all the men of the Ghai. And Joshua' did not draw back his hand that he had stretched out with the javelin till he had destroyed all the inhabitants of the Ghai without quarter. Only the cattle, and the booty of that city, the Israelites plundered for themselves, in accordance with the orders Jehovah had given Joshua'. And Joshua' burned the city and made a permanent ruin of it, a desolation to this day. And the king of the Ghai he hanged on a tree till the hour of evening; and when the sun was going down Joshua' gave orders and they took his carcass down off the tree and threw it down at the gate of the city and raised a great cairn of stones over it, which is there to this day.

Then Joshua' built an altar to Israel's God Jehovah on the side of Mount 'Ebal as Jehovah's servant Moses had commanded the sons of Israel, in accordance with what is written in the book of Moses's code, an altar of natural stones to which he had not put iron, and offered on it burnt-offerings to Jehovah and sacrificed welfare-sacrifices. And there he inscribed on the stones a copy of the code of Moses which he had written before the sons of Israel, while all Israel, and their elders and marshals and judges, stood on this side of the ark and on that facing the Levite priests who carried the ark of Jehovah's covenant, the native and the naturalized alike, half toward Mount Gerizzim and half toward Mount 'Ebal as Jehovah's servant Moses 34 had commanded for blessing the people Israel, first; and after that 35 he read all the articles of the code, the blessing and the curse, just as was written in the book of the code. There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua' did not read in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, the men and the women and the children and the naturalized aliens who were going among them.

1 And when all the kings that side of the Jordan in the highland and the lowland and all along the beach of the great sea up to the latitude of the Lebanon heard of it, the Hittites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites and the 2 Jebusites, they joined forces unanimously to fight Joshua' and Israel.
3 And the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua' had done to Jericho 4 and the Ghai, and they acted too by trickery, and went and put on false colors, and took worn-out sackcloths for their donkeys, and 5 worn-out skins of wine, punctured and mended with puckers, and patched worn-out sandals on their feet, and worn-out cloaks on their backs, and all the bread in their provisions was dried up, gone to 6 crumbling. And they went to the camp at the Gilgal to Joshua', and said to him and to the men of Israel "We have come from a distant country: now make a treaty with us."

7 And the men of Israel said to the Hivvites "Maybe you live in 8 among us: how should we make a treaty with you?" But they said to Joshua' "We are your servants." And Joshua' said to them "Who 9 are you, and where do you come from?" And they said to him "Your servants have come from a very distant country for the fame of your God Jehovah, because we heard the report of him and all that he 10 did in Egypt and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon and King 'Og 11 of the Bashan whose capital was 'Ashtaroth, and our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us "Take provisions with you for the journey and go to meet them and say to them "We are your 12 servants; now make a treaty with us." This is our bread: we provisioned ourselves with it hot out of our houses on the day we went out to go to you, and now here it is dried up and gone to crumbling.
13 These are the skins of wine that we filled new, and here they are punctured. And these are our clothes and sandals; they are worn out 14 with the great length of the journey." And the men took some of their 15 provisions without having asked Jehovah's voice. And Joshua' made with them a treaty of peace and security for their lives, and the princes of the congregation swore to them.

16 And at the end of three days after they had made a treaty with them they heard that they were neighbors and lived in among them.

17 And the sons of Israel marched, and came to their cities on the third day, their cities being Gibeon and the Kephirah and Beeroth and 18 Kirjath-Je'arim; and the sons of Israel did not kill them, because the princes of the congregation had sworn to them by Israel's God Jehovah. And all the congregation complained against the princes; 19 but all the princes said to all the congregation "We have sworn to them by Israel's God Jehovah, and now we cannot touch them. This we will do to them, and spare their lives, and not have wrath upon 21 us for the oath we swore to them. Let them live and be wood-gatherers and water-carriers for all the congregation." And all the congregation 22 did as the princes had said for them. And Joshua' called them and spoke to them, saying "Why have you played this trick on us, to say 23 'we are very distant from you' when you live in among us? now cursed are you, you shall never cease to furnish slaves gathering wood and 24 carrying water for the house of my God." And they answered Joshua' "Because your servants had been told what commission your God Jehovah had given his servant Moses, to give you all the country and to root out before you all the inhabitants of the country; and we were in great fear for our lives on your account, and did this 25 thing. Now here we are in your hands: do with us as you think best and fittest to." And he did so for them, and delivered them out of 26 the hands of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them; but on that day Joshua' gave them to be wood-gatherers and water-carriers 27 for the congregation and for Jehovah's altar, as they are to this day, at the place he was to choose.

CHAPTER 10

1 And when King Adoni-Sedek of Jerusalem heard that Joshua' had taken the Ghai and destroyed it without quarter, had done to the Ghai and its king the same as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with the Israelites
2 and were among them, he was badly frightened, because Gibeon was a great city like one of the royal capitals, and because it was larger 3 than the Ghai and all its men were champion warriors. And King Adoni-Sedek of Jerusalem sent word to King Hoham of Hebron and King Piram of Jarmuth and King Japhia' of Lakish and King Debir
4 of 'Eglon "Come up to me and help me conquer Gibeon, because it has made peace with Joshua' and the sons of Israel"; and the five kings
5 of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lakish, the king of 'Eglon, they and all their armies, came together and went up and beleaguered Gibeon 6 and attacked it. And the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua' at the camp at the Gilgal "Do not neglect your servants; come right up to us and help us and save us, because all the Amorite kings in the highland have gathered against us."

7 And Joshua' went up from the Gilgal, he and all the fighting force 8 with him, and all the first-class men. And Jehovah said to Joshua' 9 "Do not be afraid of them, because I have given them into your hands; 10 not a man of them shall stand before you." And Joshua' came upon 11 them suddenly, having made an all-night march up from the Gilgal; and Jehovah threw them into confusion before the Israelites, and they inflicted a great defeat on them at Gibeon and pursued them along the road to the place where it goes up at Beth-Horon, and cut them down clear to 'Azekah and to Makkedah. And when they ran before the Israelites, as they were on the downward road at Beth-Horon Jehovah threw great stones on them out of the sky as far as 'Azekah, and they were more of them killed by the hailstones than the sons of Israel killed with swords.

12 Then Joshua' spoke to Jehovah on the day that Jehovah gave the Amorites to be defeated before the sons of Israel, and said before the Israelites

"Sun, halt at Gibeon, and moon, in Aijalon Vale!"

13 And the sun halted and the moon stood still till a nation avenged itself on its enemies.

(This is included in the Book of the Upright.) And the sun stood still halfway across the sky and did not press on to setting for about an 14 entire day. And there was never a day like that, before or after, of Jehovah's obeying a man; for Jehovah was fighting for Israel.

15 And Joshua', and all Israel with him, went back to the camp at the Gilgal.

16 And these five kings took flight and hid in the cave at Makkedah.
17 And Joshua' was told "The five kings are found, hiding in the cave at 18 Makkedah." And Joshua' said "Roll great stones to the mouth of the 19 cave, and station men over it to watch them, but do not stop yourselves; pursue your enemies and keep cutting off their rear, give them no chance to get into their cities, because your God Jehovah has 20 given them into your hands." But when Joshua' and the sons of Israel finished slaying them by wholesale till they were all gone and the survivors had made good their escape and got into the fortified 21 cities, and all the people had come back to Makkedah to Joshua' safe and sound, not a man putting out his tongue against the sons of 22 Israel, Joshua' said "Open the mouth of the cave and bring these 23 five kings out of the cave to me"; and they did so, and brought these five kings out of the cave to him, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lakish, the king of 'Eglon.
24 And when they brought these kings out to Joshua', Joshua' called all the men of Israel and said to the chieftains of the fighting men who had gone with him "Come here, set your feet on the necks of these 25 kings"; and they came up and set their feet on their necks. And Joshua' said to them "Do not be afraid nor dismayed; courage, and do your best, because Jehovah will do the like to all your enemies 26 with whom you are fighting." And after that Joshua' struck them dead and hung them on five trees, and they hung on the trees till 27 evening; and at sunset Joshua' gave orders and they took them down off the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden and placed great stones on the mouth of the cave, where they remain to this very day.

28 And Joshua' took Makkedah that day and massacred its people, giving no quarter to anything in it that breathed, not leaving a survivor, and did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king 29 of Jericho. And Joshua' and all Israel with him went over from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked Libnah; and Jehovah gave it too, 30 and its king, into Israel's hands, and they massacred its people and everything in it that breathed, not leaving a survivor in it, and did 31 to its king as they had to the king of Jericho. And Joshua' and all Israel with him went over from Libnah to Lakish and beleaguered it 32 and attacked it, and Jehovah gave Lakish into Israel's hands, and they took it on the second day and massacred its people and destroyed 33 it all without quarter, just as they had done to Libnah. Then King Horam of Gezer came up to help Lakish, and Joshua' defeated him and his people and cut them down till he did not leave him a survivor.

34 And Joshua' and all Israel with him went over from Lakish to 'Eglon 35 and beleaguered it and attacked it, and took it that same day and massacred its people and everything in it that breathed, destroying all without quarter that same day, just as they had done to Lakish.

36 And Joshua' and all Israel with him went up from 'Eglon to Hebron 37 and attacked it, and took it, and massacred its people and everything in it that breathed, not leaving a survivor, just as they had done to 'Eglon, and destroyed without quarter it and everything in it.

38 And Joshua' and all Israel with him came back to Debir and attacked 39 it, and took it and its king and all its cities, and massacred their people and destroyed without quarter everything in it that breathed, not leaving a survivor; they did to Debir and its king the same as they had done to Hebron and as they had done to Libnah and its king.

40 And Joshua' conquered all the country, the highland and the South and the lowland and the steeps, and all their kings, not leaving a survivor, and everything that breathed he destroyed without quarter, 41 as Israel's God Jehovah had commanded. And Joshua' conquered them from Kadesh-Barnea' to Ghaza, and all the Goshen country, to 42 Gibeon; and all these kings and their country Joshua' took at one 43 time, because Israel's God Jehovah was fighting for Israel. And Joshua' and all Israel with him went back to the camp at the Gilgal.

1 And when King Jabin of Hasor heard of it he sent to King Jobab 2 of Madon and the king of Shimron and the king of Acshaph and the 3 kings on the north, in the highland and in the Rift Valley about 4 Kinneroth and in the lowland, and in Naphath-Dor on the west, the 5 Canaanites to east and to west and the Amorites and the Hittites and 6 the Perizzites and the Jebusites in the highland and the Hivvites 7 under Hermon in the Mispah country; and they came out, they and 8 all their armies with them, a great body, as numerous as the grains of 9 sand on the seashore, and ponies and chariots in great numbers; 10 and all these kings combined and came and encamped together by 11 Merom Water to make war with Israel.

12 And Jehovah said to Joshua' "Do not be afraid of them, because at 13 this time tomorrow I am going to have them all fallen before Israel; 14 their ponies you shall hamstring and their chariots you shall burn up." 15 And Joshua', and all the fighting men with him, came against them 16 by Merom Water suddenly, and came down on them; and Jehovah 17 gave them into Israel's hands, and they defeated them and pursued 18 them to great Sidon and to Misrephoth-Mayim, and to Mispah Plain 19 on the east; and they cut them down till they did not leave them a 20 survivor. And Joshua' did to them as Jehovah had told him to, ham-strung their ponies and burned up their chariots.

1 And, as before, at that time Joshua' took Hasor and killed its king 2 in the fighting, for Hasor used to be the head of all these kingdoms.
3 And they massacred every person in it, giving no quarter; none that 4 breathed was left; and Hasor they burned down. And all the capitals 5 of these kings, and all their kings, Joshua' took, and massacred their 6 people without quarter, as Jehovah's servant Moses had commanded.
7 Only all the cities that are standing on their old sites Israel did not 8 burn, but that Joshua' burned Hasor alone. And all the booty of these 9 cities, and the cattle, the sons of Israel plundered for themselves; 10 only all the human beings they massacred till they had rooted them 11 out; they left none that breathed. As Jehovah had commanded his 12 servant Moses, so Moses had commanded Joshua', and so Joshua' did; 13 he did not take off a thing from all that Jehovah had commanded 14 Moses.

15 And Joshua' took all this country, the highland and all the South 16 and all the Goshen country and the lowland and the Rift Valley, and 17 the highland of Israel and its lowland, from Bald Mountain that 18 goes up to Se'ir to Baal-Gad in the Lebanon Plain under Mount Her-19 mon; and all their kings he took and struck them dead. Joshua' was 20 a long time making war with all these kings. There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivvites that lived in Gibeon: they took all by war, because it was determined by Jehovah to make them headstrong to face the war with Israel in order that they might be destroyed without quarter and have no claim to mercy, because the purpose was to root them out as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

- 21 And at that time Joshua' went in and exterminated the 'Anakites out of the highland: out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of 'Anab, and out of all the highland of Judah and out of all the highland of Israel;
- 22 Joshua' destroyed them without quarter with their cities. There were no 'Anakites left in the Israelite country; only in Ghaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod did any remain.
- 23 And Joshua' took all the country, just as Jehovah had promised Moses; and Joshua' gave it to the Israelites by their divisions, tribe by tribe, as an estate. And the country was at rest from war.

CHAPTER 12

- 1 And these are the kings of the country, whom the sons of Israel defeated and took possession of their country, on the east side of the Jordan, from Arnon Arroyo to Mount Hermon and all the eastern
- 2 Rift Valley: King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, ruler from 'Aro'er on the brink of Arnon Arroyo, and the middle of the arroyo, and half Gilead, to Jabbok Arroyo, the boundary of the
- 3 Bene-'Ammon, and the Rift Valley to the eastern shore of the Sea of Kinneroth and to the eastern shore of the Dead Sea, the Salt Sea, on the way to Beth-ha-Jeshimoth, and to the south under the steep
- 4 of the Pisgah. And King 'Og of the Bashan, one of the remnant of the ogres, whose capitals were 'Ashtaroth and Edre'i, and ruler in
- 5 Mount Hermon and in Salcah and in all the Bashan to the boundary of the Geshurites and the Ma'acathites, and half Gilead, bordering
- 6 on King Sihon of Heshbon. Jehovah's servant Moses and the sons of Israel defeated them, and Moses gave it to the Reubenites and the Gadites and half the tribe of Manasseh as their possession.
- 7 And these are the kings of the country that Joshua' and the sons of Israel conquered on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-Gad in the Lebanon Plain to Bald Mountain that goes up to Se'ir, and Joshua' gave it to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to
- 8 their divisions: in the highland and the lowland and the Rift Valley and the steep
- 9 of the wilderness and the South, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivvites, and the Jebusites: the king of Jericho, one; the king of the Ghai beside Bethel,
- 10 11 one; the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lakish, one; the king of 'Eglon, one;
- 12 the king of Gezer, one; the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; the king of Hormah, one; the king of 'Arad, one; the king of
- 13 14 Libnah, one; the king of 'Adullam, one; the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hephher,
- 15 16 one; the king of Aphek in the Sharon, one; the king of Madon, one; the king of Hasor, one; the king of Shimron-Meron, one; the king of
- 17 18 Acshaph, one; the king of Ta'anac, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
- 19 20 21

22 23 the king of Kadesh, one; the king of Jokne'am in Carmel, one; the king of Dor in Naphoth-Dor, one; the king of nations in the mark, one; 24 the king of Tirsah, one; total, thirty-one kings.

1 And when Joshua' was an old man, far gone in years, Jehovah said to him "You are an old man, far gone in years, and the country to 2 a very great extent remains to be taken possession of. This is the country that remains: all the marks of the Philistines, and all the 3 Geshurites, from the Delta River on the frontier of Egypt to the northern boundary of 'Ekron (it counts as Canaanite), the five Sarns of the Philistines, the Ghazaite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the 4 Gathite, and the 'Ekronite, and the 'Avvites on the south; all the Canaanite country, from Me'arah, which belongs to the Phenicians, 5 to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites; and the Gebalite country and all the Lebanon to the eastward, from Baal-Gad under Mount 6 Hermon to Lebo-Hamath. All the inhabitants of the highland, from the Lebanon to Misrephoth-Mayim, all the Phenicians, I will dispossess before the sons of Israel; only allot it to the Israelites as estate, as I 7 commanded you to. Now apportion this country as estate: to the nine tribes and the half-tribe Manasseh you shall give it from the Jordan to the great sea where the sun sets; the great sea shall bound it."

8 To the two tribes and the half-tribe Manasseh Moses gave on the 9 east side of the Jordan; Jehovah's servant Moses gave them from 'Aro'er on the brink of Arnon Arroyo and the city in the middle of 10 the arroyo, and all the level from Medeba to Dibon, and all the cities of King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, to the 11 boundary of the Bene-'Ammon, and Gilead and the territory of the Geshurites and the Ma'acathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all the 12 Bashan to Salcah, all the kingdom of King 'Og of the Bashan whose capitals were 'Ashtaroth and Edre'i—he was left over of the remnant 13 of the ogres—; Moses defeated them and dispossessed them. But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites and the Ma'acathites, 14 but Geshur and Ma'acah live in the midst of Israel to this day. Only to the tribe of the Levites he gave no estate: Israel's God Jehovah is their estate as he promised them.

15 And this is the assignment that Moses assigned to the sons of Israel in the Moab flats on the other side of the Jordan at Jericho. And 16 Moses gave to the tribe of the sons of Reuben clan by clan; and they had their boundary from 'Aro'er on the brink of Arnon Arroyo and the city in the middle of the arroyo, and all the level by Medeba, 17 Heshbon and all its cities in the level, Dibon and Bamoth-Baal and 18 19 Beth-Baal-Me'on and Jahsah and Kedemoth and Mepha'ath and Kirjathaim and Sibmah and Sereth-hash-Shahar on Vale Mountain and 20 Beth-Peghor and the steeps of the Pisgah and Beth-ha-Jeshimoth and 21 all the cities of the level and all the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, whom Moses defeated along with the princes of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Sur and Hur and Reba', Sihon's dukes, the natives of the country; and the soothsayer Balaam the son of Be'or the sons of Israel killed with the sword over the slain. And the boundary of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan as boundary. This is the estate of the sons of Reuben clan by clan, the cities and their villages.

And Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, the sons of Gad, clan by clan; and they had as their territory Ja'zer and all the cities of Gilead and half the country of the Bene-'Ammon, up to 'Aro'er facing Rabbah, and from Heshbon to Mispheh Fell and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the boundary of Lodebar, and in the vale Beth-Haram and Beth-Nimrah and Succoth and Saphon, the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon, with the Jordan as boundary, to the edge of the Sea of Kinnereth, on the east side of the Jordan. This is the estate of the sons of Gad clan by clan, the cities and their villages.

And Moses gave to half the tribe of Manasseh clan by clan; and their boundary was, from Mahanaim, all the Bashan, all the kingdom of King 'Og of the Bashan, and all the Havvoth of Jair in the Bashan, sixty cities, and half of Gilead, and 'Ashtaroth and Edre'i, 'Og's capitals in the Bashan, for the sons of Makir the son of Manasseh, for half the sons of Manasseh, clan by clan.

This is what Moses assigned in the Moab flats on the east side of the Jordan at Jericho. But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no estate: Israel's God Jehovah is their estate as he promised them.

And this is what the sons of Israel were assigned in Canaan, what Priest Eleazar and Joshua' the son of Nun and the heads of families of the tribes assigned to the sons of Israel; their assignment was by lot, as Jehovah had commanded by Moses, to the nine tribes and the half-tribe, because Moses had given the assignment of the two and a half tribes on the other side of the Jordan, and the Levites were given no assignment among them. For the sons of Joseph had come to be two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and they gave the Levites no share in the country except cities to live in and their glebes for their stock and means. As Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did, and divided the country.

And the sons of Judah approached Joshua' at the Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite said to him "You know the word Jehovah spoke to Moses the man of God about you and me at Kadesh-Barnea'. I was forty years old when Jehovah's servant Moses sent me from Kadesh-Barnea' to reconnoiter the country, and I brought him back word as I honestly thought, but my brothers who had gone up with me melted down the people's hearts while I altogether followed my God Jehovah. And Moses swore that day 'The country your feet trod on shall belong to you and to your sons forever as estate because 10 you altogether followed my God Jehovah.' And now here has Jehovah kept me alive, as he promised, these forty-five years since Jehovah spoke this word to Moses, while Israel went in the wilderness; and 11 now here I am today eighty-five years old. I am still strong today as I was on the day Moses sent me; my strength now is the same as 12 my strength then, for fighting and for going out and in. Now give me this highland that Jehovah promised on that day, because you heard on that day that there were 'Anakites there and great fortified cities; perhaps Jehovah will be with me and I shall dispossess them as Jehovah promised."

13 And Joshua' blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of 14 Jephunneh as estate; that is how Hebron came to belong to Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite to this day, since he had altogether 15 followed Israel's God Jehovah. And the former name of Hebron was Kirjath-Arboah; it was the headquarters of the 'Anakites.

CHAPTER 15

1 And the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah, clan by clan, was to the boundary of Edom in the south of the wilderness of Sin, at its 2 southern extremity. And they had their southern boundary from 3 the end of the Salt Sea, from the inlet that points south; and it went out to a point south of Scorpion Pass and over to Sin and up south of Kadesh-Barnea' and over to Hesron and up to Addar and around 4 to the Karka', and over to 'Asmon and out to Egypt Arroyo, and the termination of the boundary was at the sea: this is to be your south 5 boundary. And the east boundary was the Salt Sea to the end of the Jordan. And the boundary for the north border was from the inlet 6 of sea at the mouth of the Jordan; and the boundary went up to Beth-Hoglah and over north of Beth-ha-'Arabah; and the boundary 7 went up to Reuben's son Bohan's stone; and the boundary went up to Debir from Trouble Vale and bent toward the Gilgal opposite Red Pass on the south of the arroyo; and the boundary went over to the 8 'En-Shemesh water and had its termination at 'En-Rogel. And the boundary went up to Ben-Hinnom's Valley, to the southern front of the Jebusites, that is, Jerusalem; and the boundary went up to the crest of the mountain along Hinnom's Valley on the west, at 9 the west end of Ghost Hollow. And the boundary curved from the crest of the mountain to the spring of Nephtoah Water and went out to the peak of Ghephron Mountain; and the boundary curved to 10 Ba'alalah, that is, Kirjath-Je'arim. And the boundary went round westward of Ba'alalah to Se'ir Mountain, and over to the northern ledge of Je'arim Mountain, that is, Kesalon, and down to Beth-11 Shemesh and over to Timnah. And the boundary went out to the northern front of 'Ekron. And the boundary curved to Shikkeron and went over to the Ba'alalah highland and out to Jabneel; and the 12 termination of the boundary was at the sea. And the west boundary was the great sea as boundary. This is the boundary of the sons of Judah all round, clan by clan.

13 And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh was given a share in the middle of the sons of Judah by Jehovah's direction to Joshua', Kirjath-Arbogh the headquarters of the 'Anakites, that is, Hebron; 14 and Caleb dispossessed from there the three sons of the 'Anak, She-15 shai and Ahiman and Talmi, the breed of the 'Anak. And from there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir 16 formerly being Kirjath-Sepher); and Caleb said "To the one who conquers and takes Kirjath-Sepher I will give my daughter 'Acsah as 17 wife"; and Ghothniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, 18 took it, and Caleb gave him his daughter 'Acsah as wife. And when she came she instigated him to ask her father for land; and she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her "What is the mat-19 ter?" and she said "Give me a blessing, because you have put me in the South: give me bowls of water." And he gave her Upper Gullath and Nether Gullath.

20 This is the estate of the tribe of the sons of Judah, clan by clan.
21 And the cities on the frontier of the tribe of the sons of Judah toward the boundary of Edom, in the South, were Kabseel and Gheder and 22 23 Jagur and Kinah and Dimonah and 'Ad'adah and Kedesh and Hasor 24 25 and Ithnan-Ziph and Telem and Ba'aloth and Hasor-Hadattah and 26 Kirjath-Hesron (that is, Hasor-Amam) and Shema' and Moladah 27 28 and Hasar-Gaddah and Heshmon and Beth-Pelet and Hasar-Shu'al 29 and Beer-Sheba' and its dependencies, Ba'alah and 'Ijim and 'Esem 30 31 and Eltolad and Kesil and Hormah and Siklag and Madmannah and 32 Sansannah and Lebaoth and Shilhim and 'En-Rimmon: total twenty-nine cities and their villages.

33 34 In the lowland: Eshtaol and Soreah and Ashnah and Zanoah and 35 'En-Gannim, Tappuah and the 'Enam, Jarmuth and 'Adullam, Socoh 36 and 'Azekah and Shagharaim and 'Adithaim and the Gederah and 37 Gederothaim, fourteen cities and their villages; Senan and Hadashah 38 39 and Migdal-Gad and Dilean and the Mispheh and Joktheel, Lakish 40 41 and Boskath and 'Eglon and Cabbon and Lahmas and Kithlish and Gederoth, Beth-Dagon and Na'amah and Makkedah, sixteen cities and 42 43 their villages; Libnah and 'Ether and 'Ashan and Iphtah and Ashnah 44 and Nesib and Ke'ilah and Aczib and Mareshah, nine cities and their 45 46 villages; 'Ekron and its dependencies and villages from 'Ekron west-47 ward, everything along the steeps and their villages, Ashdod and its dependencies and villages, Ghaza and its dependencies and villages, to Egypt Arroyo, and the great sea as boundary.

48 49 And in the highland: Shamir and Jattir and Socoh and Dannah 50 and Kirjath-Sannah (that is, Debir) and 'Anab and Eshtemoh and 51 Ghanim and Goshen and Holon and Giloh, eleven cities and their 52 53 villages; Arab and Dumah and Eshean and Janum and Beth-Tappuah

54 and Aphekah and Humtah and Kirjath-Arbogh (that is, Hebron) and 55 Sighor, nine cities and their villages; Ma'on, Carmel and Ziph 56 57 and Juttah and Jezre'el and Jokdeam and Zanoah, the Cain, Gibeah 58 and Timnah, ten cities and their villages; Halhul, Beth-Sur and Baal (that is, Kirjath-Je'arim) and the Rabbah, two cities and their villages.

 61 62 In the wilderness: Beth-ha-'Arabah, Middin and Secacah and the Nibshan and Salt City and 'En-Gedi, six cities and their villages.
 63 And the Jebusites, who lived in Jerusalem, the sons of Judah could not dispossess, and the Jebusites live with the sons of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

1 And for the sons of Joseph the lot went out from the Jordan at Jericho, eastward of Jericho Water, to the wilderness, up from 2 Jericho to the highland of Bethel, and out from Bethel to Luz, and 3 over to the Arkite boundary, 'Ataroth, and down west to the Japhletite boundary, to the boundary of Lower Beth-Horon, and to Gezer, and its termination was at the sea.
 4 And the sons of Joseph had their estates assigned, Manasseh and 5 Ephraim. And the territory of the sons of Ephraim was clan by clan; and the boundary of their estate on the east was 'Ataroth-Addar, to 6 Upper Beth-Horon, and the boundary terminated at the sea. The Micmethath on the north, and the boundary went round east to 7 Taanath, Shiloh, and over it east of Janohah and down from Janohah to 'Ataroth and Na'arathah, and came against Jericho, and terminated 8 at the Jordan. From Tappuah the boundary went west to Kanah Arroyo, and its termination was at the sea. This was the estate of the 9 tribe of the sons of Ephraim clan by clan, this and the cities set apart for the sons of Ephraim in the middle of the estate of the sons 10 of Manasseh, all the cities and their villages. But they did not dispossess the Canaanites that lived in Gezer, and the Canaanites live among the Ephraimites to this day and have become subject to servile forced labor.

CHAPTER 17

1 And the lot for the tribe of Manasseh was as follows: because he was Joseph's firstborn, Manasseh's firstborn Makir the father of Gilead, because they were men of war, had Gilead and the Bashan.
 2 And for the rest of Manasseh's sons, clan by clan, the sons of Abi'ezer and the sons of Helek and the sons of Asriel and the sons of Shekem and the sons of Hephher and the sons of Shemida'—these are the male 3 sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, clan by clan; but Silpahad the son of Hephher the son of Gilead the son of Makir the son of Manasseh had no sons, but daughters, the names of his daughters being these, 4 Mahlah and No'ah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirsah, and they drew near before Priest Eleazar and Joshua' the son of Nun and the princes with the words "Jehovah commanded Moses to give us an estate among our brothers," and by Jehovah's direction he gave them an estate 5 among their father's brothers—Manasseh's pales fell ten of them, besides the country of Gilead and the Bashan on the other side of 6 the Jordan, because Manasseh's daughters were assigned estate among their brothers, and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the country of Gilead.

7 And the boundary of Manasseh was from Asher-ham-Micmethah in front of Shekem, and the boundary went to the south to the inhabitants of 'En-Tappuah (the Tappuah country belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah, on the boundary of Manasseh, to the sons of 8 Ephraim), and the boundary went down to Kanah Arroyo, south of the arroyo,—these cities belonged to Ephraim in the middle of the cities of Manasseh, and the boundary of Manasseh was north of the 9 arroyo,—and its termination was at the sea; southward Ephraim's and northward Manasseh's, and the sea was its boundary. And they 10 came against Asher on the north and Issacar on the east; and in Issacar and Asher Manasseh had Beth-Shean and its dependencies and Ible'am and its dependencies and the inhabitants of Dor and its dependencies and the inhabitants of Ta'anac and its dependencies and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its dependencies, the three Naphaths; but 11 the sons of Manasseh could not dispossess these cities, and the Canaanites persisted in living in this country, and when the sons of Israel grew strong they put the Canaanites to forced labor; they did not dispossess them.

12 And the sons of Joseph spoke to Joshua', saying "How came you to give us an estate of a single lot and a single portion when we are 13 a great people, Jehovah having so blessed us?" And Joshua' said to them "If you are a great people go up to the Badlands and cut out for yourselves there in the country of the Perizzites and the ogres, 14 because the highland of Ephraim crowds you." And the sons of Joseph said "The highland will not suffice for us, and all the Canaanites that live in the Vale country have iron chariots among them, those 15 in Beth-Shean and its dependencies and those in the Vale of Jezre'el." But Joshua' said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, 16 "You are a great people and have great strength; you shall not have a single lot, because you shall have a highland; because it is badlands, 17 you shall carve it out and have its issues, because you will dispossess the Canaanites though they do have iron chariots, because you are stronger."

1 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh and established the Tent of Meeting there, with the subjugated 2 country before them. And there were left among the sons of Israel, 3 who had not divided their estates, seven tribes. And Joshua' said to the sons of Israel "How much are you going to lag back from going in to take possession of the country your God Jehovah gave to your 4 fathers? Nominate three men to each tribe whom I may send to start out and explore the country and list it in proportion to the estates
5 they are to have and come to me; and divide it into seven shares, Judah standing fast in his territory on the south and the house of Joseph 6 standing fast in their territory on the north; and do you list the country in seven shares and bring them here to me and I will cast 7 lots for you here before our God Jehovah. For the Levites have no share among you, because Jehovah's priesthood is their estate; and Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have taken their estates on the east side of the Jordan, what Jehovah's servant Moses gave to them."

8 And the men started out and went; and Joshua' commissioned the ones that went to list the country, saying "Go and explore the country and list it and come back to me, and here I will throw lots for you 9 before Jehovah at Shiloh." And the men went and passed through the country and listed it in a book city by city into seven shares, and 10 came to Joshua' in the camp at Shiloh, and Joshua' threw lots for them at Shiloh before Jehovah.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, clan by clan, came up; and the boundary of their lot went out between the sons 12 of Judah and the sons of Joseph. And they had their boundary, for the north quarter, from the Jordan; and the boundary went up to the northern front of Jericho and up into the highland westward, 13 coming out in the wilderness of Beth-Aven; and the boundary went over from there to Luz, to the southern front of Luz, that is, Bethel; and the boundary went down to 'Ataroth-Addar on the mountain 14 south of Lower Beth-Horon. And the boundary curved round to the west border south of the mountain facing Beth-Horon on the south, and its termination was at Kirjath-Baal, that is, Kirjath-Je'arim, city 15 of the sons of Judah; this was the west border. And the south border was from the edge of Kirjath-Je'arim; and the boundary went out 16 west and out to the spring of Nephtoah Water, and the boundary went down to the edge of the mountain facing Ben-Hinnom's Valley in Ghost Hollow on the north, and down to Hinnom's Valley to the 17 south front of the Jebusites and down to 'En-Rogel, and curved north and went out to 'En-Shemesh and out to Geliloth opposite Red 18 Pass and down to Reuben's son Bohan's stone and over to the north front of Beth-ha-'Arabah and down to the Rift Valley, and the 19 boundary went over to the north front of Beth-Hoglah, and the termination of the boundary was at the north inlet of the Salt Sea, at the south extremity of the Jordan. This was the south boundary.

20 And the Jordan bounded it on the east border. This was the estate of the sons of Benjamin boundary by boundary all round, clan by clan.

21 And the cities for the tribe of the sons of Benjamin clan by clan 22 were Jericho and Beth-Hoglah and 'Emek-Kesis and Beth-ha-'Arabah 23 and Semaraim and Bethel and the 'Avvim and the Parah and Gho-24 phrah and Kephir-ha-'Ammonai and 'Ophni and Geba', twelve cities 25 and their villages, Gibeon and the Ramah and Beeroth and the Mispeh 26 and the Kephirah and the Mosah and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah 28 and Sela'-ha-Eleph and the Jebusites (that is, Jerusalem) and Gibeath and Kirjath-Je'arim, fourteen cities and their villages. This was the estate of the sons of Benjamin clan by clan.

CHAPTER 19

1 And the second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon clan by clan; and their estate was in the middle of the 2 estate of the sons of Judah. And they had in their estate Beer-Sheba' 3 4 and Shema' and Moladah and Hasar-Shu'al and Balah and 'Esem and 5 Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah and Siklag and Beth-ham-Marcaboth 6 and Hasar-Susah and Beth-Lebaoth and Sharuhem, thirteen cities 7 and their villages, 'En-Rimmon and Token and 'Ether and 'Ashan, 8 four cities and their villages, and all the villages round these cities to Ba'alath-Beer, Ramath-Negeb. This was the estate of the tribe of 9 the sons of Simeon clan by clan. The estate of the sons of Simeon was out of the pale of the sons of Judah, because the share of the sons of Judah was too large for them and the sons of Simeon were assigned part in the middle of their estate.

10 And the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun clan by clan; 11 and the boundary of their estate reached to Sarid. And their boundary went up westward and to Marealah, and came against Dabbesheth, 12 and came up to the arroyo alongside Jokne'am; and going back, from Sarid eastward, toward the sunrise along the boundary of Kisloth-13 Tabor and out to the Daberath and up to Japhia', and from there over eastward, sunriseward, to Gath-Hepher, to 'Eth-Kasin, and out 14 to Rimmonah and curving to the Ne'ah, and the boundary went round it to the north of Hannathon, and its termination was at 15 Iphtah-El Valley. And Kattath and Nahalal and Shimron and Idalah 16 and Beth-Lehem, twelve cities and their villages. This was the estate of the sons of Zebulun clan by clan, these cities and their villages.

17 And for Issacar the fourth lot came out, for the sons of Issacar 18 clan by clan; and their boundary was at Jezre'el and the Kesulloth 19 20 and Shunem and Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharah and the Rab-21 bith and Kishjon and Ebes and Remeth and 'En-Gannim and 'En-22 Haddah and Beth-Passes; and the boundary came against Tabor and Shahasimah and Beth-Shemesh, and the termination of their boundary

23 was at the Jordan: sixteen cities and their villages. This was the estate of the tribe of the sons of Issacar clan by clan, the cities and their villages.

24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Asher clan 25 by clan; and their boundary was Helkath and Hali and Beten and 26 Acshaph and Alammelec and 'Ad'ad and Mishal, and came against 27 Carmel at the sea and against Shihor-Libnath, and went back east to Beth-Dagon, and came against Zebulun and the north side of Iphthah-El Valley; and the boundary came to Beth-ha-'Emek and 28 Ne'iel and went out to Cabul on the left, and 'Ebron and Rehob and 29 Hammon and Kanah, to great Sidon; and the boundary went back to the Ramah and clear to the fortress-spring of Tyre; and the boundary went back to Hosah, and its termination was at the sea; and Mahalab and Aczib and 'Ummah and Aphek and Rehob; twenty-two 30 cities and their villages. This was the estate of the tribe of the sons of Asher clan by clan, these cities and their villages.

32 And for the sons of Naphtali the sixth lot came out, for the sons 33 of Naphtali clan by clan; and their boundary was from Heleph, from the Besa'annim Oak, and Adami-han-Nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum, and its termination was at the Jordan; and the boundary went back westward to Aznoth-Tabor and out from there to Hukkok, and came against Zebulun on the south and against Asher on the west and 35 against the Jordan swamp on the east. And the side fortified cities, 36 Ser and Hammath-Rakkath and Kinnereth and Adamah and the 37 38 Ramah and Hasor and Kedesh and Edre'i and 'En-Hasor and Iron and Migdal-El-Horem and Beth-'Anath and Beth-Shemesh, nineteen 39 cities and their villages. This was the estate of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali clan by clan, the cities and their villages.

40 For the tribe of the sons of Dan clan by clan the seventh lot came 41 out; and the boundary of their estate was Soreah and Eshtaol and 42 43 'Ir-Shemesh and Sha'albin and Aijalon and Ithlah and Elon and 44 45 Timnathah and 'Ekron and Eltekeh and Gibbethon and Ba'alath and 46 Jehud and Bene-Berak and Gath-Rimmon and Jarkon Water and the 48 Rakkon, together with the boundary, fronting Joppa. This was the estate of the tribe of the sons of Dan clan by clan, these cities and 47 their villages. And the sons of Dan did not crowd out the Amorites who carried on hostilities with them in the highland, and the Amorites did not let them get down to the vale and made the territory of their share too cramped for them; and the sons of Dan went up and attacked Leshem and took it and massacred its people and took possession of it and settled there, and named Leshem "Dan" after their father Dan. And the Amorites persisted in living in Aijalon and in Sha'albin; but the hand of Ephraim grew heavy on them and they became subject to forced labor.

49 And they finished having the country assigned boundary by boundary; and the sons of Israel gave Joshua' the son of Nun an estate in

- 50 their central part; by Jehovah's direction they gave him the city he asked for, Timnath-Heres in the highland of Ephraim, and he fortified the city and lived in it.
- 51 These are the estates Priest Eleazar and Joshua' the son of Nun and the heads of families of the tribes of the sons of Israel assigned by lot at Shiloh before Jehovah at the door of the Tent of Meeting. So they finished dividing the country.

CHAPTER 20

- 1 2 And Jehovah spoke to Joshua', saying "Tell the sons of Israel 'Institute the asylum cities of which I spoke to you by Moses, 3 for the homicide who strikes down a person inadvertently to flee to; you shall have them as an asylum from the blood-reclaimer, 6 and the homicide shall not die by the blood-reclaimer till he stands before the congregation for trial.'"
- 7 And they hallowed Kedesh in the Mark, in the highland of Naphtali, and Shekem in the highland of Ephraim, and Kirjath-Arbogh (that is, 8 Hebron) in the highland of Judah. And on the east side of the Jordan at Jericho they instituted Beser in the wilderness, in the level, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe 9 of Gad, and Golan in the Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel and for the immigrants that lived among them, for everyone who struck down a person inadvertently to flee to and not die by the blood-reclaimer till he stood before the congregation.

- 1 And the heads of families of the Levites approached Priest Eleazar and Joshua' the son of Nun and the heads of families of the tribes 2 of the sons of Israel and spoke to them at Shiloh in Canaan, saying "Jehovah gave commandment through Moses to give us cities to live 3 in, and their glebes for our cattle." And the sons of Israel gave the Levites out of their estate, by Jehovah's direction, these cities and their glebes:
- 4 And the lot came out for the clan of the Kehathites; and Priest Aaron's sons had, out of the Levites, out of the tribe of Judah and out of the tribe of the Simeonites and out of the tribe of Benjamin, 5 by lot thirteen cities; and the remaining sons of Kehath had out of the clans of the tribe of Ephraim and out of the tribe of Dan and 6 out of half the tribe of Manasseh by lot ten cities. And the sons of Gershon had out of the clans of the tribe of Issacar and out of the tribe of Asher and out of the tribe of Naphtali and out of the half- 7 tribe of Manasseh in the Bashan by lot thirteen cities. And the sons of Merari had, clan by clan, out of the tribe of Reuben and out of the tribe of Gad and out of the tribe of Zebulun twelve cities.
- 8 And the sons of Israel gave the Levites these cities and their glebes, 9 as Jehovah commanded through Moses, by lot. And they gave out of the tribe of the sons of Judah and out of the tribe of the sons of 10 Simeon these cities which are to be named: to the sons of Aaron, out of the clans of the Kehathites, out of the sons of Levi, (because they 11 had the first lot,) they gave Kirjath-Arbogh the headquarters of the 'Anak, that is, Hebron, in the highland of Judah, and its glebe around 12 it, but the range of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his property.

13 And to the sons of Priest Aaron they gave the city of asylum for the homicide, Hebron, and its glebes, and Libnah and its glebes, and 14 Jattir and its glebe, and Eshtemoa' and its glebes, and Holon and 15 its glebe, and Debir and its glebe, and 'Ashan and its glebe, and Juttah and its glebe, and Beth-Shemesh and its glebe, nine cities out 16 of these two tribes; and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon and its glebe, and Geba' and its glebe, 'Anathoth and its glebe, and 'Almon 17 and its glebe, four cities: the total of the cities of Aaron's sons, the priests, was thirteen cities and their glebes.
18

19 And for the Levite clans of the sons of Kehath, those of the sons of Kehath who were left, the cities of their lot were, out of the tribe 20 of Ephraim they gave them the city of asylum for the homicide, Shekem, and its glebe, in the highland of Ephraim, and Gezer and 21 its glebe, and Kibsaïm and its glebe, and Beth-Horon and its glebe, 22 four cities; and out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and its glebe, Gibbethon and its glebe, Aijalon and its glebe, Gath-Rimmon and its 23 glebe, four cities; and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Ta'anac 24 and its glebe, Ible'am and its glebe, two cities: total ten cities and their glebes for the clans of the rest of the sons of Kehath.
25

26 And the sons of Gershon, out of the clans of the Levites, had out of the half-tribe of Manasseh the city of asylum for the homicide, Golan in the Bashan, and its glebe, and Be'eshterah and its glebe, 27 two cities; and out of the tribe of Issacar, Kishjon and its glebe, 28 Daberath and its glebe, Jarmuth and its glebe, 'En-Gannim and its glebe, four cities; and out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its glebe, 29 'Abdon and its glebe, Helkath and its glebe, Rehob and its glebe, 30 four cities; and out of the tribe of Naphtali the city of asylum for the homicide, Kedesh in the Mark, and its glebe, and Hammoth-Dor 31 and its glebe, and Kartan and its glebe, three cities: the total of the cities of the Gershonites, clan by clan, was thirteen cities and their glebes.
32

33 And the clans of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, had, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokne'am and its glebe, Kartah and its glebe, 34 Dimnah and its glebe, Nahalal and its glebe, four cities; and on the other side of the Jordan at Jericho out of the tribe of Reuben the city of asylum for the homicide, Beser in the wilderness, and its glebe, 35 36 and Jahsah and its glebe, Kedemoth and its glebe, and Mepha'ath and its glebe, four cities; and out of the tribe of Gad the city of asylum for the homicide, Ramoth in Gilead, and its glebe, and Ma-37 38

39 hanaim and its glebe, Heshbon and its glebe, Ja'zer and its glebe, 40 four cities. All the cities belonged to the sons of Merari clan by clan, the rest of the clans of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.
41 The total of the cities of the Levites in the midst of the property 42 of the sons of Israel was forty-eight cities and their glebes, these cities being each with its glebes around it, so for all these cities.
43 And Jehovah gave Israel all the country he had sworn to give to 44 their fathers, and they took possession of it and lived in it; and Jehovah gave them rest on all sides, just as he had sworn to their fathers, and of all their enemies not a man stood before them; Jehovah 45 gave all their enemies into their hands. Of all the good promise Jehovah had made to the house of Israel not a point failed; all came true.

1 Then Joshua' called the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-2 tribe of Manasseh and said to them "You have kept all the commands Jehovah's servant Moses gave you, and obeyed every order of mine;
3 you have not deserted your brothers, these many days. To this day you 4 have kept the charge of your God Jehovah's commandments. And now Jehovah has brought your brothers to rest as he promised them; so now about-face and go to your homes in the country you have as your property, which Jehovah's servant Moses gave to you on the 5 other side of the Jordan. Only be very careful to live up to the commandment and instruction which Jehovah's servant Moses enjoined upon you, loving your God Jehovah and walking in all his ways and keeping his commandments and holding fast to him, and worshiping 6 him with all your hearts and souls." And Joshua' blessed them, and they went to their homes.
7 And Moses had given in the Bashan to half the tribe of Manasseh, and to half of it Joshua' gave on the west side of the Jordan with their brothers. And when Joshua' sent them away to their homes and 8 blessed them, they went back to their homes with great substance, with a very great quantity of stock, with silver and gold and bronze and iron, and with a very great quantity of clothing, and divided the booty from their enemies with their brothers.
9 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh went back from Shiloh in Canaan, from the company of the sons of Israel, to go to Gilead, the country of their property 10 appropriated to them by Jehovah's direction through Moses. And they came to the marks of the Jordan, in Canaan, and there the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar by the Jordan, an imposing altar.
11 And the sons of Israel heard "There have the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar toward Canaan in the marks of the Jordan, on the sons of Israel's side,"

12 and all the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh 13 to go up in an expedition against them. And the sons of Israel sent 14 to Gilead, to the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-15 tribe of Manasseh, Pinehas the son of Priest Eleazar and ten princes 16 with him, one prince from each family of all the tribes of Israel; each 17 was one of the heads of families of the thousands of Israel. And they 18 came to Gilead to the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the 19 half-tribe of Manasseh and spoke with them, saying "Says all Jeho-20 vah's congregation, What does this unfaithfulness mean which you 21 have been guilty of toward the God of Israel, going back today from 22 following Jehovah, in that you have built yourselves an altar to break 23 your allegiance to Jehovah today? Was the offense of Peghor a little 24 thing for us, that from which we are not cleansed to this day, and by 25 which there came the calamity in Jehovah's congregation, and are 26 you turning back from following Jehovah? and when you break 27 your allegiance to Jehovah today, tomorrow he will be incensed at 28 all the congregation of Israel. If the country you have as your property is unclean, just come over to the country that is Jehovah's property, where Jehovah's tabernacle is present, and receive a property among us; but do not break your allegiance to Jehovah and put us in the position of breaking ours by your building yourselves an altar other than the altar of our God Jehovah. 'Acan the son of Zabdi was guilty of unfaithfulness in the deodand, and did there not come a wrath against all the congregation of Israel? and he did not perish a single man in his guilt."

21 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of 22 Manasseh answered to the heads of the thousands of Israel "Jehovah is God of gods. Jehovah is God of gods. He knows, and let Israel know: if it be in breach of allegiance or if it be in unfaithfulness 23 to Jehovah let him not help us this day, building us an altar to turn 24 back from following Jehovah; or if it be to offer burnt-offerings and 25 grain-offerings on, or if it be to do welfare-sacrifices on, Jehovah 26 himself look into it; if it be not for anxiety about a certain point 27 that we have done this, thinking "Tomorrow your sons will say to 28 ours "What has Israel's God Jehovah to do with you, Jehovah having put a boundary between you sons of Reuben and of Gad and us, the Jordan? you have no share in Jehovah," and your sons will make ours leave off fearing Jehovah.' And we thought 'Let us make ourselves a model of the altar,' not for burnt-offering and not for sacrifice, because it is a witness between you and us, and between our generations after us, for rendering Jehovah's worship before him with our burnt-offerings and our sacrifices and our welfare-sacrifices, and your sons are not to say to ours tomorrow 'you have no share in Jehovah.'
And we thought 'And when they say so to us and to our generations tomorrow, we will say "See the model of Jehovah's altar that our fathers made, not for burnt-offering and not for sacrifice, because

29 it is a witness between you and us.”’ Away from us with the thought of breaking our allegiance to Jehovah or turning back today from following Jehovah, building an altar for burnt-offering, grain-offering, and sacrifice, apart from our God Jehovah’s altar before his tabernacle.”

30 And Priest Pinehas and the princes of the congregation who were with him heard the words the sons of Reuben and of Gad and of 31 Manasseh spoke, and approved of them. And Priest Pinehas said to the sons of Reuben and of Gad and of Manasseh “Today we know that Jehovah is among us; in that you were not guilty of this unfaithfulness toward Jehovah, you then delivered the sons of Israel out of 32 Jehovah’s hands.” And Priest Pinehas and the princes returned from conferring with the sons of Reuben and of Gad in Gilead to 33 the sons of Israel in Canaan and brought them back word; and the sons of Israel approved of the word, and the sons of Israel blessed God and did not think of going up on an expedition against them to 34 ravage the country the sons of Reuben and of Gad lived in. And the sons of Reuben and of Gad called the altar ‘Ed, “because it is an ‘ed, witness, between us that Jehovah is our God.”

CHAPTER 23

1 And long after Jehovah had given Israel rest from all their enemies 2 on all sides, Joshua’, being an old man, far gone in years, called all Israel, its elders and its chiefs and its judges and its marshals, and 3 said to them “I am an old man, far gone in years; and you have seen everything that your God Jehovah did to all these nations on your 4 account, because it was your God Jehovah that fought for you. See, I have allotted these remaining nations to you as estate, tribe by tribe, from the Jordan and all the nations I exterminated and the great 5 sea where the sun sets. And your God Jehovah will himself push them out of your way and dispossess them from before you, and you shall take possession of their country as your God Jehovah promised you;
6 and you are to be very determined to take care and live up to everything that is written in the code of Moses, not turning off from it to 7 right or to left, not going in among these nations that remain with you, nor mentioning the names of their gods nor putting an oath by 8 them nor worshiping them nor doing reverence to them, but sticking to your God Jehovah, as you have done it to this day and Jehovah 9 has dispossessed before you great and numerous nations, and not a 10 man has stood before you to this day; one man of you would chase a thousand, because it was your God Jehovah that fought for you as 11 he had promised you. And you are to keep a sharp watch on your own-12 selves to love your God Jehovah, because if you do turn back and adhere to the rest of these nations that remain with you and inter-13 marry with them and go in among them and they among you, you are to know positively that your God Jehovah will do no more of dis-possessing these nations from before you, and they will become to you a trap and a snare, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, till you perish off this good soil your God Jehovah has given you. Here I am today going the way of all the earth, and you know in all your hearts and souls that not one point of all the good things your God Jehovah promised about you has failed; it all came true for you, not one point of it failed. And as all the good word your God Jehovah promised about you has come true to you, so will Jehovah make all the bad word come true to you till he roots you out from this good soil that he gave you, when you overstep Jehovah's covenant that he enjoined on you and go and worship other gods and do reverence to them, and Jehovah is angry with you and you perish quickly off the good country he gave you."

CHAPTER 24

1 And Joshua' brought together all the tribes of Israel at Shekem and summoned the elders of Israel and its chiefs and judges and 2 marshals, and they took their stand before God. And Joshua' said to all the people "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Of old your forefathers lived on the other side of the River, Terah the father of Abraham and 3 of Nahor, and worshiped other gods. And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River and had him go throughout Canaan, and I made him prolific and gave him Isaac and gave Isaac Jacob 4 and 'Esau, and gave 'Esau the highland of Se'ir to take possession of, while Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. And I sent Moses 5 and Aaron and smote the Egyptians with what I did among them, and afterward I brought you out of Egypt; and you came to the sea, 6 and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and cavalry at the Red Sea, and they cried out to Jehovah, and he placed a mass 7 of darkness between you and the Egyptians and brought the sea on them, and it covered them, and your eyes saw what I had done to 8 the Egyptians; and you lived in the wilderness a long time. And I brought you to the country of the Amorites who lived on the other side of the Jordan; and they made war with you, and I gave them into your hands, and you took possession of their country, and I 9 rooted them out before you. And the king of Moab, Balak the son of Sippor, stood up and made war on Israel, and called in Balaam 10 the son of Be'or to misspeak you; but I was not willing to listen to Balaam, and he positively blessed you, and I delivered you out of his hands. And you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho, and 11 the burghers of Jericho made war on you, and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites, and I gave them into your hands.
12 And I sent before you hornets which expelled them before you, the twelve kings of the Amorites, not by your sword or bow. And I gave 13 you a country you had not labored on, and cities you had not built, and you settled in them; it is vineyards and olive-trees which you did 14 not plant that you are eating from. Now fear Jehovah and worship him wholeheartedly and loyally, and clear away the gods your fore-15 fathers worshiped on the other side of the River and in Egypt, and worship Jehovah. And if you do not like to worship Jehovah, make your choice today whom you will worship, whether the gods your forefathers on the other side of the River worshiped or the gods of the Amorites whose country you are living in; but I and my family will worship Jehovah."

16 And the people answered "Away with the thought of our leaving 17 Jehovah to worship other gods, for it was our God Jehovah that brought us up out of Egypt and guarded us through all the distance 18 we went and all the peoples we passed among, and expelled before us the Amorites that lived in the country; we too will worship Jehovah, because he is our God."

19 And Joshua' said to the people "You will not be able to worship Jehovah, because he is a holy God; he is a jealous deity who will not 20 pardon your crimes and sins; for you will leave Jehovah and worship foreign gods, and he will turn back and do you harm and exterminate you after he had done you good."

21 And the people said to Joshua' "No, we will worship Jehovah."

22 And Joshua' said to the people "You are witnesses to your bargain, 23 that you have made your choice of Jehovah, to worship him. Now clear away the foreign gods you have among you and bend your hearts to Israel's God Jehovah."

24 And the people said to Joshua' "We will worship our God Jehovah and obey him."

25 And Joshua' made an agreement with the people that day, and 26 established a usage and law for them at Shekem. And Joshua' wrote these terms in the book of the code of Moses, and took a great stone 27 and set it up there under the oak at Jehovah's sanctuary; and Joshua' said to all the people "There, we will have this stone for a witness to our bargain, because it had heard all Jehovah's words that he spoke with us and will be a witness to your bargain so that you may not cheat 28 your God Jehovah." And Joshua' sent the people away to their estates.

29 And after this Jehovah's servant Joshua' the son of Nun died at 30 the age of a hundred and ten years, and they buried him within the bounds of his estate at Timnath-Heres in the highland of Ephraim, 31 north of Ga'ash Mountain. And Israel worshiped Jehovah throughout Joshua's time and throughout the time of the elders who survived after Joshua' who had known all Jehovah's work which he had done for Israel.

32 And Joseph's bones, which the sons of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, they buried at Shekem in the lot of land that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shekem for a hundred kesitahs and that had become Joseph's estate.

- 33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died, and they buried him on his son Pinehas's hill which had been given to him in the highland of Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF THE JUDGES

- 1 And after Joshua's death the sons of Israel put the question to Jehovah "Whom shall we have go up against the Canaanites to begin
- 2 with, and attack them?" And Jehovah said "Judah shall go up: I
- 3 have given the land into his hands." And Judah said to his brother Simeon "Come up with me into my allotment to attack the Canaanites, and so will I go with you into your allotment"; and Simeon went
- 4 with him. So Judah went up, and Jehovah gave the Canaanites and Perizzites into his hands, and they defeated them at Bezek, killing
- 5 ten thousand men. And they found Adoni-Bezek at Bezek and at-
- 6 tacked him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and Adoni-Bezek fled, and they ran him down and laid hold of him and
- 7 cut off his thumbs and great toes, and Adoni-Bezek said "Seventy kings have picked up their food under my table with their thumbs and great toes cut off; God has paid me back just what I had done." And they brought him to Jerusalem and he died there.
- 8 And the sons of Judah attacked Jerusalem and took it, and mas-
- 9 sacred the people and put the torch to the city. And afterward the sons of Judah went down to attack the Canaanites who lived in the
- 10 highlands and in the South and in the lowlands; and Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (the name of Hebron formerly being Kirjath-Arbogh) and killed Sheshai and Ahiman and
- 11 Talmai. And from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir formerly being Kirjath-Sepher); and Caleb said "To the one who conquers and takes Kirjath-Sepher I will give my
- 12 daughter 'Acsah as wife"; and Ghothniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it, and Caleb gave him his daughter 'Acsah
- 13 as wife. And when she came she instigated him to ask her father for land: and she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to
- 14 her "What is the matter?" and she said to him "Give me a blessing, because you have put me in the South: give me bowls of water." And Caleb gave her Upper Gulloth and Nether Gulloth.
- 15 And Hobab the Cainite, Moses's father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms with the sons of Judah to the wilderness of Judah, in the South about 'Arad, and went and lived with the 'Amalekites.

17 And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they defeated the Canaanites who lived in Sephath; and they destroyed it without quarter, and named the city Hormah.

18 And Judah took Ghaza and its territory, and Ashkelon and its 19 territory, and 'Ekron and its territory; and Jehovah was with Judah, and they took possession of the highland—for they were not able to dispossess the inhabitants of the vale, because they had iron chariots.
20 And they gave Caleb Hebron, as Moses had promised, and he dispossessed from there the three sons of the 'Anak.

21 And the sons of Benjamin did not dispossess the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem, and the Jebusites lived with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

22 And the house of Joseph too went up to Bethel, and Jehovah was 23 with them. And the house of Joseph made a reconnaissance at Bethel 24 (the name of the city formerly was Luz); and the sentinels saw a man come out of the city, and said to him "Show us the way into the 25 city and we will befriend you." And he showed them the way into the city; and they massacred the people of the city, but let the man 26 and his clan go. And the man went to the country of the Hittites and built a city and named it Luz; that is its name to this day.

27 And Manasseh did not dispossess Beth-Shean and its dependencies, and Ta'anac and its dependencies, and the inhabitants of Dor and its dependencies, and the inhabitants of Jible'am and its dependencies, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its dependencies, but the Canaanites persisted in living in this country. And when Israel grew strong they subjected them to forced labor; they did not dispossess them.

29 And Ephraim did not dispossess the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, but the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.

30 Zebulun did not dispossess the inhabitants of Kitron and the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labor.

31 Asher did not dispossess the inhabitants of 'Acco and the inhabitants of Sidon, and Ahlab and Aczib and Helbah and Aphik and Rehob; and the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the country, but had not dispossessed them.

33 Naphtali did not dispossess the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh and the inhabitants of Beth-'Anath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the country, and the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh and Beth-'Anath became subject to forced labor under them.

34 And the Amorites crowded the sons of Dan into the highland; for 35 they did not let them get down to the vale, and the Amorites persisted in living in Har-Heres, in Aijalon, and in Sha'albim. But the hand of the house of Joseph grew heavy, and they became subject to forced labor.

36 And the territory of the Amorites was from Scorpion Pass, from Sela' upward.

1 And the Angel of Jehovah went up from the Gilgal to Bokim, and said "... I led you up from Egypt, and brought you into the country that I had sworn to your fathers I would, and said 'I will not break
2 my covenant with you forever; and you shall make no treaties with the inhabitants of this country; you shall pull down their altars'— 3 and you did not obey me; what is this you have done? So I have said I would not drive them out before you, but you shall have them as 4 foes and their gods as a snare." And when the Angel of Jehovah said these things to all the sons of Israel, the people raised their voices 5 and wept; and they named the place Bokim, "Weepers," and sacrificed there to Jehovah.

6 And Joshua' dismissed the people, and the sons of Israel went home 7 to their farms to take possession of the country. And the people worshiped Jehovah throughout Joshua's life, and throughout the life of the elders who outlived Joshua', who had seen all Jehovah's great 8 work that he did for Israel. And Jehovah's servant Joshua' the son 9 of Nun died at the age of a hundred and ten years, and they buried him on his estate at Timnath-Heres in the highland of Ephraim, to 10 the north of Gaash Mountain. And so were all that generation gathered to their fathers, and there arose after them another generation that did not know Jehovah nor the work that he did for Israel.

11 And the sons of Israel did what displeased Jehovah, and worshiped 12 the Baals; and they left their fathers' God Jehovah, who had brought them out of Egypt, and followed other gods from among the gods of the peoples around them, and did reverence to them, and provoked 13 Jehovah; and they left Jehovah and worshiped the Baal and the 'Ashtarts. And Jehovah was angry with Israel and gave them into 14 the hands of pillagers, and they pillaged them; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies on all sides, and they could no longer stand 15 before their enemies. In everything they undertook Jehovah's hand was on them for mischief, as Jehovah had threatened and as Jehovah 16 had sworn to them; and they were in great straits. And Jehovah raised up judges, and they saved them out of the hands of their 17 pillagers; and neither did they listen to their judges, but prostituted themselves to follow other gods and did reverence to them. They quickly left the road their fathers had gone in, obeying Jehovah's 18 commandments; they did not do so. And when Jehovah raised up judges for them Jehovah was with the judge and saved them out of the hands of their enemies throughout the time of the judge, because 19 Jehovah repented at their groaning over their oppressors and molesters. And at the judge's death they went back to doing more viciously than their fathers, following other gods, worshiping them and doing them reverence; they did not drop any part of their practices, 20 and of their stubborn course. And Jehovah was angry with Israel and said "Since this nation have violated my covenant which I commanded 21 their fathers, and not been obedient to me, I on my part will not dispossess before you any more of the nations that Joshua' left when 22 he died,"—in order to test Israel by them, whether they kept his 23 ways, walking in them, as their fathers had kept them, or not. And Jehovah left these nations, not dispossessing them quickly, and did not give them into Joshua's hands.

1 And these are the nations that Jehovah left to test Israel by, all 2 who had not known any of the Canaanite wars; only for the sake of the generations of the sons of Israel, to teach them war—only those 3 who had not known them before: the Five Sarns of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites and the Phenicians and the Hivvites that live on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-Hermon to Lebo-Hamath; 4 and they were to test Israel by, to know whether they would obey Jehovah's commandments which he had given to their fathers by 5 Moses. And the sons of Israel lived in the midst of the Canaanites, the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites 6 and the Jebusites, and took their daughters for wives and gave their own daughters to their sons, and worshiped their gods.

7 And the sons of Israel did what displeased Jehovah, and forgot 8 their God Jehovah and worshiped the Baals and the Asherahs; and Jehovah was angry with Israel and sold them into the hands of Cushan-Risheathaim, the king of Aram-Naharaim; and the sons of 9 Israel were subject to Cushan-Risheathaim eight years. And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised up for the sons of Israel a deliverer who saved them, Ghothniel the son of Kenaz, 10 Caleb's younger brother; and the spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he judged Israel and went out to war, and Jehovah gave King Cushan-Risheathaim of Aram into his hands, and his hands bore hard 11 on Cushan-Risheathaim; and the country was quiet forty years.

12 And Ghothniel the son of Kenaz died, and the sons of Israel did more of what displeased Jehovah, and Jehovah strengthened King
'Eglon of Moab against Israel because of their doing what displeased 13 Jehovah; and he drew together around him the Bene-'Ammon and 'Amalek, and went and defeated Israel and took possession of the 14 City of Palms; and the sons of Israel were subject to King 'Eglon of 15 Moab eighteen years. And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera the Benjamite, a left-handed man. And the sons of Israel were sending a 16 tribute by him to King 'Eglon of Moab; and Ehud made himself a sword with two edges, a foot long, and belted it on under his brig-17 andine, on his right hip. And he presented the tribute to King 'Eglon

18 of Moab (who was a very fat man); and when he had finished presenting the tribute he dismissed the people who carried the tribute, 19 but he turned back from the carved stones at the Gilgal and said "Your majesty, I have some private business with you"; and he said "Quiet!" and all who were standing in his presence went out 20 from it, and Ehud went in to him, he sitting in his cool roof-chamber alone. And Ehud said "I have an errand from God to you"; and he 21 rose from his chair. And Ehud put his left hand in and took the sword from his right hip and ran it into 'Eglon's abdomen, and it 22 went in hilt and all, and the fat closed over the blade, because he had not drawn the sword out of the abdomen; and Ehud went out on the 23 ledge, and shut the doors of the roof-chamber on him and locked them. And when he had gone out 'Eglon's servants came and saw how the 24 doors of the roof-chamber were locked, and thought "He must be easing himself in the cool closet"; and they waited till they felt un-25 comfortable, and found that he did not open the doors of the roof-chamber; and they took the key and opened them, and found their 26 sovereign down on the ground dead. And Ehud made his escape while they were delaying, and had passed the carved stones and got safe 27 to Se'irah. And when he got there he blew the ram-horn in the highland of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel came down from the highland 28 with him, he at their head; and he said to them "Come down after me, because Jehovah has given your enemies the Moabites into your hands," and they came down after him and took the fords of the 29 Jordan against the Moabites and did not let a man cross, and made havoc of the Moabites at that time, killing about ten thousand men—30 every man of standing and every man of energy; not one escaped; and Moab was humbled under the hands of Israel on that day. And the country was quiet eighty years.
31 And after him was Shamgar the son of 'Anath, and he made havoc of the Philistines, killing six hundred men with an oxgoad; and he too saved Israel.

1 And the sons of Israel did more of what displeased Jehovah, Ehud being dead, and Jehovah sold them into the hands of Jabin, the king of the Canaanites, who reigned at Hasor; his general was Sisera, 2 whose residence was Harosheth-haggoyim; and the sons of Israel cried out to Jehovah, because he had nine hundred iron chariots; and for twenty years he oppressed the sons of Israel by main force.
3 And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, judged Israel at that time: she sat under Deborah's Palms between Ramah and Bethel, in the highland of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel went up 4 to her for justice. And she sent and called Barak the son of Abino'am from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him "The order has come from Israel's God Jehovah, 'Go march on Mount Tabor, taking with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun; 7 and I will draw to you, to Kishon Arroyo, Jabin's general Sisera and his chariots and his host, and I will give them into your hands.'" 8 And Barak said to her "If you go with me I will go, but if you do 9 not I will not." And she said "Go with you I will; there will be no glory for you, though, in the campaign on which you go, because 10 Jehovah will sell Sisera into a woman's hands." And Deborah rose and went with Barak to Kedesah; and Barak called out Zebulun and 11 Naphtali to Kedesah; and ten thousand men went up at his back, and Deborah went up with him. And Heber the Cainite had separated from the Cainites, the sons of Moses's father-in-law Hobab, and pitched his tent up to the Besa'ananim Oak near Kedesah.

 12 And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abino'am had gone 13 up to Mount Tabor; and Sisera called out all the chariots he had, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the men he had with him, from 14 Harosheth-haggoyim to Kishon Arroyo. And Deborah said to Barak "Up, for this is the day Jehovah has given Sisera into your hands—Jehovah has gone out before you!" And down went Barak from 15 Mount Tabor, with ten thousand men behind him; and Jehovah routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army unsparingly before Barak, and Sisera dismounted from his chariot and fled on foot, 16 while Barak pursued the chariots and the army clear to Harosheth-haggoyim, and all Sisera's army fell without quarter: not one was left.
 17 And Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Ja'el the wife of Heber the Cainite, because King Jabin of Hasor and the family of Heber the 18 Cainite were at peace. And Ja'el went out to meet Sisera and said to him "In here, sir, in here with me; do not be afraid"; and Sisera went 19 in with her into the tent, and she covered him with the rug; and he said to her "Let me have a drink of water, I am thirsty," and she 20 opened the bag of milk and let him drink and covered him up. And he said to her "Stand at the door of the tent, and if anyone comes 21 and asks you 'Is there anyone here?' say 'No.' " And Ja'el the wife of Heber the Cainite got her tent-peg, and took the hammer in her hand, and went in quietly where he was and drove the peg into his temples, and through into the ground, while he was fast asleep and exhausted, 22 and killed him. And up came Barak pursuing Sisera, and Ja'el went out to meet him and said to him "Come, and I will show you the man you are looking for"; and he went into her tent and found Sisera 23 lying dead with the peg in his temple. And Jehovah humbled King 24 Jabin of the Canaanites that day before the sons of Israel; and the hands of the sons of Israel pressed harder and harder on King Jabin of the Canaanites till they had wiped out King Jabin of the Canaanites.

1 And Deborah and Barak the son of Abino'am sang on that day

2 "For untrimmed hair in Israel, for ready volunteers, bless Jehovah!
 3 Listen, kings; give ear, potentates;
 I will sing to Jehovah, I!
 I will make music to Israel's God Jehovah.
 4 Jehovah, when you came out from Se'ir, when you paced forth from the wolds of Edom,
 The earth quaked; aye, the heavens tossed;
 aye, the clouds dripped water, 5 The mountains streamed at Jehovah's presence,— this is Sinai,— at the presence of Israel's God Jehovah.
 6 In the days of Shamgar the son of 'Anath, in the days of Ja'el, roads ceased and wayfarers went by devious roads; 7 Prowess ceased in Israel, ceased till you arose, Deborah, till you arose, mother in Israel.
 8 He would choose new gods;
 then barley bread;
 Shield was not to be seen, nor spear, among forty thousand in Israel.
 9 My heart goes out to the marshals of Israel, who volunteered among the people; bless Jehovah!
 10 Riders of roan asses, sitters on carpets, walkers by the way, review it!
 11 At the sound of archers between the water-holes there they shall celebrate Jehovah's loyal work, his loyal work of prowess in Israel.
 Then Jehovah's people went down to the gates!
 12 Arouse, arouse, Deborah; rouse, rouse, chant your song; up, Barak; take your captives, son of Abino'am!
 13 Then survivors came down for heroes, Jehovah's people came down for me among champions: 14 Out of Ephraim those whose root is in the vale, your brother Benjamin among your kinsfolk;
 Out of Makir marshals came down, and out of Zebulun wielders of the mustering-baton.
 15 And the chiefs in Issacar were with Deborah, and Issacar, so Barak;
 in the vale they poured along at his back.
 At Reuben's water-channels great were the resolves of minds.

- 16 Why did you sit in the fork of the paths to hear the whistles of the flocks?
By Reuben's water-channels great were the searchings of minds.
- 17 Gillead was settled on the other side of the Jordan, and Dan was on foreign ships; Asher was living by the beach, settled at its landings.
- 18 Zebulun was a people that flouted their lives to die, and Naphtali, on the heights of the range.
- 19 Kings came, they fought; then fought the kings of the Canaanites at Ta'anac by the Megiddo Water; no winnings of silver did they take.
- 20 The stars fought out of the sky, out of their orbits they fought with Sisera.
- 21 The Kishon torrent swept them off, streaked with their blood was the Kishon torrent, stout souls were set on their way.
- 22 Then they pounded the ponies' heels, his heroes went galloping, galloping.
- 23 Curse Meroz, says Jehovah's Angel, curse its inhabitants with a downright curse, Because they did not come to help Jehovah, to help Jehovah among the champions.
- 24 Most blessed of women be Ja'el the wife of Heber the Cainite, of women in tents most blessed:
- 25 Water he asked, milk she has given, in a noble bowl she has brought clabber.
- 26 Her hand she puts to the peg, her right hand to the toilers' mallet,
And strikes Sisera, smashes his head, shatters and drives through his temple-bone.
- 27 Between her legs he plunged, fell, lay; between her legs he plunged, fell;
where he plunged, there he fell smitten.
- 28 At the window, at the lattice, Sisera's mother stood looking out and talking all the time:
'Why is it his chariotry is so long in coming?
why is it the hoofbeats of his chariots are so late?'
- 29 The wisest of her ladies answered her, she herself echoed back her words,
- 30 'O, they are finding booty, dividing it, a slave-girl or two per man,

A booty of dyed cloths for Sisera, a booty of dyed cloths, embroidery, a dyed cloth, double embroidery, for my neck—booty!

- 31 So may all your enemies perish, Jehovah!
and may those who love him be like the rising of the sun at its brightest!"

And the country was quiet forty years.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 And the sons of Israel did what displeased Jehovah, and Jehovah 2 gave them into the hands of the Midianites seven years. And the Midianites' hand bore hard on Israel: for fear of the Midianites the 3 sons of Israel made themselves the tunnels in the mountains, and the caves and the fastnesses. And if Israel sowed a crop, up would come 4 the Midianites and the 'Amalekites and the Eastern Beduins, and come up over them; and they camped on them and pastured off the 5 growth of the country, till you come to Ghaza; and they would leave no subsistence in Israel, nor sheep nor ox nor donkey. For they 6 would come up stock and all, and their tents would come in as thick as grasshoppers; and they came into the country to pasture it off.
7 And Israel was brought very low because of the Midianites, and the 8 sons of Israel cried to Jehovah. And when the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah about the Midianites Jehovah sent a prophet to the sons 9 of Israel, and he said to them "Says Israel's God Jehovah, 'I brought you out from the slave-quarters, and delivered you out of the hands of all your oppressors, and drove them out before you and gave you 10 their country; and I said to you "I am your God Jehovah: you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are settling"— and you did not obey me.'"

- 11 And the Angel of Jehovah came and stood under the terebinth-tree at Ghophrah, that belonged to Joash the Abi'ezrite; and when his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress to get it out of 12 the way of the Midianites, the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him and 13 said "Jehovah is with you, brave champion." And Gideon said to him "Well, sir, if Jehovah is with us, why has all this come upon us?
and where are all his wonders that our fathers have told us of, saying 'Did not Jehovah bring us up out of Egypt?' but now Jehovah has 14 abandoned us and put us into Midian's hands." And Jehovah turned to him and said "Go with that strength of yours and save Israel out 15 of Midian's hands—I send you!" And he said to him "O, sir, with what shall I save Israel? my thousand is the weakest in Manasseh, 16 and I the most insignificant of my family." And Jehovah said to him "Because I will be with you, and you shall strike Midian down 17 like one man." And he said to him "If I have found favor in your 18 eyes, let me have a token that it is you talking with me: do not stir from here till I come to you bringing out my offering and lay it before 19 you"; and he said "I will stay till you come back." And Gideon went in and killed and cooked a kid and made a bushel of meal into matzoth; the flesh he put in his basket and the broth in his pot, and brought it out to him under the terebinth-tree and presented it.

 20 And the Angel of God said to him "Take the flesh and the matzoth and lay them on yonder rock, and pour out the broth"; and he did so.
 21 And the Angel of Jehovah put out the end of the staff that he had in his hand and touched the flesh and the matzoth, and fire came up out of the stone and consumed the flesh and the matzoth, and the 22 Angel of Jehovah passed away from his sight, and Gideon saw that it was the Angel of Jehovah. And Gideon said "O, O, my lord Jeho-23 vah! I have seen the Angel of Jehovah face to face!" And Jehovah said to him "All is well for you: do not be afraid, you shall not die." 24 And Gideon built an altar to Jehovah there, and called it "Jehovah All-well"; it exists to this day at Ghoprath-Abi-ha-'Ezri.
 25 And that night Jehovah said to him "Take your father's wall-steer and a steer, the second, of seven years, and demolish your father's 26 altar of the Baal and cut down the asherah over it, and build an altar of your God Jehovah on top of this citadel-rock with the coursed stones, and take the second steer and offer a burnt-offering with the 27 wood of the asherah you cut down." And Gideon took ten men, slaves of his, and did as Jehovah had told him; and, as he was too much afraid of his family and the men of the city to do it by day, he 28 did it by night. And in the morning the men of the city found that the altar of the Baal had been pulled down and the asherah over it 29 cut down, and the second steer offered on the newly-built altar; and they said to each other "Who did this thing?" and they inquired and investigated, and it was said "Joash's son Gideon did this thing." 30 And the men of the city said to Joash "Bring your son out to die, because he has pulled down the altar of the Baal and cut down the 31 asherah over it." But Joash said to all who stood around him "Are you to contend for the Baal or succor him? let the one who contends for him be put to death. Till morning! if he is a god, let him contend 32 for himself because he pulled down his altar." And on that day he named him Jerubbaal, meaning "The Baal contend with him, because he pulled down his altar." 33 And all the Midianites and the 'Amalekites and the Eastern Bed-uins had come together and crossed and encamped in the vale of 34 Jezre'el; and the spirit of Jehovah took possession of Gideon, and he blew the ram-horn, and the Abi'ezrites came out in arms behind 35 him; and he sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and the Manas-sites too came out in arms behind him; and he sent messengers through Asher and Zebulun and Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.
 36 And Gideon said to God "If you do mean to save Israel by my hands, 37 as you promised,—here I am placing a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor: if there is dew on the fleece alone, and all over the ground it is dry, I shall know that you will save Israel by my hands as you 38 promised.” And it was so: he squeezed the fleece the first thing in the 39 morning and ran out dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water. And Gideon said to God “Do not be angry with me, and let me speak just once more. Let me try with the fleece only once more: have it dry 40 on the fleece alone, and all over the ground let there be dew.” And God did so that night, and it was dry on the fleece alone, and all over the ground there was dew.

CHAPTER 7

1 And Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him went in the morning and encamped by Panic Spring; and he had the Midianites' camp on the north, from Moreh Hill, in the vale.

2 And Jehovah said to Gideon “There are too many of the people that are with you for me to give the Midianites into their hands, for fear Israel should brag against me ‘My own hands gave me the 3 victory’; now proclaim to the people ‘Whoever is afraid and panicky, let him flit back from the highland of Gilead.’” And twenty-two thousand of the people went back, and ten thousand were left.

4 And Jehovah said to Gideon “There are still too many of the people: have them go down to the water and I will weed them out for you there; and what I tell you shall go with you, shall, and all 5 that I tell you shall not go with you, shall not.” And he had the people go down to the water; and Jehovah said to Gideon “Everyone that laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog does, you shall set 6 apart, and everyone that kneels down to drink.” And the number that lapped with hand to mouth was three hundred men; and all 7 the rest of the people knelt down to drink water. And Jehovah said to Gideon “By the three hundred men that lapped I will give you the victory, and give the Midianites into your hands; and let all 8 the people go home to their places.” And they took the people's provisions in their hands, and their ram-horns; and he sent home all the men of Israel, and kept the three hundred men. And he had the Midianites' camp under him in the vale.

9 And that night Jehovah said to him “Get up and descend on the 10 camp, because I have given it into your hands. And if you are afraid 11 to descend on it, you and your man Purah go down to the camp and hear what they say, and afterward you will have courage and will descend on the camp.” And he and his man Purah went down to the edge 12 of the men under arms in the camp. And the Midianites and the 'Amalekites and all the Eastern Beduins had dropped into the vale in numbers like a swarm of locusts: there was no counting their 13 camels, as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore. And when Gideon came, there was a man telling his comrade a dream; and he

- said "Here I have had a dream that a barley-bread bannock was tumbling over and over in the Midianite camp, and it came to the tent and knocked it upside down." And his comrade answered "That can be nothing else than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, the men of Israel; God has given into their hands the Midianites and all the camp."
- And when Gideon heard the account of the dream, and its explanation, he did reverence, and went back to the camp of Israel and said "Get up: Jehovah has given the Midianite camp into your hands."
- And he divided the three hundred men into three columns, and gave them all ram-horns to carry, and empty jars, and torches inside the jars; and he said to them "Take your cue from me, and do the same: when I get to the edge of the camp, do just as I do: I and all who are with me will blow the ram-horn, and you shall blow the horns too all around the camp, and say 'For Jehovah and for Gideon!'"
- And Gideon, and a hundred men who were with him, arrived at the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch; the sentries had just been set; and they blew the ram-horns and smashed the jars they carried. And the three columns blew the ram-horns and broke the jars, and held the torches in their left hands and in their right hands the ram-horns to blow with, and cried "Charge for Jehovah and for Gideon!" And they stood still where they were around the camp; and all the camp went to running and shouting to arms and taking flight, and the three hundred ram-horns blew, and Jehovah set each one's sword against the next man all through the camp; and the camp fled to Beth-hash-Shittah, toward Seredah, to the bluff of Abel-Meholah by Tabbath. And the men of Israel came out in arms, out of Naphtali and out of Asher and out of all Manasseh, and pursued the Midianites. And Gideon sent messengers through all the highland of Ephraim to say "Come down to head off the Midianites: seize the water against them as far as Beth-Barah, and the Jordan"; and all the men of Ephraim came out in arms and seized the water as far as Beth-Barah, and the Jordan. And they took the two chiefs of the Midianites, Raven and Wolf, and killed Raven at Raven Rock and Wolf at Wolf Winepress, and followed up the Midianites; and they brought the heads of Raven and Wolf to

- Gideon on the other side of the Jordan, and the men of Ephraim said to him "What is this thing you have done to us, not calling us when you went to attack the Midianites?" and upbraided him sharply.
- But he said to them "What have I done now that was like you? was not Ephraim's aftermath better than Abi'ezer's crop? It was into your hands that God gave the chiefs of the Midianites, Raven and Wolf; and what was I able to do that was like you?" Then their ill humor toward him quieted down at his saying this.

4 And Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed it, he and the three hundred men that were with him, faint and pressing on the pursuit; 5 and he said to the men of Succoth "Please give some biscuits to the people at my back; for they are faint, and I am in pursuit of Zebah 6 and Salmunna', the kings of the Midianites." And the captains of Succoth said "Are the hands of Zebah and Salmunna' in your hands 7 already, that we should give your levy bread?" And Gideon said "So when Jehovah gives Zebah and Salmunna' into my hands I will thresh your flesh along with wilderness thorns and thistle-heads." 8 And he went up from there to Penuel and said the like to them, and 9 the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had; and he said to the men of Penuel too "When I come back safe I will pull down this tower."

10 And Zebah and Salmunna' were at Karkor and their camps with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of the whole camp of the Eastern Beduins; and those who had fallen were a 11 hundred and twenty thousand fighting men. And Gideon went up to the Tent-Dwellers' Road east of Nobah, and Jogbehah, and attacked 12 the camp while it was off its guard; and Zebah and Salmunna' took flight, and he pursued them. And he took the two kings of the Midianites, Zebah and Salmunna', and put all the camp to rout.

13 And Gideon the son of Joash came back from battle higher than 14 the sun, and caught a young man who belonged to Succoth and questioned him, and he wrote down for him the captains and elders 15 of Succoth, seventy-seven men; and Gideon came to the men of Suc-coth and said "Here are Zebah and Salmunna', about whom you taunted me with the question 'Are the hands of Zebah and Salmunna' in your hands already, that we should give your fainting men bread?" 16 and he took the elders of the city and wilderness thorns and thistle-17 heads and gave the men of Succoth a lesson with them. And he pulled down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

18 And he said to Zebah and Salmunna' "What were the men you killed at Tabor like?" and they said "Just like you; either one of 19 them looked like a king's son." And he said "They were my brothers, my mother's sons; by Jehovah, if you had spared their lives I would 20 not have killed you"; and he said to his oldest son Jether "Stand up and kill them." But the boy did not draw his sword; for he was 21 afraid, because he was still a boy. And Zebah and Salmunna' said "Stand up yourself and cut us down, because a man has a man's might"; and Gideon stood up and killed Zebah and Salmunna' and took the crescents on their camels' necks.

22 And the men of Israel said to Gideon "Rule over us, you and your son and your son's son, because you have saved us out of the hands 23 of the Midianites"; and Gideon said to them "I will not rule over you, 24 neither shall my son; Jehovah shall rule over you." But Gideon said to them "I will make a request of you: give me the earrings in your booty.” (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmael-25 ites.) And they said “That we will”; and he spread out his cloak and 26 they threw in the earrings in their booty; and the weight of the golden earrings that he got for his asking was nine hundred ounces of gold, besides the crescents and pendants and purple garments that were on the kings of the Midianites, and besides the necklaces 27 on their camels’ necks. And Gideon made it into an ephod and placed it in his city Ghophrah, and all Israel prostituted themselves to go 28 after it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his family. But the Midianites were humbled before the sons of Israel, and no longer held their heads high. And the country was quiet forty years in Gideon’s days.

29 And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went to his home and lived there.
30 And Gideon had seventy sons, the issue of his body; for he had many 31 wives. And his concubine at Shekem also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelec.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried 33 in the tomb of his father Joash at Ghophrath-Abi-ha-‘Ezri. And when Gideon was dead the sons of Israel went back to prostituting 34 themselves to follow the Baals and made Baal-berith their god. And the sons of Israel did not remember their God Jehovah who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on all sides, 35 and did not befriend the family of Jerubbaal Gideon in accordance with all the good he had done to Israel.

CHAPTER 9

1 And Abimelec the son of Jerubbaal went to his mother’s brothers in Shekem and talked to them and to all the clan of his mother’s family, 2 telling them “Say publicly to the citizens of Shekem ‘Which is better for you, to have seventy men rule over you, the whole company of Jerubbaal’s sons, or to have one man rule over you? and remember 3 that I am your own flesh and blood.’” And his mother’s brothers said all these things to the citizens of Shekem on his behalf, and they were disposed to second Abimelec, because they said “He is our 4 brother”; and they gave him seventy shekels of silver out of the temple of Baal-berith, with which he hired a set of reckless riffraff who 5 went behind him. And he came to his father’s house at Ghophrah and killed his brothers, Jerubbaal’s sons, seventy men on one stone; but Jerubbaal’s youngest son Jotham survived, because he hid.

6 And all the citizens of Shekem and all the house of Millo came together and went and made Abimelec king by the Obelisk Oak at 7 Shekem. And people told Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizzim and raised his voice and cried out to them “Listen to me, citizens of Shekem, that God may listen to you.

8 “The trees went to anoint a king over them, and said to the olive 9 ‘Reign over us’; but the olive said to them ‘Leave off my fatness, I by whom they honor gods and men, and go to sway over the trees?' And the trees said to the fig 'Come, do you reign over us'; but the fig said to them 'Leave off my sweetness and my good crops and go to sway over the trees?' And the trees said to the grapevine 'Come, do you reign over us'; but the grapevine said to them 'Leave off my juice that gladdens gods and men, and go to sway over the trees?' And all the trees said to the thornbush 'Come, do you reign over us'; but the thornbush said to the trees 'If you are anointing me king over you loyally, come take shelter in my shadow; but if not, let fire go out from the thornbush to devour the cedars of the Lebanon.'

"And now, if you have acted loyally and honestly in making Abimelec king, and if you have done well by Jerubbaal and his family, and if you have done to him as he deserved, when my father had fought for you and taken his life in his hand and delivered you out of the hands of the Midianites, and you have stood up against my father's family today and killed his sons, seventy men on one stone, and made his slave-girl's son Abimelec king over the citizens of Shekem because he is your brother,—if you have done loyally and honestly by Jerubbaal and his family this day, have joy of Abimelec and may he have joy of you too; but if not, let fire go out from Abimelec to devour the citizens of Shekem and the house of Millo, and let fire go out from the citizens of Shekem and the house of Millo to devour Abimelec."

And Jotham made his escape and fled away, and went to Beer and lived there for fear of his brother Abimelec. And Abimelec held dominion over Israel for three years.

And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelec and the citizens of Shekem, and the citizens of Shekem played Abimelec false, that the outrage committed upon the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come home, and their blood to lay on their brother Abimelec who had killed them and on the citizens of Shekem who had backed him in killing his brothers. And the citizens of Shekem laid him ambushes on the mountaintops and robbed everybody who passed by them on the road; and Abimelec was told of it.

And Go'al the son of 'Obed and his brothers came and moved into Shekem, and the citizens of Shekem relied on him. And they went out in the country and harvested their vineyards and trod the grapes; and they held a thanksgiving and went to the house of their god and ate and drank and cursed Abimelec, and Go'al the son of 'Obed said "Who is Abimelec and who is Shekem, that we are to be subject to him? why, the son of Jerubbaal and his deputy Zebul were subject to the men of Hamor the father of Shekem, and how comes it we are to be subject to him? I wish I had this people in my hands, and I would put Abimelec down!" and to Abimelec he said "Raise your largest levy and come out!"

And Zebul the captain of the city heard the words of Go'al the 31 son of 'Obed, and was angry; and he sent messengers to Abimelec at Bathram with the message "Here are Go'al the son of 'Obed and his brothers coming into Shekem; and they are making the city 32 hostile to you. Now make a night start, you and the people you have 33 with you, and lie in ambush in the field; and the first thing in the morning, at sunrise, make a dash at the city. He and the people he has with him will be coming out to meet you, and you will do with him as you find opportunity."

34 And Abimelec and all the people he had with him made a night 35 start and lay in ambush against Shekem in four columns. And Go'al the son of 'Obed went out and stood at the gate of the city; and Abimelec and the people he had with him started from their place 36 of ambush, and Go'al saw the people and said to Zebul "There is a body of people coming down from the mountaintops"; and Zebul said to him "The shadows of the mountains look to you like men." 37 And Go'al spoke once more, and said "There are people coming down from by the Land's Navel, and one column is coming from 38 toward Fortune-Tellers' Oak." And Zebul said to him "Where on earth is that mouth of yours, the way you used to say 'Who is Abimelec that we are to be subject to him?' Are not these the people 39 you did not care for? now go out and fight them!" And Go'al went 40 out at the head of the citizens of Shekem and fought Abimelec; and Abimelec routed him, and he fled before him, and many fell killed, 41 up to the gate. And Abimelec remained at Arumah, and Zebul ejected Go'al and his brothers from quartering in Shekem.

42 And the next day the people went out to the field, and Abimelec 43 was told of it. And he took the people and divided them into three columns and lay in ambush in the field; and he saw when the people 44 came out of the city, and started up and struck them, Abimelec and the column he had with him making a dash and standing at the gate of the city, and the two columns dashing upon all who were in the 45 field and striking them. And Abimelec attacked the city all that day, and took the city, and killed the people in it, and pulled down the city and sowed it with salt.

46 And all the citizens of Shekem Tower heard of it, and went into 47 the vault of the house of El-berith; and Abimelec was told that all 48 the citizens of Shekem Tower had gathered. And Abimelec went up on Mount Salmon, he and all the people he had with him; and Abimelec took an ax in his hand and cut a bush of wood, and took it up and put it on his shoulder, and said to the people he had 49 with him "I have done what you saw; be quick and do like me." And the people too all cut a bush each, and, following Abimelec, went and laid them against the vault and set the vault on fire over the people in it; so all the men of Shekem Tower too came to their death, about a thousand men and women.

50 And Abimelec went to Tebes, and camped at Tebes and took it.

51 And there was a strong tower in the middle of the city; and all the men and women, and all the citizens of the city, fled to that and 52 locked themselves in, and went up on the roof of the tower. And Abimelec came to the tower and attacked it, and approached the 53 doorway of the tower to burn it. But one woman threw a quern-stone 54 on Abimelec's head and cracked his skull; and he cried in haste to his squire "Draw your sword and give me my death-stroke, that it may 55 not be said of me 'a woman killed him'"; and his man ran him through, so that he died. And the men of Israel saw that Abimelec 56 was dead, and went home to their places. So God sent back Abimelec's mischief that he had done to his father in killing his seventy brothers, 57 and the mischief of the men of Shekem God sent back on their own heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

CHAPTER 10

1 And after Abimelec there stood up to save Israel Tola' the son of Puah the son of Dodo the Issacarite; he lived at Shamir in the 2 highland of Ephraim; and he judged Israel twenty-three years, and died and was buried at Shamir.
3 And after him Jair the Gileadite stood up, and judged Israel 4 twenty-two years; he had thirty sons who rode on thirty young donkeys, and they had thirty cities (these they call the Havvoth of 5 Jair to this day) in the country of Gilead. And Jair died, and was buried at Kamon.
6 And the sons of Israel did more of what displeased Jehovah, and worshiped the Baals and the 'Ashtarts and the gods of Syria and the gods of Phenicia and the gods of Moab and the gods of the Bene-'Ammon and the gods of the Philistines, and left Jehovah and 7 did not worship him. And Jehovah was angry with Israel and sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the 8 Bene-'Ammon, and they mauled and persecuted the sons of Israel that year—eighteen years, all the sons of Israel on the other side 9 of the Jordan, in the Amorite country in Gilead. And the Bene-'Ammon crossed the Jordan to attack even Judah and Benjamin and 10 the highland of Ephraim; and Israel was in great straits. And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah "We have sinned against you, because 11 we have left our God and worshiped the Baals"; and Jehovah said to the sons of Israel "Is not from the Egyptians and the Amorites 12 from the Bene-'Ammon and the Philistines? and the Phenicians and 'Amalek and Ma'on oppressed you, and you cried out to me and I 13 saved you out of their hands; but you left me and worshiped other 14 gods; so I will not save you anymore. Go and cry to the gods you 15 have chosen: let them save you in your time of distress." But the sons of Israel said to Jehovah "We have sinned; do with us your-16 self just as you think best, only deliver us this day," and removed the foreign gods out of their midst and worshiped Jehovah; and he could not bear Israel's suffering.

- 17 And the Bene-'Ammon came out in arms and camped at Gilead; 18 and the sons of Israel came together and camped at Mispah. And the people, the captains of Gilead, said to each other "Who will be the man that has the nerve to fight the Bene-'Ammon? he shall be head of all the population of Gilead."

CHAPTER 11

- 1 And Jephthah the Gileadite was a stalwart man who was the son 2 of a prostitute. Gilead had begotten Jephthah, and Gilead's wife bore sons to him, and the wife's sons, when they grew up, turned Jephthah out and said to him "You shall not inherit in our family, because 3 you are the son of another woman." And Jephthah left the country on account of his brothers, and lived in the Tob country; and a set of riffraff drew together to Jephthah and went on expeditions with him.

- 4 5 And after a while the Bene-'Ammon made war on Israel; and when the Bene-'Ammon made war on Israel the elders of Gilead went to 6 fetch Jephthah out of the Tob country. And they said to Jephthah 7 "Come and be our chieftain to make war with the Bene-'Ammon." And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead "Why, you hated me and turned me out of my family; how is it you have come to me now when you 8 are in a tight place?" And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah "As for that, we have come back to you now, and you are to come with us and fight the Bene-'Ammon, and we will have you for head of 9 all the population of Gilead." And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead "If you bring me back to fight the Bene-'Ammon, and Jehovah 10 gives them to be defeated before me, I shall be your head?" And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah "So help us Jehovah, we will do as 11 you have said." And Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people set him over them as head and chieftain; and Jephthah set forth the terms of the pledge before Jehovah at Mispah.

- 12 And Jephthah sent envoys to the king of the Bene-'Ammon to say 13 "What business have you coming into my country to attack me?" And the king of the Bene-'Ammon said to Jephthah's envoys "Because Israel took my country when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and the Jordan; now restore it peaceably."
14 15 And Jephthah again sent envoys to the king of the Bene-'Ammon and said to him "Says Jephthah, Israel did not take the country of 16 Moab nor that of the Bene-'Ammon, but when they were coming up out of Egypt Israel went in the wilderness as far as the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh; and Israel sent envoys to the king of Edom to say 'Let us pass through your country,' and the king of Edom did not listen to them; and they sent also to the king of Moab, and he 17 was not willing; so Israel stayed at Kadesh. And they went in the wilderness around the country of Edom and that of Moab, and came along east of the country of Moab and camped beyond the Arnon, and did not come within the boundary of Moab, because the Arnon is the boundary of Moab. And Israel sent envoys to Sihon the king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and said to him 'Let us pass through your country to our destination'; but Sihon refused to give Israel passage within his boundary, and Sihon brought together all his people and camped at Jahzah, and fought with Israel. And Israel's God Jehovah gave Sihon and all his people into Israel's hands, and they defeated them; and Israel took possession of all the country of the Amorites who inhabited that country; and they succeeded to all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan. Now, when Israel's God Jehovah dispossessed the Amorites before his people Israel, are you to succeed to them? You succeed to what your god Kemosh gives you possession of, do you not? and whomever our God Jehovah dispossesses before us, we succeed to them.

"And then, are you any better than Balak the son of Sippor, king of Moab? did he bring any claim against Israel, or wage any war with them? When Israel settled in Heshbon and its dependencies, and in 'Aro'er and its dependencies, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, how is it you did not recover them at that time? And I have committed no offense against you, but you are doing wrong by me in making war on me. Jehovah the Judge give judgment today between the sons of Israel and the Bene-'Ammon." But the king of the Bene-'Ammon did not listen to the words Jephthah sent to him.

And the spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and through Mispah-Gilead; and from Mispah-Gilead he passed over to the Bene-'Ammon. And Jephthah made a vow to Jehovah, "If you give the Bene-'Ammon into my hands, then any that comes out of my house doors to meet me, when I come safe back from the Bene-'Ammon, shall belong to Jehovah, and I will offer that one as a burnt-offering."

And Jephthah passed over to the Bene-'Ammon to fight them, and Jehovah gave them into his hands; and he made havoc of them from 'Aro'er till you come to Minnith, twenty cities, and to Abel-keramim, great havoc. And the Bene-'Ammon were humbled before the sons of Israel.

And Jephthah came to his home at Mispah, and found his daughter coming out to meet him with tambourines and dances; and she was his one only child, he had no son or daughter else. And at seeing her he tore his clothes and said "O, O, my daughter, you have laid me low; you are down on me with the rest! and I have opened my mouth to Jehovah and cannot go back!" And she said to him "Father, you have opened your mouth to Jehovah: do with me as went out of your mouth, so long as Jehovah has done vengeance on your enemies the Bene-'Ammon for you."

37 But she said to her father "Let this thing be done for me: let me be for two months to go and range on the mountains and weep for 38 my maidenhood, I and my girl friends." And he said "Go," and sent her off for two months; and she went, she and her girl friends, and 39 wept for her maidenhood on the mountains. And at the end of two months she came back to her father, and he did with her what he had 40 made the vow to do, when she had not known man. And it became a usage in Israel that year by year the Israelite girls should go to celebrate the memory of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.

CHAPTER 12

1 And the men of Ephraim came out in arms and crossed to Saphon, and said to Jephthah "How is it you have gone over to fight the Bene-'Ammon and not called us to go with you? we will burn your 2 house down over your head." And Jephthah said to them "I had a quarrel on hand, I and my people, and the Bene-'Ammon had committed outrages on me; and I called you to arms and you did not 3 help me against them; so I saw there was nobody to help me, and I took my life in my hand and passed over to the Bene-'Ammon, and Jehovah gave them into my hands; then why have you come up to 4 my home this day to fight me?" And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought the Ephraimites, and the men of Gilead de-5 feated the Ephraimites. And the Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites; and when an Ephraimite fugitive said "Let me cross" and the men of Gilead said to him "Are you 6 an Ephraimite?" and he said "No," they would say to him "Say shibboleth," and he would say sibboleth, not getting the pronunciation right, and they would take hold of him and cut his throat, letting the blood run into the fords of the Jordan. And at that time forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites fell.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years; and Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his city in Gilead.

8 9 And after him Ibsan from Beth-lehem judged Israel; he had thirty sons, and married off thirty daughters and took in thirty girls from outside as wives for his sons; and he judged Israel seven 10 years. And Ibsan died, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

11 And after him Elon the Zebulonite judged Israel; and he judged 12 Israel ten years. And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried at Elon in the Zebulonite country.

13 And after him 'Abdon the son of Hillel the Pireathonite judged 14 Israel; he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy 15 young donkeys; and he judged Israel eight years. And 'Abdon the son of Hillel the Pireathonite died, and was buried at Pireathon in the Ephraimite country, in the 'Amalekite highland.

1 And the sons of Israel did more of what displeased Jehovah, and Jehovah gave them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.

2 Now there was a certain man of Soreah, of the Danite clan, named 3 Manoah; and his wife was barren and had never had a child. And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to the wife and said to her "You are barren, have never had a child; you shall conceive and have 4 a son. Now take care not to drink wine or beer, nor to eat anything 5 unclean; for you are conceiving and are to have a son, over whose head no razor shall go, because he shall be God's devotee from his birth; and he shall begin saving Israel from the Philistines."

6 And the woman went in and told her husband "The man of God came to me, looking like the Angel of God, very awful; and I did not ask him where he was from, and he did not tell me his name; and he said to me 'You are conceiving and are to have a son; now do not drink wine nor beer, nor eat any uncleanness, because the boy shall 8 be God's devotee from his birth till the day of his death.'" And Manoah invoked Jehovah, and said "O Lord, let the man of God whom you sent come to us again and instruct us what to do with the boy that is to be born."

9 And God obeyed Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again while she was sitting out on the range and her husband 10 Manoah was not with her; and the woman ran in haste and told her husband "The man that came to me that day has appeared to me."
11 And Manoah rose and went after his wife, and came to the man and said to him "Are you the man that spoke to the woman?" and he said "Yes." And Manoah said "At the time your words come true, what shall be the rule for the boy and what shall he do?" 13 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah "The woman must take 14 care about everything that I told her: she must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, nor drink wine or beer, nor eat any uncleanness: she must observe all the instructions I gave her."

15 And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah "Let us have you stop 16 a while, and let us do a kid for you"; but the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah "If you have me stop I will not eat bread of yours, and if you do an animal you must offer it as a burnt-offering to Jehovah." 17 (For Manoah did not know that it was the Angel of Jehovah.) And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah "What is your name? when your 18 words come true we will pay you honor." But the Angel of Jehovah said to him "What do you ask my name for, when it is mysterious?" 19 And Manoah took the kid and the grain-offering and burned them on 20 the stone as an offering to Jehovah Who Works Mysteriously; and as the flame went up off the altar to the sky, the Angel of Jehovah went up in the altar-flame, while Manoah and his wife looked on; 21 and they threw themselves flat on their faces; and the Angel of Jehovah never again appeared to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah 22 knew that it was the Angel of Jehovah. And Manoah said to his 23 wife "We must die, because we have seen God"; but his wife said to him "If Jehovah chose to cause our death he would not have taken a burnt-offering and grain-offering at our hands, nor showed us these sights, not to say let us hear such a thing as this." 24 And the woman had a son and named him Samson; and Jehovah 25 blessed the boy as he grew up. And the spirit of Jehovah began to stir him at Dan's Camp, between Soreah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14

1 And Samson went down to Timnath; and at Timnath he saw a 2 woman of a Philistine family, and he came up and told his father and mother "At Timnath I saw a woman of a Philistine family; now 3 get her for my wife." And his father and mother said to him "Is there no such thing as a woman in your own family and in all your people, that you are going and getting a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father "Get me her, because 4 she suits me"; and his father and mother did not know that it was from Jehovah, because he was aiming to start a quarrel against the Philistines. (At that time the Philistines had the rule over Israel.) 5 And Samson and his father and mother went down to Timnath, and came to the Timnath vineyards, and he found a two-year-old lion 6 that met him with a roar; and the spirit of Jehovah seized upon Samson, and he twisted its legs out of joint as one would with a kid, not having anything in his hand; but he did not tell his father and 7 mother what he had done. And Samson came down and had a talk 8 with the woman, and she suited him. And after some days he came back to take her; and he turned off to see the remains of the lion, and 9 found a swarm of bees in the lion's body, and honey. And he poked it out into his hands and ate it as he went along, and went to his father and mother and gave them some which they ate, but he did not tell them that it was out of the lion's body he had gathered the honey.
10 And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a 11 wassail (for that was the way the young men used to do); and when they saw him they took thirty as comrades, and these were with him.
12 And Samson said to them "Let me put a riddle to you: if you tell me the answer in the seven days of the wassail I will give you thirty 13 linen undercloths and thirty dress cloaks, but if you cannot tell me you shall give me thirty linen undercloths and thirty dress cloaks." 14 And they said to him "Put your riddle and let us hear it"; and he said to them "Out of the eater came food, and out of mighty came 15 sweet." And they could not answer the riddle in three days; and on the seventh day they said to Samson's wife "Inveigle your husband into telling us the answer, if you do not want us to burn you and your family; did you invite us here to beggar us?" And Samson's wife sobbed at him and said "You just hate me, you do not love me: you have put the riddle to my fellow-countrymen and not told me the answer." And he said to her "I have not told my father and mother, and am I to tell you?" but she sobbed at him for the seven days that they held the wassail, and on the seventh day he told her because she nagged him so, and she told her fellow-countrymen; and the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before he had gone into the chamber "What is sweeter than honey? and what is mightier than a lion?" And he said to them "If you had not plowed with my heifer you would not have found out my riddle." (And the spirit of Jehovah seized upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of the men there and took their spoils and gave the cloaks to those who had told the answer of the riddle.) And he was angry and went up to his father's home. And Samson's wife became the wife of his comrade who had been best man to him.

CHAPTER 15

1 And after a while, during the wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, and said "I will go into the chamber to my wife";
2 but her father would not let him go in, but said "I declare I thought you positively hated her, and I gave her to your comrade; her 3 younger sister is better anyhow—have her instead." And Samson said to them "This time the Philistines have nothing to complain of 4 if I do them a mischief"; and Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned the foxes tail to tail and put a 5 torch in the middle between every two tails, and lighted the torches and turned them loose into the Philistines' standing crops, and burned 6 stack and standing crop and vineyard and olive-tree. And the Philistines said "Who did that?" and they said "It was Samson, that is son-in-law to the Timnathite, because he took his wife and gave her to his comrade"; and the Philistines came up and burned 7 her and her family. And Samson said to them "O, but if you do things like that I will be revenged on you, and afterward I will let 8 it drop"; and he smote them hip and thigh a great slaughter, and went down and lived in the cleft of 'Etam Cliff.

9 And the Philistines came up and camped in Judah and forayed 10 at the Jawbone; and the men of Judah said "Why have you come up against us?" and they said "We have come to tie up Samson, to do to him as he did to us." And three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of 'Etam Cliff and said to Samson "Do you not know that the Philistines have the rule over us? what is this you have done to us?" And he said to them "As they did to me, so I did to them." And they said to him "We have come to tie you up, to give you into the hands of the Philistines." And Samson said to them

- 13 "Swear to me that you will not cut me down yourselves"; and they said to him "No, but tie you up and give you into their hands; we will not kill you." And they tied him up with two new ropes and 14 brought him up from the Cliff. He had come to Jawbone, and the Philistines had come cheering to meet him, when the spirit of Jehovah seized upon him and the ropes on his arms became like burned-up 15 flax, and his fastenings melted off from his wrists; and he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and reached for it and got it and killed 16 a thousand men with it. And Samson said "With a beast's jawbone I have been their bane! with a beast's jawbone killed a thousand 17 men!" And when he had said it he dropped the jawbone from his hand; and they call the place Jawbone Fell. And he was very thirsty, 18 and called to Jehovah "You have given this great victory into your servant's hands, and now I shall die with thirst and fall into the 19 hands of the uncircumcised"; and God ripped open the hollow in the Jawbone, and water came out, and he took a drink, and his spirit came back and he revived. For this reason it is named Caller Spring, the one that is in the Jawbone to this day.
20 And he judged Israel, in the days of the Philistines, twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

- 1 And Samson went from there to Ghaza, and saw a prostitute there 2 and went in to her; and the Ghazites were told "Samson has come here," and they came around and lay in ambush for him all night at the city gate, and kept quiet all night, saying "Till morning day-3 light, and we will kill him!" But Samson lay abed till midnight, and got up at midnight and took hold of the city gates and the two gate-posts and pulled them up bar and all, and put them on his shoulders and took them up to the top of the mountain facing Hebron on the east.
4 And after that he fell in love with a woman in Sorek Arroyo, 5 whose name was Delilah. And the Sarns of the Philistines came up to her and said to her "Inveigle him and see by what means he has the great strength, and by what means we may master him and tie him so as to tame him, and we will each give you eleven hundred shekels of silver." 6 And Delilah said to Samson "Tell me by what means you have the great strength, and by what means you might be tied up so as to tame 7 you." And Samson said to her "If they tie me up with seven fresh 8 undried bowstrings I shall weaken and be like any man." And the Sarns of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh undried bow-9 strings, and she tied him with them, while she had the ambuscade waiting in the chamber; and she said to him "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" and he broke the bowstrings as a strand of tow breaks when it scents fire, and his strength was not found out.
10 And Delilah said to Samson "Here you have been trifling with me and telling me lies; now tell me by what means you might be tied up."

11 And he said to her "If they tie me with new ropes that have never 12 been used, I shall weaken and be like any man." And Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them, and said to him "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" while the ambushade was waiting in the chamber; and he broke them off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said to Samson "You have kept on trifling with me and telling me lies; tell me by what means you might be tied up."
And he said to her "If you weave the seven braids of hair on my 14 head in with your cloth and drive them down with the stick, I shall weaken and be like any man." And she put him to sleep and wove the seven braids of hair on his head in with her cloth and drove them down with the stick, and said to him "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" and he woke from his sleep and pulled up the stick, the loom and the cloth; and his strength was not found out.

15 And she said to him "How is it you say 'I love you' and do not take me into your confidence? this is three times you have trifled with me 16 and not told me by what means you have the great strength"; and when she nagged him with her talk every day and kept the screws on 17 him, he was ready to die with impatience, and he made a clean breast of it and said to her "No razor has gone over my head, because I have been God's devotee from my birth; if I am shaved my strength will 18 leave me, and I shall weaken and become like everybody." And Delilah saw that he had made a clean breast of it, and she sent for the Sarns of the Philistines, saying "This time come up; he has made a clean breast of it"; and the Sarns of the Philistines came up to 19 her, and brought the money up with them. And she put him to sleep in her embrace, and called the man, and shaved off the seven braids of hair on his head, and he began to grow tame, and his strength 20 left him. And she said "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" and he woke up from his sleep and thought "I shall come off as I did the other times, I shall shake myself loose," not knowing that his 21 strength had left him. And the Philistines took hold of him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Ghaza and put him in irons, 22 and he became a grinder in the prison. But the hair on his head began to grow as soon as it had been shaved.

23 And the Sarns of the Philistines came together to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon and to hold festival, and thought "Our 24 god has given our enemy Samson into our hands"; and the people saw him and praised their god, because, they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hands, him who made many our dead and 25 laid waste our lands." And when they were jolly they said "Call Samson to give us an exhibition." And they summoned Samson out of the prison, and he gave an entertainment before them; and they had 26 him stand between the pillars. And Samson said to the young man who held him by the hand "Put me so that I can feel for the pillars

- 27 the house is supported on and find them, to lean on them," the house being full of the men and women (and all the Sarns of the Philistines being there, and on the roof about three thousand men and women) 28 who were looking on while Samson gave his exhibition. And Samson called to Jehovah "Lord Jehovah, remember me and strengthen me just this once, God, so that I may take my revenge on the Philistines 29 for one of my two eyes"; and Samson twisted the two middle pillars that the house was supported on, and braced himself against them 30 one with his right hand and one with his left. And Samson said "Die myself with the Philistines!" and gave a hard lunge, and down fell the house on the Sarns and on all the people in it. And there were more dead that he had killed at his death than that he had killed in his life.
- 31 And his brothers and all his family went down and brought him away, and buried him up between Soreah and Eshtaol in the grave of his father Manoah. And he had judged Israel twenty years.

* * * * *

- 1 Now there was a man of the highland of Ephraim, named Mi-2 cah: and he said to his mother "The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, and you pronounced a curse and said things in my hearing—the silver is with me: it was I that took it." And 3 his mother said "Jehovah bless my son!" And he returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother; and his mother said "I hereby dedicate the silver to Jehovah, from my hands exclusively, to make a 4 statue; and now I will return it to you." And he returned the silver to his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave it to a silversmith, and he made it into a statue, which was at 5 Micah's home. And the man Micah had a chapel, and made an ephod and teraphim, and installed one of his sons, who became priest to him.
6 In those days there was no king in Israel: each did what suited him.
- 7 And there was a youth from Bethlehem in Judah, of the clan of Judah, who was a Levite, and he was living there as an immigrant; 8 and the man went from the city, from Bethlehem in Judah, to settle as an immigrant wherever he found an opening. And he came to the 9 highland of Ephraim, to Micah's home, on his errand; and Micah said to him "Where do you come from?" and he said to him "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am out to settle as an immigrant 10 wherever I find an opening." And Micah said to him "Stay with me and be father and priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver a year and a suit of clothes and your board"; and the Levite 11 went. And the Levite consented to stay with the man; and the youth 12 became like one of his sons to him. And Micah installed the Levite, 13 and the youth became priest to him, and was in Micah's house. And Micah said "Now I know that Jehovah will do well by me, since I

1 have got the Levite for priest." In those days there was no king in Israel.

And in those days the Danite tribe was looking for a domain to live in, because till that day nothing had fallen to them as a domain
 2 among the tribes of Israel; and the children of Dan sent out of their clan five men of all classes, stalwart men from Soreah and Eshtaol, to spy around the country and to examine it, and said to them "Go examine the country"; and they came to Micah's home in the highland 3 of Ephraim and spent the night there. They had come opposite Micah's house when they recognized the Levite youth's voice and turned in there, and said to him "Who brought you here? what are 4 you doing in these parts? what are you here for?" And he said to them "Micah has done such things for me, and he has hired me to be 5 priest to him." And they said to him "Put the question to God to let us know whether our errand that we are going on will be successful." And the priest said to them "Go, and good betide you; your 6 errand that you are on is under Jehovah's eye."

7 And the five men went on, and came to Laish, and saw the people in it, living off its guard in Phenician fashion, at rest and off their guard, with no one in the country to balk anything, no holder of sway, and they far away from the Phenicians and having no relations 8 with Syria. And they came to their brothers at Soreah and Eshtaol, and their brothers said to them "What is your word?" and they said 9 "Come on, let us go up against them; for we have seen the city and found it very good; and you are lying still! do not be slack about 10 going to enter and take possession of the country. When you come you will come to a people off their guard, plenty of elbowroom in their country, because God has given it into your hands: a place where there is no lack of anything the country produces."

11 And six hundred men of the Danite clan from Soreah and Eshtaol set out from there in fighting outfit, and went up and camped at Kirjath-Je'arim in Judah: that place has consequently been called 12 Dan's Camp to this day; it lies west of Kirjath-Je'arim. And from there they crossed over to the highland of Ephraim, and came to 13 Micah's home; and the five men who had gone to spy around the country (Laish) spoke up and said to their brothers "Do you know that in these houses there is an ephod and teraphim and a statue?
 14 now make up your minds what you will do." And they turned in there and went into the Levite youth's house, Micah's home, and 15 asked him how he did; and while six hundred men in fighting outfit stood at the gate of the place, who belonged to the sons of Dan, 16 up went the five men who had gone to spy around the country, went in there, took the statue and the ephod and the teraphim, the priest standing at the gate of the place, and the six hundred men in fighting 17 outfit: those went into Micah's home and took the statue, the ephod, 18 and the teraphim. And the priest said to them "What are you doing?" 19 and they said to him "Be still, put your hand over your mouth and go with us and be father and priest to us: is it better for you to be priest to one man's house or for you to be priest to a tribe and clan 20 in Israel?" And the priest was in high glee, and he took the ephod and the teraphim and the statue and went into the midst of the people.

21 And they turned and went, putting the women and children and the 22 stock and the goods in front. They had got to some distance from Micah's home when the men in the houses near Micah's came out in 23 arms and overtook the sons of Dan, and they called out to the sons of Dan and they faced about and said to Micah "What is the matter, 24 that you have come out in arms?" And he said "You have taken my gods that I made, and the priest, and gone off with them; what more have I? what do you mean by saying to me 'What is the matter?'" 25 And the sons of Dan said to him "Do not let your voice be heard around us, for fear some fellows with bad tempers should get after you, and you should make away with your life and the lives of your 26 family"; and the sons of Dan went on their way. And Micah saw that they were too strong for him, and he turned and went back home, 27 while they took that Micah had made and the priest that he had had and came on Laish, on a people at rest and off their guard, and mas-28 saced them and burned down the city; and there was no rescuer because they were far away from Sidon and had no relations with Syria, though it was in the vale that belongs to Beth-Rehob. And they 29 rebuilt the city and lived in it, and named the city Dan after Dan 30 their ancestor; but Laish was the name of the city originally. And the sons of Dan set the statue up for themselves, and Jonathan the son of Gershom the son of Moses, he and his descendants, were priests to the Danite tribe till the day of the deportation of the 31 country. And they put up for themselves Micah's statue that he had made, all the time the house of God was at Shiloh.

CHAPTER 19

1 And in those days, there being no king in Israel, there was a certain Levite living as an immigrant far back in the highlands of Ephraim, and he took as his concubine a woman from Bethlehem in Judah.
2 And his concubine got into a rage at him, and went from him to her father's home at Bethlehem in Judah and was there a while, 3 four months. And her husband set out after her to coax her back, taking with him his man and a pair of donkeys; and he came to her father's home, and the girl's father saw him and came joyfully to 4 meet him. And his father-in-law, the girl's father, held him fast, and he stayed with him three days; and they ate and drank and lodged 5 there for the night. And on the fourth day, the first thing in the morning, he rose to go, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law
"Take a bit of bread to brace you up, and after that you shall go."

6 And the two of them sat down and ate together and drank, and the girl's father said to the husband "Do stay for the night and be jolly"; 7 and the husband rose to go, but his father-in-law urged him to stay, 8 and he spent the night there again. And the first thing in the morning on the fifth day he was going, but the girl's father said "Have something to brace you up" and inveigled him till along in the 9 afternoon, and the two of them were eating. And the husband rose to go, he and his concubine and his man, but his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him "Here the day is dropping off to evening: stay for the night; here it is the windup of the day: stay here for the night and be jolly, and tomorrow be on your way the first thing in the morning, and go to your home."

10 But the husband would not stay for the night, but started out, and came opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), having with him a 11 pair of saddled donkeys, and his concubine with him. They were up to Jebus when the day got very low, and the serving-man said to his master "Come, let us turn off to this city of the Jebusites" and 12 lodge there for the night"; but his master said to him "We will not turn off to a city of foreigners who do not belong to the sons of 13 Israel, but go across to Gibeah." And he said to his man "Come, we will get to one of the places and stay at Gibeah or Ramah for the 14 night"; and they crossed over and went on, and the sun went down on them alongside Gibeah of Benjamin, and they turned off there to 15 go in and lodge in Gibeah. And he went in and sat down in the square of the city, but there was no man to take them in into his house for the 16 night. But in came an old man, coming at evening from his work in the field (the man was from the highland of Ephraim and was living in Gibeah as an immigrant, while the men of the place were 17 Benjamites), and he raised his eyes and saw the wayfarer in the square of the city. And the old man said "Where are you going, and 18 where do you come from?" and he said to him "We are going across from Bethlehem in Judah to the back side of the highland of Ephraim: I am from there, and I have been to Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going home. But there is no man to take us in into his 19 house. Yet I have with me both straw and feed for the donkeys, and bread and wine too for both your servants, and for the man: we are 20 not in want of anything." And the old man said "All right: just let every want of yours come on me; only do not spend the night in the square," and brought him into his house, and foddered the donkeys.

21 And they washed their feet and ate and drank. They were having a jolly evening when the men of the city, a set of reprobates, got around the house pounding on the door, and told the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man that went into your house, 22 for us to know him." And the man went out to them, the master of the house, and said to them "Don't, brothers, don't do mischief; now that this man has come into my house, don't do this scandalous thing.

24 Here is my maiden daughter, and his concubine: let me bring them out to you, and outrage them and do what you think best to them, 25 but don't do this scandalous thing to this man." But the men would not listen to him; and the husband took hold of his concubine and took her outside to them, and they knew her and did their will on 26 her all night till morning, and let her go at dawn. And the woman came when morning was drawing on, and fell down at the door of 27 the man's house and lay there till daylight. And her master rose in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, and found the woman, his concubine, lying at the door 28 of the house with her hands on the threshold. And he said to her "Get up and let us go," but nobody answered; and he took her on his donkey.

29 And the husband went off to his place; and he went into his house and took the knife, and took hold of his concubine and cut her up joint by joint into twelve pieces, and sent her all through the territory 30 of Israel, and gave the men that he sent the order "You are to say to all the men of Israel 'Has there happened the like of this thing from the day that the sons of Israel came up out of Egypt to this day? make up your minds to something, and speak'"; and everyone who saw said "There has not happened, nor was ever seen, the like of this, from the day that the sons of Israel came up out of Egypt to this day."

1 And all the sons of Israel came out to Jehovah at Mispah, and the congregation assembled there like one man, from Dan to Beer-Sheba' 2 and the country of Gilead; and the headmen of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, took their stand as assembly of the people of God, 3 four hundred thousand fighting men of foot. And the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mispah.

And the sons of Israel said "Tell us how this crime happened." 4 And the Levite, the murdered woman's husband, answered "At Gibeah 5 of Benjamin I and my concubine went in to lodge for the night, and the citizens of Gibeah mobbed me, surrounding the house I was in at night; they thought of killing me, and they outraged my concubine 6 so that she died of it; and I took my concubine and cut her up and sent her all through the countryside of Israel's domain, because they 7 had committed a scandal in Israel. Here you all are, sons of Israel; speak your minds here."

8 And all the people rose like one man, saying "We will not go to 9 our homes, nor each drop off to his house, but this is the thing we 10 will do to Gibeah now: go up against it by lot, and take ten men to the hundred of all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred to the thousand and a thousand to the myriad, to get provisions for the people, to do to the inmates of Gibeah of Benjamin what all the scandal they have committed in Israel deserves."

11 And all the men of Israel came together to the city, acting in 12 concert like one man. And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin to say "What a crime this is that has happened 13 among you! now give up the reprobate men at Gibeah for us to put to death and rout out crime from Israel." But the sons of Benjamin 14 would not obey their brothers the sons of Israel; and the sons of Benjamin came together from their cities to Gibeah to go to war with 15 the sons of Israel. And the sons of Benjamin were mustered on that day, from the cities twenty-six thousand fighting men, apart from the inhabitants of Gibeah—they were mustered seven hundred picked 16 men. Out of all that body there were seven hundred picked men that were left-handed. All these would sling a stone at a hair and never 17 miss. And the men of Israel were mustered, apart from Benjamin, four hundred thousand fighting men; all these were men of war.
18 And they went up to Bethel.

And the sons of Israel put the question to God "Whom shall we have go up to war with the sons of Benjamin to begin with?" and 19 Jehovah said "Judah to begin with." And the sons of Israel started 20 out in the morning and beleaguered Gibeah. And the men of Israel went out to fight the Benjamites; and the men of Israel gave them 21 battle toward Gibeah; and the sons of Benjamin came out of Gibeah and mowed off among the Israelites that day twenty-two thousand 22 men. And the people, the men of Israel, took heart and gave battle 23 once more in the same place where they did on the first day. And the sons of Israel went up to Bethel and wept before Jehovah till evening, and put the question to Jehovah "Shall I engage in battle with my brother Benjamin's sons anymore?" and Jehovah said "Go 24 up against him." And the sons of Israel engaged the Benjamites on 25 the second day; and the Benjamites came out of Gibeah to meet them on the second day, and mowed off among the sons of Israel eighteen thousand more; all these were fighting men.

26 And all the sons of Israel, and all the people, went up and came to Bethel, and wept and sat there before Jehovah and fasted that day till evening, and offered burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices 27 before Jehovah; and the sons of Israel put the question to Jehovah 28 (the ark of God's covenant was there in those days, and Pinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron was in charge of its service in those days) "Shall I again go out to battle with my brother Benjamin's sons, or shall I leave off?" and Jehovah said "Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hands."

29 And the Israelites laid ambuscades against Gibeah on all sides.
30 And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the 31 third day and offered battle as before; and the sons of Benjamin came out to meet the people, broke away from the city, and began to stab some of the people as before on the highways that go up one to Bethel and one to Gibeon, in the open, about thirty men among the 32 Israelites. And the sons of Benjamin thought "They are beaten, the same as the first time"; but the sons of Israel thought "Let us run and break them away from the city into the highways."

33 And all the men of Israel started up from their place, and formed their line at Baal-Tamar, and the Israelites' ambuscade burst out 34 from its place to the west of Geba', and ten thousand picked men out of all Israel went in in front of Gibeah; and the fighting was heavy.
35 But they did not know that disaster was upon them. And Jehovah caused Israel to beat Benjamin; and the sons of Israel mowed down twenty-five thousand one hundred among the Benjamites that day; 36 all these were fighting men. And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were beaten.

And the men of Israel gave way to the Benjamites, because they 37 relied on the ambuscade they had laid against Gibeah; and the ambuscade made a hasty dash to Gibeah. And the ambuscade poured 38 in and massacred the whole city. And the appointment the men of Israel had with the ambuscade was that they should send up a smoke-39 signal from the city; and the men of Israel turned in the battle, and the Benjamites began to stab about thirty men among the men of 40 Israel, because they thought "It must be they are beaten, the same as in the first battle." But the signal began to go up from the city, a 41 pillar of smoke; and the Benjamites turned their eyes back, and found that the holocaust of the city had towered to the sky; and 42 the men of Israel had turned; and the men of Benjamin were in consternation because they saw that disaster was upon them. And 43 they turned before the men of Israel toward the wilderness; but the fighting kept up with them, and those who came out of the cities 44 mowed them down in the midst. And they grated away the Benjamites from Nohah to opposite Geba' on the east; and eighteen thousand 45 men of Benjamin fell, stalwart men all these. And they turned and fled to Rimmon Cliff in the wilderness, and they took an aftermath 46 of five thousand men; and they kept up behind them to Gideom and killed two thousand of them. The total of the Benjamites that fell 47 was twenty-five thousand men on that day, stalwart men all these; but six hundred men turned and fled to Rimmon Cliff in the wilder-48 ness and stayed on Rimmon Cliff four months. And the men of Israel went back to the sons of Benjamin and massacred them, from city of men to cattle and everything that was to be found; they also put the torch to all the cities that were to be found.

1 And the men of Israel had sworn at Mispah "Not a man of us will 2 give his daughter to any of the Benjamites as wife." And the people came to Bethel and sat down there till evening before God, and

3 raised their voices and wept, making a very great weeping, and said 4 "Why, Jehovah God of Israel, has this thing come to pass in Israel, 5 that one tribe should be missing from Israel today?" and the first 6 thing the next day the people built an altar there, and offered burnt-7 offerings and welfare-sacrifices.

8 And the sons of Israel said "Who is there that did not come up to 9 Jehovah in the assembly, of all the tribes of Israel?" because there 10 had been the great oath for whoever did not come up to Mispah to 11 Jehovah, that he must be put to death. And the sons of Israel were 12 sorry about their brother Benjamin, and said "One tribe has been 13 hewn off from Israel today. What shall we do for wives for them, 14 the ones that are left, when we have sworn by Jehovah not to give 15 them any of our daughters as wives?"

16 And they said "Who is there at all among the tribes of Israel 17 that did not come to Mispah to Jehovah?" and it was found that not 18 a man from Jabesh in Gilead had come to the camp to the assembly.
19 And the people were mustered, and it was found that there was not 20 a man there of the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead. And the congre-21 gation sent there twelve thousand of the most stalwart men, and gave 22 them the order "Go and massacre the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead, including the women and children; and this is the way you are to do, destroy without quarter every male, and every woman who has known a male's embrace." And out of the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead they found four hundred virgin girls who had not known man in sexual embrace; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh in the country of Canaan. And all the congregation sent word to the sons of Benjamin on Rimmon Cliff, proclaiming peace to them; and the Benjamites came back at that time, and they gave them the wives they had kept alive out of the women of Jabesh in Gilead, but even so they did not suffice for them.

15 And the people were sorry about the Benjamites, because Jehovah 16 had broken into the tribes of Israel. And the elders of the congre-17 gation said "What shall we do for wives for the ones that are left?" 18 because womankind had been rooted out from Benjamin; and "Ben-19 jamin has an estate of survivors, so that a tribe is not to be wiped 20 out from Israel; but we cannot give them wives out of our daugh-21 ters"—because the sons of Israel had sworn "Cursed is anyone who 22 gives a wife to the Benjamites." And they said "Here is the feast of Jehovah at Shiloh annually, north of Bethel, east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shekem, and south of Lebonah"; and they gave the sons of Benjamin the order "Go and lie in ambush in the vineyards, and be looking, and if the Shiloh girls come out to dance the dances, come you out of the vineyards and catch yourselves a wife apiece out of the Shiloh girls, and go to the country of Benjamin. And when their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them
"Let them off as a favor to us, because we did not take a wife apiece

- by fighting, for you did not give to them, then you would have been 23 liable." And the sons of Benjamin did so, and carried off wives enough for their number out of the dancers they stole, and went home to their domain and rebuilt the cities and lived in them.
 24 And upon that the sons of Israel wended their way from there to their several tribes and clans, and they went out from there to their 25 several domains. In those days there was no king in Israel: each did what suited him.

 is not now known, and many in which there has been made some mistake in copying that we cannot correct with

THE BOOK OF RUTH

1 And in the time when the judges judged there was a famine in the country, and a man from Bethlehem in Judah went to live as an 2 immigrant in Moab, he and his wife and his two sons; the man's name was Elimelec and his wife's name was Na'omi, and the names of his 3 two sons were Mahlon and Kiljon—Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. And they went into Moab and were there; and Na'omi's 4 husband Elimelec died, and she and her two sons remained, and she married them to Moabite wives, one named 'Orpah and the other 5 named Ruth. And they lived there about ten years, and Mahlon and Kiljon died too, both of them, and the woman remained, surviving 6 her two children and her husband. And she broke up her home, she and her daughters-in-law, and was going back out of Moab, because 7 she had heard in Moab that Jehovah had looked after his people, giving them bread; and she went out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and went along the road to go back to Judah.

8 And Na'omi said to her two daughters-in-law "Come on, go back to your mothers' homes; may Jehovah be kind to you, as you have 9 been to those who are dead and to me. May Jehovah grant that each of you may find rest in a husband's home"; and she kissed them. And 10 they raised their voices and wept, and said to her "But we are going back with you to your people." But Na'omi said "Go back, daughters; why should you go with me? do I still have sons in my body who 11 would be husbands for you? Go back, daughters, go, because I am too old to marry. If I said 'I have hopes' and actually married tonight, 12 or actually bore sons, would you on that account have patience till they should grow up? would you on that account live single without 13 marrying? No, daughters, though I suffer bitterly because of you; for Jehovah's hand has gone out against me."

14 And they raised their voices and wept again, and 'Orpah kissed her mother-in-law; but Ruth stayed by her. And she said "There, your sister-in-law has gone back to her own people and her own god; 15 go back, follow your sister-in-law." But Ruth said "Do not pray me to leave you, to go back from following you, because where you go I am going and where you stop for the night I will stop. Your 16 people is my people and your god is my god. Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. Jehovah do so to me, and more, but it 17 shall be death that separates you and me from each other." And she saw she was set on going with her, and left off talking to her.

18 And the two of them went till they came to Bethlehem. And when they came to Bethlehem all the city was in a commotion over them,

- 20 and they said "Is this Na'omi?" And she said to them "Do not call me Na'omi, call me Mara, because Shaddai has made things very 21 bitter for me. I went full and Jehovah brought me back empty; why do you call me Na'omi when Jehovah has indicted me and Shaddai has brought evil on me?"
- 22 And Na'omi came back, and with her Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, who had followed her back from Moab, and they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

- 1 And Na'omi had a relative of her husband's, a stalwart man of 2 Elimelec's clan, named Bo'az. And Ruth the Moabite said to Na'omi
"Let me go to the field and glean ears of the grain behind whoever 3 is kind to me"; and she told her "Go, daughter." And she went off and came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers, and she happened into the section of the field that belonged to Bo'az, who was of 4 Elimelec's clan, and there came Bo'az out of Bethlehem and said to the reapers "Jehovah be with you," and they said to him "Jehovah 5 bless you." And Bo'az said to his man who was superintending the 6 reapers "Whose is this girl?" and the man superintending the reapers answered "That is a Moabite girl, the one that came back with Na'omi 7 out of Moab; and she said 'Let me glean and pick up among the shocks behind the reapers,' and she came and has been on her feet ever since it was daylight till right now; her sitting down in the 8 house has been only a little." And Bo'az said to Ruth "Do you hear, daughter? do not go gleaning in another field, and do not cross over 9 out of this; stick here by my girls; keep your eyes on the field they are reaping and follow them—the boys have my orders not to touch you; and when you are thirsty go to the jars and take a drink out 10 of what the boys draw." And she threw herself down on her face and did reverence on the ground, and said to him "How comes it 11 you are kind enough to notice me when I am a foreigner?" And Bo'az answered "I have been told all about what you did for your mother-in-law after your husband's death and how you left your father and mother and your native country and went to a people you had not 12 known before. May Jehovah requite your actions, and your reward be thorough from Israel's God Jehovah under whose wings you have 13 come to take shelter." And she said "Thank you, sir, for cheering me up and speaking kindly to your servant, when I am not the like of one of your slave-girls."
- 14 And Bo'az said to her at eating-time "Come here and have some of the bread and dip your piece in the sauce"; and she sat down beside the reapers, and he passed her roasted grain, and she ate till 15 she had all she wanted, and left some over. And she stood up to glean, and Bo'az gave the men the order "She is to glean right in 16 between the shocks and you are not to snub her; and, too, you are to pull some out of the armfuls and leave it for her, and she is to glean 17 and you are not to scold her." And she gleaned in the field till evening; and she beat out what she had gleaned, and it came to about 18 a bushel of barley; and she took it up and went into the city.

And her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned, and she took out and gave to her what she had had left over from eating all she 19 wanted. And her mother-in-law said to her "Where did you glean today? on which side did you work? may the one who took notice of you be blessed." And she told her mother-in-law the one with whom she had worked, and said "The name of the man I worked with today 20 is Bo'az." And Na'omi said to her daughter-in-law "Blessed be he of Jehovah, that he has never left off his friendliness with the living and with the dead."

And Na'omi said to her "The man is a near relative to us, one of 21 our immediate family." And Ruth the Moabite said "Another thing:
he said to me 'You are to stick by my boys till they finish reaping all 22 of the field that is mine.'" And Na'omi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth "It is best, daughter, that you go out with his girls and they 23 do not encounter you in another field." And she stuck by Bo'az's girls, gleaning till the barley harvest and the wheat harvest were finished; and she stayed with her mother-in-law.

1 And her mother-in-law Na'omi said to her "Daughter, I am to look for a resting-place for you—isn't that right?—that will be 2 good for you. And now Bo'az, whose girls you have been with, is our relative, you know. Here will he be winnowing the barley 3 threshing-floor tonight; take a bath and oil yourself and dress and go down to the threshing-floor; do not disclose yourself to the man 4 till he has finished eating and drinking; and when he lies down find out the place where he lies and come and lift the blanket at his 5 feet and lie down, and he will tell you what you are to do." And she 6 said to her "I will do just as you say," and went down to the threshing-floor and did just as her mother-in-law had charged her 7 to. And Bo'az ate and drank and was feeling well, and came to lie down at the edge of the heap of grain, and she came quietly and 8 lifted the blanket at his feet and lay down. And at midnight the man was startled and rolled over and found there was a woman lying at 9 his feet; and he said "Who are you?" and she said "I am your servant Ruth; spread the flap of your cloak over your servant, because you 10 are next of kin." And he said "Blessed be you of Jehovah, daughter; you have shown a better friendship last than first, not going after 11 the young men, rich or poor. And now, daughter, do not be afraid:
I will do for you just as you say, because all the gate of my people 12 knows you are a worthy woman. But now the thing is, I certainly am a next of kin, but there is also a next of kin closer than I am.

13 Stay through the night, and in the morning if he will act as next of kin to you, all right, let him; but if he is not disposed to, then I 14 will do it, as Jehovah lives. Lie still till morning.” And she lay at his feet till morning, and stood up before one man could recognize another; and he thought “It must not be known that the woman 15 had come to the threshing-floor,” and said “Let’s have the shawl you have on; hold on to it”; and she held on to it, and he measured out six of barley and set it on her, and went into the city.

16 And she came to her mother-in-law, and she said “How did you come out, daughter?” and she told her everything that the man had 17 done with her, and said “He gave me these six of barley, because 18 he said ‘Do not come to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’” And she said “Stay here, daughter, till you know how things will go, because the man will not stop without finishing the business today.”

CHAPTER 4

1 And Bo’az had gone up to the gate and sat down there; and along came the next of kin of whom Bo’az had spoken, and he said “Come over and sit down here, So-and-so!” and he came over and sat down.
2 And he took ten men, elders of the city, and said “Sit down here,” 3 and they did. And he said to the next of kin “Na’omi, the one that has come back from Moab, has sold out brother Elimelec’s share of 4 the field; and I thought I would give you notice to buy in the presence of those who are sitting here and of the elders of my people. If you will redeem, do so; and if you will not, tell me so that I may know, because there is you to redeem, and I come after you.” And he said 5 “I will redeem”; and Bo’az said “On the day that you get the land out of Na’omi’s hands you also get Moabite Ruth, the dead man’s 6 widow, to set up the dead man’s name over his estate.” And the next of kin said “I shall not be able to redeem personally, for fear of impairing my estate; do the redeeming for me yourself, because I 7 shall not be able to redeem.” And there was formerly this in Israel for redemption and for substitution, to validate every transaction:
a man took off his sandal and gave it to the other party, and this was 8 the attestation in Israel; and the next of kin said to Bo’az “Buy 9 for yourself” and took off his sandal. And Bo’az said to the elders and all the people “You are witnesses today that I buy out of Na’omi’s hands everything that belonged to Elimelec and everything that 10 belonged to Kiljon and Mahlon, and I also buy Mahlon’s widow Moabite Ruth for my wife, to set up the dead man’s name over his estate and not have the dead man’s name disappear from among his brothers and from the gate of his people; you are witnesses today.” 11 And all the people in the gate and the elders said “We are: Jehovah grant the woman who is coming into your house to be like Rachel and Leah, the two that built up the house of Israel; may you earn 12 high standing in Ephrathah and make a name in Bethlehem, and your family be like the family of Peres whom Tamar bore to Judah, by the issue which Jehovah shall give you out of this girl."

13 And Bo'az took Ruth and she became his wife; and he went in to 14 her and Jehovah gave her motherhood, and she had a son; and the 15 women said to Na'omi "Blessed be Jehovah, who has not deprived you today of a next of kin whose name may be called in Israel, and whom you will have as a lifesaver to provide for your old age, because your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is better to you than 16 seven sons, has given him birth." And Na'omi took the child and laid 17 him in her lap and became caretaker to him. And the neighbor women called him by a name, saying "Na'omi has had a son born to her," and named him 'Obed; he was the father of Jesse the father of David.

18 19 And this is Peres's line. Peres begot Hesron, and Hesron begot 20 Ram, and Ram begot 'Amminadab, and 'Amminadab begot Nahshon, 21 and Nahshon begot Salmon, and Salmon begot Bo'az, and Bo'az 22 begot 'Obed, and 'Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

THE BOOK OF SAMUEL

Book First

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim, a Suphite of the highland of Ephraim, named Elkanah, son of Jeroham the son of Elihu 2 the son of Tohu the son of Suph, an Ephrathite. And he had two wives: one's name was Hannah and the other's was Peninnah; and 3 Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. And this man went up from his city from year to year to do reverence and to sacrifice to Jehovah of Armies at Shiloh; and 'Eli's two sons Hophni 4 and Pinehas, priests of Jehovah, were there. And one day Elkanah was sacrificing; and he would give a portion to his wife Peninnah 5 and portions to all her sons and daughters, but would give Hannah one portion in vexation, because he loved Hannah and Jehovah had 6 shut her womb; and her rival provoked her besides, to make her fret,

7 because Jehovah had shut up her womb; and thus he did year by year, as often as she went up to Jehovah's house; thus she provoked her.— 8 And Hannah cried and did not eat. And her husband Elkanah said to her "Hannah, why do you cry? why are you not eating? why 9 do you feel badly? am I not more to you than ten sons?" And Hannah rose after they had eaten at Shiloh, and went and stood before Jehovah, while Priest 'Eli was sitting on his chair by the doorpost 10 of the temple of Jehovah; and, she being sore at heart, she prayed 11 to Jehovah and wept tears, and made a vow and said "Jehovah of Armies, if you look upon your servant's wretched state and remember me, and do not forget your servant but give your servant a man-child, then I will give him to Jehovah all his life, and no razor shall 12 touch his head." And, as she was long praying before Jehovah, 'Eli 13 watched her mouth; and Hannah was speaking inwardly—only her lips moved, but her voice was not audible—and 'Eli thought she was 14 drunk. And 'Eli said to her "How long are you going to exhibit your 15 drunkenness? Get rid of your wine." But Hannah answered "No, sir, I am a woman in trouble; I have not been drinking wine or beer; I 16 was pouring out my soul before Jehovah. Do not take it as if your servant were a reprobate; it was owing to the greatness of my griev-17 ance and provocation that I spoke so long." And 'Eli answered "Go, and good betide you; and may the God of Israel grant your request 18 that you have asked of him." And she said "Thank you, sir." And the woman went her way, and ate, and no longer had the look in her face.
 19 And when they rose the next morning they did reverence before Jehovah and came back to their home at Ramah. And Elkanah knew 20 his wife Hannah, and Jehovah remembered her; and at the turn of the year she had a son, and named him Samuel "because I asked 21 Jehovah for him." And the man Elkanah, and all his family, went 22 up to sacrifice to Jehovah the annual sacrifice and his vow. But Hannah did not go up; for she said to her husband "Not till the boy is weaned, when I will bring him and he shall appear in the presence 23 of Jehovah and stay there permanently"; and Elkanah her husband said to her "Do what you think best: stay till you wean him; only let Jehovah make good his word." And the woman stayed and nursed her 24 son till she weaned him; and when she had weaned him she brought him up with her, with a three-year-old steer and bread and a bushel of flour and a skin of wine, and came to Jehovah's house at Shiloh, with the boy with them; and they came before Jehovah, and his father made the sacrifice that he made year by year to Jehovah, and 25 brought the boy and slaughtered the steer; and Hannah the boy's 26 mother brought the boy to 'Eli and said "O, my lord, as you live, my 27 lord, I am the woman who stood here by you to pray to Jehovah. It was for this boy that I prayed, and Jehovah has granted me my re-28 quest that I asked of him. And I on my part have granted him to Jehovah; ever since he has been, he is granted to Jehovah."

CHAPTER 2

1 And Hannah prayed and said

"My heart exults in Jehovah, my horn is uplifted in Jehovah, my mouth opens wide against my enemies, because I rejoice in your deliverance.

2 There is no Holy One like Jehovah; for there is none but you;
and there is no Rock like our God.

3 Talk not overmuch loftily, loftily, arrogance coming out of your mouths; for Jehovah is a God of knowledge; and are not deeds measured out?

4 Champions' bows are shivered, and men who were stumbling have girded themselves with stoutness;

5 Well-fed men have hired themselves out for bread, and hungry men have ceased; even the barren has borne seven, and she who had many children is forlorn.

6 Jehovah puts to death and brings to life, brings down to the world below, and up.

7 Jehovah impoverishes and enriches, abases and exalts,

8 Lifts the poor man from the dust, raises the needy man from the rubbish-dump, to seat him with nobles and allot to him a throne of glory;
For the pillars of the earth are Jehovah's, and he has set the world upon them.

9 He guards the feet of his godly, and ungodly men are stilled in darkness;
for not by strength does a man prevail.

10 Jehovah strikes with dismay the one who contends with him, thunders over him in the sky; Jehovah pronounces judgment for the ends of the earth, to give power to his king and uplift the horn of his anointed."

11 And she left him there before Jehovah and went to Ramah.

And the boy officiated in the service of Jehovah before Priest 'Eli.

12 13 And 'Eli's sons were reprobates who did not know Jehovah nor the due of the priest from the people; when any man was offering a sacrifice, the priest's man would come when they were boiling the flesh, 14 with the three-tined fork in his hand, and strike it into the kettle or pipkin or caldron or stewpan; whatever the fork brought up, the priest took to himself. Thus they did to all Israel who came there to 15 Shiloh. Even before they had burned the fat, the priest's man would come and say to the man who was sacrificing "Give flesh to roast for the priest, so that he shall not get boiled flesh from you, but raw."

 16 And the man would say "They have to burn the fat first; then take whatever you like." And he would say "No, you are to give it now; if not, I take it by force." And the young men's sin was very great before Jehovah, because people held Jehovah's offerings in contempt.
 18 And Samuel, a boy belted with a white linen ephod, was officiating before Jehovah. And his mother made him a little robe and brought it up to him when she came up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice. And 'Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said "May Jehovah repay you with offspring by this woman for the grant that has been made to Jehovah." And they went to their place. And Jehovah visited Hannah, and she conceived and had three sons and two daughters; and the boy Samuel grew up with Jehovah.
 22 And 'Eli, who was very old, used to hear of all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and their lying with the women who did duty at the door of the Tent of Meeting; and he said to them "Why do you do such things as these, that I hear these bad things about you from all the people? Do not do it, my sons; for the report that I hear Jehovah's people circulating is not good. If a man sins against a man, God will mediate; but if a man sins against Jehovah, who shall mediate for him?" but his sons would not obey their father, because 26 it was Jehovah's pleasure to cause their death. And the boy Samuel went on pleasing both Jehovah and men.
 27 And a man of God came to 'Eli and said to him "Says Jehovah, I did reveal myself to your family when they were in Egypt, the Pharaoh's home, and chose it out of all the tribes of Israel to be priests to me, to go up my altar, to burn incense and bear an ephod before me, and gave your family all the fire-offerings of the sons of Israel.
 29 Why do you look askance at my sacrifices and offerings which I have ordained, and rank your sons above me, fattening them on the prime of the offerings of Israel my people? So Israel's God Jehovah quoth, I did say your family, your own and the family you come of, should walk before me forever; but now, quoth Jehovah, away with the thought; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise 31 me shall be of little account. Here are days coming when I will hew off your arm and the arm of your kin, that there shall never be an old man in your family in all time. But not every man of yours will I cut off from my altar, to consume your eyes and to famish your soul; but all the main body of your family shall die by the sword of 34 men. And this is the token you are to have, what shall come to your two sons Hophni and Pinehas: they shall both die in one day. And 35 I will set up for myself a steadfast priest; he shall do as is in my heart and mind; and I will build him a steadfast house, and he shall walk 36 before my anointed for all time. And whoever is left in your family shall come to do reverence to him for a bit of silver and a biscuit, and shall say 'Please attach me to one of the priestly offices, so that I can eat a morsel of bread.'"

1 And the boy Samuel was officiating in the service of Jehovah before 'Eli—and Jehovah's word was rare in those days; there was 2 no widespread seeing of visions—and on that day, while 'Eli was lying in his place (his eyes had begun to grow dim so that he could 3 not see), and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was 4 lying in the temple of Jehovah, where the ark of God was, Jehovah 5 called "Samuel, Samuel!" and he said "Here I am," and ran to 'Eli and said "Here I am, because you called me." And he said "I did 6 not call; go back and lie down." And he went and lay down. And again Jehovah called "Samuel, Samuel!" and he went to 'Eli and 7 said "Here I am, because you called me"; and he said "I did not call, my son; go back and lie down." (And Samuel did not yet know 8 Jehovah, and Jehovah's word was not yet revealed to him.) And Jehovah called Samuel for the third time; and he ran and went to 'Eli and said "Here I am, because you called me"; and 'Eli perceived that 9 Jehovah was calling the boy. And 'Eli said to Samuel "Go and lie down, and if he calls to you say 'Speak, Jehovah, for your servant 10 is listening'"; and Samuel went and lay down in his place. And Jehovah came and stood and called, as he had before, "Samuel, Samuel!" and Samuel said "Speak, for your servant is listening." 11 And Jehovah said to Samuel "Lo, I will do such a thing in Israel that 12 when anybody hears of it both his ears will buzz. On that day I will make good to 'Eli everything that I have denounced against his family, 13 and do it all at once. And I will tell him that I will execute a perpetual judgment upon his family, because he knew that his sons were 14 insulting God and he did not check them; and so I swear to 'Eli's family that the offense of 'Eli's family shall not be purged by sacrifice 15 and offering forever." And Samuel lay abed till morning, and in the morning he opened the door of Jehovah's house.

16 And Samuel was afraid to tell 'Eli the vision. And 'Eli called 17 Samuel and said "Samuel, my son!" and he said "Here I am." And he said "What was the word that he spoke to you? now do not conceal it from me; Jehovah do so to you, and more, if you conceal from me 18 anything of all the words that he spoke to you." And Samuel told him every word, and did not conceal it from him; and he said "It is Jehovah; he will do as he sees fit."

19 And Samuel grew, and Jehovah was with him and did not let any 20 of his words fall to the ground; and all Israel from Dan to Beer-Sheba knew that Samuel was to be depended on as a prophet of 21 Jehovah. And Jehovah continued to appear in Shiloh; for Jehovah revealed himself in Shiloh, by his word, to Samuel; and all Israel 22 had Samuel's word. And 'Eli grew very old, and his sons went on and on, and their course was displeasing to Jehovah.

CHAPTER 4

1 And in those days the Philistines assembled for war against Israel; and the Israelites went out to meet them in battle, and camped by 2 the Help Stone, and the Philistines camped in Aphek. And the Philistines gave battle to the Israelites, and the battle went badly, and the Israelites were beaten by the Philistines, and they killed 3 about four thousand men in line in the field. And when the men got to camp, the elders of Israel said "Why did Jehovah cause us to be beaten by the Philistines today? let us get the ark of our God from Shiloh, that it may go out in our midst and save us out of the hands 4 of our enemies." And the men sent to Shiloh and carried off from there the ark of Jehovah who sits upon the cherubs; and 'Eli's two 5 sons were with the ark, Hophni and Pinehas. And when the ark of Jehovah came to the camp all the Israelites gave a great cheer so 6 that the earth quivered; and the Philistines heard the sound of the cheering and said "What is this sound of great cheering in the camp of the Hebrews?" and they learned that the ark of Jehovah had come 7 to the camp. And the Philistines were afraid; for they said "A god has come to the camp"; and they said "Woe to us! for there has not 8 been anything like this before. Woe to us! who shall deliver us out of the hands of these grand gods? these are the gods that struck the 9 Egyptians all those blows in the wilderness. Do your best, be men, Philistines, that you may not be slaves to the Hebrews as they were 10 to you; be men, and fight!" And the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were beaten and fled each to his home; and the losses were very great, and there fell of the Israelites three thousand footmen, 11 and the ark of God was taken, and 'Eli's two sons, Hophni and Pinehas, were killed.

12 And a man of Benjamin ran from the battle and came to Shiloh 13 that same day with his brigandine torn and earth on his head; and when he came he found 'Eli sitting in his chair at the side of the gate watching along the road, for he felt alarmed for the ark of God.
And the man went in to tell the news in the city, and all the city 14 raised an outcry; and 'Eli heard the sound of the cry, and said "What is this noise of an uproar?" And the man came in haste and told 'Eli; 15 (now 'Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were set so that he could not see); and the man said to 'Eli "I am the one who came from the army; I ran from the battle today." And he said "How 16 was it, my son?" And the man with the news answered "The Israelites ran before the Philistines, and there was a great slaughter of our men too, and both your sons are killed too, and the ark of God is

- 18 taken." And when he mentioned the ark of God 'Eli fell backward off his chair at the side of the gate, and his neck was broken, and he died—for the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.
- 19 And his daughter-in-law, Pinehas's wife, was on the point of having a child; and she heard the report about the capture of the ark of God and the death of her father-in-law and her husband, and she crouched down and gave birth to her child, because her pains came
- 20 upon her, and died forthwith. And the women who stood over her spoke to her, saying "Do not be afraid, for you have borne a son,"
- 21 but she made no answer and gave no heed. And she called the boy Icabod, saying "Israel's glory is gone," with reference to the capture
- 22 of the ark of God and to her father-in-law and her husband. And she said "Israel's glory is gone," because the ark of God was taken.

CHAPTER 5

- 1 And the Philistines had taken the ark of God and brought it from the Help Stone to Ashdod.
- 2 And the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the
- 3 house of Dagon and placed it beside Dagon. And the next morning, the first thing, the Ashdodites came into the house of Dagon and found Dagon down on his face on the ground before the ark of Jehovah. And they lifted Dagon to his feet and put him back in his
- 4 place. And the first thing in the morning on the next day they found Dagon down on his face on the ground before the ark of Jehovah, and Dagon's head and both his hands knocked off against the thresh-
- 5 old. (This is why the priests of Dagon, and all who go into the house of Dagon, never step on Dagon's threshold in Ashdod, to this day.)
- 6 And Jehovah's hand was heavy on the Ashdodites, and he desolated
- 7 them and smote them with buboes, Ashdod and its territory. And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, and went to saying "The ark of the god of Israel must not stay with us, because his hand is hard
- 8 on us and on our god Dagon"; and they sent and called together to their city all the Sarns of the Philistines and said "What shall we do with the ark of the god of Israel?" and they said "Let the ark of the god of Israel be brought around to Gath." And they brought
- 9 around the ark of the God of Israel; and after it was brought around Jehovah's hand was upon the city in a prodigious ravage, and he smote the men of the city, great and small, and buboes broke out on
- 10 them. And they sent the ark of God away to 'Ekron; and when the ark of God came into 'Ekron the 'Ekronites raised an outcry "They have brought the ark of the god of Israel around to me, to kill me
- 11 and my people"; and they sent and called together all the Sarns of the Philistines and said "Send the ark of the god of Israel away, so that it may go back to its place and not kill me and my people"; for there was a deadly ravage all through the city, Jehovah's hand 12 was very heavy there. And the men who did not die were smitten with the buboes, and the city's clamor went up to the skies.

CHAPTER 6

1 And the ark of Jehovah was in the Philistines' countryside seven 2 months. And the Philistines called the priests and the diviners with the question "What shall we do with the ark of Jehovah? inform us
3 with what observance we shall send it away to its own place." And they said "If you are sending away the ark of the god of Israel, do not send it away portionless but return it an indemnity: then you shall be restored to health, and it shall become manifest to you why 4 his hand is not taken off from you." And they said "What is to be the indemnity that we return to it?" And they said "The same number as the Sarns of the Philistines, five golden buboes, because you and 5 your Sarns suffered one and the same calamity. And you shall make golden mice, a likeness of your mice that are ravaging the country, and give glory to the god of Israel: perhaps he may lift off his hand 6 from you and your gods and your country. And why should you act haughtily as the Pharaoh and the Egyptians did? after he had done 7 his will upon them they let them go in the end, did they not? Now get and fit out a new cart and two cows with sucking calves, cows that have never had a yoke put on them, and hitch the cows to the cart
8 and take the calves back home away from the mothers, and take the ark of Jehovah and set it on the cart, and put in the box at its side the golden objects that you return to it as indemnity, and send it off 9 and let it go, and see: if it goes up toward Beth-Shemesh, toward its own territory, it was he that did us this great harm; but if not, we shall know that it was not his hand that touched us, it was a chance that happened to us."

10 And the men did so: they took two cows with sucking calves and 11 hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home, and put the ark of Jehovah on the cart, and the box and the golden mice; 12 and the cows took a straight course toward Beth-Shemesh, going along one highway, mooing as they went, and not turning off to right or to left; and the Sarns of the Philistines went behind them to the 13 Beth-Shemesh boundary. And the men of Beth-Shemesh, who were reaping the wheat harvest in the vale, raised their eyes and saw the ark and came joyfully to meet it; and the cart came into the field of Joshua' the Beth-Shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone; and they split the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as 14 a burnt-offering to Jehovah. And the Levites took down the ark of Jehovah and the box that was with it, in which the golden objects were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-Shemesh 15 offered burnt-offerings and sacrifices on that day to Jehovah; and the five Sarns of the Philistines saw it, and went back to 'Ekron that same day.

- 17 And these are the golden buboes which the Philistines returned as indemnity to Jehovah: for Ashdod one, for Ghaza one, for Ash-kelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; and golden mice to the number of all the cities of the Philistines, for the five Sarns, from fortified city to country hamlet. And the great stone on which they put down the ark of Jehovah is still in the field of Joshua the Beth-Shemite to this day.
- 19 And the sons of Jeconiah were not blithe among the men of Beth-Shemesh when they looked upon the ark of Jehovah; and he smote among them seventy men; and the people mourned, because Jehovah had made great havoc among the people. And the men of Beth-Shemesh said "Who can stand before this holy God Jehovah? to whom may he go up away from us?" and sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-Je'arim to say "The Philistines have sent back the ark

CHAPTER 7

- 1 of Jehovah: come down and fetch it up to yourselves." And the men of Kirjath-Je'arim came and fetched up the ark of Jehovah and put it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated his son Eleazar to have charge of the ark of Jehovah.
- 2 And from the day of the settlement of the ark in Kirjath-Je'arim, the time was long: it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel turned to follow Jehovah. And Samuel said to all the house of Israel
"If you are coming back to Jehovah with all your hearts, remove the foreign gods from among you, and the Ashtarts, and direct your hearts to Jehovah and worship him alone, that he may deliver you out of the hands of the Philistines"; and the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtarts, and worshiped Jehovah alone.
- 5 And Samuel said "Gather all Israel at Mispah, and let me pray to Jehovah for you"; and they gathered at Mispah, and drew water and poured it out before Jehovah, and fasted on that day; and they said there "We have sinned against Jehovah." And Samuel passed judgment on the sons of Israel at Mispah.
- 7 And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered themselves at Mispah, and the Sarns of the Philistines came up against Israel; and the sons of Israel heard of it, and were afraid of the Philistines. And the sons of Israel said to Samuel "Do not shut your mouth against us and refuse to cry to our God Jehovah to deliver us out of the hands of the Philistines." And Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it as an entire burnt-offering to Jehovah; and Samuel cried to Jehovah for Israel, and Jehovah answered him. And as Samuel was offering the burnt-offering the Philistines came on to fight a battle with the Israelites; and Jehovah thundered loudly over the Philistines on that day, and threw them into confusion, and they were beaten by the Israelites. And the men of Israel came out from Mispah and pursued the Philistines and cut them down till below

12 Beth-Car. And Samuel took a stone and set it between Mispah and Jeshanah, and named it the Help Stone, and said "Thus far Jehovah helped us."

18 And the Philistines were humbled, and no longer entered the territory of Israel; and Jehovah's hand was against the Philistines 14 throughout Samuel's life. And the cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel came back to Israel, from 'Ekron to Gath, and Israel recovered the territory of these cities out of the hands of the Philistines.

15 16 And Samuel judged Israel all his life; and he went year by year in circuit to Bethel and the Gilgal and Mispah, and judged Israel 17 at all these sanctuaries. But his headquarters was at Ramah, because his home was there; and there he judged Israel, and built an altar there to Jehovah.

1 And when Samuel grew old he installed his sons as judges of 2 Israel: the name of his older son was Joel, and of his second son 3 Abijah, judges at Beer-Sheba'. And his sons did not follow his paths, but turned aside after profit, and took bribes, and warped the law.

4 And all the elders of Israel assembled and came to Samuel at Ramah 5 and said to him "Here you have grown old, and your sons have not been following your paths: now appoint us a king to judge us, like 6 all the nations." And the thing displeased Samuel when they said 7 "Give us a king to judge us," and Samuel prayed to Jehovah. And Jehovah said to Samuel "Obey the people in everything that they say to you; for it is not you but me that they have rejected as king 8 over them. As in all the things that they have done to me from the day that I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, leaving me and 9 worshipping other gods, so they are doing to you too. Now obey them; only you shall make a protest to them and tell them about the government of the king who will reign over them."

10 And Samuel told all Jehovah's words to the people who were 11 asking him for a king: he said "This is what the government of the king who will reign over you will be. He will take your sons and put them to his carriages and his horse guards, and they shall run 12 before his carriages; and to be appointed as his captains over a thousand or over fifty, and to do his plowing and harvesting, and 13 to make his weapons and the fittings for his carriages. And he will take your daughters for perfumers and cooks and bakers. And he will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive-orchards 15 and give them to his officers. And he will take a tenth of your grain 16 and fruit and give it to his eunuchs and officers. And he will take the best of your slaves and oxen and your donkeys to do his work 17 with. And he will take a tenth of your sheep—and you will be his

- 18 slaves, and will cry out in that day because of your king whom you chose to have, and Jehovah will not hear you in that day.”
- 19 But the people refused to obey Samuel, and said “No, we will have 20 a king over us and be the same as all the nations are, and have our 21 king judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.” And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and repeated them for 22 Jehovah to hear; and Jehovah said to Samuel “Obey them and set up a king over them.” And Samuel said to the men of Israel “Go home to your cities.”

CHAPTER 9

- 1 And there was a man in Benjamin, named Kish, son of Abiel the son of Seror the son of Becorath the son of Aphiah the son of a 2 Benjamite, a stalwart man; and he had a son named Saul, a young man and a fine one; not a man of the sons of Israel was finer than he;
3 he was head and shoulders taller than any of the people. And Saul's father Kish lost his donkeys; and Kish said to his son Saul “Take 4 one of the men with you and go look for the donkeys.” And they went through the highland of Ephraim and through the Shalishah country and did not find them, and through the Sha'alim country and they were not there, and through the Benjamite country and did 5 not find them; and when they came to the country of Suph, Saul said to his man who was with him “Come, let us go back, for fear father should leave off about the donkeys and grow anxious about us.”
6 And he said to him “Here, in this city there is a man of God, and the man is highly thought of; everything that he says is sure to come true. Now let us go there; perhaps he will tell us about our errand 7 that we went on.” And Saul said to his servant “Well, suppose we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is gone out of our haversacks, and there is no fee to bring to the man of God; what 8 have we with us?” And the servant still had an answer for Saul, and said “Here, I have about me a quarter of a shekel of silver that I will 9 give to the man of God and have him tell us about our errand.” (Formerly in Israel a man said, when he went to inquire of God, “Come, let us go to the seer”; for the prophet of today used to be called seer.) 10 And Saul said to his man “All right; come, let us go”; and they 11 went to the city where the man of God was. As they were going up the slope to the city they found girls coming out to draw water, and 12 said to them “Is the seer here?” and they answered “Yes, he is right ahead of you; he has just come to the city today, because today the 13 people have a sacrifice at the height; just as you go into the city you will find him, before he goes up to the height to eat—for the people will not eat till he comes, because he blesses the sacrifice and afterward 14 the guests eat. Go right up, for today you will find him.” And they went up to the city; and as they were coming into the city, there was Samuel coming toward them on his way out to go up to the height.

- 15 16 And Jehovah had given Samuel notice one day before Saul came, "At this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the Benjamites' country, and you shall anoint him warden over my people Israel, to save my people out of the hands of the Philistines; for I have seen the wretched state of my people; for their outcry has reached me."
- 17 And as Samuel saw Saul, Jehovah answered him "Here is the man of whom I said to you 'He shall sway my people.'"
- 18 And Saul approached Samuel in the middle of the gate and said
- 19 "Please tell me where the seer's house is." And Samuel answered Saul "I am the seer; go up to the height before me and eat with me today, and I will send you away in the morning and tell you everything
- 20 that you have in mind. And as to the donkeys you lost three days ago today, do not mind them, for they are found—and whose is everything choice in Israel? is it not yours, and for all your family?"
- 21 And Saul answered "Am I not a Benjamite, from one of the smallest tribes in Israel, and my clan the least of the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? why do you talk like that to me?"
- 22 And Samuel took Saul and his man and brought them to the vestry and gave them a place at the head of the guests, of whom there
- 23 were about thirty. And Samuel said to the cook "Bring the portion
- 24 that I gave you, that I told you to put by." And the cook lifted the leg and carried it up and set it before Saul; and he said "Here what is left is set before you; eat, for it was kept to this occasion for you;
- 25 carve before the people." And Saul ate with Samuel that day, and they went down from the height to the city; and they made a bed for
- 26 Saul on the roof, and he slept there.
- And at dawn Samuel called to the roof to Saul "Get up, and I will start you off"; and Saul got up, and the two of them, he and
- 27 Samuel, went outdoors. And as they were in the skirts of the city going down, Samuel said to Saul "Tell the man to pass on before us

CHAPTER 10

- 1 and stop here yourself; now I will let you hear God's word." And Samuel took his flask of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said to him "It is because Jehovah has anointed you warden over his people Israel, and you shall sway Jehovah's people, and you shall save them out of the hands of their enemies on all sides. And this is the sign you are to have that Jehovah has anointed you as
- 2 warden of his estate: as you go from me today you will find two men by Rachel's grave at the boundary-line of Benjamin, at Selsah, and they will say to you 'The donkeys that you went to look for are found, and now your father has dropped the matter of the donkeys and is
- 3 anxious about you, saying "What shall I do for my son?"' And you will go on beyond there and come to the Tabor Oak, and three men going up to God's place at Bethel will fall in with you there, one carrying three kids and one carrying three cakes of bread and one

4 carrying a skin of wine; and they will ask you how you are doing, and give you two cakes of bread, and you shall receive it from them.
5 After that you will come to Gibeath-ha-Elohim, where the Philistines' prefect is; and as you come to the city there you will encounter a company of prophets coming down from the height, with harp and 6 tambourine and flute and lyre before them, and under the power; and the spirit of Jehovah will seize upon you, and you will fall under 7 the power with them and be turned into another man. And when these tokens present themselves to you, do as occasion offers; for God 8 is with you. And go down before me to the Gilgal; I will be coming down to you to offer burnt-offerings and sacrifice welfare-sacrifices; seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and let you know what you are to do."

9 And when he turned his back to go from Samuel, God transformed his heart, and all these tokens presented themselves to him that same 10 day. And they came there to Gibeath, and found a company of prophets coming on and meeting them; and a divine spirit seized 11 upon him, and he fell under the power and was among them. And everybody who had known him previously saw how he was with the prophets and under the power; and the people said to each other
"What is this that has happened to Kish's son? is Saul too among the 12 prophets?" and a man from there answered "And who is their father?"
Hence it became a proverb "Is Saul too among the prophets?"

13 14 And he came out of the power and came to the height; and Saul's uncle said to him and his man "Where did you go?" and he said
"Looking for the donkeys; and we saw there was nothing to be found 15 of them, and came to Samuel." And Saul's uncle said "O, tell me 16 what Samuel said to you." And Saul said to his uncle "He told us all right that the donkeys had been found," but did not tell him that about the kingship that Samuel had said.

17 And Samuel called the people out to Jehovah's place at Mispah, 18 and said to the sons of Israel "Says Jehovah, the God of Israel, 'I brought Israel up from Egypt, and delivered you out of the hands 19 of the Egyptians and of all the kingdoms that oppressed you; and you today have rejected your God who was your savior out of all your hardships and distresses, and have said "No, but appoint a king over us." Now, then, take your stand before Jehovah by tribes and 20 by thousands.'" And Samuel brought forward all the tribes of Israel, 21 and the tribe of Benjamin was fixed upon; and he brought forward the tribe of Benjamin by clans, and the clan of the Matrites was fixed upon; and he brought forward the clan of the Matrites by men, and Saul the son of Kish was fixed upon; and they looked for him, 22 but he was not to be found. And they put the question to Jehovah again "Has the man come here?" and Jehovah said "He is in among 23 the baggage hiding." And they ran and fetched him from there, and he stood up among the people and was tallest of the people by a head

24 and shoulders; and Samuel said to all the people "Do you see the man Jehovah has chosen, how there is no one like him among all the people?" and all the people cheered and said "Long live the king!" 25 And Samuel stated to the people the law of the kingship, and wrote it down as a document and deposited it before Jehovah; and Samuel 26 sent all the people home. And Saul too went home to Gibeah, and 27 with him went the brave men whose hearts God had touched. But the reprobates said "What will this man do toward saving us?" and despised him and brought him no present.

CHAPTER 11

1 And after about a month Nahash the 'Ammonite came up and beleaguered Jabesh in Gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to 2 Nahash "Make terms with us, and we will be your subjects." And Nahash the 'Ammonite said to them "I will make these terms with 3 you, to put out every right eye among you and lay it on all Israel for a slur." And the elders of Jabesh said to him "Give us seven 4 days' truce to send men through all the territory of Israel, and if there is no one who rescues us we will come out to you." And the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and gave the message publicly, 5 and all the people raised their voices and wept. And in came Saul from the field, behind his oxen; and Saul said "What is the matter with the people that they are weeping?" and they recounted to him 6 the story of the men of Jabesh. And the spirit of Jehovah seized 7 upon Saul when he heard this story, and he was very angry, and took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces and sent the pieces through all the territory of Israel by messengers with the message "He who does not come out with Saul and Samuel shall have his oxen treated so." And the dread of Jehovah fell upon the people, and they came 8 out like one man; and he mustered them at Bezek, and there were three hundred thousand of the sons of Israel and thirty thousand of 9 the men of Judah. And they said to the messengers that had come "Say to the men of Jabesh in Gilead, 'Tomorrow you shall have help when the sun grows hot'"; and the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, and they were glad.

10 And the men of Jabesh said "Tomorrow we will come out to you 11 and you shall do with us just as you think best." But on the next day Saul arranged the men in three columns, and they came into the camp in the morning watch and killed 'Ammonites till the day grew hot; and as for those who were left, they were scattered and there were not 12 left among them two together. And the people said to Samuel "Who was it that said 'Shall Saul reign over us?' give us those men to put 13 to death." But Saul said "Nobody shall be put to death on this day; for today Jehovah has made victory in Israel."

14 And Samuel said to the people "Come, let us go to the Gilgal and 15 renew the kingship there"; and all the people went to the Gilgal and made Saul king there before Jehovah at the Gilgal, and sacrificed welfare-sacrifices there before Jehovah; and Saul and all the men of Israel had a great rejoicing there.

CHAPTER 12

1 And Samuel said to all Israel "Here I have obeyed you in everything that you said to me, and have established a king over you.
2 And now, here is the king going about before you, and I am old and gray-headed; and here are my sons among you; and I have been 3 going about before you from my youth to this day. Here I am: bring your charges against me in the presence of Jehovah and his anointed: whose bull have I taken, and whose donkey have I taken? and to whom have I denied justice, and whom have I persecuted? and from whom have I taken composition-money to blind my eyes with? and I 4 will return it to you." And they said "You have never denied us 5 justice nor persecuted us, nor taken anything from us." And he said to them "Jehovah is witness against you this day, and so is his anointed, that you have not found anything in my hands." And they said "He is."

6 And Samuel said to the people "Jehovah, who made Moses and 7 Aaron and who brought your fathers up from Egypt, is witness. And now stand out and let me plead against you before Jehovah the case 8 of all Jehovah's fair dealing by you and by your fathers. When Jacob had gone into Egypt, your fathers cried to Jehovah, and Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron and took your fathers out of Egypt and 9 settled them in this place. And they forgot their God Jehovah, and he sold them into the hands of Sisera the general of the army of 10 the king of Moab, and they made war on them. And they cried to Jehovah, and said 'We have sinned, because we have left Jehovah and worshiped the Baals and the 'Ashtarts: now deliver us out of 11 the hands of our enemies, and we will worship you'; and Jehovah sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel and delivered you out of the hands of your enemies on all sides, and you lived in 12 security. And you saw that King Nahash of the Bene-'Ammon had come against you, and you said to me 'No, but let there be a king 13 reigning over us'—when your God Jehovah was your king. And now here is the king that you have chosen to have: here Jehovah has 14 put a king over you. If you fear Jehovah and worship him and listen to him, and do not disobey Jehovah, and both you and the king who has come to reign over you keep on the side of your God Jehovah,— 15 but if you do not listen to Jehovah, and disobey Jehovah, then Jehovah's hand will be upon you and upon your king to destroy you. Stand 16 out even now and see this great thing which Jehovah does before your 17 eyes! It is wheat harvest today, is it not? I will call on Jehovah and he will give thunder and rain; so see for yourselves that what you have done in asking to have a king is a great wickedness of yours in Jehovah's sight."

18 And Samuel called on Jehovah, and Jehovah gave thunder and rain that day. And all the people were in great fear of Jehovah and 19 of Samuel; and all the people said to Samuel "Pray for your servants to your God Jehovah; do not let us die; for we have added a wickedness to all our sins in asking to have a king."

20 And Samuel said to the people "Do not be afraid; you have done all this wickedness, but only do not turn aside from following Jehovah, 21 and worship Jehovah with all your hearts, and do not turn aside to follow the nonentities that do no good and deliver nobody because 22 they are nonentities. For Jehovah will not abandon his people, for the sake of his great name, because Jehovah has chosen to make you 23 his own people. For me too, away with the thought of my sinning against Jehovah by ceasing to pray for you; and I will guide you in 24 the way of what is good and right. Only fear Jehovah and worship him loyally with all your hearts; for see what great things he has 25 done for you. But if you do misbehave, both you and your king will be swept away."

2 And Saul selected three thousand men out of Israel, and two thousand were with Saul at Micmas and in the highland of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin; and the 3 rest of the people he dismissed to their homes. And Jonathan killed the prefect whom the Philistines had at Gibeah, and Saul blew the ram-horn throughout the country; and the Philistines heard the word 4 "The Hebrews have revolted," and all Israel heard "Saul has killed the Philistines' prefect, so Israel is at deadly feud with the Philistines," and the people came out in arms behind Saul at the Gilgal.
5 And the Philistines came together to make war with Israel, three thousand chariots and six hundred cavalry and men in numbers like the sand on the seabeach, and came up and encamped at Micmas, east 6 of Beth-Aven. And the men of Israel saw that they were in straits, because the people were hard pushed; and the people hid in the caves and the briers and the cliffs and the burial-vaults and the cisterns, 7 and crossed the fords of the Jordan to the country of Gad and Gilead.

And Saul was still at the Gilgal; and the people were all dropping 8 away from him in a panic. And he waited seven days, in accordance with the appointment that Samuel had made; but Samuel did not come to the Gilgal, and the people were scattering away from him.
9 And Saul said "Bring the burnt-offering and the welfare-sacrifices to me," and offered the burnt-offering. And as he finished offering the burnt-offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to meet him 10 and salute him. And Samuel said "What have you done?" and Saul said "Why, I saw that the people were scattered away from me, and

- you had not come within the appointed days, and the Philistines had come together at Micmas, and I thought 'Now the Philistines will be coming down to the Gilgal against me, and I have not propitiated Jehovah'; and I strained a point and offered the burnt-offering."
- And Samuel said to Saul "You did foolishly: you did not keep your God Jehovah's commandment that he had given you. For then Jehovah would have established your kingship over Israel forever; but now your kingship shall not stand. Jehovah has looked out for himself a man to his mind, and Jehovah has appointed him warden over his people, because you did not keep what Jehovah commanded you." And Samuel left the Gilgal and went his own way; but the rest of the people went up behind Saul to the front, and came from the Gilgal to Gibeah in Benjamin; and Saul mustered the men that he had with him, and found that there were about six hundred of them. And Saul and his son Jonathan, and the men he had with him, were staying at Geba' in Benjamin, and the Philistines were encamped at Micmas.
- And the ravaging force went out from the Philistines' camp in three columns, one column taking the direction of Ghophrah, toward the country of Shu'al, and one that of Beth-Horon, and one that of the boundary that looks down on Hyena Valley, toward the wilderness.
- And there was not a smith to be found in all the country of Israel, because the Philistines had thought "The Hebrews might make swords and spears"; and all Israel went down to the Philistines for sharpening a man's plowshare and hoe and ax and goad-point, and the charge for the smith's work was two-thirds for plowshares and hoes and a third of a shekel for ax-whetting and for goad-shoeing.
- And on the day of the battle of Micmas there were no swords and spears to be found in the hands of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and his son Jonathan had them.
- And the Philistines' supporting force went out to Micmas Crossing.

CHAPTER 14

- And one day Saul's son Jonathan said to the young man who was squire to him "Come, let us go across to the Philistines' force over yonder," but did not tell his father. Saul was staying in the outskirts of Geba', under the pomegranate-tree in Migron; the people with him amounted to about six hundred men, and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub the brother of Icabod the son of Pinehas the son of 'Eli Jehovah's priest at Shiloh, bearing an ephod; and the people did not know that Jonathan went. And between the crossings, where Jonathan tried to go across to the Philistine force, there is a tooth of rock over on this side and a tooth of rock over on that side, one named Boses and the other named Seneh, the one tooth towering up on the north, toward Micmas, and the other on the south, toward Geba'.
- And Jonathan said to the young man who was squire to him "Come, let us go across to those uncircumcised fellows' supporting force;

maybe Jehovah will do something for us, for Jehovah has no lack of power to give victory by many or by few"; and his squire said to him "Do whatever you feel inclined to: I am with you, just as you feel." And Jonathan said "You see, we shall be going across to the men and exposing ourselves to their sight: if they tell us 'keep still till we get to you' we will stand where we are and not go up to them; but if they say 'come up to us' we will go up, because Jehovah will have given them into our hands, and this will be the token for us."

And the two of them exposed themselves to the sight of the Philistine supporting force, and the Philistines said "There are some Hebrews coming out of the holes they were hiding themselves in"; and the men of the supporting force answered Jonathan and his squire "Come up to us and we will let you know something." And Jonathan said to his squire "Come up behind me, because Jehovah has given them into Israel's hands." And Jonathan climbed up on hands and feet, and his squire behind him; and they fell before Jonathan, while his squire finished killing them behind him. And the first havoc that Jonathan and his squire made was about twenty men, in about half a furrow of a one-yoke plowing. And there came a panic in the camp and in the field, among all the people in the supporting force; and the ravagers were panic-struck too, and would not work; and the earth quivered, and it became an unearthly panic.

And the sentinels Saul had at Geba in Benjamin saw how the uproar was surging back and forth; and Saul said to the people who were with him "Look up the men and see who has left us"; and they looked up and found Jonathan and his squire missing. And Saul said to Ahijah "Bring the ephod here"; for he was bearing the ephod before Israel that day. And while Saul was speaking to the priest the uproar in the Philistine camp kept growing greater; and Saul said to the priest "Take your hand off," and Saul and all the people who were with him took the field. And they came to the battle and found it had come to be one man's sword against another in utter anarchy. And the Hebrews that had belonged to the Philistines as before, who had come up with them to the camp, also faced about to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan; and all the men of Israel that had been hiding in the highland of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had run, and they too dogged them with a running fight. And Jehovah gave Israel the victory that day.

And the fighting went past Beth-Aven, and all the people came to be with Saul, about ten thousand men, and the fighting spread out all over the highland of Ephraim. And Saul laid a great interdict that day, and banned the people with the words "Cursed be the man who eats food till it is evening and I am revenged on my enemies"; and none of the people tasted food, but all the countryside fasted. And there were combs of honey over the wilds; and the people came to the combs and found that the bees had gone away from them; but

27 there was no one that put his hand to his mouth, because the people were afraid of the oath. But Jonathan had not heard when his father put the people to the oath; and he reached out the tip of a stick he had in his hand and dipped it into a comb of honey, and put his 28 hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened up. And a man of the people answered "Your father has put the people to an oath 'Cursed be the man who eats food today'; and the people have grown faint." 29 And Jonathan said "My father has brought the country into trouble:
 see how my eyes brightened up when I tasted that little bit of honey; 30 what if the people had eaten out of the plunder they have got from the enemy? then there would have been plenty of Philistines killed." 31 And they were killing Philistines that day from Micmas to Aijalon, 32 and the people grew very faint; and the people flew upon the plunder and took sheep and cows and calves and slaughtered them on the 33 ground, and the people ate over the blood. And they told Saul "There are the people sinning against Jehovah by eating over the blood"; and he said "You have dealt falsely; roll a big stone here to me." 34 And Saul said "Scatter among the people and tell them to bring their bulls and sheep here to me and slaughter them here and eat them, and not sin against Jehovah by eating over the blood"; and all the 35 people brought what they had and slaughtered it there. And Saul built an altar to Jehovah: that was his first start in altar-building to Jehovah.
 36 And Saul said "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder among them till morning daylight, and not leave a man among them"; and they said "Do anything you think best." But the priest 37 said "Let us approach God here." And Saul put the question to God "Shall I go down after the Philistines? will you give them into Israel's 38 hands?" but he did not answer him that day. And Saul said "Come here, all the headmen of the people, and see for yourselves what the 39 sin is in today; for, by Jehovah who gives Israel the victory, be it 40 in my son Jonathan, he shall die." And he said to all Israel "Be you one side and I and my son Jonathan will be one side"; and the people 41 said to Saul "Do what you think best." And Saul said "Jehovah, God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant today? if this crime is in me or my son Jonathan, Jehovah, God of Israel, give Urim; and if this crime is in your people Israel, give Thummim."
 And Jonathan and Saul were fixed upon, and the people went clear.
 42 And Saul said "Toss between me and my son Jonathan: whichever Jehovah fixes upon, let him die"; and the people said to Saul "This thing shall not be," but Saul overbore the people and they tossed between him and his son Jonathan, and Jonathan was fixed upon.
 43 And Saul said to Jonathan "Tell me what you have done"; and Jonathan told him, saying "Tasted a little honey with the tip of the stick I 44 had in my hand: here I am, I will die." And Saul said "God do so, and 45 more, but die you shall, Jonathan." But the people said to Saul

“Jonathan die, who has won this great victory of Israel? away with the thought! by Jehovah, not a hair of his head shall fall to the ground, because he cooperated with God today.” And the people 46 ransomed Jonathan so that he did not die. And Saul came up from following the Philistines, and the Philistines went home.

47 And Saul took the kingship over Israel, and made war round about on all his enemies, on Moab and on the Bene-'Ammon and on Edom and on the kings of Sobah and on the Philistines, and wherever he 48 went he was victorious; and he built up a power. And he defeated the 'Amalekites and delivered Israel out of the hands of its pillagers.

49 And Saul's sons were Jonathan and Ishbaal and Malkishua'; and of his two daughters the older one's name was Merab and the younger's Mical; and the name of Saul's wife was Ahino'am the daughter of Ahima'as. And his general's name was Abner the son of Saul's 50 uncle Ner: Saul's father Kish and Abner's father Ner were the sons of Abiel.
51

52 And there was hard fighting with the Philistines throughout Saul's time; and as Saul saw any brave and stalwart man he took him into his service.

CHAPTER 15

1 And Samuel said to Saul “I was the one whom Jehovah sent to anoint you king over his people Israel: now obey Jehovah's words.
2 Says Jehovah of Armies, ‘I have taken up what the 'Amalekites did to Israel, that they beset them on the way when they were coming up 3 out of Egypt. Now go and attack the 'Amalekites and destroy without quarter all that belongs to them; have no mercy on them; put to death man and woman, child at play and baby at the breast, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’”

4 And Saul summoned the people and mustered them at Telam, ten 5 thousand infantry; and Saul came to the capital of 'Amalek and lay 6 in ambush in the arroyo. And Saul said to the Cainites “Go and move out from among the 'Amalekites, that I may not sweep you away with them, you who befriended all the sons of Israel when they were coming up out of Egypt”; and the Cainites moved out from among 7 the 'Amalekites. And Saul made havoc of the 'Amalekites from 8 Havilah till you come to Shur, east of Egypt, and captured Agag, the king of the 'Amalekites, alive, and massacred all the people without 9 quarter. But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fatlings and the he-lambs, and everything good, and would not destroy them; but all insignificant and undesirable articles they destroyed as deodand.

10 11 And Jehovah's word came to Samuel, “I am sorry I made Saul king; for he has turned back from following me, and has not acted on my 12 words.” And Samuel was shocked, and cried to Jehovah all night. But the first thing in the morning Samuel started to meet Saul; and

Samuel was told "Saul came to Carmel and went down to the Gilgal, and is erecting himself a monument"; and he turned and went across and down to the Gilgal to Saul, and found him offering a burnt-offering to Jehovah, the prime of the booty he had brought from the 'Amalekites.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him "Jehovah bless 14 you; I have acted on Jehovah's words." And Samuel said "Then what is this bleating that my ears are full of, and this mooing I hear?" 15 And Saul said "They brought them from the 'Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and cattle for sacrificing to your God Jehovah; and the rest we destroyed."

16 And Samuel said "Wait and let me tell you what Jehovah said 17 to me last night." And he said "Say it." And Samuel said "If you do seem small to yourself, are you not head of the tribes of Israel?
18 And Jehovah anointed you king over Israel, and Jehovah sent you on an errand and said 'Go and destroy the 'Amalekite sinners without 19 quarter, and fight them till you have exterminated them': why did you not obey Jehovah, but pounced on the booty and did what dis-20 pleased Jehovah?" And Saul said to Samuel "I did obey Jehovah, and went on the errand Jehovah sent me on, and brought Agag the king of the 'Amalekites, and destroyed the 'Amalekites without 21 quarter; but the people took out of the booty sheep and cattle, the prime of the deodand to sacrifice to your God Jehovah at the Gilgal." 22 And Samuel said "Does Jehovah take as much pleasure in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obedience to Jehovah's words? Obedience 23 is better than sacrifice, and listening than rams' fat. For disobedience is the sin of soothsaying, and pushing is fetish and teraphim. Because you have rejected Jehovah's word, he has rejected you as king."

24 And Saul said to Samuel "I did wrong, in that I have violated Jehovah's charge and your words, because I was afraid of the people 25 and obeyed them. But now pardon my sin and come back with me 26 and let me do reverence to Jehovah." But Samuel said to Saul "I will not come back with you, because you have rejected Jehovah's word and Jehovah has rejected you from being king over Israel"; 27 and Samuel turned to go. And Saul took hold of the flap of his robe, 28 and it tore; and Samuel said to him "Jehovah has torn the kingship 29 of Israel off from you and given it to your better. And the Continuance of Israel will not break his word nor change his mind; for 30 he is not man, to change his mind." And he said "I did wrong. Now pay honor to me before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and come back with me and let me do reverence to your God Jehovah." 31 And Samuel followed Saul back, and Saul did reverence to Jehovah.
32 And Samuel said "Bring Agag the king of the 'Amalekites to me"; and Agag came to him tottering, and said "Death is bitter, bitter, 33 after all." And Samuel said "As your sword has bereaved women of their children, so shall your mother be the most bereaved of women"; and Samuel cut Agag to pieces before Jehovah at the Gilgal.

- 34 And Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his home at 35 Gibeath-Saul. And Samuel never again saw Saul till the day of his death, because Samuel mourned over Saul and Jehovah repented of having made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

- 1 And Jehovah said to Samuel "How long will you keep mourning over Saul, when I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go, I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite; 2 for I have picked out a king among his sons." And Samuel said "How am I to go? Saul would hear of it and kill me." And Jehovah said "You are to take with you a heifer calf, and say 'I have come to 3 sacrifice to Jehovah,' and invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will let you know what to do; and you are to anoint for me the one I tell you to."
4 And Samuel did what Jehovah had said, and came to Bethlehem; and the elders of the city came to meet him in alarm, and said "Your 5 coming means that all is well?" and he said "It does; I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah; hallow yourselves and hold festival with me today"; and he hallowed Jesse and his sons and invited them to the 6 sacrifice. And when they came in and he saw Eliab, he thought "It 7 must be Jehovah's warden, his anointed"; but Jehovah said to Samuel "Do not look at his appearance and his tallness, for I have rejected him; for it is not what man sees, for man sees by the eyes but Jehovah 8 sees by the heart." And Jesse called Abinadab and had him pass before Samuel; and he said "Jehovah has not chosen this one either." 9 And Jesse had Shammah pass; and he said "Jehovah has not chosen 10 this one either." And Jesse had all seven of his sons pass before Samuel; and Samuel said to Jesse "Jehovah has not chosen these."
11 And Samuel said to Jesse "Is this all there are of the boys?" and he said "There still remains the youngest: he is out shepherding." And Samuel said to Jesse "Send and get him; for we will not sit down 12 till he is here." And he sent and brought him—a ruddy, handsome-eyed, good-looking youth—and Jehovah said "There, anoint him: this 13 is the one." And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the spirit of Jehovah seized upon David from that day on. And Samuel went off to Ramah.
14 And the spirit of Jehovah had gone away from Saul, and a bad 15 spirit from Jehovah used to overwhelm him. And Saul's officers said 16 to him "There is a bad divine spirit overwhelming you; say the word, sir,—your servants are before you,—have them look up a man expert as a lyre-player, and when there is a bad divine spirit on you he shall 17 play his music and you will be better." And Saul said to his officers 18 "Pick me out a man who plays well and bring him to me." And one of the henchmen answered "I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite

19 who is expert at playing, and a man of energy and a fighter, and discreet in word, and a fine figure, and Jehovah is with him." And 20 Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said "Send me your son David, the one who is with the sheep"; and Jesse took a load of bread and a bag of wine and one kid and sent them to Saul by his son David.
21 And David came to Saul and presented himself before him, and Saul 22 took a great liking to him and had him as squire. And Saul sent word 23 to Jesse "Let David be in my service, because I like him." And when there was a divine spirit on Saul David would take his lyre and play his music, and Saul would be easier and better, and the bad spirit would go away from him.

1 And the Philistines brought their armies together for war, and they met at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and camped between Socoh 2 and 'Azekah, at Ephes-Dammim; and Saul and the men of Israel came together and camped in Terebith Vale, and offered battle to the 3 Philistines, the Philistines standing on the mountain on this side and the Israelites on the mountain on that side, with the valley between them.

4 And a man came out between them from the Philistine line of battle, named Goliath, from Gath; he was nine and a half feet tall, 5 and he had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a hauberk of scales, 6 the hauberk weighing a hundred and eighty pounds of bronze, and he had bronze greaves on his legs and a bronze javelin between his 7 shoulders; and the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's pole, and the iron spearhead weighed twenty pounds, and his shield-carrier 8 went in front of him. And he stood and called out to the Israelite line of battle "Why have you come out to offer battle? I am the Philistine, you are subjects of Saul, select a man to come down to 9 me: if he can fight me, and kills me, we will be subject to you; but if I overcome him and kill him, you shall be subject to us and behave 10 as such." And the Philistine said "I this day flout Israel's ranks: 11 give me a man to fight with." And Saul and all the Israelites heard these words of the Philistine's, and were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 And David, the son of an Ephrathite (that is, from Bethlehem in Judah) whose name was Jesse, who had eight sons, and who was in 13 Saul's days an old man, advanced in years,—Jesse's three oldest sons were gone to the war, following Saul; the names of his three sons who were gone to the war were Eliab the eldest, and Abinadab the 14 second eldest, and Shammah the third; David was the youngest, and 15 the three oldest were gone to the war, following Saul,—David was gone, had gone back from Saul's service to tend his father's sheep 16 at Bethlehem. And the Philistine approached the first thing in the morning and again in the evening, and stood ready, forty days.

17 And Jesse said to his son David "Take this bushel of roasted grain for your brothers, and ten cakes of bread, and get them to your 18 brothers at the camp quick; and bring these ten cuts of curd to the captain of the thousand, and make sure how your brothers are doing, 19 and get the token from them; Saul and they, and all the men of 20 Israel, are in Terebinth Vale, fighting the Philistines." And the first thing in the morning David left the sheep with a keeper and loaded himself up and went, as Jesse had ordered him; and he came to the cart-stand, and the force going out to form the line gave a 21 cheer for the fighting; and the Israelites and the Philistines formed 22 their lines facing each other. And David put down the things and left them with the supply-keeper, and ran to the front and came and 23 asked how his brothers were doing. And as he was talking with them, up came a man between the fronts out of the Philistine line, named Goliath the Philistine, from Gath, and spoke these words, and David 24 heard him. And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled 25 before him and were in great fear; and the men of Israel said "Do you see this man that has come up? it is to flout Israel he has come up; and the king will make the man that kills him a very rich man and give him his daughter, and make his family free in Israel."

26 And David said to the men that were standing with him "What will be done for the man who kills yonder Philistine and takes away the flout from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he 27 has flouted the ranks of a living God?" And the people told him the 28 same thing: "so it will be done for the man who kills him." And his oldest brother Eliab heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab was angry at David, and said "What did you come down for, and whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness with? I know your headstrongness and cantankerousness, that it was in order to see the 29 fighting you came down." And David said "What have I been doing 30 now? it was talk, wasn't it?" and went from beside him around to another section of the front, and said the same thing; and the people gave him the same answer as before.

31 But the things David was saying were overheard and reported 32 before Saul; and he had him brought. And David said to Saul "Do not be downhearted, sir; your servant will go and fight this Philistine." 33 But Saul said to David "You cannot go against this Philistine to fight him, because you are a boy and he has been a fighting man from his 34 boyhood up." But David said to Saul "Your servant was tending sheep for his father, and there would come a lion or a bear and carry 35 off a sheep out of the flock, and I would go out after it and beat it and recover the creature out of its mouth; and one would stand up 36 against me and I would hold its mane and strike it dead. Both the lion and the bear your servant killed, and this uncircumcised Philis-tine will be like one of them, because he has flouted the ranks of a 37 living God." And David said "Jehovah, who brought me off safe from the lion and the bear, he will bring me off safe from this Philistine." And Saul said to David "Go, and Jehovah be with you."

38 And Saul dressed David in his own brigandine and put a bronze 39 helmet on his head, and belted his own sword on David over his brigandine; and David had trouble in walking, because he had not practiced. And David said to Saul "I cannot walk in these, because 40 I have not practiced"; and they took them off him. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose five pebbles out of the bed of the arroyo and put them in his shepherd's wallet, his yalkut, and had his sling 41 in his hand; and he approached the Philistine, and the Philistine went on, drawing nearer and nearer to David, with the man that was his shield-carrier in front of him.

42 And the Philistine looked and saw David, and despised him be-43 cause he was a boy, a ruddy youth and a beauty; and the Philistine said to David "Am I a dog, that you are coming at me with staves?" 44 And the Philistine cursed David by his gods; and the Philistine said to David "Come to me and have me give your flesh to the birds of the 45 air and the beasts of the range." But David said to the Philistine "You are coming at me with sword and spear and javelin, but I am coming at you with the name of Jehovah of Armies, the God of Israel's 46 ranks which you have flouted. This day Jehovah will put you into my hands, and I shall kill you and take off your head and give your corpse and the corpses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth today, that all the land may know 47 that Israel has a God: that all this assembly may know that victory is not by sword and spear, but battle belongs to Jehovah, and he will give you into our hands."

48 And when the Philistine stood up and came on, drawing nearer to David, David ran in haste toward the line of battle to meet the 49 Philistine; and David reached into his wallet and took a stone out of it and slung, and hit the Philistine in the forehead, and the stone 50 sank into his forehead and he fell on his face on the ground; and David outfought the Philistine with sling and stone, and struck the 51 Philistine dead without having any sword in his hand. And David ran and stood by the Philistine and took his sword and drew it from its sheath and finished killing him, cutting off his head with it; and the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, and they 52 ran. And the men of Israel and Judah started up and gave a cheer, and pursued the Philistines till you come to Gath and to the gates of 'Ekron; and the killed Philistines fell from the Shagharam road 53 to Gath and 'Ekron; and the sons of Israel came back from chasing 54 the Philistines, and pillaged their camp. And David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, and put his outfit in his tent.

55 And when Saul saw David go out to meet the Philistine he said to Abner, the general of the army, "Whose son is the boy, Abner?" 56 and Abner said "By your life, king, I do not know." And the king 57 said "Ask whose son the young fellow is yourself." And when David came back from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought 58 him before the king with the Philistine's head in his hand. And Saul said to him "Whose son are you, boy?" and David said "Son to your

CHAPTER 18

1 servant Jesse the Bethlehemite." And when he had finished talking to Saul, Jonathan's soul was tied fast to David's, and Jonathan loved him 2 as he loved himself. And Saul took him that day and would not let him 3 go back to his father's house. And Jonathan and David pledged themselves to each other, in the love that he had for him as he loved 4 himself; and Jonathan stripped off the robe he had on and gave it to David, and his brigandine, and even his sword and bow and belt.
5 And David went out on whatever missions Saul sent him on, and did well; and Saul set him over the soldiers, and it pleased all the people, and Saul's officers too.

6 And when they came in, at David's return from killing the Philis-tine, the women came out from all the cities of Israel for song and dances, to meet King Saul, with tambourines and festivity and 7 triangles; and the merrymaking women sang "Saul struck down his 8 thousands, David his tens of thousands." And Saul was very angry, and regarded this as a bad thing, and said "They have given David tens of thousands and me the thousands; he has nothing left but the 9 kingship"; and Saul took to looking askance at David from that day on.

10 And on the next day a bad divine spirit seized upon Saul, and he fell under the power in the house, while David was playing his music as he did on any day; and Saul had a spear in his hand.
11 And Saul hurled the spear and thought "I will pin David to the 12 wall," but David dodged away from him, twice. And Saul was afraid of David, because Jehovah was with him and had gone away from Saul; and Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him 13 captain over a thousand, and he went out and came in before the people. And David did well on all his errands, and Jehovah was with 14 him. And Saul saw how very well he did, and he quailed before him; 15 but all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came 16 in before them.

17 And Saul said to David "Here is my oldest daughter Merab, I will give you her as wife—only show yourself a man of energy, and fight Jehovah's battles," Saul's thought being "Let it not be my hand 18 that comes on him, but the hands of the Philistines." And David said to Saul "Who am I, and who are my sib (father's clan), in Israel, that 19 I should marry the princess?" But when the time for giving Saul's daughter Merab to David came, she had been given to 'Adriel the Meholathite as wife.

20 And Saul's daughter Mical fell in love with David; and they told 21 Saul, and the thing suited him. And Saul thought "I will give her to him and have her be a bait to trap him, and the hands of the Philistines come on him." And Saul said to David "On two conditions 22 you shall marry the princess today." And Saul gave his officers the order "Tell David quietly 'Here, the king likes you and all his officers 23 love you—now marry the princess.'" And Saul's officers said these things in conversation with David; but David said "Does it look to you like a simple thing to marry the princess, I being a poor and 24 obscure man?" And Saul's officers reported to him "These were David's words." And Saul said "Say to David 'The king does not care 25 for any purchase-money but a hundred Philistine foreskins, to get revenge on the king's enemies,'" Saul's plan being to have David 26 fall by the hands of the Philistines. And Saul's officers reported these things; and the idea of marrying the princess suited David, 27 and David went off, he and his men, and killed two hundred of the Philistines, and David brought their foreskins and paid the king in full, to marry the princess; and Saul gave him his daughter Mical 28 as wife. And Saul saw and knew that Jehovah was with David; and Saul's daughter Mical loved him. And Saul was more and more afraid 29 of David; and Saul became a persistent enemy to David.

30 And the captains of the Philistines came out; and as often as they came out David did better than any of Saul's officers, and his name was held in high honor.

CHAPTER 19

1 And Saul proposed to his son Jonathan and to all his officers that they should kill David. But Saul's son Jonathan liked David very 2 much; and Jonathan told David "Saul, my father, is looking for a chance to kill you; now in the morning look out for yourself, stay in 3 concealment and hide, and I will go out and stand at my father's side in the field where you are, and I will talk of you to my father, and see 4 what there is, and tell you." And Jonathan spoke in David's favor to his father Saul, and said to him "Take care not to do any wrong
5 in the matter of David, sir, because he has done you no wrong and his deeds have been very good for you; and he took his life in his hand
6 and killed the Philistine, and Jehovah made a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and were glad; and why should you do the wrong 7 of shedding innocent blood, in putting David to death for nothing?" And Saul listened to Jonathan, and Saul swore "By Jehovah, he 8 shall not be put to death." And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things, and Jonathan brought David to Saul and he 9 was in his presence as he had formerly been. And there was more of the war, and David went out and fought the Philistines and killed 10 a great number of them, and they fled before him.
And there was a bad divine spirit on Saul while he was sitting in the house, spear in hand, and David was playing his music; and Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but David got out of Saul's way and he struck the spear into the wall; and David fled and made his escape.

11 And that night Saul sent scouts to David's house to watch it, so as to put him to death in the morning; and David's wife Mical told him "If you do not get your life into safety tonight you will be put 12 to death tomorrow"; and Mical let David down through the window, 13 and off he went, and fled away and made his escape. And Mical took the teraphim and put it in the bed, and put the goat's-hair netting at 14 its head, and covered it with the blanket. And Saul sent messengers 15 to get David; and she said "He is sick." And Saul sent the messengers to see David, with the commission "Bring him up to me in the bed to 16 be put to death"; and the messengers went in and found the teraphim 17 in the bed and the goat's-hair netting at its head. And Saul said to Mical "What did you turn on me like that for, and let my enemy go so that he has made his escape?" and Mical said "It was he; he said to me 'Let me go; do you want me to kill you?'"

18 And David fled away and made his escape, and came to Samuel at Ramah and told him everything that Saul had done to him; and 19 he and Samuel went and lived at Nothab-Ramah; and Saul was told 20 "David is to be found at Nothab-Ramah." And Saul sent messengers to get David; and they saw the assemblage of prophets under the power and Samuel standing over them, and a divine spirit came upon 21 Saul's messengers and they too fell under the power. And they told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they too fell under the power; and Saul kept on and sent a third party of messengers, and so did 22 they. And Saul was angry, and he too went to Ramah, and came to the cistern of the threshing-floor on the scalp and asked "Where are Samuel and David?" and the man he asked said "You will find them 23 at Nothab-Ramah." And he went there to Nothab-Ramah, and a divine spirit came upon him too, and he went along, under the power 24 as he went, till he came to Nothab-Ramah; and he too threw off his clothes and was under the power before Samuel, and fell down naked and lay so all that day and all night; this is why they say "Is Saul

1 also among the prophets?" And David fled away from Nothab-Ramah.

And he came and said in conversation with Jonathan "What have I done? what is my crime? what wrong have I done before your 2 father, that he is hunting for my life?" And he said to him "Away with the thought! you are not to die; why, my father does not do anything great or small without disclosing it to me, and how should my 3 father conceal this thing from me? there is nothing to it." But David answered again "Your father knows perfectly well that you like me, and he thinks 'Let Jonathan not know this, for fear he should be pained'; but, by Jehovah and by your life, I am just about a pace from death."

4 And Jonathan said to David "What would you suggest? and I will 5 do it for you." And David said to Jonathan "Here it is new moon tomorrow, and I should sit down with the king to eat: give me leave of absence, and I will conceal myself out on the range till the third 6 evening. If your father should miss me, say 'David asked leave of me to run to his city Bethlehem, because all the clan has an annual 7 sacrifice there.' If he says 'All right,' your servant is safe; but if he 8 is angry, be sure I am in for trouble from him, and act a friend's part by your servant (since you have taken your servant into a pledge in the name of Jehovah) and if there is crime in me, kill me yourself: what should you bring me to your father for?"

9 And Jonathan said "Away with the thought; if I do find that trouble is due to come upon you from my father, of course I will 10 tell you of it." And David said to Jonathan "Who shall tell me if your 11 father gives you a hard answer?" And Jonathan said to David "Come out on the range"; and the two of them went out on the range.

12 And Jonathan said to David "Jehovah the God of Israel be witness: when I sound my father, right away tomorrow, and find that he is or is not well-disposed toward David, then I will send to you and 13 give you notice. Jehovah do so to Jonathan, and more, but if my father is thinking fit to do you mischief I will give you notice and send you off to go where good shall betide you. And may Jehovah 14 be with you as he has been with my father; and if I should still be alive, I hope you will befriend me for Jehovah's sake; and if I should 15 be dead, you will never cut off your friendship from my family, nor, when Jehovah cuts off David's enemies each of them from the face 16 of the earth, Jonathan be cut off from alongside David's family; and 17 may Jehovah hold David's enemies to account." And again Jonathan swore David, in the love that he had for him, because he loved him the same as himself.

18 And Jonathan said to David "Tomorrow it is new moon, and you 19 will be missed because your seat will be vacant. And the third day lie very low, and come to the place where you concealed yourself on 20 the day of the affair, and sit down beside yonder mound; and I will 21 shoot roving arrows to one side of it, roving at a mark. And I will send the boy and tell him 'Go find the arrow'; if I say to the boy
'Here, the arrow is this side of you; pick it up,' come, because you are 22 safe and there is nothing afoot, by Jehovah. But if I say to the boy
'There, the arrow is beyond you,' go, because Jehovah has sent you 23 away. And as to the promise you and I have given, Jehovah is between you and me forever."

24 And David concealed himself on the range; and new moon came, 25 and the king sat down to his meal. And the king sat in his place as usual, in the wall seat, and Jonathan was in front and Abner sat 26 at Saul's side, and David's place was vacant. And Saul said nothing that day, because he thought "He has had something happen; he 27 is not clean because he has not purified himself." And on the day after the new moon, the second, David's place was vacant, and Saul 28 said to his son Jonathan "How comes it Jesse's son did not come to the meal either yesterday or today?" And Jonathan answered Saul 29 "David got leave of me for a trip to Bethlehem, and said 'Give me leave of absence, because we have a clan sacrifice in the city, and here my brothers have summoned me; now please let me get off to see my 30 brothers'; that is why he has not come to the king's table." And Saul was angry at Jonathan and said to him "You son of disorderly girls, don't I know you are associated with Jesse's son to bring yourself to 31 grief, yourself and your mother's nakedness? because just as long as Jesse's son is alive above ground your kingship will not be secure.

 32 Now send and fetch him to me, for his life is forfeit." And Jonathan answered his father Saul "What should he die for? what has he done?" 33 and Saul hurled his spear at him to kill him; and Jonathan knew 34 his father was bound to put David to death. And Jonathan rose from the table in anger, and ate no food the second day of the moon, because he was pained about David, because his father had insulted him.
 35 And in the morning Jonathan went out on the range to keep his 36 appointment with David, taking a small boy with him, and said to his boy "Run and find the arrows I shoot." As the boy was running 37 he shot an arrow to go beyond him; and when the boy came to the place where the arrow Jonathan had shot was, Jonathan called after 38 the boy "Why, the arrow is beyond you." And Jonathan called after the boy "Be quick, hurry up, don't stand still"; and Jonathan's boy 39 picked up the arrow and brought it to his master, the boy not knowing 40 anything—only Jonathan and David knew the idea. And Jonathan gave his boy the equipment he had, and said "Go take it into the 41 city"; and the boy went in, and David stood up from beside the mound and threw himself down flat on his face and did reverence three times; and they kissed each other and wept for each other till 42 broad day. And Jonathan said to David "Go, and good betide you; and as to what we have both sworn in Jehovah's name, Jehovah shall be between you and me, and between your descendants and mine, forever"; and David went away, and Jonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER 21

1 And David came to Nob, to Priest Ahimelec; and Ahimelec came in alarm to meet David, and said to him "How comes it you are 2 alone and nobody with you?" And David said to Priest Ahimelec "The king gave me an order and said to me 'Let nobody know anything of the matter that I am sending you on and have given you orders for'; and I have made an appointment with my men for such 3 and such a place. And now what have you on hand? give me half a 4 dozen cakes of bread in my hand, or whatever there is." And the priest answered David "I have no everyday bread, but sacred bread there is, if the men have only kept themselves from womankind."

- 5 And David answered the priest "O, but we are barred from woman-kind as we used to be; when I left, the men's things were in a sacred condition though it was everyday business they were on—how much 6 more when today it is every way sacred!" And the priest gave him sacred, because there was not any bread there except the showbread that had been removed from before Jehovah to put on hot bread on 7 the day when it was taken. And there was a man there that day who was one of Saul's servants, detained before Jehovah; his name was Doeg the Edomite, the fighting man of Saul's shepherds.

- 8 And David said to Ahimelec "And is there not in your hands here such a thing as a spear or a sword? because I did not take with me either my sword or my other things, since the king's affair was urgent."

- 9 And the priest said "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in Terebith Vale—there is that, wrapped in a cloak behind the ephod; if you would take that for yourself, take it; for there is no other on these premises but that." And David said "There is none like that; let me have it."

- 10 And David rose and fled from Saul that day, and came to King 11 Akish of Gath. And Akish's officers said to him "Why, this is David, the king of the country; the one of whom they sing in the dances 12 'Saul has killed by the thousand, David by the ten-thousand.'" And David took note of these words and became very much afraid of King 13 Akish of Gath, and pretended to them that his wits were unsettled, and drummed on the gates and let his saliva run down on his beard.
14 And Akish said to his officers "There, when you see an insane man, 15 why do you bring him to me? Am I short of lunatics, that you bring that fellow to play his insane tricks around me? is that creature to come into my house?"

CHAPTER 22

- 1 And David went away from there, and escaped to the fastness of 'Adullam; and his brothers and all his kin heard of it, and they 2 went down and joined him there. And every man who was in a desperate pinch, and every man who was involved in debt, and every man with a grievance, gathered around him, and he became chief over them; and there came to be about four hundred men with him.
3 And David went from there to Mispeh-Moab and said to the king of Moab "Let my father and mother come out and be among you till I 4 know what God will do with me"; and he brought them into the presence of the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time 5 David was in the fastness. But the prophet Gad said to David "You are not to stay in the fastness; go into the country of Judah"; and 6 David went, and came into Hereth Badlands. And Saul heard of it, because David and the men who were with him were well known.

And Saul was at Gibeah sitting under the tamarisk on the height,

7 with his spear in his hand and all his officers standing by, and Saul said to his officers who were standing by "Listen, Benjamites: is Jesse's son going to give all of you fields and vineyards and make all 8 of you captains over a thousand or over a hundred, that all of you have conspired against me and there is nobody to give me notice when my son leagues with Jesse's son, and there is nobody who aches for me and gives me notice when my son sets up my servant against 9 me as an underhand enemy, as he is doing today?" And Doeg the Edomite, who was standing by Saul's officers, answered "I saw Jesse's 10 son come to Ahimelec the son of Ahitub at Nob, and he put a question to Jehovah for him and gave him provisions, and gave him Goliath the Philistine's sword." And the king sent to summon Priest Ahimelec the son of Ahitub and all his kin, the priests at Nob, and they all came to the king.

12 And Saul said "Listen, son of Ahitub"; and he said "Yes, sire." 13 And Saul said to him "Why have you and Jesse's son conspired against me, you giving him bread and a sword and putting a question to God for him, standing up against me as an underhand enemy, as 14 you are doing today?" And Ahimelec answered the king "And who among all your majesty's officers is like David, enjoying your confidence and son-in-law to your majesty, and admitted to private 15 audience, and honored in your house? Have I begun today to put questions to Jehovah for him? away with the thought! Your majesty must not charge anything against your servant or any of my kin, for 16 your servant knows nothing of all this, nothing great or small." And the king said "You die, Ahimelec, you and all your kin."

17 And the king said to the runners who stood by "Turn to and put the priests of Jehovah to death, because they too have been backing David, and because they knew he was in flight and did not give me notice"; but the king's officers would not put out their hands to cut 18 down the priests of Jehovah. And the king said to Doeg "Turn to, yourself, and cut the priests down"; and Doeg the Edomite turned to and cut the priests down himself, and put to death that day eighty-19 five men who carried linen ephods; and in Nob, the priests' city, he massacred everybody without quarter, man and woman, child at play and baby at the breast, ox and donkey and sheep, without quarter.

20 And one son of Ahimelec the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled away to follow David. And Abiathar told David 21 that Saul had killed the priests of Jehovah; and David said to Abiathar "I knew that day that Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would be telling Saul; I have turned to to kill every soul of your 22 family. Stay with me, do not be afraid, because the one who is hunting for your life is the one who is hunting for mine; for you are in safe-keeping with me." 23

1 And they told David "Here are the Philistines making war on 2 Ke'ilah, pillaging the threshing-floors." And David put the question to Jehovah "Shall I go and strike these Philistines?" and Jehovah said to David "Go and strike the Philistines and save Ke'ilah." 3 And David's men said to him "We are in fear right here in Judah—how much worse it will be when we go to Ke'ilah against the 4 Philistine line of battle!" And again David put the question to Jehovah, and Jehovah answered him "Go right down to Ke'ilah, for 5 I am giving the Philistines into your hands." And David and his men went to Ke'ilah and made war on the Philistines and drove their cattle, and killed a great number of them; and David saved the inhabitants of Ke'ilah.

6 And when Abiathar the son of Ahimelec had fled to David to 7 Ke'ilah, an ephod had come down in his hand; and Saul was told that David had gone into Ke'ilah, and Saul said "God has put him into my hands, since he has shut himself in, going into a city with 8 gates and bars," and Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down 9 to Ke'ilah to besiege David and his men; and David learned that it was against him Saul was brewing mischief, and said to Priest 10 Abiathar "Bring the ephod." And David said "Jehovah, God of Israel, your servant hears that Saul is trying to come to Ke'ilah to 11 destroy the city on my account. Will the burghers of Ke'ilah give me up to him? will Saul come down as your servant has heard? Jehovah, God of Israel, tell your servant." And Jehovah said "He will." 12 And David said "Will the burghers of Ke'ilah give me and my men 13 up to Saul?" and Jehovah said "They will." And David and his men, about six hundred strong, left Ke'ilah and went where they happened to; and Saul was told that David had escaped from Ke'ilah, and he 14 gave up going out. And David lived in the wilderness, in the fastnesses.

And he lived in the highland, in the wilderness of Ziph; and Saul was looking for him all the time, but God did not give him into his 15 hands; and David was afraid because Saul had come out to hunt for his life. And David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horeshah, 16 and Jonathan the son of Saul went off to Horeshah to David and 17 encouraged him in the name of God, and said to him "Do not be afraid, Saul my father will not get his hands on you; you will reign over Israel and I shall be second to you; Saul my father knows himself 18 it is so." And the two of them pledged themselves to each other before Jehovah; and David remained at Horeshah, and Jonathan went home.

19 And the Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying "David is keeping himself concealed in our country in the fastnesses at Hore-20 shah, on the sides of Hakilah Hill south of the Jeshimon; so now at your pleasure to come down, your majesty, come down, and it shall 21 be our part to put him into your majesty's hands." And Saul said

22 "Jehovah bless you that you had mercy on me! Go get more preparations made, and look and make sure of the place for him, where his feet will be hampered—for they tell me he does play the slyest tricks—look and make sure of any of the lurking-places where he hides, and come back to me at Nacon, and I will go with you: if he is in the country, I will hunt him out among all the thousands of Judah." And they came away and went to Ziph before Saul; and David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Rift Valley, south of the Jeshimon.

25 And Saul and his men went to look for him; and they told David, and he went down to the cliffs and lived in the wilderness of Maon.

And Saul heard of it, and pursued David into the wilderness of Maon; and Saul went on this side of a mountain and David and his men on that side. And as David was going in headlong haste to get away from Saul, and Saul and his men were hemming David and his men in to capture them, a messenger came to Saul to say "Come quick, because the Philistines have raided the country"; and Saul turned back from pursuing David, and went to face the Philistines. 29 Because of this they call that place Division Cliff. And David went up from there and lived in the fastnesses of 'En-Gedi.

CHAPTER 24

1 And when Saul came back from pursuing the Philistines they told him "David is in the wilderness of 'En-Gedi." And Saul took three thousand picked men out of all Israel and went to look for David and his men along the Ibex Rocks, and came to the sheepfolds by the roadside. There there was a cave, and Saul went in to ease himself; and David and his men were at the back of the cave sitting down. 4 And David's men said to him "Here is the day of which Jehovah said to you 'I am giving your enemy into your hands, and you shall do with him as you think best.'" And David rose and cut off the flap of Saul's robe quietly; but after that David's conscience pricked him for having cut off the flap of Saul's robe, and he said to his men "Jehovah forbid the thought of my doing such a thing to my sovereign, Jehovah's anointed, as to lay hands on him, because he is Jehovah's anointed." And David reprimanded his men and would not let them rise to attack Saul; and Saul rose and left the cave and went along the road.

8 And after that David rose and went out of the cave and called after Saul "Your majesty!" and Saul looked back, and David bowed his face to the ground and did reverence. And David said to Saul "Why do you listen to men's words 'David is looking for a chance to injure you'? This day you have seen with your own eyes how Jehovah gave you into my hands today in the cave, and I refused to kill you, but spared you and said 'I will not lay hands on my sovereign, because he is Jehovah's anointed and my father.' Yes, see the flap of your robe in my hands! for by my cutting off the flap of your robe and not killing you you may see for yourself that I have no fault or offense upon my hands, and have not misconducted myself toward you; but you are trying to take my life. Jehovah shall give judgment between us, and Jehovah shall avenge me on you; but my hands shall not be laid on you. As the proverb of the ancients says, knavery comes from knaves; but my hands shall not be laid on you. Whom has the king of Israel come out against? whom are you pursuing? a dead dog, a single flea. And Jehovah shall be arbiter, and give judgment between us, and uphold my rights and give me justice against you."

And when David finished saying these things to Saul, Saul said "Is that your voice, son David?" and Saul wept aloud, and said to David "You are more honest than I, because you have done good to me and I harm to you; and it is a great good deed you have done to me today, that Jehovah put me into your hands and you did not kill me. When a man finds his enemy and lets him go unmolested—Jehovah will repay you with good for this day, what you have done to me. And now, I know you are to be king and the kingship over Israel is to stand permanently in your hands: now swear to me by Jehovah that you will not cut off my descendants after me and that you will not root out my name out of my family"; and David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, and David and his men went up to the fastness.

1 And Samuel died, and all Israel gathered and wailed for him and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David moved, going down to the wilderness of Paran.

2 And there was a man at Maon whose ranch was at Carmel: the man was very wealthy, had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he was having a sheepshearing at Carmel. The man's name was Nabal, and his wife's Abigail; the wife was beautiful and sensible, the husband harsh and ill-conditioned; he was a Calebite. And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep; and David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men "Go up to Carmel, and when you come to Nabal's ask him in my name how he does, and say 'So may you live, yourself well and your family well and all that is yours well. Now I have heard that you are having a shearing: now those shepherds of yours have been with us, and we did not bully them, and nothing of theirs was missing all the time they were at Carmel. Ask your men and have them tell you, that my men may have your goodwill, since we have come on a happy day; please give what you can to your servants, and to your son David.'"

3 And David's men came and said to Nabal in David's name all these words, and rested. And Nabal answered David's followers "Who is David, and who is Jesse's son? there are too many slaves today 11 that are turning brigands by their masters' fault. And am I to take my bread and my wine, and my meat that I have slaughtered for 12 my shearers, and give them to men from I don't know where?" And David's men turned and went their way, and came back and told 13 him all these words. And David said to his men "Belt on your swords"; and they belted on their swords, and David too belted on his, and about four hundred men went up behind David, while two hundred stayed with the things.

14 And one of Nabal's men told Nabal's wife Abigail "Here has David sent men out of the wilderness to congratulate master, and he jawed 15 them. But the men were very good to us, and we were not bullied, and did not miss anything, all the time we were going with them 16 while we were out on the range: they were a wall for us both night and day all the time we were with them tending the sheep. Now make up your mind what you will do; for master and all his family are in for trouble, and he is too much of a reprobate to speak to." 18 And in haste Abigail took two hundred cakes of bread and two skins of wine and five cooked sheep and seven pecks of roasted grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and a hundred cakes of figs, and put them 19 on donkeys and said to her men "Go over ahead of me: I will be coming after you"; but she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 And as she was riding on her donkey and going down screened by the mountainside, she found David and his men coming down to 21 meet her; and she met with them while David was thinking "It is all for nothing I have guarded in the wilderness everything that belonged to this man, and of all that belonged to him nothing was 22 missing: he has repaid me bad for good. God do so to David's enemies, and more, if by morning I leave of all that belongs to him any male person." And Abigail saw David and dismounted from her donkey 23 in haste, and threw herself down on her face before David and did reverence on the ground, and threw herself on his feet and said "On me be the offense, sir; but let your servant speak in your hearing, 24 and listen to your servant's words. You must not mind that reprobate Nabal, sir, because he is just like his name: Nabal means curmudgeon, and curmudgeonliness is his nature; but I your servant did not see 25 the young men you sent, sir. And now, sir, by Jehovah and by your life, Jehovah has restrained you from getting into bloodguilt and from letting your own hands relieve you: now may your enemies, 26 and those who wish my lord ill, be as Nabal is. Now, then, let this token of goodwill that your servant has brought to my lord be given 27 to the young men who accompany my lord in his movements. Pardon your servant's crime; for Jehovah will make my lord a secure house, because my lord is fighting Jehovah's battles and there is nothing 28 bad in your record as long as you have lived. And men have stood up against you to persecute you and hunt for your life, but my lord's 29 life shall be wrapped up in the bundle of the living in the keeping of your God Jehovah, and your enemies' lives he shall sling out in the 30 cup of a sling. And when Jehovah does for my lord just as he has 31 promised you good, and appoints you warden over Israel, my lord will not have this as a matter for misgiving and unrest, to have shed blood without cause and to have let my lord's own hands relieve him; and Jehovah will do you good, and you will remember your servant."

32 And David said to Abigail "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, 33 who sent you to meet me today; and blessed be your good sense, and blessed you, who have checked me this day from getting into blood-34 guilt and from letting my own hands relieve me. But, by Jehovah the God of Israel, who has restrained me from doing you harm, if you 35 had not been quick about coming to meet me, by morning not a male person of Nabal's would have been left." And David took from her hands what she had brought him; and to her he said "Go up to your home, it will be all right: see, I have obeyed you and favored you."

36 And Abigail came home to Nabal and found him having in his house a wassail like the king's; and Nabal was jolly and very drunk;
 and she did not tell him a thing, great or small, till the morning light.

37 But in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things; and his heart died in him, and he turned to 38 a stone. And in about ten days Jehovah smote Nabal, and he died; 39 and David heard that Nabal was dead, and he said "Blessed be Jehovah, who has upheld my rights against Nabal in the matter of the insult I suffered, and who held back his servant from mischief and sent Nabal's mischief back on his own head." And David sent 40 a proposal of marriage to Abigail; and David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel and addressed her, saying "David sent us to you 41 to get you for his wife." And she stood up and did reverence with her face to the ground, and said "Your servant is a waiting-maid to 42 wash the feet of my lord's servants"; and Abigail set out at once, riding on her donkey, with her five maids going behind her, and followed David's messengers and became his wife.

43 David took Ahino'am of Jezre'el too; and they both became his 44 wives. But Saul had given his daughter Mical, David's wife, to Palti the son of Layish, of Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

1 And the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying "David is keeping himself concealed on the sides of Hakilah Hill, in front of the Jeshi-2 mon; and down went Saul to the wilderness of Ziph, and three thousand men with him, the picked men of Israel, to look for David 3 in the wilderness of Ziph; and Saul camped on the side of Hakilah Hill, in front of the Jeshimon, by the roadside; and David was living in the wilderness, and saw that Saul had come to the wilderness after 4 him. And David sent out scouts and learned that Saul had come to

- 5 Nacon; and David went off and came to the place where Saul was camped. And David saw the place where Saul and his general Abner the son of Ner were lying: Saul was lying in the cart-stand, and the people were camped around him.
- 6 And David spoke up and said to Ahimelec the Hittite and Serujah's son Abishai, Joab's brother, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?" and Abishai said "I will go down with you." And David and Abishai came to the people in the night, and found Saul lying asleep in the cart-stand with his spear sticking in the ground at his head, and Abner and the people lying around him. And Abishai said to David "God has put your enemy into your hands today; now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear at one stroke, and not give him a second." But David said to Abishai "Do him no violence; for who can lay hands on Jehovah's anointed and go unpunished?"
- 10 And David said "By Jehovah, but Jehovah shall smite him, or his day shall come and he shall die, or he shall go down to a battle and meet his end. Jehovah forbid the thought of my laying hands on Jehovah's anointed; now take the spear at his head and the jug of water and let us get away." And David took the spear and the jug of water at Saul's head, and they made their way out, without anybody's seeing them or knowing of it or waking up, because a trance from Jehovah had fallen on them.
- 13 And David went over to the other side, and stood a long way off on the top of the mountain, with a great distance between; and David called out to the people and to Abner "Hallo there, Abner!" and Abner answered "Who are you, calling out to the king?" And David said to Abner "You are a man that is a man, are you, and nobody equal to you in Israel? and why did you not guard his majesty? because one of the people has been in to do violence to his majesty; this is not a good record you have made. By Jehovah, you are candidates for death for not having guarded your sovereign, Jehovah's anointed. Now see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was at his head."
- 17 And Saul recognized David's voice, and said "Is that your voice, son David?" and David said "It is, your majesty." And he said "What is your majesty pursuing his servant for? what have I done, and what fault is there upon my hands? Now, your majesty, listen to your servant's words: if Jehovah has set you on against me, let him accept an offering; but if it is men, cursed be they before Jehovah, because they have banished me from being connected with Jehovah's estate, as much as to say 'Go worship other gods.' Now may my blood not fall from Jehovah's presence to the earth; for the king of Israel has come out to seek my life as a hawk chases a partridge on the mountains." And Saul said "I did wrong; come back, son David, for I will do you no more harm, seeing that you valued my life this day;

- 22 I acted foolishly, I was very deluded indeed." And David answered "Here is the king's spear for one of the men to come over and get; 23 and Jehovah will repay each man his honesty and loyalty, when Jehovah gave you into my hands today and I would not lay hands 24 on Jehovah's anointed. And, as I thought much of your life this day, so may Jehovah think much of mine, and deliver me out of all distress." 25 And Saul said to David "Bless you, son David: do you shall and achieve you shall." And David went on his way, and Saul back to his place.

CHAPTER 27

- 1 And David said to himself "Now I shall come to my end at Saul's hands someday or other: there is nothing for it but to escape to the Philistine country and have Saul despair of getting me by looking 2 for me any longer in all the territory of Israel, and so escape out of his hands"; and over went David, he and six hundred men who 3 were with him, to Akish the son of Ma'oc, the king of Gath. And David lived at Gath with Akish, he and his men and their families, David with his two wives Ahino'am the Jezre'elite and Abigail the 4 widow of Nabal the Carmelite; and Saul was told that David had fled away to Gath, and he no longer looked for him.
5 And David said to Akish "Please let them give me a place to live in in one of the cities on the wolds: why should your servant live 6 at the capital with you?" And Akish that day gave him Siklag; so Siklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.
7 And the length of time that David lived in the Philistine country-8 side was a year and four months. And David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites and the 'Amalekites (for those were the primitive populations of the country as you come to Shur and down 9 to Egypt); and David would devastate the country, and not leave alive man or woman, and take flocks and herds and donkeys and 10 camels and clothing. And he came back and came to Akish, and Akish said "Where did you raid today?" and David said "Against the Judah-11 ite South and the Jerahmeelite South and the Cainite South." And David would leave not a man or woman alive to bring to Gath, "for fear they should tell on us." So David did, and such was his custom, all 12 the time he lived in the Philistine countryside. And Akish had confidence in David, thinking "He has given mortal offense to his people Israel, and will be my subject always."

CHAPTER 28

- 1 And in those days the Philistines gathered their armies for a campaign, to attack Israel; and Akish said to David "Understand 2 that you go out with me in the army, you and your men." And David said to Akish "So you shall know for yourself what your servant does"; and Akish said to David "So I will appoint you my permanent lifeguard."

3 And Samuel had died, and all Israel had wailed for him and buried him in his city Ramah. And Saul had expelled from the country all 4 the spirit-mediums of different kinds. And the Philistines gathered and came and encamped at Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel, 5 and they encamped at Gilboa'. And Saul saw the Philistine army, 6 and was afraid and utterly unnerved; and Saul put questions to Jehovah, but Jehovah did not answer him either by dreams or by the 7 Urim or by the prophets. And Saul said to his officers "Look me up a medium that I can go to and inquire of her"; and his officers said to him "There is a medium to be found at 'En-Dor."

8 And Saul disguised himself and put on different clothes, and went, he and two men with him, and came to the woman in the night and said "Use your power as medium for me, and bring me up the one 9 I tell you to." But the woman said to him "Now you know what Saul did, how he extirpated the different kinds of mediums out of the 10 country, and why are you shooting at my life?" But Saul swore to her by Jehovah, "As Jehovah lives, you shall not suffer for this 11 matter"; and the woman said "Whom shall I bring up for you?" and 12 he said "Bring me up Samuel." And the woman saw Samuel, and gave a loud cry and said "Why did you deceive me, when you are 13 Saul?" And the king said to her "Do not be afraid; but what did you see?" and she said to him "I saw a god coming up out of the earth." 14 And he said to her "What did he look like?" and she said "An old man is coming up, wrapped in a robe"; and Saul knew it was Samuel, and bowed his face to the ground and did reverence.

15 And Samuel said to Saul "Why have you disturbed me with bringing me up?" and Saul said "I am in a very hard case, with the Philistines making war on me and God gone away from me and not 16 answering me any longer either through the prophets or by dreams; and I have called you to let me know what to do." But Samuel said
"And why should you ask me, when Jehovah has gone away from 17 you and become your enemy? And Jehovah has done as he said by me he would, and torn the kingship out of your hands and given it 18 to a rival of yours, David. As you did not obey Jehovah and wreak his anger on the 'Amalekites, therefore Jehovah has done this thing 19 to you this day; and Jehovah has also given Israel with you into the Philistines' hands. And tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; the army of Israel too Jehovah will give into the Philistines' 20 hands." And Saul was dumbfounded, and fell full length on the ground, and was greatly afraid at Samuel's words; he had no strength in him either, because he had not eaten food all day and all night.
21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was in utter consternation; and she said to him "Here your servant has obeyed you, I have taken my life in my hand and listened to the things you proposed to me; now take your turn to obey your servant, and let me set a bit of bread before you, and eat something so as to have some strength in you when you go on your way"; but he refused, and said "I will not eat." But his servants urged him, and so did the woman; and he obeyed them, and rose from the ground and sat down on the bed. And the woman, who had a tied-up calf in the house, killed it in haste and took meal and kneaded it up and baked it into matzoth, and presented it before Saul and his servants, and they ate, and went off that night.

1 And the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek, while the 2 Israelites were encamped at the spring in Jezre'el. And the Sarns of the Philistines were passing in review by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men passing in the rear with Akish; and the captains of the Philistines said "What do these Hebrews mean?" And Akish said to the captains of the Philistines "Why, this is David, King Saul of Israel's officer, who has been with me this year or two, and I have never had any fault to find with him from the day he 4 transferred his allegiance to me till this day." But the captains of the Philistines were incensed, and said to him "Have the man go back, back to his place where you stationed him, and not down with us into the battle, and we shall not have him for an antagonist in the battle. And what should the fellow pacify his sovereign with?
5 would it not be with those men's heads? Why, this is the David of whom they sing in the dances 'Saul has killed by the thousand, David by the ten-thousand.'"

6 And Akish called David and said to him "By Jehovah, I think you are all right, and I should like to have you go in and out with me in the army, because I have found nothing wrong with you from the day you came to me till this day; but the Sarns do not like you.
7 Now go back in friendship, and do not displease the Sarns of the Philistines." And David said to Akish "But what have I done, and what fault have you had to find with your servant from the first day I was with you till this day, that I am not to come and fight your 9 majesty's enemies?" And Akish answered David "I know I think you are all right, right as a god's angel; only the captains of the Philistines 10 have said 'he shall not go up with us into the battle.' Now, the first thing in the morning, you and your sovereign's subjects that came with you go to the place where I stationed you, and do not take anything vicious into your head, because you stand all right with me; 11 go the first thing in the morning, as soon as you have light." And the first thing in the morning David went off, he and his men, to go back to the Philistine country; and the Philistines went up to Jezre'el.

1 And when David and his men came to Siklag on the third day, the 'Amalekites had raided the South and Siklag, and had sacked Siklag 2 and burned it down, and carried off the women and everybody in it, great and small; they did not kill anybody; and they herded them 3 up and went on their way. And David and his men came to the city and found it burned down and their wives and children carried off; 4 and David and the people he had with him raised their voices and 5 wept till there was no longer any power to weep in them. And David's two wives were carried off, Ahino'am the Jezre'elite and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was in a very hard case, because the people were proposing to stone him, because all the people were furious over their 7 children. But David took courage in his God Jehovah. And David said to Priest Abiathar the son of Ahimelec "Bring the ephod for 8 me." And David put the question to Jehovah "Shall I pursue these raiders? should I catch them?" and he said to him "Do: catch you 9 shall and rescue you shall." And David went, he and six hundred men who were with him, and they came to Besor Arroyo; and he left two 10 hundred men there, and he pressed on the pursuit, he and four hundred men; and two hundred men stayed, who were too dead to cross Besor Arroyo.

11 And they found an Egyptian out on the range and took him to 12 David, and gave him food, which he ate, and water to drink; and they gave him a cake of figs and two or three clusters of raisins, and he ate and his spirit came back to him—for he had not eaten food nor 13 drunk water for three days and three nights. And David said to him "Whom do you belong to, and where are you from?" and he said "I am an Egyptian boy, slave to an 'Amalekite man, and my master 14 left me behind because I was taken sick three days ago. We had raided the Cretan South and the Judahite and the Calebite, and 15 Siklag we had burned down." And David said to him "Will you take me down to these raiders?" and he said "Swear to me by God that you will not put me to death nor give me up to my master, and I will 16 take you down to these raiders." And so he did; and they found them all over the ground at random, eating and drinking and holidaying with all the immense booty that they had taken from the Philistine 17 country and the country of Judah. And David killed them from twilight to dark and gave no quarter: not a man of them escaped except four hundred young men who mounted camels and made off.
 18 And David rescued everything that the 'Amalekites had taken; and 19 David rescued his two wives; and nothing of theirs was gone, from the smallest thing to the greatest and to sons and daughters, and from booty to everything that had been taken from them: David 20 recovered everything. And he took all the sheep and cows, and they drove them before him and said "This is David's booty."

21 And David came to the two hundred men that had been too dead to follow David, and whom he had had stay at Besor Arroyo; and they came out to meet David and the people he had with him, and 22 came up to the people and asked how they had got on. And all the good-for-nothing reprobates among the men who had gone with David answered "Since they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the booty we have recovered except each man's wife and children:
 23 they may take that drove along and go." But David said "You shall not do so, brothers, with what Jehovah has given to us and kept us safe and given into our hands the raiders that had come against us.
 24 And who would listen to you on this proposition? for the share of the one who goes down to the fight is equal to the share of the one 25 who stays with the things: they are to share together." And thenceforth he made it a usage and a law for Israel to this day.
 26 And David, coming to Siklag, sent parts of the booty to his friends the elders of Judah, with the message "Here is a token for you out 27 of the booty from Jehovah's enemies": to those in Bethul and those 28 in Ramoth-Negeb and those in Jattir and those in 'Ar'arah and those 29 in Siphmoth and those in Eshtemoa' and those in Racal and those in the Jerahmeelite cities and those in the Cainite cities and those in 30 Hormah and those in Bor'Ashan and those in 'Athac and those in Hebron and to all the places where David had roved, he and his men.

CHAPTER 31

1 And the Philistines fought the Israelites, and the men of Israel ran before the Philistines, and fell stabbed through on Mount Gilboa'.
 2 And the Philistines kept close after Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan and Abinadab and Malk-Shua'. And the onslaught on Saul was fierce, and the shooters (bowmen) hit 4 him, and he was badly hurt by the shooters. And Saul said to his squire "Draw your sword and run me through with it, for fear those uncircumcised fellows should come and amuse themselves with me"; but his squire would not, because he was too much afraid. But Saul 5 took his sword and threw himself on it; and his squire saw that Saul was dead, and he too threw himself on his own sword and died with 6 him. And Saul and his three sons and his squire died on that day.
 7 And the men of Israel on the other side of the Vale and of the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, and they left their cities and fled, and the Philistines came and lived in the cities.
 8 And on the next day the Philistines came to strip the killed, and 9 found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa'. And they cut off his head and stripped off his equipment and sent them around through the Philistine country to bring the news to their idols and 10 the people, and put his equipment in the temple of 'Ashtart; and his body they pegged to the wall of Beth-Shan.

11 And Jabesh in Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to 12 Saul; and all the bravest men set out and made an all-night march and took the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth-Shan 13 and brought them to Jabesh and burned them there, and took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

Book Second

1 And after Saul's death David, coming back from defeating the 2 'Amalekites, stayed at Siklag two days. And on the third day in came a man from the army, from Saul, with his clothes torn and earth on his head; and on coming to David he threw himself down on the 3 ground and did him reverence. And David said to him "Where do you come from?" and he told him "From the Israelite army; I am 4 one that got away." And David said to him "What was it that happened? tell me." And he said that the people had been routed in the battle, and that many of the people had fallen and were dead; and 5 that Saul and his sons were dead. And David said to the young man who brought him the report "How do you know that Saul and his 6 son Jonathan are dead?" And the young man who brought the report said "I happened by chance to be on Mount Gilboa, and found Saul supporting himself on his spear, and the chariotry and cavalry over-7 taking him; and he turned and looked behind him and saw me, and 8 called to me, and I said 'Here I am'; and he said to me 'Who are 9 you?' and I said to him 'I am an 'Amalekite.' And he said to me 'Come and stand over me and give me my death; for I have been 10 taken with dizziness while my life was still all in me.' So I stood over him and gave him his death—for I knew he could not live after he had fallen—and took the diadem that was on his head and an 11 armlet that was on his arm, and brought them to your highness." And David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and so did all the men 12 that were with him; and they wailed and wept and fasted till evening over Saul and over his son Jonathan and over Jehovah's people and 13 over the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword. And David said to the young man who had brought him the report "Where are you from?" and he said "I am the son of an 'Amalekite immi-14 grant." And David said to him "How is it you were not afraid to put 15 out your hand to make away with Jehovah's anointed?" And David called one of the men and said "Come and cut him down"; and he 16 stabbed him to death. And David said to him "Your blood is on your own head, because your own mouth testified against you, saying 'It was I who gave Jehovah's anointed his death.'"

17 And David sang this lament for Saul and his son Jonathan:

- 19 Israel, the antelope is speared on thy heights:
how have champions fallen!
- 20 Do not tell of it in Gath, do not give out the news in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.
- 21 Mountains in Gilboa', may there never be dew nor rain on you, mountains of death; for champions' shields were left uncared-for there, Saul's shield unanointed with oil.
- 22 From blood of the slain, from the fat of champions, Jonathan's bow never drew back, and Saul's spear came never empty home.
- 23 Saul and Jonathan, the loved and the winsome, were not separated in their life and in their death; swifter than vultures they were, more stalwart than lions.
- 24 Daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet with luxury, who topped your clothing with golden jewelry.
- 25 How have champions fallen amid the battle!
Jonathan is speared on thy heights.
- 26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan; thou wast to me very winsome, wonderful in thy love to me beyond the love of women.
- 27 How have champions fallen and weapons of war been lost!

- 1 And after this David put the question to Jehovah "Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" and Jehovah said to him "Go up."
And David said "Where shall I go up to?" and he said "To Hebron."
- 2 And David went up there, and also his two wives, Ahino'am the 3 Jezre'elite and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; and David brought up his men who were with him, each one with his household, 4 and they took up their residence in the cities of Hebron; and the men of Judah came and anointed David there as king over the house of Judah.

- And they told David "It was the men of Jabesh in Gilead that 5 buried Saul." And David sent envoys to the men of Jabesh in Gilead, saying to them "Jehovah bless you that you did this act of friendship 6 by your master Saul, and buried him. And now, may Jehovah do friendlily and faithfully by you; and I too will do well by you for 7 your having done this thing. Now keep up a stout heart, and show yourselves stalwart men; for Saul your sovereign is dead. Furthermore, the house of Judah have anointed me king over them."

8 And Abner the son of Ner, Saul's general, took Saul's son Ishbaal 9 and carried him over to Mahanaim and installed him as king over 10 Gilead and the Ashurites and Jezre'elites, and over Ephraim and 11 Benjamin and all Israel. Ishbaal the son of Saul was forty years 12 old at his accession to the throne of Israel, and reigned two years, 13 except that the house of Judah was on David's side. And the days 14 that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah amounted 15 to seven years and six months.

16 And Abner the son of Ner and the soldiers of Ishbaal the son of 17 Saul set out from Mahanaim to Gibeon; and Joab the son of Serujah 18 and David's soldiers went out and met with them by the reservoir 19 of Gibeon. And they sat down these on one side of the reservoir and 20 those on the other; and Abner said to Joab "Let us have the boys step 21 out and give us an exhibition"; and Joab said "Let us." And they 22 stepped out and were counted off, twelve for Benjamin and Ishbaal 23 the son of Saul, and twelve of David's soldiers; and each took hold 24 of the other's head and planted his sword in the other's side, and they 25 fell together; and that place was called the Rock Lot in Gibeon.
26 And it was a very hard battle that day; and Abner and the men of 27 Israel were beaten by David's soldiers. And the three sons of Serujah 28 were there, Joab and Abishai and 'Asahel; and 'Asahel was as swift-29 footed as any gazelle on the range. And 'Asahel pursued Abner, not 30 turning to the right or to the left from his chase of Abner; and 31 Abner turned back and said "Is that you, 'Asahel?" and he said "Yes." 32 And Abner said to him "Turn to your right or your left and get hold 33 of one of the men and take his spoils"; but 'Asahel would not turn 34 off from chasing him. And Abner said again to 'Asahel "Turn off 35 from chasing me; what do you want me to strike you down for? how 36 could I show my face to your brother Joab?" But he refused to turn 37 off; and Abner hit him below the waist with the back end of the spear, 38 and the spear came out behind him; and he fell down and died on 39 the spot.

40 And all who came to the place where 'Asahel had fallen and died 41 stopped. But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and as the sun was 42 setting they came to Ammah Hill, that is in front of Giah on the way 43 to the wilderness of Gibeon; and the sons of Benjamin rallied behind 44 Abner and formed a single bunch, and made a stand on the top of a 45 hill. And Abner called out to Joab "Shall swords always be eating?
46 do you not know that it will be bitter afterward? how long before 47 you will tell the men to turn back from chasing their brothers?" And 48 Joab said "By God, if you had not spoken, it would have been in the 49 morning that the men broke off each chasing his brother." And Joab 50 sounded the horn, and all the men halted and made no further pursuit 51 of the Israelites, and did no more fighting. And Abner and his men made an all-night march in the Rift Valley that night, and crossed the Jordan and went through the whole Bithron and came to Mahanaim. And Joab turned back from chasing Abner and gathered all the men, and there were missing of David's soldiers nineteen men and 'Asahel; and David's soldiers had killed of the Benjamites and of Abner's men three hundred and sixty men. And they took up 'Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb at Bethlehem; and Joab and his men made an all-night march, and the daylight found them

1 at Hebron. And the war between Saul's house and David's was a prolonged one; and David grew stronger and stronger, and Saul's house weaker and weaker.

2 And sons were born to David in Hebron; and his eldest was Ammon, 3 by Ahino'am the Jezre'elite, and his second Kileab by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, and the third Absalom the son of 4 Ma'acah the daughter of King Talmai of Geshur, and the fourth Adonijah the son of Haggith, and the fifth Shephatiah the son of 5 Abital, and the sixth Jithre'am by David's widow 'Eglah; these were born to David in Hebron.

6 And while the war between Saul's house and David's was going on 7 Abner was doing his best by Saul's. And Saul had had a concubine named Rispah the daughter of Aijah; and Ishbaal the son of Saul said to Abner "How comes it that you have gone in to my father's concubine?" and Abner was very angry at Ishbaal's words, and said "Am I a dog's head? Today I am doing favors to the house of your father Saul, down to his brothers and his personal friends, and have not handed you over to David; and you are calling me to account today 9 for this fault about the woman. God do so to Abner, and more, but 10 I will do for David as Jehovah has said to him, to carry the royal power away from Saul's house and to set up David's throne over 11 Israel and over Judah from Dan to Beer-Sheba." And he was not able to give Abner any further answer, because he was afraid of him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David saying "Make terms with me, and you shall have my hand with you to turn over all Israel to you." 13 And he said "Very well; I will make terms with you; I only make one demand on you—you shall not see my face unless when you come 14 to see my face you bring Saul's daughter Mical." And David sent envoys to Ishbaal the son of Saul with the message "Give me my wife 15 Mical whom I betrothed for a hundred Philistine foreskins"; and Ishbaal sent and took her from her husband, from Paltiel the son of 16 Layish. And her husband went with her, weeping as he went along behind her, as far as Bahurim; then Abner said to him "Now go back," and he went back.

17 And Abner had been holding communication with the elders of Israel, telling them "You were already wanting to have David for 18 king over you a while ago: now act on it; for Jehovah has said to David 'By the hands of my servant David I will save my people Israel 19 out of the hands of the Philistines and of all their enemies.'" And Abner also passed the word to Benjamin, and Abner also went to bring word to David at Hebron of all that had been agreed to by 20 Israel and by all the house of Benjamin. And Abner came to David at Hebron with twenty men, and David gave a banquet to Abner 21 and the men who were with him; and Abner said to David "I am going to bring all Israel together to your majesty to exchange pledges with you, and you shall be king with absolute power"; and David 22 dismissed Abner, and he went away on friendly terms. And in came David's soldiers and Joab from a raid, bringing a great deal of plunder with them; but Abner was not in Hebron with David, because David had dismissed him and he had gone away on friendly 23 terms. And when Joab and all the forces that were with him came in, they told Joab "Abner has been to the king, and he has dismissed 24 him and he has gone away on friendly terms." And Joab went to the king and said "What have you been doing? here Abner came to you, 25 why did you dismiss him and let him go off? you know Abner the son of Ner, and that he came to inveigle you and to find out your goings out and your comings in, and to find out everything that you are 26 doing." And Joab went out from David's presence and sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah without David's knowledge. So Abner came back to Hebron, and Joab took 27 him aside into the recess of the gate to speak with him quietly, and there with a thrust below the waist he stabbed him to death for the 28 blood of his brother 'Asahel. And David heard of it afterward, and said "I and my kingdom will be innocent of the blood of Abner the 29 son of Ner before Jehovah forever; may it light on the head of Joab and on all his kin, and may Joab's family never be without men infected with discharges and leprosy, and men that take to the spindle, 30 and men that fall by the sword, and men that lack bread," Joab and his brother Abishai having killed Abner because he was the death of their brother 'Asahel in battle at Gibeon.

31 And David said to Joab and to all the people that were with him
"Tear your garments and tie sackcloths around your waists, and wail 32 before Abner"; and King David walked behind the bier. And they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king raised his voice and wept 33 at Abner's grave, and all the people wept. And the king sang a dirge for Abner, "Was Abner to die as a rascal dies? Your hands were not 34 bound, nor your feet brought to the shackles: as one falls before ruffians you fell"; and all the people wept again over him. And all the people came to get David to take bread while it was yet day; and David said "God do so to me, and more, if before the sun sets I 35 taste bread or anything at all." And all the people understood, and it pleased them: like everything that the king did, it pleased all the 36

37 people. And all the people, and all Israel, knew that day that it was 38 not a plan of the king's to kill Abner the son of Ner. And the king said to his servants "Do you not know that one of the chieftains and 39 great men of Israel has fallen today? And I today am David, and anointed king, but these men, the sons of Serujah, are too much for me: Jehovah repay the criminal appropriately to his crime."

1 And Ishbaal the son of Saul heard that Abner had come to his death in Hebron, and he lost heart, and all Israel were in consternation.

2 And there were two men whom Ishbaal the son of Saul had as captains of raiders, one named Ba'anah and the other named Recab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite (of the sons of Benjamin; Beeroth 3 too is counted as belonging to Benjamin, and the Beerothites have fled away to Gittaim and are living there as immigrants to this day).

4 And Jonathan the son of Saul had a crippled son: he was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezre'el, and his nurse took him up and fled, and with her haste to flee he fell and was lamed; and his name was Meribaal.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Recab and Ba'anah, went and entered Ishbaal's house at the hottest part of the day, while he 6 was lying down for his noon rest: the woman who had charge of the door of the house was cleaning wheat, and dozed away and went to 7 sleep, and Recab and his brother Ba'anah slipped through and entered the house while he was lying on his bed in his sleeping-room. And they struck him dead, and cut off his head, and took it and went along 8 the Rift Valley, walking all night; and they brought Ishbaal's head to David at Hebron, and said to the king "Here is the head of Ishbaal, the son of your enemy Saul, who hunted for your life: Jehovah has given your majesty vengeance this day on Saul and his offspring."

9 And David answered Recab and his brother Ba'anah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "By Jehovah, who has redeemed my soul out 10 of every distress, when a man told me 'Saul is dead,' thinking he was bringing good news, I took him and killed him in Siklag to give him 11 his fee. Shall I not all the more, now that villains have killed an honest man in his own house on his bed, call you to account for his blood and 12 rout you out of the earth?" And David gave order to his men, and they killed them and cut off their arms and legs, and hung them up by the reservoir in Hebron; and they took Ishbaal's head and buried it in the grave of Abner the son of Ner.

CHAPTER 5

1 And all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said 2 "Here we are, your flesh and blood. Even formerly, when Saul was king over us, it was you that led Israel out and in; and Jehovah said to you 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be warden

3 over Israel.' " And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David gave pledges to them at Hebron before Jehovah, 4 and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years 5 old when he became king, and reigned forty years: at Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and at Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the country; and they said to David "You will not get in here unless you clear away the blind and the lame"—that 7 is to say "David will not get in here." And David took the fastness 8 of Sion, what is now David's City; and David said that day "Anyone who strikes down a Jebusite and gets to the conduit; and the lame and the blind, hateful to David's soul—" For this reason they say 9 "One blind or lame shall not come into the house." And David fixed his residence in the fastness, and called it David's City, and built the fortifications of the city from the Millo inward.

10 And David grew greater and greater, and Jehovah the God of 11 Armies was with him. And King Hiram of Tyre sent envoys to David, and cedar timber and carpenters and masons, and they built a house 12 for David. And David knew that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his empire for the sake of his people 13 Israel. And David took more concubines and wives at Jerusalem after he had come from Hebron, and more children were born to David.
14 And these are the names of the sons that were born at Jerusalem: 15 Shammua' and Shobab and Nathan and Solomon and Ibhar and 16 Elishua' and Nepheg and Japhia' and Elishama' and Eljada' and Eliphelet.

17 And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel; and all the Philistines came up to look for David; and 18 David heard of it and went down to the fastness. And the Philistines 19 had come and were foraying in Ghost Hollow; and David put the question to Jehovah "Shall I go up to the Philistines? will you give them into my hands?" And Jehovah said to David "Go up, for I will 20 positively give the Philistines into your hands." And David came in at Baal-Perasim; and David defeated them there, and said "Jehovah burst my enemies before me like a bursting dam"; hence the place 21 is named Baal-Perasim, "Baal of bursts." And they left their gods there, and David and his men took them up.

22 And again the Philistines came up and were foraying in Ghost 23 Hollow, and David questioned Jehovah, and he said "Do not go up; make a circuit to the rear and come to them opposite the pear-trees, 24 so that when you hear a sound of stepping in the tops of the pear-trees, then you may strike in: for then Jehovah has gone out before 25 you to slay in the Philistine army." And David did so, as Jehovah bade him, and slew the Philistines from Gibeon till you come to Gezer.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 And again David brought together all the picked men in Israel, 2 thirty thousand of them; and David and all the people that were with him went to Baal-Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which wears the name of Jehovah of Armies who sits upon the cherubs.
3 And they put the ark of God in a new cart and moved it out of Abinadab's house at Gibeah; and Abinadab's sons, 'Uzzah and Ahjo, 4 were driving the cart with the ark of God, and Ahjo was walking in 5 front of the ark, and David and all the house of Israel were playing before Jehovah with all energy and with songs and with lyres and 6 harps and tambourines and sistrums and cymbals. And they came to Nacon's threshing-floor, and 'Uzzah put out his hand to the ark 7 of God and took hold of it, because the oxen jolted it. And Jehovah was angry with 'Uzzah, and God smote him down on the shal, and he 8 died there beside the ark of God. And David was shocked at Jehovah's having scathed 'Uzzah, and called that place 'Uzzah's Scathe, which 9 name it bears to this day. And David became afraid of Jehovah that day, and said "How can the ark of Jehovah come to my home?" 10 And David was unwilling to move the ark of Jehovah to David's City; and David took it into the house of 'Obed-Edom the Gathite.
11 And the ark of Jehovah remained in the house of 'Obed-Edom the Gathite three months, and Jehovah blessed 'Obed-Edom and all his house.
- 12 And King David was told "Jehovah has blessed 'Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him on account of the ark of God"; and David went and brought up the ark of God from 'Obed-Edom's house to 13 David's City with festivity. And when the bearers of the ark of Jehovah had taken six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a stall-fed calf; 14 and David was whirling with all energy before Jehovah, with a linen ephod belted round him, while David and all the house of Israel 15 brought up the ark of Jehovah with cheering and blasts of ram-horns.
16 And when the ark of Jehovah came to David's City, Mical the daughter of Saul looked out through the window and saw King David capering and whirling before Jehovah, and felt a contempt for him.
17 And they brought the ark of Jehovah in and set it in its place in the tent David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings 18 before Jehovah, and welfare-sacrifices. And when David finished offering the burnt-offering and the welfare-sacrifices he blessed the 19 people in the name of Jehovah of Armies, and distributed to all the people, all the host of Israel, women as well as men, a ritual-cake of bread apiece and a steak and a cake of raisins; and all the people 20 went to their homes. And David went home to bless his house, and Mical the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said "How glorious today was the king of Israel, who exposed himself today before the eyes of his subjects' slave-women just as any of the riffraff 21 would go and expose himself!" And David said to Mical "Before the presence of Jehovah, who chose me in preference to your father and all his family, appointing me warden over Jehovah's people Israel; 22 so I play before Jehovah, and do things still more ignominious, and am low in my own eyes; but among the slave-women that you speak 23 of, among them I am respected." And Mical the daughter of Saul never had a child till the day of her death.

1 And when the king was settled in his house and Jehovah had given 2 him rest on all sides from all his enemies, the king said to the prophet Nathan "See here, I am living in a cedar house, but the ark of God 3 stands with a curtain around it." And Nathan said to the king "Whatever you have in mind go and do: for Jehovah is with you." 4 5 But that night Jehovah's word came to Nathan, "Go and say to my servant David 'Says Jehovah, Are you to build me a house to 6 live in? for I have never lived in a house from the day of my bringing the sons of Israel up out of Egypt to this day, but have gone in a 7 tent and a tabernacle. In all my going about among all the sons of Israel did I ever speak with one of the judges of Israel whom I com- 8 missioned to be shepherds of my people Israel to say "Why have you not built me a cedar house?"' And now you are to say to my servant David 'Says Jehovah of Armies, I took you from the pasture, from 9 following the sheep, to be warden over my people Israel, and I was with you wherever you went and exterminated all your enemies before you; and I will make you a name like the names of the great 10 of the earth, and will fix a place for my people Israel and plant them, and they shall dwell in one spot and never be disturbed again, and no longer shall the men of foul play grind them down as they for- 11 merly did, ever since the day that I commissioned judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. And 12 Jehovah tells you that Jehovah will build you a house: when your days are full and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up after you your issue who shall come out of your body, and I will establish 13 his kingship. He shall build me a house, and I will make his throne 14 firm forever. I will be father to him and he shall be son to me, so that when he does wrong I will correct him with a human rod and 15 human strokes, but my friendship I will never withdraw from him as I withdrew it from the one that was before you. And your house and 16 your kingship shall be secure forever before me; your throne shall be firm forever.'" Just these words, just this vision, Nathan spoke 17 to David.

18 And King David went in and sat down before Jehovah and said "Who am I, Lord Jehovah, and who are my house, that you have 19 brought me so far as this? And this has seemed to you a little thing too, Lord Jehovah, and you have also made promises about your servant's house to distant times, and I am to see the generations of 20 mankind, Lord Jehovah! And what more should David say to you?

21 you know your servant, Lord Jehovah. For the sake of your own promise, and in accordance with your own will, you have done all this great 22 work, to let your servant know. Therefore are you great, Lord Jehovah, because there is none like you and no God but you, as in everything 23 that we have heard with our ears; and who is like your people Israel, a single nation on earth which a God has gone to redeem for a 24 people of his own to make a name for himself, and to do great and terrible things for them, driving out before your people whom you 25 redeemed out of Egypt nations and gods and establishing your people Israel as your people forever, and you, Jehovah, becoming their God!
26 And now, Lord Jehovah, make good forever the promise you have given about your servant and his house, and do as you have promised; and your name will be great forever, men saying 'Jehovah of Armies is God over Israel'; and your servant David's house will be firm before 27 you; because you, Jehovah of Armies, God of Israel, have made this disclosure to your servant, 'I will build you a house'—this is why your 28 servant has found heart to offer this prayer to you. And now, Lord Jehovah, you are God, and your word shall be truth; and you have 29 promised to your servant this much good; now stand to it and bless your servant's house that it may be forever before you, because you have spoken, Lord Jehovah, and from your blessing your servant's house is to be blessed forever."

CHAPTER 8

1 And after this David defeated the Philistines and humbled them, 2 and David took Metheg Ha-Ammah out of the Philistines' hands. And he defeated the Moabites and measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground: he measured two lines to put to death and a full line to keep alive; and the Moabites became subject to David as tributaries.

3 And David defeated Hadad'ezer the son of Rehob, the king of Soba, 4 when he went to set up his power at the River; and David took from him seventeen hundred horsemen and twenty thousand footmen, and hamstrung all the chariot ponies, leaving a hundred teams. And the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadad'ezer, and David killed 6 twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians. And David set up prefects in Damascene Syria, and the Syrians became tributary subjects of David; and Jehovah made David victorious wherever he went.

7 And David took the golden bucklers that were on Hadad'ezer's 8 officers, and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Tebah and Be-9 rothai, Hadad'ezer's cities, David took very much bronze. And King Toghu of Hamath heard that David had defeated Hadad'ezer's forces, 10 and Toghu sent his son Hadad-ram to King David to ask how he was doing and to bless him for having fought and beaten Hadad'ezer (for Hadad'ezer was a standing enemy of Toghu), and he brought with him

11 articles of silver and of gold and of bronze (these too King David 12 dedicated to Jehovah, with the silver and gold that he dedicated out of all the nations he had subjugated, Edom and Moab and the Bene-'Ammon and the Philistines and the 'Amalekites, and out of the 13 booty from Hadad'ezer the son of Rehob, the king of Sobah). And David won fame when he came back from defeating the Syrians and 14 defeated the Edomites in Salt Valley, killing eighteen thousand. And he set up prefects in Edom; all over Edom he set up prefects; and all the Edomites became subjects of David, and Jehovah made David victorious wherever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David did justice and 16 equity for all his people. And Joab the son of Serujah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was private secretary, 17 and Sadok and Abiathar the son of Ahimelec the son of Ahitub were 18 priests, and Shausha was secretary for documents, and Benajah the son of Jehojada' was over the Cretans and the Pletans, and David's sons were priests.

1 And David said "Is there still left anyone of Saul's family, whom 2 I may befriend for Jonathan's sake?" And there was a slave of Saul's family, named Siba; and they summoned him to David. And the 3 king said to him "Are you Siba?" and he said "Your servant." And the king said "Is there no man left of Saul's family, whom I may befriend in God's name?" And Siba said to the king "There is still 4 a crippled son of Jonathan's." And the king said to him "Where is he?" And Siba said to the king "He is in Lo-Debar at the house of 5 Makir the son of 'Ammiel." And King David sent and took him out 6 of the house of Makir the son of 'Ammiel at Lo-Debar; and Meribaal, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, came to David and threw himself down on his face and did him reverence; and David said "Meribaal!" 7 and he said "Your servant is here." And David said to him "Do not be afraid: befriend you I will for the sake of your father Jonathan, and will restore to you all the fields of your father Saul; and you 8 shall always eat bread at my table." And he did reverence, and said "What is your servant, that you have turned your mind to such a 9 dead dog as I?" And the king called for Siba Saul's man, and said to him "Everything that belonged to Saul and to all his family I 10 give to your master's son; and you shall work the land for him, you and your sons and your slaves, and bring in, so that your master's son shall have bread to eat; but Meribaal your master's son shall always eat bread at my table." (And Siba had fifteen sons and twenty 11 slaves.) And Siba said to the king "Your servant will do in every respect as your majesty commands him."

And Meribaal eats at David's table like one of the king's sons.
12 And Meribaal has a little son named Mica; and all the inmates of

- 13 Siba's house are slaves of Meribaal. And Meribaal lives in Jerusalem, because he always eats at the king's table and he is lame in both feet.

CHAPTER 10

- 1 And after this the king of the Bene-'Ammon died, and his son 2 Hanun succeeded him. And David thought "I will be friendly to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father was to me"; and David sent by his officers to express sympathy with him at the loss of his father.
3 And David's officers came to the country of the Bene-'Ammon; and the chiefs of the Bene-'Ammon said to Hanun their sovereign "Do you think David is honoring your father when he sends you ambassadors of condolence? is it not for the sake of examining the city and spying into it and laying it in ruins that David has sent his officers to you?" And Hanun took David's officers and shaved off half their beards and cut off their habiliments in the middle, up to their 4 buttocks, and sent them off. And David was told of it, and he sent to meet them (for the men were greatly humiliated); and the king said "Stay at Jericho till your beards grow, and then come back."
5 And the Bene-'Ammon saw that they were at deadly feud with David; and the Bene-'Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-Rehob and the Syrians of Soba, twenty thousand infantry, and the king of Ma'acah a thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand 6 men. And David heard, and sent Joab with all the forces, the champions; and the Bene-'Ammon came out and drew up their line of battle at the gate, and the Syrians of Soba and Rehob and the men 7 of Tob and Ma'acah were by themselves in the open. And Joab saw that he had the front of the battle in his front and in his rear; and he made a selection of picked men out of the whole Israelite body, 8 and drew them up to face the Syrians, and the rest of the men he put into the hands of his brother Abishai and drew them up to face 9 the Bene-'Ammon, and said "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall be a rescue to me; and if the Bene-'Ammon are too strong 10 for you, I will go to rescue you. Hold fast, and let us do our best for our people and for the cities of our God, and Jehovah will do as he sees fit." And Joab and the troops that he had with him came on to 11 attack the Syrians, and they fled before him; and the Bene-'Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, and they fled before Abishai and entered the city. And Joab came back from the 'Ammonite war to Jerusalem.
12 And the Syrians saw that they were beaten by the Israelites; and they came together, and Hadad'ezer sent and called out the Syrians beyond the River, and they came to Helam with Shobac, Hadad'ezer's 13 general, at their head. And David was told, and he brought together all the Israelites and crossed the Jordan and came to Helam; and 14 the Syrians offered battle to David, and he fought them. And the Syrians fled before the Israelites, and David killed of the Syrians

- seven hundred chariotry and forty thousand infantry, and Shobac, Hadad'ezer's general, got his death-stroke there and died on the field.
- 19 And all the kings who were subject to Hadad'ezer saw that they were beaten by the Israelites, and made peace with the Israelites and became their subjects; and the Syrians were afraid to succor the Bene-'Ammon any longer.

CHAPTER 11

- 1 And at the return of the year, at the time when the messengers went out, David sent Joab, and with him his soldiers and all Israel, and they ravaged the Bene-'Ammon and laid siege to Rabbah, and
- 2 David was staying in Jerusalem. And at evening time David rose from his couch and took a walk on the palace roof; and from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and it was a very handsome woman.
- 3 And David sent and inquired about the woman, and they said "Why, that is Bath-Sheba', Eli'am's daughter, Urijah the Hittite's wife."
- 4 And David sent messengers and fetched her; and she came to him and he lay with her, when she was in purification from her uncleanness; and she went back to her home.
- 5 And the woman became pregnant, and sent and told David "I am
- 6 pregnant." And David sent to Joab, "Send Urijah the Hittite to me";
- 7 and Joab sent Urijah to David. And Urijah came to him, and David asked him how Joab was doing and how the men were doing and
- 8 how the war was doing; and David said to Urijah "Go down to your house and wash your feet"; and Urijah went out of the palace, and
- 9 after him a portion of the king's food. And Urijah slept at the palace door with all his fellow-soldiers and did not go down to his house;
- 10 and they told David "Urijah did not go down to his house," and David said to Urijah "Why, you have been away and just got home; how
- 11 is it that you do not go down to your house?" And Urijah said to David "The Ark and the Israelites and Judahites are living in booths, and his highness Joab and your majesty's officers are camping in the open field; and shall I go into my house to eat and drink and lie with my wife? by Jehovah and by your life, I will not do any
- 12 such thing." And David said to Urijah "Stay here one day more, and tomorrow I will send you off." And Urijah stayed in Jerusalem that
- 13 day; and on the next day David invited him to eat and drink before him, and made him drunk; and at evening he went out to sleep in his sleeping-place with his fellow-officers, and did not go down to his house. And in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent
- 14 it by Urijah; and in the letter he wrote "Put Urijah at the front in the place where the fighting is hardest, and fall back from supporting
- 15 him, so that he shall get killed." And while he was besieging the city Joab stationed Urijah at a place where he knew there were
- 17 stalwart men. And the men of the city came out and fought Joab, and some of the troops, of David's soldiers, fell; and Urijah the Hittite also lost his life.

18 19 And Joab sent and reported to David all about the war, and in instructing the messenger he said "When you have finished telling 20 the king all about the war, if the king is out of temper and says to you 'How came you to go fighting close to the city? did you not know 21 they would shoot from the wall? Who killed Abimelec the son of Jerubbaal? did not a woman throw the upper stone of a mill on him from the wall so that it was his death, at Tebes? why did you go 22 close to the wall?' then say 'Urijah the Hittite is dead too.'" And the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab sent him to say, all about the war; and David was angry and said to the messenger "Why did you go fighting close to the city? did you not 23 know you would be shot down from the wall?" and the messenger said to David "Because the men braved us and came out to meet us 24 in the open; and we pressed them clear to the gate, and the archers shot at your soldiers off the wall, and of the royal soldiers about eighteen men were killed—and your servant Urijah the Hittite was 25 killed too." And David said to the messenger "You will say to Joab 'Do not feel badly about this matter, that the sword makes such havoc; push the war against the city, and demolish it'; encourage him." 26 And Urijah's wife heard that her husband Urijah was dead, and 27 wailed over her husband; and when the mourning-time was past David sent and brought her into his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son.

CHAPTER 12

1 And Jehovah disapproved the thing that David had done, and sent Nathan to David; and he came and said to him "There were two men 2 in the same city, one rich and one poor: the rich man had a great 3 many sheep and cattle, the poor man had nothing at all but one little lamb which he had bought and raised, and it had grown up in company with him and his children; it ate of his crusts, and drank from his cup, and slept in his arms, and was like a daughter to him.
4 And a chance guest came to the rich man; and he could not bear to take any of his sheep or cattle to cook for the traveler that he had had come to him, but took the poor man's lamb and cooked it for 5 the man that had come to him." And David was greatly incensed against the man, and said to Nathan "By Jehovah, the man that did 6 that is going to die; and he shall pay for the lamb seven times its value, because he did that thing and had no mercy."

7 And Nathan said to David "You are the man. Says Jehovah, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you king over Israel, and delivered you 8 from Saul's hands, and gave you your master's daughters and your master's wives to lie in your bosom, and I gave you the girls of Israel and Judah, and if that had been too little I would have added as 9 many over and over. How comes it that you have despised Jehovah in doing what he disapproves? you have struck down Urijah the 10 Hittite with the sword and taken his wife as your own, and him you will not quit your house forever, because you despised me and took 11 Urijah the Hittite's wife to be your own. I, says Jehovah, will raise mischief against you out of your own family, and will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall 12 lie with your wives in sight of this sun; for you did it in secret, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun."

13 And David said to Nathan "I have sinned against Jehovah." And Nathan said to David "And Jehovah on his part has set aside your 14 sin; you shall not die; the son that is born to you shall die though, 15 because you did treat Jehovah with contempt in this matter." And Nathan went home.

And Jehovah smote the child that Urijah's widow bore to David, 16 and it was taken desperately sick. And David betook himself to God on behalf of the boy; and David kept fast, and used to go to his 17 room and lie on the floor all night. And the elders of his house rose to stand over him and get him to rise off the floor; but he would not, 18 and did not take bread with them. And on the seventh day the child died; and David's officers were afraid to tell him the child was dead, because they thought "Here we spoke to him while the child was alive and he did not obey, and how are we to tell him 'The child 19 is dead?' and he will do something bad." And David saw that his officers were whispering to each other, and David understood that the child was dead; and David said to his officers "Is the child dead?" 20 and they said "He is." And David got up off the floor, and bathed and oiled himself and changed his dress and went into the house of Jehovah and did reverence, and came into his house and asked for bread; 21 and they set it before him, and he ate it. And his officers said to him "What does this mean that you have done? while the child was alive you fasted and wept on his account, and when the child was dead 22 you got up and ate bread." And he said "While the child was still alive
I fasted and wept because I thought 'Who knows whether Jehovah 23 may be gracious to me, and the child live?' But now he is dead: what was I fasting for? could I yet bring him back? I am going to him, 24 but he will not come back to me." And David comforted his wife Bath-Sheba', and went in to her and lay with her, and she had a 25 son; and he named him Solomon; and Jehovah loved him, and sent by the prophet Nathan and named him Jedidiah after Jehovah.

26 And Joab attacked Rabbah of the Bene-'Ammon, and took the 27 palace city. And Joab sent messengers to David with the message 28 "I have attacked Rabbah, and I took the water city. Now bring together the rest of the people and beleaguer the city and take it, 29 lest I should take it and it should carry my name." And David brought together all the people and went to Rabbah and attacked the 30 city and took it; and he took the crown of Maltam off his head, and its weight was a hundredweight of gold; and it had a precious stone in it, which came to be on David's head. And he took out the plunder 31 of the city, a very great amount; and the people in it he took out and put them to saws and iron cuts and iron picks, and put them through the brickyard; and so he did with all the cities of the Bene-'Ammon.

And David and all the people went back to Jerusalem.

1 And after this it befell that David's son Absalom had a beautiful 2 sister named Tamar, and David's son Amnon fell in love with her; and Amnon was in such distress on account of his sister Tamar that he made himself sick, because she was a maiden and it seemed to Amnon 3 out of the question to do anything to her. And Amnon had a comrade whose name was Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah; and 4 Jonadab was a very wise man; and he said to him "How is it that you are like this, prince, getting poorer morning by morning? will you not tell me?" and Amnon said to him "I am in love with Tamar, 5 my brother Absalom's sister." And Jonadab said to him "Take to your bed and pretend to be sick, and when your father comes to see you, say to him 'Let my sister Tamar come and feed me, and let her make the food before my eyes, so that I may see, and let me eat out of her hand.'"

6 And Amnon went to bed and pretended to be sick, and when the king came to see him Amnon said to the king "Let my sister Tamar come and mold a few heart-cakes before my eyes and let me have 7 my food out of her hand"; and David sent word to Tamar at the palace "Come to your brother Amnon's house and make his food 8 for him." And Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, he being abed, and took the dough and kneaded it and molded it before his 9 eyes and fried the heart-cakes, and took the pan and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said "Put the men all out of my presence"; and all the men went out of his presence.
10 And Amnon said to Tamar "Bring the food into the chamber and let me eat out of your hand"; and Tamar took the heart-cakes she had made and brought them into the chamber to her brother Amnon 11 and presented them to him to eat, and he took hold of her and said 12 to her "Come and lie with me, sister." And she said to him "Don't, brother, don't abuse me: it is not done in Israel; don't commit this 13 scandal. Where should I take my dishonor to? and you would be rated like one of the reprobates in Israel; now speak to the king, for 14 he will not refuse me to you"; but he would not obey, but overpowered her and violated her and lay with her.

15 And Amnon took an aversion to her—a very great aversion, for his aversion to her was greater than the love he felt for her had been;

16 and Amnon said to her "Get up and go." And she said to him "Don't, brother: this last injury that you do to me in turning me out is 17 a greater one than the first"; but he would not listen to her, but called his man and said "Do get this out of the house and lock the door 18 after her." And she had on a long tunic with sleeves, for the king's maiden daughters dressed so in gowns; and when his attendant put 19 her out and locked the door after her, Tamar took ashes and put them on her head, and tore the long tunic she had on, and put her 20 arms over her head and went along screaming as she went. And her brother Absalom said to her "Has your brother Amnon been with you? now, sister, be quiet; he is your brother; do not take this to heart." And Tamar lived desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 And King David heard all these things and was very angry; 22 and Absalom did not speak with Amnon either good words or bad, because Absalom hated Amnon for having violated his sister Tamar.

23 And after two years' time Absalom had sheepshearers at Baal-24 Hasor near 'Ephron, and Absalom invited all the princes. And Absalom went in to the king and said "Your servant has shearers: 25 will the king and his officers please come with your servant?" And the king said to Absalom "No, my son, let us not all go, or we shall burden you." And he urged him; but he would not go, and said good-26 bye to him. And Absalom said "If not, let brother Amnon go with 27 us"; and the king said to him "Why should he go with you?" but Absalom urged him, and the king sent with him Amnon and all the princes.

28 And Absalom made a wassail like the king's; and Absalom gave his men the order "Look here: when Amnon is mellow with wine, I will say to you 'Hit Amnon,' and you are to kill him; do not be afraid; you have my orders; stand up to your job and show that 29 you amount to something." And Absalom's men did to Amnon as Absalom ordered them to; and all the princes sprang to their feet and 30 mounted their mules and fled. And while they were on the road the report came to David "Absalom has killed all the princes, there is 31 not one of them left"; and the king sprang to his feet and tore his clothes and threw himself on the ground, and all his officers who 32 were standing in his presence tore their clothes. But Jonadab the son of David's brother Shimeah answered "My lord must not think they have killed all the young princes: only Amnon is dead, because there has been an ugly look around Absalom's mouth since the day 33 that he violated his sister Tamar. Now your majesty must not pay any attention to such talk as that all the princes are dead, because 34 it is only Amnon that is dead, and Absalom has fled." And the young man who was on the watch raised his eyes and saw that a great number of persons were going along the Beth-Horon road at the descent; and the watchman came and told the king "I saw men in 35 the direction of Beth-Horon, toward the mountainside." And Jonadab said to the king "Here the princes are coming; it has come out just 36 as your servant said." And as he finished speaking, up came the princes; and they raised their voices and wept, and the king and all 37 his officers wept too, making a very great weeping. (But Absalom left the country, and went to Talmai the son of 'Ammihud, the king of 38 Geshur.) And he mourned for his son all the time. But Absalom left the country, and went to Geshur and was there three years.

39 And the king pined away for Absalom when he was reconciled to

CHAPTER 14

1 Amnon's being dead; and Joab the son of Serujah perceived that the 2 king was well disposed toward Absalom. And Joab sent to Tekoa' and got a wise woman from there, and said to her "Go into mourning, put on mourning clothes and do not rub yourself with oil, and be like a 3 woman who has been in mourning for a death these many days; and come to the king and say this word to him—" and Joab dictated the 4 words to her. And the Teko'ite woman came to the king and threw herself down flat on her face and did reverence, and said "Help, 5 your majesty!" And the king said "What is the matter?" And she 6 said "You see, I am a widow woman, my husband is dead; and your servant had two sons, and the two of them had a tussle out on the range, with no one to part them, and he hit him—one of them hit 7 the other one—and killed him. And there the whole clan stood up against your servant and said 'Give us the brother-killer to be put to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, so that we can make away with the heir too'; and they will put out the spark that is left me, not giving my husband a name and remnant on the face of the earth."

8 And the king said to the woman "Go to your home, and I will give 9 orders about you." And the Teko'ite woman said to the king "On me be the offense, your majesty, and on my family; and may the 10 king and his throne go clear." And the king said "Anyone who speaks 11 to you, bring him to me and he shall not touch you again." And she said "Will your majesty please name your God Jehovah for assurance that the blood-reclaimer shall not ravage by wholesale and that they shall not make away with my son?" And he said "By Jehovah, not a hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

12 And the woman said "Will you let your servant say something to 13 your majesty?" and he said "Say it." And the woman said "And why have you had such a design as this against God's people—which, by the word the king has said, amounts to guilt—that the king should 14 not bring home his outcast? because die we do, and are like water spilled on the ground, that is not to be picked up; and God will not take away the life of one who lays plans not to banish an outcast 15 from him. And now as to my having come to speak of this thing to your majesty, it was because the people frightened me, and your servant thought 'let's speak to the king, perhaps the king will do as 16 his servant says when the king hears, rescue his servant out of the hand of the man who is trying to make away with me and my son 17 together out of God's estate.' And your servant thought 'let his majesty's word settle it; for his majesty is like the Angel of God at making out what is good and what is bad.' And may your God Jehovah be with you."

18 And the king answered the woman "Do not refuse to answer a question I am going to ask you"; and she said "Say it, your majesty." 19 And the king said "Does Joab have a hand in all this business of yours?" And the woman answered "By your life, your majesty, there is no getting by anything that your majesty has said: it was your servant Joab that told me to do it and put all these words in your 20 servant's mouth. It was for the sake of facing the thing a different way that your servant Joab did this thing; and your majesty is as wise as the Angel of God is, so as to know everything on earth."

21 And the king said to Joab "Well, I am doing the thing: go bring 22 back the boy—Absalom." And Joab threw himself down flat on his face and did reverence, and blessed the king, and said "I thank your majesty heartily that today your majesty has done the thing 23 your servant said"; and Joab went off to Geshur and brought Absalom 24 to Jerusalem. But the king said "Have him go along to his house, and not see my face"; so Absalom went along to his house and did not see the king's face.

25 Now there was no man in all Israel so handsome as Absalom, thoroughly admirable: from foot to crown there was not a flaw in him.
26 When he shaved his head (from time to time he did shave it; he shaved it when it felt heavy) he weighed the hair of it, and it came 27 to three and a half pounds of the king's standard. And Absalom had three sons born to him, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a beauty.

28 And Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two years' time without seeing the king's face. And Absalom sent for Joab to send him to the king, but he would not come to him; and he sent again, but he would not 30 come. And he said to his servants "Look here: Joab's lot is next me, and he has barley there; go set it on fire." And Absalom's servants set the lot on fire; and Joab went off and went into the house where Absalom was, and said to him "Why have your servants set that lot of mine 31 on fire?" and Absalom said to Joab "I was sending you word 'Come here so that I can send you to the king to say "Why have I come from Geshur? I should be better off if I were still there; now let me see the king's face, and if there is crime in me let him put me to 32 death."'" And Joab went in to the king and told him; and the king called for Absalom, and he went in to the king and prostrated himself on the ground in reverence before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

1 And after this Absalom set up a carriage and ponies, with fifty 2 men running before him; and the first thing in the morning Absalom would be standing beside the road to the gate, and to every man who had a lawsuit to come to the king for trial Absalom called out 3 "What city are you from?" and he said "Your servant is from such a tribe of Israel," and Absalom said to him "Look here, your case is 4 all right and in order, but you have nobody from the king to hear you"; and Absalom said "If only I were made judge in the country!
5 and every man who had a lawsuit should come to me, and I would give him his rights." And when a man approached to do reverence to him, he would put out his hand and catch hold of him and kiss him.
6 And Absalom did the like to all the Israelites who came to the king to have cases tried; and Absalom cajoled the men of Israel.

7 And at the end of four years Absalom said to the king "Let me 8 go and pay my vow that I have made to Jehovah at Hebron. For your servant made a vow when I was living at Geshur in Syria, 'If Jehovah 9 shall bring me back to Jerusalem, I will worship Jehovah.'" And the king said to him "Go, and good betide you"; and he went off to 10 Hebron. And Absalom sent emissaries through all the tribes of Israel with the message "When you hear the sound of the ram-horn, say 11 'Absalom is declared king at Hebron.'" And with Absalom went two hundred men from Jerusalem as guests, who went in good faith and 12 had no knowledge of anything. And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city Giloh, when he was offering the sacrifices; and the revolutionary movement became powerful, and the people with Absalom grew more and more numerous.

13 And the news came to David that the feeling of the men of Israel 14 was on Absalom's side; and David said to all his officers who were with him at Jerusalem "Let us get away right off, because there is not going to be anything left of us with what Absalom is doing; be quick about going, for fear he should come quick and catch us here 15 and slam the worst on us, and massacre the city"; and the king's officers said to the king "Just as your majesty pleases, your servants 16 are ready." And the king went out with all his family behind him; 17 but the king left ten concubine wives to keep the house. And the king went out, and all the people behind him, and stood at Beth-18 hammerhak, with all his soldiers passing by on one side of him, and all the Cretans and Pletans, and all the Gathites, six hundred men, who had come behind him from Gath, passing by before the king.

19 And the king said to Ittai the Gathite "Why should you too go with us? go back and stay with the king, because you are a foreigner, 20 and an exile from your place to boot. It was yesterday you came, and today should I take you back and forth to go with us while I go where I may go? Go back, and take your brothers back with you; 21 and may Jehovah do friendly and faithfully by you." But Ittai answered the king "By Jehovah and by your majesty's life, at the place where your majesty is, be it for death or be it for life, there 22 your servant will be." And David said to Ittai "Pass on"; and Ittai the Gathite went past, and all his men and all the women and children he had with him.

23 And all the country was weeping loudly, and all the people going across, and the king going across in Kidron Arroyo, and all the people going across along and beside the road to the Wilderness Olive-Tree, 24 and on came also Sadok and Abiathar carrying the ark of God's covenant; and they set the ark down, and Abiathar went up till all 25 the people had finished crossing over from the city. And the king said to Sadok "Take the ark of God back to the city and let it stay in its place; if I have Jehovah's goodwill he will bring me back and 26 let me see him and his ground; but if he says 'I am not pleased with you,' here I am; let him do as seems best to him." And the king said 27 to Priest Sadok "Look here: go back to the city, you and Abiathar, and good betide you; and both your sons with you, your son Ahima'as 28 and Abiathar's son Jonathan. Look here, I am delaying at the Wilderness Fords till word comes from you, reporting to me." And Sadok 29 and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and it remained 30 there. But David went up the Olive Slope weeping all the way, with a muffled head and walking barefoot; and all the people that were with him muffled their heads and went up weeping all the way.

31 And David had been told "Ahithophel is among the ones who are with Absalom conducting the revolution"; and David had said "Make 32 Ahithophel's policy foolish, Jehovah my God." And as David came to the crest where one does reverence to God, he found Hushai the Arkite coming to meet him with his tunic torn and earth on his head; 33 and David said to him "If you go over with me you will be a clog 34 on me, but if you go back to the city and say to Absalom 'I will be your servant, your majesty; I was your father's servant in the past, 35 and now I am yours' you may balk Ahithophel's policy for me. You see, you will have with you there Priests Sadok and Abiathar, and every piece of news that you hear from the palace you will tell to 36 Priests Sadok and Abiathar. There with them they have their two sons, Sadok's Ahima'as and Abiathar's Jonathan, and you will send 37 me by them every piece of news that you hear." And David's friend Hushai went into the city as Absalom was coming to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

1 And David, passing a little beyond the crest, found Meribaal's man Siba coming to meet him, with a pair of saddled donkeys and on them two hundred cakes of bread and a hundred clusters of raisins and a 2 hundred of dates, and a skin of wine; and the king said to Siba "What have you here?" And Siba said "The donkeys are for the king's family to ride on, and the bread and dates for the men to eat, and the wine for anyone who grows faint in the wilderness to drink." And the king said "And where is your master's son?" and Siba said to the king "You will find him staying in Jerusalem, because he thought 'Today the house of Israel will give me back my father's kingship.'" And the king said to Siba "Here, everything that belongs to Meribaal is yours." And Siba said "My duty to your majesty; I thank your majesty."

And King David came to Bahurim, and found coming out from there a man of Saul's clan named Shimei son of Gera, cursing as he came out and pelting David and all King David's officers with stones, while all the people and all the champions were on his right and on his left; and what Shimei said in his cursing was "Out with you, out with you, you cutthroat, you rowdy! Jehovah has sent back upon you all the blood of the family of Saul in whose place you have reigned! and Jehovah has given the kingship into the hands of your son Absalom, and here you are in your trouble, cutthroat that you are!" And Abishai the son of Serujah said to the king "Why should this dead dog be cursing your majesty? let me go over and take off his head." But the king said "What business is it of you sons of Serujah that he curses, and that Jehovah has said to him 'Curse David,' and who is to say 'How came you to do so?'" And David said to Abishai and to all his officers "Here my own son, who came of my body, is hunting for my life, how much more then may the Benjamite? leave him to curse, because Jehovah has told him to. Perhaps Jehovah will look upon my wretched state, and Jehovah will repay me good for my cursing today." And David and his men went on in the road, with Shimei going along the mountain-slope parallel with them, cursing and pelting with stones opposite to them as he went, and throwing dust.

And the king and all the people who were with him came to 'Aye-phim, and there they rested up; but Absalom and all the men of Israel came into Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. And when David's friend Hushai the Arkite came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom "Long live the king! long live the king!" And Absalom said to Hushai "There is friendship for you! why did you not go with your friend?" But Hushai said to Absalom "No, whomever Jehovah and this people and all the men of Israel choose, I will be for him and stay with him. And in the next place, whom should I serve? should it not be before his son? as I have served your father, such I will be before you."

And Absalom said to Ahithophel "Give us your advice what to do." And Ahithophel said to Absalom "Go in to your father's concubines whom he has left to keep the house, and all Israel will hear that you are at deadly feud with your father, and all who are with you will be on their mettle." And they pitched the tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in sight of all Israel. Now the advice Ahithophel gave in those days was as if one submitted a question to the word of God: such was all Ahithophel's advice both to David and to Absalom.

1 And Ahithophel said to Absalom "Let me pick out twelve thousand 2 men and be off tonight to pursue your father, and come upon him while he is tired and disheartened, and take him by surprise; and all the people he has with him will run, and I will strike down the 3 king alone, and bring all the people back to you as a bride comes back to her husband; you want only one man's life, and all the people 4 will be unharmed"; and the idea suited Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

5 And Absalom said "Call Hushai the Arkite too, and let us hear what he too has to say." And Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom said to him "This was Ahithophel's idea: shall we do as he says? if 7 not, tell us yours." And Hushai said to Absalom "The advice Ahithophel has given is not good this time." And Hushai said "You yourself know your father and his men to be champion warriors; and they are in as bad a temper as a bear out on the range that has lost her cubs. And your father is an old soldier and will not spend the night 9 with the troops: there he is now hiding in one of the sinkholes, or in some place; and when he falls on them at the start, anyone who hears of it will hear and say 'There has been a slaughter among the 10 people who are on Absalom's side'; and even a brave man with a heart like a lion's will melt right down; for all Israel knows that your father is a champion and those who are with him are brave men.
11 But, I advise, let all Israel be brought together to you, from Dan to Beer-Sheba', in numbers like the sand by the sea, with your person 12 going among them; and we will come to him at some place where he may be found, and light on him as the dew falls on the ground, and of him and all the men with him there will not be a single one left;
13 and if he retreats to a city, all Israel shall carry ropes to the city, and we will drag it to the arroyo till there is not even a pebble to be found 14 there." And Absalom and all the men of Israel said "Hushai the Arkite's policy is better than Ahithophel's," Jehovah having ordained to balk Ahithophel's good policy, to the end that Jehovah might bring mischief on Absalom.

15 And Hushai said to Priests Sadok and Abiathar "Ahithophel has given Absalom and the elders of Israel such and such advice, and I have given such and such. Now send quickly and tell David 'Do not halt at the Wilderness Fords for tonight, but do make good the crossing, for fear the king and all the people that are with him 17 should be wiped out.'" And Jonathan and Ahima'as were posted at 'En-Rogel, and the maid would go and bring word to them, and they would go and bring word to King David, because they could 18 not be seen going into the city. But a boy saw them and told Absalom; and they both hurried to the house of a man at Bahurim, who had 19 a well in his courtyard, and they got down there, and the woman took a mat and slid it over the top of the well and spread out pounded 20 fruit on it, and nothing showed. And Absalom's officers came to the woman in the house and said "Where are Ahima'as and Jonathan?" and the woman said to them "They went over the water"; and they 21 looked and did not find them, and went back to Jerusalem. And after they had gone they came up out of the well and went and told King David "Up, go over the water quickly, because Ahithophel has been 22 proposing such and such a policy against you"; and David and all the people he had with him rose and went over the Jordan; by morning there was not a single one lacking that had not gone over the Jordan.

23 And Ahithophel saw that his policy was not followed, and he saddled his donkey and went off home to his city and made his will and hanged himself; and he was buried in his ancestral tomb.

24 And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom went over the Jordan, 25 he and all the men of Israel with him; and Absalom set 'Amasa over the army in place of Joab; 'Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite, who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash 26 the sister of Joab's mother Serujah. And the Israelites and Absalom camped in Gilead.

27 And when David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Bene-'Ammon, and Makir the son of 'Ammiel 28 from Lo-Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, brought bedsteads and rugs and basins and crockery, and wheat and barley 29 and meal and roasted grain and beans and lentils and honey and butter and sheep and clotted cream, and offered it for eating to David and the people he had with him; for they thought "The people have grown hungry and faint and thirsty in the wilderness."

CHAPTER 18

1 And David held a muster of the people he had with him, and 2 appointed over them captains of thousands and of hundreds; and David divided the people into thirds, a third under Joab and a third under Joab's brother Abishai the son of Serujah, and a third under Ittai the Gathite. And David said to the people "I will go out with 3 you myself"; but the people said "You shall not; for if we run nothing will be thought of it, and if half of us die nothing will be thought of it, but you are equal to ten regiments of us; it is better now that 4 we should have you in the city to help us." And the king said to them
"I will do as you think best."

And the king stood at the side of the gate while all the people went 5 out by hundreds and thousands; and the king gave Joab and Abishai and Ittai the order "Do be easy with my boy Absalom"; and all the people heard it when the king gave all the generals orders in regard

6 to Absalom. And the people went out in the field to meet the Israelites.
7 And the battle was fought in Ephraim Badlands; and the people of Israel were defeated there by David's soldiers, and the losses were 8 heavy that day, twenty thousand men. And the fighting was scattered all over the countryside there, and the Badlands ate up more of the 9 people that day than the sword did. And Absalom, riding on a mule, came in the way of David's soldiers; and the mule got under the boughs of a great terebinth-tree, and his head caught in the tree, 10 and he hung in the air, while the mule he was on went along. And a man saw it and told Joab "Here, I saw Absalom hanging in the 11 terebinth-tree." And Joab said to the man that told him "'Here, you saw him'—and how came it you did not strike him to the ground there? and it would have been my business to give you ten shekels 12 of silver and a belt." But the man said to Joab "And if I were weighing in my hand a thousand shekels of silver I would not lay hands on the prince, because in our hearing the king gave you and 13 Abishai and Ittai the order 'Look out for my boy Absalom.' Or had I played false with his life, nothing is hidden from the king, and 14 you would have stood aloof." And Joab said "Then I will make a beginning for you," and took three darts in his hand and drove them into Absalom's heart, he being still alive in the midst of the tree; 15 and ten young men who were squires to Joab surrounded Absalom and hacked him to death. And Joab blew the ram-horn, and the people 16 came back from pursuing the Israelites; for Joab kept the people in hand. And they took Absalom and threw him into the biggest sinkhole 17 in the Badlands and reared a very large cairn of stones over him; and all Israel fled to their homes. But during his life Absalom had 18 taken and reared for himself the obelisk in the King's Vale, because he thought "I have no son to commemorate my name," and named the obelisk after himself; and it is called Absalom's Hand to this day.
19 And Ahima'as the son of Sadok said "Let me run and bring the king the news that Jehovah has given him justice against his enemies." 20 But Joab said to him "You are no man for news today; you shall carry news another day, but not today, seeing that the king's son is 21 dead"; and Joab said to a Negro "Go tell the king what you have 22 seen," and the Negro did reverence to Joab and ran. And again Ahima'as the son of Sadok said to Joab "Anyhow, let me too run after the Negro." And Joab said "What are you running for, son, when 23 you have no welcome message?" "Anyhow, let me run"—and he said to him "Run." And Ahima'as ran by the Pale road and got ahead of the Negro.
24 And David was sitting between the two gates; and the lookout went on the wall to the roof of the gate, and raised his eyes and saw that 25 there was a man running alone. And the lookout called and told the king; and the king said "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." 26 And he went on, coming nearer and nearer; and the lookout saw another man running. And the lookout called to the gate-ward "Here comes another man running alone"; and the king said "He too is bringing news." And the lookout said "It strikes me the first man's running is like Ahima'as the son of Sadok's"; and the king said "That is a good man, and will be coming for good news."

And Ahima'as approached and said to the king "All right" and prostrated himself on the ground in reverence, and said "Blessed be your God Jehovah, who has defeated the men that raised their hands against your majesty." And the king said "The boy Absalom is all right?" and Ahima'as said "I saw great uproar when your majesty's servant Joab sent your servant, but I did not know what." And the king said "Come around and stand here"; and he went around and stood; and up came the Negro.

And the Negro said "Good news for your majesty! Jehovah has given you justice today against all that had stood up against you." And the king said to the Negro "Is the boy Absalom all right?" and the Negro said "May all your majesty's enemies, and all who stand up against your majesty with evil intent, be as the boy is." And the king shook, and went up to the upper story of the gate and wept; and he said as he went "My son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom!

1 if only I had died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son!" And word was brought to Joab "The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom." And the victory turned to a mourning that day for all the men, because the men heard that day "The king is grieving for his son"; and the men made their way into the city furtively as the humiliated men do when they have fled in battle; and the king had wrapped his face and was crying out loudly "My son Absalom, my son, my son!"

And Joab went inside to the king and said "You have today shamed the faces of all your soldiers who have saved your life today and your children's lives and the lives of your wives and concubines, in loving those who hate you and hating those who love you; for you have informed us today that captains and soldiers are nothing to you; for I perceive today that if Absalom were alive and all of us dead today, then it would suit you. But now get up and come out and say friendly things to your soldiers; for by Jehovah I swear, without going out you will not have a man stay with you over to-night, and that will be worse for you than all the bad things that have come over you from your boyhood to now." And the king rose and took his seat in the gate, and they told all the men "The king is sitting out in the gate"; and all the men came before the king.

But the Israelites fled to their homes. And the people were all wrangling throughout the tribes of Israel, saying "The king delivered us from the clutch of our enemies; he rescued us from the clutch of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the country out of Absalom's way, and Absalom whom we anointed over us is dead in battle,—now why are you deaf and dumb about bringing back the king?"

And King David sent to Priests Sadok and Abiathar the message "Tell the elders of Judah 'Why should you be last in bringing home the king, when the talk of all Israel has reached the king? You are my brothers, you are my flesh and blood, why should you be last in bringing back the king?' and to 'Amasa say 'You are my flesh and blood, you know; God do so to me, and more, if you shall not be general permanently in place of Joab in my service'"; and he bent the hearts of all the men of Judah as if they had been one man, and they sent word to the king "Come back, you and all your soldiers."

And the king came back, and arrived at the Jordan; and the Judahites had come to the Gilgal to go to meet the king, to take the king over the Jordan. And Shime'i the son of Gera the Benjamite, of Bahurim, hastened down with the men of Judah to meet King David, and with him a thousand men of Benjamin. And Siba the servant of Saul's family, and his fifteen sons and his twenty slaves with him, rushed to the Jordan before the king, and went to fording it to take the king's family over and to do what he pleased. And Shime'i the son of Gera prostrated himself before the king as he came through the Jordan, and said to the king "Do not charge me with crime, sir, nor remember how criminal your servant was on the day your majesty went out of Jerusalem and take note of it; for your servant knows I did wrong, so here I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet your majesty." And Abishai the son of Serujah answered "Does Shime'i get off for this, and not die because he cursed Jehovah's anointed?" but David said "What business have you sons of Serujah to play the marplot in my affairs today? Put a man to death in Israel today, when I feel that I have become king over Israel today?" and the king said to Shime'i "You shall not die." And the king swore to Shime'i.

And Saul's descendant Meribaal had come down to meet the king, and had not attended to his feet nor his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king went till the day that he came in safety. And when Meribaal came to meet the king, the king said to him "Why did you not go with me, Meribaal?" and he said "Your majesty, my servant played me a trick; for your servant told him 'Saddle me a donkey to ride on so that I can go with the king' (because your servant is lame)—and he slandered your servant to your majesty. But your majesty is like the angel of God; do as you think best. For all my family had nothing but death to expect from your majesty, and you have put your servant among those who eat from your table; what further claim have I?"—and more crying out to the king. And the king said to him "Why do you keep on with your talking? I say you and Siba shall share the land." And Meribaal said to the king

"He may take the whole so long as your majesty has come safe home."

31 And Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim and seen 32 the king over the Jordan, taking leave of him at the Jordan. Bar-zillai was very old, eighty years of age, and had provided the king 33 with food during his stay at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy 34 man; and the king said to Barzillai "Come over with me yourself, and I will provide you with food in my company at Jerusalem"; but 35 Barzillai said to the king "How much time have I to live, that I can I tell good from bad, or does your servant taste what I eat and what I drink, or hear singers' voices any longer? why should your 36 servant be a burden to your majesty any longer? Your servant will go barely over the Jordan with your majesty; but why should your 37 majesty make me this return? Let your servant go back and die in my city, by the graves of my father and my mother; but your servant Kimham will go over with your majesty; do by him as you think best"; 38 and the king said "Let Kimham go over with me, and I will do by him as you think best; and anything you propose to me I will do for 39 you." And all the people went over the Jordan, and so did the king; and the king kissed Barzillai and said good-bye to him, and he went 40 back to his own place. And the king went over to the Gilgal, and Kimham went over with him; and all the people of Judah saw the king over, and half the people of Israel too.

41 And up came all the men of Israel to the king; and they said to the king "How came it that our brothers the men of Judah stole you and brought your majesty and his family over the Jordan, and all 42 David's men with him?" And all the men of Judah rejoined to the men of Israel "Because we are next of kin to the king; what makes you get angry over this point? have we eaten from the king, or had 43 allowances dealt out to us?" And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah "Ten parts of the king belong to us, and we are senior to you too; how came it you slighted us? wasn't our proposition first? it belongs to us to bring back the king"; and the talk of the men of Judah was stiffer than the talk of the men of Israel.

1 And there happened to be there a rascal named Sheba' the son of Bikri, a Benjamite; and he blew the ram-horn and said "We have no share in David, nor estate in Jesse's son; to your homes, Israel!" 2 and all the men of Israel deserted David to follow Sheba' the son of Bikri. But the men of Judah kept with their king from the Jordan 3 to Jerusalem; so David came home to Jerusalem. And the king took the ten concubine wives he had left to keep the house and put them in a guarded house and furnished them food, but did not go in to them; so they were bottled up in grass-widowhood till the day of their death.

4 And the king said to 'Amasa "Call out the men of Judah; be here 5 in three days"; and 'Amasa went to call the Judahites out, but de-6 layed beyond the date that was set for him. And David said to Abishai "Now Sheba' the son of Bikri is going to be worse for us than Absalom was; take the palace troops yourself and pursue him, for fear 7 he should have got fortified cities and should darken our eyes." And Joab and the Cretans and the Pletans and all the champions followed Abishai out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba' the son of Bikri.

8 They were by the great stone at Gibeon when 'Amasa came at the head of the people. And Joab was belted with his brigandine (his garment), and over it belted with a sword fastened horizontally to 9 his waist in its sheath; and it came out and fell down. And Joab said to 'Amasa "How are you, brother?" and with his right hand took hold 10 of 'Amasa's beard to kiss him; and, 'Amasa not being on his guard against the sword in Joab's hand, he stabbed him with it below the waist so that his entrails poured out on the ground, and he died without a second blow, while Joab and his brother Abishai pursued 11 Sheba' the son of Bikri. And one of Joab's squires stood over him and said "Whoever likes Joab and whoever is for David, follow Joab!" 12 while 'Amasa was wallowing in blood in the middle of the highway.
And the man saw that all the people halted; and he moved 'Amasa out of the highway into the field and threw a blanket over him, when 13 he saw everybody who came to him halt. When he was put out of the highway, everybody went on with Joab to pursue Sheba' the son of 14 Bikri, who went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel and Beth-Ma'acah and all the Berites; and they despised him, and came after 15 him, and came and besieged him in Abel-Beth-Ma'acah, and threw up a ramp toward the city, which topped the outwork, while all the people Joab had with him were mining to bring down the wall.

16 And a wise woman called out from the city "Listen, listen; tell 17 Joab to come near here and let me speak to him"; and he came near her. And the woman said "Are you Joab?" and he said "Yes"; and she said to him "Listen to your servant's words"; and he said "I 18 am listening." And she said "In former times the word in Israel used 19 to be 'We will ask at Abel,' and they closed a question so. We are peaceable loyal Israelites; you are trying to end the life of a city, 20 a mother in Israel; why would you wreck Jehovah's estate?" And Joab answered "Away, away with the thought that I should wreck 21 or ravage; no such thing; but a man from the highland of Ephraim, named Sheba' the son of Bikri, has raised his hand against King David. Give up him alone, and I will raise the siege." And the woman said to Joab "You shall have his head thrown to you over the wall." 22 And the woman spoke with her wisdom to all the city, and they cut off Sheba' the son of Bikri's head and threw it to Joab, and he blew the ram-horn and the people dispersed to their homes. And Joab went back to Jerusalem to the king.

23 And Joab was over the whole army, and Benajah the son of Jeho-24 jada' over the Cretans and the Pletans, and Adoniram superintendent of the corvée, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud the private secretary, 25 and Shausha secretary for documents, and Sadok and Abiathar 26 priests; and 'Ira the Jairite too was priest to David.

CHAPTER 21

1 And there was famine in David's days for three years, year after year; and David betook himself to Jehovah; and Jehovah said "There is bloodguilt on Saul and his family for having put the Gibeonites to death."

2 And the king called the Gibeonites and said to them—and the Gibeonites were not sons of Israel, but part of the remnant of the Amorites, and the sons of Israel had taken an oath to them, but Saul had tried to kill them off in his jealousy for the sons of Israel and 3 Judah—David said to the Gibeonites "What shall I do for you, and by 4 what shall I purge us and have you bless Jehovah's estate?" And the Gibeonites said to him "We have no silver or gold in the hands of Saul or his family, and we have nobody to put to death in Israel." 5 And he said "What do you say? I will do it for you." And they said to the king "For the man who slaughtered us and who thought of rooting us out so that we should not stand our ground anywhere in the 6 territory of Israel, let seven men of his children be given us for us to shelve them up to Jehovah on Jehovah's Mountain at Gibeon."
And the king said "I will give them."

7 And the king spared Meribaal the son of Saul's son Jonathan on account of the oath by Jehovah that existed between them (between 8 David and Saul's son Jonathan); but the king took the two sons of Rispah the daughter of Aijah whom she had borne to Saul, Armoni and Meribaal, and the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab whom she 9 had borne to 'Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite, and gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, who shelved them up on the mountainside before Jehovah; and they fell all seven at once, dying in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley-harvest.

10 And Rispah the daughter of Aijah took a sackcloth and made a bed of it on the stone from the beginning of harvest till water was poured down on them out of the sky, and did not let the birds of the air rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field at night.
11 And David was told what Saul's concubine Rispah the daughter of 12 Aijah had done; and David went and took the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh in Gilead, who had stolen them from the square of Beth-Shan where the Philistines had hung them up at the time when the Philistines killed Saul at Gilboa'; 13 and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan, and they brought together the bones of the men who had been 14 shelved up. And they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan, and of the shelved-up men, in the Benjamite country, in his father Kish's grave at Sela', and did everything that the king had ordered. And after that Jehovah let himself be invoked for the country.

15 And the Philistines had a war with Israel again; and David went down, and his soldiers with him, and fought the Philistines. And 16 David grew faint; and Ishbi-benob, who was among the breed of the ogre, and whose keim weighed three hundred shekels by bronze weight, 17 and who was belted with a hadasha, thought to kill David; but Abishai the son of Serujah came to his help and struck the Philistine dead. Then David's men swore to him "You shall not go with us out to battle again, so as not to put out the lamp of Israel."

18 And after that there was the war at Gob with the Philistines again; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was among the breed of the ogre.

19 And there was the war at Gob with the Philistines again; and Elhanan the son of Ja'ir the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gathite; the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's pole.

20 And there was war at Gath again; and there was a tall man with six fingers on a hand and six toes on a foot, making twenty-four,— 21 he too was bred of the ogre,—who flouted the Israelites, and Jonathan the son of David's brother Shimei killed him.

22 These four were bred of the ogre at Gath, and fell by the hands of David and of his soldiers.

1 And David addressed to Jehovah the words of this song on the day when Jehovah had delivered him out of the hands of all his enemies and of Saul:

2 Jehovah is my cliff and fastness, my preserver; 3 my God is my rock that I take refuge in, my shield and victorious horn, My citadel and refuge, my savior saving me from outrage.

4 I proclaim Jehovah a God to be praised, and am saved from my enemies.

5 Breakers of death have enveloped me, torrents of bale overwhelm me,

6 the cords of the world below have gone round me, death's snares approached me,—

7 In my distress I call on Jehovah, and to my God I cry, and he has heard my voice out of his palace, and my cry sounded in his ears.

8 And the earth rolled and shook, the sky's foundations trembled and rolled because he was angry;

9 Smoke rose at his nostril, and fire out of his mouth devoured what it met;

 coals caught from it.
 10 And he bent the sky and came down with thick air under his feet, 11 And mounted a cherub and flew, sped on the wings of the wind, 12 Made darkness his screen around him, his bower a clump of water, a cloud in the heavens; 13 coals of fire caught from his presence; 14 Jehovah thundered out of the skies, the Lord above uttered his voice, 15 And sent his arrows and scattered them, flashed lightning and threw them into confusion, 16 And the chasms of the sea came in sight, the foundations of the world were uncovered, At your rebuke, Jehovah, at a breath from your nostrils.
 17 He has sent from on high and taken me, drawn me out of deep waters, 18 Delivered me from my enemy strong, from my haters when they were too much for me—19 They advanced on me in my day of calamity, but Jehovah was a stay to me, 20 And brought me out where I had room, rescuing me because he held me dear.
 21 Jehovah gives me requital suitable to my honesty, return suitable to the cleanness of my hands, 22 Because I have kept Jehovah's ways and not gone into wickedness from my God, 23 Because all his laws are present to my mind and his usages I do not set aside, 24 And I have been straightforward toward him and guarded against my offending nature; 25 And Jehovah has given me return suitable to my honesty, to the cleanness of my hands under his eyes.
 26 With a godly man you deal friendly; with a straightforward man, straightforwardly; 27 With a clean man, cleanly; and a dodger you outmaneuver, 28 And downtrodden people you save, and lofty eyes you bring down.
 29 For you are my lamp, Jehovah, and my God lights up my darkness; 30 For by you I break a fence, by my God I leap a wall.
 31 The Deity's path is straightforward;

Jehovah's say is sterling;
 he is a shield to all who take refuge in him.
 32 For who is God besides Jehovah?
 and who is a rock except our God?
 33 The Deity it is that girds me with stoutness and makes my path straightforward, 34 Makes my feet like a wild doe's and brings me to stand on heights, 35 Trains my hands for the battle till my arms break a bow of bronze.
 36 And you have given me the shield of your aid, and your care makes me great; 37 You make my stride bold and my ankles do not turn.
 38 I pursue my enemies and overtake them, and do not turn back till I have finished them.
 39 I finish them, I batter them so that they do not rise, they fall under my feet.
 40 And you have girded me with stoutness for the battle, you lay my adversaries low under me, 41 And give me my enemies' backs;
 my haters I annihilate.
 42 They cry and there is nobody to save them, cry to Jehovah and he does not answer them, 43 And I rub them fine like dust on the ground, like clay in the streets I beat them to powder.
 44 And you have preserved me out of my people's conflicts, guarded me for a head of nations;
 a people that I had not known shall serve me; 45 Foreigners cringe to me, upon hearsay they are at my orders; 46 Foreigners break up, are frightened out of their coverts.
 47 Living is Jehovah, and blessed my Rock, and lofty my God of salvation, 48 The Deity who grants me vengeance and brings peoples down under me, 49 My preserver from my enemies; you uplift me above my adversaries, deliver me from the man of outrage.
 50 Therefore I thank you, Jehovah, among the nations, and sing psalms to your name: 51 He greatly saves his king and befriends his anointed, David and his posterity forever.

CHAPTER 23

- 1 And these are David's last words:
Quoth Jesse's son David, quoth the man planted high,
The anointed of Jacob's God, the winsome psalmist of Israel, 2 Jehovah's spirit spoke in me, and his say is on my tongue.
3 Jacob's God said, Israel's Rock told me,
"A just ruler over men, who rules in the fear of God, 4 Uprises like morning light, the sun of a cloudless morning, By radiance brings up grass from the earth by rain." 5 Is not my house so with the Deity? for he has made me a perpetual pledge, detailed and warranted,
That all my success he will complete and will make all my pleasure thrive.
6 But reprobates are like loose thornbushes all of them, for not with hands are they taken, 7 But the man that touches them is provided with iron and spear-shaft, and they are burned up.
- 8 These are the names of the champions David had: Ishbaal the Hacmonite, head of the Three; he brandished his ax over eight hun-9 dred killed at one time. And next to him Eleazar the son of Dodai, the Ahohite; he was among three champions with David at Pas-Dammim when the Philistines had come together there for war, and the men 10 of Israel went up, but he rose and killed Philistines till his arm was tired and his hand stuck fast to the sword; and Jehovah made a great victory that day, and the people came back after his work only 11 to strip the fallen. And next to him Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite; and the Philistines had come together at the Jawbone, and there was a field full of lentils there, and the people had fled from 12 the Philistines; and he took his stand in the middle of the field and rescued it, and defeated the Philistines; and Jehovah made a great victory.
- 13 And three of the Thirty went down at the beginning of harvest to David at the fastness of 'Adullam, when a sept of Philistines was 14 camping in Ghost Hollow: David was in the fastness then, and the 15 Philistine supporting-force was then at Bethlehem. And David was taken with a craving, and said "I wish I had a drink of water out 16 of the Bethlehem well at the gate"; and the three champions burst through the Philistine camp and drew water out of the Bethlehem well at the gate and carried it away to David. But he would not drink 17 it, but poured it out as an offering to Jehovah, and said "Jehovah forbid the thought of my doing this: the blood of the men that went, with their lives in it?" and he would not drink it.

These things the three champions did.

18 And Abishai, brother to Joab the son of Serujah, was head of the Thirty; and he brandished his spear over three hundred killed, and 19 used to be named among the Three. He was more honored than the Three, and became captain over them, but he did not get into the Three.

20 And Benajah the son of Jehojada', a man of mettle and of many exploits, from Kabseel: it was he who killed the two Arels of Moab, and who went down and killed the lion in the well on the day of the 21 snowstorm, and who killed an Egyptian, a tall man, the Egyptian having a spear in his hand and he going down to him with a cudgel and snatching the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killing 22 him with his own spear. These things Benajah the son of Jehojada' did, and used to be named among the Three Champions; he was more 23 honored than the Thirty, but did not get into the Three; but David gave him the right of private audience.

24 Joab's brother 'Asahel was among the Thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo from Bethlehem; Shammah the Harodite; Elikah the Harodite; 25 Heles the Paltite; 'Ira the son of 'Ikesh the Teko'ite; Abi'ezer the 26 'Anathothite; Sibbecai the Hushathite; Salmon the Ahohite; Maharai the Netophathite; Heled the son of Ba'anah the Netophathite; Ittai 28 the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjamites; Benajah the Pireath-onite; Hiddai from the Ga'ash ravines; Abibaal the 'Arbathite; 'Az-maveth the Bahrumite; Eljahba the Sha'albonite; Jashen the Gunite; 30 Jonathan the son of Shammah the Hararite; Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite; Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai the Beth-Ma'acathite; 32 Eli'am the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite; Hesro the Carmelite; Pagharai the Arbite; Igal the son of Nathan from Soba; Bani the 34 Gadite; Seleah the 'Ammonite; Naharai the Beerothite, squire to Joab 36 the son of Serujah; 'Ira the Jetherite; Gareb the Jetherite; Urijah 38 the Hittite; thirty-seven in all.

CHAPTER 24

1 And Jehovah was again angry with Israel, and instigated David against them, prompting him to go and count Israel and Judah. And the king said to Joab and the captains of the army "Canvass all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-Sheba", and list the people, 3 so that I may know the number of the people." And Joab said to the king "Jehovah your God make the people as many again and a hundred times as many again, while your majesty's eyes see it; but why

4 does your majesty have this desire?" But David's word overbore Joab and the captains of the army; and Joab and the captains of the army went out from the king's presence to list the people, Israel. 5 And they crossed the Jordan and started at 'Aro'er and the city in 6 the middle of the arroyo, the Gadites on to Ja'zer, and came to Gilead and on to the Hittite cities at Kadesh, and came to Dan and 'Ijon, 7 and went around great Sidon and came to Tyre Fortress, and all the Hivvite and Canaanite cities, and came out in the Judahite South 8 at Beer-Sheba'; and they canvassed all the country, and at the end 9 of nine months and twenty days they came to Jerusalem and Joab gave the count of the census to the king. And of Israel there were eight hundred thousand stalwart fighting men, and of the men of Judah there were five hundred thousand.

10 And David's conscience pricked him after the enumeration of the people; and David said to Jehovah "I was very wrong in what I did; now, Jehovah, set your servant's offense aside, for I did very foolishly." And when David rose in the morning, Jehovah's word had come 11 to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying "Go tell David 'Says Jehovah, I make you three propositions: choose one of them and have me do it 12 to you.'" And Gad came to David and told him, and said to him 13 "Shall there come to you three years of famine in your country, or three months of flying before your foe, he pursuing you, or three days of pestilence in your country? now see and make up your mind 14 what answer I shall return to the one who sent me." And David said to Gad "It is a very hard case; let us fall into Jehovah's hands, because he has great kindness; let me not fall into men's hands"; 15 and David chose the pestilence.

And the season was that of wheat-harvest. And the deaths had been among the people, and there had died of the people from Dan to 16 Beer-Sheba' seventy thousand men, and the angel had put out his hand to Jerusalem to ravage it, and Jehovah took the evil to heart and said to the ravaging angel "That will do; now hold your hand." And the Angel of Jehovah was by Ornah the Jebusite's threshing-floor.

17 And David said to Jehovah, when he saw the angel that was striking among the people, "Here it is I who have sinned, I who am guilty, and these are the sheep; what have they done? let your hand be on 18 me and my family." And Gad came to David that day and said to him "Go up and erect an altar to Jehovah on Ornah the Jebusite's 19 threshing-floor"; and David went up in accordance with Gad's words as directed by Jehovah. And Ornah the Jebusite looked over and saw 20 the king and his officers coming across to him, and Ornah went out and did reverence to David with his face to the ground. And Ornah said "How is it your majesty comes to your servant?" and David said 21 "To buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an altar to Jehovah and have the deaths among the people shut off." And Ornah said 22 to David "Your majesty may take and offer what you think best:

- see here the cattle for the offering, and the threshing-boards and the 23 woodwork of the team for fuel; your majesty's servant Ornah gives your majesty all." And Ornah said to the king "May your God 24 Jehovah give you a favorable hearing." But the king said to Ornah
 "No, I will buy it of you at a price, and not offer my God Jehovah 25 burnt-offerings that cost nothing"; and David bought the threshing-floor and the cattle for cash, fifty shekels. And David built an altar to Jehovah there, and offered burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices, and Jehovah let himself be invoked for the country, and the deaths among Israel were shut off.

THE BOOK OF KINGS

Book First

- 1 And when King David was an old man, far gone in years, they
- 2 covered him with clothes, and he was not warm. And his officers
- said to him "Let them look up a maiden girl for your majesty, and let
- her stand before your majesty to be a caretaker to him, and sleep in
- 3 your arms that your majesty may be warm." And they looked for
- the most beautiful girl in all the territory of Israel, and found it to
- 4 be Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. And the - girl, who was very beautiful, became caretaker to the king and waited
- on him, but the king did not know her.
- 5 And Adonijah the son of Haggith was ambitious and proposed to - be king, and set up a carriage with outriders, and fifty men running
- 6 before him. (And his father had never since he was born crossed him
- by saying "How came you to do such a thing?" And he too was very
- 7 fine-looking; and he was born after Absalom.) And he had dealings
- with Joab the son of Serujah and with Priest Abiathar, and they
- 8 backed Adonijah's party; but Priest Sadok, and Benajah the son of
- Jehojada', and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei and Re'i, and David's
- champions, were not with Adonijah.
- 9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and cattle and a stall-fed calf by
- the Zohelath stone alongside 'En-Rogel, and invited all his brothers
- 10 and all the men of Judah, the king's officers; but Nathan the prophet,
- and Benajah and the champions, and his brother Solomon, he did - not invite.
- 11 And Nathan said to Bath-Sheba', Solomon's mother, "You have - heard, have you not, that Haggith's son Adonijah is set up as king,
- 12 without the knowledge of his majesty King David? Come now, take
- 13 my advice and save your life and your son Solomon's life. Go to the king's room, and go in and say to him 'Your majesty, did you not swear to your servant "Your son Solomon shall reign after me: he shall sit on my throne"? and how comes it that Adonijah has become king?' And while you are right there talking with the king I will come in after you and corroborate your words." And Bath-Sheba' went to the king in his room: the king had grown very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was waiting on the king; and Bath-Sheba' bowed down and did reverence to the king, and the king said "What is the matter?" And she said to him "Your majesty, you swore by your God Jehovah to your servant 'Your son Solomon shall reign after me: he shall sit on my throne'; and now here is Adonijah set up as king without your knowledge, your majesty, and he has sacrificed a bull and a stall-fed calf and sheep in great numbers, and has invited all the princes and Priest Abiathar and General Joab, but not your servant Solomon—while it is on you, your majesty, that the eyes of all Israel are fixed to tell them who shall sit on your majesty's throne after you. And when your majesty goes to rest with your fathers I and my son Solomon will be criminals."

And while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came. And they told the king "Here is Nathan the prophet"; and he came in before the king and prostrated himself on the ground in reverence to the king. And Nathan said "Your majesty, have you said 'Adonijah shall reign after me: he shall sit on my throne'? because he has gone down today and sacrificed a bull and a stall-fed calf and sheep in great numbers, and has invited all the princes and the generals and Priest Abiathar, and they are eating and drinking before him and have been saying 'Long live King Adonijah!' But me your servant, and Priest Sadok, and Benajah the son of Jehojada', and your servant Solomon, he did not invite. Is this thing of your majesty's doing, and have you not let your servants know who was to sit on your majesty's throne after you?"

And King David answered "Call in Bath-Sheba'." And she came in before the king and stood before the king. And the king swore "By Jehovah, who has redeemed my soul out of every distress, as I swore to you by Jehovah the God of Israel 'Your son Solomon shall reign after me: he shall succeed me on my throne,' so I will do this day." And Bath-Sheba' bowed her face to the ground and did reverence to the king, and said "May your majesty live forever."

And King David said "Call in Priest Sadok and Nathan the prophet and Benajah the son of Jehojada'." And they came in before the king. And the king said to them "Take with you the palace troops, and mount my son Solomon on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon; and there let Priest Sadok and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel. And blow the ram-horn, and say "Long live King Solomon!" and come up behind him, and let him go in and take his seat on my throne; and he shall succeed me, he is the one 36 I have appointed to be warden over Israel and over Judah." And 37 Benajah the son of Jehojada' answered the king "Amen; so may your majesty's God Jehovah say! As Jehovah has been with your majesty, so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than your 38 majesty's!" And Priest Sadok and Nathan the prophet and Benajah the son of Jehojada', and the Cretans and the Pletans, went down and mounted Solomon on King David's mule and took him to Gihon; 39 and Priest Sadok took the horn of oil from the Tent and anointed Solomon, and they blew the ram-horn, and all the people said "Long 40 live King Solomon!" And all the people came up behind him, playing on flutes and making a great rejoicing, and the earth was splitting with their noise.

41 And Adonijah and all the guests he had with him had finished eating and heard it; and Joab heard the sound of the ram-horn and 42 said "How comes the sound of the town in an uproar?" He was still speaking when Jonathan the son of Priest Abiathar came; and Adonijah said "Come on, you are a gentleman and bring good news." 43 And Jonathan answered Adonijah "Well, his majesty King David has made Solomon king; and the king sent with him Priest Sadok 44 and Nathan the prophet and Benajah the son of Jehojada', and the Cretans and the Pletans, and they mounted him on the king's mule, 45 and Priest Sadok and Nathan the prophet anointed him king at Gihon, and they went up from there rejoicing, and the town was in 46 an uproar; that was the sound you heard. And Solomon has taken 47 his seat on the royal throne. And the king's officers have gone in to take their leave of his majesty King David, saying 'May your God make Solomon's throne better than yours, and his throne greater 48 than yours'; and the king did reverence on his couch. And the king spoke thus: 'Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who has today given one to sit on my throne, with my eyes seeing it.'"

49 And all those guests of Adonijah's were frightened, and rose to 50 their feet, and went off in different directions; and Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, and he went and took hold of the horns of the 51 altar. And Solomon was told "Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; and he has laid hold of the horns of the altar, and says 'Let King Solomon swear to me first not to kill his servant with the sword.'" 52 And Solomon said "If he will be an honest man not a hair of him shall fall to the ground; but if mischief is found in him he shall die." 53 And King Solomon sent and had him brought down from the altar; and he went in and did reverence to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him "Go to your home."

CHAPTER 2

1 And the days for David's death drew near, and he gave his son 2 Solomon this charge: "I am going the way of all the earth; be resolute, 3 act the man, and keep the charge of your God Jehovah, walking in his ways, keeping his usages, his commandments, his laws, his lessons, as written in the code of Moses, that you may do well in everything you do or undertake; that Jehovah may make good his word that he spoke of me, 'If your sons guard their ways, walking before me loyally with all their hearts and all their souls, you shall never be without a man on the throne of Israel.'

"And you know yourself what Joab the son of Serujah did to me, what he did to two generals of Israel, Abner the son of Ner and Amasa the son of Jether, killing them and avenging war-blood in peace, and putting innocent blood on my belt that is round my waist and my shoes that are on my feet; and you will do as your wisdom bids you and not have his gray hair go down to the world of the dead in peace. And you will befriend the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and have them among those who eat at your table; for so they received me when I was in flight before your brother Absalom. And you will have on hand Shimei the son of Gera the Benjamite from Bahurim: he cursed me with a virulent curse on the day that I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Jehovah 'I will not put you to death by the sword.' Now do not let him go free: you are a wise man and will know what to do to him, and will send his gray hair down to the world of the dead in blood."

And David went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in David's City; and the time that David had reigned over Israel was forty years: at Hebron he had reigned seven years, and at Jerusalem he had reigned thirty-three years. And Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingship was thoroughly settled.

And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Solomon's mother Bath-Sheba; and she said "Is all well?" and he said "Yes." And he said "I have something to speak of to you"; and she said "Speak." And he said "You know the kingship did belong to me, and all Israel were counting on me for king, but the kingship shifted and came to my brother because it was his from Jehovah; now I am asking you for one thing—do not refuse me." And she said to him "Speak." And he said "Say a word to King Solomon (for he will not refuse you) and have him give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife." And Bath-Sheba said "All right, I will speak to the king for you." And Bath-Sheba came to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, and the king rose at her coming and did reverence to her and sat down on his throne, and a throne was set for the king's mother and she sat down at his right hand; and she said "I want to ask one little favor of you; do not refuse me"; and the king said to her "Ask; I will not refuse you." And she said "Let your brother Adonijah be given Abishag the Shunammite for his wife." And King Solomon answered his mother "And why do you ask for Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for the kingship for him, because he is my elder brother and has on his side Priest Abiathar and Joab the son of Seru-23 jah!" And King Solomon swore by Jehovah "God do so to me, and 24 more, but this word costs Adonijah his life. And now, by Jehovah who established me and seated me on the throne of my father David, and who has given me a family as he promised, Adonijah shall die 25 this day." And King Solomon sent Benajah the son of Jehojada', who cut him down; so he died.

26 And to Priest Abiathar the king said "Go to 'Anathoth to your lands: you deserve death, but I will not put you to death today because you carried the ark of Jehovah before my father David, and because you went through all the hardships that my father went 27 through"; and Solomon ejected Abiathar from being priest to Jehovah, fulfilling Jehovah's word that he spoke against 'Eli's family at Shiloh.

28 And the report came to Joab—for Joab had swerved to follow Adonijah, though he had not to follow Absalom—and Joab fled to 29 Jehovah's tent and took hold of the horns of the altar. And King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to Jehovah's tent and was beside the altar; and Solomon sent Benajah the son of Jehojada' with the 30 order "Go and cut him down." And Benajah went into Jehovah's tent and said to him "By order of the king, come out." And he said "No, I will die here." And Benajah reported to the king "So spoke Joab, 31 and so he answered me." And the king said to him "Do as he has spoken: cut him down and bury him, and take off from me and my 32 family innocent blood that Joab shed; and Jehovah will send his blood back on his own head, because he cut down two honest men who were better than he was, and killed them with the sword without the knowledge of my father David,—Abner the son of Ner, general of the army of Israel, and 'Amasa the son of Jether, general of the army 33 of Judah—; and their blood shall come back on Joab's head and on the heads of his descendants forever, and David and his descendants and house and throne shall have welfare forever from Jehovah."

34 And Benajah the son of Jehojada' went up and cut him down and 35 killed him, and he was buried at his home in the wilderness; and the king put Benajah the son of Jehojada' in his place over the army, and in Abiathar's place the king put Priest Sadok.

36 And the king summoned Shimei and said to him "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there: you shall not go out from there 37 to any place whatever, and on the day when you do go out and cross Kidron Arroyo, know that you shall die; your blood will be on your 38 own head." And Shimei said to the king "Very good: as your majesty has spoken your servant will do"; and Shimei lived in Jerusalem 39 many days. And at the end of three years two slaves of Shimei's ran away to Akish the son of Ma'acah, the king of Gath; and people 40 told Shimei "Your slaves are in Gath"; and Shimei got up and saddled his donkey and went to Akish at Gath to look for his slaves.

41 And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath, and Solomon was told "Shimei has gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned." 42 And the king summoned Shimei and said to him "Did I not have you swear by Jehovah, and warn you 'On the day when you go out and go to any place whatever, know that you shall die,' and you said to me 'Very good, I understand'? and how comes it that you have not kept your oath by Jehovah and the command that I gave you?" 44 And the king said to Shimei "You know all the mischief that you are conscious of having done to my father David: Jehovah will send 45 your mischief back on your own head, and King Solomon shall be blessed and David's throne shall be firm before Jehovah forever."

46 And the king gave an order to Benajah the son of Jehojada, and he went out and cut him down; so he died.

1 And when the kingdom was settled in Solomon's hands, Solomon made a matrimonial alliance with the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and took the Pharaoh's daughter as his bride and brought her to David's City till he should finish building his house and Jehovah's 2 house and the wall around Jerusalem. Only the people sacrificed on the heights, because up to that date no house had been built for the 3 name of Jehovah. And Solomon loved Jehovah, going by his father David's usages; only he sacrificed and made burnings on the heights.
4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, because that was the greatest of the heights: a thousand burnt-offerings Solomon offered 5 on that altar. In Gibeon Jehovah appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said "Ask for what you will have me give you." And 6 Solomon said "You showed great tokens of friendliness to my father, your servant David, while he walked before you loyally and honestly and truly; and you kept in reserve for him this great piece of friend-7 liness, and have given him a son sitting on his throne, as at this day. Now, Jehovah my God, you have made your servant king in place of 8 my father David, when I am a child and do not know how to go out and come in; and your servant is surrounded by your chosen people, 9 a great people, too great for the count to be taken or the number known: give your servant a judicious mind to judge your people, 10 to distinguish good from evil—for who is able to judge this vast people?" And the words pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked 11 this thing: and God said to him "Since you have asked this thing, and have not asked to have many days nor to have wealth nor to have the lives of your enemies, but have asked to have discernment 12 to hear causes, I do as you said: I give you a mind so wise and discerning that there has never been one like you before you, and after 13 you none like you shall arise. And I also give you what you did not ask for, both wealth and glory, such that not a man among the kings 14 has been like you. And if you walk in my ways, keeping my usages and commandments, as your father David did, I will make your days

15 long." And Solomon awoke and found it a dream; and he went into Jerusalem and stood before the ark of Jehovah's covenant, and offered burnt-offerings and made welfare-sacrifices, and gave a banquet to his officers.

16 Then two women living in prostitution came to the king and stood 17 before him, and one woman said "O, sir, I and this woman live in 18 one house; and I had a baby, in the house with her, and two days after I had mine this woman had one too; and we were together, there was no stranger in the house with us, but we two in the house.
19 And this woman's son died in the night, because she overlaid it; 20 and she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me, while your servant was sound asleep, and took him to bed 21 in her arms, and laid her dead son in mine. And I got up in the morning to give my son the breast, and found him dead; but I looked him over carefully in the morning and found it was not my son that 22 I had borne." And the other woman said "No, the live one is my son and the dead one is yours"; and they talked away before the king.
23 And the king said "This one says 'this is my son, the live one, and the dead one is yours'; and that one says 'no, the dead one is your son and the live one is mine'—"

24 And the king said "Get me a sword"; and they brought the sword 25 before the king; and the king said "Slice the live child in two and 26 give half to one and half to the other." And the woman whose son the live child was said to the king (for she was in a fever of alarm for her son) "O, sir, give her the babe, don't kill it"; but the other 27 was saying "I don't have it and you don't either! Slice!" And the king answered "Give her the babe, don't kill it; she is its mother." 28 And all Israel heard of the judgment that the king had passed, and stood in fear of the king, because they saw that he had in him divine wisdom to do justice.

1 2 And King Solomon was king over all Israel. And these are the 3 ministers he had: 'Azariah the son of Priest Sadok, Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Shausha, secretaries for documents; Jehoshaphat 4 the son of Ahilud, the private secretary; and Benajah the son of 5 Jehojada', over the army; and Sadok and Abiathar, priests; and 'Azariah the son of Nathan, over the commissioners; and Zabud the 6 son of Nathan, a priest, the king's friend; and Ahishar, steward of the palace; and Adoniram the son of 'Abda, superintendent of the corvée.

7 And Solomon had twelve commissioners over all Israel, and they provisioned the king and his household, each being responsible for 8 the provisioning for a month in the year. And these are their names: 9 the son of Hur in the highland of Ephraim; the son of Deker in Makas and Sha'albim and Beth-Shemesh and Elon, to Beth-Hanan;

10 the son of Heseb in Ha-arubboth—he had Socoh and all the country 11 of Hephher; the son of Abinadab, all Naphath-Dor—Solomon's daughter 12 Taphath became his wife; Ba'ana the son of Ahilud, Ta'anac and Megiddo and all Beth-Shean, alongside Sarethan, below Jezre'el, from 13 Beth-Shean to Abel-Meholah, to beyond Jokmeam; the son of Geber at Ramoth-Gilead—he had the Havvoth of Jair the son of Manasseh, in Gilead; he had the Pale of Argob in the Bashan, sixty large cities 14 with walls and bronze bars; Ahinadab the son of 'Iddo at Mahanaim; 15 Ahima'as in Naphtali—he too received Solomon's daughter Basemath 16 17 as wife; Ba'ana the son of Hushai in Asher and Ba'aloth; Jehoshaphat 18 the son of Paruah in Issacar; Shimei the son of Ela in Benjamin; 19 Geber the son of Uri in the country of Gilead, the country of King Sihon of the Amorites and King 'Og of the Bashan; and one 20 chief over all the commissioners in the country. Judah and Israel were numerous as the sand by the sea, eating and drinking and rejoicing.
21 And Solomon ruled all the kingdoms from the River to the country of the Philistines and to the boundary of Egypt, who presented tribute and were subject to Solomon all his life.

22 And Solomon's provisions for one day were ten thousand quarts of 23 farina and twenty thousand quarts of meal, ten fat cattle and twenty range cattle and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelle and 24 antelope and coop-fed waterfowl; for he bore empire over everything across the River, from Tiphseh to Ghaza, and over all the kings across 25 the River; and he had peace on all sides round about. And Judah and Israel lived unafraid, each under his grapevine and his fig-tree, from Dan to Beer-Sheba', throughout Solomon's time; and throughout Solomon's time nobody was hostile.

26 And Solomon had forty thousand teams of ponies for his chariots, 27 and twelve thousand cavalry horses. And these commissioners provisioned King Solomon and all who were in relations with King 28 Solomon's table, a month each; they let nothing be lacking. And the barley and straw for the ponies and the blood-horses they brought to the place where it was to be, each as his duty was.

29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and very great intelligence, and 30 a reach of brain like the sand on the seashore; and Solomon's wisdom exceeded that of the Eastern Beduins and all that of the Egyptians: 31 he was the wisest of all men, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite or Heman and Calcol and Darda' the sons of Mahol; and he was talked of among 32 all the nations round about. And he spoke three thousand proverbs, 33 and his songs were a thousand and five. And he spoke of trees and shrubs, from the cedar in the Lebanon to the marjoram that comes out on the wall; and he spoke of animals, those that walk and those 34 that fly and those that crawl and those that swim. And out of all the peoples they came to listen to Solomon's wisdom, from all the kings on earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

1 And King Hiram of Tyre sent his representatives to Solomon, because he had heard that they had anointed him king as his father's 2 successor; for Hiram had always been friendly to David. And Solomon 3 sent word to Hiram "You know my father David was not able to build a house for the name of his God Jehovah on account of the fighting with which he was surrounded, until Jehovah put them 4 under his feet. Now my God Jehovah has given me rest on all sides: there is no antagonist and no misadventure; and I am thinking of 5 building a house to the name of my God Jehovah, as Jehovah predicted to my father David 'Your son whom I will put on your throne 6 as your successor, he shall build the house for my name.' Now give orders to have them cut me cedars from the Lebanon, my subjects being there with yours, and I paying you the wages of your subjects just as you shall say, because you know yourself that there is not among us a man who knows how to cut timber like the Phenicians."

7 And when Hiram heard Solomon's message he was much pleased, and said "Blessed be Jehovah today for having given David a wise
8 son over this great people"; and Hiram sent word to Solomon "I have listened to what you sent to me: I will do all you want in the matter 9 of cedar timber and cypress timber; my servants shall bring them down from the Lebanon to the sea, and I will make them into rafts and take them by sea to the place you send me word of, and break them up there, and you shall take them away; and you shall do what 10 I want in the matter of furnishing food for my household." So Hiram furnished Solomon cedar timber and cypress timber, all he wanted, 11 and Solomon furnished Hiram two hundred thousand bushels of wheat as provision for his household, and two thousand gallons of beaten oil; such an amount Solomon furnished to Hiram year by year. And Jehovah gave Solomon wisdom, as he had promised to him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two made a treaty.

12 And Solomon raised a corvée from all Israel: the corvée was thirty 13 thousand men; and he sent them to the Lebanon, ten thousand a month by shifts: they were on the Lebanon a month and at home 14 two months; and Adoniram was over the corvée. And Solomon had seventy thousand porters carrying loads, and eighty thousand woodcutters cutting on the mountain, besides Solomon's chief commissioners who were over the work, thirty-three thousand of them, who were in authority over the people that were doing the work.

15 And the king ordered the quarrying of great stones, fine stones, to 16 give the house a dressed-stone foundation; and Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites shaped them and got the timber and stone ready for building the house.

CHAPTER 6

1 And in the four hundred and eightieth year since the sons of Israel had come out of Egypt, in the fourth year, blossom moon (second month), of Solomon's reign over Israel, he built the house for Jehovah.
2 And the house King Solomon built for Jehovah was ninety feet long 3 and thirty wide, and forty-five feet high; and the porch on the nave side of the house was thirty feet long in the direction of the breadth of the house, and fifteen feet wide in the direction of the length of 4 5 the house. And he made the house windows with closed frames; and he built against the wall of the house a girdle round the walls of the house, round the nave and the shrine, and made by-rooms around 6 it. (The undermost by-room was seven and a half feet wide, and the middle one nine feet, and the third ten and a half feet; for he gave the house offsets around it on the outside, to avoid taking a hold in 7 the walls of the house; and the house, when it was built, was built of entire stone as quarried, and hammer or pick or any iron tool was 8 never heard in the house while it was being built.) The door of the undermost by-room was at the southeast corner of the house, and they went up by trapdoors to the middle one, and from the middle 9 to the third. And he built the house and finished it, and roofed the 10 house with cedar timber, beams and boards; and he built the girdle against the whole house, seven and a half feet in height, and attached it to the house with cedar girders.

11 12 And Jehovah's word came to Solomon, "This house which you are building—if you go by my usages and live up to my laws and keep all my commandments, going by them, I will make good with you my 13 promise that I gave to your father David, and will dwell among the sons of Israel and not leave my people Israel."

14 15 And Solomon built the house and finished it, and built the walls of the house on the inside with cedar planks; from the floor of the house to the girders of the ceiling he lined with wood, and he floored 16 the house with cypress planks. And he built thirty feet at the back of the house with cedar planks from floor to girders, and finished 17 it on the inside as a shrine, holiest of the holy; and sixty feet was 18 the house (that is, the nave) in front of the shrine.—And there was cedar on the house inside, carving of gourds and open flowers, all 19 cedar, no stone visible. And he arranged a shrine inside, within the 20 house, to put the ark of Jehovah's covenant in. The shrine was thirty feet in length and thirty feet in breadth and thirty feet in height; and he gilded it all over. And he made a cedar altar in front of the shrine, 21 22 and gilded it. And he gilded the whole house, every bit of it, and gilded the shrine's whole altar.

23 26 And in the shrine he made two cherubs of wild olive wood: the height of the first cherub was fifteen feet, and so was the second 24 cherub, fifteen feet was its height; and seven and a half feet was the cherub's first wing and seven and a half feet the cherub's second wing,

25 fifteen feet from tip to tip of its wings, and fifteen feet the second cherub; both cherubs had the same dimensions and the same shape.
27 And he put the cherubs into the inner house; and they spread out their wings, and the wing of the one touched the wall, and the wing of the other cherub the other wall, and the wings touched each other 28 in the middle of the house; and he gilded the cherubs.
29 And he carved all the walls of the house around with intaglio carvings of cherubs and palm trees and open flowers, for the inner 30 house and the outer. And the floor of the house he gilded, for the 31 inner house and the outer. And at the entrance of the shrine he made 32 wild-olive-wood doors, the jambs pentagonal posts; and two wild-olive-wood doors, which he carved with cherubs and palm trees and open flowers, and gilded them, and rammed over the cherubs and palm 33 trees the gold. And in the same way he made for the entrance of 34 the nave wild-olive-wood posts, square posts, and two cypress doors, two folding leaves to one door and two folding leaves to the other 35 door; and he carved them with cherubs and palm trees and open 36 flowers, and gilded them with gold trimmed to fit the design. And he built the inner court in three courses of dressed stone and one of blocks of cedar.
37 In the fourth year the foundation was laid for Jehovah's house, 38 in the blossom moon; and in the eleventh year, in the Bul moon (that is, the eighth month), the house was finished in every detail in full accordance with its plan. And he was building it seven years.

CHAPTER 7

1 And Solomon built at his own house thirteen years, and finished 2 his house entirely. And he built the Forest-of-Lebanon house, a hundred and fifty feet long and seventy-five feet wide and forty-five feet 3 high, on four rows of cedar pillars with blocks of cedar on top of the pillars, roofed with cedar over the chambers on top of the pillars, 4 forty-five of them, fifteen to the row; with beams three rows, and 5 loophole to loophole three times, and all the doors and loopholes square-framed, and loophole facing loophole three times.
6 And he made the colonnade seventy-five feet long and forty-five wide, and a porch parallel to it, and parallel to them a platform with 7 pillars; and he made the throne-porch where he sat as judge, the 8 judgment-porch, wainscoted with cedar from floor to girders. And his own house, where he was to live, the other court inside the porch, was done like that; and he builds a house for the Pharaoh's daughter whom Solomon married, like this porch.
9 All these were expensive stone, dressed to measure, saw-cut on the outside and the inside and from foundation to coping, and from 10 the court of Jehovah's house to the great court, the foundations laid in expensive stones of great size, fifteen-foot stones and twelve-foot 11 stones, and above expensive stones, dressed to measure, and cedar.

12 And the great court, all around, was three courses of dressed stone and one of blocks of cedar, for the inner court of Jehovah's house and for the court of the palace porch.

13 14 And King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram from Tyre. He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a Tyrian, a bronze-worker; and he was full of talent and sense and skill for doing all kinds of work in bronze; and he came to King Solomon and did all his work. And he cast the two bronze pillars, twenty-seven feet the height of one pillar and eighteen feet its girth and three inches the thickness of the metal (hollow), and so the other pillar; and he made two capitals to put on the tops of the pillars, cast in bronze, seven and a half feet the height of one capital and seven and a half feet the height of the other capital; and he made two nettings, network, tracery, meshwork, to cover the capitals on the tops of the pillars, a netting for the one capital and a netting for the other capital. And he made the pomegranates; and there were two rows of bronze pomegranates around the one netting, and two hundred pomegranates in two rows surrounding the one capital; and so he did for the other capital. And the capitals on the tops of the pillars were of lily pattern, in the porch, six feet; and there were capitals on the two pillars above too, next the swelling beyond the netting. And he set up the pillars with the nave porch: he set up the right-hand pillar and named it Jakin, and set up the left-hand pillar and named it Bo'az. And on the tops of the pillars was a lily pattern. So the work of the pillars was finished.

23 And he made the sea, a casting fifteen feet from lip to lip, circular in outline, seven and a half feet high and forty-five feet in girth; and gourds all around it under its lip, fifteen feet; the gourds were in two rows, cast in one piece with it. It stood on twelve cattle, three facing north and three facing west and three facing south and three facing east, with the sea up on top of them, and their hinder parts all inward. And it was three inches thick, with its lip made like the lip of a cup, a lily-bud; and it would hold twenty thousand gallons.

27 And he made the stands, ten of them, of bronze: one stand was six feet long and six wide and four and a half high. And this was the pattern of a stand: they had borders, and borders between the frames; and on the borders between the frames there were lions, cattle, and cherubs, and so at the top on the frames; and under the lions and cattle spirals in a downward-sloping pattern. And a stand had four bronze wheels, and bronze axles; and its four uprights had shoulder-pieces; the shoulder-pieces were cast under the laver, spirals opposite each. And its mouth was inside the shoulder-pieces and above, eighteen inches; and its mouth was round, in pedestal pattern, twenty-seven inches; and on its mouth too there were carvings; and their borders were square, not round. And the four wheels were below the borders, and the spindles of the wheels went into the stand; and 33 the height of a wheel was twenty-seven inches. And the pattern of the wheels was like that of a chariot-wheel; their spindles, rims, 34 spokes, and hubs, all were cast. And there were four shoulder-pieces on the four corners of a stand: the shoulder-pieces were in one piece 35 with the stand. And at the top of the stand there was a pedestal, nine inches in height, round in contour. Its arms and borders were 36 in one piece with it. And he engraved on the plates cherubs, lions, and palm trees according to the room on each, and spirals around 37 the edges. Like this he made the ten stands; all of them had the same metal, the same dimensions, and the same shape.

38 And he made ten bronze lavers holding four hundred gallons each and measuring six feet each, the ten stands having a laver on each; 39 and he put the stands five along the right side of the front of the house and five along the left side of the front of the house, and the sea he put east of the southeast corner of the house.

40 And Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls; and Hiram finished doing all the work he did for King Solomon in 41 Jehovah's house: two pillars, and the globes of the capitals on top of the pillars, two of them; and the nettings, two of them, to cover 42 the two globes of the capitals on top of the pillars; and the pomegranates, four hundred of them, for the two nettings, two rows of pomegranates to a netting, to cover the two globes of the capitals on 43 top of the pillars; and the stands, ten of them, and the lavers, ten of 44 them, on the stands; and the one sea, and the cattle, twelve of them, 45 under the sea; and the pots and the shovels and the bowls. And all these furnishings that Hiram made for King Solomon in Jehovah's 46 house were polished bronze. It was in the Pale of the Jordan that 47 he cast them, in the heavy soil between Succoth and Sarethán. And Solomon left all these furnishings, because of their great number, without investigation of the weight of the bronze.

48 And Solomon made all the furnishings Jehovah's house had in it: 49 the golden altar, and the table the showbread was on, gold, and the lampstands, five on the right and five on the left in front of the shrine, solid gold, and the buds and the lamps and the pincers, gold, 50 and the basins and the snuffers and the bowls and the pans and the firepans, solid gold, and the hinges for the doors of the inner house, the holiest of the holy, and for the doors of the house, the nave, gold.
51 And all the work King Solomon did on Jehovah's house was finished; and Solomon brought in his father David's consecrated articles, the silver and the gold, and put the furnishings in the treasuries of Jehovah's house.

CHAPTER 8

1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of Jehovah's covenant from David's City (that is, Sion) 2 3 in the moon of the permanent streams; and the priests took up the 4 ark, and they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting, and all 5 the consecrated furnishings that there were in the tent, while the king and all Israel were in front of the ark sacrificing sheep and cattle too many for the count to be taken or the number known.

6 And the priests brought the ark in to its place in the shrine of the 7 house, in the holiest of the holy, under the cherubs' wings; for the cherubs spread out two wings over the place for the ark, and over-8 arched the ark and its poles, but the poles were long, and the heads of the poles were seen from the holy place along the front of the shrine, but were not seen outside; and they are there to this day.
9 There was nothing at all in the ark but the two stone tablets that Moses put there at Horeb, that Jehovah covenanted with the sons of Israel when they came out of Egypt.

10 And when the priests came out of the holy place the cloud filled 11 Jehovah's house, and the priests could not stand to officiate because of the cloud, because Jehovah's glory filled Jehovah's house.

12 Then Solomon said

"The sun shows in the sky, but Jehovah lists to dwell in darkling air.

13 I have builded a hall for you, an abode for you forever."

14 And the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, 15 while all the assembly of Israel stood; and he said "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who said with his mouth to my father David and 16 has with his hands made it good, 'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt I had not chosen a city out of any of the tribes of Israel for building a house where my name should be; but I have chosen Jerusalem where my name should be, and I have chosen 17 David to be over my people Israel.' And my father David had in mind 18 to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel; but Jehovah said to my father David 'Whereas you had in mind to build a 19 house for my name, you did well to have it in mind; yet you shall not build the house, but your son, who comes out of your loins, he shall 20 build the house for my name.' And Jehovah has been as good as his word, and I have risen in place of my father David and have taken my seat on the throne of Israel as Jehovah promised, and have built 21 the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, and have established there a place for the ark where Jehovah's covenant is, which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of Egypt."

22 And Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands to the sky, 23 and said "Jehovah, God of Israel, there is not a God like you in the heavens above and on earth below, keeping covenant and friendship 24 with your servants who walk before you with all their hearts, seeing you have kept your word with my father David and spoken with your 25 mouth and made good with your hands as this day. And now, Jehovah, God of Israel, keep with your servant my father David your word

'You shall never be without a man before me who shall sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons guard their ways, walking before 26 me as you did'; now, Jehovah, God of Israel, let your word to your servant my father David prove true.

27 "But will God really live on earth? why, the skies and the skies of the skies cannot contain you, much less this house that I have 28 built; but turn to your servant's prayer and petition, Jehovah my God, listening to the appeal and prayer that your servant is praying 29 before you today, that your eyes be open toward this house night and day, toward the place where you have said your name shall be, listen-30 ing to the prayer that your servant prays toward this place, and that you listen to the petition of your servant and of your people Israel that they pray toward this place, and that you hear up to your dwelling-place heaven, and, listening, forgive.

31 "In case a man does wrong by his neighbor, and he has raised a curse on him, cursing him out, and comes and pronounces the curse 32 before your altar in this house, and you hear it up to heaven, act and judge your servants, condemning the knave, sending retribution upon his head, and vindicating the man who stands for his rights, sending to him what he deserves.

33 "When your people Israel, sinning against you, are beaten by an enemy, but come back to you and confess your name, and pray and 34 beseech you in this house, and you hear it up to heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the soil you gave to their fathers.

35 "When the sky is barred and there is no rain, because they sin against you, and they pray toward this place and confess your name 36 and come back from their sins, because you afflict them, and you hear it up to heaven, forgive the sin of your servants and your people Israel, when you guide them on the good path that they are to walk in, and give rain on your country which you gave to your people as a domain.

37 "When famine there is in the country, when pestilence there is, when on the grain there is blasting or mildew, spring grasshoppers, fall grasshoppers, when their enemies beset them in any of their 38 gates, in every calamity, in every malady, whatever prayer or petition anybody may have, each feeling the blow that strikes his own heart 39 and spreading out his hands toward this house, and you hearing it up to heaven your dwelling-place, forgive and act and give to each as he deserves, as you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts 40 of all human beings), that they may fear you all the time they live over the soil you gave their fathers.

41 "And as to the foreigner too, who does not belong to your people 42 Israel, but comes from a distant country drawn by your name (because they will hear of your great name and of your strong hand and 43 outstretched arm) and comes and prays toward this house, and you hear it up to heaven your dwelling-place, do as the foreigner may call on you to, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, fearing you like your people Israel and knowing that this house I have built wears your name.

44 "When your people go out to war against their enemies on a course you send them on, and pray to Jehovah toward the city you have cho-45 sen and the house I have built for your name, and you hear up to heav-46 en their prayer and petition, do justice for them. When they sin against you (for there is no man who does not sin) and you are angry with them and give them to be defeated before an enemy, and their 47 captors carry them as slaves to an enemy's country, far or near, and in the country to which they are carried off they bethink themselves and come back and beseech you in their captors' country, saying 'We 48 have sinned and offended, we are guilty,' and come back to you sincerely and wholeheartedly in the country of their enemies who carried them off, and pray to you toward their country that you gave to their fathers, the city you have chosen, and the house I have built 49 for your name, and you hear their prayer and petition up to heaven 50 your dwelling-place, do justice for them and forgive their sins and crimes that they have committed against you, and make them objects 51 of sympathy to their captors that they may be kindly treated because they are your people and your estate, whom you brought out of 52 Egypt, out of the blast-furnace;—that your eyes be open to the petition of your servant and of your people Israel, to listen to them in all 53 that they call on you for, because you have set them apart, as an estate for yourself, out of all the peoples of the earth, as you promised by your servant Moses when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord Jehovah."

54 And when Solomon had finished offering to Jehovah all this prayer and petition, he rose from kneeling before Jehovah's altar, with his 55 hands spread out to the sky, and stood and blessed all the assembly 56 of Israel in a loud voice, saying "Blessed be Jehovah, who has given rest to his people just as he promised; of all the good promise that 57 he gave by his servant Moses not one point has failed. Jehovah our God be with us as with our fathers, not leaving us nor abandoning 58 us, to bend our hearts to him for walking in his ways and for keeping his commandments and usages and laws that he enjoined upon our 59 fathers; and may these words of mine in which I have made my petition before Jehovah be near to Jehovah our God day and night, that he do justice for his servant and for his people Israel day by day, 60 that all the peoples of the earth may know that Jehovah is God, 61 there is none besides. And let your hearts be at one with Jehovah your God for going by his usages and for keeping his commandments, as they are this day."

62 And the king, and all Israel with him, were making sacrifice before 63 Jehovah; and Solomon sacrificed, of the welfare-sacrifice he offered to Jehovah, twenty-two thousand horned cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats; and the king and all the sons of 64 Israel dedicated Jehovah's house. On that day the king consecrated the middle of the court in front of Jehovah's house, because there he offered the burnt-offering and the grain-offering and the fats of the welfare-sacrifices, since the bronze altar before Jehovah was too small to hold the burnt-offering and the grain-offering and the fats of the welfare-sacrifices.

65 And at that time Solomon kept the Feast, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from Lebo-Hamath to Egypt Arroyo, before Jehovah 66 our God for seven days. And on the eighth day he dismissed the people, and they took leave of the king and went to their homes joyous and merry over all the good things Jehovah had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

1 And when Solomon had finished building Jehovah's house and the royal palace and all Solomon's fancies that he was pleased to make, 2 3 Jehovah appeared to Solomon a second time as he had at Gibeon; and Jehovah said to him "I have heard your prayer and petition that you have made before me: I have done just as you prayed, I have made this house that you have built a sacred place, putting my name there forever; and my eyes and my mind shall always be there. And 4 for yourself, if you walk before me as your father David did, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, doing just as I have commanded, 5 and keep my usages and laws, I will set up the throne of your kingship over Israel forever, as I promised your father David 'You shall 6 never be without a man on the throne of Israel.' If you, yourselves and your sons, shall turn back from following me and not keep my commandments and usages that I have set before you, and go and 7 worship other gods and do them reverence, I will stamp out Israel from over the soil I gave them, and the house I had made a sacred place for my name I will discard, and Israel shall become a byword 8 and a jeer among all peoples. And this house shall become a ruin; everyone who passes it shall stand aghast and whistle, and they shall say 'On what account did Jehovah do like that to this country and 9 this house?' and they will say 'On account of their having left their God Jehovah, who had brought their fathers out of Egypt, and taken to other gods and done reverence to them and worshiped them; it was on this account that Jehovah brought upon them all this mischief.' "

10 And at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had been building the two houses, Jehovah's house and the royal palace,— 11 King Hiram of Tyre had been accommodating Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold, as much as he liked,—then King Solo-12 mon gave Hiram twenty cities in the Marchland. And Hiram went out from Tyre to see the cities Solomon had given him, and was not 13 suited with them; and he said "What sort of cities are these you have given me, brother?" and called them the Cabul country, a name they 14 bear to this day. And Hiram sent the king sixteen thousand pounds of gold.

15 And these were the terms of the corvée King Solomon raised for building Jehovah's house and his own house, and the Millo and the 16 wall of Jerusalem, and Hasor and Megiddo and Gezer—the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had gone up and taken Gezer and burned it down, and killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it as a 17 dowry to his daughter, Solomon's bride, and Solomon had Gezer rebuilt—and Nether Beth-Horon and Ba'alath and Tamar in the 18 wilderness, in our country, and all the storage cities Solomon had, and the chariot cities and the cavalry-horse cities, and Solomon's 19 fancies that he took the fancy to build in Jerusalem and in the Lebanon and throughout his dominion: all the people that were left 20 of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivvites, and the Jebusites, who were not sons of Israel,—their sons that had been 21 left in the country after them, whom the sons of Israel had not been able to dispatch, Solomon levied as a laboring corvée, which they are 22 to this day. But of the sons of Israel Solomon enslaved none, but they were his men of war and his officials and captains and adjutants and chariot-captains and horsemen.

23 These were Solomon's chief commissioners over the work, five hundred and fifty of them who were in authority over the people that were doing the work.

24 Only the Pharaoh's daughter has gone up out of David's City to her house that Solomon has built for her. Then he built the Millo.

25 And Solomon offers burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices three times a year on the altar he has built to Jehovah, that stands before Jehovah, and is finishing the house.

26 And King Solomon built ships at Ghesjon-Geber near Elath on the shore of the Red Sea, in Edom; and Hiram sent on the ships his 27 subjects, shipmen familiar with the sea, with Solomon's subjects; and they reached Ophir and got gold there, fifty-five thousand pounds 28 of it, and brought it to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

1 And the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon in the fame of Jehovah, 2 and came to test him with problems. And she came to Jerusalem with an immense retinue, camels carrying spices and a vast quantity of gold, and precious stones; and she came to Solomon and said 3 to him whatever she had in mind to say, and Solomon told her all her points; there was not a point of which the king was ignorant 4 and did not tell her. And the queen of Sheba saw all Solomon's 5 wisdom, and the house he had built, and the food that came to his table, and the order in which his officers sat and his attendants stood, and the attendants' costumes, and his drinks, and his burnt-offering that he used to offer in Jehovah's house, and she had no spirit left 6 in her; and she said to the king "It was a true word that I heard in 7 my own country about your state and your wisdom; and I did not believe the talk till I came and saw with my own eyes, and found that I had not been told half: in wisdom and prosperity you outdo 8 the report I had heard. Happy are your wives, happy these officers of 9 yours who stand before you always, who hear your wisdom. Jehovah your God be blessed, who was pleased with you for setting on the throne of Israel; it was in an eternal love of Jehovah's for Israel 10 that he made you king to do justice and right." And she gave the king sixteen thousand pounds of gold, and spices in great quantity, and precious stones; there never again came spices in such quantity 11 as that stock that the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon. (And Hiram's ships too, that carried gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir 12 almug wood in great quantity, and precious stones; and the king made the almug wood into furniture for Jehovah's house and the royal palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; almug wood never 13 came like that, nor was seen, to this day.) And King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything which pleased her that she asked for, besides what he gave her in accordance with King Solomon's custom; and she turned back and went to her own country, she and her officers.

14 And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 15 eighty-seven thousand six hundred and forty pounds, gold, besides the mulets on travelers and the profits of traders and of all the kings 16 of the frontier tribes and the viceroys of the country. And King Solomon made two hundred shields of beaten gold, three hundred 17 ounces of gold going on one shield, and three hundred beaten gold bucklers, a hundred and fifty ounces of gold going on one buckler; and the king put them in the Forest-of-Lebanon house.

18 And the king made a great ivory throne and gilded it with refined 19 gold; there were six steps to the throne, and the throne had calves' heads at the back, and arms on each side of the seat, and two standing 20 lions beside the arms, and twelve standing lions on the six steps, one 21 each side; nothing of the sort had been made for any kingdom. And all Solomon's drinking-vessels were gold, and all the utensils of the Forest-of-Lebanon house were solid gold; no silver, it was not thought 22 anything of in Solomon's days. For the king had Spain-ships at sea with Hiram's ships: once in three years the Spain-ships came in, 23 carrying gold and silver, ivory and monkeys and peacocks. And Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom; 24 and all the earth betook themselves to Solomon to listen to his wisdom 25 which God had put into his heart, and brought their presents man by man, articles of silver and of gold and garments and arms and spices, ponies and mules, a yearly supply.

- 26 And Solomon amassed chariots and horses, and had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he quartered 27 in the chariot cities and at Jerusalem with the king. And the king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as sycamores 28 in the lowlands. And Solomon's sources of supply for ponies were Egypt and Kue; the king's dealers had them from Kue on commission, 29 and a chariot used to come up out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver and a pony for a hundred and fifty; and they were similarly imported through them for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria.

CHAPTER 11

- 1 And King Solomon loved women, and had seven hundred queens and three hundred concubines; and he took many foreign wives, 2 Moabite, 'Ammonite, Edomite, Phenician, Hittite, out of the nations of which Jehovah said to the sons of Israel "You shall not go among them nor have them come among you, lest they bend your hearts 4 to follow their gods"—Solomon consorted with those in love. And at the time of Solomon's old age his wives bent his heart to follow other gods, and his heart was not at one with his God Jehovah like his 5 father David's heart; and Solomon went after 'Ashtart the goddess of the Phenicians and Milcom the god of the 'Ammonites, and Solomon did what displeased Jehovah, and did not altogether follow Jehovah 7 like his father David. Then Solomon built a height for Kemosh the god of Moab on the mountain in front of Jerusalem, and for Milcom 8 the god of the Bene-'Ammon; and so for all his foreign wives he made burning-places and altars for their gods.

- 9 And Jehovah was angered with Solomon because he had bent his heart away from Israel's God Jehovah, who had appeared to him 10 twice and had given him orders about this matter, not to follow other gods, and he had not obeyed the orders Jehovah had given him.
11 And Jehovah said to Solomon "Since you have been thus minded, and have not kept my covenant and usages which I commanded you, I will 12 tear the kingship off you and give it to your slave. I will not do it in your time though, for the sake of your father David. I will take it out of your son's hands; only I will not tear away all the kingship, 13 I will give your son one tribe, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

- 23 And Jehovah raised up an antagonist to Solomon, Rezon the son of Eljada', who had fled away from his sovereign King Hadad'ezer of 24 Soba, and men had gathered around him and he had become the captain of a band of raiders, when David was killing them; and he Part of 25 took Damascus and lived in it and became king at Damascus, and was an adversary to Israel throughout Solomon's time.

14 —And Hadad the Edomite: he was of the royal blood in Edom, 15 and when David made havoc of the Edomites, when General Joab 16 went up to bury the slain and killed every male in Edom (for Joab and all Israel stayed there six months, till they had made away 17 with every male in Edom) Hadad fled away, he and certain Edomites with him, officers of his father's, to go to Egypt, Hadad being a small 18 boy; and they left Midian and came to Paran, and took men with them out of Paran, and came into Egypt, to the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt; and he gave him a house and appointed him an allowance 19 of bread, and gave him land. And the Pharaoh showed Hadad very much favor, and he gave him a wife, his own wife's sister, the sister 20 of Queen Tahminas, and Tahminas's sister became the mother of his son Genubath, whom Tahminas brought up in the Pharaoh's family; and Genubath was in the Pharaoh's palace among the Egyptian 21 princes. And Hadad heard in Egypt that David had gone to rest with his fathers and that General Joab was dead; and Hadad said to the 22 Pharaoh "Give me leave to go to my own country." And the Pharaoh said to him "Why, what are you stinted for with me? and here you are wanting to go to your own country." But he said "No, do give 25 me leave"; and Hadad went back to his own country. . . . This is the mischievous thing Hadad did; and he bore Israel a grudge, and became king over Edom.

26 —And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Sereda, a widow's son, an officer of Solomon's who raised his hand against the 27 king. And this was the occasion on which he raised his hand against the king: Solomon built the Millo, closed up the breach in the forti-28 fications of his father David's city; and this Jeroboam was an energetic man, and Solomon saw that the young fellow was efficient and 29 appointed him over all the portage of the line of Joseph. And at that time Jeroboam had gone out of Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road, he having a new cloak 30 about him and the two being alone out in the country; and Ahijah seized the new cloak he had on and tore it in twelve pieces, and said 31 to Jeroboam "Take ten pieces for yourself; for Jehovah the God of Israel says 'I am tearing the kingship out of Solomon's hands and 32 giving you ten tribes (but he shall have one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city that I have 33 chosen out of all the tribes of Israel), since he has left me and done reverence to 'Ashtart the goddess of the Phenicians and to Kemosh the god of the Moabites and to Milcom the god of the Bene-'Ammon, and not walked in my ways, doing what I approve and living up to 34 my usages and laws like his father David. But I will not take all the kingship out of his hands, but install him as prince all his lifetime for the sake of my servant David whom I chose, who kept my com-35 mandments and usages; but I will take the kingship out of his son's 36 hands and give it to you, the ten tribes, and to his son I will give one tribe in order that through all time my servant David may have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city I have chosen for myself, to put my name there. And you I will take and you shall reign with absolute power and be king over Israel. And if you listen to all that I command you, and walk in my ways and do what I approve, keeping my usages and commandments as my servant David did, I will be with you and build you a secure house, as I did for David.”

And Solomon meant to put Jeroboam to death; but Jeroboam got away to Egypt, to Shoshak the king of Egypt, and was in Egypt till Solomon’s death.

And as to the rest of Solomon’s history, and all that he did, and his wisdom, it is recorded in the History of Solomon. And the time that Solomon was king at Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. And Solomon went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in his father David’s city; and his son Rehoboam succeeded him.

CHAPTER 12

And Rehoboam came to Shekem, because all Israel had come to Shekem to install him as king; and they told Rehoboam “Your father made our yoke bear hard on us; now make the hard service to your father rather easier, and his heavy yoke that he put on us, and we will be your subjects.” And he said to them “Go, and in three days more come back to me”; and they went.

And King Rehoboam consulted the old men who had been in the service of his father Solomon when he was alive, asking them “How do you advise me to reply to these people?” and they told him “If today you will be a subject to these people and respond to them and speak them fair, they will be subjects to you permanently.” But he discarded the old men’s policy which they had recommended to him, and consulted the boys who had grown up with him, whom he had in his service, and said to them “What reply do you advise that we give to these people who have told me ‘Make the yoke your father put on us rather easier’?” And the boys who had grown up with him told him “This is what you will say to these people who have told you ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, be easier on us’: you will tell them ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s hips. Now my father imposed a heavy yoke on you, and I will add to your yoke; my father punished you with whips, and I will punish you with scorpions.’”

And all Israel came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had told them, “Come back to me on the third day”; and the king gave them a harsh answer, and discarded the old men’s policy which they had recommended to him and spoke to them in accordance with the boys’ policy, “My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father punished you with whips, and I will punish you with scorpions.” And the king did not listen to the people, because it was a crisis determined by Jehovah in order to make good his prediction which Jehovah had given by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them; and the people replied to the king "What share have we in David? no estate in Jesse's son; to your homes, Israel! now look after your own house, 18 David!" and Israel went to their homes. And King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, the superintendent of the corvée; and all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam put his best foot foremost in 19 getting into his chariot to take flight to Jerusalem; and Israel rebelled 20 against the house of David, and it has lasted to this day. And when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back they sent and called him to the congress, and made him king over all Israel: nobody followed the house of David but the tribe of Judah alone.

21 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem and assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand picked warriors, to make war with the house of Israel, to restore the kingship to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. And Jehovah's word came 22 to Shema'iah the man of God "Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all the houses of Judah and Benjamin and 24 the rest of the people, 'Says Jehovah, You shall not go up, nor make war with your brothers the sons of Israel; go back home; for this thing has come from me.'" And they listened to Jehovah's word and went back, going by Jehovah's word.

26 And Jeroboam said to himself "Now the kingship will go back to 27 the family of David: if these people go up to offer sacrifice at Jehovah's house at Jerusalem, the people's hearts will turn back to their 28 sovereign King Rehoboam of Judah, and they will kill me." And the king thought up a policy, and made two golden calves and said to the people "No more going up to Jerusalem: here are your gods, 29 Israel, that brought you up out of Egypt"; and he set one in Bethel and one he put in Dan, and this thing became a sin. And the people 30 went before the one up to Dan, and he made height-houses, and made priests out of the common people who were not sons of Levi; 32 and Jeroboam appointed a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast in Judah, and went up the altar. So he did at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves he had made and setting up at Bethel the height-priests he had made.

33 And he went up the altar he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, the month he had improvised out of his own fancy; and he appointed a feast for the sons of Israel, and went up

1 the altar to offer. And a man of God came out of Judah, by Jehovah's commission, to Bethel, while Jeroboam was standing by the altar to

2 offer; and he proclaimed against the altar by Jehovah's commission "Altar, altar, Jehovah says, a child is being born to the house of David, named Josiah; and he shall kill as sacrifices on you the height-priests that offer on you, and they shall burn human bones on you." 3 And he gave a token that day, "This is the token that Jehovah spoke: 4 the altar is to burst and the fat-ashes on it to run out." And when the king heard the words that the man of God proclaimed against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying "Arrest him"; and his arm that he put out against him hardened, 5 and he could not draw it back to himself; and the altar burst and the fat-ashes ran out from the altar in accordance with the token that 6 the man of God had given by Jehovah's commission. And the king answered by saying to the man of God "Propitiate your God Jehovah so that my hand will come back"; and the man of God propitiated Jehovah, and the king's hand came back and was as it had been at 7 first. And the king told the man of God "Come into the palace with me and have something to brace you up and let me give you a pres-8 ent"; but the man of God said to the king "If you would give me half your palace I would not go in with you, and I will not eat food nor 9 drink water in this place; for so I was commanded by Jehovah's commission, 'You shall not eat food nor drink water, nor go back the 10 way you came.'" And he went away by another road, and did not go back by the road by which he had come to Bethel.
 11 And a certain old prophet was living at Bethel, and his sons came in and told him all about the deed the man of God had done that day at Bethel, and the words he had spoken to the king: they told 12 their father, and their father said to them "Which way did he go?" and his sons showed him the road that the man of God who came 13 out of Judah had gone. And he said to his sons "Saddle the donkey for me"; and they saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it, 14 and went after the man of God and found him sitting under the terebinth-tree, and said to him "Are you the man of God who came 15 out of Judah?" and he said "Yes." And he said to him "Come home 16 with me and eat a meal"; but he said "I cannot go back with you and go in with you, and I will not eat food nor drink water in this 17 place; for I was told by Jehovah's commission 'You shall not eat food nor drink water, nor go over again the way you went on.'"

18 But he said to him "I am a prophet the same as you are, and an angel told me by Jehovah's commission 'Bring him back home with 19 you to eat a meal and drink water.'" He lied to him; but he went 20 back with him and ate a meal in his house and drank water, and they were sitting at the table when Jehovah's word came to the prophet 21 who had brought him back, and he called out to the man of God who had come out of Judah "Says Jehovah, Since you have disobeyed Jehovah, and not kept the commandment that your God Jehovah 22 gave you, and have gone back and eaten food and drunk water in the place of which he spoke to you the words 'Do not eat food nor drink water,' your body shall not come to the grave of your fathers."

23 And after he had eaten a meal and had drunk, he saddled the donkey 24 for himself and went again; and a lion found him on the road and killed him, and his body lay thrown down in the road with the donkey 25 standing by it and the lion standing by the body. And there were men passing by who saw the body thrown down in the road and the lion standing by the body, and they went in and spoke of it in 26 the city the old prophet lived in. And the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard of it and said "It is the man of God who disobeyed Jehovah; Jehovah has given him to the lion, which has struck him down and killed him in accordance with Jehovah's 27 word that he had spoken to him." And he said to his sons "Saddle the 28 donkey for me"; and they did so. And he went and found his body thrown down in the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body; the lion had not eaten the body nor struck down the donkey; 29 and the prophet lifted the body of the man of God and laid it on his 30 donkey and brought it back to the city to bewail and bury it. And he laid the body in his own tomb, and they bewailed him with "Alas, 31 brother!" And after he had buried him he said to his sons "When I die bury me in the tomb the man of God is buried in; lay me beside 32 his bones, so that my bones may escape with his; for the thing is to be, the thing that he proclaimed by Jehovah's commission against the altar at Bethel and against all the height-houses in the cities of Samaria."

33 After this affair Jeroboam did not turn back from his evil course, but made height-priests again out of the common people: whoever pleased, Jeroboam would install him, and they became height-priests.

34 And this thing became the sin of Jeroboam's family, and effacement and extirpation off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

1 2 At that time Jeroboam's son Abijah fell sick; and Jeroboam said to his wife "Up with you, and change your clothes so that they will not know you are Jeroboam's wife, and go to Shiloh: there you will find the prophet Ahijah; it was he predicted my being king over 3 this people. And take in your hand ten cakes of bread, and seed-cakes and a bottle of honey, and go in where he is: he will tell you what 4 is to happen to the boy." And Jeroboam's wife did so, and rose and went to Shiloh and into Ahijah's house.

And Ahijah could not see, because his eyes were set as a result of 5 his old age; but Jehovah had said to Ahijah "Here is Jeroboam's wife come to make an inquiry of you as to her son, because he is sick: 6 thus and so you shall speak to her." And when she came in she was in disguise; but when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door he said "Come in, wife of Jeroboam; what are you in 7 disguise for, when I am sent to you with a hard message? Go say to Jeroboam 'Says Jehovah the God of Israel, Whereas I elevated you from among the people and set you as warden over my people Israel, and tore the kingship away from the family of David and gave it to you, and you have not been like my servant David in his keeping all my commandments and following me with all his heart, doing only what I approved, but have done worse than all that there had been before you, and have gone and made yourself other gods and statues, to provoke me, and thrown me behind your back, therefore I am bringing mischief to Jeroboam's family, and will exterminate every male person that belongs to Jeroboam, barred and unbarred in Israel, and rout out Jeroboam's family as one routs dung, till it is all out. Whoever of Jeroboam's dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and whoever dies in the country the birds of the air shall eat; for Jehovah has spoken.' And as for you, rise and go home: when your feet enter the city the child shall die; and all Israel shall bewail him and bury him—for he alone out of Jeroboam's family shall go into a grave, since he in Jeroboam's family has something good found in him with reference to Jehovah the God of Israel. And Jehovah will raise up for himself a king over Israel who shall exterminate Jeroboam's family: this is the day, and what even now? And Jehovah will strike Israel as reeds sway in the water, and will uproot Israel from the good soil he gave to their fathers and scatter them on the other side of the River, since they have been making their asherahs, provoking Jehovah; and he will give Israel away on account of Jeroboam's sins which he committed and caused Israel to commit."

17 And Jeroboam's wife rose and went, and came to Tirsah; as she came on the threshold of the house the boy died. And they buried him, and all Israel bewailed him, in accordance with Jehovah's prediction that he had made by his servant the prophet Ahijah.

19 And as to the rest of the history of Jeroboam, his fighting and his becoming king, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And the time that Jeroboam was king was twenty-two years; and he went to rest with his fathers, and his son Nadab succeeded him.

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon became king in Judah; Rehoboam was forty-one years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned seventeen years at Jerusalem, the city Jehovah had chosen, to put his name there, out of all the tribes of Israel; and his mother's name was Na'amah the 'Ammonite. And Judah did what displeased Jehovah, and stirred his jealousy beyond all that their fathers did by their sins which they committed; and they too built themselves heights and obelisks and asherahs on every high hill and under every verdant tree. And there was also religious prostitution in the country; they did just like the detestable ways of the nations Jehovah had dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

25 And in the year five of King Rehoboam, King Shoshak of Egypt

26 came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of Jehovah's house and of the palace, took everything; and he took all the golden shields 27 Solomon had made. And King Rehoboam made bronze shields instead, and committed them to the charge of the captains of the runners 28 who guarded the door of the palace; and as often as the king came to Jehovah's house the runners carried them, and took them back to the guard-chamber.
29 And as to the rest of the history of Rehoboam, and all that he did, 30 it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And there was 31 war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the time. And Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in David's City, and his son Abijam succeeded him.

CHAPTER 15

1 And in the year eighteen of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, 2 Abijam became king over Judah; he reigned threc years at Jerusalem; 3 and his mother's name was Ma'acah the daughter of Abishalom. And he walked in his father's sins that he had done before him, and his heart was not at one with his God Jehovah like his father David's 4 heart—for it was on David's account that his God Jehovah had given him a lamp at Jerusalem, setting up his sons after him and 5 keeping up Jerusalem, David having done what Jehovah approved and not turned from anything that he commanded him all his life.
7 And as to the rest of the history of Abijam, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And there was 8 war between Abijam and Jeroboam. And Abijam went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in David's City; and his son Asa succeeded him.

9 And in the year twenty of King Jeroboam of Israel, Asa of Judah 10 became king; and he reigned forty-one years at Jerusalem; and his 11 mother's name was Ma'acah the daughter of Abishalom. And Asa 12 did what Jehovah approved, like his father David; and he dispatched the religious sodomites out of the country, and removed all the fetishes 13 his fathers had made, and his mother Ma'acah too he deposed from her queenship because she had made a horror of an asherah; and 14 Asa cut down her horror and burned it in Kidron Arroyo. But the heights were not removed; Asa's heart, however, was at one with 15 Jehovah all his life. And he brought in his father's consecrated articles and his own to Jehovah's house, silver and gold and furnishings.

16 And there was war between Asa and King Ba'asha of Israel all 17 their reigns; and King Ba'asha of Israel came up against Judah and 18 fortified Ramah, blockading King Asa of Judah. And Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of Jehovah's house and the palace treasuries and committed them to his officers, and King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon the son of Hezjon, 19 the king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, with the message "There is a treaty between you and me, between your father and mine; here I have sent you a present of silver and gold: go break your treaty with King Ba'asha of Israel, so that he will withdraw from his attack on me." And Ben-Hadad listened to King Asa, and sent his generals against the cities of Israel, and ravaged 'Ijon and Dan and Abel Beth-Ma'acah and all Gennesaret, along with all the country of Naphtali; and when Ba'asha heard of it he left off fortifying Ramah and went back to Tirsah, and King Asa summoned all Judah, nobody being exempt, and they carried away the stone and timber of Ramah, that Ba'asha had built in, and with it King Asa fortified Geba' in Benjamin and Mispah.

And as to all the rest of the history of Asa, and all his exploits and everything he did, and the cities he fortified, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. During his old age, however, he was diseased in his feet. And Asa went to rest with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city; and his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him.

And Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the year two of King Asa of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years; and he did what displeased Jehovah, and followed in his father's path and his sin which he made Israel sin. And Ba'asha the son of Ahijah, of the family of Issacar, organized a revolution against him; and Ba'asha assassinated him at Gibbethon, which belongs to the Philistines, as Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gibbethon, in the year three of King Asa of Judah, and succeeded him. And when he came to the throne he killed all Jeroboam's family, not leaving a living soul of Jeroboam's in accordance with Jehovah's prediction which he had made by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite, for Jeroboam's sins that he committed and caused Israel to commit in the provocation he gave to Israel's God Jehovah. And as to the rest of the history of Nadab, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

In the year three of King Asa of Judah, Ba'asha the son of Ahijah became king over Israel for a reign of twenty-four years at Tirsah; and he did what displeased Jehovah, and followed Jeroboam's path and his sin that he caused Israel to commit.

CHAPTER 16

And Jehovah's word came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Ba'asha, "Since I raised you from the dust and set you as warden over my people Israel, and you have followed Jeroboam's path and caused my people Israel to sin, provoking me by their sins, I am routing out Ba'asha and his family and making your family like the family of Jeroboam the son of Nebat: whoever of Ba'asha's dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and whoever of his dies in the country the birds of the air shall eat."

5 And as to the rest of the history of Ba'asha, and what he did, and his exploits, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of 6 Israel. And Ba'asha went to rest with his fathers, and was buried at Tirsah; and his son Elah succeeded him.

7 Moreover, Jehovah's word came to Ba'asha and his family by Jehu the son of Hanani both for all that he did that displeased Jehovah, provoking him with his handiwork, becoming like the family of Jeroboam, and for his killing it off.

8 In the year twenty-six of King Asa of Judah, Elah the son of Ba'asha became king over Israel for a reign of two years at Tirsah.

9 And his officer Zimri, the captain of half the chariotry, organized a revolution against him, and as he was at Tirsah getting drunk at the 10 house of Arsa the steward of the palace at Tirsah, Zimri came in and assassinated him in the year twenty-seven of King Asa of Judah, and 11 succeeded him. And when he became king, as soon as he was seated on the throne he killed off all Ba'asha's family, not leaving him any male 12 person, and his kinsmen and friends: Zimri rooted out all Ba'asha's family, in accordance with Jehovah's prediction which he made to 13 Ba'asha by the prophet Jehu, for all Ba'asha's sins and the sins of his son Elah, which they had committed and had caused Israel to commit, provoking Israel's God Jehovah with their superstitions.
14 And as to the rest of the history of Elah, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

15 In the year twenty-seven of King Asa of Judah, Zimri became king for a reign of seven days at Tirsah. But the people were in camp 16 attacking Gibbethon, which belongs to the Philistines; and the people in the camp heard the word "Zimri has organized a revolution, and he has killed the king," and all Israel made 'Omri, a general, king of 17 Israel that day at the camp. And 'Omri, and all Israel with him, went up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirsah; and when Zimri saw that 18 the city was taken he went into the keep of the palace and burned the palace down over his head, and so died, for his sins that he had com-19 mitted in doing what displeased Jehovah, following Jeroboam's path and his sin that he had committed, causing Israel to sin. And as to the 20 rest of the history of Zimri, and his revolution that he organized, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

21 Then the people, Israel, divided into parties: half the people backed Tibni the son of Ginath to make him king, and half backed 22 'Omri. And the party backing 'Omri was too strong for the party backing Tibni; and Tibni and his brother Joram died at that time, and 'Omri became king at Tirsah.

23 In the year thirty-one of King Asa of Judah, 'Omri became king over Israel for a reign of twelve years: he reigned at Tirsah six years, 24 and he bought the plateau of Samaria from Shemer for two hundred-weight of silver, and fortified the plateau, and named the city that he built after Shemer, the owner of the plateau, "Shamaria" or 25 Samaria. And 'Omri did what displeased Jehovah, and did worse 26 than all who had gone before him; and he walked altogether in the path of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sins that he caused Israel to commit, provoking Israel's God Jehovah with their super-27 stitions. And as to the rest of the history of 'Omri, and all that he did, and his exploits, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of 28 Israel. And 'Omri went to rest with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria, and his son Ahab succeeded him.

29 And Ahab the son of 'Omri became king over Israel in the year thirty-eight of King Asa of Judah; and Ahab the son of 'Omri reigned 30 over Israel at Samaria for twenty-two years. And Ahab the son of 'Omri did more to displease Jehovah than all who had gone before 31 him: his walking in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat was the slightest part; he married Jezebel, the daughter of King Ethbaal of the Phenicians, and went and worshiped the Baal and did reverence 32 to him, and erected an altar to the Baal in the Baal's house that he 33 built in Samaria. And Ahab made the asherah; and Ahab kept on doing things to provoke Israel's God Jehovah more than all the kings of Israel that had gone before him.

34 In his days Ahiel the Bethelite fortified Jericho; he laid its foundation with his oldest son Abiram, and set up its gates with his youngest son Segub, in accordance with Jehovah's prediction which he had made by Joshua' the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17

1 And Elijah the Tishbite (from Tishbe in Gilead) said to Ahab
"By Israel's God Jehovah, in whose service I am, there shall not be 2 dew nor rain these years except at my word." And Jehovah's word 3 came to him "Go from here and turn eastward, and conceal yourself 4 in Kerith Arroyo, which fronts the Jordan: you shall drink from the arroyo, and I have ordered the ravens to furnish you food there." 5 And Elijah did as Jehovah said, and went and lived in Kerith Arroyo, 6 which fronts the Jordan; and the ravens brought him bread in the morning and meat in the evening, and he drank from the arroyo.

7 But after some time the arroyo dried up, because there was no rain 8 9 in the country. And Jehovah's word came to him "Go away to Sarephath, which belongs to Sidon: I have ordered a widow there to fur-10 nish you food." And he went away to Sarephath, and came to the entrance of the city and found there a widow gathering wood; and he called to her "Get me a little water in the dipper to drink," 11 and she went to get it; and he called after her "Get me a bit of bread 12 and bring it in your hand," but she said "By your God Jehovah, I haven't a biscuit, but a handful of meal in the jar and a little oil in the jug; and here I am gathering a couple of sticks, and am going in to cook it for me and my children, and we are going to eat it and 13 die." And Elijah said to her "Do not be afraid: go in and do as you say, only make me a little biscuit out of it first and bring it out to me, and cook for yourself and your children afterward; for, says Israel's God Jehovah, the jar of meal will not give out, nor the jug of oil run short, till the day that Jehovah sends showers over the soil."

And she went and did as Elijah said, and had enough to eat, she and he and her family, for some time: the jar of meal did not give out nor the jug of oil run short, in accordance with Jehovah's promise which he had given by Elijah.

But after these events the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick, and it went hard with him, till he ceased to breathe. And she said to Elijah "What business had you with me, man of God? you came to me to draw God's attention to my offenses, and to kill my son!" And he said to her "Give me your son," and took him out of her arms and carried him up to the roof-chamber he was living in, and laid him on his bed, and called out to Jehovah "My God Jehovah, have you even been harming the widow I am staying with, by causing the death of her son?" And he stretched himself full length on the child three times, and called out to Jehovah "My God Jehovah, let this child's soul come back into him"; and Jehovah obeyed Elijah, and the child's soul came back into him and he revived. And Elijah took the child and carried him down from the roof-chamber to the house and gave him to his mother, and said "See, your son is alive." And the woman said to Elijah "Now I know you are a man of God, and Jehovah's word in your mouth is truth."

And after a long time Jehovah's word came to Elijah, in the third year, "Go and appear before Ahab, so that I may send rain over the soil"; and Elijah went to appear before Ahab.

And the famine was pressing hard in Samaria; and Ahab called 'Obadiah the steward of the palace ('Obadiah was a great fearer of Jehovah: when Jezebel exterminated Jehovah's prophets, 'Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them fifty in a cave, and furnished them bread and water), and Ahab said to 'Obadiah "Come, let us go through the country to all the springs and arroyos; perhaps we may find grass and save the life of pony and mule, and not be deprived of the race of cattle." And they divided the country between them to go over: Ahab went one way and 'Obadiah went by himself another way.

And as 'Obadiah was on his way he found Elijah coming to meet him; and he recognized him and threw himself down on his face and said "Is this your reverence, Elijah?" and he said to him "Yes; go tell your master 'here is Elijah.'" And he said "What wrong have I done, that you are giving your servant into Ahab's hands to be put to death? By your God Jehovah, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to look for you; and they would say 'not here,' and he would take an oath of the kingdom or nation that 11 they did not find you. And now you say 'Go tell your master "here 12 is Elijah"' ; and while I go from you Jehovah's spirit will lift you away I do not know where, and I shall come to tell Ahab and he will not find you and will kill me; but your servant has been a fearer of 13 Jehovah from boyhood. Has your reverence not been told what I did when Jezebel was killing Jehovah's prophets, and I hid a hundred of Jehovah's prophets, fifty in a cave, and furnished them bread and 14 water? and now you say 'Go tell your master "here is Elijah,"' and 15 he will kill me." And Elijah said "By Jehovah of Armies, in whose service I am, today I will show myself to him."

16 And 'Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to 17 meet Elijah. And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him "Is that 18 you, you trouble-breeder of Israel?" and he said "I have not bred trouble for Israel; it is you and your family that have, in leaving 19 Jehovah and going after the Baals. But now send and gather to meet me at Mount Carmel all Israel, and the four hundred and fifty prophets of the Baal and the four hundred prophets of the asherah who eat from Jezebel's table.

20 And Ahab sent all through Israel and gathered all the prophets 21 at Mount Carmel. And Elijah came up to all the people and said "Till when will you limp along on both conceptions? if Jehovah is God follow him, and if the Baal, follow him"; and the people gave him 22 not a word of answer. And Elijah said to the people "I am the only prophet of Jehovah left, and of the Baal's prophets there are four 23 hundred and fifty men. Then let them give us two steers, and let them choose themselves one steer and cut it up and lay it on the wood, and not put in any fire, and I will prepare one steer and not put in any 24 fire; and you shall call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Jehovah, and the god that answers with fire is God."
And all the people answered "All right."

25 And Elijah said to the prophets of the Baal "Choose yourselves one steer and prepare it first, because there are more of you, and call 26 on the name of your god, but do not put in any fire." And they took the steer and prepared it, and called on the name of the Baal from morning till noon, "Baal, answer us!" without getting a sound of 27 answer, and hobbled along by the altar they had made. And at noon Elijah derided them and said "Call loud, because he is a god—because he is occupied with his private concerns—because he is 28 gone on an expedition—maybe he is asleep and will wake up"; and they called loudly and hacked themselves with swords and lances 29 in their fashion till blood flowed over them. And through the afternoon they were under the power till time for making the offering, without getting a sound of answer or attention.

30 And Elijah said to all the people "Come here to me"; and all the people came to him; and he mended the broken-down altar of Jehovah.
31 And Elijah took twelve stones, equal in number to the tribes of the sons of Jacob to whom came Jehovah's word "Your name shall be 32 Israel," and built the stones into an altar in Jehovah's name, and made a trench, taking in room for about three pecks of seed, around 33 the altar, and laid the wood and cut up the steer and laid it on the wood, and said "Fill four jars with water and pour it over the burnt-34 offering and the wood"; and they did so. And he said "Do it again"; and they did it again. And he said "Do it the third time"; and they 35 did it the third time, and the water ran around the altar, and he 36 filled the trench with water too. And at offering-making the prophet Elijah approached it and said "Jehovah, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be recognized that you are God in Israel and I am 37 your servant, and it was at your word I did all these things. Answer me, Jehovah, answer me, and let this people know that you, Jehovah, 38 are God, and it was you who turned their hearts backward." And Jehovah's fire fell and consumed the burnt-offering and the wood and 39 the stones and the soil, and licked up the water in the trench; and all the people saw and threw themselves down on their faces and 40 said "Jehovah is God, Jehovah is God." And Elijah said to them "Get hold of the prophets of the Baal; do not let a single man escape"; and they seized them, and Elijah took them down to Kishon Arroyo and cut their throats there.

41 And Elijah said to Ahab "Go up, eat and drink, because there is 42 a roaring of rain in the air"; and Ahab went up to eat and drink.
And Elijah went up on the top of Carmel and crouched on the ground 43 and put his face between his knees, and said to his man "Go up and look toward the west"; and he went up and looked, and said "There 44 isn't anything," and he said "Go again," seven times. And at the seventh time he said "Here is a little cloud like a man's hand coming up in the west"; and he said "Go up and tell Ahab 'Harness and go 45 down, so the rain will not keep you back.'" And before long the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain; and 46 Ahab rode to Jezre'el, but Jehovah's hand was on Elijah and he girded his waist and ran before Ahab clear to Jezre'el.

CHAPTER 19

1 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and all about 2 his putting all the prophets to the sword; and Jezebel sent Elijah the message "If you are Elijah and I am Jezebel, the gods do so and more but right off tomorrow I will make your life like the life of one 3 of them." And he was afraid, and went off for his life; and he came to 4 Beer-Sheba', which belongs to Judah, and left his man there, while he went into the wilderness a day's journey. And he came and sat down under a broom-bush and begged to die, and said "It is too much: now, Jehovah, take my life, for I am not better than my fathers." 5 And he lay down and went to sleep under a broom-bush, and found 6 someone touching him and saying "Get up and eat." And he looked, and there at his head were an ash-cake and a jug of water; and he 7 ate and drank and lay down. And the Angel of Jehovah touched him again for the second time, and said "Get up and eat, because the 8 journey is too long for you"; and he got up and ate and drank, and went, by the strength from that meal, forty days and forty nights, 9 to Mount Horeb, and went into the cave there and spent the night there.

And he found Jehovah's word coming to him, "What are you here 10 for, Elijah?" And he said "I am jealous on behalf of Jehovah the God of Armies because the sons of Israel have left you: they have demolished your altars and put your prophets to the sword; I am the only one left, and they are hunting for my life and meaning to get it."

And he said "Go out and stand on the mountainside before Jeho-11 vah"; and he found Jehovah passing by, and a great hard wind tearing up mountains and breaking cliffs in pieces before Jehovah, Jehovah not in the wind, and after the wind an earthquake, Jehovah not in 12 the earthquake, and after the earthquake a fire, Jehovah not in the fire, and after the fire a sound of soft whispering. And when Elijah 13 heard it he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave, and found a voice addressing him, "What 14 are you here for, Elijah?" and he said "I am jealous on behalf of Jehovah the God of Armies because the sons of Israel have left you:
they have demolished your altars and put your prophets to the sword;
I am the only one left, and they are hunting for my life and meaning to get it."

And Jehovah said to him "Go take the road again, to the wilderness 15 of Damascus, and go in and anoint Hazael for king over Syria. And 16 Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint for king over Israel, and Elisha' the son of Shaphat from Abel-Meholah you shall anoint for 17 your own successor; and him who escapes Hazael's sword Jehu shall bring to his death, and him who escapes Jehu's sword Elisha' shall 18 bring to his death; and I will leave in Israel seven thousand, all the knees that have never bent to the Baal and all the mouths that have never kissed him."

And he went from there and found Elisha' the son of Shaphat, 19 who was plowing with twelve yoke in front of him, himself with the twelfth; and Elijah went over to him and threw his mantle to him.
20 And he left the cattle and ran after Elijah and said "Let me kiss my father and mother and follow you"; and he said "Go on back: what 21 have I done to you?" And he went back from following him, and took the yoke of cattle and slaughtered them and boiled them with the woodwork of the team and gave the meat to the company, and they ate it; and he went off following Elijah and waiting on him.

1 And King Ben-Hadad of Syria gathered all his forces and came 2 up and besieged Samaria, and sent into the city to King Ahab of 3 Israel and told him "Says Ben-Hadad, Your silver and gold are mine, 4 and the best of your wives and children are mine"; and the king of 5 Israel answered "As your majesty says, I and everything I have 6 are yours." And the messengers came again and said "Says Ben-Hadad, I sent to tell you you should give me your silver and gold and wives and children; but right off tomorrow I will send my officers to you and they shall search your house and the houses of your subjects, and help themselves to whatever you especially care for and take it."

7 And the king of Israel summoned all the elders and said to them "Look and see for yourselves, the man is after mischief; for he had sent to me for my wives and children and my silver and gold, and 8 I had not refused." And all the elders and all the people said to him 9 "Do not consent nor obey." And he said to Ben-Hadad's messengers "Tell his majesty 'Everything that you sent to me about at first I will do, but this thing I cannot' "; and the messengers went and took 10 the reply back to him. And Ben-Hadad sent word to him "The gods do so to me, and more, if the dust in Samaria will suffice for handfuls 11 for all the people at my back"; and the king of Israel answered "That will do: a man fastening his belt should not brag like a man 12 unfastening it." And when he heard these words as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the booths, he said to his officers "Invest"; and they invested the city.

13 And a prophet approached King Ahab of Israel and said "Says Jehovah, Have you seen all this great host? I am giving it into your 14 hands today, and you shall know that I am Jehovah." And Ahab said "By whom?" and he said "Says Jehovah, by the attendants of the lieutenants of the provinces." And he said "Who shall take the 15 initiative?" and he said "You." And he mustered the attendants of the lieutenants of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two of them; and behind them he mustered all the people, all 16 the sons of Israel, seven thousand of them. And they went out at noon, while Ben-Hadad was getting drunk in the booths, he and the kings; 17 and the attendants of the lieutenants of the provinces went out first, and they sent and told him "Some men have come out of Samaria." 18 And he said "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and 19 if they have come out for war, take them alive." And these came out of the city, the attendants of the lieutenants of the provinces and 20 the forces that were behind them, and each killed his man, and the Syrians took flight and the Israelites pursued them; and King Ben-21 Hadad of Syria made his escape on a pony, and some horsemen. And the king of Israel went out and took the ponies and the chariots, 22 and made great havoc among the Syrians. And the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him "Go make provisions, and have your mind made up what to do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria is coming up against you."

23 And the officers of the king of Syria said to him "Their gods are mountain gods; that is why they were too strong for us; but let us fight them in the plain and see if we shall not be too strong for them.
24 And take this course: remove the kings from their places and appoint 25 viceroys instead, and yourself count off a force equal to the one that deserted you, with pony for pony and chariot for chariot, and let us fight them in the plain and see if we shall not be too strong for them"; and the king of Syria listened to them and did so.

26 And at the return of the year Ben-Hadad mustered the Syrians and 27 came up to Aphek to fight Israel, and the sons of Israel were mustered and provisioned and went to meet them; and the sons of Israel camped facing them, like two bunches of stray goats, while the Syrians filled 28 the country. And the man of God approached the king and said "Says Jehovah, Since the Syrians say 'Jehovah is a god of the mountains and not of the vales,' I will give all this great host into 29 your hands, and you shall know that I am Jehovah." And they camped face to face for seven days; and on the seventh day battle was joined, and the sons of Israel defeated the Syrians, killing a 30 hundred thousand infantry in one day; and the survivors fled into the city of Aphek, and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand survivors.

31 And Ben-Hadad fled and went into a closet. And his officers said to him "See here, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are kindly kings: let us put sackcloths round our waists and ropes round our heads and go out to the king of Israel; he may spare your 32 life." And they tied sackcloths round their waists and ropes round their heads and came to the king of Israel, and said "Your servant Ben-Hadad says 'Spare my life.'" And he said "Is he still alive? he 33 is my brother." And the men, catching at the token, held him to his word at once and said "Ben-Hadad is your brother!" And he said "Go in and fetch him"; and Ben-Hadad came out to him, and he took 34 him up into the chariot. And he said to him "The cities my father took from your father I will give back, and you shall establish bazars for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria." "And on these terms I will let you go." And he made a treaty with him and let him go.

35 And a man who belonged to the prophets' fellowship said to his friend, by Jehovah's direction, "Knock me down"; but the man refused to do it, and he said to him "Since you did not obey Jehovah, when you go from me a lion is going to bring you down"; and he went away from him, and a lion did find him and brought him down.
37 And he found another man and said to him "Knock me down"; and 38 the man knocked him down, drawing blood on him. And the prophet went and stood in the way of the king, and disguised himself with a 39 bandage over his eyes; and as the king passed by he cried out to the king and said "Your servant went out into the fight, and a man stepped out and brought a man to me and said 'Guard this man; if he is missing it shall be your life for his, or you shall pay a hundred-weight of silver.' And then your servant was doing things in one place and another—and he was gone." And the king of Israel said to him "That is your sentence; you have made the award yourself."

41 And instantly he took the bandage off from over his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as being one of the prophets; and he said to him "Says Jehovah, Since you have let out of your hands the man I claimed for death without quarter, it shall be your life and

42

43 your people for his." And the king of Israel went on sullen and exasperated, and came to Samaria.

CHAPTER 21

1 And it befell after these events that Naboth the Jezre'elite had a vineyard beside the palace of King Ahab of Samaria, and Ahab spoke to Naboth and said "Give me your vineyard so that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is close to my house; and I will give you a better vineyard instead; if you prefer, I will pay you the price of this one in money"; and Naboth said to Ahab "Jehovah forbid the thought of my giving you my family estate." And Ahab came home sullen and exasperated over the words of Naboth the Jezre'elite had spoken to him, "I will not give you my family estate," and took to his bed and turned his face to the wall and ate no food.

3 And his wife Jezebel went into his room and said to him "What does it mean that your spirit has gone and you are eating no food?"

4

5 And he told her "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezre'elite and said 'Give me your vineyard for money, or, if you like, I will give you a vineyard instead of it,' and he said 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" And his wife Jezebel said to him "And it is you that are exercising the royal power over Israel now! Get up, eat food and

6

7 be gay; I will give you Naboth the Jezre'elite's vineyard." And she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and gentry that lived where Naboth did; and in the letters she wrote "Proclaim a fast, and have Naboth sit at the head of the people, and have two blackguards sit down in his presence and testify against him 'You cursed God and the king'; and take him out and stone him to death." And the men of his city, the elders and gentry who were residents in his city, did as Jezebel had sent them word to, as was written in the letters she sent them: proclaimed a fast, and had Naboth sit at the head of the people, and in came the two blackguards and sat down in his presence and testified against him "Naboth cursed God and the king," and they took him outside the city and stoned him to death; and they sent Jezebel word "Naboth has been stoned to death." And when Jezebel heard that Naboth had

10 11 12

13

been stoned to death Jezebel said to Ahab "Get up and take possession of Naboth the Jezre'elite's vineyard, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, he has died." And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose to go down to Naboth the Jezre'elite's vineyard to take possession of it.

17 18 And Jehovah's word came to Elijah the Tishbite "Go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, of Samaria; you will find him in Naboth's vineyard, which he has gone down to take possession of; and tell him 'Says Jehovah, You murdered and got possession, did you?' and tell him 'Says Jehovah, In the place where the hogs and dogs lapped Naboth's blood the dogs shall lap your own blood too.'" And Ahab said to Elijah "Found me, have you, enemy?" and he said "Yes; since you have sold yourself to do mischief that displeases Jehovah, I am bringing mischief to you, and will rout you out and will exterminate every male person that belongs to Ahab, barred and unbarred in Israel, and make your family like the families of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and Ba'asha the son of Ahijah, for the affronts you gave me, and causing Israel to sin. And Jehovah spoke of Jezebel too, and said 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel on Jezre'el common.' Whoever of Ahab's dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and whoever dies in the country the birds of the air shall eat." No one at all was like Ahab, who sold himself to do what displeased Jehovah, his wife Jezebel instigating him; and he went after fetishes most abominably, just as the Amorites had done, whom Jehovah dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

27 And when Ahab heard these words he tore his clothes and put a sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and slept in the sackcloth, and 28 29 walked softly; and Jehovah's word came to Elijah the Tishbite "Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before me? since he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the mischief in his days: in his son's days I will bring the mischief upon his house."

1 And they remained three years without war between Syria and 2 Israel; but in the third year King Jehoshaphat of Judah came down 3 to the king of Israel, and the king of Israel said to his officers "Do you know that Ramoth-Gilead belongs to us? and we are lying still 4 instead of taking it out of the king of Syria's hands." And he said to Jehoshaphat "Will you go with me to Ramoth-Gilead to war?" and Jehoshaphat said "I will do the same as you do, my people the same as your people, my ponies the same as your ponies."

5 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel "First inquire for 6 Jehovah's word"; and the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about four hundred of them, and said to them "Shall I go against Ramoth-Gilead to war or shall I let it be?" and they said "Go up and Jehovah will give it into your majesty's hands."

7 And Jehoshaphat said "Is there not any other prophet of Jehovah 8 here for us to inquire from?" And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat "There is one other man to inquire of Jehovah from, but I hate him because he does not prophesy good luck for me but bad—Micajah the son of Imlah." And Jehoshaphat said "Do not say 9 such things, your majesty." And the king of Israel called to a eunuch 10 and said "Hurry up with Micajah the son of Imlah." And the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting each on his throne, clad in robes of state, at the gate of Samaria, with all the 11 prophets under the power before them. And Sidkijah the son of Kena'anah made himself iron horns, and said "Says Jehovah, With these you shall gore the Syrians till you have finished them"; and 12 all the prophets prophesied so, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and be successful, Jehovah will give it into your majesty's hands." And the 13 messenger who went to summon Micajah told him "Here the prophets have unanimously spoken good luck for the king; let your word be 14 like the word of one of them, speak good luck"; but Micajah said "By Jehovah, what Jehovah tells me, that I will speak."

15 And he came to the king, and the king said to him "Micajah, shall I go to Ramoth-Gilead to war or shall I let it be?" and he said to him "Go up and be successful, Jehovah will give it into your majesty's 16 hands." And the king said to him "How many times shall I adjure you not to speak anything at all but truth to me in Jehovah's name?"
17 And he said "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep without a shepherd, and Jehovah said 'These have no sovereign; let them go home in peace.'"

18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat "Did I not tell you 19 he would not prophesy good luck for me but bad?" And he said "Hear Jehovah's word, then! I saw Jehovah sitting on his throne, 20 and all the legions of heaven stood by at his right and left, and Jehovah said 'Who will inveigle Ahab into going up and falling at Ramoth-Gilead?' And one said this way and another that way; but the Spirit 21 stood out before Jehovah and said 'I will inveigle him,' and Jehovah said 'In what way?' and it said 'I will go out and be a spirit of falsehood in the mouths of all his prophets.' And he said 'You shall 22 inveigle him and be successful in it; go out and do so.' Now here has Jehovah put a spirit of falsehood in the mouths of all these prophets 23 of yours, but Jehovah proposes bad luck for you." And Sidkijah the son of Kena'anah came up and struck Micajah on the cheek and said 24 "Where did Jehovah's spirit pass from me to speak with you?" and Micajah said "You are going to see on that day, you will be getting 25 into a closet to hide." And the king of Israel said "Take Micajah and take him back to City Captain Amon and Prince Joash and say 'By 26 order of the king, put this fellow in jail and feed him half rations of bread and water till I come safe here.'" And Micajah said "If 27 you do come back safe, Jehovah did not speak in me."

29 And the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up 30 to Ramoth-Gilead; and the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat "I disguise myself and go into the fighting; but do you wear your robes of state"; and the king of Israel disguised himself and went into 31 the fighting. And the king of Syria had given his chariot-captains, thirty-two of them, the order "Do not attack small or great but only 32 the king of Israel"; and when the chariot-captains saw Jehoshaphat, thinking it must be the king of Israel, they turned off against him 33 to attack him; and Jehoshaphat called out, and when the chariot-captains saw that it was not the king of Israel they turned back and left off following him.

34 And a man drew his bow at haphazard and hit the king of Israel between the tassets and the hauberk; and he said to his charioteer "Turn your ponies and take me out of the army, for I am hard hit"; 35 but the fight ran high that day, and the king was kept standing in the chariot facing the Syrians till evening, and the blood ran down 36 into the bottom of the chariot; and at evening he died. And a cry went through the army at sunset "Every man to his own city, and 37 each to his own country; for the king is dead!" And they came to 38 Samaria, and buried the king at Samaria. And the chariot was washed at the reservoir of Samaria; and the dogs lapped up his blood, and the prostitutes bathed, in accordance with Jehovah's prediction which he had made.

39 And as to the rest of the history of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house that he built, and all the cities he fortified, they are 40 recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And Ahab went to rest with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the 42 year four of King Ahab of Israel; Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned twenty-five years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
43 And he walked altogether in the path of his father Asa, never turned 44 from it, doing what Jehovah approved; only the heights were not removed, the people still sacrificed and made burnings on the heights.
45 46 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. And as to the rest of the history of Jehoshaphat, and the exploits he performed, 47 they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And Jehoshaphat routed out from the country the rest of the religious 48 prostitutes that had been left in the days of his father Asa. And there 49 was no king in Edom; and King Jehoshaphat's commissioner made a Spain-ship to go to Ophir for gold, but did not go, because the 50 ship was wrecked at Ghesjon-Geber. Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat "Let my officers go with yours in the ship," but 51 Jehoshaphat would not consent. And Jehoshaphat went to rest with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's City, and his son Jehoram succeeded him.

52 Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the year twenty-four of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, and he reigned 53 over Israel two years. And he did what displeased Jehovah, and followed his father's path and his mother's, and the path of Jeroboam 54 the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, and worshiped the Baal and did reverence to him, and provoked Israel's God Jehovah just as his father had done.

Book Second

1 And Moab rebelled against Israel after Ahab's death.

2 And Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his roof-chamber in Samaria, and suffered internal injuries; and he sent men with the commission "Go inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of 'Ekron whether I shall 3 recover from this ailment of mine." And the Angel of Jehovah told Elijah the Tishbite "Go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them 'Is it for want of any such thing as a God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of 'Ekron?
4 therefore Jehovah says, The bed you have got into you shall not get out of, but die' "; and Elijah went away.

5 And the messengers went back to him, and he said to them "What 6 does your coming back mean?" and they said to him "A man came up to meet us and said to us 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him "Says Jehovah, Is it for want of any such thing as a God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of 'Ekron?
therefore the bed you have got into you shall not get out of, but 7 die.' " " And he said to them "What type of man was it that came 8 up to meet you and told you these things?" and they said to him "A hairy man with a leather breechclout tied round him"; and he said 9 "It is Elijah the Tishbite," and sent a captain of fifty for him, with his fifty.

And he went up to him and found him sitting on a mountaintop, 10 and told him "Man of God, the king has spoken: come down." And Elijah answered the captain of fifty "Well, if I am a man of God, let fire come down out of the sky and consume you and your fifty";
and it did.

11 And he tried again and sent another captain of fifty for him, with his fifty; and he told him "Man of God, by order of the king, come 12 down at once"; and Elijah answered him "If I am a man of God, let fire come down out of the sky and consume you and your fifty";
and it did.

13 And he tried again and sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty; and the third captain of fifty came and knelt in Elijah's presence and made his petition to him in the words "Man of God, please regard 14 my life and the lives of these servants of yours as of value; fire has

- come down out of the sky and consumed the two other captains of 15 fifties; but now regard my life as of value." And the Angel of Jehovah told Elijah "Go down with him, do not be afraid of him"; and he 16 rose and went down with him to the king, and told him "Says Jehovah, Since you sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of 'Ekron, therefore the bed you have got into you shall not get out of, 17 but die." And he died in accordance with Jehovah's prediction that Elijah gave.
- 18 And as to the rest of the history of Ahaziah, what he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 And when Jehovah was taking Elijah up to the sky in a tempest, 2 Elijah and Elisha' went out from the Gilgal, and Elijah said to Elisha' "Stay here, because Jehovah has sent me to Bethel"; and Elisha' said "By Jehovah and by your life, I will not leave you"; 3 and they went down to Bethel. And the members of the prophets' fellowship at Bethel came out to Elisha' and said to him "Do you know that today Jehovah is taking away your master from over you?" 4 and he said "I know it myself: don't talk." And Elijah said to him "Elisha', stay here, because Jehovah has sent me to Jericho"; and he said "By Jehovah and by your life, I will not leave you"; and they 5 came to Jericho. And the members of the prophets' fellowship at Jericho approached Elisha' and said to him "Do you know that today Jehovah is taking away your master from over you?" and he said "I 6 know it myself; don't talk." And Elijah said to him "Stay here, because Jehovah has sent me to the Jordan"; and he said "By Jehovah 7 and by your life, I will not leave you"; and the two went on. And fifty men, members of the prophets' fellowship, went and stood opposite at a distance.
- 8 And the two stopped by the Jordan; and Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up and struck the water, and the water split apart 9 and the two went across dry-shod. And when they had gone across, Elijah said to Elisha' "Ask for what I shall do for you before I am taken from you"; and Elisha' said "Let a double portion of your 10 spirit come to me." And he said "You have asked for a hard thing:
if you see me taken from you, have it so; and if not, you shall not." 11 And as they went on, talking as they went, in came chariots of fire and ponies of fire and separated the two, and Elijah went up to the 12 sky in a tempest, with Elisha' looking on and crying out "Father, father, Israel's chariots and cavalry!"—and he saw no more of him.
And he took hold of his clothes and tore them in two.
- 13 And he took up Elijah's mantle, which had fallen off him, and went 14 back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. And he took Elijah's mantle which had fallen off him and struck the water, and said
"Where is Elijah's God Jehovah, O where?" and he struck the water,

- 15 and the water split apart and Elisha' went across. And the members of the prophets' fellowship at Jericho saw it, and said "Elijah's spirit rests on Elisha'," and came to meet him and put their heads to 16 the ground in reverence to him; and they said to him "Here, your servants have with them fifty stalwart men: let them go and look for your master, in case Jehovah's spirit should have lifted him away and thrown him on one of the mountains or in one of the valleys." 17 And he said "You shall not send." But they urged him till it grew awkward, and he said "Send them"; and they sent fifty men, and they 18 searched three days, but did not find him. And they came back to him, while he was staying at Jericho; and he said to them "Did I not tell you 'Do not go?'" 19 And the men of the city said to Elisha' "Here, the site of the city is good, as you see, but the water is bad and the country goes childless." 20 And he said "Fetch me a new saucer, and put salt in it"; and they 21 fetched it to him. And he went out to where the water gushed out and threw in salt and said "Says Jehovah, I make this water whole-22 some: there shall no longer be disease and childlessness from it." And the water became wholesome and remains so to this day, in accordance with the promise given by Elisha'.
23 And he went up from there to Bethel. And as he was on the way up, small boys came out of a city and giped at him, and said to him 24 "Go up, baldhead; go up, baldhead"; and he turned round and saw them, and cursed them in Jehovah's name. And two she-bears came 25 out of the Badlands and mangled forty-two children there. And from Bethel he went to Mount Carmel, and from there back to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 And Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the year eighteen of Jehoshaphat as king of Judah, and he reigned 2 twelve years. And he did what displeased Jehovah, only not like his father and mother: he removed the Baal obelisk that his father had 3 made; only he stuck to the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; he did not turn from it.
4 And King Mesha' of Moab was a breeder of short-legged sheep, and had been paying the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and 5 a hundred thousand rams in wool; but when Ahab died the king of 6 Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. And King Jehoram went out of Samaria on that day and mustered the Israelites and went.
7 And he sent word to King Ahaziah of Judah "The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you go to Moab with me for the war?" And he said "Yes, I will do the same as you do, my people the same as your people, my ponies the same as your ponies." 8 And he said "Which way shall we go up?" and he said "By way 9 of the wilderness of Edom"; and the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of Edom went. And they made a seven days' circuit; and there was no water for the army and for the beasts in the rear. And the king of Israel said "O, O! Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hands of the Moabites!" And the king of Judah said "Is there no prophet of Jehovah's here for us to inquire of Jehovah from?" and one of the king of Israel's officers answered "Elisha' the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on Elijah's hands." And the king of Judah said "He has Jehovah's word with him"; and the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of Edom went down to him.

And Elisha' said to the king of Israel "What business have you with me? go to your father's prophets and to your mother's." And the king of Israel said to him "Do not say that, because Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hands of the Moabites." And Elisha' said "By Jehovah of Armies, in whose service I am, if it were not that I am willing to favor the king of Judah I would not look at you nor see you. But now get me a musician." (When the musician played, Jehovah's hand would be on him.) And he said "Says Jehovah, Make this arroyo all trenches. For, says Jehovah, you shall not see wind nor rain, but this arroyo shall be filled with water, and you and your armies and your beasts shall drink. And Jehovah looks on this as too trifling a thing: he will give the Moabites into your hands, and you shall sack every fortified city, and fell every good tree, and choke up all springs of water, and gall every piece of good ground with stones."

And in the morning, at the time for making the offering, water was coming from the direction of Edom, and the ground was filled with water. And all the Moabites had heard that the kings had gone up to fight them, and they had come out in arms, everyone who was old enough to wear a belt, and were standing at the boundary; and the first thing in the morning, the sun having risen on the water, the Moabites saw the water over there looking red like blood, and said "That is blood; the kings have been and fallen foul of each other and killed each other off: now to the plunder, Moab!" and they came into the Israelite camp. And the Israelites rose to their feet and attacked the Moabites, and they ran from them. And they went in, killing the Moabites as they went in, and demolishing the cities, and throwing a stone apiece on every lot of good ground and filling it, and choking up every spring of water, and felling every good tree, till they left the walls of Kir-Haresheth standing. But the slingers surrounded it and beat it up; and the king of Moab saw that the fighting was too hard for him, and he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not. And he took his eldest son, who was to succeed him, and offered him as a burnt-offering on the wall; and there came great wrath over Israel, and they moved away, raising the siege, and went back to their own country.

1 And a certain woman, the widow of a member of the prophets' fellowship, complained to Elisha' "Your servant my husband is dead; and you know your servant was a fearer of Jehovah; and a creditor 2 has come to take my two boys for slaves." And Elisha' said to her "What shall I do for you? Tell me what you have in the house." And she said "Your servant has nothing at all in the house but a flask 3 of oil." And he said "Go borrow jars from outside, from all your 4 neighbors—empty jars; don't scrimp yourself. And go in and shut the door on yourself and your sons, and pour oil into those jars, 5 and set aside what gets full." And she went from him and did so; and she shut the door on herself and her sons, they bringing to her 6 and she pouring; and when the jars were full she said to her son "Bring me another jar," and he said to her "There isn't any," and 7 the oil stopped. And she came and told the man of God, and he said "Go sell the oil and pay your debt, and maintain your sons on what is left."

8 And one day Elisha' went over to Shunem; and there was a wealthy woman there, who detained him to take a meal; and it came about 9 that as often as he went past he turned in to take a meal. And she said to her husband "Here, I have found out that he is a holy man 10 of God who is always passing by us: let us make a little upper room on the wall, and put a bed and a table and a chair and a lamp there for him, and have him turn in there when he comes to us."

11 And one day he came there and turned in to the upper room and 12 slept there. And he said to his man Gehazi "Call this Shunammite lady"; and he called her, and she came standing before him, and he 13 said to him "Say to her 'Here you have taken all this trouble for us—what has to be done for you? have you occasion for my speaking to the king or the general?'"—and she said "I live among my own people."
14 And he said "Well, what is there to do for her?" and Gehazi said 15 "Why, she has no son, and her husband is old." And he said "Call her"; and he called her, and she came standing in the doorway, and 16 he said "At this season next year you shall be embracing a son"; and she said "Don't, sir, don't lie to your servant." And the woman 17 conceived, and had a son at the season Elisha' had promised her.

18 And the child grew; and one day he went out to his father where the reapers were. And he said to his father "My head, my head!" 19 and he said to a man "Carry him to his mother." And he took him up and brought him to his mother; and he sat in her lap till noon, 20 and then died. And she went up and laid him on the man of God's 21 bed, and shut the door on him, and went out and called to her husband "Send me one of the boys and one of the donkeys, to make a quick 22 run to the man of God and back." And he said "How is it you are going to him? it is neither new moon nor sabbath today"; but she 23 said "It is all right." And she saddled the donkey and said to her 24

boy "Drive ahead; do not slow down the pace unless I tell you to"; 25 and off she went, and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her in the distance he said to his man 26 Gehazi "Here is yonder Shunammite lady: now run to meet her, and ask her 'Are you all right? is your husband all right? is the child all 27 right?'" And she said "Yes," and came to the mountain to the man of God and took hold of his feet. And Gehazi approached to push her away; but the man of God said "Let her alone, because she has an aching heart and Jehovah has left me in the dark and not told me." 28 And she said "Did I ask you for a son, sir? didn't I say 'don't delude me'?"

29 And he said to Gehazi "Belt yourself up and take my staff in your hand, and go: when you find a man do not bless him, and when a man blesses you do not answer him; and lay my staff on the boy's 30 face." And the boy's mother said "By Jehovah and by your life, I 31 will not leave you"; and he rose and followed her. And Gehazi went over before them and laid the staff on the boy's face, but he made no sound and took no notice; and he came back to meet him and told him the boy had not waked up.

32 And Elisha' came to the house and found the boy dead, lying on 33 his bed. And he went in and shut the door on the two of them, and 34 prayed to Jehovah; and he got up on the bed and lay down on the child, and laid his mouth on his, and his eyes on his, and his hands 35 on his, and crouched over him; and the child's flesh grew warm. And he walked again the length of the house and back, and got up and crouched over him; and the boy sneezed seven times and opened his 36 eyes. And he called Gehazi and said "Call this Shunammite lady"; and he called her, and she came to him, and he said "Take up your 37 son." And she went in and threw herself down at his feet and put her head to the ground in reverence, and took up her son and went out.

38 And Elisha' went back to the Gilgal, and the famine was in the country. And the members of the prophets' fellowship were sitting before him; and he said to his man "Put the great pot on and stew a 39 mess for the fellowship." And one went out on the range to gather greens, and found a vine and gathered his cloak full of gourds from it, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, because they did 40 not know them. And they poured it out for the men; and when they ate some of the stew they cried out "There is death in the pot, man 41 of God," and could not eat it. And he said "Then get meal"; and he threw it into the pot and said "Pour out for the people and let them eat"; and there was no harm in the pot.

42 And a man came from Baal-Shalishah and brought the man of God firstfruit-bread, twenty barley cakes and green ears of grain, 43 in his sack; and he said "Give it to the people to eat." And his attendant said "What, set this before a hundred men?" but he said
"Give it to the people and let them eat, for Jehovah says it will be a

- 44 case of eating and leaving.” And he set it before them, and they ate and left, in accordance with Jehovah’s promise.

CHAPTER 5

- 1 And Na’aman, the general of the Syrians, was an important man at court and influential, because by him Jehovah had given victory to 2 Syria; and the man became a leper. And the Syrians had gone out on raids and carried off out of the country of Israel a little girl, who 3 had come into the service of Na’aman’s wife; and she said to her mistress “I wish master was before the prophet in Samaria, then he 4 would restore him from his leprosy”; and he went in and told his sovereign “The girl out of the country of Israel spoke thus and so.”
5 And the king of Syria said “Go ahead, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel.” And he went, and took with him ten hundred-weight of silver and three thousand ounces of gold and ten suits of 6 clothes; and he brought the letter to the king of Israel, “and now, when this letter comes to you, here I have sent my officer Na’aman to you for you to restore him from his leprosy.”
- 7 And when the king of Israel read the letter he tore his clothes and said “Am I God, to send death and life, that this man is sending to me to restore a man from his leprosy? do just see for yourselves 8 how he is picking a quarrel with me.” And when Elisha’ heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes he sent word to the king “Why have you torn your clothes? let him come to me and he shall know 9 there is a prophet in Israel.” And Na’aman came with his ponies and 10 his chariots and halted at the door of Elisha’s house; and Elisha’ sent word to him “Go and bathe seven times in the Jordan, and you 11 shall have your flesh renew itself and become clean.” And Na’aman was incensed, and went off saying “Here I thought he was going to come out to me and stand and call on the name of his God and make 12 passes with his hand and restore the leprous. Are not Damascus’s rivers Abana and Parpar better than all the waters of Israel? might I not bathe in them and be clean?”—and he turned round and went 13 off in an angry mood. But his servants approached and spoke to him, saying “If the prophet had told you a great thing you would do it, would you not? how much more when he says to you ‘Bathe and be 14 clean’!” And he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times in accordance with Elisha’s words, and his flesh renewed itself like a little child’s and he became clean.
- 15 And he went back to Elisha’, he and all his brigade, and went in and stood before him and said “There, I have found out that there is no God anywhere on earth except in Israel: accept a token of good-will from your servant.” But he said “By Jehovah, in whose service I am, I will not.” And he urged him to accept it, but he refused.
17 And Na’aman said “If not, let your servant be given a mule-team-load of earth; for your servant will no longer make burnt-offerings or 18 sacrifices to other gods than Jehovah. For this matter may Jehovah pardon your servant, when my sovereign goes into Rimmon's house to do reverence there, leaning on my arm, and I do reverence in Rimmon's house when he does reverence in Rimmon's house, may 19 Jehovah pardon your servant in this matter." And he said to him "Go, and good betide you"; and he went from him a considerable way.

20 And Elisha's man Gehazi said "Here my master has let off this Syrian Na'aman, not taking at his hands what he brought; by Jehovah, 21 but I will run after him and have something from him"; and Gehazi gave chase to Na'aman. And Na'aman saw him running after him, and dropped from his chariot to meet him and said "Is all well?" 22 And he said "All is well. My master has sent me to say 'Here there have just now come to me two young men from the highland of Ephraim, members of the prophets' fellowship; please give me a 23 hundredweight of silver for them.'" And Na'aman said "Do take two hundredweight," and urged him, and tied up two hundredweight of silver in two bags and gave it to his two servants, and they carried 24 it before him. And he came to the castle hill and took it out of their hands and stowed it in the house, and dismissed the men; and they 25 went away, and he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha' said to him "Where have you been, Gehazi?" and he said "Your ser-26 vant did not go anywhere at all." And he said to him "No? my mind went when a man turned from his chariot to meet you. And now you have got the silver, and you have got clothes and olive-trees and 27 vineyards and sheep and cattle and slaves—and Na'aman's leprosy, sticking to you and your descendants forever." And he went out from before him a snowy leper.

1 And the members of the prophets' fellowship said to Elisha' "The 2 place where we are living before you is too cramped for us; let us go to the Jordan and get one timber apiece there and make ourselves 3 a residence there." And he said "Go." And one said "Do go with your 4 servants"; and he said "I will," and went with them; and they came 5 to the Jordan and cut the wood. And as one was felling a timber the iron ax-head dropped into the water; and he cried out "O, O, sir! and 6 it was borrowed!" And the man of God said "Where did it fall?"
 and he showed him the place. And he cut a stick and threw it there, 7 and it made the iron float; and he said "Pick it up," and he put out his hand and took it.

8 And the king of Syria was at war with Israel; and he concerted a plan with his officers, telling them "You will post yourselves in such 9 and such a place," and Elisha' sent word to the king of Israel "Keep 10 away from this place, because the Syrians are posted there," and the king of Israel sent to the place Elisha' had told him of; and he 11 warned him, and he kept away from there, not once or twice. And the king of Syria was in a fume over this, and called his officers and said to them "Will you not tell me which of our people is for the king of Israel?" and one of his officers said "No, your majesty, but Elisha", the prophet in Israel, tells the king of Israel the things you say in your bedroom." And he said "Go and see where he is, so that I can send and get him"; and they reported to him "He is at Dothan." And he sent there ponies and chariots and a formidable force, who came by night and encircled the city; and when Elisha rose and went out the first thing in the morning he found troops surrounding the city, and ponies and chariots; and his man said to him "O, O, sir, what shall we do?" But he said "Do not be afraid, because there are more on our side than on theirs." And Elisha prayed "Jehovah, open his eyes so that he will see"; and Jehovah opened the man's eyes so that he saw, and he found the mountain full of ponies with chariots of fire around Elisha'.

2 KINGS 5:18—6:11

And they came down to him; and Elisha' prayed to Jehovah "Strike these heathens with an illusion"; and he struck them with an illusion in accordance with Elisha's word. And Elisha' said to them "This is not the way nor the city; follow me and I will take you to the man you are looking for"—and he took them to Samaria. And when they came into Samaria Elisha' said "Jehovah, open these men's eyes so that they will see"; and Jehovah opened their eyes so that they saw, and they found themselves in the middle of Samaria. And the king of Israel said, when he saw them, "Shall I kill, shall I kill, father?" But he said "You shall not; do you kill those whom you have taken prisoners by your sword and your bow? set bread and water before them and let them eat and drink and go to their sovereign." And he brought out a great collation for them, and they ate and drank; and he sent them off to their sovereign. And no more Syrian raiders came into the country of Israel.

And after this King Ben-Hadad of Syria gathered his entire army and came up and besieged Samaria. And there was a great famine in Samaria: they besieged it till a donkey's head was priced at eighty shekels of silver and a pint of pigeons' droppings at five shekels. And as the king of Israel was passing along the wall, a woman called out to him "Help, your majesty!" And he said "Jehovah help you not! how should I help you? out of the threshing-floor or the wine-press?" And the king said to her "What is the matter?" and she said "This woman said to me 'Let us have your son to eat today, and we will eat mine tomorrow'; and we boiled my son and ate him. And next day I said to her 'Let us have your son to eat,' and she hid her son." And when the king heard the woman's story he tore his clothes as he was passing along the wall, and the people saw that he had a sackcloth underneath on his flesh. And he said "God do so to me, and more, if Elisha' the son of Shaphat keeps his head on his shoulders today"; and Elisha' was sitting in his house, and the elders sitting with him. And he sent one of the men he had before him; but when the messenger had not yet come to him he said to the elders "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take off my head? Look here: when the messenger comes, shut the door in his face; can 33 you not hear his master's feet behind him?" While he was still speaking with them the king made his appearance, and said "Here we have from Jehovah this disaster, why should I wait for Jehovah

CHAPTER 7

1 any longer?" But Elisha' said "Listen to Jehovah's word. Says Jehovah, Right away tomorrow, farina twelve quarts for a shekel and 2 barley three pecks for a shekel in the gate of Samaria." And the adjutant on whose arm the king leaned answered Elisha' "Here is Jehovah making hatchways in the sky! will any such thing happen?" And he said "You will find yourself looking on at it but not eating any of it."

3 And there were four men on the outside of the gate, lepers; and they said to each other "What are we sitting here till we die for?
4 If we think we will go into the city, when the famine is in the city, then we die there; and if we stay here, then we die; come on now, let us desert to the Syrian camp: if they spare our lives we shall live,
5 and if they put us to death, then we die"; and they rose in the morning twilight to go to the Syrian camp. And they came to the edge of the Syrian camp and found that there was not a man there, 6 but the Lord had caused the Syrian army to hear a sound of chariots and of ponies, the sound of a large body of troops, and they had said to each other "Here the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to come against us"— 7 and they had made off in the morning twilight and left their tents
8 and their donkeys, the camp as it was, and fled for their lives. And these lepers came to the edge of the camp and went into a tent and ate and drank, and took away from there silver and gold and clothes and went and buried them, and went back and went into another tent and took things away from there and went and buried them.

9 And they said to each other "We are not doing right: this is a day of good news, and we are lying still and shall be waiting till morning daylight and suffering for it. Come on now, let us report to 10 the palace." And they came and called to the city gatemen, and told them "We have gone into the Syrian camp and found not a man there, nor a human sound, but the ponies tied and the donkeys tied and the 11 tents as they were." And the gatemen called out and reported it to 12 the palace inside; and the king got up in the night and said to his officers "Let me tell you what the Syrians have done with us: they know we are starving, and they have gone out of the camp to hide out in the country, thinking 'When they come out of the city we shall 13 capture them alive and get into the city.'" But one of his officers answered "Then let them get out half a dozen of the remaining ponies that are left here—they are just like all the drove that are gone—and 14 let us send and see." And they got out two teams of ponies, and the 15 king sent them after the Syrian army, telling them "Go and see"; and they went after them to the Jordan, and found all the road full of clothes and things that the Syrians had thrown away in their haste; and the messengers came back and reported to the king.

 16 And the people went out and plundered the Syrian camp; and farina was twelve quarts for a shekel, and barley three pecks for a 17 shekel, in accordance with Jehovah's promise. And the king put in charge of the gate the adjutant on whose arm he had leaned; and the people trampled him to death in the gate, as the man of God had 18 predicted when the king came down to him. As the man of God had said to the king "Barley shall be three pecks for a shekel, and farina twelve quarts for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria right away tomor-19 row," and the adjutant had answered the man of God "But here is Jehovah making hatchways in the sky; will such a thing as this happen?" and he had said "You are to see it with your own eyes, but 20 you will not eat any of it," so it befell him: the people trampled him to death in the gate.

1 And Elisha' had told the woman whose son he had brought to life
 "Off with you, you and your family, and live abroad wherever you may, because Jehovah announces a famine"; and it did come upon 2 the country for seven years. And the woman bestirred herself and did in accordance with the words of the man of God, and went, she and her family, and lived abroad in the Philistine country seven 3 years. And at the end of seven years the woman came back from the Philistine country, and went out to appeal to the king for her 4 house and her land. And the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and saying "Tell me all the miracles 5 Elisha' did"; and he was telling the king how Elisha' raised the dead, when the woman whose son he had raised made her appearance appealing to the king for her house and her land; and Gehazi said
 "Your majesty, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha' 6 raised." And the king questioned the woman, and she told him the story; and the king gave her an official with the commission "Restore everything that belonged to her, and all the produce of the land from the day she left the country till now." 7 And Elisha' came to Damascus. And King Ben-Hadad of Syria 8 was sick; and he was told "The man of God is arriving here." And the king said to Hazael "Take with you a present and go to meet the man of God and inquire of Jehovah through him whether I shall 9 recover from this sickness of mine"; and Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, and forty camel-loads of all the best there was in Damascus, and came and stood before him and said "Your son King Ben-Hadad of Syria sends me to you with the question 'Shall I recover from this sickness of mine?' " And Elisha' said to him "Go tell him 'You will.' But Jehovah has showed me that he will die"; and he stood aghast, with a fixed stare, till Hazael grew uncomfortable. And the man of God wept; and Hazael said "How is it that you weep, sir?" and he said "Because I know what you will do to the sons of Israel: you will set fire to their fortified cities, and kill their young men in warfare, and dash out their children's brains, and cut open their pregnant women." And Hazael said "But what is a dog like your servant, to do this great thing?" and Elisha' said "Jehovah has showed me you king over Syria." And he went away from Elisha' and went in to his sovereign; and he said to him "What did Elisha' tell you?" and he said "He told me you would recover."

And on the next day he took the coverlet and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, and he died, and Hazael succeeded him.

And in the year five of Jehoram the son of Ahab as king of Israel, Jehoram the son of King Jehoshaphat of Judah became king. He was thirty-two years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned eight years at Jerusalem. And he followed the path of the kings of Israel, as the family of Ahab did, because he had Ahab's daughter for his wife; and he did what displeased Jehovah. And Jehovah was not willing to make away with Judah on account of his servant David, as he had told him he would give him a lamp before him through all time. In his time Edom rebelled against the jurisdiction of Judah, and set up a king over themselves; and Jehoram went over to Saghir, and all the chariots with him. And he rose in the night and defeated the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the char-iots; but the people fled to their homes, and Edom is in rebellion against the jurisdiction of Judah to this day. Libnah rebelled then, at that time. And as to the rest of the history of Jehoram, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And Jehoram went to rest with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's City; and his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

In the year twelve of Jehoram the son of Ahab as king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of King Jehoram of Judah began to reign. Ahaziah was twenty-two years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned one year at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 'Athaliah the daughter of King 'Omri of Israel. And he followed the path of the family of Ahab, and did what displeased Jehovah like the family of Ahab, because he had married into Ahab's family. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war with King Hazael of Syria at Ramoth-Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. And King Joram went back to recover at Jezre'el from the wounds the Syrians had given him in his fighting with King Hazael of Syria; and Ahaziah the son of Joram went down to see Joram at Jezre'el, because he was sick.

1 And the prophet Elisha' called one of the members of the prophets' fellowship and said to him "Belt yourself up and take this flask of 2 oil in your hand and go to Ramoth-Gilead; and when you get there find out Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi there, and go in and have him get up from among his mates, and take him into a closet and take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say 'Says Jehovah, I anoint you king over Israel,' and open the door and be 4 off without waiting." And the young man (the prophet) went to 5 Ramoth-Gilead, and when he got there he found the captains of the army sitting together, and said "I have an errand to you, captain."
 6 And Jehu said "To which of us all?" and he said "You, captain"; and he rose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head and said to him "Says Jehovah the God of Israel, I anoint you king over 7 Israel, Jehovah's people; and you shall kill off the family of your master Ahab, and I will make Jezebel and all Ahab's family pay for the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the Jehovah-8 worshipers, and will exterminate every male person that belongs to 9 Ahab, barred and unbarred in Israel, and make Ahab's family like the families of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and Ba'asha the son of 10 Ahijah; and Jezebel the dogs shall eat on Jezre'el common, with nobody burying her"—and he opened the door and was off.

11 And Jehu went out to the officers, and they said to him "Is everything all right? how came this lunatic to come to you?" And he said to them "You know the man and his concern." And they said "You lie; tell us." And he said "He said like this to me: 'Says Jehovah, I anoint you king over Israel.'" And in haste they took their cloaks and laid them under him on the bare steps and blew the ram-horn and said 14 "Jehu is king!" And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi organized a revolution against Joram. Joram had been in garrison at Ramoth-Gilead, he and all Israel, for fear of King Hazael of Syria; but Joram had gone back to recover at Jezre'el from the wounds the Syrians had given him in his fighting with King Hazael of Syria.

And Jehu said "If it is your mind, let nobody get out of the city 16 to go and tell at Jezre'el"; and Jehu rode off to Jezre'el, for Joram was abed there, and King Ahaziah of Judah had come down to see Joram. And there was a watchman standing on the tower at Jezre'el; and he saw Jehu's cloud of dust as he came, and said "I see a cloud of dust"; and Joram said "Get a chariot-rider and send him to meet 18 them and say "Is all well?" And a pony-rider went to meet him and said "Says the king, Is all well?" and Jehu said "What business of yours is all's being well? turn in behind me." And the watchman reported "The messenger came to them and did not come back"; and he sent a second pony-rider, and he came to them and said "Says the king, All well?" and Jehu said "What business of yours is all's being 20 well? turn in behind me." And the watchman reported "He came to them and did not come back; and the driving is like Jehu the son of Nimshi's driving, for he drives furiously."

21 And Joram said "Harness!" and his chariot was harnessed, and King Joram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah went out in their chariots to meet Jehu. And they met him on Naboth the Jezre'elite's 22 lot; and when Joram saw Jehu he said "Is all well, Jehu?" and he said "What is all well while your mother Jezebel's loose living and 23 witchcraft go on at such a rate?" And Joram turned his ponies and 24 fled, saying to Ahaziah "Treachery, Ahaziah!" but Jehu drew an arrow to the head and hit Joram between the shoulders, the arrow coming 25 out at his heart, and he collapsed in his chariot. And he said to his adjutant Bidkar "Take him up and throw him into Naboth the Jezre'- elite's lot; because I remember you and I were riding paired behind his 26 father Ahab, and Jehovah pronounced this sentence on him, 'I did see the blood of Naboth and of his sons yesterday, quoth Jehovah, and I will pay you back in this lot, quoth Jehovah'; now take him up and throw him into the lot as Jehovah said."

27 And King Ahaziah of Judah saw it and fled toward Beth-hag-Gan; and Jehu pursued him and said "Him too," and they hit him in the chariot going up Gur Hill near Ibleam; and he got away to Megiddo, 28 and died there. And his officers took him to Jerusalem in the chariot 29 and buried him in his grave in David's City. It was in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab that Ahaziah came to the throne of Judah.

30 And Jehu came to Jezre'el; and Jezebel had heard, and she put antimony round her eyes and did up her hair and looked out of the 31 window as Jehu was coming in at the gate, and said "Is all well, Zimri that killed his master?" And he turned up his face to the 32 window and said "Who is with me, who?" and two or three eunuchs 33 looked out. And he said "Fling her down"; and they flung her down, and drops of her blood splashed on the wall and on the ponies, and 34 they trampled her. And he went in and ate and drank, and said "Look after that cursed creature and bury her, because she was a 35 princess"; and they went to bury her, but found nothing of her but 36 the skull and legs and hands. And they went back and told him, and he said "It is Jehovah's prediction that he made by Elijah the Tishbite, 'On the common of Jezre'el dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel; 37 and Jezebel's carcass shall be like dung lying out on the range, nobody saying "This is Jezebel."'"

CHAPTER 10

1 And there were seventy sons of Ahab's at Samaria; and Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the captains of the city and the 2 elders and the foster-fathers of Ahab's sons, reading "And now, when this letter reaches you, you having with you your sovereign's sons, and the chariots and ponies, and a fortified city, and the arsenal,

3 pick out the best and most suitable of your sovereign's sons and set him on his father's throne and fight for your sovereign's house."
4 But they were very badly afraid, and said "Here the two kings did not 5 stand before him, and how should we?" and the steward of the palace and the provost of the city and the elders and the foster-fathers sent to Jehu "We are your subjects and will do whatever you tell us; 6 we will not make anybody king; do as you think best." And he wrote them a second letter, "If you are for me and will obey me, take the heads of your sovereign's sons and come to me at Jezre'el right away tomorrow."

And the princes, seventy men, were with the wealthiest men of 7 the city, who were bringing them up. And when the letter reached them they took the princes and cut their throats, seventy men, and 8 put their heads in baskets and sent to him at Jezre'el; and men came and told him "They have brought the princes' heads," and he said 9 "Put them in two piles at the gate till morning." And in the morning he went out and stood and said to all the people "You are honest men; here I plotted against my sovereign and killed him—and who 10 killed all these? Take it for a fact that no part of Jehovah's prediction that he made against Ahab's family shall fall to the ground, and 11 Jehovah has done what he predicted by his servant Elijah." And Jehu killed all that were left in Jezre'el of Ahab's family, and all his kinsmen and intimates and priests, till he had left no survivor 12 to him; and off he went to Samaria. He was at Beth-'Eked-ha-Ro'im 13 on the road when he found the brothers of King Ahaziah of Judah; and he said "Who are you?" and they said "We are Ahaziah's 14 brothers, and have come down to pay a visit to the princes." And he said "Take them alive"; and they took them alive, and cut their throats and let the blood run into the Beth-'Eked cistern, forty-two men; he did not leave a man of them.

15 And he went on from there, and found Jonadab the son of Recab coming to meet him; and he greeted him with a blessing. And he said to him "Is your heart squarely with me as mine is with yours?" (And Jonadab said "It is.") "That being so, give me your hand"; and he gave him his hand, and he took him up into the chariot where he 16 was, and said "Come with me and see my jealousy for Jehovah." And 17 he carried him with him in the chariot, and came to Samaria and killed all of Ahab's blood that were left in Samaria till he rooted out the line in accordance with Jehovah's prediction which he had made to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people and said to them "Ahab worshiped 19 the Baal on a small scale; Jehu will do it on a great scale: now summon to me all the Baal's prophets and priests, let not a man be missing, because I have a big sacrifice to kill for the Baal; anyone who is not in his place shall not live"; but Jehu was playing a trick in order to 20 destroy the Baal-worshippers. And Jehu said "Ordain a national 21 holiday for the Baal"; and they called it, and Jehu sent throughout Israel, and all the Baal-worshippers came, not a man being left who did not, and went into the Baal's house, and the Baal's house was 22 filled from portal to portal. And Jehu said to the vesturer "Bring out clothes for all the worshippers of the Baal"; and he brought out 23 clothes for them. And Jehu and Jonadab the son of Recab went into the Baal's house, and he said to the Baal-worshippers "Search and see that there are none of the Jehovah-worshippers here with you, but 24 only Baal-worshippers"; and they went in to make sacrifices and burnt-offerings. And Jehu had stationed eighty men outside, and had said 25 "Whoever allows any of the men I turn over to you to escape, his life goes in place of his." And when he had finished making the burnt-offering, Jehu said to the runners and the adjutants "Come in! down with them! let no one get out!" and they massacred them and threw them on the ground, and went clear to the wall of the Baal's house.

26 27 And they brought out the obelisk of the Baal and burned it; and they pulled down the Baal's house and made it a site of latrines, which it 28 29 is until today. And Jehu rooted out the Baal from Israel; only the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, Jehu did not turn from following—the golden calves at Bethel and at Dan.

30 And Jehovah said to Jehu "Since you did what I approve and did it well, did to Ahab's family just as I had in mind, great-great-grandchildren of yours shall sit on the throne of Israel." But Jehu did not take care to go by the code of Israel's God Jehovah with all his heart; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin.

32 In those days Jehovah began to be tired of Israel, and Hazael made 33 havoc of them in all Israel's territory from the Jordan eastward, all the country of Gilead, the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from 'Aro'er by Arnon Arroyo on, and Gilead and the Bashan.

34 And as to the rest of the history of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his exploits, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of 35 Israel. And Jehu went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him 36 in Samaria; and his son Jehoahaz succeeded him. And the time that Jehu had reigned over Israel was twenty-eight years, at Samaria.

CHAPTER 11

1 And Ahaziah's mother 'Athaliah saw that her son was dead, and 2 she stood up and destroyed all of the royal blood. But King Joram's daughter Jehosheba', Ahaziah's sister, took Ahaziah's son Joash and spirited him away from among the princes who were being dispatched, and put him and his nurse in the bedding-closet, and they concealed 3 him from 'Athaliah and he was not put to death. And he was with her in Jehovah's house in hiding for six years, and 'Athaliah reigned over the country.

4 And in the seventh year Jehojada' sent and fetched the captains of the Carians and the runners and had them come to him in Jehovah's house, and he made an agreement with them and had them swear by Jehovah's house, and let them see the prince; and he gave them orders, "This is the thing you are to do; the third of you that go in on the sabbath and keep guard at the palace, and the two thirds of you that all come out on the sabbath and keep guard at Jehovah's house, shall encircle the king weapon in hand, and whoever comes in up to the cordon shall be put to death; be with the king when he goes out and when he goes in." And the captains did just as Jehojada' ordered them, and each fetched his men, those who went in on the sabbath with those who came out on the sabbath, and came to Priest Jehojada', and the priest gave the captains the spears and bucklers that had belonged to King David, that were in Jehovah's house, and the runners stood weapon in hand from the southeast corner of the house to the northeast corner, for the altar and the house, around the king; and he brought out the prince and put on him the diadem and the arm-lets, and they declared him king and anointed him, and clapped their hands and said "Long live the king!"

And 'Athaliah heard the voices of the people, and came to the people in Jehovah's house and saw the scene: there was the king standing by the pillar according to usage, and the captains and the trumpets beside the king, and all the populace rejoicing and blowing trumpets; and 'Athaliah tore her garments and cried out "Treason! treason!" And Priest Jehojada' gave orders to the captains, the officers of the forces, "Let her out inside the cordon, and put to the sword anyone that goes in after her"; for the priest thought "She must not be put to death in Jehovah's house." And they stood away from her, and she went into the driveway to the palace and was put to death there.

And Jehojada' made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people, that they should be Jehovah's people and for constitutional relations between the king and the people. And all the populace went into the Baal's house and tore it down, thoroughly broke to pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan, the priest of the Baal, in front of the altars. And the priest set guards over Jehovah's house, and took the captains and the Carians and the runners and the whole populace, and they brought the king down from Jehovah's house and into the palace by way of the runners' gate, and he took his seat on the royal throne; and all the populace rejoiced, and the city quieted down; and 'Athaliah they put to death by the sword in the palace.

Joash was seven years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned forty years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Sibjah, from Beer-Sheba'. And Joash did what Jehovah approved all his life,

3 Priest Jehojada' instructing him. Only the heights were not removed;
the people still sacrificed and made burnings on the heights.

4 And Joash said to the priests "All the sacred money that is brought to Jehovah's house in cash, each man's tax on polls and all the money 5 that each voluntarily brings to Jehovah's house, the priests are to take for themselves, each from his acquaintances, and they are to 6 repair the damages of the house, whatever part damages are found in." But in the year twenty-three of King Joash the priests had not 7 repaired the damages of the house, and King Joash summoned Priest Jehojada' and the priests and said to them "How comes it you are not repairing the damages of the house? now you are not to take 8 money from your acquaintances, but to let us have it for the damages of the house." And the priests agreed to not taking money from the people and not repairing the damages of the house.

9 And Priest Jehojada' took a chest and bored a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar on the right as a man goes into Jehovah's house, and there the priests who acted as threshold-keepers put all the money 10 that was brought to Jehovah's house. And when they saw that there was a great amount of money in the chest the king's secretary for documents and the high priest came up and wrapped and counted 11 the money that was found in Jehovah's house. And they put the appropriated money into the hands of the contractors employed on Jehovah's house, and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders 12 that worked on Jehovah's house and to the masons and stonecutters, and for buying wood and dressed stone to repair the damages of the 13 house, and for all expenses on the house for repairing; only there were not made in Jehovah's house silver basins, snuffers, bowls, any articles of gold or of silver, out of the money that was brought to 14 Jehovah's house, but it was given to the contractors, and they repaired 15 Jehovah's house with it. And no accounts were demanded from the men into whose hands the money was put to be given to the workmen, 16 but they worked on honor. Money paid in expiation for guilt or propitiation for sin was not brought to Jehovah's house; it belonged to the priests.

17 Then King Hazael of Syria came up and attacked Gath, and took 18 it; and Hazael faced toward Jerusalem. And King Joash of Judah took all the sacred things dedicated by his ancestors Kings Jehosha-phat, Joram, and Ahaziah of Judah, and by him himself, and all the gold to be found in the treasuries of Jehovah's house and of the royal palace, and sent it to King Hazael of Syria, and he withdrew from his campaign against Jerusalem.

19 And as to the rest of the history of Joash, and all that he did, it 20 is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And his officers entered into a conspiracy, and killed Joash at Beth-Millo that goes 21 down to Silla; and it was his officers Jozacar the son of Shimeath and Jozabad the son of Shomer who killed him. And they buried him with his fathers in David's City, and his son Amasiah succeeded him.

1 In the year twenty-three of Joash the son of Ahaziah as king of 2 Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel for a reign 3 of seventeen years at Samaria; and he did what displeased Jehovah, 4 and followed the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel 5 sin; he did not turn from it. And Jehovah was angry with Israel, 6 and he gave them into the hands of King Hazael of Syria, and 7 Hazael's son Ben-Hadad, all the time. And Jehoahaz took steps to 8 propitiate Jehovah; and Jehovah listened to him, because he saw 9 Israel's oppressed condition, for the king of Syria had crowded them 10 hard; and Jehovah gave Israel a deliverer who brought them out 11 from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel lived in their 12 homes as they used to. (Only they did not turn from the sin of 13 the family of Jeroboam who made Israel sin; they walked in it, and 14 the asherah too was standing in Samaria.) For he had not left to 15 Jehoahaz any men but fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thou-16 sand infantry; for the king of Syria had destroyed them and taken 17 them for dust to trample on.

8 And as to the rest of the history of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his exploits, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of 9 Israel. And Jehoahaz went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and his son Joash succeeded him.

10 In the year thirty-nine of Joash as king of Judah, Joash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel for a reign of sixteen years at 11 Samaria; and he did what displeased Jehovah, he did not turn from all the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; in it 12 he walked. And as to the rest of the history of Joash, and all that he did, and his exploits of fighting with King Amasiah of Judah, 13 they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And Joash went to rest with his fathers, and his son Jeroboam took his seat on his throne; and Joash was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 And Elisha' was taken with his last illness; and King Joash of Israel went down and shed tears over his face and said "Father, father, 15 Israel's chariots and cavalry!" And Elisha' said to him "Fetch a bow and arrows"; and he fetched a bow and arrows to him. And he said to the king "Take the bow ready for shooting"; and he did, and Elisha' 16 put his own hands on the king's hands. And he said "Open the window"; and it was opened, and Elisha' said "Shoot," and he shot.
And he said "A victory-arrow for Jehovah! a victory-arrow against 17 Syria! you shall defeat the Syrians at Aphek till you finish them."
And he said "Take the arrows," and he did; and he said to the king 18 "Strike on the ground," and he struck three times and stopped. And 19 the man of God was incensed against him, and said "Striking five or six times, then you would have defeated the Syrians till you had finished them; but now you are to defeat the Syrians three times."

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him.

21 And the raiders from Moab were coming into the country; and they were burying a man, when they saw the raiders and threw the man into Elisha's tomb and went off; and the man touched Elisha's bones and came to life and stood up on his feet.

22 And King Hazael of Syria crowded the Israelites hard throughout the life of Jehoahaz; and Hazael took Philistia out of his hands from the western sea to Aphek. And Jehovah was gracious to them and took pity on them and turned toward them, on account of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and was not willing to make away with them, and did not throw them aside from before his face; and King Hazael of Syria died, and his son Ben-Hadad succeeded him, and Joash the son of Jehoahaz retook out of the hands of Hazael's son Ben-Hadad the cities Hazael had taken in war out of the hands of his father Jehoahaz. Three times Joash defeated him, and recovered the Israelite cities.

1 In the year two of Joash the son of Jehoahaz as king of Israel, 2 Amasiah the son of King Joash of Judah became king; he was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned twenty-nine years at Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeho'daddan, from 3 Jerusalem. And he did what Jehovah approved, only not as his father 4 David had: he did just as his father Joash had—only the heights were not removed, the people still sacrificed and made burnings on the heights. And when he had the kingship firmly in his hands, he 5 killed his officers who had killed the king his father, but the assassins' 6 children he did not put to death, in accordance with what is written in the code of Moses, what Jehovah commanded, "Fathers shall not be put to death for children, nor children for fathers, but each shall 7 be put to death for his own sin." It was he who defeated Edom in Salt Valley, killing ten thousand, and took Sela' by storm and gave it the name Joktheel, which it bears to this day.

8 Then Amasiah sent envoys to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, with the message "Come, let us come face 9 to face." And King Joash of Israel sent word to King Amasiah of Judah "The brier in the Lebanon sent word to the cedar in the 10 Lebanon 'Give my son your daughter as wife'; and the wild beasts in the Lebanon came by and trampled the brier. You have defeated 11 Edom, and you are feeling confident: enjoy your glory and stay at home; why should you challenge trouble, and fall, and Judah with 12 you?" But Amasiah would not listen; and the king of Israel came up, and they came face to face at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. And the Judahites were beaten by the Israelites, and fled to their

13 homes. And King Joash of Israel captured Amasiah the son of Joash the son of Ahaziah at Beth-Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and breached the wall of Jerusalem for two hundred yards, from the 14 Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the articles that were found in Jehovah's house and in the palace treasuries, and the hostages, and went back to Samaria.

15 And as to the rest of the history of Joash, what he did and his exploits, and the war he had with King Amasiah of Judah, they are 16 recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And Joash went to rest with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel, and his son Jeroboam succeeded him.

17 And Amasiah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel.
18 And as to the rest of the history of Amasiah, it is recorded in the 19 chronicles of the kings of Judah. And they organized a revolution against him at Jerusalem; and he fled to Lakish, and they sent to 20 Lakish after him and put him to death there. And they took him away on ponies, and he was buried at Jerusalem in David's City with his 21 fathers. And all the people of Judah took 'Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and installed him as successor to his father Amasiah.
22 He fortified Elath, and reannexed it to Judah, after the king had gone to rest with his fathers.

23 In the year fifteen of Amasiah the son of Joash as king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of King Joash of Israel became king for a reign 24 of forty-one years at Samaria; and he did what displeased Jehovah, he did not turn from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who 25 made Israel sin. He recovered Israel's territory from Lebo-Hamath to the Dead Sea, in accordance with the prediction of Israel's God Jehovah which he made by his servant the prophet Jonah the son of 26 Amittai, of Gath-Hepher. For Jehovah saw how very bitter was Israel's wretched state, and how there was nobody unbarred and no-27 body barred, and no helper for Israel; and Jehovah did not say the word to obliterate Israel's name from under the heavens, but saved them through Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 And as to the rest of the history of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his exploits in warring and reannexing Damascus and Hamath to Israel, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
29 And Jeroboam went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and his son Zecariah succeeded him.

1 In the year twenty-seven of King Jeroboam of Israel, 'Azariah the 2 son of King Amasiah of Judah became king; he was twenty-six years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned fifty-two years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecoliah, from Jerusalem.
3 And he did what Jehovah approved, just as his father Amasiah had;

4 only the heights were not removed: the people still sacrificed and 5 made burnings on the heights. And Jehovah marred the king, and he became leprous to the day of his death, and lived in the exempt house, while Crown Prince Jotham, as steward of the palace, acted 6 as regent. And as to the rest of the history of 'Azariah, and all that 7 he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And 'Azariah went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in David's City; and his son Jotham succeeded him.

8 In the year thirty-eight of King 'Azariah of Judah, Zecariah the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel for a reign of six months at 9 Samaria; and he did what displeased Jehovah, as his fathers had; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made 10 Israel sin. And Shallum the son of Jabesh organized a revolution against him, and assassinated him at Ibleam, and succeeded him.
11 And the rest of the history of Zecariah will be found recorded in 12 the chronicles of the kings of Israel. It was Jehovah's prediction that he had made to Jehu: "great-great-grandchildren of yours shall sit on the throne of Israel," he had said, and so it was.

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the year thirty-nine of 14 King 'Azariah of Judah, and reigned a month at Samaria; but Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirsah and came to Samaria and assassinated Shallum the son of Jabesh at Samaria, and suc-15 ceeded him. And the rest of the history of Shallum, and his revolution that he organized, will be found recorded in the chronicles of the 16 kings of Israel. Then Menahem ravaged Tappuah and everything in it, and all its territory, starting from Tirsah, because they did not open to him: he ravaged it and cut open its pregnant women.

17 In the year thirty-nine of King 'Azariah of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel for a reign of ten years at Sa-18 maria; and he did what displeased Jehovah, did not turn off from the 19 sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin. In his time King Pul of Assyria came up against the country, and Menahem gave Pul a thousand hundredweight of silver to have his cooperation 20 for getting the kingship firmly into his hands; and Menahem assessed the money on Israel, on all the solid men, having them give the king of Assyria fifty shekels per man; and the king of Assyria went back 21 and did not stay there in the country. And as to the rest of the history of Menahem, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chron-22 icles of the kings of Israel. And Menahem went to rest with his fathers, and his son Pekahiah succeeded him.

23 In the year fifty of King 'Azariah of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel for a reign of two years at Samaria; 24 and he did what displeased Jehovah, did not turn from the sins of 25 Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin. And his adjutant Pekah the son of Remaliah organized a revolution against him, and assassinated him in Samaria, in the keep of the palace, having with 26 him fifty men of the sons of Gilead, and succeeded him. And the rest of the history of Pekahiah, and all that he did, will be found recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the year fifty-two of King 'Azariah of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel for a reign of twenty years at Samaria. And he did what displeased Jehovah, did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin. In the times of King Pekah of Israel, King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria came and took 'Ijon and Abel-Beth-Ma'acah and Janoh and Kedesh and Hasor and Gilead and the Marchland, all the country of Naphtali, and deported them to Assyria. And Hoshea' the son of Elah organized a revolution against Pekah the son of Remaliah and assassinated him and succeeded him. And the rest of the history of Pekah, and all that he did, will be found recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the year two of Pekah the son of Remaliah as king of Israel, Jotham the son of King 'Uzzijah of Judah became king; he was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and he reigned sixteen years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Sadok. And he did what Jehovah approved, just as his father 'Uzzijah had; only the heights were not removed: the people still sacrificed and made burnings on the heights. He built the upper gate of Jehovah's house. And as to the rest of the history of Jotham, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

37 In his days Jehovah began to send upon Judah King Rason of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah. And Jotham went to rest with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city, and his son Ahaz succeeded him.

CHAPTER 16

1 In the year seventeen of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of King Jotham of Judah became king; Ahaz was twenty years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned sixteen years at Jerusalem. And he did not do what his God Jehovah approved as his father David had, but followed the path of the kings of Israel, and sent his son over through the fire besides, in accordance with the detestable ways of the nations Jehovah dispossessed before the sons of Israel, and sacrificed and made burnings at the heights and on the hills and under every verdant tree.

5 Then King Rason of Syria and King Pekah the son of Remaliah of Israel came up to Jerusalem to attack it, and beleaguered Ahaz but could not attack. (At that time the king of Edom reannexed Elath to Edom and cleared the Judahites out of Elath, and Edomites came into Elath and lived there, and are there to this day.) And Ahaz sent envoys to King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria with the message "I am your subject and your son; come up and save me out of the hands of the king of Syria and of the king of Israel, who have come out against me"; and Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in Jehovah's house and in the palace treasuries and sent it to the king of Assyria as a present. And the king of Assyria listened to him, and came up to Damascus and captured it and deported it to Kir, and put Rason to death.

And King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria, and saw the altar at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Priest Urijah the measurements and design of the altar, the complete specifications, and Priest Urijah built the altar: as King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, just so Priest Urijah did, till King Ahaz came from Damascus. And the king came from Damascus, and the king saw the altar, and the king approached the altar and went up it, and burned his burnt-offering and grain-offering and poured his libations, and threw his welfare-sacrifice blood against the altar. And the bronze altar that was before Jehovah he brought on from in front of the house, from between the altar and Jehovah's house, and put it by the northwest corner of the altar; and King Ahaz gave order to Priest Urijah "On the large altar burn the morning burnt-offering and the evening grain-offering, and the king's burnt-offering and grain-offering, and the burnt-offerings of all the people and their grain-offerings and libations, and throw against it all burnt-offering blood and sacrifice blood; and the bronze altar shall be for my inspecting," and Priest Urijah did just as King Ahaz ordered.

And the king mutilated the stands and took the borders off them, and the laver; and the sea he took down off the cattle that had been under it and put it on a stone pavement; and the sabbath canopy that they had built in the house, and the king's outer entrance, he brought round to Jehovah's house, because of the king of Assyria.

And as to the rest of the history of Ahaz, and all that he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And Ahaz went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in David's City; and his son Hezekiah succeeded him.

CHAPTER 17

In the year twelve of King Ahaz of Judah, Hoshea' the son of Elah became king over Israel for a reign of nine years at Samaria; and he did what displeased Jehovah, yet not like the kings of Israel that had been before him. Against him King Shalmaneser of Assyria came up, and Hoshea' became his subject and paid him tribute. But the king of Assyria detected Hoshea' in treason, in that he had sent envoys to King Seve of Egypt, and had not sent up tribute to the king of Assyria as he had annually done; and the king of Assyria arrested him and imprisoned him. And the king of Assyria came up all over the country, and came to Samaria and besieged it three years.

In the year nine of Hoshea' the king of Assyria took Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, in the cities of Media.

7 And because the sons of Israel had sinned against Jehovah, their God that had brought them up out of Egypt, from under the hand of 8 the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and had feared other gods and gone by the usages of the nations Jehovah dispossessed before the sons of Israel, and those of the kings of Israel that they had originated; 9 and the sons of Israel depraved themselves with doing against their God Jehovah things that were not right, and built themselves heights 10 in all their cities, from watchmen's tower to fortified city, and set up obelisks and asherahs for themselves on every high hill and under 11 every verdant tree, and made burnings there, like the nations Jehovah had removed before them, and established religious prostitutes of 12 both sexes, provoking Jehovah, and worshiped fetishes, the thing of 13 which Jehovah had said to them "You shall not do this"; and Jehovah warned Israel by every prophet and every seer, saying "Turn back from your evil courses and keep my commandments, my usages, in conformity with all the instructions which I prescribed to your fathers 14 and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets"; but they did not listen, but stiffened their necks as had their fathers who had not 15 believed in their God Jehovah, and rejected his usages and his covenant which he had entered into with their fathers, and his lessons which he had inculcated upon them, and ran into superstitions and became slaves to them, and followed the nations around them, whom 16 Jehovah had commanded them not to do like, and left the commandments of their God Jehovah and made themselves statues, two calves, and made an asherah and did reverence to all the legions of the sky 17 and worshiped the Baal; and they sent their children over through the fire, and practiced soothsaying, and believed in signs, and sold 18 themselves to do what displeased Jehovah, provoking him,—Jehovah became very angry with Israel, and removed it from before his face: 19 none at all were left but the tribe of Judah alone. Neither did Judah keep the commandments of their God Jehovah, but went by the usages 20 of the Israelites that they had originated; and Jehovah condemned all the stock of Israel, and ground them down and gave them into the 21 hands of pillagers, till he threw them aside; because Jehovah had torn Israel off from the house of David and they had made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king, and Jeroboam had deluded Israel away from 22 following Jehovah and had made them commit a great sin, and the sons of Israel had walked in Jeroboam's sin which he had originated 23 and had not turned from it, till Jehovah removed Israel from before his face, as he had threatened by all his servants the prophets, and deported Israel off their soil to Assyria to remain to this day.

24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon and Cuthah and 'Avvah and Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel, and they took posses-25 sion of Samaria and lived in its cities. And in the beginning of their settlement they did not fear Jehovah, and he sent the lions upon them, 26 and they went to killing among them; and the king of Assyria was told "The nations you deported and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the observances for the god of the country, and he has sent the lions upon them, and here they are killing them off, as they 27 do not know the observances for the god of the country." And the king of Assyria gave orders "Send there one of the priests you deported from there, to go and live there and instruct them in the 28 observances for the god of the country"; and one of the priests they had deported from Samaria came and settled at Bethel and went to 29 instructing them how they should fear Jehovah. And they went to making their various national gods and installing them in the height-houses the Samaritans had made, each nation in their cities where they 30 were living; and the men of Babylon made Succoth-Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the 'Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelec and 'Anammelec the gods of 32 Sepharvaim; and they went to fearing Jehovah, and made out of the common people height-priests for themselves, who functioned for them 33 in the height-houses. They feared Jehovah, and worshiped their gods in accordance with the observances of the nations they had been de-34 ported from. To this day they act as was their first fashion. They do not fear Jehovah and do not act in accordance with his usages and laws and with the instructions and commandments which Jehovah had enjoined upon the sons of Jacob, on whom he had bestowed the 35 name Israel, and Jehovah had made a covenant with them and given them orders, "You shall not fear other gods nor do them reverence 36 nor sacrifice to them; but Jehovah, who brought you up out of Egypt with great strength and outstretched arm, him you shall fear and to 37 him you shall do reverence and to him you shall sacrifice, and the usages and laws and instructions and commandments which he has written down for you you shall at all times be heedful to do, and not 38 fear other gods. And the covenant I have made with you you shall 39 not forget, nor fear other gods; but your God Jehovah you shall fear, 40 and he will deliver you out of the hands of your enemies." But they have not listened, but are acting as was their first fashion.

41 And these nations went to fearing Jehovah while worshiping their carvings; their sons and grandsons too are to this day doing as their fathers did.

CHAPTER 18

1 And in the year three of Hoshea' the son of Elah as king of Israel, 2 Hezekiah the son of King Ahaz of Judah became king; he was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned twenty-nine years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of 3 Zecariah. And he did what Jehovah approved, just as his father 4 David had. It was he who cleared out the heights and broke up the obelisks and cut down the asherah, and pounded up the bronze snake that Moses made, because down to those days the sons of Israel had 5 been making burnings to it; and he called it Nehushtan. He trusted in Israel's God Jehovah, and there was not his like after him among 6 the kings of Judah, and those who had gone before him. And he stood by Jehovah, did not turn aside from following him, and kept his 7 commandments which Jehovah had commanded Moses. And Jehovah was with him; he did well in everything he undertook, and broke his 8 allegiance to the king of Assyria and became independent of him. He made havoc of the Philistines down to Ghaza and its territories, from watchmen's tower to fortified city.

9 And in the year four of King Hezekiah, that being the year seven of Hoshea' the son of Elah as king of Israel, King Shalmaneser of 10 Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it, and took it at the end of three years: in the year six of Hezekiah, that being the year 11 nine of King Hoshea' of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria deported the Israelites to Assyria, and planted them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of Media, 12 for their not having obeyed their God Jehovah and having violated his covenant, all that Jehovah's servant Moses commanded them, and not having listened nor done the things required of them.

13 And in the year fourteen of King Hezekiah King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities in Judah and captured 14 them. And King Hezekiah of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lakish "I have done wrong; break off your attack, I will accept the penalty you may impose on me." And the king of Assyria sentenced Hezekiah to a fine of three hundred hundredweight of silver and 15 thirty of gold; and Hezekiah gave him all the silver that could be 16 found in Jehovah's house and in the palace treasuries. It was at that time that Hezekiah mutilated the doors of Jehovah's nave, and the jambs which King Hezekiah of Judah had gilded, and gave them to the king of Assyria.

17 And the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh from Lakish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem with a formidable force; and he came up and stood on the aqueduct of the upper reservoir, the one that is on the 18 highway to the Fuller's Field, and called for the king; and Eljakim the son of Hilkijah, the steward of the palace, and Shebna, the secretary for documents, and Joah the son of Asaph, the king's private 19 secretary, went out to him. And the Rabshakeh said to them "Say to Hezekiah 'Says the Great King, the king of Assyria, What con-20 fidence is this that you are feeling? you think policy and strength for war is just a matter of talk. Now in whom are you trusting, that you 21 have broken your allegiance to me? trusting to this cracked bamboo cane Egypt, which, when a man leans his weight on it, will run into his hand and transfix it—that is what the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is like for everybody who trusts to him. And as for your saying to me “We are trusting on our God Jehovah,” is not he the one whose heights and altars Hezekiah has made away with, and has told Judah and Jerusalem “You shall do reverence before this altar”? Now make a bet with my sovereign the king of Assyria, that I am to give you two thousand ponies if you can furnish riders for them; and how are you to repel one of my sovereign’s minor officers? and you are trusting to Egypt for chariotry and cavalry. And then, have I come up against this place independently of Jehovah to ravage it? Jehovah said to me “Go up against this country and ravage it.””

And Eljakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh “Speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it: do not speak with us in Judaic in the hearing of the people on the wall.” But the Rabshakeh said to them “Was it to your sovereign and you that my sovereign sent me to tell these things? was it not to the men that are sitting on the wall to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?” And the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in Judaic “Listen to the word of the Great King, the king of Assyria! Says the king, Do not let Hezekiah delude you, because he will not be able to deliver you. Do not let Hezekiah get you to trusting on Jehovah, with his ‘Jehovah will deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.’ Do not listen to Hezekiah; for the king of Assyria says, Have an understanding with me and come out to me, and eat from your home vines and fig-trees and drink the water of your home cisterns till I come and take you to a country like your own,—a country of grain and grape-juice, of bread and vineyards, of oil-olives and honey,—and live and do not die; and do not listen to Hezekiah when he tries to influence you with his ‘Jehovah will deliver us.’ Have the gods of the different nations delivered their countries out of the hands of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? where are the gods of Samaria, did they deliver Samaria out of my hands? Who are there among all the gods of the different countries that have delivered their countries out of my hands, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hands?”

But they kept still and made no answer to him; for the king’s order was “Do not answer him.”

And Eljakim the son of Hilkiah, the steward of the palace, and Shebna, the secretary for documents, and Joah the son of Asaph, the king’s private secretary, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn,

CHAPTER 19

- 1 and told him the Rabshakeh’s words. And when King Hezekiah heard them he tore his clothes and put a sackcloth about him and went into
- 2 Jehovah’s house, and sent Eljakim the steward of the palace and

3 Shebna the secretary for documents and the elders of the priests, with sackcloths about them, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos; and they said to him "Says Hezekiah, This is a day of distress and castigation and contempt, because children have come to the mouth of the 4 womb and we have not strength to complete a birth. Perhaps your God Jehovah will listen to the Rabshakeh's words with which his sovereign the king of Assyria has sent him to taunt a living God, and will chastise the words that your God Jehovah hears; and you shall put up a prayer for the remnant that still exists."

5 6 And King Hezekiah's officers came to Isaiah; and Isaiah said to them "You shall say to your sovereign 'Says Jehovah, Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, in which the king of Assyria's 7 servants have blasphemed me; I am going to put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a report and go back to his own country, and I will have him fall by the sword in his own country.'"

8 And Rabshakeh went back, and found the king of Assyria attacking Libnah; for he had heard that he had moved away from Lakish.

9 And he heard say about King Tirhakah of Nubia "He has come out to fight you"; and, hearing it, he again sent envoys to Hezekiah 10 with the message "You shall say to King Hezekiah of Judah 'Do not let your God in whom you trust delude you with the thought "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria."
11 You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them without quarter; and are you to be delivered? Did the gods of the nations my fathers ravaged deliver them, 12 Gozan and Haran and Reseph and the Bene-'Eden at Telassar? where is the king of Hamath, where the king of Arpad and the king of 13 Sepharvaim city, of Hena' and 'Ivvah?'" And Hezekiah received the letter from the envoys' hands and read it; and he went up to Jehovah's house.

15 And Hezekiah spread it out before Jehovah; and Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah, "Jehovah, God of Israel, sitter upon the cherubs, you are God alone for all the kingdoms of the earth: it was you who made 16 the heavens and the earth. Bend down your ear, Jehovah, and listen; open your eyes, Jehovah, and see; and hear Sennacherib's words 17 which he has sent, taunting a living God. The kings of Assyria have indeed, Jehovah, laid waste the nations and their countries, and put 18 their gods in the fire, because they are not gods but work of human hands, wood and stone, and destroyed them; but now, Jehovah our 19 God, save us out of his hands and let all the kingdoms on earth know that you, Jehovah, alone are God."

20 And Isaiah the son of Amos sent word to Hezekiah "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Whereas you have prayed to me about King Sennacherib 21 of Assyria, this is the word Jehovah has spoken against him: Sion's maiden daughter despises and derides you; Jerusalem's daughter 22 shakes her head after you. Whom have you taunted and blasphemed, 23 and against whom have you clamored at the top of your voice and lifted your eyes high? against the Holy One of Israel. By your servants you have taunted the Lord, and have said 'With chariots, my chariots, I have gone up to the tops of the mountains, the recesses of Lebanon, and have cut down the tallest of its cedars, the choicest of 24 its cypresses, and have come to its final lodgment, its wildwood of garden-land. I have dug and drunk unknown waters, have dried off 25 with my marching feet all the streams of Egypt's Nile.' Do you hear?

 far back I acted, shaped it from days of old, have now brought it in,
 and you have been for crashing down fortified cities into ruined 26 heaps; and their puny-handed inhabitants were dismayed and abashed, became field herbage and greensward, roof-grass blighted before the 27 east wind. Your standing up and sitting down, your going out and 28 coming in I know, and your raging against me. Since your raging against me and your hubbub have come up to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle between your lips, and take you back the way you came.
 29 "And this is the token you are to have, eating the self-sown crop this year and the crop run wild next year; and in the third year sow 30 and reap, and set out vineyards and eat their fruit. And the remaining survivors of the house of Judah shall more and more take root down-31 ward and bear fruit upward; for out of Jerusalem shall a remnant come forth, and survivors out of Mount Sion; the championship of Jehovah of Armies will do this.
 32 "So Jehovah says of the king of Assyria, He shall not come to this city nor shoot an arrow there nor push a shield up to it nor throw 33 up a ramp against it: by the road he came on he shall go back, and 34 not come to this city, quoth Jehovah. And I will shield this city, saving it on my own account and on my servant David's." 35 And that night Jehovah's angel went out and killed a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp: the first thing in the 36 morning they were all found dead corpses. And King Sennacherib 37 of Assyria broke camp and went back and stayed at Nineveh; and as he was doing reverence in the house of his god Nisroc his sons Adrammelec and Sareser stabbed him; and they made their escape to Armenia, and his son Esar-Haddon succeeded him.

CHAPTER 20

1 In those days Hezekiah fell sick and was at the point of death, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos came to him and said to him "Says Jehovah, Make your will, because you are a dead man and are not to 2 recover." And he turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah 3 "Ah, Jehovah, remember how I have walked before you in whole-hearted loyalty and done what pleased you"—and Hezekiah wept 4 copiously. And the prophet Isaiah had not got out to the middle court 5 when Jehovah's word came to him "Go back and say to Hezekiah, the warden of my people, 'Says Jehovah, your father David's God, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: I am healing you: day 6 after tomorrow you shall go up to Jehovah's house; and I will add to your days fifteen years, and will deliver you and this city out of the hands of the king of Assyria, and will shield this city for my own sake 7 and for my servant David's.' " And Isaiah said "Take a cake of figs"; and they took it and laid it over the abscess, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah "What is the token that Jehovah will heal me and I shall go up to Jehovah's house day after tomorrow?"
9 And Isaiah said "This is the token you are to have from Jehovah that Jehovah will do the thing he said he would: shall the shadow move 10 on ten steps or back ten steps?" And Hezekiah said "It is too easy for the shadow to slant down ten steps; no, let the shadow recede 11 ten steps backward." And the prophet Isaiah called out to Jehovah, and he sent the shadow back on the steps, ten steps backward.

12 At that time Merodac Baladan the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, because he had 13 heard that Hezekiah had been sick. And Hezekiah was glad to see them, and showed them all his treasury, the silver and the gold and the spices and the fine oil, and his arsenal, and everything that was to be found in his hoards: there was not a thing that Hezekiah did 14 not show them, in his palace and in all his dominions. And the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and said to him "What did these men say, and where do they come to you from?" and Hezekiah said "They 15 have come from a distant country, Babylon." And he said "What did they see in your palace?" and Hezekiah said "They saw everything that there was in my palace: there was not a thing that I did not show 16 them in my hoards." And Isaiah said to Hezekiah "Listen to Jehovah's word: there are days coming when everything there is in your palace, 17 and that your fathers have hoarded down to this day, will be carried away to Babylon: there will not be a thing left, says Jehovah. And 18 sons of yours, out of your body, of your begetting, will be taken and become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." And Hezekiah 19 said to Isaiah "Jehovah's word that you speak is good"; and he said "It is, is it not, if there will be peace and fairness in my time?"

20 And as to the rest of the history of Hezekiah, and all his exploits, and how he made the reservoir and the aqueduct and brought the water into the city, they are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of 21 Judah. And Hezekiah went to rest with his fathers, and his son Manasseh succeeded him.

1 Manasseh was twelve years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned fifty-five years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 2 Hephzibah. And he did what displeased Jehovah, like the detestable ways of the nations Jehovah dispossessed before the sons of Israel;

3 and he rebuilt the heights his father Hezekiah had destroyed, and set up altars to the Baal, as King Ahab of Israel had, and did reverence 4 to all the legions of the sky and worshiped them, and built altars in the house of Jehovah, who had said "In Jerusalem I will set my 5 name"; and he built altars to all the legions of the sky in both the 6 courts of Jehovah's house, and sent his son over through the fire, and practiced fortune-telling and believed in signs, and employed spirit-mediums of different kinds: he did what displeased Jehovah on a 7 great scale, provoking him. And he set the statue of the asherah in the house of which Jehovah had said to David and his son Solomon "In 8 this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will set my name forever, and I will no more set Israel's feet roving off the soil I gave to their fathers, if only they take care to do just as I commanded them, under all the instructions my servant 9 Moses prescribed to them." And Manasseh demoralized them into misdoing more than had the nations Jehovah had rooted out before the sons of Israel.

10 11 And Jehovah said by his servants the prophets "Since King Manasseh of Judah has done these detestable things, doing worse than everything the Amorites before him had done, and has brought Judah 12 too into sin by his fetishes, therefore Israel's God Jehovah says 'Here I am bringing on Jerusalem and Judah such an evil that when any-13 body hears of it both his ears will buzz; and I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring-line of Samaria and hold up over it the scales of the house of Ahab, and wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wipe and 14 turn upside down, and abandon the remnant of my estate and give them into the hands of their enemies, and they shall be exposed to the 15 pillaging and plundering of all their enemies, since they have been doing what displeased me and provoking me from the day I brought their fathers out of Egypt to this day.'"

16 And Manasseh shed innocent blood too in great quantities, till he had filled Jerusalem with it from portal to portal, besides his sin which he caused Judah to commit in doing what displeased Jehovah.

17 And as to the rest of the history of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he committed, it is recorded in the chronicles of the 18 kings of Judah. And Manasseh went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his palace, 'Uzza's garden; and his son Amon succeeded him.

19 Amon was twenty-two years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned two years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Meshul-20 lemeth the daughter of Harus, from Jotbah. And he did what displeased Jehovah, as his father Manasseh had, and went the whole 21 length of the path his father had walked in, and worshiped the fetishes his father had worshiped, and did reverence to them, and left 22 his fathers' God Jehovah and did not walk in Jehovah's way. And Amon's officers organized a revolution against him and took the king's 23

24 life in his palace; but the people killed all who had taken part in the conspiracy against King Amon, and the people installed his son 25 Josiah as his successor. And as to the rest of the history of Amon, what he did, it is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah.
26 And they buried him in his grave in 'Uzza's garden, and his son Josiah succeeded him.

1 Josiah was eight years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned thirty-one years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 2 Jedidah the daughter of 'Adajah, from Boskath. And he did what Jehovah approved, and went the whole length of the path of his father David, and did not turn off to right or to left.

3 And in the year eighteen of King Josiah the king sent Shaphan the son of Asaliah the son of Meshullam, the secretary for documents, to 4 Jehovah's house with the order "Go up to High Priest Hilkijah and have him sum up the money that has been brought into Jehovah's house, that the threshold-keepers have collected from the people, 5 and put it into the hands of the contractors employed on Jehovah's house, to be given to the workmen on Jehovah's house for repairing 6 the damages of the house, to the carpenters and builders and masons, 7 and for buying wood and dressed stone to repair the house. Only let no accounts of the money put into their hands be demanded from them, because they are working on honor."

8 And High Priest Hilkijah said to Secretary Shaphan "I have found the Code in Jehovah's house"; and Hilkijah gave the book to Shaphan, 9 and he read it. And he went in to the king and made his report to him, "Your officers have poured out the money that was found in the house, and have put it into the hands of the contractors employed 10 on Jehovah's house." And Secretary Shaphan told the king "Priest Hilkijah has given me a book"; and Shaphan read it before the king; 11 and when the king heard the words of the Code he tore his clothes.
12 And the king gave Priest Hilkijah and Ahikam the son of Shaphan and 'Acbor the son of Micajah and Secretary Shaphan and King's 13 Sergeant 'Asajah the order "Go inquire of Jehovah on my behalf and on behalf of the people and on behalf of what is left of Israel and Judah about the words of this book that has been found, because it is a great ire of Jehovah's that is kindled against us for our fathers' not having listened to the words of this book and acted in accordance 14 with all that is written in it." And Priest Hilkijah and Ahikam and 'Acbor and Shaphan and 'Asajah went to the prophetess Huldah the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah the son of Harhas the keeper of the wardrobe (she lived in Jerusalem, in the second quarter), and 15 spoke to her. And she said to them "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Say 16 to the man who sent you to me 'Says Jehovah, I am bringing mischief upon this place and its inhabitants, all the things that are spoken of 17 in the book the king of Judah has read. In return for their having left me and made burnings to other gods, provoking me with their manufactures, my ire is kindled against this people and will not die down.’

18 And to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah you shall say ‘Says Israel’s God Jehovah, Because you gave heed to the words 19 you heard, since your heart quailed, and you humbled yourself before me when you heard what I had denounced against this place and its inhabitants, that it should be a horror and a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before me, I on my part have heard it, quoth Jehovah; so I am taking you home to your fathers, and you shall be taken 20 home to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not look upon all the mischief I am bringing on this place.’” And they reported it to the king.

1 And the king sent and brought together to him all the elders of 2 Judah and Jerusalem; and the king went up to Jehovah’s house, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets and all the people from smallest to greatest, and he read to them all the words of the book of the covenant 3 that had been found in Jehovah’s house. And the king stood by the pillar and ratified the covenant before Jehovah, to follow Jehovah and keep his commandments and his lessons and his usages unreservedly and heartily, making good the provisions of this covenant which are recorded in this book; and all the people stood as participants in the covenant.

4 And the king ordered Hilkijah and the second priest and the threshold-keepers to take out of Jehovah’s temple all the things that had been used for the Baal and the asherah and all the legions of the sky, and he burned them outside Jerusalem on the terraces of 5 Kidron and carried their dust away to Bethel; and he made an end of the komers whom the kings of Judah had installed and who made burnings on the heights in the cities of Judah and the environs of Jerusalem, and of the burners to the Baal and the sun and the moon 6 and the mazzaloth and all the legions of the sky, and took the asherah from Jehovah’s house outside Jerusalem to Kidron Arroyo and burned it in Kidron Arroyo and reduced it to dust and threw the dust of 7 it on the public burying-ground; and he pulled down the kiosk for religious prostitution that there was in Jehovah’s house, where the 8 women wove cases for the asherah. And he brought in all the priests from the cities of Judah, and desecrated the heights where the priests had made burnings, from Geba’ to Beer-Sheba’, and pulled down the Gate Heights at the gate of Joshua’ the captain of the city, on the left 9 of a man entering the city gate. Only the height-priests did not go up Jehovah’s altar at Jerusalem; but they ate matzoth among their 10 brothers. And he desecrated the fire-pit that was in Ben-Hinnom’s

- Valley for a man to send his child over through the fire to Melec, 11 and made an end of the ponies the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of Jehovah's house, putting them in the vestry of Eunuch Nathan-Melec, in the addition; and the chariot of the sun 12 he burned up. And the altars on the roof, Ahaz's upper story, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars Manasseh had made in the two courts of Jehovah's house, the king pulled down; and he smashed them up on the spot, and threw the dust of them into Kidron 13 Arroyo. And the heights along to the east of Jerusalem, south of the Mount of Olives, which King Solomon of Israel had built to 'Ashtart the goddess of the Phenicians and to Kemosh the god of Moab and to 14 Melec the god of the Bene-Ammon, the king desecrated, and broke up the obelisks and cut down the asherahs and filled their places full of human bones.
- 15 And the altar at Bethel too, the height Jeroboam the son of Nebat had made, he who made Israel sin, that altar too and the height the king pulled down, and broke up its stones, pounding them to dust, 16 and burned its asherah. And Josiah turned and saw the graves there on the mountainside, and sent and took the bones out of the graves and burned them on the altar and defiled it, in accordance with Jehovah's prediction which the man of God had proclaimed when Jeroboam was standing by the altar at the feast; and he turned and 17 raised his eyes toward the grave of the man of God who had proclaimed these things, and said "What is yonder marker that I see?" and the men of the city said to him "The grave is the grave of the man of God who came out of Judah and proclaimed these things that 18 you have done against the altar." And he said "Leave it alone; let nobody disturb his bones"; and they left his bones in security, with the bones of the prophet that came from Samaria.
- 19 And Josiah also cleared away all the height-houses in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made by way of provocation, 20 and did to them just such things as he had at Bethel. And he killed on the altars like sacrificed animals all the height-priests there, and burned human bones on them, and came back to Jerusalem.
- 21 And the king gave orders to all the people "Celebrate a passover to your God Jehovah in accordance with what is written in this book 22 of the code"; for the like of that passover had not been celebrated since the time of the judges who had judged Israel, and all the time 23 of the kings of Israel and of Judah, but in the year eighteen of King Josiah this passover was celebrated in Jehovah's honor at Jerusalem.
- 24 And the spirit-mediums of different kinds too, and the teraphim and the fetishes, and all the disgustments that were to be seen in the country of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah routed out, in order to put in effect the words of the code, written in the book that Priest 25 Hilkijah had found in Jehovah's house. And there had not been the like of him before him, a king who went back to Jehovah with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his being, in full accordance with the code of Moses, nor did there arise another the like of him after him.

26 Yet Jehovah did not turn back from his great anger which he had conceived against Judah for all the provocations Manasseh had given 27 him. And Jehovah thought "I will remove Judah too from before my face, as I did Israel, and reject this city that I chose, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said 'My name shall be there.'"

28 And as to the rest of the history of Josiah, and all that he did, it 29 is recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. In his time King Pharaoh Necho of Egypt went up the river Euphrates against the king of Assyria, and King Josiah went to meet him, and he killed him 30 at Megiddo when he saw him. And his officers set him in his chariot dead and took him away from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own grave; and the populace took Josiah's son Jehoahaz and anointed him, and installed him as his father's successor.

31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned three months at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 32 Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah. And he did what 33 displeased Jehovah, just as his fathers had. And Pharaoh Necho put him under arrest at Riblah in the country of Hamath, and gave the country a fine of a hundred hundredweight of silver and a hundred-34 weight of gold; and Pharaoh Necho installed Josiah's son Eljakim as successor to his father Josiah, and renamed him Jehojakim. And 35 Jehoahaz he took and brought to Egypt, and he died there; and the silver and the gold Jehojakim gave to the Pharaoh, but he assessed the country to give the silver, by the Pharaoh's directions—each man in accordance with his assessment exacted the silver and gold to give to Pharaoh Necho.

36 Jehojakim was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned eleven years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 37 Zebidah the daughter of Pedajah, from Rumah. And he did what dis-

1 pleased Jehovah, just as his fathers had. In his time King Nebucadnessar of Babylon came up, and Jehojakim became his subject for 2 three years, but went back and threw off his allegiance to him. And Jehovah sent upon him the raiders of the Chaldeans and of Syria and of Moab and of the Bene-'Ammon, in accordance with Jehovah's pre-3 diction which he had made by his servants the prophets. It was all a matter of Jehovah's anger at Judah, to remove it from before his face for Manasseh's sins, appropriately to everything he had done, 4 including the innocent blood he had shed and filled Jerusalem full 5 of innocent blood, and Jehovah would not forgive. And as to the rest of the history of Jehojakim, and all that he did, they are recorded

- 6 in the chronicles of the kings of Judah. And Jehojakim went to rest with his fathers, and his son Jehojakin succeeded him.
- 7 And the king of Egypt never again came out of his country; for the king of Babylon had taken everything that had belonged to the king of Egypt from Egypt Arroyo to the river Euphrates.
- 8 Jehojakin was eighteen years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned three months at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was
- 9 Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan, from Jerusalem. And he did what
- 10 displeased Jehovah, just as his father had. At that time King Nebucadnessar of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.
- 11 And King Nebucadnessar of Babylon came against the city while his
- 12 officers were besieging it, and King Jehojakin of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother and his officials, and his
- 13 generals and his eunuchs, and the king of Babylon took him, in the year eight of his reign. And he brought out from there all the treasures of Jehovah's house and of the palace, and mutilated all the golden things that King Solomon of Israel had made in Jehovah's temple,
- 14 as Jehovah had foretold. And he deported all Jerusalem, and all the generals, and all the leading men, a deportation of ten thousand, and all the carpenters and smiths; there was nobody left but the
- 15 proletariat; and he deported Jehojakin to Babylon, and the queen-mother and the king's wives and his eunuchs, and the notables of the country, he sent along from Jerusalem to Babylon as a deportation; and all the leading men, seven thousand in number, and the
- 16 carpenters and smiths, one thousand, the whole number fighting men, the king of Babylon brought to Babylon as a deportation. And the
- 17 king of Babylon installed his uncle Mattaniah as his successor, and renamed him Sidkijah.
- 18 Sidkijah was twenty-one years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned eleven years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was
- 19 Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah. And he did what
- 20 displeased Jehovah just as Jehojakim had, because it was a matter of Jehovah's anger at Jerusalem and Judah, till he threw them away from before his face.

- 1 And Sidkijah broke his allegiance to the king of Babylon. And in the year nine of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, King Nebucadnessar of Babylon came against Jerusalem, he and all his forces, and beleaguered it and built a wall of investment
- 2 around it; and the city was besieged till the year eleven of King Sidkijah in the fourth month, the ninth of the month. And hunger was pressing hard in the city, and there was no bread for the populace;
- 3 and the city was breached. And the king and all the men of war went out in the night by way of the gate between the two walls along the king's garden, the city being beset all round by the Chaldeans, and

5 went in the direction of the Rift Valley. And the Chaldean forces 6 pursued the king and overtook him on the flats at Jericho, all his 7 forces being scattered away from him, and they captured the king and took him up to Riblah to the king of Babylon, and he held a court and tried him. And he cut the throats of Sidkijah's sons before his eyes, and put out Sidkijah's eyes, and put him in fetters and brought him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month, it being the year nineteen of King Nebucadnessar of Babylon, Chief Guardsman 9 Nebuzaradan, the king of Babylon's officer, came to Jerusalem and burned down Jehovah's house and the royal palace and all the houses 10 in Jerusalem; and all the Chaldean forces that the Chief Guardsman 11 had with him pulled down the walls of Jerusalem all around. And the rest of the people, those who were left of the people in the city, and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest 12 of the craftsmen, Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan deported; but some of the proletariat the Chief Guardsman left for vineyardists and farmers.

13 And the bronze pillars at Jehovah's house, and the stands and the bronze sea in Jehovah's house, the Chaldeans broke up, and carried 14 the bronze of them away to Babylon; and they took the pots and shovels and snuffers and pans, and all the bronze articles with which 15 the priests officiated. And the firepans and the bowls, gold what was 16 gold and silver what was silver, the Chief Guardsman took. And the pillars two, and the sea one, and the stands ten, which Solomon had made for Jehovah's house—there was no weighing the bronze of all 17 these articles. Twenty-seven feet was the height of one pillar, and it had on it a bronze capital, the height of the capital being seven and a half feet, and on the capital, surrounding it, a network and pomegranates, all bronze; and the second pillar had the like on the network.

18 And the Chief Guardsman took High Priest Seraiah and Second 19 Priest Sephaniah and the three threshold-keepers, and out of the city he took a eunuch who had had the oversight of the fighting men, and five of such men having the right of seeing the king's face as were to be found in the city, and the general's secretary who had had the summoning of the militia, and sixty of the civilians who were 20 found in the city; Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan took them and 21 brought them to Riblah to the king of Babylon, and the king of Babylon struck them dead at Riblah, in the country of Hamath; and Judah was deported off its soil.

22 And as for the people left in the country of Judah, those whom King Nebucadnessar of Babylon had left, he put Gedaliah the son 23 of Ahikam the son of Shaphan in charge of them; and all the captains of partisan troops, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah in charge, and they came to Mispah to Gedaliah—Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah and Johanan the son of Kareah and

- Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite and Jaazaniah the 24 Ben-Maacathite, they and their men—and Gedaliah swore to his good faith toward them and their men, and said to them "Do not be afraid of the Chaldeans' soldiery; live in the country and be subject 25 to the king of Babylon and be well off." But in the seventh month Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama', of the royal blood, came and assassinated Gedaliah and the Jews and Chaldeans 26 he had with him at Mispah. And all the people, small and great, and the partisan captains, went off into Egypt because they were afraid of the Chaldeans.
- 27 And in the thirty-seventh year of the deportation of King Jehojakin of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, King Evil-Merodac of Babylon, in the year of his accession 28 to the throne, released King Jehojakin of Judah from jail and had a friendly conversation with him, and put his throne above the thrones 29 of the kings he had with him at Babylon, and changed his jail clothes, 30 and he ate before him regularly as long as he lived. And his allowance was a regular one given him daily out of the royal supplies as long as he lived.

- a And King Solomon went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in his father David's city with his father (codd. fathers); and his son Rehoboam succeeded him as king at Jerusalem, being sixteen years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned twelve years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Na'amah, daughter of Anah the son of King Nahash of Ammon. And he did what displeased Jehovah, and did not walk in his father David's path.
 b And there was a man out of the highland of Ephraim, an officer of Solomon's, named Jeroboam, whose mother's name was Sarlisa, a prostitute; and Solomon made him district chief over all the portorage of the line of Joseph, and he fortified Sereda in the highland of Ephraim for Solomon, and had three hundred teams of ponies; it was he who built the Millo by the portorage of the line of Ephraim; it was he who closed up the fortifications of David's City. And he aspired to the kingship; and Solomon tried to have him put to death, and he was afraid and fled away to King Shoshak of Egypt, and was with him till d Solomon's death. And Jeroboam heard in Egypt that Solomon was dead, and he said in talking with King Shoshak "Give me leave to go to my own country"; and Shoshak said to him "Ask me for any boon and I will give it to you." (Shoshak had given e Ano, the elder sister of his own wife Tahminas, to Jeroboam as his wife; she had grown up among the princesses; and she had had by Jeroboam a son Abijah.) And Jeroboam said to Shoshak "Do give me leave to go"; and Jeroboam came out of Egypt, and came to the Sereda country in the highland of Ephraim. And all the tribe of Ephraim came together there; and Jeroboam built a stronghold there.

g And his child was taken very severely sick; and Jeroboam went to inquire about the child. And he said to his wife Ano "Go and inquire of God about the child, whether he will get well of his sickness." And there was a man in Shiloh whose name was Ahijah, and he was sixty years old, and had Jehovah's word with him; and Jeroboam said to his wife "Up with you, and take in your hand bread for the man of God and seed-cakes (unc.) for his children, and a bunch of raisins and a bottle of honey"; and the woman rose and took in her hand bread and a couple of seed-cakes and a bunch of raisins and a bottle of honey for k Ahijah (the man was old, and his eyes too dim to see), and started from Sereda and went. And as she came into the city to Ahijah the Shilonite, Ahijah said to his boy "Go out to meet Jeroboam's wife Ano and say to her 'Come in without stopping, because Jehovah says "I am sending a hard message about you."'" And Ano went in to the man of God, and Ahijah said "Why have you brought me bread and raisins and seed-cakes and a bottle of honey? says Jehovah, As you go from me, when you enter the gate going into Sereda your girls will come out to meet you and will tell you the child is dead; for, says Jehovah, I will exterminate every male person that belongs to Jeroboam: whoever of Jeroboam's dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and whoever dies in the country the birds of the air shall eat; but over the child they shall wail 'O, my lord!' because there has been found in him something good with reference to Jehovah."

And the woman went away when she had heard it; and when she came into Sereda the child died and the outcry of lamentation came out to meet her.

And Jeroboam went to Shechem in the highland of Ephraim, and gathered the tribes of Israel there, and Rehoboam the son of Solomon went up there. And Jehovah's word came to Shemaiah the Enlomite "Get yourself a new cloak that has not been in water, and tear it in twelve pieces; and give it to Jeroboam and say to him 'Says Jehovah, Take yourself ten pieces to put around you.'" And Jeroboam took them; and Shemaiah said "Says Jehovah, You shall reign over the ten tribes of Israel."

And the people said to Rehoboam the son of Solomon "Your father made his yoke a heavy load on us, and the food for his table a heavy load; but now you will make it lighter on us and we will be your subjects." And Rehoboam said to the people "In three days more I will reply to you."

And Rehoboam said "Bring the elders in to me, and let me consult them as to what reply I shall give the people on the third day." And Rehoboam recited the message to them as the people had sent it to him; and the elders of the people said "The people told you right"; but Rehoboam set aside their policy, and it did not suit him. And he sent and brought in those who had grown up with him, and told them the same, "The people have sent me a message like this." And those who had grown up with him said "This is what you will say to the people: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's hips; my father flogged you with whips, but I will keep you in order with scorpions';" and the speech suited Rehoboam, and he answered the people in accordance with the advice the boys who had grown up with him had given him.

And all the people, as one man, said to each other, and one and all cried out, "We have no share in David, nor estate in Jesse's son; to your homes, Israel, because this is not a man for prince or for warden"; and all the people scattered away from Shechem and went to their homes. And Rehoboam put his best foot foremost to get to his chariot and get in and get to Jerusalem; and all the tribe of Judah and all the tribe of Benjamin followed him.

And when the new year came in Rehoboam gathered all the men of Judah and Benjamin and went up to make war with Jeroboam at Shechem. And Jehovah's word came to Shemaiah the man of God "Say to King Rehoboam of Judah and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people 'Says Jehovah, You shall not go up, nor make war with your brothers the children of Israel; go back home; for this thing has come from me.'" And they listened to Jehovah's word and refrained from going, in accordance with Jehovah's word. (There are no verses j, v, w.)

had two sons born to him; the one's name was Peleg, because in his time the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan.
20 And Joktan had sons, Almodad and Sheleph and Hadramaut and

4 (and their sister's name was Haslelponi) and Penuel the father of Gedor and 'Ezer the father of Hushah; these are the sons of Hur, eldest son of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem. And Ashhur the 5 father of Tekoa' had two wives, Helah and Na'arah; and Na'arah bore him Ahuzzam and Hephher and Temni and the Ahashtarite—these 6 are Na'arah's sons; and Helah's sons were Sereth and Sohar and 7 Ethnan and Kos, and Kos begot 'Anub and Hassobebah and the clans 8 of Aharhel the son of Harum. And Ja'bes came to outrank his brothers; and his mother had named him Ja'bes "because I had a hard time 9 bearing him," but Ja'bes called on the God of Israel, saying "If you will bless me and increase my territory, and your hand be with me, and you make pasturage so that I do not have hard times," and God brought to pass what he asked.

11 And Kelub the brother of Shuhah begot Mehir; he was the father 12 of Eshton, and Eshton begot Beth-Rapha and Paseah and Tehinnah the father of 'Ir-Nahash; these were Recah's men. And Kenaz's sons

19 Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah, whom Mered married. And the sons of Hodijah's wife, the sister of Naham the father of Ke'ilah, were the 20 Garmite and Eshtemoa' the Ma'acathite. And the sons of Shimon were Amnon and Rinnah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon; and the sons of 21 Ishei were Zoheth, and Zoheth's son. And the sons of Judah's son Shelah were 'Er the father of Lecah and Laghdah the father of 22 Mareshah, and the clans of the Beth-Ashbea' linen factory, and Jokim and the men of Cozeba and Joash and Saraph who had Moab, and 23 Jashubi-Lehem (the affairs are old-time ones). These are the potters and those who lived at Netaim and Gederah; they lived there with the king on his business.

25 Simeon's sons were Nemuel and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Saul, Shallum 26 his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma' his son; and Mishma's sons were Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son; and Shimei had 27 sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many sons, and all their clans did not become numerous comparably to the 28 sons of Judah. And they lived at Beer-Sheba' and Moladah and Hasar-29 30 Shu'al and at Bilhah and at 'Esem and at Tolad and at Bethuel and 31 at Hormah and at Siklag and at Beth-Marcaboth and at Hasar-Susim 32 and at Beth-Biri and at Sha'araim; these were their cities till David 33 became king. And their villages were 'Etam and 'Ajin, Rimmon and

 Joel and Jehu the son of Joshibiah the son of Serajah the son of 37 'Adiel and Isimiel and Benajah and Ziza the son of Shiphei the son of Allon the son of Jedajah the son of Shimri the son of Shema'iah,— 38 these who come in by name were princes in their clans, and their 39 families spread greatly. And they went at the entrance to Gerar to 40 east of the valley looking for pasturage for their sheep and goats, 41 and found good fat pasturage, and the country spacious and quiet and prosperous (for those who used to live there were from Ham), and these men who have been written down by name went in there in the days of King Hezekiah of Judah and made havoc of their tents and the Me'unites who were found there, and destroyed them without 42 quarter to remain a desolation to this day, and settled in their place, because there was pasturage there for their sheep and goats. And of them, of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to the highland of Se'ir, with Pelatiah and Na'ariah and Rephajah and 'Uzziel the sons 43 of Ishei at their head, and struck down the surviving remnant of 'Amalek, and are living there to this day.

CHAPTER 5

1 And the sons of Reuben, Israel's eldest son (for he was the eldest, but at his profaning his father's couch the status of eldest was given 2 to the sons of Israel's son Joseph, but the genealogy is not to follow the status. For Judah rose to preeminence among his brothers, and a warden out of him; but the status of eldest belongs to Joseph)— 3 the sons of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, were Hanoc and Pallu, Hesron 4 and Carmi. Joel's sons were Shema'iah his son, Gog his son, Shimei 5 6 his son, Micah his son, Reajah his son, Ba'al his son, Beerah his son, whom King Tiglath-Pilneser of Assyria deported; he was a prince 7 of the Reubenites. And his brothers by clans, in genealogy line by 8 line, were Je'iel the chief and Zecariah and Bela' the son of 'Azaz the son of Shema' the son of Joel—he lived at 'Aro'er and up to 9 Nebo and Baal-Me'on, and on the east he lived up into the wilderness in the direction of the river Euphrates, because their livestock had 10 grown numerous in Gilead. And in Saul's days they made war with the Hagarites, and they fell by their hands, and they lived in their tents all along the east frontier of Gilead.

11 And the sons of Gad lived next them in the Bashan country up to 12 Salcah: Joel the chief, and Shapham the second, and Ja'nai and 13 Shaphat, in the Bashan; and their brothers by their families, Micael and Meshullam and Sheba' and Jorai and Ja'can and Zia' and 'Eber—14 seven. These were the sons of Abihail the son of Huri the son of 15 Jaroah the son of Gilead the son of Micael the son of Jeshishai the 16 son of Jahdo the son of Buz. Ahi the son of 'Abdiel the son of Guni was chief for their families. And they lived in Gilead, in the Bashan and its dependencies, and on all the downs of Sharon to the extremities 17 of them. All of them had their census taken in the time of King 18 Jotham of Judah and of King Jeroboam of Israel: of the sons of Reuben and Gadites and the half of the tribe of Manasseh, of stalwart men, men to bear shield and sword and to bend bows, and trained in fighting, there were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty 19 militia. And they made war with the Hagarites and Jetur and Naphish 20 and Nodab, and were helped against them, and the Hagarites and all who were with them were given into their hands, because they cried to God in the war and he let himself be invoked because they 21 had confidence in him. And they captured their livestock, fifty thousand of their camels and two hundred and fifty thousand sheep and goats and two hundred thousand donkeys, and a hundred thousand 22 living human beings—for many had fallen in the fighting, because the war was from God. And they lived in their place till the deportation.

23 And the sons of the half of the tribe of Manasseh lived in the country from Bashan to Baal-Hermon and Senir and Mount Hermon; 24 they were numerous. And these were the heads of their families:
'Epher and Ishei and Eliel and 'Azriel and Jeremiah and Hodaviah and Jahdiel, solid men, men of reputation, heads of their families.
25 But they were unfaithful to their fathers' God and prostituted themselves to go after the gods of the peoples of the country, whom God 26 had rooted out before them; and Israel's God excited the spirit of King Pul of Assyria and of King Tiglath-Pilneser of Assyria, and he deported them, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half of the tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah and Habor and Hara and the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

4 were Micael and 'Obadiah and Joel and Isshijah—five, all heads; 5 and about them, line by line by families, raiding bands for military service, thirty-six thousand, because they had numerous wives and 6 sons. And of their brothers of all the clans of Issacar, stalwart men, there were eighty-seven thousand. All had their genealogical register.

And he went in to his wife, and she conceived and had a son, and he named him Beri'ah because it was going badly with his family. And his daughter was Sheerah; and she built Beth-Horon, the lower and the upper, and Uzzen-Sheerah. And Rephah was his son, and Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, Laghdan his son, 'Ammihud his son, Elishama' his son, Nun his son, Joshua' his son.

And their properties and domiciles were Bethel and its dependencies, and on the east Na'aran, and on the west Gezer and its dependencies, and Shekem and its dependencies, to Ghaijah and its dependencies. And in the hands of the sons of Manasseh were Beth-Shean and its dependencies, Ta'anac and its dependencies, Megiddo and its dependencies, Dor and its dependencies. In these lived the sons of Joseph the son of Israel.

Asher's sons were Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beri'ah and their sister Serah; and Beri'ah's sons were Heber and Malkiel—he was the father of Birzoth; and Heber begot Japhlet and Shomer and Hotham and their sister Shu'ah; and Japhlet's sons were Pasac and Bimhal and 'Ashvath—these were Japhlet's sons; and his brother Shemer's sons were Rohgah and Hubbah and Aram; and his brother Helem's sons were Sophah and Imna' and Shelesh and 'Amal, and Sophah's sons were Suah and Harnepher and Shughal and Beri and Imrah, Beser and Hod and Shamma and Shilshah and Ithran and Beera, and Jether's sons were Jephunneh and Pispah and Ara, and 'Ulla's sons were Arah and Hanniel and Risja. All these were Asher's sons, the heads of families, sifted out, solid men, heads of the princes, and their genealogical register was by militia service in war; their number was twenty-six thousand men.

And Benjamin begot Bela' his eldest, Ashbel the second, and Ahrah the third, Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. And Bela' had sons, Addar and Gera and Abihud and Abishua' and Na'aman and Ahoah and Gera and Shephuphan and Huram. And these are Ehud's sons; these are heads of families of the inhabitants of Geba', but they deported them to Manahath, and Na'aman and Ahijah and Gera; he deported them; and he begot 'Uzza and Ahihud. And Shaharaim begot in the Moabite countryside, from his sending them—his wives Hushim and Ba'ara—away, he begot, from his wife Hodesh, Jobab and Sibja and Mesha and Malcam and Jeghus and Sacjah and Mirmah; these were his sons, heads of families. And from Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpa'al; and Elpa'al's sons were 'Eber and Misheam and Shemed—he built Ono and Lod and its dependencies—and Beri'ah and Shema'; they were heads of families of the inhabitants of Aijalon; they drove the inhabitants of Gath into flight; and his brother Shashak and Jeremoth and Zebadiah and 'Arad and 'Eder and Micael and Ishpah and Joha, the sons of Beri'ah; and Zebadiah and Meshullam and Hizki and Heber and Ishmerai and Izliah and Jobab, the sons of Elpa'al; and Jakim and Zicri and Zabdi and Eli'enai and Sillethai and Eliel and 'Adajah and Beraiah and Shimrath, the sons of Shimei; and Ishpan and 'Eber and Eliel and 'Abdon and Zicri and Hanan and Hananiah and 'Elam and 'Anathothijah and Iphdejah and Peniel, the sons of Shashak; and Shamsheraï and Shehariah and 'Athaliah and Jaghareshiah and Elijah and Zicri, the sons of Jeroham. These were heads of families line by line, headmen; these lived in Jerusalem.

And at Gibeon lived Je'iel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Ma'acah, and his eldest son 'Abdon and Sur and Kish and Ba'al and Ner and Nadab and Gedor and Ahjo and Zeker and Mikloth; and Mikloth begot Shimah, and they too lived fronting their brothers at Jerusalem with their brothers. And Ner begot Kish, and Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan and Malki-Shua' and Abinadab and Eshbaal, and Jonathan's son was Meribaal, and Meribaal begot Micah; and Micah's sons were Pithon and Melec and Tarea' and Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Jeho'addah, and Jeho'addah begot 'Alemeth and 'Azma-veth and Zimri, and Zimri begot Mosa, and Mosa begot Binea; Raphah his son, Eleasah his son, Asel his son; and Asel had six sons, and these are their names: 'Azrikam, Bokeru, and Ishma'el and She'ariah and 'Obadiah and Hanan—all these were Asel's sons; and his brother 'Esek's sons were Ulam his eldest, Jeghush the second, and Eliphelet the third. And Ulam's sons were stalwart men, archers, with many sons and grandsons, a hundred and fifty of them. All these were Benjamin's sons.

1 And all Israel was genealogically listed, and will be found set down in the book of the kings of Israel. And Judah was deported to Babylon for their unfaithfulness. And the first residents, who were on their properties in their cities, were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the temple-servants.

2 And there lived in Jerusalem, of the sons of Judah and of the sons of Benjamin and of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh, Ghuthai the son of 'Ammihud the son of 'Omri the son of Imri the son of Bani, of the sons of Peres the son of Judah; and of the Shelanites 3 'Asajah the eldest and his sons; and of the sons of Zerah Je'uel; and 4 their brothers, six hundred and ninety. And of the sons of Benjamin Sallu the son of Meshullam the son of Hodaviah the son of Hassenuah, 5 and Ibnejah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of 'Uzzi the son of Micri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah the son of Reghuel

9 the son of Ibnijah, and their brothers, line by line, nine hundred and fifty-six; all these were men that were ancestral heads of their families.
11 And of the priests Jeda'iah and Jehojarib and Jakin and 'Azariah the son of Hilkiyah the son of Meshullam the son of Sadok the son of 12 Merajoth the son of Ahitub, warden of the house of God, and 'Adajah the son of Jeroham the son of Pashhur the son of Malkijah, and Ma'asai the son of 'Adiel the son of Jahzerah the son of Meshullam 13 the son of Meshillemith the son of Immer, and their brothers, heads of their families, seventeen hundred and sixty, men stalwart for the 14 business of the service of the house of God. And of the Levites Shema'iah the son of Hasshub the son of 'Azrikam the son of Hashabiah of 15 the sons of Merari, and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal and Mattaniah the son of Mica the son of Zicri the son of Asaph, and 'Obadiah the 16 son of Shema'iah the son of Galal the son of Jeduthun, and Berekiah the son of Asa the son of Elkanah who lived in the Netophathite villages.

17 And the gatemen were Shallum and 'Akkub and Talmon and Ahi-18 man and their brothers; Shallum was the head, and is till now at the king's gate on the east. They were the gatemen for the camp of the 19 sons of Levi, and Shallum the son of Kore the son of Ebjasaph the son of Korah and his brothers for their family the Korahites over 20 the business of the service, the threshold-guards for the Tent, and their fathers over Jehovah's camp, the entrance-guards. Pinehas the 21 son of Eleazar was warden over them formerly—Jehovah be with him; Zecariah the son of Meshelemiah was gateman at the entrance of the 22 Tent of Meeting. All of them, the eligibles for gatemen at the thresholds, came to two hundred and twelve; their genealogical listing was 23 done in their villages. Them David and Samuel the seer had established in their trust, and they and their sons were over the gates for 24 Jehovah's house, for the tent-house; the gatemen were by watches 25 on the four sides, east, west, north, and south, and their brothers were in their villages to come in for seven days periodically with 26 these, for they were on honor. Those were the four sergeants of the gatemen.

The Levites were over the vestries and over the storerooms in the 27 house of God, and lodged around the house of God at night, because they were under a responsibility and had charge of the opening 28 morning by morning; and some of them were over the implements for the service, for they passed them in by count and passed them out 29 by count, and some of them were assigned to be over the furnishings and over all the sacred vessels and over the farina and the wine and 30 the oil and the frankincense and the spices. But some of the sons of the priests did the preparation of the spices; and Mattithiah, one of 31 the Levites (he was the eldest-born of Shallum the Korahite), was entrusted with the pancake-making; and some of the sons of the 32

Kehathites, brothers of theirs, were over the stacked bread, to prepare it sabbath by sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, Levite heads of families, exempt from service in the vestries because day and night they were under obligation in their function:—

34 These were Levite heads of families line by line, headmen; these lived in Jerusalem.

35 And at Gibeon lived the father of Gibeon, Je'iel, whose wife's 36 name was Ma'acah, and his eldest son 'Abdon and Sur and Kish and 37 Ba'al and Ner and Nadab and Gedor and Ahjo and Zecariah and 38 Mikloth; and Mikloth begot Shimam, and they too lived fronting their 39 brothers at Jerusalem with their brothers. And Ner begot Kish, and Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan and Malki-Shua' and 40 Abinadab and Eshbaal, and Jonathan's son was Meribaal, and Meri-41 baal begot Micah; and Micah's sons were Pithon and Melec and Tahrea' 42 and Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Ja'dah, and Ja'dah begot 'Alemeth and 43 'Aznaveth and Zimri, and Zimri begot Mosa, and Mosa begot Binea 44 and Rephajah his son, Eleasah his son, Asel his son; and Asel had six sons, and these are their names: 'Azrikam, Bokeru, and Ishma'el and She'ariah and 'Obadiah and Hanan—these were Asel's sons.

CHAPTER 10

1 And the Philistines fought the Israelites, and the men of Israel ran before the Philistines, and fell stabbed through on Mount Gilboa'.
2 And the Philistines kept close after Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan and Abinadab and Malki-Shua'.
3 And the onslaught on Saul was fierce, and the archers hit him, and 4 he was hurt by the archers. And Saul said to his squire "Draw your sword and run me through with it, for fear these uncircumcised fellows should come and amuse themselves with me"; but his squire would not, because he was too much afraid. But Saul took his sword 5 and threw himself on it; and his squire saw that Saul was dead, and 6 he too threw himself on his own sword and died. And Saul and his 7 three sons and all his household died. And all the men of Israel in the Vale saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, and they left their cities and fled, and the Philistines came and lived in the cities.

8 And on the next day the Philistines came to strip the killed, and 9 found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa'; and they stripped him and took his head and his equipment and sent them around through the Philistine country to bring the news to their idols and 10 the people, and put his equipment in the temple of their god; and his skull they pegged up in the temple of Dagon.

11 And all Jabesh in Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to 12 Saul; and all the bravest men set out and took up the remains of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the terebinth tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

- 13 And Saul died for his unfaithfulness that he had committed against Jehovah as to Jehovah's word which he did not observe, and also in 14 that he asked for a medium to inquire of, and did not inquire of Jehovah, and he brought him to death and diverted the kingship to

CHAPTER 11

- 1 David the son of Jesse. And all Israel gathered to David at Hebron 2 saying "Here we are, your flesh and blood. Even formerly, even when Saul was king, it was you that led Israel out and in; and your God Jehovah said to you 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you 3 shall be warden over my people Israel.'" And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David gave pledges to them at Hebron before Jehovah, and they anointed David king over Israel in accordance with Jehovah's word by Samuel.

- 4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, that is, Jebus; and 5 the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the country, were there. And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David "You will not get in here." And 6 David took the fastness of Sion, what is now David's City. And David said "Anyone who strikes down a Jebusite first shall be chief and captain"; and Joab the son of Serujah was first up, and became chief.
7 And David fixed his residence in the fastness (that is why they call 8 it David's City) and built the fortifications of the city all round, from the Millo the full circuit, and Joab renewed the remainder of the city.
9 And David grew greater and greater, and Jehovah of Armies was with him.

- 10 And these were David's chief champions who were active in his service in his reign over all Israel, to make him king in accordance 11 with Jehovah's word by Samuel. And this is the count of the champions David had: Ishbaal the son of Hacmoni, head of the Thirty; 12 he brandished his spear over three hundred killed at one time. And next to him Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite; he was among the 13 Three Champions; he had been with David at Pas-Dammim, and the Philistines had come together there for war, and there was a field 14 full of barley, and the people had fled from the Philistines; and he took his stand in the middle of the field and rescued it; and they defeated the Philistines, and Jehovah granted a great victory.

- 15 And three of the Chief Thirty went down to the rock to David at the cave of 'Adullam, when a Philistine army was camping in Ghost 16 Hollow; and David was in the fastness then, and the Philistine prefect 17 was then at Bethlehem. And David was taken with a craving, and said "I wish I had a drink of water out of the Bethlehem well at the 18 gate"; and the three burst through the Philistine camp and drew water out of the Bethlehem well at the gate and carried it away to David. But David would not drink it, but poured it out as an offering 19 to Jehovah, and said "My God forbid the thought of my doing this: shall I drink these men's blood with their lives in it?" because they had brought it at the risk of their lives; and he would not drink it.

These things the three champions did.

20 And Joab's brother Abishai, he was head of the Three; and he brandished his spear over three hundred killed, and used to be named 21 among the Three. He was more honored in fame than the Three, and became captain over them, but he did not get into the Three.

22 Benajah the son of Jehojada', a man of mettle and of many exploits, from Kabseel: it was he who killed the two Ariels of Moab, and who went down and killed the lion in the cistern on the day of 23 the snowstorm, and who killed the Egyptian, a tall man, seven and a half feet, the Egyptian having in his hand a spear like a weaver's pole and he going down to him with a cudgel and snatching the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killing him with his own spear.
24 These things Benajah the son of Jehojada' did, and used to be named 25 among the Three Champions; he was, be it noted, more honored than the Thirty, but did not get into the Three; but David set him over his guard.

26 And the champions of the troops: Joab's brother 'Asahel, Elhanan 27 the son of Dodo from Bethlehem, Shammoth the Harodite, Heles the 28 Pelonite, 'Ira the son of 'Ikkes the Teko'ite, Abi'ezer the 'Anathothite, 29 30 Sibbecai the Hushathite, 'Lai the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, 31 Heled the son of Ba'anah the Netophathite, Ithai the son of Ribai 32 from Gibeah of the Benjamites, Benajah the Pireathonite, Hurai from 33 the Ga'ash ravines, Abiel the 'Arbathite, 'Azmaveth the Baharumite, 34 Eljahba the Sha'albonite, the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan 35 the son of Shagah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, 36 Eliphal the son of Ur, Hephher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pilonite, 37 38 Hesro the Carmelite, Na'arai the son of Ezbai, Joel the brother of 39 Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, Selek the 'Ammonite, Naharai the 40 Beerothite, squire to Joab the son of Serujah, 'Ira the Jetherite, 41 Gareb the Jetherite, Urijah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai, 42 'Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites and 43 about him thirty, Hanan the son of Ma'acah and Joshaphat the 44 Mathnite, 'Uzija the 'Ashterathite, Shama' and Je'uel the sons of 45 Hotham the 'Aro'erite, Jedi'ael the son of Shimri and his brother 46 Joha the Tisite, Eliel the Mahumite and Jeribai and Joshaviah the 47 sons of Elna'am, and Ithmah the Moabite, Eliel and 'Obed and Ja'asiel the Mesobajah.

CHAPTER 12

1 And these are those who came to David at Siklag while he was still under ban from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among 2 the champions, a great help in battle, armed with bows, using both right and left hand to send stones and arrows with the bow, brothers

3 of Saul's from Benjamin: Ahi'ezer the chief and Joash, the sons of Hasshema'ah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel and Pelet the sons of 4 'Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the 'Anathothite, and Ishma'iah the Gibeonite, a champion among the Thirty and over the Thirty, and Jeremiah and Jahaziel and Johanan and Jozabad the Gederathite, 5 Eleuzai and Jerimoth and Be'aliah and Shemariah and Shephatiah the 6 Hariphite, Elkanah and Isshijah and 'Azarel and Jo'ezer and Jasho-7 beam the Korahites, and Jo'elah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there broke away to David at the fastness in the wilderness the stoutest champions, men to fight in the army, to stand in line with shield and pike, with faces like lions' faces and in 9 swiftmess like gazelles on the mountains, 'Ezer the first, 'Obadiah the 10 second, Eliab the third, Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 12 'Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the 13 14 ninth, Jeremiah the tenth, Macbannai the eleventh. These were sons of Gad, heads in army service, one for a hundred the least and the 15 greatest for a thousand. These were the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was filling its floodplain and drove back all the vales to east and to west.

16 And there came some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah to David 17 at the fastness; and David came out before them and answered them
"If you have come amicably to me to help me, I will be one in heart with you; but if to cheat me for my foes, for no injury at my hands, 18 let the God of our fathers see and give his verdict." And 'Amasai, head of the thirty, was inspired: "For you, David, and with you, son of Jesse; peace, peace to you and peace to your helpers, because your God helps you." And David received them and put them among the heads of the raiders.

19 And of Manasseh there fell off to David when he came with the Philistines to the battle against Saul (but he did not help them, because on advice the Sarns of the Philistines sent him away, thinking
"He will come down on our heads, deserting to his master Saul"); 20 when he was on his way to Siklag there fell off to him, of Manasseh,
'Adnah and Jozabad and Jedi'ael and Micael and Jozabad and Elihu 21 and Sillethai, the chiefs of thousands of Manasseh; and they helped David against the raiders, for all of them were stalwart champions; 22 and they became captains in the army. At every time, day by day, there came to David to help him so many as to make a great camp, like God's camp.

23 And these are the numbers of the heads of the body armed for service that came to David in Hebron to turn over Saul's kingship to him in accordance with Jehovah's voice:

24 Sons of Judah, carrying shield and pike, sixty-eight hundred armed for service.

25 Of the sons of Simeon, stalwart champions for the service, seventy-one hundred.

26 27 Of the sons of the Levites, forty-six hundred, and Jehojada' the 28 warden for Aaron and with him thirty-seven hundred, and Sadok, a youth, a stalwart champion, and his family, twenty-two captains.

29 And of the sons of Benjamin, Saul's brothers, three thousand; but up to then the majority of them were maintaining allegiance to Saul's family.

30 And of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, stalwart men, men of reputation in their families.

31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand who were picked out by name to come to make David king.

32 And of the sons of Issacar, men with sagacious knowledge of times to know what Israel was to do, their heads two hundred and all their brothers following their directions.

33 And of Zebulun, men who went out on service, who went into line of battle with all fighting equipment, five thousand, and to hold with no halfheartedness.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty-seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites, men who went into line of battle, twenty-eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, men who went out in service entering line of battle, forty thousand.

37 And from across the Jordan, of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all equipment for service in war, a hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these were fighting men who would hold in line of battle with whole heart, who had come to Hebron to make David king over all Israel; and the remainder of Israel too was unanimously for making 39 David king. And they were there with David three days, eating and 40 drinking; for their brothers had made preparations for them, and also those who were near them, out to Issacar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing provisions on donkeys and camels and mules and cows, flour products and cakes of figs and clusters of raisins and wine and oil and cattle and sheep and goats in quantities, because there was merrymaking in Israel.

1 And David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hun-2 dreds, every official; and David said to all the assembly of Israel "If you think it best, and it is sanctioned by our God Jehovah, let us send to the remainder of our brothers in all parts of the land of Israel, and with them the Levite priests in their glebe cities, and have them 3 gather to us, and we will get the ark of our God over to us; for we 4 did not look it up in Saul's time." And all the assembly said they should do so, because the proposal suited all the people.

5 And David assembled all Israel from the Delta River in Egypt 6 to Lebo-Hamath to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-Je'arim; and David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath-Je'arim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God Jehovah who 7 sits upon the cherubs, which happened to be there. And they took the ark of God in a new cart out of Abinadab's house; and 'Uzza 8 and Ahjo were driving for the cart, and David and all Israel were playing before God with all energy and with songs and with lyres and 9 harps and tambourines and cymbals and trumpets. And they came to Kidon's threshing-floor, and 'Uzza put out his hand to hold the 10 ark, because the oxen jolted it. And Jehovah was angry with 'Uzza, and smote him down for having put out his hand to the ark, and he died there before God. And David was shocked that Jehovah had 11 scathed 'Uzza, and called that place 'Uzza's Scathe, which name it bears to this day. And David became afraid of God that day, thinking 12 "How can I bring the ark of God to my home?" And David did not move the ark to his home in David's City, but took it into the house 13 of 'Obed-Edom the Gathite. And the ark of God remained with 'Obed-Edom's family in his house three months, and Jehovah blessed 'Obed-Edom's family and everything that belonged to him.

1 And King Hiram of Tyre sent envoys to David, and cedar timber 2 and masons and carpenters to build him a house. And David knew that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel because his 3 empire was exalted on high for the sake of his people Israel. And David took more wives at Jerusalem; and David begot more children.
4 And these are the names of the sons he had at Jerusalem: Shammua' 5 and Shobab, Nathan and Solomon and Ibhaz and Elishua' and El-6 phelet and Nogah and Nepheg and Japhia' and Elishama' and Be-7 eljada' and Eliphelet.

8 And the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel; and all the Philistines came up to look for David; and David 9 heard of it and went out before them. And the Philistines had come and spread out in Ghost Hollow; and David put the question to God 10 "Shall I go up against the Philistines, and will you give them into my hands?" and Jehovah said to him "Go up, and I will give them 11 into your hands." And they went up at Baal-Perasim, and David defeated them there; and David said "God has burst my enemies by my hands like a bursting dam"; hence the place is named Baal-12 Perasim, "Baal of bursts." And they left their gods there, and by David's orders they were burned up.

14 And again the Philistines spread out in the vale, and David again questioned God, and God said to him "Do not go up behind them; make a circuit away from them and come to them opposite the pear-trees, so that when you hear the sound of stepping in the tops of the pear-trees, then you may come out with an attack because God has gone out before you to strike down the Philistine army." And David did as God ordered, and they routed the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer. And David's fame went out through all countries, and Jehovah put the dread of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER 15

And he made himself houses in David's City, and prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. Then David said "There should nobody carry the ark of God but the Levites, because they were the ones Jehovah chose for carrying the ark of God and for tending it forever." And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the ark of Jehovah up to its place which he had prepared for it.

And David brought together the sons of Aaron and the Levites: for the sons of Kehath, Uriel the chief, and a hundred and twenty his brothers; for the sons of Merari, 'Asajah the chief, and a hundred and twenty his brothers; for the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and a hundred and thirty his brothers; for the sons of Elisaphan, Shema'iah the chief, and two hundred his brothers; for the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty his brothers; for the sons of 'Uzziel, 'Aminadab the chief, and a hundred and twelve his brothers. And David called the priests Sadok and Abiathar, and the Levites Uriel, 'Asajah, and Joel, Shema'iah and Eliel and 'Aminadab, and said to them "You are the Levite heads of families; hallow yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring up the ark of Israel's God Jehovah to what I have prepared for it. For because it was not you the first time our God Jehovah scathed us because we did not attend to it in the regular way." And the priests and Levites hallowed themselves to bring up the ark of Israel's God Jehovah; and the sons of the Levites carried the ark of God, as Moses had commanded in accordance with Jehovah's word, on their shoulders by poles over them.

And David told the chiefs of the Levites to station their brothers the singers with musical instruments, harps and lyres and sonorous cymbals to make a high sound of gladness. And the Levites stationed Heman the son of Joel, and of his brothers Asaph the son of Berekiah, and of their brothers the sons of Merari Ethan the son of Kushajah, and with them their brothers to take second parts, Zecariah and Ja'aziel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and 'Unni and Eliab and Benajah and Ma'asejah and Mattithiah and Eliphelehu and Miknejah and 'Obed-Edom and Je'iel the gatemen; and the singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were with bronze cymbals to clang, and Zecariah and 'Aziel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and 'Unni and Eliab and Ma'asejah and Benajah with harps of high pitch, and Mattithiah and Eliphelehu and Miknejah and 'Obed-Edom and Je'iel and 'Azaziah with lyres of bass

- 22 pitch to keep the time. And Kenaniah, chief of the Levites in carrying, was manager about the carrying, because he had good judgment; 24 and Berekiah and Elkanah were gatemen for the ark; and the priests Shebaniah and Joshaphat and Nethanel and 'Amasai and Zecariah and Benajah and Eli'ezer blew the trumpets before the ark of God; 25 and 'Obed-Edom and Jehijah were gatemen for the ark. And David and the elders of Israel and the captains of thousands were the marchers to bring the ark of Jehovah's covenant up from 'Obed-Edom's house with festivity.
- 26 And when God helped the Levites who carried the ark of Jehovah's 27 covenant, they sacrificed seven steers and seven rams. And David was attired in a linen robe, and all the Levites who carried the ark and the singers and Kenaniah the chief of the carrying of the singers; 28 and David had a linen ephod on him. And all Israel brought up the ark of Jehovah's covenant with cheering and blasts of ram-horns and with trumpets and with sonorous cymbals and with harps and lyres.
- 29 And when the ark of Jehovah's covenant came to David's City, Mical the daughter of Saul looked out through the window and saw King David dancing and playing, and felt a contempt for him.

CHAPTER 16

- 1 And they brought the ark of God in and set it in the tent David had pitched for it, and presented burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices 2 before God. And when David finished offering the burnt-offering and the welfare-sacrifices he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah, 3 and distributed to all the men of Israel, women as well as men, a biscuit apiece and a steak and a cake of raisins.
- 4 And he put before the ark of Jehovah some of the Levites as attendants and to sing for the memorial and give thanks and praise 5 to Israel's God Jehovah: Asaph the head, and second under him Zecariah, Je'iel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and Mattithiah and Eliab and Benajah and 'Obed-Edom and Je'iel, with instruments, 6 harps and lyres and Asaph sounding cymbals, and the priests Benajah and Jahaziel with perpetual trumpets before the ark of God's covenant.
- 7 On that day David then first put the giving of thanks to Jehovah into the hands of Asaph and his brothers:
- 8 "Thank Jehovah, proclaim his name, make known among the peoples his deeds; 9 Sing for him, make music for him, review all his wonders, 10 Boast of his holy name, let the hearts of those who seek Jehovah be glad.
- 11 Look to Jehovah and his strength; always be looking for his face.
- 12 Remember his wonders that he has done, his miracles and the judgments of his mouth,

13 You descendants of his servant Israel, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.
 14 He is our God Jehovah, his judgments run throughout the earth.
 15 Forever remember his covenant, the word that he commanded for a thousand years, 16 Which he undertook with Abraham, and Isaac had his oath, 17 And he confirmed it to be a decree for Jacob, a perpetual covenant for Israel, 18 'To you I will give Canaan as your definite estate,' 19 When they were few in number, a mere handful, and immigrants in it, 20 And going about from nation to nation, and from a kingdom to another people.
 21 He did not let any man deny them justice, but reproved kings on their account, 22 'Do not touch my anointed ones nor harm my prophets.' 23 Sing for Jehovah, all the earth!
 Tell the good news of his salvation day after day, 24 Tell the tale of his glory among the nations, among all the peoples his wondrous feats, 25 Because Jehovah is great and high-praised, and he is terrible over all gods, 26 For all the peoples' gods are trumperies, but Jehovah made the skies.
 27 Majesty and splendor are before him, strength and glee in the place where he is.
 28 Give to Jehovah, clans of peoples, give to Jehovah glory and might!
 29 Give to Jehovah the glory that belongs to his name; carry an offering, and come in before him.
 Do reverence to Jehovah in stately sacred garb; 30 tremble before him, all the earth, be the world established too, not to be disturbed.
 31 Let the heavens be glad and the earth jubilant, and let them say among the nations 'Jehovah is king!' 32 Let the sea and what fills it thunder, let the fields and everything in them exult, 33 Then let the trees on the rocks shout, before Jehovah, because he has come to judge the earth!

34 Thank Jehovah, because he is good, because his friendship lasts forever, 35 And let them say 'Save us, God of our salvation, and gather us and deliver us out of the nations, To give thanks to your holy name, to glory in your praise.
36 Blessed be Israel's God Jehovah from eternity to eternity.'"

And all the people said "Amen" and gave praise to Jehovah.

37 And he left there before the ark of Jehovah's covenant Asaph and his brothers to officiate regularly before the ark, giving the daily 38 service each day, and 'Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun and Hosah 39 and their brothers, sixty-eight of them, for gatemen; and before 40 Jehovah's tabernacle at the height in Gibeon Priest Sadok to offer burnt-offerings to Jehovah on the altar of burnt-offering regularly morning and evening, and for everything that is written in Jehovah's 41 code which he commanded to Israel, and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the remainder of the sifted men who have been specified by name, to give thanks to Jehovah because his friendship lasts 42 forever, and with them trumpets and cymbals for sounding and the instruments for the sacred songs, and Jeduthun's sons for the gate.
43 And all the people went to their several homes, and David went around to bless his family.

CHAPTER 17

1 And when David had sat down in his house, David said to the prophet Nathan "Here I am living in the cedar house, but the ark of 2 Jehovah's covenant is under curtains." And Nathan said to David "Whatever you have in mind do; for God is with you."

3 4 But that night God's word came to Nathan "Go and say to my servant David 'Says Jehovah, Are you to build me the house to live in?
5 for I have never lived in a house from the day that I brought Israel up until this day, but have been from tent to tent, and from taber-6 nacle. In all my going about in all Israel did I ever speak with one of the judges of Israel whom I commissioned to be shepherds of my people Israel to say "Why have you not built me a cedar house?"' 7 And now you are to say to my servant David 'Says Jehovah of Armies, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be warden 8 over my people Israel, and I was with you wherever you went and exterminated all your enemies before you; and I will make you a 9 name like the names of the great of the earth, and will fix a place for my people Israel and plant them, and they shall dwell in one spot and never be disturbed again, and no longer shall the men of foul 10 play wear them down as they formerly did, ever since the days when I commissioned judges over my people Israel; and I will humble all your enemies, and will make you great; and Jehovah will build a 11 house for you, and when your time is full for going to be with your 12 fathers, I will raise up after you your issue, who shall be a son of 13 yours, and I will establish his kingship. He shall build me a house, 14 and I will make his throne firm forever. I will be father to him and he 15 shall be son to me, and my friendship I will never withdraw from 16 him as I withdrew it from the one that was before you, but I will 17 let him stand in my house and my kingdom forever; and his throne 18 shall be firm forever.'” Just these words, just this vision, Nathan 19 spoke to David.

20 And King David went in and sat down before Jehovah and said 21 “Who am I, Jehovah God, and who are my house, that you have 22 brought me so far as this? And this has seemed to you a little thing 23 too, God, and you have made promises about your servant's house to 24 distant times, and have viewed me in the aspect of rising men, Jehovah 25 God. What more should David add to you for glory? but you know 26 your servant. Jehovah, for your servant's sake, and in accordance with 27 your own will, you have done all this great work, to make known all 28 the great things. Jehovah, there is none like you and no God but you, 29 as in everything that we have heard with our ears; and who is like 30 your people Israel, a single nation on earth which God has gone to 31 redeem for a people of his own to make you a name? great and 32 terrible things, driving out nations before your people whom you 33 redeemed out of Egypt, and making your people Israel your own 34 people forever, and you, Jehovah, becoming their own God! And now, 35 Jehovah, let the promise you have given about your servant and his 36 house be sure forever, and do as you have promised, and your name 37 will be sure and great forever, men saying ‘Israel has for its God 38 Jehovah of Armies, Israel's God,’ and your servant David's house will 39 be firm before you; because you, my God, have made to your servant 40 the disclosure of building a house for him—this is why your servant 41 has found it possible to pray before you. And now, Jehovah, you 42 are God, and you have promised for your servant this much good; now 43 you have been willing to bless your servant's house that it may be 44 forever before you, because you, Jehovah, have blessed, and it is 45 blessed forever.”

1 And after this David defeated the Philistines and humbled them, 2 and took Gath and its dependencies out of the Philistines' hands.
3 And he defeated the Moabites, and the Moabites became subject to 4 David as tributaries.

5 And David defeated King Hadar'ezer of Sobah at Hamath, when 6 he went to set up his power by the river Euphrates; and David took 7 from him a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen and ten 8 thousand footmen, and hamstrung all the chariot ponies, leaving a 9 hundred teams. And the Syrians of Damascus came to help King

6 Hadar'ezer of Sobah; and David killed twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians. And David set up prefects in Damascene Syria, and the Syrians became tributary subjects of David; and Jehovah made David victorious wherever he went.

7 And David took the golden bucklers that were on Hadar'ezer's 8 officers, and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Tibhath and from Cun, Hadar'ezer's cities, David took very much bronze; with it Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the bronze vessels.
9 And King Toghu of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the 10 forces of King Hadar'ezer of Sobah, and he sent his son Hadoram to King David to ask how he was doing and to bless him for having fought and beaten Hadar'ezer (for Hadar'ezer was a standing enemy of Toghu), and all sorts of articles of silver and gold and bronze; 11 these too King David dedicated to Jehovah, with the silver and gold that he had carried away from all the nations, Edom and Moab and 12 the Bene-'Ammon and the Philistines and the 'Amalekites. And when he came back he defeated the Edomites in Salt Valley, killing eighteen 13 thousand; and he set up prefects in Edom, and all the Edomites became subjects of David; and Jehovah made David victorious wherever he went.

14 And David reigned over all Israel, and did justice and equity for 15 all his people. And Joab the son of Serujah was over the army, and 16 Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was private secretary, and Sadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelec the son of Abiathar were priests, and 17 Shausha was secretary for documents, and Benajah the son of Jehojada' was over the Cretans and the Pletans, and David's first sons were at the king's side.

1 And after this King Nahash of the Bene-'Ammon died, and his 2 son succeeded him. And David thought "I will be friendly to Hanun the son of Nahash, since his father was friendly to me"; and David sent messengers to express sympathy with him at the loss of his father. And David's officers came to Hanun in the country of the 3 Bene-'Ammon to bring him expressions of sympathy; but the chiefs of the Bene-'Ammon said to Hanun "Do you think David is honoring your father when he sends you ambassadors of condolence? is it not 4 for the sake of examining and exploring and spying into the country that his officers have come to you?" And Hanun took David's officers and shaved them and cut off their habiliments in the middle, up to 5 their hams, and sent them off, and off they went. And David was told about the men, and he sent to meet them (for the men were greatly humiliated); and the king said "Stay at Jericho till your beards grow, and then come back."

6 And the Bene-'Ammon saw that they were at deadly feud with David; and Hanun and the Bene-'Ammon sent a thousand hundred-weight of silver to hire chariots and cavalry from Mesopotamia and 7 from Ma'acathite Syria and from Sobah, and hired themselves thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Ma'acah and his people, and they came and camped in front of Medeba; and the Bene-'Ammon 8 came together out of their cities and came in for the war. And David 9 heard, and sent Joab with all the force of the champions; and the Bene-'Ammon came out and drew up their line of battle at the city gate, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the open.

10 And Joab saw that he had the front of the battle in his front and in his rear; and he made a selection of picked men out of the whole 11 Israelite body, and drew them up to face the Syrians, and the rest of the men he put into the hands of his brother Abshai, and they formed 12 a line to face the Bene-'Ammon; and he said "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall be a rescue to me; and if the Bene-13 'Ammon are too strong for you, I will rescue you. Hold fast, and let us do our best for our people and for the cities of our God, and 14 Jehovah will do as he sees fit." And Joab and the troops that he had with him came on to the attack on the Syrian front, and they fled be-15 fore him; and the Bene-'Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, and they too fled before his brother Abshai and entered the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And the Syrians saw that they were beaten by the Israelites; and they sent messengers and called out the Syrians beyond the River, 17 with Shophac, Hadar'ezer's general, at their head. And David was told, and he brought together all the Israelites and crossed the Jordan and came to them and offered them battle. And David offered battle 18 to the Syrians, and they fought him. And the Syrians fled before the Israelites, and David killed of the Syrians seven thousand chariotry and forty thousand infantry, and struck dead Shophac, the general.
19 And Hadar'ezer's subjects saw that they were beaten by the Israelites, and made peace with David and became his subjects; and the Syrians were not willing to help the Bene-'Ammon any longer.

1 And at the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, Joab led out the militia forces and ravaged the country of the Bene-'Ammon and came and laid siege to Rabbah, David remaining in Jerusalem; 2 and Joab conquered Rabbah and demolished it. And David took the crown of Malcam off his head, and found it to weigh a hundredweight of gold; and it had a precious stone in it, which came to be on David's head. And he took out the plunder of the city, a very great amount; 3 and the people in it he took out and put them to saws and iron cuts and picks; and so he did with all the cities of the Bene-'Ammon. And David and all the people went back to Jerusalem.

4 And after that there was a war on foot at Gezer with the Philistines;

then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the breed of the ogres, and they were humbled.

5 And there was war with the Philistines again; and Elhanan the son of Ja'ir killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gathite; the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's pole.

6 And there was war at Gath again; and there was a tall man with fingers and toes by sixes, twenty-four of them,—he too was bred of the 7 ogre,—who flouted the Israelites, and Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him.

8 These were bred of the ogre at Gath, and fell by the hands of David and of his soldiers.

1 And a Satan stood up against Israel and instigated David to 2 count Israel. And David said to Joab and the captains of the people "Go enumerate Israel from Dan to Beer-Sheba' and bring me the 3 result, so that I may know the number of them." And Joab said "Jehovah make the people a hundred times as many again! is my 4 my lord call for this? why should it bring guilt on Israel?" But David's word overbore Joab, and Joab went out and went back and 5 forth throughout Israel, and came in to Jerusalem. And Joab gave the count of the census to the king; and all Israel came to eleven hundred thousand fighting men, and Judah to four hundred and 6 seventy thousand fighting men. But Levi and Benjamin he did not count in among them, because the king's word was abhorrent to Joab.

7 8 And God disliked this thing, and struck at Israel. And David said to God "I was very wrong in doing this thing; now set your servant's 9 offense aside, for I did very foolishly." And Jehovah spoke to Gad, 10 David's seer, saying "Go and speak to David, telling him 'Says Jehovah, I make you three offers; choose one of these and have me do 11 it to you.'" And Gad came to David and said to him "Says Jehovah, 12 Take your option, either three years of famine or three months of being in flight before your foes, your enemy's sword coming up with you, or three days of Jehovah's sword and pestilence in the country and Jehovah's angel ravaging throughout Israel's territory. Now 13 see what answer I shall return to the one who sent me." And David said to Gad "It is a very hard case; let me fall into Jehovah's hands, because he has very great kindness; let me not fall into men's hands."

14 And Jehovah gave a pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel 15 seventy thousand men. And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to ravage it; but when he was ravaging Jehovah saw and took the evil to heart and said to the ravaging angel "That will do; now hold your hand."
And the angel of Jehovah was standing by Ornan the Jebusite's 16 threshing-floor; and David raised his eyes and saw the angel of Jehovah standing between the earth and the sky with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem, and David and the elders, with sackcloths for covering, threw themselves down on their 17 faces. And David said to God "It was I, was it not, that ordered the people counted, and I was the one who sinned and did evil, and these are the sheep; what have they done? my God Jehovah, let your hand be on me and my family, but on your people not for havoc."

 18 And Jehovah's angel told Gad to tell David that David should go up to erect an altar to Jehovah on Ornan the Jebusite's threshing-floor; and David went up at Gad's word which he spoke in Jehovah's 19 name. And Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons with him were hiding themselves, but Ornan was threshing wheat.
 21 And David came where Ornan was; and Ornan looked and saw David, and came out from the threshing-floor and did reverence to David with his face to the ground. And David said to Ornan "Give me the site of the threshing-floor to build an altar to Jehovah on—give it to me for full money—to have the deaths among the people shut off."
 23 And Ornan said to David "Take it, and your majesty may do what you think best; see, I give you the cattle for the offerings and the threshing-boards for fuel and the wheat for the meal-offering; I give 24 you all." But King David said to Ornan "No, I will buy it for full money, and not pick up what is yours for Jehovah and offer a burnt-offering that costs nothing"; and David gave Ornan for the site 26 six hundred shekels of gold by weight. And David built an altar to Jehovah there, and offered burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices, and called to Jehovah, and he answered him with fire out of the sky upon the altar of burnt-offering, and it consumed the burnt-offering.
 27 And Jehovah gave the angel word, and he sheathed his sword.
 28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him on 29 Ornan the Jebusite's threshing-floor, he sacrificed there (though Jehovah's tabernacle which Moses made was at that time at the height 30 in Gibeon; but David could not go before it to invoke God because he

CHAPTER 22

1 was terrorized by the sword of Jehovah's angel); and David said "This is the house of Jehovah God, and this the altar for burnt-offering 2 for Israel." And David ordered the immigrants in the country of Israel collected, and appointed stonecutters to cut dressed stones
 3 for building the house of God; and David got ready iron in large quantity for the nails for the gates and for the cramps, and bronze 4 in quantity beyond weighing, and cedar timber beyond counting; for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought David cedar timber in great 5 quantity. And David thought "My son Solomon is an immature boy, and the house to be built for Jehovah is to be made surpassingly great for name and fame to all countries: let me make preparations for it"; and David made preparations in great quantities before his

6 death, and called his son Solomon and commanded him to build a house 7 for Israel's God Jehovah. And David said to his son Solomon

8 "I had it in mind myself to build a house for the name of my God 9 Jehovah; but Jehovah's word came to me 'You have shed blood in great quantities and waged great wars; you shall not build a house for my name, because you have poured much blood on the earth before me. Here is a son being born to you; he shall be a restful man, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; for his name shall be Solomon, "Peaceman," and I will give peace and quiet over 10 Israel in his time. He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be son to me and I will be father to him, and I will set the throne of his kingship firm over Israel forever.'

11 "Now, my son, Jehovah be with you, and may you prosper and build the house of your God Jehovah as he predicted it of you.
12 Only may Jehovah give you good sense and discernment and his commission for Israel and that you may observe the instructions of 13 your God Jehovah; then will you prosper, if you take care to live up to the usages and laws which Jehovah charged Moses with for Israel.
14 Courage, and do your best; do not be afraid nor dismayed. And here with my scanty means I have got ready for Jehovah's house five thousand tons of gold and fifty thousand tons of silver, and bronze and iron left unweighed because they were in such quantities; and I have 15 got ready timber and stones, and you will add to them. And you have about you a great body of skilled labor, quarrymen and stonecutters and carpenters and men with all kinds of skill in all kinds of work 16 in gold, silver, and bronze and iron, beyond counting. Up and to work, and Jehovah be with you!"

17 And David charged all the princes of Israel to help his son Solo-18 mon: "you have your God Jehovah with you, and he has given you rest on every side, because he gave the inhabitants of the country into my hands and the country is subjugated before Jehovah and 19 before his people. Now put your hearts and souls into invoking your God Jehovah, and stand up and build the sanctuary of your God Jehovah, to bring in the ark of Jehovah's covenant and the vessels consecrated to God into the house that is built for Jehovah's name."

1 And David grew old, had lived as long as he wanted to, and he 2 made his son Solomon king over Israel. And he brought together all 3 the princes of Israel, and the priests and the Levites. And the Levites were counted, from thirty years old up; and the number of them poll 4 by poll, of men, was thirty-eight thousand. Of these, to direct the work on Jehovah's house there were twenty-four thousand, and marshals 5 and judges six thousand, and four thousand gatemen, and four thousand praising Jehovah "with the instruments I made for praising."

6 And David arranged them in divisions by Levi's sons, Gershon, Kehath, and Merari:

7 8 Of the Gershonites, Laghdan and Shimei. Laghdan's sons, Jehiel 9 the head, and Zetham and Joel, three. Shimei's sons, Shelomith and Hazei and Haran, three. These were Laghdan's heads of families.
10 And Shimei's sons, Jahath, Ziza, and Jeghush and Beri'ah; these were 11 Shimei's sons, four. And Jahath was the head and Ziza the second; and Jeghush and Beri'ah did not have many children, and became a family for one assignment.

12 The sons of Kehath were 'Amram, Ishar, Hebron, and 'Uzziel, four.
13 The sons of 'Amram were Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was set apart to be consecrated holiest of the holy, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before Jehovah, to wait on him, and to bless in his name, 14 forever, but the sons of Moses the man of God went under the name 15 of the tribe of Levi. The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eli'ezer.
16 The sons of Gershom were Shubael the head; and the sons of Eli'ezer 17 were Rehabiah the head; and Eli'ezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah's sons were uncommonly numerous. The sons of Ishar were 18 Shelomith the head. The sons of Hebron were Jerijah the head, 19 Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. The 20 sons of 'Uzziel were Micah the head and Isshijah the second.

21 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were 22 Eleazar and Kish. And Eleazar died having no sons but daughters, 23 whom the sons of their brother Kish married. The sons of Mushi were Mahli and Gheder and Jeremoth, three.

24 These were the sons of Levi by their families, heads of families by their muster in number of names poll by poll, doing the work for the 25 service of Jehovah's house from twenty years old up. For David thought "Israel's God Jehovah has given his people rest and taken up 26 his abode in Jerusalem forever, and neither will the Levites have to 27 carry the tabernacle and all the vessels for its service." (For by David's last words they, the count of the sons of Levi, were from 28 twenty years old up.) For their station was at the side of the sons of Aaron for the service of Jehovah's house, over the courts and the vestries and cleansing for every sacred purpose, and the doing of the 29 service of God's house as to the stacked bread and the farina for the meal-offering and for the sheet-matzoth and for the griddle and for the beaten dish, and as to all measures of capacity and of length, 30 and to stand morning by morning to give thanks and praise to 31 Jehovah, and the same for evening and for all presentations of burnt-offerings to Jehovah, for the sabbaths, the new moons, and the annual dates, by number in accordance with the law for them, regularly 32 before Jehovah; and they were to do the duties for the Tent of Meeting and for the sacred things and for their brothers the sons of Aaron as to the service of God's house.

1 And the sons of Aaron had their divisions. Aaron's sons were 2 Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar; but Nadab and Abihu died 3 before their father and had no sons, and Eleazar and Ithamar took 4 the priesthood. And David, and Sadok of the sons of Eleazar, and 5 Ahimelec of the sons of Ithamar, divided them for their assignments 6 in their service; and the sons of Eleazar were found more numerous 7 by heads of men than the sons of Ithamar, and they made the divisions 8 of them, for the sons of Eleazar sixteen heads by families, and for 9 the sons of Ithamar by their families eight. And they divided them 10 by lot, these with those, for there were princes of sacred ritual and 11 princes of God from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar; 12 and Secretary Shema'iah the son of Nethaneel, of the Levites, wrote 13 them down before the king and the princes and Priest Sadok and 14 Ahimelec the son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests 15 and of the Levites; one family was taken for Eleazar and one taken 16 for Ithamar.

17 And the first lot came out for Jehoharib, for Jeda'iah the second, 18 for Harim the third, for Se'orim the fourth, for Malkijah the fifth, 19 for Mijamin the sixth, for Hakkos the seventh, for Abijah the eighth, 20 for Jeshua' the ninth, for Shecaniah the tenth, for Eljashib the elev-21 enth, for Jakim the twelfth, for Huppah the thirteenth, for Ishbaal 22 the fourteenth, for Bilgah the fifteenth, for Immer the sixteenth, 23 for Hezir the seventeenth, for Happisses the eighteenth, for Pethahiah 24 the nineteenth, for Jehezkel the twentieth, for Jakin the twenty-first, 25 for Gamul the twenty-second, for Delajah the twenty-third, for 26 Ma'aziah the twenty-fourth. These were their assignments for their 27 service, to go into God's house in accordance with the law received for 28 them through their father Aaron, as Israel's God Jehovah gave him 29 the order.

30 And of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of 'Amram, Shu-31 bael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdejah; of Rehabiah, of the sons of 32 Rehabiah, the chief, Isshijah. Of Ishar, Shelomoth; of the sons of 33 Shelomoth, Jahath. And the sons of Hebron, Jerijah the chief, Ama-34 riah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekemeam the fourth. The sons 35 of 'Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir; Micah's brother, 36 Isshijah; of the sons of Isshijah, Zecariah. The sons of Merari, Mahli 37 and Mushih; the sons of his son Ja'azijah; and the sons of Merari by 38 his son Ja'azijah, Shoham and Zaccur and 'Ibri; of Mahli, Eleazar, 39 but he did not have sons; of Kish, the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel; 40 and the sons of Mushih, Mahli and Gheder and Jerimoth. These were 41 the sons of the Levites by their families. They too cast lots along 42 with their brothers the sons of Aaron before King David and Sadok 43 and Ahimelec and the heads of the families of the priests and of the 44 Levites, the chief's families along with his youngest brother.

1 And David and the generals set apart for service the sons of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, those who played impromptu on lyres and harps and cymbals. And the number of them, the specialists 2 by their service, was, of the sons of Asaph, Zaccur and Joseph and Nethaniah and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph, under the direction of 3 Asaph who composed under the direction of the king; of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun, Gedaliah and Seri and Isaiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun on the 4 lyre, who composed for thanks and praise to Jehovah; of Heman, the sons of Heman, Bukkijah, Mattaniah, 'Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliatha, Giddalti, and Romamti-'Ezer, Joshbe-5 kashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. All these were sons of Heman, the king's seer in divine matters; to lift his horn high God gave 6 Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. All these were under their father's direction in the singing of Jehovah's house, with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of God's house, under the direction 7 of the king, Asaph and Jeduthun and Heman. And the number of them, with their brothers who were taught to sing for Jehovah, all the experts, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

8 And they cast lots for duty on the principle of small and great 9 alike, expert with pupil. The first lot came out for Asaph, for Joseph, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; for Gedaliah the second, him and 10 his brothers and his sons, twelve; the third for Zaccur, his sons, and 11 his brothers, twelve; the fourth for Isri, his sons, and his brothers, 12 13 twelve; the fifth for Nethaniah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the 14 sixth for Bukkijah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the seventh 15 for Jesarelah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the eighth for Isaiah, 16 his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the ninth for Mattaniah, his sons, 17 and his brothers, twelve; the tenth for Shimei, his sons, and his 18 brothers, twelve; the eleventh for 'Azarel, his sons, and his brothers, 19 twelve; the twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; 20 21 the thirteenth for Shubael, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the 22 fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the 23 fifteenth for Jeremoth, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the sixteenth 24 for Hananiah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the seventeenth for 25 Joshbekashah, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the eighteenth for 26 Hanani, his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the nineteenth for Mallothi, 27 his sons, and his brothers, twelve; the twentieth for Elijahah, his 28 sons, and his brothers, twelve; the twenty-first for Hothir, his sons, 29 and his brothers, twelve; the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons, and 30 his brothers, twelve; the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons, and 31 his brothers, twelve; the twenty-fourth for Romamti-'Ezer, his sons, and his brothers, twelve.

1 As to divisions of gatemen: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the 2 son of Kore, of the sons of Abiasaph; and Meshelemiah had sons, 3 Zecariah the eldest, Jedi'ael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel 4 the fourth, 'Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eljeho'enai the 5 seventh. And 'Obed-Edom had sons, Shema'iah the eldest, Jehozabad 6 the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth and Nethaneel the 7 fifth, 'Ammiel the sixth, Issacar the seventh, Pe'ullethai the eighth, 8 because God had blessed him. And his son Shema'iah had sons born 9 to him; they were rulers of their family because they were stalwart 10 men; Shema'iah's sons were Ghothni and Rephael and 'Obed, Elzabad, 11 his brothers, stalwart men, Elihu and Semakiah. All these were sons 12 of 'Obed-Edom, they and their sons and brothers, stalwart men with 13 powers for service, sixty-two of 'Obed-Edom's. And Meshelemiah had 14 sons and brothers, stalwart men, eighteen of them. And Hosah, of the 15 sons of Merari, had sons, Shimri the chief (for he was not eldest, but 16 his father made him chief), Hilkijah the second, Tebaliah the third, 17 Zecariah the fourth; all sons and brothers of Hosah's, thirteen.

18 Of these there were the courses of the gatemen by heads of men, 19 duties parallel to those of their brothers, to officiate in Jehovah's 20 house; and they cast lots, small and great alike by families, for each 21 gate. And the eastward lot fell for Shelemiah; and his son Zecariah 22 was a shrewd adviser; they cast lots, and his lot came out northward.
 23 For 'Obed-Edom southward, and for his sons, the storehouse. And 24 for Hosah to the west, with the throwing-gate at the highway up the 25 slope. Guard by guard, to the east six a day, to the north four a day, 26 to the south four a day and two each for the stores; at the addition 27 to the west, four to the highway, two to the addition. These were the 28 divisions of the gatemen, of the sons of the Korahites and of the sons of Merari.

29 And their brother Levites over the storages of God's house and 30 for the storages of the sacred things: the sons of Laghdan, the sons of 31 the Gershonites by Laghdan, the heads of families of Laghdan the 32 Gershonite, Jehielites; the sons of Jehiel, Zetham and his brother 33 Joel, were over the storages of Jehovah's house. Of the 'Amramites, 34 of the Isharites, of the Hebronites, of the 'Uzzielites, Shebuel the son 35 of Gershom the son of Moses was warden over the storages; and his 36 brothers by Eli'ezer, his son Rehabiah and his son Isaiah and his 37 son Joram and his son Zicri and his son Shelomith. He, Shelomith, and 38 his brothers were over all the storages of the sacred things which 39 King David and the heads of families of the captains of thousands and 40 of hundreds and the generals had dedicated; out of the wars and out 41 of the booty they had dedicated them for keeping up Jehovah's house; 42 and all that Samuel the seer had dedicated, and Saul the son of Kish 43 and Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Serujah, everyone who 44 had dedicated, was under the hands of Shelomith and his brothers.

29 Of the Isharites, Conaniah and his sons were for the outside business, 30 over Israel as marshals and as judges. Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, seventeen hundred stalwart men, were in charge of all Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all business of Jehovah's 31 and for the king's service. Of the Hebronites Jerijah was the chief; the Hebronites, line by line, by families, were investigated in the year forty of David's reign, and there were found among them first-32 class men at Ja'zer in Gilead; and of his brothers there were twenty-seven hundred stalwart men, heads of families; and King David put them in charge of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manassites for all affairs of God's and for the king's affairs.

CHAPTER 27

1 And the sons of Israel by number, the heads of families and the captains of thousands and of hundreds and their marshals who officiated for the king in every matter of the divisions, the one that came in and the one that went out month by month for all the months of 2 the year, one division twenty-four thousand,—over the first division for the first month was Ishbaal the son of Zabdiel, and on his division 3 twenty-four thousand; of the sons of Peres, the chief for all the cap-4 tains of the levies for the first month. And over the second-month division was Dodai the Ahohite; and his division, and Mikloth the 5 warden; and on his division twenty-four thousand. The captain of the third levy for the third month was Benajah the son of High 6 Priest Jehojada', and on his division twenty-four thousand; that was Benajah the champion of the Thirty and over the Thirty, and 7 his division his son 'Ammizabad. The fourth, for the fourth month, was Joab's brother 'Asahel, and his son Zebadiah after him; and on 8 his division twenty-four thousand. The fifth, for the fifth month, the captain was Shamhuth the Izrahite, and on his division twenty-four 9 thousand. The sixth, for the sixth month, was 'Ira the son of 'Ikkes 10 the Tekoite, and on his division twenty-four thousand. The seventh, for the seventh month, was Heles the Pelonite, of the sons of Ephraim, 11 and on his division twenty-four thousand. The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites, and on his 12 division twenty-four thousand. The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abi'ezer the 'Anathothite, of the Benjamites, and on his division 13 twenty-four thousand. The tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites, and on his division twenty-four 14 thousand. The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benajah the Pireathonite, of the sons of Ephraim, and on his division twenty-four 15 thousand. The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, of Ghothniel's, and on his division twenty-four thousand.
16 And over the tribes of Israel: warden for the Reubenites, Eli'ezer the son of Zicri; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Ma'acah; 17 18 for the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Sadok; for 19 Judah, Elihu, a brother of David's; for Issacar, 'Omri the son of 20 Micael; for Zebulun, Ishma'iah the son of 'Obadiah; for Naphtali, 21 Jerimoth the son of 'Azriel; for the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea' the 22 son of 'Azaziah; for half the tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedajah; for the half of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zecariah;

23 for Benjamin, Ja'asiel the son of Abner; for Dan, 'Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel.
24 And David did not take the number of them below twenty years old, because Jehovah had said he would make Israel numerous as the stars in the sky. Joab the son of Serujah began to count but did not finish, and for this there was wrath against Israel; and the number did not go into King David's book of chronicles.

25 And over the royal treasuries was 'Azmaveth the son of 'Adiel.
And over the storages in the countryside, in the cities and the villages 26 and the towers, was Jehonathan the son of 'Uzzijah. And over the administrators of the business in the countryside, for the working of 27 the soil, was 'Ezri the son of Kelub. And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite. And over what was in the vineyards, for 28 storages of wine, was Zabdi the Shiphmite. And over the olive-trees and sycamores in the lowlands was Baal-Hanan the Gederite. And over 29 the storages of oil was Jo'ash. And over the cattle that grazed in the Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite. And over the cattle in the Vales was Shaphat the son of 'Adlai. And over the camels was Obil 30 the Ishmaelite. And over the donkeys was Jehdejah the Meronothite.
31 And over the sheep and goats was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were King David's ministers of chattels.

32 And David's uncle Jehonathan was a counselor, a sagacious and literate man; he and Jehiel the son of Hacmoni were with the king's 33 sons. And Ahithophel was a counselor of the king's. And Hushai the 34 Arkite was the king's friend. And after Ahithophel, Jehojada' the son of Benajah, and Abiathar. And Joab was the king's general.

1 And David assembled all the captains of Israel, the captains of the tribes and the captains of divisions who officiated for the king and the captains of thousands and of hundreds and the king's ministers for all chattels and stock and his sons with the eunuchs and the 2 champions and every leading man, to Jerusalem. And King David rose to his feet and said

"Hear me, my brothers and my people. I myself had it in mind to build a house of rest for the ark of Jehovah's covenant and for the 3 footstool of our God, and I made preparations for building; but God said to me 'You shall not build a house for my name, because you are 4 a man of wars and have been shedding blood.' But Israel's God Jehovah chose me out of all my family to become king over Israel forever, because he chose Judah for warden, and in the house of Judah my family, and among my father's sons he was pleased to take me to 5 install as king over all Israel. And out of all my sons (for Jehovah gave me many sons) he chose my son Solomon to sit on the throne 6 of Jehovah's empire over all Israel; and he said to me 'Your son Solomon, he shall build my house and my courts, because I have 7 chosen him to be son to me and I will be father to him; and I will make his kingship firm forever if he is determined to live up to my commandments and laws as is done at this day.'

8 "And now, before the eyes of all Israel, Jehovah's assembly, and in the hearing of our God: Observe and study all the commandments of your God Jehovah, in order that you may possess the good country 9 and pass on the inheritance to your sons after you forever! And do you, son Solomon, know your father's God and serve him with earnest heart and willing soul, because Jehovah examines all hearts and is aware of all the drift of thoughts; if you invoke him he will let you find him, but if you leave him he will repudiate you forevermore.
10 Look out now, because Jehovah has chosen you to build a house for his sanctuary; be resolute and go to work."

11 And David gave his son Solomon the specifications for the porch and its houses and its treasures and its roof-chambers and its inner 12 chambers and the housing for the mercy-seat, and the specifications for everything he had been inspired with for the courts of Jehovah's house and for all the surrounding vestries and for the storages of 13 God's house and of the sacred things, and for the divisions of the priests and the Levites and for all the care of Jehovah's house and 14 for all the furnishings of Jehovah's house: for the gold by weight for the gold for all vessels for each purpose, for all the silver vessels by 15 weight for all vessels for each purpose, and weight for the gold lamp-stands and their lamps, gold by weight for each stand and its lamps, and for the silver lampstands by weight for a stand and its lamps 16 for the purposes of each stand, and the gold a weight for the stack-tables, for each table, and silver for the silver tables, and the forks and 17 bowls and flagons pure gold, and for the golden stoups by weight for each stoup, and for the silver stoups by weight for each stoup, and 18 for the altar of incense refined gold by weight, and for the model of the chariot, of the cherubs, gold, for those that were to spread out 19 and overarch the ark of Jehovah's covenant: "all in writing, from Jehovah's hand, he notified to me, all the execution of the specifications."

20 And David said to his son Solomon "Courage, put your best foot foremost, and go to work; do not be afraid nor dismayed, for you have with you Jehovah God, my God; he will not neglect you nor abandon you till all the business of the work on Jehovah's house is 21 finished. And here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and in every task you have by you all sorts of volunteers with skill for all sorts of work, and the captains and all the people for all your affairs."

1 And King David said to all the assembly "My son Solomon, whom God has chosen, is young and tender, and the undertaking is a great one, for the castle is not for human beings but for Jehovah God.
2 And to the utmost of my power I have made ready for the house of my God the gold for the gold and the silver for the silver and the bronze for the bronze work and the iron for the ironwork and the wood for the woodwork, beryls and stones for setting, jet and agate 3 and all sorts of precious stones, and marble in great quantity. And furthermore, in my esteem for the house of my God I have a private fund of silver and gold; I give to the house of my God, over and 4 above all that I have prepared for the sanctuary, three thousand hundredweight of gold out of Ophir gold, and seven thousand hundred-5 weight of refined silver to coat the walls of the houses, for gold for the gold and for silver for the silver and for all work by the artists' hands. And who volunteers to make his offering of consecration to Jehovah today?"

6 And the chiefs of families and the chiefs of tribes of Israel and the captains of thousands and of hundreds and the chief administrative 7 officers came forward voluntarily and gave for the work of the house of God gold five thousand hundredweight and twenty-seven hundred ounces, and silver ten thousand hundredweight, and bronze eighteen thousand hundredweight, and iron a hundred thousand hundred-8 weight; and any who had stones in their possession gave them to the 9 stores of God's house, into the hands of Jehiel the Gershonite. And the people rejoiced over their contribution, because they contributed to Jehovah with all their hearts; and King David too rejoiced greatly.

10 And David blessed Jehovah in the presence of all the assembly; and David said "Blessed be you, Jehovah, God of our father Israel, 11 from age to age. Yours, Jehovah, are greatness and might and magnificence and continuance and majesty, because everything in the heavens and on earth is yours; yours, Jehovah, is empire, and up-12 raising to headship over all; and wealth and state come from before you; and in your hands are power and might, and in your hands it 13 is to give greatness and strength to all. And now, our God, we are 14 thanking you and praising your sublime name—for who am I and who are my people, that we should hold power to come forward with gifts like these? for everything comes from you, and it is out of your 15 own hands that we have given to you. For we are visitors and tenants in your presence, as all our fathers were; our lifetime is like a shadow 16 over the earth, and there is nothing to look forward to. Jehovah our God, all this accumulation that we have got ready for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hands, and all belongs to 17 you. And I know, my God, that you probe hearts and approve sincere courses; it was in the sincerity of my heart that I volunteered all these things, and now I see with joy your people who have made their 18 appearance here volunteer their offerings to you. Jehovah, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, keep this the bent of the thoughts of your people's hearts forever and hold their hearts firmly 19 toward you; and give my son Solomon a staunch heart to keep your commandments, your lessons, and your rules, and to do all and build the castle I have prepared for."

20 And David said to all the assembly "Bless your God Jehovah"; and all the assembly blessed their fathers' God Jehovah, and bowed 21 down and did reverence to Jehovah and to the king; and they made sacrifices to Jehovah and offered burnt-offerings to Jehovah on the day following that, a thousand steers and a thousand rams and a thousand sheep and the libations for them, and sacrifices in great 22 numbers for all Israel, and ate and drank before Jehovah that day with a great merrymaking; and they installed David's son Solomon as king, and anointed him as warden for Jehovah, and Sadok as priest.

23 And Solomon took his seat on Jehovah's throne as king in place of his father David, and had good success, and all Israel listened to 24 him. And all the captains and the champions, and also all King David's sons, gave homage to King Solomon. And Jehovah made 25 Solomon surpassingly great before the eyes of all Israel, and surrounded him with such royal grandeur as no king before him over Israel had had about him.

26 27 And David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years: at Hebron he reigned 28 seven years and at Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three. And he died at a good old age, having had all he wanted of lifetime and wealth and 29 glory; and his son Solomon succeeded him. And the histories of King David, the earlier and the later, are written in the histories of the 30 seer Samuel and of the prophet Nathan and of the seer Gad, together with all his empire and his prowess and the events that befell to him and to Israel and to all the kingdoms of the different countries.

Part Second

1 And David's son Solomon took a strong hold on his royal prerogatives; and his God Jehovah was with him and made him surpassingly 2 great. And Solomon gave word to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every prince of all 3 Israel, the heads of families; and Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the height at Gibeon, because that was where Jehovah's tent of meeting was, which Jehovah's servant Moses had made in the 4 wilderness; the ark of God, though, David had brought up from Kirjath-Je'arim when David made the arrangements for it, for David 5 had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. And the bronze altar that Besalel the son of Uri the son of Hur had made was there before

Jehovah's tabernacle; and Solomon and all the assembly visited it, 6 and Solomon made burnt-offerings there on the bronze altar before Jehovah that belonged to the tent of meeting: he offered a thousand burnt-offerings on it.

7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said "Ask for what I am to give you."

8 And Solomon said to God "You greatly befriended my father David, 9 and have made me king in his place. Now, Jehovah God, let your words with my father David prove true; for you have made me king 10 over a people numerous as the particles of the earth. Now give me wisdom and knowledge that I may go out and in before this people; for who is to judge this great people of yours?"

11 And God said to Solomon "Since you had your mind on this, and did not ask for riches and substance and honors and the lives of those who hate you, and did not ask for long life either, but asked to have wisdom and knowledge that you might judge my people over which 12 I have made you king, the wisdom and knowledge is given to you, and I will give you such riches and substance and honors as the kings before you have not had the like of nor shall there be the like after you."

13 And Solomon came from the height at Gibeon to Jerusalem from 14 before the tent of meeting, and reigned over Israel. And Solomon amassed chariots and horses, and had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he quartered in the chariot cities and 15 at Jerusalem with the king. And the king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as sycamores in the low-16 lands. And Solomon's sources of supply for ponies were Egypt and 17 Kue; the king's dealers had them from Kue on commission, and used to bring up a chariot out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver and a pony for a hundred and fifty; and they were similarly imported through them for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria.

1 And Solomon thought of building a house for the name of Jehovah 2 and a house for his own royal residence; and Solomon counted off seventy thousand porters and eighty thousand woodcutters to cut on the mountain, and thirty-two hundred supervisors over them.

3 And Solomon sent word to King Hiram of Tyre "As you did by my father David, sending him cedar to build himself a house to live 4 in,—here I am building a house for the name of my God Jehovah to dedicate to him for burning aromatic incense before him and for regular stacks of bread and burnt-offerings at morning and at evening, on sabbaths and at new moons and on the annual dates of our God 5 Jehovah; this is Israel's duty forever. And the house I am building is 6 to be great, because our God is greater than all gods; and who holds power to build a house for him? for the skies and the skies of the skies cannot contain him, and who am I to build a house for him, except to 7 burn incense before him? Now send me a man skilled at working in gold and silver and bronze and iron and purple and crimson and violet, 8 who will know how to execute carvings with the artists I have by me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom my father David provided. And send me cedar, cypress, and alnum from the Lebanon, for I know 9 your subjects know how to cut Lebanon timber; and you will have my subjects there with yours; and there will have to be a great deal of timber got ready for me, because the house I am building is to be 10 great and marvelous. And here for the woodcutters, those who are felling the trees, I am giving wheat as food for your subjects, wheat two hundred thousand bushels and barley two hundred thousand bushels and wine two hundred thousand gallons and oil two hundred thousand gallons."

11 And King Hiram of Tyre said in writing, and sent it to Solomon, "It was because Jehovah loved his people that he put you over them 12 as king." And Hiram said "Blessed be Israel's God Jehovah who made the sky and the earth, that he gave King David a wise son, a man of good sense and discernment, who should build a house for Jehovah 13 and a house for his own royal residence. Now then, I am sending you an intelligent skilled man, Hiram-Abi the son of a Danite woman, 14 whose father was a Tyrian, one who knows how to work in gold and silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, in wood, in purple, in violet, and in lawn and crimson, and to create designs which shall be proposed 15 to him, with your artists and your father David's. Now then as to the wheat and barley and oil and wine that my lord spoke of, let him 16 send it to his servants, and we will cut timber from the Lebanon in whatever quantities you need and raft it to Joppa roadstead for you; and you will do the bringing it up to Jerusalem."

17 And Solomon counted all the immigrant population in Israel, after the count that his father David had taken of them, and there were found to be a hundred and fifty-three thousand and six hundred of 18 them; and he made seventy thousand of them porters, and eighty thousand woodcutters on the mountain, and thirty-six hundred supervisors to keep the people at work.

1 And Solomon began building Jehovah's house in Jerusalem on Mount Morijah, which had been selected by his father David, David having made preparations on the site, on the threshing-floor of the 2 Jebusite Ornan. And he began building in the second month, in the 3 year four of his reign. And Solomon laid the foundations for building the house of God as follows: the length sixty cubits by the old standard 4 (ninety feet), and width twenty cubits (thirty feet), and the porch on the front of the length, parallel to the width of the house, twenty cubits and the height twenty cubits; and Solomon coated it with pure

5 gold on the inside, and the main house he wainscoted with cypress and lined it with good gold and put on palm trees and chains on it.
6 And he inlaid the house with precious stones for magnificence; and 7 the gold was Parvaim gold. And he lined the house with gold, beams and thresholds and walls and doors, and carved cherubs on the walls.
8 And he made the room for the holiest of the holy, its length along the width of the house twenty cubits and its width twenty cubits, and 9 lined it with good gold, six hundred hundredweight and a weight for thirty-ounce gold nails; and he lined the roof-chambers with gold.
10 And in the room for the holiest of the holy he made two cherubs of 11 identical work and coated them with gold; and the stretch of the cherubs' wings was twenty cubits, the one wing five cubits touching the wall of the house, and the other wing five cubits touching the 12 wing of the other cherub, and the other cherub's wing five cubits touching the wall of the house, and the other wing five cubits meeting 13 the wing of the other cherub; these cherubs' wings spread twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet with their faces to the house.
14 And he made the veil of violet and purple and crimson and lawn, and put on cherubs on it.
15 And he made before the house two pillars fifty feet long, and the 16 finial on top, seven and a half feet; and he made chains on the collar and put on top of the pillars, and made a hundred pomegranates and 17 put them on the chains, and set the pillars up in front of the temple, one to the right and one to the left, and named the right-hand one Jakim and the left-hand one Bo'az.

1 And he made a bronze altar thirty feet long and thirty feet wide and fifteen feet high.
2 And he made the sea, a casting fifteen feet from lip to lip, circular in outline, seven and a half feet high and forty-five feet in girth; 3 and representations of cattle all round it underneath, fifteen feet, encircling the sea; the cattle were in two rows, cast in one piece with 4 it. It stood on twelve cattle, three facing north and three facing west and three facing south and three facing east, with the sea up on 5 top of them, and their hinder parts all inward. And it was three inches thick, with its lip made like the lip of a cup, a lily-bud; it held thirty thousand gallons.
6 And he made ten lavers, and put five on the right and five on the left, to wash in; they were to rinse the work for the burnt-offering in them; and the sea was for the priests to wash in.
7 And he made the golden lampstands, ten of them in proper fashion, and put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.
8 And he made ten tables, and set them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.
And he made a hundred golden bowls.

9 And he made the priests' court and the large precinct, and doors 10 for the precinct, and coated their leaves with bronze. And the sea he put east of the southeast corner.

11 And Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls; and Hiram finished doing all the work he did for King Solomon in 12 Jehovah's house: two pillars, and the globes and capitals on top of the pillars, two of them; and the nettings, two of them, to cover the 13 two globes of the capitals on top of the pillars; and the pomegranates, four hundred of them, for the two nettings, two rows of pomegranates to a netting, to cover the two globes of the capitals on top of the 14 pillars; and the stands, ten of them, and the lavers, ten of them, on 15 16 the stands; the sea, one, and the cattle, twelve of them, under it; and the pots and the shovels and the forks, and all their furnishings, Hiram-Abi made for King Solomon for Jehovah's house in polished 17 bronze. It was in the Pale of the Jordan that the king cast them, in 18 the heavy soil between Succoth and Seredah. And Solomon made all these furnishings in very great quantity—for there were no statistics taken of the weight of the bronze.

19 And Solomon made all the furnishings the house of God had in it, 20 and the golden altar and the tables with the showbread on them, and the lampstands and their lamps to be kept burning in due course be-21 fore the shrine, solid gold, and the buds and the lamps and the pincers, 22 gold, and the snuffers and the bowls and the pans and the firepans, solid gold, and the hinges of the house, for its inner doors for the

1 holiest of the holy and for the house doors for the nave, gold. And all the work Solomon did on Jehovah's house was finished; and Solomon brought in his father David's consecrated articles and put the silver and the gold and all the furnishings in the treasuries of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the family princes of the sons of Israel, at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of Jehovah's covenant from David's City (that is, 3 Sion); and all the men of Israel assembled with the king at the feast 4 (that is, the seventh month); and all the elders of Israel came, and 5 the Levites took up the ark, and they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting, and all the consecrated furnishings that there were 6 in the Tent; the Levite priests brought them up, while King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who had gathered around him were in front of the ark sacrificing sheep and cattle too many for the 7 count to be taken or the number known. And the priests brought the ark of Jehovah's covenant in to its place in the shrine of the 8 house, in the holiest of the holy, under the cherubs' wings; and the cherubs spread out two wings over the place for the ark, and the 9 cherubs covered over the ark and its poles, but the poles were long and

- the heads of the poles were seen from the holy place along the front of the shrine, but were not seen outside; and it is there to this day.
- 10 There was nothing at all in the ark but the two tablets that Moses put there at Horeb, that Jehovah covenanted with the sons of Israel when they came out of Egypt.
- 11 And when the priests came out of the holy place (for all the priests that were to be found had hallowed themselves; there was no
- 12 observing divisions), the Levite singers all of them, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, dressed in lawn, with cymbals and with harps and lyres, stood east of the altar, and with them priests to the number of a hundred and twenty sounding
- 13 trumpets, and they played in concert, the trumpeters and the singers, giving a single sound of praise and thanksgiving to Jehovah; and as they pealed out the sound with trumpets and cymbals and instruments of song and with praise to Jehovah, "because he is good, because his friendship lasts forever," the house was filled with the cloud
- 14 of Jehovah's house, and the priests could not stand to officiate because of the cloud because Jehovah's glory had filled the house of God.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 Then Solomon said
- "Jehovah has listed to dwell in darkling air;
- 2 But I have built a hall for you,
An abode for you forever."
- 3 And the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel,
- 4 while all the assembly of Israel stood; and he said "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who said with his mouth to my father David and
- 5 has with his hands made it good, 'Since the day that I brought my people out of Egypt I had not chosen a city out of any of the tribes of Israel for building a house where my name should be, nor chosen
- 6 a man to be warden over my people Israel; but I have chosen Jerusalem where my name should be, and I have chosen David to be over
- 7 my people Israel.' And my father David had in mind to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel; but Jehovah said to my father David 'Whereas you had in mind to build a house for my
- 9 name, you did well to have it in mind; yet you shall not build the house, but your son, who comes out of your loins, he shall build the
- 10 house for my name.' And Jehovah has been as good as his word, and I have risen in place of my father David and have taken my seat on the throne of Israel as Jehovah promised, and have built the house
- 11 for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, and have placed there the ark where Jehovah's covenant is, which he made with the sons of Israel."
- 12 And he stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the
- 13 assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands (for Solomon had made

- a bronze rostrum, and put it in the middle of the precinct, seven and a half feet long and seven and a half feet wide and four and a half feet high, and he stood on it and knelt down before all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands to the sky) and said "Jehovah, God of Israel, there is not a God like you in the heavens and on earth, keeping covenant and friendship with your servants who walk before you with all their hearts, seeing you have kept your word with my father David and spoken with your mouth and made good with your hands as this day. And now, Jehovah, God of Israel, keep with your servant my father David your word 'You shall never be without a man before me who shall sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons guard their ways, walking by my instructions as you did'; now, Jehovah, God of Israel, let your word to your servant David prove true.
- "But will God really live with men on earth? why, the skies and the skies of the skies cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built; but turn to your servant's prayer and petition, Jehovah my God, listening to the appeal and prayer that your servant is praying before you, that your eyes be open toward this house day and night, toward the place where you have thought to place your name, listening to the prayer that your servant prays toward this place, and that you listen to the petitions of your servant and of your people Israel that they pray toward this place, and that you hear out of your dwelling-place heaven, and, listening, forgive.
- "If a man does wrong by his neighbor, and he raises a curse on him, cursing him out, and comes and pronounces the curse before your altar in this house, and you hear it out of heaven, act and judge your servants, requiting the knave, sending retribution upon his head, and vindicating the man who stands for his rights, sending to him what he deserves.
- "And if your people Israel are beaten by an enemy because they sin against you, but they come back and confess your name and pray and beseech before you in this house, and you hear it out of heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the soil you gave to them and to their fathers.
- "When the sky is barred and there is no rain, because they sin against you, and they pray toward this place and confess your name, coming back from their sin because you afflict them, and you hear it in heaven, forgive the sin of your servants and your people Israel, when you guide them on the good path that they are to walk in, and give rain on your country which you give to your people as a domain.
- "When famine there is in the country, when pestilence there is, when on the grain there is blasting or mildew, spring grasshoppers, fall grasshoppers, when their enemies beset them in any of their gates, in every calamity, in every malady, whatever prayer or petition any man or all your people Israel may have, each feeling his own blow and

- 30 pain and spreading out his hands toward this house, and you hearing it out of heaven your dwelling-place, forgive and act and give to each 31 as he deserves, as you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of mankind), that they may fear you, walking in your ways, all the time they live over the soil you gave their fathers.
- 32 "And as to the foreigner too, who does not belong to your people Israel, but comes from a distant country drawn by your name (because they will hear of your great name and strong hand and out-33 stretched arm and will come and pray toward this house, and you will hear it out of heaven your dwelling-place), do as the foreigner may call on you to, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, fearing you like your people Israel, and knowing that this house I have built wears your name.
- 34 "When your people go out to war against their enemies on a course you send them on, and pray to you toward this city which you have 35 chosen and the house I have built for your name, and you hear out 36 of heaven their prayer and petition, do justice for them. When they sin against you (for there is no man who does not sin) and you are angry with them and give them to be defeated before an enemy, and 37 their captors carry them as slaves to a far country or a near, and in the country to which they are carried off they bethink themselves and come back and beseech you in the country of their slavery, saying 38 'We have sinned, we have offended and are guilty,' and come back to you sincerely and wholeheartedly in the country of their captors who carried them off, and pray toward their country that you gave to their fathers and the city you have chosen and the house I have built 39 for your name, and you hear their prayer and petition out of heaven your dwelling-place, do justice for them and forgive your people who have sinned against you.
- 40 "Now, my God, let your eyes be open and your ears sharpened for prayer at this place.
- 41 "And now up, Jehovah, to come to your resting-place, you and your ark of might. Let your priests, Jehovah God, be robed in sal-42 vation, and your godly men glad by goodness. Jehovah God, do not refuse to listen to your anointed one; remember the piety of your servant David."

CHAPTER 7

- 1 And when Solomon finished praying, the fire came down out of the sky and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices, and 2 Jehovah's glory filled the house, and the priests could not go into 3 Jehovah's house because Jehovah's glory filled Jehovah's house. And all the sons of Israel saw when the fire and Jehovah's glory came down on the house, and they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground and did reverence and gave thanks to Jehovah 4 because he is good, because his friendship lasts forever. And the king

5 and all the people were making sacrifices before Jehovah; and King Solomon sacrificed as the sacrifice of horned cattle twenty-two thousand, and sheep and goats a hundred and twenty thousand; and the 6 king and all Israel dedicated the house of God, while the priests stood attending to their duties, and the Levites with the instruments for song to Jehovah which King David had made for giving thanks to Jehovah, because his friendship lasts forever, when David was employing their services in praise, and the priests sounding the trumpets in time with them, and all Israel standing. And Solomon consecrated the middle of the court in front of Jehovah's house, because there he offered the burnt-offerings and the fats of the welfare-sacrifices, since the bronze altar Solomon had made was not adequate to hold the burnt-offering and the grain-offering and the fats.
 8 And Solomon kept the Feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from Lebo-Hamath to Egypt Arroyo. And they kept a holiday on the eighth day, because they had been keeping the dedication of the altar seven days and the feast 10 seven days. And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he dismissed the people to their homes joyous and merry over the good things Jehovah had done for David and Solomon and his people Israel.
 11 And Solomon finished Jehovah's house and the royal palace; and in everything that it came into Solomon's mind to do in Jehovah's house and in his own house he had good success.
 12 And Jehovah appeared to Solomon in the night and said to him "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself 13 for a house of sacrifice. In case I bar the sky and there is no rain, or in case I order grasshoppers to eat up the country, or if I let loose 14 a pestilence among my people, and my people who wear my name humble themselves and pray and betake themselves to me and turn back from their bad courses, I will hear out of heaven and forgive 15 their sin and restore the health of their country. My eyes shall now be open and my ears sharpened for prayer at this place.
 16 "And now I have chosen this house and made it a sacred place where my name shall forever be; and my eyes and my mind shall 17 always be there. And for yourself, if you walk before me as your father David did, doing just as I have commanded, and keep my 18 usages and laws, I will set up the throne of your kingdom as I covenanted to your father David, 'You shall never be without a man ruling 19 Israel.' But if you and the people turn back and abandon my usages and commandments that I have set before you, and go and worship 20 other gods and do them reverence, I will uproot them from the soil I gave them, and this house which I had made a sacred place for my 21 name I will discard and render it a byword and a jeer among all peoples. And this house, which had stood sublime for every passerby, shall lie desolate; and one shall say 'What did Jehovah do like that 22 to this country and this house for?' and they will say 'On account of their having left their fathers' God Jehovah who had brought them out of Egypt, and taken to other gods and done reverence to them and worshiped them; it was on this account that he brought upon them all this mischief."

CHAPTER 8

- 1 And at the end of twenty years in which Solomon had been building 2 Jehovah's house and his own house, Solomon fortified the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, and settled the sons of Israel there.
3 4 And Solomon went to Hamath of Sobah and mastered it, and built Palmyra in the wilderness and all the storage cities that he built in 5 Hamath. And he fortified Upper Beth-Horon and Nether Beth-Horon, 6 cities to stand a siege, with walls and gates and bars, and built Ba'alath and all the storage cities Solomon had, and the chariot cities and the cavalry-horse cities, and all Solomon's fancies that he took the fancy to build in Jerusalem and in the Lebanon and throughout his dominion.
- 7 All the people that were left of the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites, who were not sons 8 of Israel, of their sons that had been left in the country after them, whom the sons of Israel had not made an end of, Solomon levied as 9 a corvée, which they are to this day. But of the sons of Israel Solomon enslaved none for his work, but they were men of war and the captains of his adjutants and of his chariots and cavalry.
- 10 And these were King Solomon's chief commissioners, two hundred and fifty of them who were in authority over the people.
- 11 And the Pharaoh's daughter Solomon brought up out of David's City to the house he built for her, because he said "No wife of mine shall live in the house of King David of Israel, because the premises are hallowed inasmuch as the ark of Jehovah has been into them."
- 12 Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings to Jehovah on Jehovah's altar 13 which he built before the porch, and, each day as was proper for the day, offering them according to Moses's commandment on the sabbaths and the new moons and the anniversaries three times a year, at the feast of matzoth and at the feast of weeks and at the feast of 14 booths. And he had the divisions of the priests stand for their service in accordance with the ritual of his father David, and the Levites for their duties, singing praises and assisting in concurrence with the priests, giving the daily service each day, and the gatemen by their divisions at each gate, because such was the command of David 15 the man of God; and they did not deviate from the king's command to the priests and the Levites as to any matter or as to the treasures.
- 16 And all Solomon's work was brought into good condition up to that day, the founding of Jehovah's house and up to its completion; Jehovah's house was finished.
- 17 Then Solomon went to Ghesjon-Geber and to Eloth on the shore

18 of the Red Sea in Edom, and Hiram sent him, by his subjects, ships and workmen familiar with the sea, and they came with Solomon's subjects to Ophir and fetched from there four hundred and fifty hundredweight of gold and brought it to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

1 And the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon, and came to test Solomon with problems at Jerusalem, with an immense retinue and camels carrying spices and gold in large quantity and precious stones; and she came to Solomon and said to him whatever she had in mind to 2 say, and Solomon told her all her points; of not a point was Solomon 3 ignorant so as not to tell her. And the queen of Sheba saw Solomon's 4 wisdom, and the house he had built, and the food that came to his table, and the order in which his officers sat and his attendants stood, and their costumes, and his cupbearers and their costumes, and the burnt-offering that he used to offer in Jehovah's house, she had no
5 spirit left in her; and she said to the king "It was a true word that I 6 heard in my own country about your state and your wisdom; and I did not believe their talk till I came and saw with my own eyes, and found that I had not been told half the preeminence of your wisdom;
7 you outdo the report I had heard. Happy are your men, happy these officers of yours who stand before you always and hear your wisdom.
8 Jehovah your God be blessed who was pleased with you for setting on his throne to be king for Jehovah your God; it was because your God loved Israel, to make it stand forever, that he set you over them 9 as king to do justice and right." And she gave the king sixteen thousand pounds of gold, and spices in great quantity, and precious stones; and there never was the equal of those spices that the queen of Sheba 10 gave King Solomon. (And Hiram's subjects, too, and Solomon's subjects, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum wood and 11 precious stones; and the king made the algum wood into passage-floors for Jehovah's house and the royal palace, and lyres and harps 12 for the singers; and the like had never been seen in Judah.) And King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything which pleased her that she asked for, besides what she had brought to the king. And she turned and went back to her own country, she and her officers.
13 And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was eighty-seven thousand six hundred and forty pounds, gold, besides the mulets 14 on travelers; and the merchants brought in, and all the kings of Arabia and the viceroys of the country brought in gold to King 15 Solomon. And King Solomon made two hundred shields of beaten 16 gold, three hundred ounces of beaten gold going on one shield, and three hundred beaten gold bucklers, a hundred and fifty ounces of gold going on one buckler; and the king put them in the Forest-of-Lebanon house.

17 And the king made a great ivory throne, and gilded it with pure 18 gold; and there were six steps to the throne and a footrest in gold, fastened to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat, and two 19 standing lions beside the arms, and twelve standing lions on the six steps, one each side; nothing of the sort had been made for any 20 kingdom. And all King Solomon's drinking-vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the Forest-of-Lebanon house were solid gold; silver 21 was not thought anything of in Solomon's days. For the king had ships going to Spain with Hiram's subjects; once in three years the Spain-ships came in, carrying gold and silver, ivory and monkeys 22 and peacocks. And King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom; and all the kings of the earth betook themselves 23 to Solomon to listen to his wisdom which God had put into his heart, and brought their presents man by man, articles of silver and of gold 24 and garments, arms, and spices, ponies and mules, a yearly supply.

25 And Solomon had four thousand teams of ponies and chariots, and twelve thousand cavalry horses, which he quartered in the chariot 26 cities and at Jerusalem with the king. And he ruled over all the kings from the River to the country of the Philistines and to the 27 boundary of Egypt. And the king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as sycamores in the lowlands. And ponies 28 were exported to Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.
29 And as to the remainder of Solomon's history, first and last, it is recorded in the history of Nathan the prophet and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visioning of Je'do the seer against 30 Jeroboam the son of Nebat. And Solomon was king at Jerusalem over 31 all Israel for forty years. And Solomon went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in his father David's city; and his son Rehoboam succeeded him.

CHAPTER 10

1 And Rehoboam came to Shekem, because all Israel had come to 2 Shekem to install him as king. And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (he was in Egypt, as he had fled away from King Solomon) 3 Jeroboam came back from Egypt; and they sent and called him, and 4 Jeroboam and all Israel came and told Rehoboam "Your father made our yoke bear hard on us; now make the hard service to your father rather easier, and his heavy yoke that he put on us, and we will be 5 your subjects." And he said to them "Come back to me again in three days"; and the people went.
6 And King Rehoboam consulted the old men who had been in the service of his father Solomon when he was alive, asking them "How 7 do you advise me to reply to these people?" and they told him "If you will be kindly to these people and take everything in good part from them and speak them fair, they will be subjects to you permanently." 8 But he discarded the old men's policy which they had recommended to him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, 9 whom he had in his service, and said to them "What reply do you advise that we give to these people who have told me 'Make the yoke 10 your father put on us rather easier'?" And the young men who had grown up with him told him "This is what you will say to the people who have told you 'Your father made our yoke heavy, be easier on us': you will tell them 'My little finger is thicker than my father's 11 hips. Now my father imposed a heavy yoke on you, and I will add to your yoke; my father punished you with whips, and I will with scorpions.'"

12 And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had told them "Come back to me on the third day"; 13 and the king gave them a harsh answer. And King Rehoboam discarded the old men's policy and spoke to them in accordance with the 14 young men's policy, "I will make your yoke heavy and add to it; my father punished you with whips, and I will with scorpions." And the 15 king did not listen to the people, because it was a crisis determined by God in order that Jehovah might make good his prediction which he had given by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them; and the people replied to the king "What share have we in David? no estate in Jesse's son; all to your homes, Israel! now look after your own house, 17 David!" and all Israel went to their homes. But over the sons of Israel 18 who lived in the cities of Judah Rehoboam became king. And King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, the superintendent of the corvée; and the sons of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam put his best foot foremost in getting into his chariot to take flight to Jerusalem; 19 and Israel rebelled against the house of David, and it has lasted to this day.

CHAPTER 11

1 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem and assembled all the house of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand picked warriors, to make war with Israel, to restore the kingship to Rehoboam.
2 3 And Jehovah's word came to Shema'iah the man of God "Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all Israel 4 in Judah and Benjamin, 'Says Jehovah, You shall not go up, nor make war with your brothers; go back home; for this thing has come from me.'" And they listened to Jehovah's word and turned back from going against Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam settled down in Jerusalem, and fortified cities in 6 Judah to stand sieges; and he fortified Bethlehem and 'Etam and 7 8 Tekoa' and Beth-Sur and Soco and 'Adullam and Gath and Mareshah 9 10 and Ziph and Adoraim and Lakish and 'Azekah and Soreah and 11 Aijalon and Hebron in Judah and Benjamin as guard-cities. And he strengthened the guard-posts and put wardens in them, and stores 12 of food and oil and wine, and in each and every city shields and pikes, and made them very strong indeed, and had Judah and Benjamin for his.

13 And the priests and Levites throughout Israel sided with him 14 out of all their territory; for the Levites left their glebes and property and went to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons 15 had superseded them from serving as priests to Jehovah, and he had set up priests of his own for the heights and for the satyrs and for 16 the calves he had made. And after them out of all the tribes of Israel those who had given their hearts to looking up Israel's God Jehovah came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah the God of their fathers; 17 and they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and reinforced Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, because for three years they went the way of David and Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam married Mahalath, the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and Abihail the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab; and she bore 19 him sons, Jekhush and Shemariah and Zaham. And after her he married Ma'acah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah 20 and 'Attai and Ziza and Shelomith. And Rehoboam loved Ma'acah the daughter of Absalom more than any of his wives and concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-22 eight sons and sixty daughters. And Rehoboam set Ma'acah's son Abijah at the head, as warden over his brothers, because he had 23 determined to make him the king; and he disjoined some of all his sons in all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, in all the guard-cities, and gave them provender in plenty and married them to wives.

CHAPTER 12

1 But when Rehoboam's royal power was firmly established and he had grown strong, he abandoned Jehovah's instructions, and all Israel 2 with him. And in the year five of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had been unfaithful to 3 Jehovah, with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen, and there was no counting the men that came with him from Egypt, 4 Libyans and Sukkites and Nubians; and he took all the guard-cities 5 of Judah and came up to Jerusalem. And the prophet Shema'iah came to Rehoboam and the captains of Judah who had come together at Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and said to them "Says Jehovah, 6 You have left me and so have I left you in Shishak's hands." And the captains of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said 7 "Jehovah is in the right." And when Jehovah saw that they humbled themselves, Jehovah's word came to Shema'iah "They have humbled themselves; I will not make away with them, but will let them have a bare survival, and my ire shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by 8 Shishak. But they shall become subjects to him and know the difference between subjection to me and subjection to the empires of earth."

- 9 And King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of Jehovah's house and of the palace, took everything; 10 and he took the golden shields Solomon had made. And King Rehoboam made bronze shields instead, and committed them to the charge of the captains of the runners who guarded the door of the palace; 11 and as often as the king came to Jehovah's house the runners came 12 and carried them and took them back to the guard-chamber. But at his humbling himself Jehovah's anger turned back from him and he did not make away with him outright; and in Judah too there were good points.
- 13 And King Rehoboam consolidated his power in Jerusalem and reigned on; for Rehoboam was forty-one years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned seventeen years at Jerusalem, the city Jehovah had chosen, to put his name there, out of all the tribes of Israel. And 14 his mother's name was Na'amah the 'Ammonite. And he did what was bad; for he had not made up his mind to devote himself to Jehovah.
- 15 And as to the history of Rehoboam, first and last, it is recorded in the history of Shema'iah the prophet and of 'Iddo the seer for genealogical records. And the fightings of Rehoboam and Jeroboam went 16 on all the time. And Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in David's City, and his son Abijah succeeded him.

- 1 In the year eighteen of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over 2 Judah; he reigned three years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Micajah the daughter of Uriel from Gibeah.
- 3 And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam; and Abijah took the offensive with a force of champion warriors, four hundred thousand picked men, and Jeroboam joined battle with him with eight 4 hundred thousand picked stalwart champions. And Abijah stood up on top of Mount Semaraim in the highland of Ephraim, and said 5 "Listen, Jeroboam and all Israel! You ought to know that Israel's God Jehovah gave David kingship over Israel forever, to him and to 6 his sons, in a covenant of salt; but Jeroboam the son of Nebat, a subject of David's son Solomon, stood up and rebelled against his 7 sovereign, and a set of reprobate riffraff gathered about him and organized a mutiny against Solomon's son Rehoboam, and Rehoboam 8 was young and irresolute and did not hold his own against them. And now you are expecting to hold your own against Jehovah's kingship in the hands of David's sons, you being a great crowd and having 9 with you gold calves that Jeroboam made you for gods! Haven't you banished Jehovah's priests, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made yourselves priests like those of the peoples of all the countries, everybody that comes to get installed with a steer of horned cattle 10 and seven rams and become a priest to no-gods? But we have Jehovah for our God, and have not left him; and priests officiating to Jehovah,

11 the sons of Aaron and the Levites at work and making burnings to Jehovah, burnt-offerings morning by morning and evening by evening, and aromatic incense, and stacked bread on the clean table, and the gold lampstand and its lamps to be lighted evening by evening, because we are keeping the charge of our God Jehovah; but you have 12 left him. And here we have with us at our head God and his priests and the martial trumpets to sound the forward-march over us. Sons of Israel, do not fight your fathers' God Jehovah, for you will have no success."

13 But Jeroboam had sent the ambush around to come in at their rear; and they were in front of Judah, and the ambush at their rear.
14 And Judah faced about and found that they had the attack before and behind; and they cried to Jehovah, and the priests sounded the trumpets, and the men of Judah raised a cheer; and when the men of Judah cheered, God let Jeroboam and all Israel be beaten by Abijah 16 and Judah, and the sons of Israel were routed before Judah, and 17 God gave them into their hands, and Abijah and his people made a great slaughter among them; and there fell, stabbed through, five 18 hundred thousand picked men out of Israel. And the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, and the sons of Judah were nerved up, 19 because they leaned on their fathers' God Jehovah; and Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him, Bethel and its dependencies and Jeshanah and its dependencies and 'Ephron and its dependencies.
20 And Jeroboam no longer retained any strength in Abijah's time; and Jehovah struck him down, and he died.

21 And Abijah consolidated his power, and married fourteen wives and 22 had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. And the rest of the history of Abijah, and his courses and his words, are recorded in

1 the story of the prophet 'Iddo. And Abijah went to rest with his fathers, and was buried in David's City; and his son Asa succeeded him.

2 In his time the country was quiet ten years, and Asa did what his 3 God Jehovah liked and approved, and cleared out the foreign altars and the heights, and broke up the obelisks and cut down the asherahs, 4 and told Judah to devote themselves to their fathers' God Jehovah 5 and to live up to his code and commandment; and he cleared out from all the cities of Judah the heights and the hammans; and the 6 kingdom was quiet before him. And he built guard-cities in Judah because the country was quiet and he was involved in no war in those 7 years, because Jehovah had given him rest; and he said to Judah
"Let us fortify these cities and enclose them with wall and towers and gates and bars; we still have the country before us, because we have devoted ourselves to our God Jehovah; we devoted ourselves, and he 8 gave us rest on all sides"; and they built and prospered. And Asa had troops carrying shield and pike, three hundred thousand out of Judah, and out of Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand carrying buckler and bending bow; stalwart champions all these.

9 And Zerah the Nubian came out against them with a million 10 troops and three hundred chariots, and came up to Mareshah; and Asa went out to face them, and they joined battle in the valley north of 11 Mareshah. And Asa called out to his God Jehovah "Jehovah, with you there is no difference for helping between many and the powerless; help us, Jehovah, our God, because we lean on you and in your name 12 we have come against this host. Jehovah, you are our God; let not a man be a match for you!" And Jehovah let the Nubians be beaten 13 by Asa and Judah; and the Nubians were routed, and Asa and the people he had with him pursued them to Gerar, and so many Nubians fell that they were beyond any rallying, for they were broken up before Jehovah and his army; and they took up a very great quantity 14 of booty, and conquered all the cities around Gerar, because the dread of Jehovah had come upon them, and plundered all the cities, for there 15 was much plunder in them. And they also struck at the stockmen's tents, and drove off sheep and goats in great numbers, and camels;
and they came back to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 15

1 2 And God's spirit came upon 'Azariah the son of 'Oded, and he went out before Asa and said to him "Hear me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin: Jehovah is with you when you are with him, and if you go in quest of him he will let himself be found, but if you leave 3 him he will leave you. Israel had a long time of being without the God of truth and without a priest that gave rulings and without a 4 code; but in distress it turned back to Israel's God Jehovah and looked 5 for him, and he let himself be found. And in those times there was no peace for the goer-out or the comer-in, but great embroilments over 6 all the inhabitants of the countries, and nation clashed with nation and city with city, because God had embroiled them in all distress.
7 But as for you, courage, and do not slacken, because there is to be a reward for your activities."

8 And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy, he went to work with a will and ousted the disgustments from all the country of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities of the highland of Ephraim that he had captured, and renewed Jehovah's altar in front of 9 Jehovah's porch; and he gathered all Judah and Benjamin and those who were living as immigrants with him out of Ephraim and Manasseh and Simeon (for they had come over to him out of Israel in great 10 numbers when they saw that his God Jehovah was with him), and they gathered at Jerusalem at the third new moon in the year fifteen 11 of Asa's reign, and sacrificed to Jehovah on that day, out of the booty they had brought, seven hundred horned cattle and seven 12 thousand sheep, and entered into covenant to devote themselves to 13 their fathers' God Jehovah with all their heart and soul, and that anybody who did not devote himself to Israel's God Jehovah should 14 be put to death, small or great, man or woman; and they swore to Jehovah with loud voice and with cheers and trumpets and ram-horns.

15 And all Judah was glad over the oath, because they had sworn with all their hearts, and with all goodwill they looked for him and he let himself be found; and Jehovah gave them rest on all sides.

16 And King Asa's mother too he deposed from her queenship because she had made a horror of an asherah; and Asa cut down her horror 17 and reduced it to sawdust and burned it in Kidron Arroyo. But the heights were not removed out of Israel; Asa's heart, however, was 18 sound all his life. And he brought in his father's consecrated articles and his own to Jehovah's house, silver and gold and furnishings.

19 And there was no war up to the year thirty-five of Asa's reign.

CHAPTER 16

1 In the year thirty-six of Asa's reign King Ba'asha of Israel came up against Judah and fortified Ramah, blockading King Asa of 2 Judah. And Asa took out silver and gold from the treasuries of Jehovah's house and the palace and sent them to King Ben-Hadad of Syria, 3 who lived at Damascus, with the message "There is a treaty between you and me, between your father and mine; here I have sent you silver and gold; go break your treaty with King Ba'asha of Israel, so 4 that he will withdraw from his attack on me." And Ben-Hadad listened to King Asa, and sent his generals against the cities of Israel, and they ravaged 'Ijon and Dan and Abel-Maim and all the storages 5 for the cities of Naphtali; and when Ba'asha heard of it he left off 6 fortifying Ramah and made an end of the measures he was taking, and King Asa took all Judah and they carried away the stone and timber of Ramah, that Ba'asha had built in, and with it he fortified Geba' and Mispah.

7 But at that time the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah and said to him "Because you leaned on the king of Syria and not on your God Jehovah, therefore the forces of the king of Syria escaped out 8 of your hands. Did not the Nubians and Libyans constitute a vast force in numbers, in chariots, and in cavalry? but by your leaning 9 on Jehovah he gave them into your hands. For Jehovah's eyes range through all the earth for working strongly with those whose hearts are sound toward him. You did foolishly in this: henceforth you have 10 wars on hand." And Asa was provoked at the seer and put him in the house where the stocks were, in displeasure at him over this. And Asa persecuted some of the people at that time.

11 And the history of Asa, first and last, is to be found recorded in 12 the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And in the year thirty-

13 nine of his reign Asa was taken with a disease in his legs, which 14 became uncommonly severe; and in his disease too he resorted not to Jehovah but to the doctors. And Asa went to rest with his fathers, and died in the year forty-one of his reign; and they buried him in his grave that he had dug for himself in David's City, and laid him in a niche which he had filled with spices and specialties concocted by professional pharmacy; and they made a very great burning for him.

1 And his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him, and consolidated his power 2 over Israel. And he put troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and put prefects in the country of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim 3 which his father Asa had captured. And Jehovah was with Jehoshaphat, because he went along his father's first courses and did not 4 resort to the Baals but resorted to his father's God and went by his 5 commandments and not like the doings of Israel. And Jehovah established the royal power firmly in his hands; and all Judah gave 6 tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had wealth and grandeur in great measure. And his heart went high in Jehovah's ways, and he made a further clearance of the heights and asherahs out of Judah.

7 And in the year three of his reign he sent his generals, Ben-Hail and 'Obadiah and Zecariah and Nethaneel and Micajah, to teach in 8 the cities of Judah, and with them the Levites Shema'iah and Nethaniah and Zebadiah and 'Asahel and Shemiramoth and Jonathan and Adonijah and Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah, the Levites, and with 9 them Elishama' and Jehoram the priests; and they taught in Judah, having with them the book of Jehovah's code, and went the rounds throughout the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

10 And the dread of Jehovah came upon all the kingdoms of the countries around Judah, and they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.
11 And some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat tribute, silver by the load; the Arabs too brought him sheep and goats, seventy-12 seven hundred rams and seventy-seven hundred he-goats. And Jehoshaphat grew greater and surpassingly greater, and built fortresses 13 and storage cities in Judah, and had many activities in the cities of 14 Judah and stalwart warriors at Jerusalem. And this is their muster by families: of Judah, captains of thousands, General Ghadnah and 15 with him three hundred thousand stalwart champions, and at his side General Jehohanan and with him two hundred and eighty thousand, 16 and at his side 'Amasiah the son of Zicri, who volunteered for 17 Jehovah, and with him two hundred thousand stalwart champions; and of Benjamin, Eljada' a stalwart champion, and with him two hundred 18 thousand armed with bow and shield, and at his side Jehozabad and 19 with him a hundred and eighty thousand armed for service. These were the king's retinue, besides those whom the king put in the forti-

1 fied cities throughout Judah. And Jehoshaphat had wealth and grandeur in great measure; and he connected himself by marriage with Ahab.

2 And he went down to Ahab to Samaria at the end of some years; and Ahab killed sheep and goats and cattle in great numbers for him and for the people he had with him; and he suggested to him that they go up to Ramoth-Gilead. And King Ahab of Israel said to King Jehoshaphat of Judah "Will you go up to Ramoth-Gilead with me?" and he told him "I am the same as you are, and my people the same as your people; and we are with you for the war."

4 But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel "First inquire of Jehovah's word"; and the king of Israel gathered the prophets, four hundred of them, and said to them "Shall we go against Ramoth-Gilead to war or shall I let it be?" and they said "Go up, and God will give it into your majesty's hands."

6 And Jehoshaphat said "Is there not any other prophet of Jehovah here for us to inquire from?" And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat "There is one other man to inquire of Jehovah from, but I hate him because he does not prophesy good luck for me but all the time bad; that is Micajah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said

8 "Do not say such things, your majesty." And the king of Israel called to a eunuch and said "Hurry up with Micajah the son of Imla."

9 And the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting each on his throne, robed and enthroned on a threshing-floor at the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets under the power before them.

10 And Sidkijah the son of Kena'anah made himself iron horns, and said "Says Jehovah, With these you shall gore the Syrians till you have finished them"; and all the prophets prophesied so, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and be successful, Jehovah will give it into your majesty's hands." And the messenger who went to summon Micajah told him "Here the prophets' words are unanimously good luck for the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, speak good luck"; but Micajah said "By Jehovah, what Jehovah tells me, that I will speak."

14 And he came to the king, and the king said to him "Micajah, shall we go to Ramoth-Gilead to war or shall we let it be?" and he said to him "Go up and be successful, they will be given into your hands." And the king said to him "How many times shall I adjure you not to speak anything at all but truth to me in Jehovah's name?" And he said "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep without a shepherd, and Jehovah said 'These have no sovereign; let them go home in peace.'"

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good luck for me but bad?" And he said "Hear Jehovah's word, then! I saw Jehovah sitting on his throne, and all

19 the legions of heaven stood by at his right and left, and Jehovah said 'Who will inveigle Ahab into going up and falling at Ramoth-Gilead?' And one said this way and another that way; but the Spirit stood out before Jehovah and said 'I will inveigle him,' and Jehovah said 'In what way?' and it said 'I will go out and be a spirit of falsehood in the mouths of all his prophets.' And he said 'You shall inveigle him and be successful in it; go out and do so.' Now here has Jehovah put a spirit of falsehood in the mouths of these prophets of yours, but Jehovah proposes bad luck for you." And Sidkijah the son of Kena'anah came up and struck Micajah on the cheek and said "Which way did Jehovah's spirit pass from me to speak with you?" and Micajah said "You are going to see on that day, you will be getting into a closet to hide." And the king of Israel said "Take Micajah and take him back to City Captain Amon and Prince Joash and say 'By order of the king, put this fellow in jail and feed him half rations of bread and water till I come safe back.'" And Micajah said "If you do come back safe, Jehovah did not speak in me." And he said "Listen, all peoples."

28 And the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up to Ramoth-Gilead; and the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat "I disguise myself and go into the fighting; but do you wear your robes"; and the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the fighting. 30 And the king of Syria had given his chariot-captains the order "Do not attack small or great but only the king of Israel"; and when the chariot-captains saw Jehoshaphat, thinking it was the king of Israel, they surrounded him to attack him; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and 32 Jehovah helped him, and God impelled them away from him, and when the chariot-captains saw that it was not the king of Israel they turned back and left off following him.

33 And a man drew his bow at haphazard and hit the king of Israel between the tassets and the hauberk; and he said to the charioteer "Turn your ponies and take me out of the army, for I am hard hit"; 34 but the fight ran high that day, and the king of Israel was keeping on his feet in the chariot facing the Syrians till evening; and he died

1 at the moment of sunset. And King Jehoshaphat of Judah came back to his house in Jerusalem safe and sound.

2 But the seer Jehu the son of Hanani came out confronting him and said to King Jehoshaphat "Were you to help the wrong-doer and love the haters of Jehovah? for this there is wrath against you from 3 Jehovah. There are good points found about you, though, in that you routed out the asherahs from the country and made up your mind to devote yourself to God."

4 And Jehoshaphat settled down in Jerusalem and again went out among the people from Beer-Sheba' to the highland of Ephraim and

5 turned them back to their fathers' God Jehovah. And he stationed judges in all the fortified cities of Judah, for each city in the country; 6 and he said to the judges "Look out for what you are doing, because you are not to judge for man but for Jehovah, and he is with you in 7 the business of judging. Now let the dread of Jehovah be on you; act observantly; for with our God Jehovah there are no such things as 8 bad faith and partiality and bribe-taking." And in Jerusalem too Jehoshaphat stationed some of the Levites and the priests and the heads of families of Israel to give Jehovah's decision and for the 9 litigation of the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he gave them the order "You are to do like this: in the fear of Jehovah, in good faith, and 10 with sincere heart. And every litigation that comes before you from your brothers who are seated in their cities, between blood and blood, between ruling and commandment, usages, laws, you are to notify them about, that they may not incur guilt with Jehovah and there be wrath against you and your brothers; thus you are to do, and not 11 incur guilt. And you have Head Priest Amariah over you for every matter of Jehovah's, and Zedabiah the son of Ishma'el, the warden of the house of Judah, for every matter of the king's; and you have the Levites before you as marshals. Courage, and go to work; and Jehovah be with the good."

CHAPTER 20

1 And after this the Bene-Moab and the Bene-'Ammon, and with them some of the Me'unites, came against Jehoshaphat for war. And they came and reported to Jehoshaphat "There has come in against you a great host from the other side of the sea, from Edom, and here they are at Haseson-Tamar"—that is, 'En-Gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat was afraid, and turned his face to invoke Jehovah, 4 and proclaimed a fast for all Judah. And Judah gathered to seek from Jehovah; also out of all the cities of Judah they came in to seek 5 Jehovah. And Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and 6 Jerusalem at Jehovah's house, in front of the new court, and said "Jehovah, God of our fathers, is it not true that you are God in heaven and you rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in your hands are power and might, and there is no way to stand one's 7 ground with you? did not you, our God, dispossess the inhabitants of this country before your people Israel and give it forever to the 8 descendants of Abraham who loved you? and they settled in it and 9 have built you in it a sanctuary for your name, saying 'If there comes upon us disaster, a warfare, a judgment, a pestilence, a famine, we will stand before this house and before you, because your name is in this house, and cry to you out of our distress, and you will hear and 10 save.' And now here are the sons of 'Ammon and Moab and the highlands of Se'ir, whom you did not let Israel go in among when they came out of Egypt, for they turned out from them and did not root

11 them out,—here are they requiting us by coming in to expel us from 12 our possession which you bestowed on us. Our God, will you not pass judgment on them? for there is no power in us before this great host that is coming against us, and we do not know what to do, but our 13 eyes are upon you.” And all Judah were standing before Jehovah, babies and women and children and all.

14 And Jahaziel the son of Zecariah the son of Benajah the son of Jeiel the son of Mattaniah the Levite, one of the sons of Asaph, had 15 Jehovah’s spirit come upon him in the midst of the assembly; and he said “Listen, all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat! Says Jehovah to you, Be not you afraid nor dismayed 16 at this great host; for the war is not yours but God’s. Go down against them tomorrow; there they are, coming up Flowery Slope, and you will find them at the end of the arroyo, the east face of the wilderness 17 of Jeruel. You do not have to fight on this occasion: take your places, stand still, and see Jehovah’s succor on your side, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid nor dismayed; go out tomorrow to confront 18 them, and Jehovah will be with you.” And Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem threw themselves down before Jehovah to do reverence to 19 Jehovah, and the Levites, some of the sons of the Kehathites and of the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise Israel’s God Jehovah with loudest voice.

20 And the first thing in the morning they went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out Jehoshaphat stood and said “Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: have confidence in your God Jehovah and you will have permanence; have confidence in his 21 prophets and you will have success.” And, after consulting with the people, he stationed singers for Jehovah and praisers of holy grandeur going out before the armed men and saying “Give thanks to Jehovah, 22 because his friendship lasts forever.” And at the moment when they began with carol and praise, Jehovah brought ambushed enemies against the Bene-‘Ammon, Moab, and the highlanders of Se’ir, and 23 they were beaten; and the Bene-‘Ammon and Moab stood against the ones from the highland of Se’ir to exterminate them without quarter, and when they had finished with the ones from Se’ir they helped each 24 other to wreck. And Judah came to the lookout toward the wilderness and faced toward the host, and there they were, corpses fallen on 25 the ground and no survivors. And Jehoshaphat and his people went in to plunder the booty and found beasts in great numbers, and chattels and clothing and valuables, and helped themselves to more than they could carry; and they were three days plundering the booty, it 26 was so great. And on the fourth day they assembled in Blessing Vale (because they blessed Jehovah there; that is why they named that 27 place Blessing Vale and it bears the name to this day). And all the men of Judah and Jerusalem came back, with Jehoshaphat at their 28 head, coming back to Jerusalem with festivity because Jehovah had glorified them by relief from their enemies; and they came into 29 Jerusalem with harps and lyres and trumpets, up to Jehovah's house.

 And the dread of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries 30 when they heard that Jehovah had fought Israel's enemies. And Jehoshaphat's kingdom was quiet, and Jehovah gave him rest on all sides.
 31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, being thirty-five years old at his accession to the throne and reigning twenty-five years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 'Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
 32 And he walked in the path of his father Asa and never turned from 33 it, doing what Jehovah approved; only the heights were not removed, and the people had not directed their hearts to their fathers' God.
 34 And as to the rest of the history of Jehoshaphat, first and last, it is recorded in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, which was put into the book of the kings of Israel.
 35 And later on King Jehoshaphat of Judah associated himself with 36 King Ahaziah of Israel, who had a bad record, and took him as his associate for building ships to go to Spain; and they built ships at 37 Ghesjon-Geber. But Eli'ezer the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat "As you have associated yourself with Ahaziah, Jehovah has burst your works"; and his ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Spain.

1 And Jehoshaphat went to rest with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's City; and his son Jehoram succeeded him.
 2 And he had six brothers, Jehoshaphat's sons, 'Azariah and Jehiel and Zecariah and 'Azariah and Micael and Shephatiah; all these 3 were the sons of King Jehoshaphat of Israel, and their father gave them great gifts in silver and gold and rich objects, with guard-cities in Judah; but the kingship he gave to Jehoram because he was the 4 eldest. And Jehoram came into power over his father's kingdom and consolidated his power, and killed all his brothers with the sword, 5 and also some of the captains of Israel. Jehoram was thirty-two years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned eight years at Jeru-6 salem. And he followed the path of the kings of Israel, as the family of Ahab did, because he had Ahab's daughter for his wife; and he did 7 what displeased Jehovah. And Jehovah was not willing to make away with David's family on account of the pledge he had given to David, and as he had told him he would give him and his sons a lamp through 8 all time. In his time Edom rebelled against the jurisdiction of Judah, 9 and set up a king over themselves; and Jehoram went over with his captains, and all the chariots with him. And he rose in the night and defeated the Edomites who had surrounded him, and the captains of 10 the chariots; but Edom is in rebellion against the jurisdiction of

- Judah to this day. Libnah rebelled then, at that time, against his jurisdiction, because he had left his fathers' God Jehovah. Also, he made heights among the mountains of Judah, and set the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitution and Judah to straying.
- And there came to him a letter from the prophet Elijah in the words "Says Jehovah, your father David's God, Whereas you have not followed the paths of your father Jehoshaphat and of King Asa of Judah but have followed the path of the kings of Israel and have set Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitution as the house of Ahab did the like, and have also killed your brothers, your father's better sons, here is Jehovah bringing a great catastrophe on your people and your sons and your wives and all that belongs to you, and you yourself shall fall into severe sickness by a disease of your bowels till your bowels come out by your sickness, month after month."
- And Jehovah roused against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and of the Arabs next the Nubians, and they came up into Judah and ripped it open and carried off all the chattels that were to be found belonging to the king's household, and also his sons and his wives; and he had not a son remaining but Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. And after all this Jehovah struck him with an incurable disease in his bowels, and it lasted a long time; and at the time when the end ran out, for two days his bowels were coming out along with his disease, and he died in grievous malady. And his people did not make a burning for him like the burning for his fathers. He was thirty-two at his accession to the throne, and reigned eight years at Jerusalem, and went a way that gave no satisfaction; and they buried

- him in David's City, but not in the tombs of the kings. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem installed his youngest son Ahaziah as his successor, because the invading raiders, the Mazonite Arabs, had killed all the first ones.
- And Ahaziah the son of King Jehoram of Judah became king. Ahaziah was twenty-two years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned one year at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 'Athaliah the daughter of 'Omri. He too followed the paths of the family of Ahab, because his mother was his adviser to do wrong; and he did what displeased Jehovah like the family of Ahab, because he had them as advisers after his father's death to ruin him; he went by their advice too, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, to war against King Hazael of Syria at Ramoth-Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram, and he went back to recover at Jezre'el from the wounds they had given him at Ramah in his fighting with King Hazael of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezre'el, because he was sick (and the trampling down of Ahaziah, for him to come

- to Joram, was from God), and when he came there he went out with Jehoram to Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to extirpate the family of Ahab; and as Jehu was prosecuting the case against the family of Ahab he found the captains of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers in attendance on Ahaziah, and killed them, and looked for Ahaziah; and they captured Ahaziah (he having gone into hiding in Samaria) and brought him to Jehu, and he put him to death. And they buried him, because they said "He was the son of Jehoshaphat, who devoted himself to Jehovah with all his heart." And Ahaziah's family could not muster strength to assert the royal power.
- And Ahaziah's mother 'Athaliah saw that her son was dead, and she stood up and destroyed all the royal blood of the house of Judah. But Princess Jehoshabe'ath took Ahaziah's son Joash and spirited him away from among the princes who were being dispatched, and put him and his nurse in the bedding-closet, and King Jehoram's daughter Jehoshabe'ath, Priest Jehojada's wife, because she was Ahaziah's sister, concealed him from 'Athaliah and she did not put him to death. And he was with them in Jehovah's house in hiding for six years, and 'Athaliah reigned over the country.

- And in the seventh year Jehojada' took courageous action and took into his confidence the captains of hundreds, 'Azariah the son of Jeroham and Ishma'el the son of Jehohanan and 'Azariah the son of 'Obed and Ma'asejah the son of 'Adajah and Elishaphat the son of Zicri, and they went the rounds in Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of families of Israel; and they came to Jerusalem, and all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them "Here is the king's son; he is to be king, in accordance with what Jehovah promised regarding David's sons. This is the thing you are to do: the third of you priests and Levites that go in on the sabbath, to act as threshold gatemen; and the third, at the royal palace; and the third, at the Foundation Gate; and all the people, in the courts of Jehovah's house, but let nobody enter Jehovah's house except the priests and such of the Levites as are on duty; they are to enter, because they are consecrated, but all the people are to keep Jehovah's charge. And the Levites are to encircle the king on all sides, weapon in hand, and he who comes into the house is to be put to death; and they are to be with the king when he goes in and when he goes out." And the Levites and all Judah did just as Priest Jehojada' ordered them, and each fetched his men, those who went in on the sabbath with those who came out on the sabbath, because Priest Jehojada' had not let the divisions off. And Priest Jehojada' gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields and bucklers that had belonged to King David, that were in Jehovah's house, and had all the people stand weapon

- in hand from the southeast corner of the house to the northeast corner, for the altar and the house, around the king; and they brought out the prince and put on him the diadem and the Lessons, and declared him king, and Jehojada' and his sons anointed him and said "Long live the king!"
- And 'Athaliah heard the voices of the people running and praising the king, and came to the people in Jehovah's house and saw the scene: there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets beside the king, and all the populace rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers with the instruments for song and giving notice for praise; and 'Athaliah tore her garments and said "Treason! treason!" And Priest Jehojada' brought out the captains of hundreds, the officers of the forces, and said to them "Let her out inside the cordon, and let anyone that goes in after her be put to the sword"; for the priest said "You are not to put her to death in Jehovah's house." And they stood away from her, and she went into the entrance to the driveway gate of the palace, and they put her to death there.
- And Jehojada' made a covenant between himself and the people and the king that they should be Jehovah's people. And all the people went into the Baal's house and tore it down and broke to pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan, the priest of the Baal, in front of the altars. And Jehojada' installed a committee on Jehovah's house by the Levite priests whom David had set off to be over Jehovah's house to offer Jehovah's burnt-offerings, in accordance with what is written in Moses's code, with joyousness and song as prescribed by David; and he stationed the gatemen at the gates of Jehovah's house, and no one unclean on any account was to come in. And he took the captains of hundreds and the grandees and the rulers of the people and all the populace, and brought the king down from Jehovah's house; and they went in through the middle of the upper gate to the palace, and seated the king on the royal throne. And all the populace rejoiced, and the city quieted down; and 'Athaliah they put to death by the sword.

- Joash was seven years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned forty years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Sibjah, from Beer-Sheba'. And Joash did what Jehovah approved all the lifetime of Priest Jehojada'. And Jehojada' married him to two wives, and he begot sons and daughters.
- And after this it came into Joash's mind to renovate Jehovah's house; and he gathered the priests and the Levites and said to them "Go out to the cities of Judah and gather money out of all Israel to repair the house of your God, year by year, and expedite the matter yourselves."

- 6 But the Levites did not expedite it. And the king summoned Chief Jehojada' and said to him "How comes it you have not required the Levites to bring in out of Israel the impost of Moses the man of 7 God and the assembly of Israel for the tent of the Lessons?" for wicked 'Athaliah's sons had breached the house of God, and had also used 8 all the sacred things of Jehovah's house for the Baals. And the king gave directions and they made a chest and put it in the outer gate of 9 Jehovah's house, and issued a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring in for Jehovah the impost that God's servant Moses laid on 10 Israel in the wilderness; and all the captains and all the people were happy and brought in and threw into the chest till they had finished.
11 And at the time of bringing the chest to the king's commissioner by the Levites, and as they saw that the amount of money was great, the king's secretary for documents and the chief priest's officer came in and emptied the chest and carried it off and put it back in its place; thus they did day by day.
- 12 And they collected money in great quantity, and the king and Jehojada' gave it to the contractors for the work on Jehovah's house, and they hired stonecutters and carpenters for renovating Jehovah's house, and also blacksmiths and coppersmiths for repairing Jehovah's 13 house. And the contractors went to work, and the job came into order in their hands, and they got the house of God standing as originally 14 built and braced it. And when they had finished they brought before the king and Jehojada' the remainder of the money, and he made it into vessels for Jehovah's house, ritual and sacrificial vessels and pans and gold and silver vessels. And they were offering burnt-offerings in Jehovah's house regularly all Jehojada's life.
- 15 And Jehojada' grew old, had lived as long as he wanted to, and died 16 at the age of a hundred and thirty years; and they buried him in David's City with the kings, because he had done good in Israel and by God and his house.
- 17 And after Jehojada's death the captains of Judah came in and 18 did reverence to the king. Then the king listened to them; and they abandoned the house of their fathers' God Jehovah, and worshiped the asherahs and the idols; and there was wrath against Judah and 19 Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs. And he sent among them prophets to turn them back to Jehovah, and they protested to them, but they did not give ear to them.
- 20 And God's spirit took possession of Priest Jehojada's son Zecariah, and he stood above the people and said to them "Says God, Why are you violating Jehovah's commandment? you will not prosper, because 21 you have abandoned Jehovah and he has abandoned you." But they mobbed him and stoned him, by the king's orders, in the court of 22 Jehovah's house; and King Joash did not remember how his father Jehojada' had befriended him, but killed his son. And as he died he said "Let Jehovah see it and see to it."

23 And at the turn of the year the Syrian forces came up against him, and came into Judah and Jerusalem and made away with all the captains of the people and sent the booty from them to the king 24 of Damascus. For the Syrian forces came in with insignificant numbers, and Jehovah gave very great forces into their hands because they had abandoned their fathers' God Jehovah; and they executed 25 judgments on Joash. And when they went away from him—for they left him badly hurt—his officers conspired against him for the blood of Priest Jehojada's sons, and killed him in his bed; so he died, and they buried him in David's City but did not bury him in the tombs of 26 the kings. And these are the ones who conspired against him: Zabab the son of an 'Ammonite woman Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son 27 of a Moabite woman Shimrith. And his sons, and the volume of bodings against him, and the laying of foundations for the house of God, are recorded in the story of the book of the kings. And his son Amasiah succeeded him.

1 Amasiah was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned twenty-nine years at Jerusalem. And his mother's name 2 was Jeho'addan, from Jerusalem. And he did what Jehovah approved, only not wholeheartedly. And when he had the kingship firmly in 3 his hands, he killed his officers who had killed the king his father, but their children he did not put to death, but did in accordance with 4 what is written in the code in the book of Moses, that Jehovah commanded "Fathers shall not be put to death for children, nor children for fathers, but each shall be put to death for his own sin."

5 And Amasiah gathered Judah and ranged them by families under captains of thousands and of hundreds, all Judah and Benjamin, and mustered them from twenty years old up and found them to be three hundred thousand picked men to go out on service, wielding pike and 6 shield. And he hired out of Israel a hundred thousand stalwart champions for a hundred hundredweight of silver; but a man of God came to him and said "Your majesty, let the Israelite levy not come in with you, because Jehovah is not with Israel, all the sons of 8 Ephraim. For if by these you are making up strength for the war, God will give you a stumble before an enemy; for there is power in 9 God to help and to give a stumble." And Amasiah said to the man of God "And what is to be done for the hundred hundredweight that I have given to the Israelite brigade?" and the man of God said 10 "Jehovah has enough to give you much more than this." And Amasiah detached the brigade that had come to him out of Ephraim to go to their own place; and they were very angry at Judah, and went back in anger to their place.

11 But Amasiah courageously led his people on and went to Salt Valley 12 and defeated the sons of Se'ir, killing ten thousand; and the sons of Judah took ten thousand prisoners and brought them to the top of the crag and threw them down from the top of the crag, and all of them were battered to pieces.

13 But the men of the brigade that Amasiah turned back from going with him to the war raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-Horon and killed three thousand out of them and lifted much plunder.

14 And after Amasiah came in from defeating the Edomites he brought in the gods of the sons of Se'ir and set them up for gods for himself 15 and did reverence before them and burned incense to them; and Jehovah was angry with Amasiah and sent a prophet to him, who said to him "Why have you resorted to that people's gods, who did not 16 deliver their people out of your hands?" But when he spoke to him he told him "Have we made you a royal counselor? leave off, why should you get a beating?" and the prophet left off and said "I know God has a purpose to bring you to grief, because you have done this and not listened to my advice."

17 And King Amasiah of Judah chose a policy and sent word to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, "Come 18 on, let us come face to face." And King Joash of Israel sent word to King Amasiah of Judah "The brier in the Lebanon sent word to the cedar in the Lebanon 'Give my son your daughter as wife'; and the 19 wild beasts in the Lebanon came by and trampled the brier. You think, here you have defeated Edom, and you feel confident of gaining glory; now stay at home; why should you challenge trouble, and fall, 20 and Judah with you?" But Amasiah would not listen, because it came from God, to give him into hostile hands, because they had resorted 21 to the Edomite gods; and King Joash of Israel came up, and they came face to face, he and King Amasiah of Judah, at Beth-Shemesh, 22 which belongs to Judah. And the Judahites were beaten by the Israelites, and fled to their homes. And King Joash of Israel captured 23 King Amasiah of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and breached the wall of Jerusalem for two hundred yards, from the Ephraim Gate to the 24 Corner Gate. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the articles that were found in Jehovah's house with 'Obed-Edom, and the palace treasures, and the hostages, and went back to Samaria.

25 And Amasiah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel.
26 And as to the rest of the history of Amasiah, first and last, it is recorded in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And from the 27 time when Amasiah turned off from following Jehovah they went to organizing a revolution against him at Jerusalem; and he fled to Lakish, and they sent to Lakish after him and put him to death there. And they took him away on ponies, and buried him in David's 28 City with his fathers.

- 1 And all the people of Judah took 'Uzzijah, who was sixteen years 2 old, and installed him as successor to his father Amasiah. He fortified Eloth, and reannexed it to Judah, after the king had gone to rest with his fathers.
- 3 'Uzzijah was sixteen years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned fifty-two years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 4 Jecoliah, from Jerusalem. And he did what Jehovah approved, just 5 as his father Amasiah had, and undertook to devote himself to God in the time of Zecariah the director in the fear of God; and during the time that he devoted himself to Jehovah, God gave him prosperity.
- 6 And he went out and attacked the Philistines, and breached the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod, and built 7 cities in Ashdod and among the Philistines; and God helped him against the Philistines and against the encampment-dwelling Arabs 8 and against the Me'unites; and the Me'unites paid tribute to 'Uzzijah; and his prestige reached to the frontier of Egypt, because he showed 9 himself surpassingly strong. And 'Uzzijah built towers in Jerusalem over the Corner Gate and over the Valley Gate and over the angle, 10 and made them strong. And he built towers in the wilderness and cut out many cisterns, because he had much livestock, and in the foothills and on the plain plowmen and vineyardists on the mountain-11 sides and in the vineyards, because he was a lover of the soil. And 'Uzzijah had a war force, men going out on raiding service, by the count of their muster by Secretary Je'iel and Marshal Ma'asejah 12 under the direction of Hananiah one of the king's captains, total number of heads of families, men of solid fortunes, twenty-six hun-13 dred, and under their direction a service force of three hundred and seven thousand and five hundred who warred with stalwart strength 14 to help the king against the enemy; and 'Uzzijah had ready for them, for all the army, shields and pikes and helmets and cuirasses, and 15 slingstones; and he made in Jerusalem newly-invented machines to stand on the towers and on the corners of the wall to shoot bolts and great stones. And his fame went out to distant parts; for he was marvelously helped till he was strong.
- 16 But when he was strong his heart went so high that he grew vicious and was unfaithful to his God Jehovah, and went into Jehovah's 17 temple to burn incense on the altar of incense. And Priest 'Azariah went in after him, and with him eighty stalwart priests of Jehovah, 18 and opposed King 'Uzzijah and said to him "It does not belong to you, 'Uzzijah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but to the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary, because you have been unfaithful and Jehovah will not have it re-19 dound to your glory." And 'Uzzijah was displeased, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; but as he vented his displeasure on the priests, leprosy shot out in his forehead before the priests in Jehovah's

20 house above the altar of incense, and Chief Priest 'Azariah and all the priests faced toward him and found him leprous in the forehead, and hurried him out of there; and he of his own accord bolted out 21 because Jehovah had marred him. And King 'Uzzijah was leprous to the day of his death, and lived as a leper in the exempt house because he was sundered from Jehovah's house, while his son Jotham, as steward of the royal palace, acted as regent. And the rest of the history of 'Uzzijah, first and last, the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos 22 has recorded. And 'Uzzijah went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers, in the royal burial-field, because they thought "He is a leper"; and his son Jotham succeeded him.

CHAPTER 27

1 Jotham was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and he reigned sixteen years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 2 Jerushah the daughter of Sadok. And he did what Jehovah approved, just as his father 'Uzzijah had; only he did not go into Jehovah's 3 temple, and the people still acted viciously. He built the upper gate of Jehovah's house, and did much building on the wall of the castle
4 ridge, and fortified cities in the highland of Judah, and built fortresses 5 and towers on the peaks. And he made war with the king of the Bene-'Ammon and mastered them; and the Bene-'Ammon gave him in that year a hundred hundredweight of silver and a million bushels of wheat and a million of barley; this indemnity the Bene-'Ammon paid 6 him; and in the second year and the third. And Jotham consolidated his power, because he set his courses in order before his God Jehovah.
7 And as to the rest of the history of Jotham, and all his wars and his courses, they are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
8 He was twenty-five years old at his accession, and reigned sixteen 9 years at Jerusalem. And Jotham went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in David's City; and his son Ahaz succeeded him.

CHAPTER 28

1 Ahaz was twenty years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned sixteen years at Jerusalem. And he did not do what Jehovah
2 approved as his father David had, but followed the paths of the kings of Israel, and even made bronze images for the Baals. And he made burnings in Ben-Hinnom's Valley, and burned his sons up in the fire, in accordance with the detestable ways of the nations Jehovah 3 dispossessed before the sons of Israel, and sacrificed and made burnings at the heights and on the hills and under every verdant tree.
4 And his God Jehovah gave him into the hands of the king of Syria, and they killed in his country and took a great number of prisoners out of it and brought them to Damascus; and he was also given into the hands of the king of Israel, who killed great numbers in his 5 country. And Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all stalwart men, for their having

7 abandoned their fathers' God Jehovah; and the Ephraimite champion Zicri killed the king's son Ma'asejah and 'Azrikam the warden of 8 the palace, and Elkanah the prime minister; and the sons of Israel took prisoners from their brothers two hundred thousand, wives and sons and daughters, and also plundered much booty from them, and brought the booty to Samaria.

9 But there was there a prophet of Jehovah named 'Oded, and he went out to confront the army that was coming to Samaria and said to them "Here it has been by the ire of your fathers' God Jehovah against Judah that he has given them into your hands and you have been killing among them in an irritation that reached to the sky.
10 And now you are thinking of reducing the sons of Judah and Jerusalem to be slaves to you; do not you yourselves decidedly have your 11 own guilts against your God Jehovah? Now listen to me and send back the prisoners you have brought that are brothers of yours; for there is anger of Jehovah's against you."

12 And some of the heads of the sons of Ephraim, 'Azariah the son of Jehohanan and Berekiah the son of Meshillemoth and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum and 'Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those 13 who were coming from the expedition and said to them "You shall not bring the prisoners in here; for it is by way of laying upon us guilt against Jehovah that you are thinking of adding to our sins and our guilts; for we have too much guilt, and there is anger against Israel."

14 And the armed force left the prisoners and the plunder before the 15 generals and all the assembly; and the men named above stood up and took the prisoners in hand, and clothed out of the booty all nakedness of theirs, and furnished them clothing and sandals and food and drink and oil to rub on, and brought them along, with donkeys for everybody who was breaking down, and brought them to Jericho the City of Palms alongside their brothers, and went back to Samaria.

16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria to help him, 17 the Edomites having made another invasion and killed in Judah and 18 carried off prisoners for slaves, and the Philistines having raided among Judah's lowland and southern cities and captured Beth-Shemesh and Aijalon and Gederoth and Soco and its dependencies and Timnah and its dependencies and Gimzo and its dependencies 19 and settled in them; for Jehovah had humbled Judah on account of King Ahaz of Israel because he had been a demoralizing influence 20 in Judah and had been unfaithful to Jehovah. But King Tiglath-Pilneser of Assyria came against him and harassed him, and did not 21 strengthen him; for Ahaz despoiled Jehovah's house and the royal palace and the generals, and gave to the king of Assyria, but it was 22 no help to him. And at the time he was harassed he was additionally 23 unfaithful to Jehovah—that was King Ahaz—and sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that had inflicted blows on him, thinking "Because the gods of the kings of Syria give them help, I will sacrifice to them

- and they shall help me"; and they served to bring him to his fall, 24 him and all Israel. And Ahaz got together the vessels of the house of God, and mutilated the vessels of the house of God, and shut the doors of Jehovah's house and made himself altars at every corner in Jeru-25 salem, and in each and every city of Judah he made heights to make burnings to other gods, and provoked his fathers' God Jehovah.
26 And as to the rest of his history, and all his courses first and last, they are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
27 And Ahaz went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not put him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; and his son Hezekiah succeeded him.

CHAPTER 29

- 1 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned twenty-nine years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name 2 was Abijah the daughter of Zecariah. And he did what Jehovah 3 approved, just as his father David had. He, in the first year of his reign, at new moon of the first month, opened the doors of Jehovah's 4 house and strengthened them, and brought in the priests and the 5 Levites, and brought them together in the East Square and said to them

- "Hear me, Levites. Now put yourselves in sacred condition and put the house of your fathers' God Jehovah in sacred condition, and 6 take out the filth from what is holy, because our fathers have been unfaithful and done what displeased our God Jehovah and left him, and turned their faces away from Jehovah's dwelling and turned 7 their backs to it; they also shut the porch doors and put out the lamps, and did not burn incense nor offer burnt-offerings in the 8 sanctuary to the God of Israel; and Jehovah's wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he made them victims, a sight to stand 9 aghast at and to whistle at, as you see with your own eyes; and here our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and daughters and 10 wives are in foreign slavery, on this account. It is now in my mind to make a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel, that his anger may 11 turn back from us. Now, sons, do not take it easy; for it was you that Jehovah chose to stand before him to perform his service and to be servitors and incense-burners to him."

- 12 And the Levites stood up, Mahath the son of 'Amasai and Joel the son of 'Azariah of the sons of the Kehathites, and of the sons of Merari Kish the son of 'Abdi and 'Azariah the son of Jehallelel, and of the Gershonites Joah the son of Zimmah and Gheden the son of 13 Joah, and of the sons of Elisaphan Shimri and Je'iel, and of the 14 sons of Asaph Zecariah and Mattaniah, and of the sons of Heman Jehiel and Shimei, and of the sons of Jeduthun Shema'iah and 'Uzziel, 15 and brought together their brothers; and they put themselves in sacred condition, and went in, in accordance with the king's command

- 16 by Jehovah's words, to cleanse Jehovah's house. And the priests went into the interior of Jehovah's house to do the cleansing, and brought all the unclean matter that they found in Jehovah's temple out to the court of Jehovah's house, and the Levites received it to carry out to Kidron Arroyo outside. And they began on the first day of the first month to put things in sacred condition; and on the eighth of the month they entered Jehovah's porch, and put Jehovah's house in condition in eight days; and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished. And they went inside to King Hezekiah and said "We have cleansed all Jehovah's house: the altar of burnt-offering and all its vessels, and the table of showbread and all its vessels, and all the vessels that King Ahaz during his reign rejected in his unfaithfulness we have fitted for use and put in sacred condition, and there they are before Jehovah's house."
- 20 And the first thing in the morning King Hezekiah brought together the captains of the city and went up to Jehovah's house, and they brought seven steers and seven rams and seven sheep and seven he-goats for a sin-offering on behalf of the kingdom and of the sanctuary and of Judah; and he told the sons of Aaron, the priests, to make burnt-offerings on Jehovah's altar. And they slaughtered the cattle, and the priests received the blood and threw it against the altar; and they slaughtered the rams, and they threw their blood against the altar; and they slaughtered the sheep, and they threw their blood against the altar; and they brought the sin-goats on before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them, and the priests slaughtered them and put their blood on the altar for sin to purge all Israel, because the king had designated the burnt-offering and the sin-offering for all Israel. And he stationed the Levites in Jehovah's house with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, in accordance with the command of David and of the king's seer Gad and of the prophet Nathan; for the command was by Jehovah by the prophets.
- 26 And the Levites stood with David's instruments and the priests with the trumpets, and Hezekiah gave the word to offer the burnt-offering at the altar; and at the time of beginning the burnt-offering Jehovah's song began, and the trumpets, conducted by the instruments of King David of Israel, and all the assembly did reverence, the song going on and the trumpets sounding, all till the burnt-offering was finished. And when the burnt-offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed and did reverence. And King Hezekiah and the captains told the Levites to praise Jehovah in the words of David and Asaph the seer; and they praised right merrily, and bowed down and did reverence.
- 31 And Hezekiah responded "You have now qualified yourselves to take part in Jehovah's worship; approach and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings for Jehovah's house." And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank-offerings, and, any that were liberally disposed, burnt-

32 offerings. And the count of the burnt-offerings that the assembly brought was seventy cattle, a hundred rams, two hundred sheep: all 33 these for burnt-offerings to Jehovah. And of the sacramental offerings there were six hundred cattle and three thousand sheep and goats.
34 The priests were but too few, and could not skin all the burnt-offerings, and their brothers the Levites reinforced them until the work was finished and until the priests had put themselves in sacred condition; for the Levites were more right-minded about putting 35 themselves in sacred condition than the priests, and also the burnt-offering was in great quantity with the pieces of fat of the welfare-sacrifices and with the libations for the burnt-offering.
36 And the service of Jehovah's house was set in order; and Hezekiah and all the people were happy over what God had set in order for the people; for the thing had come suddenly.

CHAPTER 30

1 And Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters for Ephraim and Manasseh, to come to Jehovah's house at 2 Jerusalem to celebrate a passover to Israel's God Jehovah. And the king and the generals and all the assembly in Jerusalem came to the 3 decision to celebrate the passover in the second month; for they were not able to celebrate it at that time because the priests had not put themselves in sacred condition in sufficient numbers and the people 4 had not come together at Jerusalem; and the proposition seemed 5 right to the king and to all the assembly, and they adopted a resolution to pass the cry through all Israel from Beer-Sheba' to Dan to come to celebrate a passover to Israel's God Jehovah at Jerusalem, for they had not celebrated it in great numbers as is written.
6 And the runners went throughout Israel and Judah with the letters from the hands of the king and his generals as ordered by the king, saying "Sons of Israel, come back to Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may come back to the survivors whom 7 you have remaining out of the hands of the king of Assyria, and do not be like your fathers and like your brothers, who were unfaithful to their fathers' God Jehovah and he gave them to be a desolation, as 8 you see for yourselves. Now do not stiffen your necks as your fathers did; give homage to Jehovah and come to his sanctuary which he has hallowed forever, and worship your fathers' God Jehovah and have 9 his anger turn back from you; for when you turn back to Jehovah your brothers and sons will become objects of sympathy to their captors and will be coming back to this country, because your God Jehovah is kindly and tenderhearted and will not take his face away 10 from you if you turn back to him." And the runners went through from city to city in the country of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far 11 as Zebulun, but they laughed at them and made fun of them; only 12 individuals out of Asher and Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem; Judah too had God's hand upon it to 13 give them unanimity to live up to the command of the king and the generals by Jehovah's word, and there came together at Jerusalem numerous people to celebrate the feast of matzoth in the second month, a very numerous assembly.

14 And they stood up and removed the altars in Jerusalem, and removed all the stands for incense-burning and threw them into Kidron 15 Arroyo; and they slaughtered the passover on the fourteenth of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were humiliated and put themselves in sacred condition and brought burnt-offerings to 16 Jehovah's house, and stood at their posts as was their duty in accordance with the code of Moses the man of God, the priests throwing the 17 blood as they received it from the Levites' hands. For there were numbers in the assembly who had not put themselves in sacred condition, and the Levites were engaged in slaughtering the passovers 18 for everyone who was not clean, to hallow them for Jehovah. For the majority of the people, a great many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issacar and Zebulun, had not been cleansed but ate the passover without conforming to the prescription; for Hezekiah had prayed for 19 them "Jehovah, may the good cause purge everyone who has fixed his heart on devoting himself to God, his fathers' God Jehovah, but not 20 in accordance with the purification for sacred things"; and Jehovah listened to Hezekiah and rectified the people.

21 And the sons of Israel who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the feast of matzoth seven days with great gladness, and the Levites 22 and the priests praised Jehovah day by day with all energy, and Hezekiah complimented all the Levites who brought out the sense well for Jehovah. And they ate the ordinance seven days, sacrificing welfare-sacrifices and giving thanks to their fathers' God Jehovah; 23 and all the assembly came to the decision to celebrate another seven 24 days, and they celebrated seven days with merrymaking. For King Hezekiah contributed for the assembly a thousand steers and seven thousand sheep and goats, and the generals contributed for the assembly a thousand steers and ten thousand sheep and goats, and 25 priests in great numbers put themselves in sacred condition. And all the assembly of Judah, and the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly that had come from Israel, and the immigrants that had come from the Israelite country and were living in Judah, made 26 merry; and there was a great merrymaking in Jerusalem. For since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, it had not been 27 like this in Jerusalem. And the Levite priests stood up and blessed the people, and God heard, and their prayer came into his holy dwelling heaven.

1 And when all this was finished, all Israel who were to be found in the cities of Judah went out and broke up the obelisks and chopped down the asherahs and pulled down the heights and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, till they had finished. And all the sons of Israel went back to their cities to their properties.

2 And Hezekiah assigned the divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions suitably to each one's service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offering and welfare-sacrifice, to officiate and to thank and 3 praise Jehovah with songs. And the king's allowance out of his chattels was for the burnt-offerings, the morning and evening burnt-offerings and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths and the new moons and the 4 anniversaries, as is written in Jehovah's code; and he told the people, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to give the allowance of the priests and the Levites, in order that they might hold fast to Jehovah's code.
5 And when the news broke, the sons of Israel gave plenty of the first of grain, grape-juice, and oil and honey and all produce of the range, 6 and brought the tithe of everything in large quantity; and the sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought tithe of cattle and sheep and goats and tithe of sacred things consecrated 7 to their God Jehovah, and laid them by heaps. It was in the third month they started the heaps, and in the seventh month they finished 8 them; and Hezekiah and the generals came and saw the heaps, and 9 blessed Jehovah and his people Israel. And Hezekiah inquired of the 10 priests and Levites about the heaps; and 'Azariah the head priest of the family of Sadok told him "Since the contribution began to come in to Jehovah's house there has been eating and taking our fill and leaving over in large quantity, because Jehovah has blessed his people; and we have this accumulation left."

11 And Hezekiah told them to get ready vestry-rooms in Jehovah's 12 house; and they got them ready, and brought in the contribution and the tithe and the sacred things faithfully. And over them were Conaniah the Levite as warden, and his brother Shimei as second; 13 and Jehiel and 'Azariah and Nahath and 'Asahel and Jerimoth and Jozabad and Eliel and Ismakiah and Mahath and Benajah were committee subordinate to Conaniah and his brother Shimei by appointment of King Hezekiah and of 'Azariah the warden of the house of 14 God. And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the gateman on the east, was over the voluntary gifts to God, to give out Jehovah's contribution 15 and the holiest of the holy; and under his direction were Gheden and Minjamin and Jeshua' and Shema'iah, Amariah and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, entrusted with giving out to their brothers 16 by divisions, great and small alike, besides keeping their genealogical records by males from three years old up, everybody who was to go into Jehovah's house for daily functions, for their service in their

17 charges by their divisions, and the genealogical records of the priests by families, and the Levites, from twenty years old up, by their 18 charges by their divisions, and genealogical records with all dependents, their wives and sons and daughters, every aggregation, when 19 on honor they were hallowed as sacred; and for the sons of Aaron, the priests, in the glebe lands of their cities there were in each and every city men designated by name to give portions to every male among the priests, and for all of genealogical record among the Levites.
20 And Hezekiah did the like in all Judah, and did what was good 21 and right and loyal before his God Jehovah; and in every work he initiated in the service of God's house and in giving rulings and giving orders for devotion to his God, he acted whole-souledly and was successful.

1 After these events and this loyalty, King Sennacherib of Assyria came and invaded Judah, and beset all the fortified cities and pro-2 posed to lay them open to his troops. And Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come in and was heading toward an attack on Jerusalem; 3 and he consulted with his generals and champions about choking down the water of the springs outside the city, and they backed him.
4 And they gathered a large number of people and choked all the sources of water and buried the bed of the arroyo that streams through the middle of the country, saying "Why should the kings of Assyria 5 come and find plenty of water?" And he consolidated his position and rebuilt all the dilapidated wall, and raised towers on it, and outside it another wall, and strengthened the Millo, David's City, and pro-6 vided missiles in large quantity, and shields. And he put war-captains over the people, and gathered them before him in the square at the 7 city gate and spoke encouragingly to them, saying "Courage, and do your best; do not be afraid nor dismayed at the king of Assyria and at all the host he has with him, for there is more with us than 8 with him. He has with him an arm of flesh, but we have with us our God Jehovah to help us and to fight our battles." And the people were steadied by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.
9 After this, King Sennacherib of Assyria sent his officers to Jerusalem (he being at Lakish and all his power with him) to King Hezekiah of Judah and to all of Judah who were in Jerusalem, with 10 the message "Says King Sennacherib of Assyria, What are you putting confidence in, standing a siege in Jerusalem? Do you not see that 11 Hezekiah is so influencing you as to give you up to die by hunger and thirst, saying 'Our God Jehovah will deliver us out of the hands of the 12 king of Assyria'? was it not his heights and altars that Hezekiah made away with and told Judah and Jerusalem 'You are to worship before 13 one altar and burn your incense on that'? Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to the peoples of all countries? have the gods of the nations of the countries been able to deliver their country 14 out of my hands? Who is there, among all the gods of these nations which my fathers destroyed without quarter, that was able to deliver his country out of my hands, that your god should be able to deliver 15 you out of my hands? Now do not let Hezekiah delude you and influence you like this, and do not trust him; for not any god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people out of my hands and out of the hands of my fathers; much less will your god 16 deliver you out of my hands." And his officers spoke still more against 17 Jehovah, the God, and against his servant Hezekiah; and he wrote letters to insult Jehovah the God of Israel and to say of him "As with the gods of the nations of the different countries, which did not deliver their people out of my hands, so Hezekiah's god will not deliver 18 his people out of my hands." And they called out in a loud voice in Judaic to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to throw them into fear and consternation so that they might capture the city; 19 and they spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of human hands.

20 And Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos prayed about 21 this, and cried out to heaven. And Jehovah sent an angel who killed off every champion fighter and staff officer and captain in the Assyrian king's camp; and he went back crestfallen to his own country, and went into the house of his god, and some who had come out of his 22 own body struck him down with swords. And Jehovah saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hands of King Sennacherib of Assyria and out of everybody's hands, and gave them rest 23 on all sides. And many brought presents to Jehovah at Jerusalem, and rich objects to King Hezekiah of Judah; and he stood high in the eyes of all nations thenceforth.

24 In those days Hezekiah fell sick and was at the point of death; and he prayed to Jehovah, and he granted the prayer and gave him 25 a token. But Hezekiah did not requite him as the favor deserved; for his heart went high. And there was wrath against him and against 26 Judah and Jerusalem; but Hezekiah humbled himself in his loftiness of heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's wrath did not come upon them in Hezekiah's time.

27 And Hezekiah had very great wealth and grandeur; and he made himself treasuries for silver and for gold and for precious stones and 28 for spices and for shields and for miscellaneous choice articles, and storehouses for produce of grain and grape-juice and oil, and stables 29 for each and every kind of cattle, and flocks for the stables; and he made himself cities, and accumulated stock in sheep and goats and horned cattle in great numbers, for God gave him chattels in great 30 quantity. And he, Hezekiah, blocked the outlet of the water of Upper Gihon and directed it down westward to David's City. And Hezekiah 31 was successful in all his doings; as to the emissaries of the generals of Babylon, though, sent to him to inquire about the prodigy that there had been in the country, God left him, to test him, to know what he had in his heart.

- 32 And as to the rest of the history of Hezekiah and his devout acts, they are recorded in the vision of the prophet Isaiah the son of 33 Amos and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And Hezekiah went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him on the slope up to the graves of David's sons; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem paid him honor at his death; and his son Manasseh succeeded him.

CHAPTER 33

- 1 Manasseh was twelve years old at his accession to the throne, and 2 reigned fifty-five years at Jerusalem. And he did what displeased Jehovah, like the detestable doings of the nations Jehovah dispossessed
3 before the sons of Israel; and he rebuilt the heights his father Hezekiah had pulled down, and set up altars to the Baals and made asherahs, and did reverence to all the legions of the sky and worshiped 4 them, and built altars in the house of Jehovah, which Jehovah had 5 spoken of, "In Jerusalem my name shall forever be"; and he built altars to all the legions of the sky in both the courts of Jehovah's 6 house. And he, he sent his son over through the fire in Ben-Hinnom's Valley, and practiced fortune-telling and believed in signs and played the wizard and employed spirit-mediums of different kinds: he did 7 what displeased Jehovah on a great scale, provoking him. And he set the effigy-statue he had made in the house of God, in the house of which God had said to David and his son Solomon "In this house, and 8 in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will set my name forever, and I will no more dislodge Israel's feet 9 off the soil I set your fathers standing on, if only they take care to do just as I commanded them, all the instructions and usages and laws, by Moses." And Manasseh demoralized Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into misdoing more than had the nations Jehovah had rooted out before the sons of Israel.
- 10 And Jehovah spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they did 11 not listen. And Jehovah brought against them the generals of the king of Assyria, and they caught Manasseh with hooks and put him 12 in fetters and took him to Babylon. But when he was in distress he took steps to propitiate his God Jehovah, and humbled himself thoroughly before the God of his fathers and prayed to him; and he let himself be invoked and listened to his appeal and brought him back to Jerusalem to his royalty, and Manasseh knew that Jehovah was God.
- 14 And after that he built an outer wall for David's City west of Gihon in the arroyo and of the approach to the Fish Gate and around the castle ridge, and made it very high; and he set army officers in all 15 the fortified cities in Judah. And he removed the foreign gods and the effigy from Jehovah's house, and all the altars he had built on the mountain of Jehovah's house and in Jerusalem, and threw them away outside the city, and reconditioned the altar of Jehovah and sacrificed welfare-sacrifices and sacrifices of thanks on it, and told Judah to worship Jehovah the God of Israel. The people still, though, sacrificed on the heights, but only to their God Jehovah.

And as to the rest of the history of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, they are in the history of the kings of Israel. And as to his praying and having his prayer granted, and all his sin and his unfaithfulness, and the places in which he built heights and erected the asherahs and the carvings before his humbling himself, they are recorded in the chronicles of the seers. And Manasseh went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him at his house; and his son Amon succeeded him.

Amon was twenty-two years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned two years at Jerusalem. And he did what displeased Jehovah, as his father Manasseh had; and Amon sacrificed to all the carvings his father Manasseh had made, and worshiped them. And he did not humble himself before Jehovah as his father Manasseh had; for he, Amon, went far in guilt. And his officers organized a revolution against him and took his life in his palace; but the populace killed all who had taken part in the conspiracy against King Amon, and the populace installed his son Josiah as his successor.

Josiah was eight years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned thirty-one years at Jerusalem. And he did what Jehovah approved, and went by the paths of his father David, and did not turn off to right or to left.

And in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a boy, he began to devote himself to the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the heights and the asherahs and the carvings and the bronze statues, and they pulled down before him the altars of the Baals, and he chopped down the hammans that were up over them and broke up the asherahs and carvings and bronzes and reduced them to powder and threw it over the graves of those who had sacrificed on them, and burned priests' bones on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem; and in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon and up to Naphtali he went round among their ruins and pulled down the altars, and pounded fine the asherahs and the carvings, and chopped down all the hammans throughout the Israelite country, and came back to Jerusalem.

And in the year eighteen of his reign, to cleanse the country and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Asaliah and Ma'asejah the captain of the city and Joah the son of Joahaz the king's private 9 secretary to repair the house of his God Jehovah; and they came to High Priest Hilkiyah and delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, that the Levites who kept the thresholds had collected from the hands of Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remainder of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and the 10 inhabitants of Jerusalem,—gave it into the hands of the contractors employed on Jehovah's house, and the contractors working on Jehovah's house gave it for mending and strengthening the house, gave it to the carpenters and builders to buy dressed stone and wood for the ties and for retimbering the houses that the kings of Judah had allowed to break down. And the men worked on honor on the job, and had over them commissioners, Jahath and 'Obadiah the Levites, sons of Merari, and Zecariah and Meshullam, Kehathites, to give directions; and the Levites, all who were proficient with instruments of song, 13 were over the carriers and giving directions for one and another piece of work to all who worked on the job; and some of the Levites were account-keepers and marshals and gatemen.

14 And while they were getting out the money that had been brought into Jehovah's house, Priest Hilkiyah found the code Jehovah had given through Moses; and so Hilkiyah said to Secretary Shaphan "I have found the Code in Jehovah's house"; and Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan. And Shaphan brought the book to the king, and, besides, made his report to the king, "Everything that was put into your servants' hands they are doing; and they have poured out the money that was found in Jehovah's house and given it into the hands of the commissioners and the contractors." And Secretary Shaphan told the king "Priest Hilkiyah has given me a book"; and Shaphan read from it before the king; and when the king heard the words of the Code he tore his clothes.

20 And the king gave Hilkiyah and Ahikam the son of Shaphan and 'Abdon the son of Micah and Secretary Shaphan and King's Sergeant 21 'Asajah the order "Go inquire of Jehovah on my behalf and on behalf of what remains of Israel and Judah about the words of the book that has been found, because it is a great ire of Jehovah's that is poured out on us for our fathers' not having observed the words of this book and acted in accordance with all that is written in this book." And Hilkiyah and those whom the king had named went to the prophetess Huldah the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath the son of Hasrah the keeper of the wardrobe (she lived in Jerusalem, in the second quarter), and spoke to her to this effect. And she said to them "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Say to the man who sent you to me 'Says Jehovah, I am bringing mischief upon this place and its inhabitants, all the maledictions written in the book that they have read before the 25 king of Judah. In return for their having left me and made burnings to other gods, provoking me with all their manufactures, my ire is 26 poured out upon this place and will not die down.' And to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah you shall say 'Says 27 Israel's God Jehovah, the words which you have heard. Since your heart quailed and you humbled yourself before God when you heard my words against this place and its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me and tore your clothes and wept before me, I on 28 my part have heard it, quoth Jehovah. I am taking you home to your fathers, and you shall be taken home to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not look upon all the mischief I am bringing on this place and its inhabitants.'” And they reported it to the king.

29 And the king sent and brought together all the elders of Judah 30 and Jerusalem, and the king went up to Jehovah's house, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests and the Levites and all the people from the greatest to the smallest, and he read to them all the words of the book of the covenant that had 31 been found in Jehovah's house. And the king stood at his place and ratified the covenant before Jehovah, to follow Jehovah and keep his commandments and his lessons and his usages unreservedly and heartily, living up to the provisions of the covenant, which are re-32 corded in this book. And he had all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem lived up to 33 their covenant with God, their fathers' God. And Josiah removed everything abominable out of all the countries that belonged to the sons of Israel, and reformed all who were found in Israel to worship their fathers' God Jehovah; all his lifetime they did not turn aside from following their fathers' God Jehovah.

CHAPTER 35

1 And Josiah celebrated a passover to Jehovah in Jerusalem; and they 2 slaughtered the passover on the fourteenth of the first month. And he stationed the priests for their functions, and exhorted them to the 3 service of God's house, and said to the Levites who had to give explanations to all Israel, who were sacred to Jehovah, “By the putting of the sacred ark in the house that Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built, you have no carrying on shoulders to do; now serve 4 your God Jehovah and his people Israel, and prepare yourselves by families, in accordance with your divisions, as prescribed by King 5 David of Israel and by his son Solomon, and stand in the sanctuary, for the family sections of your brothers the laity a family division 6 of the Levites, and slaughter the passover; and put yourselves in sacred condition, and make preparations for your brothers, for doing in accordance with Jehovah's word by Moses.”

7 And Josiah contributed small cattle for the laity, sheep and young he-goats, all for passover offerings for everyone who presented himself, to the number of thirty thousand, and horned cattle three thou-8 sand; these were out of the king's chattels. And his generals contributed voluntarily for the people, for the priests, and for the Levites. Hilkijah and Zecariah and Jehiel, the wardens of God's house, gave the priests twenty-six hundred for passover sacrifices, and three 9 hundred horned cattle; and Conaniah and Shema'iah and Nethaneel their brothers, and Hashabiah and Je'iel and Jozabad the chiefs of the Levites, contributed for the Levites five thousand for passover sacrifices and five hundred horned cattle.

10 And the work was made ready, and the priests stood in their stations and the Levites in their divisions, in accordance with the 11 king's command. And they slaughtered the passover, and the priests 12 threw blood, and the Levites were skinning; and they removed the burnt-offerings to give them to the laity by family sections to present to Jehovah, as is written in the book of Moses; and the same with the 13 horned cattle. And they duly cooked the passover with fire, and boiled the sacramental offerings in pots and crocks and kettles and ran them 14 to all the laity, and afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests; for the priests, the sons of Aaron, were at the offering of the burnt-offerings and the fats till night, and the Levites prepared 15 for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron. And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were at their stations in accordance with the command of David and Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun the king's seer, and the gatemen were at one and another gate; there was no going 16 away from their service for them, because their brother Levites prepared for them. And all Jehovah's service was prepared that day, celebrating the passover and offering the burnt-offerings on Jehovah's 17 altar, in accordance with King Josiah's commandment; and the sons of Israel who were present celebrated the passover at that time, and 18 the feast of matzoth seven days. And no passover like it had been celebrated in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and all the kings of Israel had not celebrated the like of the passover that Josiah 19 and the priests and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who presented themselves, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, celebrated. In the year eighteen of Josiah's reign this passover was celebrated.

20 After all this, that Josiah had put the house in order, King Neco of Egypt went up to fight at Carkemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah 21 went out to oppose him. And he sent envoys to him with the message "What business have you with me, king of Judah? It [is] not against 22 you today but at the Euphrates that my war is, and God has spoken to hurry me; keep clear of God, who is with me, and do not have him make away with you." But Josiah did not turn his face from him, 23 but resolved to fight him and did not listen to Neco's words from the mouth of God, and came to fight on the plain of Megiddo. And the archers hit King Josiah, and he said to his officers "Pass me out, for 24 I am hard hit"; and his officers passed him out of the chariot and put him into his second chariot and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the graves of his fathers. And all Judah

- 25 and Jerusalem mourned over Josiah; and Jeremiah sang a lament for Josiah; and all singers mention Josiah in their dirges to this day, and have made it a usage for Israel; they are to be found written down among the dirges.
- 26 And as to the rest of Josiah's history, and his devout acts in accordance with what is written in Jehovah's code, and his history first and last, it is recorded in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

- 1 And the populace took Josiah's son Jehoahaz and installed him as 2 his father's successor at Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned three months at Jerusalem. And the king of Egypt removed him at Jerusalem, and gave the country a fine of a hundred hundredweight of silver and a hundredweight of gold; and the king of Egypt installed his brother Eljakim as king over Judah and Jerusalem, and renamed him Jehojakim. And Neco took his brother Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt.
- 5 Jehojakim was twenty-five years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned eleven years at Jerusalem; and he did what displeased 6 his God Jehovah. Against him King Nebucadnessar of Babylon came up, and put him in fetters to take him to Babylon; and Nebucadnessar brought some of the vessels of Jehovah's house to Babylon 8 and put them in his palace in Babylon. And as to the rest of the history of Jehojakim and his detestable deeds that he committed, and what is to be found about him, it is recorded in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And his son Jehojakin succeeded him.
- 9 Jehojakin was eight years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned three months and ten days at Jerusalem; and he did what 10 displeased Jehovah. And at the return of the year King Nebucadnessar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the choice vessels of Jehovah's house, and installed his brother Sidkijah as king over Judah and Jerusalem.
- 11 Sidkijah was twenty-one years old at his accession to the throne, 12 and reigned eleven years at Jerusalem; and he did what displeased his God Jehovah; he did not humble himself before the prophet 13 Jeremiah, who prophesied from Jehovah's mouth. And he also rebelled against King Nebucadnessar, who had had him swear by God; and he was too hard-necked and obdurate-hearted to turn back to 14 Israel's God Jehovah. Also all the generals of Judah and the priests and the people were in many ways unfaithful, doing like all the detestable doings of the nations, and defiled Jehovah's house which 15 he had hallowed in Jerusalem. And their fathers' God Jehovah sent to them by his messengers, each one early, because he did not want 16 his people and his dwelling hurt; but they made jokes on God's messengers and despised his words and put derisive indignities on his prophets till Jehovah's ire rose unappeasably against his people,

- 17 and he brought the king of the Chaldeans up against them, who killed their young men with the sword in their holy house and did not spare young man or maiden, elder nor graybeard; he gave all into 18 his hands. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of Jehovah's house and the treasures of the king 19 and the generals, all he brought to Babylon. And he burned the house of God, and tore down the wall of Jerusalem and burned down its 20 palaces, and let all its choice furniture be spoiled. And he deported to Babylon the remnant that was left from the swords, and they became subjects to him and his sons till the rise of the Persian em-21 pire, to fulfill Jehovah's word by the mouth of Jeremiah, till the country had paid up its sabbaths: all the time of its desolation it kept sabbath, filling out seventy years.
- 22 And in the year one of King Cyrus of Persia, for the finishing of Jehovah's prediction by the mouth of Jeremiah, Jehovah stirred the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia and he had proclamation made by 23 criers throughout his empire, and also in writing, "Cyrus king of Persia says: Jehovah, God of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem in Judah. Whoever of all his people among you will volunteer to go, be his God with him and let him go up."

MARGINAL NOTES TO CHRONICLES

Part First

In the first nine chapters many names are differently spelled in different copies, or some copies put in names that other copies leave out; also many names here do not agree with the way the same matter is given in other books of the Bible, in which cases it is commonly to be understood that the other book is right and the text of Chronicles needs to be corrected to agree with the other book; it is commonly not clear whether the mistake was made in the original writing of Chronicles or in copying the book after it was written.

THE BOOK OF 'EZRA

- 1 And in the year one of King Cyrus of Persia, for the finishing of Jehovah's prediction out of the mouth of Jeremiah, Jehovah stirred the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia and he had proclamation made by criers throughout his empire, and also in writing,
- 2 "Cyrus king of Persia says: Jehovah, God of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem in Judah. Whoever of all his people among you will volunteer to go, be his God with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the house of Jehovah the God of Israel,—he is the God in Jerusalem,—and let everybody who remains behind, of all the places where he has been living, help him on and make voluntary gifts at his place to Jehovah in silver and gold and chattels and cattle, along with the voluntary gifts for Jehovah's house at Jerusalem."
- 5 And the heads of families of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites, everyone whose spirit God stirred, stood up to go up

6 to build Jehovah's house at Jerusalem; and all their neighborhoods lent them a hand with everything, silver and gold and chattels and cattle and rich objects in abundance for everybody who volunteered.
7 And King Cyrus had brought out the vessels of Jehovah's house which Nebucadnessar had taken out of Jerusalem and had put in the 8 house of his gods; King Cyrus of Persia had brought them out to the hands of Mithradata the treasurer, and he had counted them off 9 to Shashabalassar who was prince for Judah. And this is the count of them: thirty golden urns, a thousand silver urns, twenty-nine 10 censers, thirty golden stoups, two thousand four hundred and ten 11 silver stoups, a thousand other vessels; of all the vessels, gold and silver, there were five thousand four hundred and sixty-nine. Shash-abalassar brought all up with the coming up of the deportees from Babylon to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 2

59 And these are those who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addan, Immer, and could not state their families and their 60 blood, whether they belonged to Israel: the sons of Delajah, the sons of Tobijah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two.

61 And of the priests the sons of Habajah, the sons of Hakkos, the sons of Barzillai who married one of the descendants of Barzillai the 62 Gileadite and took their name,—the registrars looked for the record of these, and they were not to be found; and they were disqualified 63 from priestly functions, and the Tarshata told them they were not to eat any of the holiest of the holy till there should stand a priest with the gift of Urim and Thummim.

64 The whole assembly as a unit came to forty-two thousand three 65 hundred and sixty, besides their slaves; of these, men and women, of silver, and a hundred priests' tunics.

- 70 And the priests and the Levites and part of the people settled in Jerusalem and in the country, and the singers and the gatemen and the temple servants in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 And the seventh month drew on, and the sons of Israel were in the 2 cities; and the people to a man came together in Jerusalem, and Jeshua' the son of Josadak and his brothers the priests and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers stood up and built the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt-offerings on in accordance with 3 what is written in the code of Moses the man of God; and they set the altar in place on its site (for some of the peoples of the countries were at enmity with them) and offered burnt-offerings to Jehovah on 4 it mornings and evenings, and kept the feast in accordance with what is written, with burnt-offerings in due number and with due obser-5 vance for each day, and thereafter regular burnt-offering and sacrifices for sabbaths and new moons and all Jehovah's consecrated dates, and for everybody that brought a volunteer offering to Jehovah.
- 6 From the first day of the seventh month they began offering burnt-offerings to Jehovah, but the foundation of Jehovah's temple had not been laid.
- 7 And they gave money to the quarrymen and stonecutters, and food and drink and oil to the Sidonians and Tyrians to bring cedar timber from the Lebanon to the Joppa coast in accordance with King Cyrus 8 of Persia's authorization to them. And in the year two of their coming to God's house at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua' the son of Josadak and the rest of their brothers the priests and Levites, and all that had come out of their serfdom to Jerusalem, began and laid the foundation of God's house on the new moon of the second month in the year two when they came 9 up, over the work on Jehovah's house; and Jeshua', his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, the sons of Henad-dad, their sons and their brothers the Levites, stood like one man 10 directing those who were doing the work on God's house. And the builders laid the foundation of Jehovah's temple, and the priests stood there in their vestments with the trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with the cymbals, to praise Jehovah as prescribed by King 11 David of Israel, and responded in praise and thanksgiving to Jehovah "because he is good, because his friendship to Israel lasts forever"; and all the people raised a great cheer in praise to Jehovah over the laying 12 of the foundation of Jehovah's house. But to many of the older priests and Levites and heads of families, who had seen the first house, the house seemed miserable; and they were weeping loudly, and many 13 were raising their voices high in cheering and gladness; and the people could not tell the sound of the cheering for gladness from the sound of the people's weeping, because the people were raising a great cheer and the sound was heard to a great distance.

CHAPTER 4

1 And the foes of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned 2 deportees were building a temple to Israel's God Jehovah, and they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of families and said to them "We will build with you, because we invoke your God the same as you do, and we have been sacrificing to him since the days of King 3 Esarhaddon of Assyria who brought us up here." But Zerubbabel and Jeshua' and the rest of Israel's heads of families said to them "It is not a joint business of yours and ours to build a house for our God, but we as a unit will build to Israel's God Jehovah, as the king, King 4 Cyrus of Persia, ordered us to." And the local population were discouraging the people of Judah and scaring them out of building and hiring lobbyists against them to balk their policy throughout the time of King Cyrus of Persia and down to the reign of King Darius of 5 Persia; and in the reign of Xerxes, at the beginning of his reign, they wrote in antagonism to the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. And in Artaxerxes's time Bishlam, Mithradata, Tabeel, and the rest of their fellow-colonists wrote to King Artaxerxes of Persia; and the script of the document is written in Aramaic and translated. (In Aramaic:)

8 Commandant Rehum and Secretary Shimshai wrote this letter 9 against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes, as follows. Then Commandant Rehum and Secretary Shimshai and the rest of their fellow-colonists, the Dinaites and the Apharsathkites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Arkevites, the Babylonians, the Susianans, the Dehites, the 'Elamites, and the rest of the nations that the great and august Asurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and the rest of Trans-10 Euphrates, ss. This is a copy of the letter sent to King Artaxerxes 11 by his servants the men of Trans-Euphrates, ss. "Be it known to the king that the Judahites who came up from you to us have come to Jerusalem, the rebellious and malignant city; they are building, and 12 are completing the walls and digging for the foundations. Now be it known to the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, they will not pay taxes, levies, and tributes, and it will make 13 trouble for future kings. Now inasmuch as we eat the salt of the palace and it is not proper for us to view the denuding of the king, 14 for this reason we send and notify the king that search be made in the book of your fathers' history; and you will find in the book of

- history, and thereby learn, that that city has been a rebellious city and a troublemaker for kings and provinces, and they have been making insurrections in it, long since; that was why that city was laid waste. Now we are notifying the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls completed, in consequence you will not have any share of Trans-Euphrates.”
- The king sent a rescript to Commandant Rehum and Secretary Shimshai and the rest of their fellow-colonists resident in Samaria and the rest of Trans-Euphrates, “Peace, ss. The communication you sent me has been read before me point by point, and by my orders they have searched and found that that city has long been insubordinate to kings, and has rebelled and insurrections have been made in it, and there have been mighty kings over Jerusalem, sovereign over all Trans-Euphrates, and taxes, levies, and tributes have been paid to them. Now give orders to have those men leave off, and let that city not be rebuilt until further orders. And beware of negligent dealing as to this, lest mischief should increase to make trouble for kings.”
- Then, when a copy of King Artaxerxes’s communication had been read before Rehum and Secretary Shimshai and their fellow-colonists, they came rushing to Jerusalem against the Judahites and made them leave off by main force. Then the work on God’s house at Jerusalem was broken off, and was at a standstill till the year two of King Darius of Persia.

CHAPTER 5

- But Haggai the prophet, and Zecariah the son of ‘Iddo the prophets, prophesied to the Judahites in Judah and Jerusalem by the name of Israel’s God upon them. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua’ the son of Josadak stood up and began to build God’s house at Jerusalem, and they had with them God’s prophets backing them up. At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and his fellow-colonists, came and spoke thus to them: “Who gave you orders to build this house and to complete this sacred precinct?” Then we said to them as follows: “What are the names of the men that are doing this building?” But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Judahites, and they did not make them leave off until the report should go to Darius and then they should return a communication about this.
- A copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and his fellow-colonists the Apharsekites in Trans-Euphrates sent to King Darius: they sent a statement to him, and this is what was written in it. “To King Darius, all peace. Be it known to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah to the house of the great God; and it is being built in heavy stone, and timber is being set in the walls, and that work is being done thoroughly and is making good progress in their hands. Then we questioned those elders as follows: 'Who gave you orders to build this house and to complete 10 this sacred precinct?' and we also asked them their names to be notified 11 to you, which we write down: names of the men at their head. And they returned us a statement as follows: 'We are the worshippers of the God of heaven and earth, and are rebuilding the house which 12 it and completed it; only when our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath he gave them into the hands of Nebucadnessar, the Chaldean king of Babylon, and he laid this house in ruins and de-13 ported the people to Babylon. But, in Cyrus's first year as king of Babylon, King Cyrus gave orders to rebuild this house of God; and 14 the gold and silver vessels of the house of God also, which Nebucadnessar had taken out of the temple at Jerusalem and had brought to the temple in Babylon, King Cyrus took out of the temple in Babylon and gave them to one Shashabalassar whom he had appointed 15 governor, and said to him "Take these vessels and go and place them in the temple at Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on 16 its site." Then that Shashabalassar came and laid the foundations of the house of God at Jerusalem, and from then till now it has been 17 in process of rebuilding and has not been finished.' Now, if the king thinks best, let search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon whether it is a fact that orders were given by King Cyrus to rebuild that house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us word of his pleasure as to this."

CHAPTER 6

1 Then King Darius gave orders and they searched in the storage 2 library in Babylon, and there was found at Ecbatana, in the palace in the province of Media, a certain roll, and a memorandum thus written 3 in it: "In the year one of King Cyrus, King Cyrus gave orders—House of God at Jerusalem: let the house be rebuilt as a place where they sacrifice sacrifices and present fire-offerings, its height ninety 4 feet and its breadth ninety feet, three courses of heavy stone and one course of timber; and let the expenses be paid out of the royal estate; 5 and also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God which Nebucadnessar took out of the temple at Jerusalem and brought to Babylon be given back and taken to the temple at Jerusalem, to its 6 site, and you shall place them in the house of God." "Now, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and your fellow-colonists the Apharsekites in Trans-Euphrates, keep away from there; 7 let alone the work on that house of God; let the governor of the Judahites and the elders of the Judahites build that house of God on its 8 site. And it is hereby ordered that you cooperate with those elders of the Judahites for building that house of God, and out of the royal funds of the taxes of Trans-Euphrates let the expenses be thoroughly paid to those men that there may be no failure of what they need.

9 And let steers and rams and lambs for burnt-offerings to the God of 10 heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil as the priests at Jerusalem may 11 say, be given to them day by day without negligence, that they may 12 offer genial offerings to the God of heaven and pray for the life of 13 the king and of his sons. And it is hereby ordered that any man who 14 authorizes any action inconsistent with this rescript shall have a 15 timber torn out of his house and be impaled erect upon it, and his 16 house shall be made a garbage-dump for this. And the God who has 17 installed his name there shall overthrow any king or nation that 18 puts forth a hand to act otherwise, to damage that house of God at 19 Jerusalem. I Darius give the order; let it be done thoroughly."

13 Then Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and 14 their fellow-colonists, inasmuch as Darius had sent word, did thus 15 thoroughly; and the elders of the Judahites did the building and had 16 good success by the prophesying of the prophet Haggai and Zecariah 17 the son of 'Iddo. And they did the building and completed it, at the 18 order of the God of Israel and of Cyrus and Darius and King Artaxerxes 19 of Persia. And they kept at work on this house till the twenty-20 third day of the month of Adar; that is the year six of the reign of 21 King Darius.

16 And the sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of 17 the returned deportees, held the dedication services of this house of 18 God with festivity, and offered for the dedication of this house of 19 God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and 20 twelve goats, to the number of the tribes of Israel, for a sin-offering 21 for all Israel; and they set the priests by courses and the Levites by 22 sections for the divine service at Jerusalem as is written in the book 23 of Moses.

19 And the returned deportees kept the passover on the fourteenth of 20 the first month. For the priests and Levites had purified themselves as 21 one man, they were all of them clean, and they killed the passover 22 for all the returned deportees and for their brothers the priests and 23 for themselves; and the sons of Israel who had come back from the 24 deportation ate, and all who had separated themselves from the un-25 cleanness of the local heathens to join them in devotion to Israel's 26 God Jehovah. And they kept the feast of matzoth seven days with 27 festivity, because Jehovah had gladdened them and turned the heart 28 of the king of Assyria toward them to strengthen their hands in the 29 work of the house of God, Israel's God.

CHAPTER 7

1 And after these events, in the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia, 2 'Ezra the son of Serajah the son of 'Azariah the son of Hilkijah the 3 son of Shallum the son of Sadok the son of Ahitub the son of Amariah 4 the son of 'Azariah the son of Merajoth the son of Zerariah the son 5 of 'Uzzi the son of Bukki the son of Abishua' the son of Pinehas the 6 son of Eleazar the son of Aaron the first priest—he, 'Ezra, came up from Babylon; and he was an expert scribe in Moses's code which Israel's God Jehovah gave; and the king had given him, in accordance 7 with Jehovah's hand upon him, everything that he had requested; and there came up to Jerusalem some of the sons of Israel and some 8 of the priests and the Levites and the singers and the gatemen and the temple servants, in the year seven of King Artaxerxes. And he 9 came to Jerusalem in the fifth month; that is the year seven of King Artaxerxes. For on the first of the first month he began the arrangements for the journey up from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth 10 month he came to Jerusalem in accordance with God's good hand upon him. For 'Ezra had firmly made up his mind to devote himself to Jehovah's code and to do and to teach in Jerusalem what was correct and lawful.

11 And this is a copy of the note King Artaxerxes gave to Priest 'Ezra the scribe, scribe of the words of Jehovah's commandments and rules 12 for Israel: "Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Priest 'Ezra, scribe of the 13 law of the God of heaven, etc., ss. It is hereby ordered that anyone in my kingdom of the people of Israel and of its priests and Levites 14 who volunteers to go to Jerusalem with you shall go, inasmuch as you are sent from the king and his seven counselors to examine into conditions about Judah and at Jerusalem from the point of view of the 15 law of your God which you have in your hand, and to bring silver and gold which the king and his counselors have donated to the God 16 of Israel whose abode is in Jerusalem, and all silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, with the donations of the people and the priests who donate for the house of their God at 17 Jerusalem. In consideration of this you are to buy carefully with this money bulls, rams, lambs, and their grain-offerings and libations, and 18 offer them on the altar of the God of heaven at Jerusalem; and what it seems good to you and your brothers to do with the remainder of the silver and gold in accordance with the pleasure of your God you 19 are to do. And deliver before the God of Jerusalem the vessels that 20 are given you for the service of the house of God. And the rest of the needs of the house of your God which it shall fall to you to provide 21 you shall provide out of the royal treasury. And all subtreasurers in Trans-Euphrates are hereby ordered by me Artaxerxes, the king, that everything that Priest 'Ezra the scribe of the law of the God of 22 heaven asks you for be done thoroughly to the extent of a hundred talents of silver and of a thousand bushels of wheat and of eight hundred gallons of wine and of eight hundred gallons of oil, and salt 23 at discretion. Let everything the God of heaven orders be done precisely for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be 24 anger against the empire of the king and of his sons? And take notice that it is not permissible to impose taxes, levies, or tributes on any of the priests and Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, and 25 attendants of this house of God. And you, 'Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom of your God which you have in your hand, are to appoint judges and magistrates who are to judge all the people in Trans-Euphrates, everybody who knows the laws of your God; and him who 26 does not know you are to enlighten. And on anyone who does not live up to your God's law and the king's law let sentence be duly executed, whether for death or for excommunication or for fine or for imprisonment."

27 Blessed be our fathers' God Jehovah who put such a thing as this into the king's heart, to give a magnificent status to Jehovah's house at 28 Jerusalem, and gave the king and his counselors and all his powerful generals a friendly disposition toward me!

And I took courage from the hand of my God Jehovah resting on

CHAPTER 8

1 me, and gathered heads out of Israel to go up with me. And these are the heads of families, and their lists, that came up with me in the reign of King Artaxerxes from Babylon:

2 Of the sons of Pinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel.
3 Of the sons of David, Hattush, one of the sons of Shecaniah.

Of the sons of Pareosh, Zecariah, and with him were listed, of males, a hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of Pahath Moab, Eljeho'enai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred, the males.

5 Of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred, the males.

6 And of the sons of 'Adin, 'Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty, the males.

7 And of the sons of 'Elam, Jesha'iah the son of 'Athaliah, and with him seventy, the males.

8 And of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Micael, and with him eighty, the males.

9 And of the sons of Joab, 'Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen, the males.

10 And of the sons of Bani, Shelomith the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and sixty, the males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai, Zecariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight, the males.

12 And of the sons of 'Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten, the males.

13 And of the sons of Adonikam latecomers, and these were their names: Eliphelet, Je'iel, and Shema'iah; and with them sixty, the males.

14 And of the sons of Bigvai, Ghuthai the son of Zaccur, and with him seventy, the males.

15 And I gathered them to the river that runs into Ahava; and when we had been there three days I looked over the people and the priests, 16 and did not find any of the sons of Levi there. And I sent Eli'ezer, Ariel, Shema'iah and Elnathan and Jarib and Elnathan and Nathan 17 and Zecariah and Meshullam, headmen, and Jojarib and Elnathan, expounders, and commissioned them to Iddo the head at the place Casiphja, and gave them a message for speaking to Iddo and his 18 brothers the temple servants at the place Casiphja to bring us servitors for the house of our God; and they brought us, in accordance with the good hand of our God resting on us, a sensible man, one of the 19 sons of Mahli the son of Levi the son of Israel, Sherebiah, and his sons and his brothers, eighteen of them; and Hashabiah and with him Jesha'iah, of the sons of Merari, his brothers and sons, twenty 20 of them; and of the temple servants whom David and the generals had given for the service of the Levites two hundred and twenty temple servants, all listed by name.

21 And I proclaimed a fast there by the river Ahava to present ourselves submissively before our God to seek from him a clear course 22 for us and our children and all our chattels. For I had been ashamed to ask the king for troops and riders to help us against enemies on the road, because I had said to the king "All who betake themselves 23 to our God have over them his hand for their good, but those who leave him have over them his might and anger." And we fasted and besought our God about this, and he granted our prayer.

24 And I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, and Sherebiah 25 and Hashabiah and with them ten of their brothers, and weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the contribution for the house of our God that the king and his counselors and generals 26 and all of Israel that were to be found had made; and I weighed into their hands six hundred and twenty-five hundredweight of silver, and a hundred silver vessels, two hundredweight, ninety-six hundred-27 weight of gold, and twenty gold stoups, two hundred and seventy ounces, and ten vessels of fine bright bronze as desirable as gold.
28 And I said to them "You are consecrated to Jehovah, and the vessels are sacred, and the silver and gold are a donation to our fathers' God 29 Jehovah; guard them carefully till you weigh them out before the chiefs of the priests and Levites and the chiefs of families of Israel 30 in the vestries at Jehovah's house at Jerusalem." And the priests and Levites received the weighed-out silver and gold and the vessels to bring to Jehovah's house at Jerusalem.

31 And we set out from the river of Ahava on the twelfth of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and our God's hand was over us, and he 32 delivered us from the hands of enemy and prowler on the road. And 33 we came to Jerusalem and stayed there three days, and on the fourth day the silver and gold and vessels were weighed out in our God's house into the hands of Priest Meremoth the son of Urijah, and with him Eleazar the son of Pinehas, and with them the Levites Jozabad

- 34 the son of Jeshua' and No'adiah the son of Binnui,—all by count and by weight; and all the weight was written down.
- 35 At that time those who had come in from their serfdom, the returned deportees, presented burnt-offerings to the God of Israel: twelve steers on behalf of all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven sheep, twelve he-goats for sin-offering, all a burnt-offering to Jehovah.
- 36 And they gave the king's mandates to the king's satraps and the governors of Trans-Euphrates, and they helped on the people and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

- 1 And when these things were finished the chiefs approached me with the word "The people, Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the countries with their abominable ways, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the 'Ammonite, the Moabite, the Egyptian, and the Amorite;
- 2 for they have taken daughters of theirs as wives for themselves and their sons, and mixed the sacred blood with the peoples of the countries; and the hands of the chiefs and the magnates have been first
- 3 in this disloyalty." And when I heard this word I tore my cloak and my robe and tore hair out of my head and beard and sat down horror-struck, and all who were alarmed by the words of the God of Israel came together to me on account of the deportees' disloyalty. And I
- 4 sat horror-struck till evening grain-offering and at evening grain-offering I stood up from my abasement and, in the torn pieces of my cloak and robe, fell on my knees and spread out my hands to my
- 6 God Jehovah and said
- "My God, I am ashamed and humiliated to raise my face, my God, to you, because our offenses are so many as to overtop our heads and our guilts so great as to reach to the skies. Since our fathers' days
- 7 we have been in great guilt up to this day, and for our offenses we, our kings, our priests, have been given into the hands of the kings of one country after another in slaughter, in serfdom, and in plundering and shame of face as at this day. And now for a brief moment
- 8 there has come favor from our God Jehovah, letting us have an escaping remnant and giving us a peg in his holy place, our God brightening up our eyes and making us germ of a little life in our
- 9 slavery—for we are slaves, but in our slavery our God has not abandoned us but has given the kings of Persia a friendly disposition toward us, giving us a germ of life for rearing aloft the house of our God and for reoccupying his waste sites, and giving us a fence in
- 10 Judah and Jerusalem. And now, our God, what shall we say after this,
- 11 when we have forsaken your commandments which you enjoined upon us through your servants the prophets, "The country you are going into to take possession of it is a filthy country by the filth of the peoples of the countries, by their abominable doings in which they

12 have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness; now do not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons; and you are not to attempt anything for their welfare or advantage, world without end, in order that you may be strong and eat the good things of the country and pass the possession on to 13 your sons forever.' And after all that has come upon us by our evil deeds and our great guilt, when you, our God, have held down part 14 of our guilt and given us such survival as this, should we go back to breaking your commandments and intermarrying with these abominable peoples? will you not be angry at us to the point of finishing us 15 off to leave no remnant or survivors? Jehovah, God of Israel, you are doing the right thing that we remain surviving as we are this day; here we are before you in our guilt, because there is no such thing as standing before you on this account."

CHAPTER 10

1 And as 'Ezra made his prayer and confession, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, there gathered to him a very great assembly out of Israel, men and women and children; for the 2 people were weeping at a great rate. And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of 'Elam, replied to 'Ezra "We have been disloyal to our God and taken in foreign women out of the peoples of the country; 3 but now there is a chance of hope for Israel as to this. Now let us make a covenant to our God to turn out all women and what is born from them in accordance with my lord's recommendations." And those who were alarmed by the commandments of our God stood up 4 and said "Stand up, because the matter is in your sphere, and you have us with you; take a strong stand, and act."

5 And 'Ezra stood up and swore the chiefs of the priests and Levites and all Israel to act in accordance with these words, and they took 6 the oath. And 'Ezra left his place before the house of God and went to the vestry of Jehohanan the son of Eljashib and spent the night there, not eating nor drinking water, because he was mourning over 7 the deportees' disloyalty. And they sent around a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to all the returned deportees to gather at 8 Jerusalem; and anybody who did not come in after three days should, by resolution of the chiefs and elders, have all his chattels declared deodand and be excommunicated from the assembly of the deportees.

9 And all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem after three days; that was the ninth month, on the tenth of the month; and all the people sat down in the square of the house of God, shiv-10 ering over the business and because of the rainy weather. And Priest 'Ezra stood up and said to them "You have been disloyal and taken 11 in foreign women, adding to Israel's guilt. But now give praise to your fathers' God Jehovah and do what he will approve, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the country and from the foreign 12 women." And all the assembly answered with a loud voice "We will 13 do just as you are telling us to. The people are numerous, though, and it is the rainy season, and we have not the strength to stand 14 outdoors; and it is not a one-day or two-day business, because we be a standing commission for all the assembly, and let everybody in our cities who has taken in foreign women come at specified times, and with them the elders and judges of each city, till we have turned 15 back our God's anger from us as to this matter." (Only Jonathan the son of 'Asahel and Jahziah the son of Tikvah made a stand against 16 this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.) And the returned deportees did so; and Priest 'Ezra picked out men, heads of the families they belonged to, all by name, and they took their seats on the first day of the tenth month to see about the matter; 17 and they finished with all the men who had taken in foreign women by the first day of the first month.

18 And there were found of the sons of the priests that had taken in foreign women, of the sons of Jeshua' the son of Josadak and his 19 brothers Ma'asejah and Eli'ezer and Jarib and Gedaliah; and they gave their hands to turn out their wives, and were obligated to in-20 demnity of a ram for their guilt; and of the sons of Immer Hanani and Zebadiah; and of the sons of Harim Ma'asejah and Elijah and 21 Shema'iah and Jehiel and 'Uzzijah; and of the sons of Pashhur Eljo'- 22 enai, Ma'asejah, Ishma'el, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Eleasah.

23 And of the Levites, Jozabad and Shimei and Kelajah (that is, Kelitah), Pethahiah, Jehudah, and Eli'ezer.

24 And of the singers, Eljashib.

And of the gatemen, Shallum and Telem and Uri.

25 And of Israel, of the sons of Pareosh Ramiah and Izzijah and 26 Malkijah and Mijamin and Eleazar and Malkijah and Benajah; and of the sons of 'Elam Mattaniah and Zecariah and Jehiel and 'Abdi 27 and Jeremoth and Elijah; and of the sons of Zattu Eljo'enai, Eljashib, 28 Mattaniah, and Jeremoth and Zabad and 'Azizah; and of the sons of 29 Bebai Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, 'Athli; and of the sons of Bani 30 Meshullam, Malluc, Jeda'iah, Jashub, Ishal, Jeremoth; and of the sons of Pahath Moab Ghadna and Kelal, Benajah, Ma'asejah, Mat-31 taniah, Besalel and Binnui and Menassheh; and of the sons of Harim 32 Eli'ezer, Isshijah, Malkijah, Shema'iah, Shimeon, Benjamin, Malluc, 33 Shemariah; and of the sons of Hashum Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, 34 Eliphelet, Jeremai, Menassheh, Shimei; and of the sons of Bani Ma'adi, 35 36 'Amram and Uel, Benajah, Bediah, Keluhi, Vaniah, Meremoth, El-37 38 jashib, Mattaniah, Mattenai and Ja'asai; and of the sons of Binnui 39 40 Shimei and Shelemiah and Nathan and 'Adajah; and of the sons of 41 42 'Azgad Shashai, Sharai, 'Azarel and Shelemjah, Shemariah, Shallum,

- 43 Amariah, Joseph; of the sons of Nebo Je'iel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai and Joel, Benajah.
- 44 All these had married foreign wives, and some of them wives and had begotten sons.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

CHAPTER 1

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah.

And in the month of Kislev of the year twenty I was in Susa Citadel, and in came Hanani, one of my brothers, he and some men from Judah; and I asked them about the Judahites, the survivors that remained from the foreign servitude, and about Jerusalem; and they told me "The remnant, those who remain there in the province from the foreign servitude, are in great hardship and in ignominy, and the wall of Jerusalem is broken and its gates have been burned down."

And when I heard these things I sat down and wept, and mourned some days, and was fasting and praying before the God of heaven; and I said "Ah, Jehovah, God of heaven, great and terrible Deity, keeper of covenant and friendship for those who love you and keep 6 your commandments, let your ears be attentive and your eyes open to hear your servant's prayer as I am today praying before you day and night for your servants the sons of Israel and acknowledging the sins of the sons of Israel, that we have sinned against you—I 7 and my family have sinned; we have treated you badly and not kept your commandments and usages and laws which you enjoined on 8 your servant Moses. Remember the word you charged your servant Moses with: 'You will be disloyal—I will scatter you among the 9 peoples; and you will come back to me and keep my commandments and live up to them—if your exile be at the edge of the sky, from there I will gather you and bring you to the place I choose to install 10 my name there.' And those are your servants and your people, whom 11 you redeemed by your great power and strong hand. Ah, Lord, let your ears be attentive to your servant's prayer and to the prayer of your servants who find pleasure in fearing your name, and give your servant success today and make him an object of sympathy to this man" (I was a cupbearer of the king's).

CHAPTER 2

1 And in the month of Nisan of the year twenty of King Artaxerxes he had wine before him, and I took up the wine and gave it to the 2 king. And I had not been sad before him; and the king said to me "How comes your face to be sad, when you are not sick? this is nothing else but a heart sadness." 3 And I was very much afraid, but said to the king "May the king live forever—how should my face not be sad when the city, the burial-place of my fathers, is lying waste and its gates have been burned down?"
4 And the king said to me "What is it you want to ask for?" 5 And I prayed to the God of heaven and said to the king "If the king thinks best and if you hold your servant in esteem, that you would send me to Jerusalem, to the city of my fathers' graves, to rebuild it."
6 And the king said to me, while my lady was sitting beside him,
"In how long would you go and when would you be back?" 7 And the king approved and sent me; and I set him a date. And I said to the king "If the king thinks best, let me be given letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates to pass me through till I come to 8 Judah, and a letter to Asaph the king's forester to give me timber for constructing the citadel gates for the house and for the wall of the city and for the house I am to occupy"; and the king gave me these, in accordance with God's kindly hand upon me.
9 And I came to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and gave them the king's letters; and the king sent with me army officers and cavalry.
10 And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobijah the 'Ammonite slave heard of it and took it very hard that somebody had come to attempt something good for the sons of Israel.

11 12 And I came to Jerusalem and was there three days; and I rose in the night, I and a few men with me (I had not told anybody what God had put it into my heart to do for Jerusalem), but had no 13 beast with me except the beast I rode on. And I went out by the Valley Gate in the night to the front of the Dragon Spring and to the Dump Gate, and kept inspecting the walls of Jerusalem, how they 14 were broken and its gates had been burned down. And I went over to the Spring Gate and to the King's Reservoir, and there was no 15 way for the beast to get over with me on its back. And I kept on up the Arroyo in the night, and kept inspecting the wall; and I came 16 back and went in by the Valley Gate, and home; and the men on guard did not know where I had gone and what I was doing, and thus far I had not told the Judahites and the priests and the nobles and the magnates and the rest of the administrators.

17 And I said to them "You see for yourselves the bad state we are in, how Jerusalem is lying waste and its gates have been burned down. Come on, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem and not be a butt 18 for insults any longer"; and I told them of God's hand, how it had rested kindly on me, and all the words of the king, what he had said to me; and they said "Let us stand up and build," and took heart for the good cause.

19 And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobijah the 'Ammonite slave and Gusham the Arab heard of it and made fun of us and treated us contemptuously, and said "What's that you are doing? rebelling 20 against the king?" But I gave them their answer, "The God of heaven himself will make us successful, and we his worshipers will stand up and build; but you have no share nor right nor memories in Jerusalem."

CHAPTER 3

1 And High Priest Eljashib and his brother priests stood up and built the Sheep Gate—it was they who performed the ceremonies for it and hung the gates in the building—and to the Hundred Tower, 2 performed the ceremonies for it, to Hananel's Tower. And next the men of Jericho built. And next Zaccur the son of Imri built.

3 And the Fish Gate the sons of the Senaah built; it was they who framed the gateway and hung the gates in it and put in place the 4 sockets for the bars, and the bars. And next Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Hakkos repaired. And next Meshullam the son of Berehiah the son of Meshezabel repaired. And next Sadok the son of Ba'ana repaired. And next the Teko'ites repaired; but their grandees did not bring their necks into their Lord's service.

6 And the Old-Town Gate Jojada' the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodiah repaired; it was they who framed the gateway and hung the gates in it and put in place the sockets for the bars, 7 and the bars. And next Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meron-othite, the men of Gibeon and Mispah of the throne of the governor 8 of Trans-Euphrates repaired. Next 'Uzziel the son of Harhiah, goldsmiths, repaired. And next Hananiah the son of the perfumers re-9 paired. And they stoned up Jerusalem to the Broad Wall. And next Rephajah the son of Hur, chief of half the department of Jerusalem, 10 repaired. And next Jedajah the son of Harumaph repaired opposite 11 his house. And next Hattush the son of Hashabnejah repaired. Malkijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath Moab repaired 12 a second assignment, and the Baking-Crock Tower. And next Shallun the son of Hallohesh, chief of half the department of Jerusalem, he and his daughters, repaired.

13 The Valley Gate Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired; it was they who built it and hung the gates in the building and put in place the sockets for the bars, and the bars; and five hundred yards to the Dump Gate.

14 And the Dump Gate Malkijah the son of Recab, chief of the department of Beth-hak-Kerem, repaired; it was he who built it and hung the gates in the building and put in place the sockets for the bars, and the bars.

15 And the Spring Gate Shallun the son of Col-Hoze, chief of the department of Mispah, repaired; it was he who built it and canopied it and hung the gates in the building and put in place the sockets for the bars, and the bars; and the wall by the Tunnel Reservoir at the King's Garden and to the stairs that go down from David's City.

16 After him Nehemiah the son of 'Azbuk, chief of half the department of Beth-Sur, repaired to opposite David's Graves and to the Artificial 17 Reservoir and to the Champions' House. After him the Levites repaired, Rehum the son of Bani. After him Hashabiah, chief of half 18 the department of Ke'ilah, repaired for his department. After him their brothers repaired, Bavvai the son of Henadad, chief of half 19 the department of Ke'ilah. And 'Ezer the son of Jeshua', chief of Mispah, next repaired a second assignment, opposite the armory 20 stairs at the angle. After him Barue the son of Zabbai repaired a second assignment from the angle to the door of High Priest El-21 jashib's house. After him Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Hakkos repaired a second assignment, from the door of Eljashib's 22 house all along Eljashib's house. And after him the priests repaired, 23 the men of the Pale. After them Benjamin and Hasshub repaired opposite their house. After them 'Azariah the son of Ma'asejah the 24 son of 'Ananiah repaired alongside his house. After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired a second assignment, from 'Azariah's house to 25 the angle and to the corner. Palal the son of Uzai from opposite the angle and the tower that bulges out from the upper royal palace with 26 the court of the guard. After him Pedajah the son of Pareosh. And the temple servants lived on the castle ridge to opposite the Eastern 27 Water Gate and the bulging-out tower. After him the Teko'ites repaired a second assignment, from opposite the great bulging-out 28 tower to the wall of the castle ridge. Above the Pony Gate the priests 29 repaired, each opposite his own house. After it Sadok the son of Immer repaired opposite his house, and after him Shema'iah the son 30 of Shecaniah, the warder of the East Gate; after him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah and Hanun the sixth son of Salaph a second assignment; after him Meshullam the son of Berekiah repaired opposite his 31 vestry. After him Malkijah the son of the goldsmith repaired to the house of the temple servants and the traders, opposite the Assigned 32 Tract Gate, and to the upper room on the corner. And between the upper room on the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the traders repaired.

CHAPTER 4

1 But when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall he grew angry and fell into a great passion and made fun of the Judahites, 2 and said before his brothers and the Samaritan troops "What are those forlorn Judahites doing? will they stone themselves up? will they make sacrifices? will they finish in a day? will they resurrect 3 the stones out of the heaps of earth, burned as they are?" And Tobijah the 'Ammonite was beside him and said "If they do build, if a fox 4 reaches up it will break a hole in their stone wall." Hear it, our God, that we were an object of contempt, and bring their taunts back on their own heads, and let them be victims of plunder in a country of 5 foreign servitude, and do not cover up their guilt, and let their sin never be wiped out from before you, because they gave provocation before the builders.

6 But we built the wall, and the whole wall was connected halfway 7 up, because the people's hearts were in the work. And when Sanballat and Tobijah and the Arabs and 'Ammonites and Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were mending because the breaches had 8 begun to be stopped, they were very angry and all plotted together to come to make an armed attack on Jerusalem to throw it off its 9 course. But we prayed to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said "The hod-carrier's strength is breaking down; and there is a great deal of the rubbish and we cannot be building on the 11 wall." And our foes said "They will not know nor see till we come in among them and kill them and stop the work." And when the Judah-12 ites that lived next them came in, they said to us ten times from all the places "You should come back to us." But I stationed the people 13 by clans with their swords, pikes, and bows at places below the space back of the wall, on vacant lots; and I looked them over, and I stood 14 up and said to the nobles and the magnates and the rest of the people

"Do not be afraid of them; remember the Lord, the great and terrible, and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and households."

15 And when our enemies had heard that we had learned of it and God had balked their scheme, we all went back to the wall, each to 16 his work. And from that day half my men were working on the job and half were holding the pikes and shields and bows and coats of mail behind all the house of Judah that were building on the wall; 17 and those who carried the loads loaded up with one hand working on 18 the job and one holding the throwing-spear; and the builders each had his sword strapped to his waist as they built; and the man to 19 blow the ram-horn was at my side. And I said to the nobles and the magnates and the rest of the people "The work is extensive and there 20 is a great deal of it, and we are far apart on the wall; at whatever place you hear the sound of the ram-horn, gather to us there; our 21 God will fight for us." And we worked on the job, and half of them held the pikes, from the coming up of the dawn to the coming out of 22 the stars. Also I said to the people at that time "Each one and his man should lodge for the night inside Jerusalem, and be a guard 23 for us through the night and a working force through the day." And I and my brothers and my men and the men of the guard that had followed me did not take off our clothes; each one's weapon, the water.

1 And there arose a great outcry of the people and their wives against 2 their brother Judahites; and there were some who said "We are pawning our sons and daughters to get grain to eat to keep ourselves 3 alive"; and there were some who said "We are pawning our fields 4 and vineyards to get grain in the famine"; and there were some who said "We have borrowed money on our fields and vineyards for the 5 king's taxes. And now our flesh is like our brothers' flesh, our sons like theirs, and here we are reducing our sons and daughters to slavery, and some of our daughters have been enslaved, and we are helpless; and the aristocrats have our fields and vineyards." 6 And I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words, 7 and I followed my impulse and came down on the aristocrats and magnates and said to them "You are taking usury of your brothers"; 8 and I held a great assembly about them, and said to them "We have been buying up our brother Judahites who had been sold to the heathens, as much as we could, and you are even selling your brothers 9 and they get sold to us"; and they were silent and could not find a word. And I said "The thing you are doing is not good; will you not go in the fear of God on account of taunts from our heathen 10 enemies? And I too, my brothers and my men, are charging them 11 interest in money and grain; let us leave off this interest-taking; return to them at once their fields, vineyards, olive-trees, and houses, and the percent of money and grain and grape-juice and oil that you 12 are charging them." And they said "We will return these and not try to get them; we will do just as you say"; and I called the priests and 13 swore them to do as they said; I also shook out the bosom of my robe and said "So may God shake out from his house and his goods every man who does not make good this word, and so may he be shaken out and empty"; and all the assembly said "Amen" and praised Jehovah; and the people lived up to this word.

14 Besides, from the day when he commissioned me to be governor in Judah, from the year twenty to the year thirty-two of King Arta-xerxes, twelve years, I and my brothers did not live at public expense.
15 But the former governors, the ones before me, had burdened the people and taken from them in bread and wine the equivalent of forty shekels of silver; their men too lorded it over the people; but I 16 did not do thus, on account of the fear of God. And I also took hold in this work of the wall; and we bought no land, but all my men were 17 gathered there at the wall. And the Judahites and the magnates, a hundred and fifty men, and those who came to us from the nations 18 around us, ate at my table; and what was done for one day was one head of beef cattle, six select sheep or goats, and birds were done for me, and every ten days numerous skins of wine; and with this I did not take the public allowance, because the servitude was heavy on the 19 people. Remember for me for good, my God, all that I did for this people.

CHAPTER 6

1 And when the report came to Sanballat and Tobijah, and Gusham the Arab and the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall and there were no breaches left in it (even up to that time I had not 2 hung gates in the gateways), Sanballat and Gusham sent word to me "Come, let us make an appointment for an interview in the villages on the Ono plain"—and they were planning to do me harm.
3 But I sent messengers to them with the word "I am doing a great piece of work and cannot go down; why should the work come to a 4 stop while I take time off and go down to you?" And they sent me this same word four times, and I gave them this same answer.

5 And Sanballat sent his man to me a fifth time on this same errand 6 with an open letter in his hand in which was written "There is a report among the nations, and Gushmu says, you and the Judahites are planning to rebel; that is why you are building the wall; and they 7 are going to have you for king"; things of this sort. "And you have also set up prophets to proclaim about you in Jerusalem 'There is a king in Judah'; and now the report will come to the king"—things 8 of this sort. "Now come on, let us talk it over." But I sent them word
"There are no such facts as you say, but you are inventing them out 9 of your own head." For they were all scaring us, thinking "Get them discouraged from the work, and it will not be done." But as it was, he braced up my determination.

10 And I had gone into the house of Shema'iah the son of Delajah the son of Mehetabel, he being debarred, and he said "Let us make an appointment to meet in God's house, in the interior of the temple, and shut the temple doors, because there are people coming in to 11 kill you, coming in in the night to kill you." But I said "Is a man in my position to play the fugitive? and who in my position would go 12 into the temple for his life? I will not go in." And I recognized it was not God that sent him, that he uttered the prophecy against me, 13 but Tobijah and Sanballat had hired him in order that I might be scared into doing so and sinning, and they might have it as a scandal to taunt me with. My God, remember Tobijah and Sanballat suitably 14 to these deeds of his, and also No'adiah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets who were scaring me.

15 And the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two 16 days. And when all our enemies heard of it and all the nations around us saw it, they felt themselves decidedly set down and knew that the doing of this work came from our God.

17 Besides, in those days the aristocrats of Judah had many of their 18 letters going to Tobijah and Tobijah's coming to them; for many in Judah were sworn to him because he was son-in-law to Shecaniah the son of Arah and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of 19 Meshullam the son of Berekiah. They also kept talking of his good points before me and carrying my words to him. And Tobijah sent letters to scare me.

CHAPTER 7

1 And when the wall was built and I had hung the gates, and the 2 gatemen and singers and Levites were posted, I commissioned over Jerusalem my brother Hanani and Hananiah the commandant of the citadel; for he had the standing of a loyal and an especially God-3 fearing man. And I said to them "The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened till the sun is hot, and while they are still at their posts they are to shut and fasten the gates; and set the inhabitants of Jerusalem on guard, each with his own guard duty and each opposite 4 his own house." And the city was large and spacious, and the people 5 within it few, and houses were not built; and my God gave me an idea, and I gathered the aristocrats and the magnates and the people for listing; and I found the record of the list of those who had come up at first, and I found written in it

6 "These are the sons of the province, those who came up out of the serfdom of the deportees whom King Nebucadnessar of Babylon had deported to Babylon and came back to Jerusalem and Judah, each 7 to his city, who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua', Nehemiah, Serajah, Raghamiah, Nahamani, Mordocai, Bishlan, Masparath, Bigvai, Rehum, Ba'anah.

8 "The number of the men of the people of Israel: the sons of Pareosh, 10 hundred and seventy-two; the sons of Arah, seven hundred and 11 seventy-five; the sons of Pahath Moab as regards the sons of Jeshua' 12 and Joab, twenty-eight hundred and twelve; the sons of 'Elam, twelve 13 hundred and fifty-four; the sons of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-34 "The priests: the sons of Jeda'iah, of the family of Jeshua', nine 35 hundred and seventy-three; the sons of Immer, a thousand and fifty-36 two; the sons of Pashhur, twelve hundred and forty-seven; the sons 37 of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

38 "The Levites: the sons of Jeshua' and Kadmiel, of the sons of 39 Hodaviah, seventy-four.

40 "The singers: the sons of Asaph, a hundred and twenty-eight.

41 "The gatemen: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of 42 Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, 43 total a hundred and thirty-nine.

44 "The temple servants: the sons of Siha, the sons of Hasupha, the 45 sons of Tabbaoth, the sons of Keros, the sons of Si'ah, the sons of 46 Padon, the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of 'Akud, 47 the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmi, the sons of Hanan, the sons 48 of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reajah, the sons of Resin, the 49 sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, the sons of 'Uzza, the sons of 50 Passah, the sons of Besai, the sons of Asnah, the sons of Ma'ani, the 51 sons of Naphisi, the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons 52
53

54 of Harhur, the sons of Basluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, 55 56 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, the sons of Nesiah, the sons of Hatipha.

57 "The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of the 58 Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, the sons of Ja'alah, the sons of Darkon, 59 the sons of Giddel, the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons 60 of Pokereth Hassebajim, the sons of Amon. Total of temple servants and sons of Solomon's servants, three hundred and ninety-two.

61 "And these are those who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addan, Immer, and could not state their families and their 62 blood, whether they belonged to Israel: the sons of Delajah, the sons of Tobijah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two.

63 "And of the priests the sons of Habajah, the sons of Hakkos, the sons of Barzillai who married one of the descendants of Barzillai the 64 Gileadite and took their name,—the registrars looked for the record of these, and they were not to be found; and they were disqualified 65 from priestly functions, and the Tarshata told them they were not to eat any of the holiest of the holy till there should stand a priest with the gift of Urim and Thummim.

66 "The whole assembly as a unit came to forty-two thousand three 67 hundred and sixty, besides their slaves; of these, men and women, there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they 68 had two hundred singers, men and women. And of their ponies there were seven hundred and thirty-six, of their mules two hundred and forty-five, of their camels four hundred and thirty-five, of donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

69 "And some of the number of the heads of families gave for the work: the Tarshata gave to the treasury a thousand drachmas of 70 gold, fifty bowls, five hundred and thirty priests' tunics. And some of the heads of families gave to the treasury of the work twenty thou-71 sand drachmas of gold and twenty-two hundred minas of silver. And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drachmas of gold and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' tunics.

72 "And the priests and the Levites and part of the people settled in Jerusalem and in the country, and the singers and the gatemen and
the temple servants in their cities, and all Israel in their cities."

And the seventh month drew on, with the sons of Israel in their

CHAPTER 8

- 1 cities, and all the people to a man came together in the square before the Water Gate and told 'Ezra the scribe to bring the book of Moses's
- 2 code which Jehovah had enjoined on Israel. And Priest 'Ezra brought the code before the assembly, both men and women and all who could understand what they heard, on the first day of the seventh month,
- 3 and read from it at the front of the square before the Water Gate from the first daylight to midday before the men and women and those who could understand, and all the people gave their ears to the book 4 of the code. And 'Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform erected for the occasion, and beside him stood Mattithiah and Shema' and 'Anajah and 'Azariah and Urijah and Hilkijah and Ma'asejah on his right, and on his left Pedajah and Mishael and Malkijah and 5 Hashum and Hashbaddanah, Zecariah, Meshullam; and 'Ezra the scribe opened the book before the eyes of all the people, because he was above all the people; and when he opened it all the people were 6 standing; and 'Ezra blessed Jehovah, the great God, and all the people answered "Amen," "Amen," holding up their hands, and did reverence 7 to Jehovah with faces bowed to the ground. And Jeshua' and Bani and Sherebiah, Jamin, 'Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Ma'asejah, Kelita, 'Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelajah, the Levites, expounded the 8 code to the people, while the people stood in their places. And he read from the book of God's code by sections, bringing out the sense, and they expounded the text.

9 And the Tarshata and Priest 'Ezra the scribe and the Levites who were expounding to the people said to all the people "The day is sacred to your God Jehovah; do not mourn nor weep"—for all the 10 people were weeping as they heard the words of the code. And he said to them "Go, eat rich food and drink sweet drinks and send helpings to anybody who has nothing ready, because the day is sacred to our Lord, and do not be melancholy, for Jehovah's glee is your 11 security"; and the Levites silenced all the people, saying "Hush, 12 because the day is sacred, and do not be melancholy." And all the people went off to eat and drink and send out helpings and to hold a great merrymaking, because they understood the notifications that were given them.

13 And on the second day the heads of families of all the people, the priests, and the Levites came together to Priest 'Ezra for information 14 on the points of the code, and they found it written in the code that Jehovah had prescribed through Moses that the sons of Israel were 15 to live in booths during the feast in the seventh month, and that they were to give out and have the announcement made in all the cities and in Jerusalem "Go out to the mountain and bring in foliage of olive-trees and of wild olive and of myrtles and of palm trees and of leafy 16 trees to make booths, as it is written." And the people went out and brought in, and made themselves booths on their own roofs and in their yards and in the courts of God's house and in Water Gate 17 Square and in Ephraim Gate Square; and all the assembly, those that had come back from the foreign servitude, made booths and lived in the booths. For the sons of Israel had never done so since the days of Joshua' the son of Nun until that day. And there was a very great 18 merrymaking. And he read from the book of God's code day by day, from the first day to the last day; and they held a feast for seven days, and on the eighth day there was a holiday, in due form.

1 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel came together with fasting and in sackcloths and with earth on them, and the descendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners and stood and confessed their sins and the guilts of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their places, and they read from the book of their God Jehovah's code a quarter of the day, and a quarter they were confessing and doing reverence to their God Jehovah. And Jeshua' and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, Kanani, stood up on the Levites' platform, and they cried out in a loud voice to their God Jehovah. And the Levites Jeshua' and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabnejah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, Pethahiah, said

"Stand up, bless your God Jehovah, and let them bless your name, glorious and exalted above all blessing and praise!

6 "You it was, Jehovah, you alone, that made the sky, the sky of the sky, and all its legions, the earth and everything on it, the seas and everything in them, and you give life to them all, and the legions of the sky do reverence to you. You it was, Jehovah God, that called Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and named him Abraham, and found his heart loyal before you and made a covenant with him to give the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites and the Jebusites and the Girgashites to his descendants, and made good your words because you are a doer of right.

9 "And you saw the wretched state of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry at the Red Sea, and dealt out tokens and miracles upon the Pharaoh and all his officers and all the people of his country because you knew they had been arrogant against them, and you made yourself famous as at this day. And you split the sea apart before them, and took them across through the middle of the sea on dry land, and threw their pursuers into depths of ooze like a stone into a mighty water; and you led them by a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night to light up for them the road they were to go on. And on Mount Sinai you came down and spoke with them out of the sky and gave them correct laws and true rulings, good institutions and commandments, and made known to them your holy sabbath, and enjoined on them commandments and institutions and rulings through your servant Moses, and gave them bread out of the sky for their hunger and brought them out water from a crag for their thirst, and told them to go in to take possession of the country you had pledged yourself to give to them.

16 "But they, our fathers, were headstrong and stiffened up their necks and did not listen to your commandments; and they refused to listen, and did not remember your wonders that you had done in their presence, but stiffened up their necks and elected a chief to go back to their slavery in Egypt. But you are a God of forgiveness, kindly and tenderhearted, patient and very friendly, and did not

- 18 abandon them, even when they made themselves a metal calf and said 'This is your God that brought you up out of Egypt' and committed acts of great contumely; you in your great tenderheartedness did not abandon them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud never left its place over them by day, guiding them on the road, and the pillar of fire by night to light up for them the road they were to go on; and you gave your good Spirit to enlighten them, and did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and gave them water for their thirst, and for forty years you supported them in the wilderness: they were in want of nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.
- 22 "And you gave them kingdoms and peoples and allotted them for frontier, and they took possession of the country of King Sihon of Heshbon and the country of King 'Og of the Bashan. And you made their sons numerous as the stars in the sky, and brought them into the country you had told their fathers to go into to take possession.
- 24 And the sons went in and took possession of the country, and you humbled before them the inhabitants of the country, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, and their kings and the peoples of the country, to do as they pleased with. And they took fortified cities and fat soil, and got possession of houses full of good things, rockhewn cisterns, vineyards and olive-trees and fruit-trees in great numbers, and they ate and had their fill and grew fat and lived in luxury by your great goodness.
- 26 "But they were disobedient and rebelled against you and threw your code behind their backs, and killed your prophets who had testified to them to bring them back to you, and committed acts of great contumely; and you gave them into the hands of their foes and they distressed them. And in their distress they would cry out to you, and you in heaven would hear and, in accordance with your great tender-heartedness, would give them saviors who saved them out of the hands of their foes. But when they were at rest they would go back to doing bad things before you, and you left them in their enemies' hands and they had them at their mercy; and they went back to crying out to you, and you in heaven would hear and, in accordance with your great tenderheartedness, would deliver them. And you testified to them to bring them back to your code; but they were headstrong and did not listen to your commands and sinned against your laws, which men should conform to and have life by them, and turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened up their necks and did not listen.
- 30 And you kept on with them many years, and testified to them by your Spirit through your prophets, but they did not give ear, and you gave them into the hands of the peoples of the countries. But in your great tenderness you did not finish them off nor abandon them, because you are a kindly and tenderhearted Deity.
- 32 "And now, our God, great and invincible and terrible Deity, keeper of covenant and friendship, let all the hard experience we have had, we, our kings and our generals and our priests and our prophets and our fathers and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria to this day, not be a little thing before you. And you are in the right as to all that has come upon us, because you have done loyally; and we are in the wrong. And our kings, our generals, our priests, and our fathers did not live up to your code nor listen to your commandments and your testimonies that you gave them; but they, in their independent sovereignty and in your abundant good things that you gave them and in the broad and fat country that you put before them, did not serve you nor turn back from their bad practices. Here we are in servitude today; and as to the country you gave to our fathers to eat the fruits of and the good things of, here we are in servitude in it, and it is bearing its produce in great crops for the kings you have put over us for our sins, and they are ruling over our bodies and our cattle as they please, and we are in great distress.”

“And for all this we agree to a schedule and write it down; and on the sealed copy are our chiefs, our Levites, our priests.”

And on the sealed copies “Nehemiah the Tarshata the son of Hacaliah, and Sidkijah; Serajah, ‘Azariah, Jeremiah, Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah, Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluc, Harim, Meremoth, ‘Obadiah, Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruc, Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, Ma’aziah, Bilgai, Shema’iah; these are the priests; and the Levites, Jeshua’ the son of Azaniah, Binnui, of the sons of Henadad Kadmiel, and their brothers She[b]aniah, Hodaviah, Kelita, Pelajah, Hanan, Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Bani, Beninu; heads of the people, Pareosh, Pahath Moab, ‘Elam, Zattu, Bani, Bunni, ‘Azgad, Bebai, Adonijah, Bigvai, Ghadin, Ater, Hizkijah, ‘Azzur, Hodijah, Hashum, Besai, Hariph, ‘Anathoth, Nobai, Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, Meshezabel, Sadok, Jaddua’, Pelatiah, Hanan, ‘Anajah, Hoshea’, Hananiah, Hasshub, Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, Rehum, Hashabnah, Ma’asejah, and Ahijah, Hanan, ‘Anan, Malluc, Harim, Ba’anah.”

“And the remainder of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gate-men, the singers, the temple servants, and everybody who has separated himself from the peoples of the countries to God’s code, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everybody that knows enough to understand, concur with their brothers, their notables, and take upon themselves an imprecation and an oath to go by God’s code which was given through God’s servant Moses and to observe and live up to all the commandments of our Lord Jehovah and his laws and usages; and that we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the country nor take their daughters for our sons; and from the peoples of the country who bring commodities and provisions of any kind on the sabbath day to sell we will not take any on the sabbath or on a holy day; and we will give up enforcing claims on goods in anybody's hands in the seventh year. And we establish standing charges upon ourselves, charging ourselves with a third of a shekel a year for the service of our God's house, for the stacked bread and the regular grain-offering and the regular burnt-offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, for the dates and for the sacramental offerings and for the sin-offering to purge Israel, and all the business of our God's house; and we have cast the lots as to the wood donation, priests, Levites, and people, to bring it in by families at stated times year by year to be burned on our God Jehovah's altar as is written in the code; and to bring in the firstfruits of our soil, and the first of any fruit of any woody stem year by year, to Jehovah's house; and as to the firstborn of our sons and our animals as is written in the code, and to bring in the firstborn of our horned cattle and sheep and goats to our God's house for the priests who officiate in our God's house; and the first of our cooked cereals and our contributions and the fruit of every woody stem, grape-juice and oil, we will bring for the priests to the vestries of our God's house; and the tithe of our soil is for the Levites, and they, the Levites, are the ones who take up the tithes in all our working cities, and the priest, the son of Aaron, is to be with the Levites when the Levites take up the tithes; and the Levites are to bring up the tithe of the tithe to Jehovah's house, into the vestries of the storage house. For it is into the vestries that the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi are to bring in the contribution of grain and grape-juice and oil, and there the belongings of the sanctuary and the officiating priests and the gatemens and the singers are. And we will not abandon our God's house."

CHAPTER 11

1 And the chiefs of the people lived in Jerusalem, and the remainder of the people cast lots to bring in one out of ten to live in Jerusalem, the sacred city, and ten parts in the cities. And the people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

3 And these are the heads of the province who lived in Jerusalem; and in the cities of Judah Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the temple servants, and the sons of Solomon's servants, lived each on his own holding in their cities. And there lived in Jerusalem, of the sons of Judah and of the sons of Benjamin,

Of the sons of Judah: Ghathajah the son of 'Uzzijah the son of Zecariah the son of Amariah the son of Shephatiah the son of Mahalalel a son of Peres, and Ma'asejah the son of Baruc the son of Col-Hozeh the son of Hazajah the son of 'Adajah the son of Jojarib the son of Zecariah the son of the Shelanite. Of all the sons of Peres who lived in Jerusalem there were four hundred and sixty-eight able-bodied men.

7 And these were the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam the son of Jo'ed the son of Pedajah the son of Kolajah the son of 8 Ma'asejah the son of Ithiel the son of Jesha'iah, and after him Gabbai, 9 Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight; and Joel the son of Zieri had the oversight over them, and Jehudah the son of Hassenuah over the city as second.

10 11 Of the priests: Jeda'iah, Jojarib, Jakin, Serajah the son of Hilkiyah the son of Meshullam the son of Sadok the son of Merajoth the son 12 of Ahitub the warden of God's house, and their brothers who did the work of God's house, eight hundred and twenty-two, and 'Adajah the 13 son of Jeroham the son of Pelaliah the son of Amsi the son of Zecariah the son of Pashhur the son of Malkijah, and his brothers, two hundred and forty-two heads of families; and 'Amasai the son of 'Azarel the 14 son of Ahzai the son of Meshillemoth the son of Immer, and his brothers, a hundred and twenty-eight stalwart men; and Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim had the oversight over them.

15 And of the Levites: Shema'iah the son of Hasshub the son of 16 'Azrikam the son of Hashabiah the son of Bunni; and Shabbethai and Jozabad, over the work outside the house of God, of heads of 17 Levites. And Mattaniah the son of Micah the son of Zabdi the son of Asaph, head of the beginning, spoke the thanks in the prayer; and Bakbukiah was second of his brothers; and 'Abda the son of Shammua' 18 the son of Galal the son of Jeduthun. Of all the Levites in the sacred city there were two hundred and eighty-four.

19 And the gatemen: 'Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers who guarded the gates, a hundred and seventy-two.

20 And the remainder of Israel, the priests, the Levites, were in all 21 the cities of Judah, each on his estate. And the temple servants lived on the castle ridge, and Siha and Gishpa were over the temple ser-22 vants. And 'Uzzi the son of Bani the son of Hashabiah the son of Mattaniah the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, had the oversight over the Levites in Jerusalem with reference to the business 23 of God's house. For the king's command governed them, and there 24 was a schedule for the singers, and appointment for each day. And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of 25 Judah, was court agent for every affair for the people. And toward the villages in their country districts, sons of Judah lived in Kirjathha-Arbogh and its dependencies, and in Dibon and its dependencies, 26 and in Jekabseel and its villages, and in Jeshua', and in Moladah, 27 and in Beth-Pelet, and in Hasar-Shu'al, and in Beer-Sheba' and its 28 dependencies, and in Siklag, and in Meconah and in its dependencies, 29 30 and in 'En-Rimmon, and in Soreah, and in Jarmuth, Zanoah, 'Adul-lam, and their villages, Lakish and its country districts, 'Azekah and its dependencies, and were camped from Beer-Sheba' to Hinnom's 31 Valley. And the sons of Benjamin, from Geba', Micmas and Ghaijah 32 33 and Bethel and its dependencies, 'Anathoth, Nob, 'Ananiah, Hasor, 34 35 Ramah, Gittaim, Hadid, Sebo'im, Neballat, Lod and Ono, the Car-36 penters' Valley. And of the Levites some Judah divisions were placed with Benjamin.

CHAPTER 12

1 And these are the priests and Levites who came up with Zerub-babel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua': Serajah, Jeremiah, 'Ezra, 2-4 Amariah, Malluc, Hattush, Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 'Iddo, 5 6 Ginnethon, Abijah, Mijamin, Ma'adiah, Bilgah, Shema'iah and Jo-7 jarib, Jeda'iah, Sallu, 'Amok, Hilkijah, Jeda'iah; these were the heads of the priests and their brothers in Jeshua's time.

8 And the Levites: Jeshua', Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Jehudah, 9 Mattaniah (he and his brothers over thanksgivings), and Bakbukiah and 'Unni, their brothers opposite to them for charges.

10 And Jeshua' had the son Jojakim, and Jojakim had the son Eljashib, 11 and Eljashib the son Jojada', and Jojada' had the son Jonathan, and Jonathan had the son Jaddua'.

12 And in Jojakim's time were priests, the heads of families, for 13 Serajah, Merajah; for Jeremiah, Hananiah; for 'Ezra, Meshullam; 14 for Amariah, Jehohanan; for Malluc, Jonathan; for Shecaniah, Jo-15 16 seph; for Harim, Ghadna; for Merajoth, Helkai; for 'Iddo, Zecariah; 17 for Ginnethon, Meshullam; for Abijah, Zicri; for Minjamin; for 18 Mo'adiah, Piltai; for Bilgah, Shammua'; for Shema'iah, Jehonathan, 19 20 and for Jojarib, Mattenai; for Jeda'iah, 'Uzzi; for Sallai, Kallai; for 21 'Amok, 'Eber; for Hilkijah, Hashabiah; for Jeda'iah, Nathanel.

22 The Levites: in the times of Eljashib, Jojada' and Johanan and Jaddua', heads of families were written down, and the priests, to 23 the reign of Darius the Persian. The sons of Levi, the heads of the families, are written in the book of the chronicles down to the time 24 of Johanan the son of Eljashib. And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah and Jeshua' and Bani and Kadmiel, and their brothers opposite them to praise, to give thanks, in accordance with 25 the command David the man of God, watch against watch, Mattaniah and Bakbukiah, 'Obadiah; Meshullam, Talmon, 'Akkub, gatemen keep-26 ing watch at the gate storerooms. These were at the time of Jojakim the son of Jeshua' the son of Josadak and of Governor Nehemiah and Priest 'Ezra the scribe.

27 And at the inauguration of the wall of Jerusalem they looked up the Levites out of all their places to bring them to Jerusalem to conduct an inauguration and jubilation with thanksgivings and with 28 music of cymbals, harps, and lyres; and the sons of the singers came together from the Pale, the environs of Jerusalem, and from the 29 Netophathite villages and from Beth-hag-Gilgal and from the country-sides of Geba' and 'Azmaveth, because the singers had built themselves villages in the environs of Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves and the people

31 and the gates and the wall. And I brought the chiefs of Judah up above the wall; and I arranged two great thanksgiving companies, and the one went to the right above the wall to the Dump Gate, 32 33 and behind them went Hosha'ajah and half the princes of Judah, and 34 'Azariah, 'Ezra, and Meshullam, Judah and Benjamin and Shema'iah 35 and Jeremiah, and some of the sons of the priests with trumpets; Zecariah the son of Jonathan the son of Shema'iah the son of Mat-36 taniah the son of Micajah the son of Zaccur the son of Asaph, and his brothers Shema'iah and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Ma'ai, Nethanel and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of 37 God, and 'Ezra the scribe before them. And past the Spring Gate and straight ahead they went up over the stairs of David's City, up the slope of the wall above David's house, to the Water Gate on the east.

38 And the second thanksgiving company went to the left, and I behind it, and half the people, above the wall, above the Baking-Crock Tower, 39 to the Broad Wall, and above the Ephraim Gate and past the Old-Town Gate and past the Fish Gate and Hananel's Tower and the Hundred Tower to the Sheep Gate, and halted at the Guardhouse 40 Gate. And both the thanksgiving companies halted at God's house, and 41 I and half the magnates with me, and the priests Eljakim, Ma'asejah, 42 Minjamin, Micajah, Eljo'enai, Zecariah, Hananiah, with trumpets, and Ma'asejah and Shema'iah and Eleazar and 'Uzzi and Jehohanan and Malkijah and 'Elam and 'Ezer; and the singers sounded their notes, 43 and Izrahiah had the oversight. And on that day they sacrificed great sacrifices and made merry, because God had gladdened them to a great merrymaking; and the women and children made merry too, and Jerusalem's merrymaking was heard to a great distance.

44 And on that day officers were appointed over the vestries for the stores, for the contributions, the first things, and the tithes, to collect in them by regions of cities the prescribed portions for the priests and the Levites, because Judah was happy over the priests and 45 Levites in service, and they kept their God's charge and the charge of the purification, and the singers and the gatemen conformed to the 46 orders of David and his son Solomon, for in the days of David and Asaph of old there were heads of the singers and song of praise and 47 thanks to God; and in Zerubbabel's days all Israel gave the portions of the singers and the gatemen punctually day by day and set apart consecrations for the Levites, and the Levites set apart consecrations for the sons of Aaron.

- 1 And on that day there was a public reading to the people out of the book of Moses, and it was found written in it that an 'Ammonite
- 2 or Moabite should not come into God's assembly forever because they did not offer the sons of Israel bread and water, and hired Balaam against them to misspeak them, but our God turned the curse into a blessing. And when they heard the ruling they separated all intruded population from Israel.

But earlier than this Priest Eljashib had been in office about the vestries of our God's house, a connection of Tobijah's, and he had turned over to him a great vestry where they used to put the grain-offering and the frankincense and the vessels and the tithe of grain and grape-juice and oil, the ordinance for the Levites and singers and gatemens, and the contribution for the priests. But during all this I was not in Jerusalem; for in the year thirty-two of Artaxerxes as king of Babylon I had come in to the king. And a while later I asked leave from the king, and I came to Jerusalem and learned of the nuisance Eljashib had committed for Tobijah, turning over to him a vestry in the courts of God's house; and I did not like it at all, and I threw all Tobijah's household goods outside out of the vestry; and I ordered the vestries cleansed, and I put back there the vessels of God's house, the meal-offering and frankincense.

And I learned that the Levites' portions had not been given, and the Levites had gone off to their lands, and it was the singers who were doing the work; and I came down on the magnates and said "How comes it that God's house is abandoned?" and I gathered them and stationed them at their posts. And all Judah brought in the tithe of grain and grape-juice and oil to the storerooms into the hands of Priest Shelemiah, and Scribe Sadok and Pedajah of the Levites, and their assistant Hanan the son of Zaccur the son of Mataniah, because they were considered reliable; and it was their responsibility to distribute to their brothers. Remember me for this, my God, and do not efface the record of my befriending God's house and his charge.

During that time I saw in Judah people treading winepresses on the sabbath and bringing in the heaps of grain and loading donkeys with it, and also with wine, grapes, and figs, and all sorts of loads, and bringing them to Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I warned them on the day when they sold provisions. And the Tyrians lived in it, bringing in fish and all kinds of goods and selling on the sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. And I came down on the nobles of Judah and said to them "What is this bad thing you are doing and profaning the sabbath day? was it not so that your fathers did, and our God brought upon us all this disaster, and upon this city? and you are breeding additional wrath against Israel, profaning the sabbath." And when the gateways of Jerusalem grew shady before the sabbath I ordered the gates closed, and that they should not be opened till after the sabbath, and I stationed men of my own at the gates; no load was to come in on the sabbath day. And the traders and those who had goods to sell put up outside Jerusalem a time or two; and I warned them and said to them "How is it you are putting

- up in front of the wall? if you do it another time I will lay hands on you." From that time on they did not come on the sabbath. And I told the Levites to be purified and in, watching the gates, to maintain the sanctity of the sabbath day. Remember this too for me, my God, and spare me in accordance with the greatness of your friendship.
- During that time I also saw the Judahites who had taken in Ashdodite, 'Ammonite, and Moabite wives; and their sons half of them talked Ashdodite and did not know how to talk Judaic, and so in the language of each people. And I came down on them and beat some of them and pulled out their beards, and swore them by God "not to give your daughters to their sons and not to take their daughters for your sons and yourselves; was it not over these that King Solomon of Israel went wrong? and among the nations, many as they were, there had never been a king like him, and he was loved by his God, and God set him as king over all Israel; even him the foreign wives seduced into sin. And is it not an unheard-of thing for you to do all this great evil, being unfaithful to our God, taking in foreign wives?"
- And one of the sons of Jojada' the son of High Priest Eljashib had married into the family of Sanballat the Horonite; and I drove him off. Remember them, my God, for the pollution of the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood.
- And the Levites I cleansed from every foreign element. And I arranged turns of service for the priests and Levites, each at his work, and for the wood donation at stated times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

CHAPTER 1

- 1 And in Xerxes' days—that was the Xerxes who reigned from
- 2 India to Nubia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces—in those days, when King Xerxes took his seat on his royal throne in Susa Citadel
- 3 in the year three of his reign, he gave a banquet to all his generals and officers, having before him the troops of Persia and Media, the
- 4 highest nobles, and the provincial generals, exhibiting his glorious royal wealth and the exquisite magnificence of his greatness for a
- 5 long time, a hundred and eighty days; and when these days were completed the king gave a banquet to all the people that were to be found in Susa Citadel, great and small, for seven days in the garden 6 court of the royal palace. White muslin and violet cloth was fastened with white linen and purple cords to silver rods and marble columns; 7 couches of gold and silver stood on a floor paved with four colors of marble; and drinks were poured in golden vessels, some vessels 8 different from others, and there was royal wine in abundance in accordance with the king's custom; and the drinking was on the principle of no compulsion, for the king had given this fundamental 9 order to the head of every department of his household, to do as each man pleased. Queen Vashti also gave a women's banquet in King Xerxes' royal residence.

10 On the seventh day, when the king was feeling jolly with wine, he told Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Vaabagtha, Zethar, and 11 Carcas, the seven eunuchs in attendance before King Xerxes, to bring Queen Vashti before the king in her royal tiara to let the people 12 and the generals see her beauty; for she was handsome. But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's word by the eunuchs; and the 13 king was much incensed, and his temper fired up, and the king said to the wise men who knew the times (for thus the king's business 14 came before all who knew law and adjudication) and those who were next to him, Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, those who saw the 15 king's face and occupied the foremost places in the government, "On what principle is Queen Vashti to be dealt with for her not having done as King Xerxes by the eunuchs told her to?"

16 And Memucan said before the king and the princes "Queen Vashti has misbehaved not only against the king but against all the princes 17 and against the people in all King Xerxes' provinces; for the queen's story will go out to all women to bring their husbands into contempt with them, when people say 'King Xerxes ordered Queen Vashti 18 brought before him and she did not come,' and this day the princesses of Persia and Media, who will have heard the queen's story, will be saying plenty of contemptuous and exasperating things to all the 19 king's princes. If the king thinks best, let an official announcement be issued with your sanction and engrossed in the laws of Persia and Media to be permanent, that Vashti shall never come before King Xerxes, and the king shall give her position as queen to a better, 20 so that the king's sentence that he has executed shall be heard of throughout his realm, great as it is, and all women shall pay honor to their husbands, great and small."

21 And the king and the princes approved the idea; and the king did 22 as Memucan had proposed, and sent writs to all the king's provinces, to each province in its own form of writing and to each people in its own language, that every man should be master in his house and talk in his people's language.

1 After these events, when King Xerxes' temper had gone down he remembered Vashti, and what she had done and what decision had 2 been made about her. But the king's pages who were in attendance on 3 him said "Let handsome maiden girls be hunted up for the king, and let the king appoint commissioners in all the provinces of his realm and let them gather every handsome maiden girl to the women's house in Susa Citadel, into the hands of the king's eunuch Hegai the 4 guardian of the women, and cleansing-creams be furnished them, and the girl that the king likes best be queen in Vashti's place." And the king approved the idea and did so.

5 There was a certain Jew in Susa Citadel named Mordocai the son 6 of Jair the son of Shimei the son of Kish, a Benjamite, who had been deported from Jerusalem with the deportees that were deported with King Jeconiah of Judah whom King Nebucadnessar of Babylon 7 deported; and he was foster-father to his cousin Hadassah (that is, Esther) because she had no father or mother. And the girl was shapely and handsome; and at the death of her father and mother Mordocai 8 had adopted her. And when the king's announcement and his law were heard of, and when many girls were being gathered in Hegai's hands in Susa Citadel, Esther was taken to the king's house into the 9 hands of Hegai the guardian of the women. And he liked the girl and was friendly to her, and made haste to give her her cleansing-creams and her rations and to give her the seven choicest maids out of the king's house, and gave her and her maids preferential treatment in 10 the women's house. Esther had not told her nationality and lineage, 11 because Mordocai had charged her not to. But every single day Mordocai walked in front of the court of the women's house to find out how Esther was and what was being done with her.

12 And when each girl's turn came to go in to King Xerxes at the end of twelve months of the women's regular treatment (for that was the way their time of cleansing was to be gone through, six months with the oil of myrrh and six months with the spices and the women's 13 cleansing-creams), the girl went in to the king on these terms: she was given anything that she said, to go in from the women's house
14 to the king's house with; in the evening she went in, and in the morning she came back to the women's house, a second one, into the hands of the king's eunuch Sha'ashgaz, the guardian of the concubines; she did not go in to the king again unless the king had taken a fancy 15 to her and she was called for by name. But when it came the turn of Esther the daughter of Mordocai's uncle Abihail, whom he had adopted, to go in to the king, she did not ask for anything but what the king's eunuch Hegai, the guardian of the women, said; and Esther won the admiration of all who saw her.

16 And Esther was taken to King Xerxes, into his royal residence, in the tenth month, that is the month of Tebeth, in the year seven of his

- 17 reign. And the king loved Esther better than any of the women, and she won more admiration and favor from him than any of the maidens; and he set a royal tiara on her head and made her queen in Vashti's place. And the king gave a great banquet to all his generals and officers, the Banquet for Esther, and enacted a suspension of taxation for the provinces, and gave gifts of food in accordance with the king's custom.
- 19 And when maidens were being gathered a second time, Mordocai 20 sitting in the king's gate,—Esther was not telling her lineage and nationality, as Mordocai had charged her not to, and Esther did as Mordocai said since she had been in his family as foster-daughter,— 21 in those days, Mordocai sitting in the king's gate, the king's two eunuchs Bigthan and Teresh, two of the guardians of the threshold, 22 were out of temper and proposed to lay hands on King Xerxes; and the affair became known to Mordocai, and he informed Queen Esther, 23 and Esther told the king, using Mordocai's name, and the matter was investigated and the facts detected, and they were both impaled; and it was written down in the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 After these events the king made a great man of Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and elevated him and set his chair above 2 all the princes he had about him, and all the officials in the king's gate bowed and did reverence to Haman; for the king had given such 3 orders for him. But Mordocai did not bow nor do reverence. And the officials in the king's gate said to Mordocai "How comes it you are 4 going against the king's orders?" and when they said so to him day by day and he did not listen to them they told Haman, to see whether the position Mordocai had taken would stand. For he had told them he was a Jew.
- 5 And Haman saw that Mordocai was not bowing and doing reverence 6 to him; and Haman was filled with ire, and scorned to lay hands on Mordocai alone (for they had told him Mordocai's nationality), and Haman undertook to root out all the Jews in Xerxes' empire, Mordocai's people. In the first month (that is, the month of Nisan) in the year twelve of Xerxes' reign, they cast pur (that is, the lot) before Haman from day to day and from month to month, and the lot fell on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar).
- 8 And Haman said to King Xerxes "There is one people scattered and keeping separate among the peoples in all the provinces of your empire, and their laws are different from those of any people, and they do not comply with the king's laws; and it does not pay the king 9 to tolerate them. If the king thinks best, let writs be issued to destroy them; and I will turn over ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of the administrators to put into the royal treasury."

10 And the king took his ring off his hand and gave it to Haman the 11 son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' assailant; and the king said to Haman "The silver is given to you, and so is the people, to do as you think best with."

12 And he called the king's secretaries in the first month, on the thirteenth day in it, and writs were issued, in full accordance with Haman's orders, to the king's satraps and to the governors over each province and to the princes of each people, each province in its own form of writing and each people in its own language, written in King 13 Xerxes' name and sealed with his royal ring. And there was sending of writs by couriers to all the king's provinces to kill and destroy and root out all the Jews from boy to old man, children and women, on one day, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month (that is, the month 14 of Adar), and to take their plunder. A copy of the document, to be promulgated as law in each and every province, was publicly displayed 15 to all the peoples, that they be ready on this day. The couriers went out posthaste by royal order, and the law was promulgated in Susa Citadel, and the king and Haman sat down to drink; and the city of Susa was in confusion.

CHAPTER 4

1 And Mordocai, finding out all that had been done, tore his clothes and put on a sackcloth and ashes and went out through the middle 2 of the city giving a loud and bitter cry. And he came in front of the king's gate (for there was no going into the king's gate in sackcloth 3 costume).—And in each and every province in the place where the king's word and law arrived there was great mourning of the Jews, and fasting and weeping and wailing, and sackcloth and ashes were 4 spread for most of them.—And Esther's maids and eunuchs came in and told her; and the queen was quite horrified and sent clothing to dress Mordocai and get his sackcloth off him, but he would not re-5 ceive it. And Esther called Hathac, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had set to wait on her, and gave him an errand to Mordocai to 6 find out what was the story and why. And Hathac went out to Mor-docai in the city square in front of the king's gate, and Mordocai 7 told him everything that had happened to him and the details about the money Haman had said he would turn over to the royal treasury 8 for the Jews, to have them destroyed, and gave him a copy of the engrossed law that had been promulgated in Susa to root them out, which he was to show to Esther and tell her of, and to charge her to go in to the king and supplicate him and intercede with him for 9 her people. And Hathac went in and told Esther what Mordocai said.

10 11 But Esther said to Hathac and ordered him to tell Mordocai "All the king's household and the people of the king's provinces know that for any man or woman who goes in to the king in the inner court uninvited the law is uniform to put him to death except for the one to whom the king holds out the golden scepter to grant him life; but 12 I have not been summoned in to the king these thirty days"; and he told Mordocai what Esther said.

13 But Mordocai told him to take back to Esther the word "Do not imagine that you in the king's house will get away with your life any 14 more than all the Jews. For if you do keep silence at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will present itself from elsewhere, but you and your family will perish. And who knows if it was for an occasion like this that you came to queenhood?"

5 16 And Esther told him to take back word to Mordocai "Go gather all the Jews that are to be found in Susa and fast for me, and do not eat nor drink for three days, night and day; I and my maids will fast in the same way too; and with that I will go in to the king, which is 17 not according to law, and when I perish I perish." And Mordocai went along and did just as Esther ordered him to.

CHAPTER 5

1 And on the third day Esther put on royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's house opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the 2 door of the house. And when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court he admired her; and the king held out for Esther the golden scepter he had in his hand, and Esther came up and touched 3 the head of the scepter. And the king said to her "What is the matter, Queen Esther? what is the boon you want? up to half the empire, it shall be given you."

4 And Esther said "If the king thinks best, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet I have got up for him."

5 And the king said "Hurry up with Haman to do as Esther says."
And the king and Haman went in to the banquet Esther had got up.
6 And the king said to Esther over the wine "What have you to ask for? it shall be given you; what is the boon you want? up to half the empire, it shall be given you."

7 And Esther answered "What I have to ask for, and the boon I want, 8 is—please, if the king thinks best to give what I have to ask for and to take action for the boon I want, let the king and Haman come to the banquet I have got up, and tomorrow I will do as the king says."

9 And Haman went out merry and jolly that day; but when Haman saw Mordocai in the king's gate and he did not stand up nor tremble 10 for him, Haman was filled with ire at Mordocai. But Haman repressed his feelings, and went into his house and sent for his intimate friends 11 and his wife Zeresh; and Haman gave them an account of his imposing wealth and the number of his sons, and all that the king had done in making him a great man and elevating him above the princes and 12 officials; and Haman said "Besides, Queen Esther did not let in with the king to the banquet she had got up anybody but me; and tomorrow

- 13 too I am invited to her with the king. But all this does me no good anytime I see the Jew Mordocai sitting in the king's gate."
- 14 And his wife Zeresh and all his intimate friends said to him "Have them make a stake seventy feet high, and in the morning tell the king to have them impale Mordocai on it, and go in merrily with the king to the banquet." And Haman liked the idea and made the stake.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 That night the king's sleep would not come, and he ordered the book of history brought, the chronicles, and they were being read
- 2 before him. And it was found set down that Mordocai had reported about the king's eunuchs Bigthana and Teresh, two of the guardians of the threshold, who had proposed to lay hands on King Xerxes.
- 3 And the king said "What honor and distinction was shown to Mordocai for this?"

And the pages in attendance on the king said "Nothing was done about him."

- 4 And the king said "Who is in the court?"
- And Haman had come to the outer court of the king's house to tell the king to impale Mordocai on the stake he had got ready for
- 5 him. And the king's pages said to him "There is Haman standing in the court."

And the king said "Let him come in."

- 6 And Haman came in, and the king said to him "What should be done for the man the king is pleased to honor?"

- And Haman thought to himself "Whom would the king be more
- 7 pleased to honor than me?" And Haman said to the king "A man
- 8 the king is pleased to honor—let them bring royal robes that the king has worn, and a pony that the king has ridden and on the head
- 9 of which a royal tiara is set, and give the robes and the pony into the hands of someone of the king's foremost princes, and let them enrobe the man the king is pleased to honor and take him on the pony through the city square and call out before him "This is the way the man the king is pleased to honor is treated.' "

- 10 And the king said to Haman "Right off, take the robes and the pony as you propose and do so for the Jew Mordocai who sits in the king's gate; do not omit a point of all you have proposed."

- 11 And Haman took the robes and the pony and enrobed Mordocai and gave him the ride through the city square and called out before him "This is the way the man the king is pleased to honor is treated."
- 12 And Mordocai went back to the king's gate; and Haman bolted home
- 13 mourning and muffling his head. And Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his intimate friends the story of all that had happened to him; and his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him "If Mordocai, before whom you have begun to fall, comes of the blood of the Jews, you will not be a match for him but are to fall before him."

14 While they were still talking with him the king's eunuchs arrived

CHAPTER 7

1 and hurried Haman to the banquet Esther had got up, and the king and Haman went in to drink with Queen Esther.

2 And again on the second day the king said to Esther over the wine "What have you to ask for, Queen Esther? it shall be given you; what is the boon you want? up to half the empire, it shall be done."

3 And Queen Esther answered "If I am in favor with the king and if the king thinks best, let me be given my life as the thing I ask for and my people as the boon I want; for we have been sold, I and my people, to be killed, destroyed, rooted out. And if it were that we had been sold for slaves I would have kept silence because the suffering would not have been worth troubling the king about."

5 And King Xerxes said to Queen Esther "Who is this, and where is he, whose heart has excited him to do such a thing?"

6 And Esther said "A hostile and malicious man—this wretch Haman." And Haman was dazed with fright before the king and the queen.

7 And the king in the heat of his temper got up from the wine-table into the palace garden, while Haman stood to beg Queen Esther for his life, because he saw that he was in for trouble from the king.

8 And the king came back from the palace garden to the banquet house, and Haman had thrown himself down on the couch Esther was on; and the king said "Even forcing the queen in the house with me?" and as the words came out of the king's mouth they muffled Haman's

9 face. And Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said before the king "Besides, there at Haman's house stands the seventy-feet-high stake Haman made for Mordocai who spoke out for the king's good." And the king said "Impale him on it"; and they impaled Haman on the stake he had got ready for Mordocai, and the king's temper went down.

CHAPTER 8

1 That day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the house of Haman the Jews' assailant; and Mordocai came in before the king, because Esther had told what he was to her, and the king took off his ring, of which he had divested Haman, and gave it to Mordocai. And Esther set Mordocai over Haman's house.

3 And Esther spoke before the king again, throwing herself down before his feet and weeping and begging him to avert the mischief of Haman the Agagite and his scheme which he had contrived against the Jews. And the king held out the golden scepter for Esther; and Esther rose and stood before the king, and said "If the king thinks best and if I am in favor with him, and the proposal seems to the king to be advantageous and the king likes me, let something be written to reverse the writs contrived by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite which he indited to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces; for how can I look on at the disaster that is to befall my people, and how can I look on at the destruction of my race?"

And King Xerxes said to Queen Esther and to Mordocai the Jew "Here I have given Esther Haman's house, and him they have impaled, for having laid hands on the Jews; now write yourselves about the Jews the sort of thing that seems best to you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for a document that has been written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring is not to be reversed."

And the king's secretaries were called on that date, in the third month (that is, the month of Sivan), on the twenty-third of it, and just such things as Mordocai ordered were written to the Jews and to the satraps and the governors and the princes of the provinces from India to Nubia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, each province in its own form of writing and each people in its own language, and to the Jews in their form of writing and in their language; and it was written in King Xerxes' name and sealed with the king's ring. And Mordocai sent writs by pony-couriers, mounted on government blood-horses of ehoice strains, that the king had granted to the Jews in each and every city to assemble and make a stand for their lives, to kill and destroy and root out every force of people or province that should assail them, children and women, and to take their plunder, on one day in all King Xerxes' provinces, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar). A copy of the document, to be promulgated as law in each and every province, was publicly displayed to all the peoples, that the Jews be ready on this day to take vengeance on their enemies. The couriers, mounted on the government blood-horses, hurried out posthaste by royal order, and the law was promulgated in Susa Citadel. And Mordocai went out from before the king in royal dress of violet and white, with a great gold coronet and a mantle of lawn and purple; and the city of Susa was whooping and making merry; to the Jews came light and gladness and joy and honor. And in each and every province and in each and every city in the place where the king's word and law arrived there was merrymaking and rejoicing of the Jews, banqueting and festival; and many of the populace turned Jews because dread of the Jews had fallen on them.

And in the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar), on the thirteenth day of it, when the king's word and law were to take effect, on the day when the Jews' enemies had depended on having them at their mercy it was upset so that the Jews had their haters at their mercy. The Jews assembled in their cities in all King Xerxes' provinces to lay hands on those who meant harm to them, and not a man stood his ground before them, because the dread of them had fallen on all the peoples; and all the princes of the provinces and the satraps and the governors and the king's administrators backed up the Jews because the dread of Mordocai had fallen on them; for Mordocai was a great man in the king's house, and talk of him was going through all the provinces because the man Mordocai was growing greater and greater.

And the Jews dealt death among all their enemies, cutting down and killing and destroying, and did as they pleased with those who hated them. And in Susa Citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men; and they killed Parshandatha and Dalphon and Aspatha and Poratha and Adalja and Aridatha and Parmashatta and Arisai and Aridai and Vaizatha, the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' assailant; but they did not lay hands on the plunder.

On that day the number of the killed in Susa Citadel came in before the king, and the king said to Queen Esther "In Susa Citadel the Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men, and Haman's ten sons; in the remainder of the king's provinces what will they have done? And what is it you ask for? it shall be given to you; and what else is the boon you want? it shall be done."

And Esther said "If the king thinks best, let it be granted to the Jews in Susa tomorrow also to do as was the law today; and let them hang Haman's ten sons up on the stake." And the king ordered it so done; and it was promulgated as law in Susa, and they hung up Haman's ten sons, and the Jews in Susa assembled on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar also and killed three hundred men in Susa, but did not lay hands on the plunder.

And the remainder of the Jews in the king's provinces assembled and made a stand for their lives and had rest from their enemies and killed among those who hated them seventy-five thousand, but did not lay hands on the plunder, on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and rested on the fourteenth of it and kept it as a day of banqueting and merrymaking. But the Jews in Susa assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth of it, and rested on the fifteenth of it and kept it as a day of banqueting and merrymaking. That is why the country Jews, those who live in the rural cities, keep the fourteenth day of the month of Adar with merrymaking and banqueting and holiday-making and sending helpings to each other.

And Mordocai wrote this matter down and sent writs to all the Jews in all King Xerxes' provinces, near and far, engaging them to keep the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and the fifteenth of it in each and every year, corresponding to the days on which the Jews came to rest from their enemies and the month which was reversed for them from sorrow to gladness and from mourning to holiday-making, to keep them as days of banqueting and merrymaking

23 and sending helpings to each other and gifts to the needy; and the 24 Jews agreed to what they had begun to do and what Mordocai wrote to them. For Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the assailant of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them and had cast pur (that is, the lot) for confounding them and destroy-25 ing them; but when it came before the king he said, with the book, "Let his evil scheme that he contrived against the Jews come back on his 26 own head, and let them impale him and his sons on the stake." (That is why they call these days Purim, from the name of the pur.) For these reasons, because of all the words of this letter and what they 27 had seen of such things and what had come to themselves, the Jews engaged and agreed for themselves and their descendants and for all who should join them, permanently, to keep these two days in accord-dance with the prescription for them and at the time for them in 28 each and every year. And these days are to be commemorated and kept in each and every generation, in each and every clan, in each and every province, and in each and every year; and these Purim days are never to pass away from the midst of the Jews, and their commemoration is never to come to an end out of their descendants.

29 And Queen Esther the daughter of Abihail, and Mordocai the Jew, 30 wrote with all emphasis to enact this second letter of Purim; and he sent writs to a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, Xerxes' empire, 31 to all the Jews: words of peace and good faith, to enact these Purim days at the times for them, as Mordocai the Jew and Queen Esther had enacted and as they had engaged for themselves and their descendants, 32 the matters of fastings and their crying out. And Esther's behest ratified these matters of the Purim; and it was put in writing.

CHAPTER 10

1 And King Xerxes laid taxes on all the earth and the islands of the 2 sea. And as to his deeds of might and power, and the details of Mor-docai's greatness which the king bestowed on him, they are recorded 3 in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia. For Mordocai the Jew was second to King Xerxes, and a great man of the Jews and popular with the mass of his brothers, aiming at good for his people and speaking peace for all his race.

THE BOOK OF JOB

CHAPTER 1

1 There was a man named Job in the country of 'Us, and that man was conscientious and upright, fearing God and keeping clear of bad 2 actions. And he had seven sons and three daughters born to him.
 3 And his stock was seven thousand sheep and goats and three thousand camels and five hundred yoke of cattle and five hundred donkeys, and a very large body of servants; and that man was the largest proprietor among all the Easterners.

4 And his sons used to go and make a banquet, one day at each one's house, and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them; 5 and when the banquet-days had gone the round Job used to send and hallow them, and the first thing in the morning offer a burnt-offering equal in number to all of them, because Job thought "Maybe my sons sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job was doing things like that all the time.

6 And one day the angels came to present themselves before Jehovah, 7 and the Adversary too came among them. And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Where did you come from?"

And the Adversary answered Jehovah "From ranging through the earth and walking about in it."

- 8 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Did you take notice of my servant Job? because there is nobody on earth like him, a conscientious and upright man, fearing God and keeping clear of bad actions."
- 9 And the Adversary answered Jehovah "Is it for nothing that Job is God-fearing? haven't you kept up a fence all round him and his family and everything that belongs to him, blessed the work of his hands, and his stock have multiplied in the country? but put out your hand and strike everything that belongs to him and see if he will not curse you to your face."
- 12 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Here, everything that belongs to him is at your disposal; only do not put out your hand to him."
- 13 And the Adversary went out from Jehovah's presence; and one day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at their oldest brother's house a messenger came to Job and said "The cattle were plowing and the donkeys grazing beside them, and the Sheba tribe came down and took them and massacred the men; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you word." While this one was still speaking the next one came and said "God's fire fell out of the sky and burned the sheep and goats and the men and ate them up; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you word." While this one was still speaking the next one came and said "The Chaldeans arranged three columns and raided the camels and took them and massacred the men; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you word." While this one was still speaking the next one came and said "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at their oldest brother's house, and there from across the wilderness came a great wind and hit all four corners of the house, and it fell on the young folks and they are dead; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you word."
- 20 And Job stood up and tore his robe and sheared his head, and threw himself on the ground and did reverence and said "Naked I came out of my mother's body and naked I go back there. Jehovah gave and Jehovah took. Jehovah's name be blessed!"
- 22 With all this Job did not sin nor find fault with Jehovah.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 And one day the angels came to present themselves before Jehovah, and the Adversary too came among them, and presented himself before Jehovah. And Jehovah said to the Adversary "From where did you come?"

And the Adversary answered Jehovah "From ranging through the earth and walking about in it."

- 3 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Did you take notice of my servant Job? because there is nobody on earth like him, a conscientious and upright man, fearing God and keeping clear of bad actions; and he still holds on to his principles, and you were trying to influence me to wipe him out for nothing."

4 And the Adversary answered Jehovah "Skin over skin, and over his 5 person a man will give everything he has. But put out your hand and hit his bones and flesh, and see if he will not curse you to your face."

6 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Here, he is at your disposal; only look out for his life."

7 And the Adversary went out from Jehovah's presence and struck 8 Job with a malignant eruption from foot to crown, and he took a 9 piece of broken crockery to scrape himself with. And as he sat in the ashes his wife said to him "Are you still holding on to your principles? curse God and die."

10 But he said to her "You talk as any reprobate would. Are we to accept the good at God's hands and not accept the bad?"

With all this Job did not sin with his lips.

11 And Job's three friends heard of all this disaster that had come upon him, and they came from their different places, Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Sophar the Na'amathite, and 12 arranged with each other for coming to lament over him and to comfort him. And they raised their eyes at a distance and could not recognize him; and they raised their voices and wept and tore their 13 robes and tossed dust up over their heads toward the sky and sat down on the ground with him seven days and seven nights, no one speaking a word to him, because they saw how very great his suffering was.

CHAPTER 3

1 2 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed his day, and said

3 "Perish the day on which I was to be born, and the night that said 'A man is conceived'!

4 Be that day darkness;
let God not concern himself with it from above and no brightness beam into it.

5 Let darkness and gloom claim it, let clouds settle over it, let eclipses overwhelm it.

6 That night let blackness take; let it not form part of the days of the year nor come into the count of the months.

7 O be that night bleak and bare, let no jubilation come into it;

8 Let day-cursers lay a curse on it, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

9 Let its twilight-stars be dark, let it hope for light and there be none, and let it not descry the eyelashes of the dawn,

- 10 Because it did not shut the doors of the body I was in and shut off torment from my eyes.
11 Why was I not to die in birth, come out of my mother's body and perish?
12 How came it that knees welcomed me, and breasts for me to suck?
13 For now I should be lying down quiet, asleep and so at rest, 14 With kings and statesmen of earth who built for themselves sites that lie waste 15 Or with generals who owned gold, who filled their houses with silver, 16 Or like an abortion tucked underground I should not exist, like infants that had never seen light.
17 There wicked men forbear to rage, and there exhausted men rest, 18 Prisoners are at ease together, hear no overseer's voice.
19 Small and great are there, and a slave is free from his owner.
20 Why give light to a tormented man, and life to men of aching hearts, 21 Who wait for death and it is not there, and hunt more industriously for it than for buried treasure, 22 Who are gleefully glad at it, overjoyed when they find a grave?
23 To a man whose road is curtained off and God has fenced him in?
24 For my moans come in before my bread and my roars pour out like water.
25 For when I dread a thing it arrives, and what I have quailed at the thought of comes true for me.
26 I have had no comfort, no quiet time, no rest, and a spasm comes."

CHAPTER 4

- 1 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered 2 "Shall we try a word to you? you will be impatient, but who can keep in words?
3 Here you have been schooling many and nerving slack hands; 4 Your words set a stumbling man on his feet and you braced failing knees; 5 Now that it comes to you you are impatient; it touches you and you are disconcerted.
6 Is not your piety your reliance and your conscientious life your hope?

 7 Remember: what innocent man has perished, where were upright men annihilated?
 8 As I see it, those who plow villainy and sow trouble reap it; 9 They perish by God's breath, are made an end of by the air from his nostrils.
 10 The lion's roar, the voice of the king of beasts, and the two-year-old lion's teeth, are broken, 11 The great lion perishes for lack of prey, and the lioness's cubs lose touch with each other.
 12 "And a word once stole upon me, my ear took in a whisper of it, 13 In thoughts brought by night visions when trances fall on men.
 14 A terror beset me, and a quaking, and terrified every bone in me, 15 And a breeze ran over my face, made the hair on my flesh prickle up: 16 It stood there, but I could not make out what it looked like;
 There was a form before my eyes,
 I heard a hushed voice:
 17 'Is a human being to be more in the right than God, a man to be cleaner than his Maker?
 18 Why, he does not trust his own servants and charges his angels with frailties; 19 How much more those who inhabit houses of clay! such as have their foundations on the earth and are beaten down before a moth, 20 Between morning and evening they are shattered, are lost for all time without anyone's noticing it.
 21 A fiber pulls out within them and they die unaccountably.'

CHAPTER 5

1 "Call: is there one that will answer you?
 and to which of the Holy Ones will you turn?
 2 For vexation kills an ignorant man and jealousy brings a simpleton to death.
 3 I have seen an ignoramus take root, but suddenly the ground he stood on was lost.
 4 His sons are far from succor, are overborne in the gate and there is no deliverer; 5 What they have harvested a hungry man eats, and thirsty men gulp their abundance.

6 For misfortune does not come out of the earth nor trouble sprout from the soil; 7 For man breeds trouble, and sparks fly high.
 8 But I would apply to Deity and state my problem to God, 9 Who does things great and inscrutable, wonderful things in uncountable number, 10 Him who gives rain over earth and sends water over all outdoors, 11 While he sets lowly men on high and men that wore black mount to triumph; 12 Who frustrates shrewd men's plans, and their hands do nothing that makes sense; 13 Who catches wise men in their own shrewdness, and crafty men's policy goes rash.
 14 In the daytime they meet with darkness and they grope as if in the night at noon, 15 And he saves from their swords an orphan and from a strong man's hands a needy man, 16 And the poor man comes to have hope and foul play shuts its mouth.
 17 Happy the man whom God corrects; do not reject Shaddai's discipline; 18 For he hurts and he bandages,
 He mangles and his hands heal.
 19 In six distresses he will deliver you and in seven no harm shall touch you; 20 In famine he will have paid your ransom from death and in war from the power of the sword; 21 When a tongue scourges, you shall be hidden, and you shall not be afraid of havoc when it comes.
 22 At havoc and at starvation you shall laugh, and of the wild beasts you shall not be afraid, 23 Because you have your pact with the stones of the field and the wild beasts have made peace with you.
 24 You shall know that all is well in your tent and shall inspect your pastures and miss nothing, 25 And shall know that your issue is plentiful and your offspring like the herbage of the earth; 26 You shall come to your grave in rugged vigor as a stack of grain goes up at its due time.
 27 We have examined into this; it is so; listen to it and know it for yourself."

CHAPTER 6

- 1 But Job answered
- 2 "If only my vexation were to be weighed and they were to take up my catastrophe altogether on the scales, 3 Because it would then outweigh the sand of the sea!
that is why my words were so rash.
- 4 For I have Shaddai's arrows in me, their poison drinking out my spirit;
God's overwhelmings are in the field against me.
- 5 Will a wild ass bray over greensward or a cow moo over its mess of barley?
- 6 Is flour paste to be eaten without salt, or is there flavor in marshmallow?
- 7 My appetite refuses to touch, loathes my food like the discharges of my disease.
- 8 If only what I ask would come, and God would give what I am hoping for, 9 And God would be pleased to felle me, would turn his hand loose and finish me off!
- 10 And it would yet be my comfort, and I should break away in the pang that he does not spare, because I have never hushed up the say of the Holy One.
- 11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
and what is my end, that I should be patient?
- 12 Or is my strength the strength of stones?
or is my flesh bronze?
- 13 —Or do I have in me no help for myself and are sensible ideas knocked out of me?
- 14 One who fails to get friendship from his friend will leave off the fear of Shaddai.
- 15 My brothers have played false like an arroyo, like a bed of arroyo-streams that run off, 16 That are black with winter weather, on which snow goes out of sight;
- 17 At the scorching time they are wiped out; in the heat they disappear from their place;
- 18 The line of their course twists about, they go up into nothingness and are lost.
- 19 The wayfarers from Teman were looking, the caravans from Sheba were hoping for them;
- 20 They were disappointed because they had relied on them;
they came to them and were discomfited.
- 21 You have now been the same to me;
you see a horror and are afraid.

22 Was I saying 'Give me' or 'Pay a tip for me out of your means 23 And get me off out of a foeman's hands and ransom me out of the hands of ruffians'?
 24 Instruct me and I will be silent; make it clear to me what missteps I have made.
 25 How telling are frank utterances!
 but what does correction from you correct?
 26 Do you think of correcting talk?
 but a despairing man's say amounts to wind.
 27 Will you even fall upon a man of conscientious life and charge down upon your friend?
 28 Now please face me;
 I will not lie to your faces.
 29 Come back; let us have no foul play;
 come back, I still have my honesty in it.
 30 Is there foul play on my tongue?
 or does my palate not discriminate catastrophes?

CHAPTER 7

1 "Does not a man have a term of duty on earth, and is not his time like a hired hand's?
 2 Like a slave panting for a shadow and a hired hand looking forward to his pay, 3 So I have been assigned moons of futility and nights of trouble are counted off for me.
 4 When I lie down I think 'When can I get up?' evening stretches on, and I have all I can hold of tossing till daybreak.
 5 My flesh is clothed in maggots and clods;
 my skin sets and liquefies.
 6 My days go faster than a shuttle and come to an end with no sort of hope.
 7 Remember, God, that my life is a breath of wind; my eye will never get back to seeing good; 8 The eye of him who is seeing me will not behold me, while your eyes are on me I am gone.
 9 A cloud clears up and goes off; just so one who goes down to the world below will never come up.
 10 He will never come back to his house and his place will not greet him again.
 11 I on my part will not check my mouth, will speak in the distress of my spirit, will protest in the ache of my heart.
 12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, that you set a watch over me?

- 13 When I think 'my bed will comfort me, my couch will help carry my grievance,' 14 You dismay me with dreams and overwhelm me with visions, 15 And my soul chooses strangling, rather death than my woes.
16 I will not take it; I shall not live forever;
let me be, because my days are a puff of air.
17 What is man that you should make much of him and fix your attention on him 18 And inspect him every morning, test him every moment?
19 How long will you never glance away from me, not let up long enough for me to swallow my spittle?
20 I sinned; what am I doing to you, Keeper of man?
Why do you set me as a thing in your way and have me as a load to carry, 21 And not pardon my crime and set my guilt aside?
For right off I shall be lying in the clay, and you will go in quest of me and I shall not be there."

CHAPTER 8

- 1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered 2 "Till when will you keep up this talk and shall the words of your mouth be a big wind?
3 Will Deity play tricks with justice or Shaddai with right?
4 If your sons sinned against him he let them bear the consequences of their crime; 5 If you will direct your quest toward Deity and beseech Shaddai, 6 If you are pure and right-minded he will rouse for you now and revive your righteous standing, 7 And your past will have been little and your future will be right ample.
8 For ask a past generation and observe their fathers' researches, 9 Because we are yesterday's growth; we do not know;
for our days on earth are a shadow.
10 Will not they instruct you, tell you, and bring out words from their hearts?
11 Will papyrus stalks make a jungle in anything but a morass?
will reeds thrive without water?

12 Still unripe, unplucked, before any grass they dry out.
13 Such are the paths of all who forget Deity, and the hope of an irreligious man comes to nothing, 14 One whose reliance is a gossamer and the object of his confidence is a spider's tent.
15 He leans on his house and does not stand, takes hold of it and does not get on his feet.
16 He is lush before the sun and his runners run out over his garden, 17 His roots are matted about a stone-heap, he takes hold of a structure of rocks.
18 If He annihilates him from his place it will disavow him, 'I never saw you.' 19 That is the triumphant climax of his career, and another sprouts up from the ground.
20 Deity does not repudiate a conscientious man nor lend a hand to evil-doers.
21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with hurrahs.
22 Those who hate you will be wrapped in shame, and wrong-doers' tent will be nowhere."

CHAPTER 9

1 But Job answered
2 "Certainly, I know it is so, and how is a human being to be in the right with Deity?
3 If he chooses to argue a case with him he will not answer him one point out of a thousand.
4 Wise in heart and mighty in strength, who has defied him and remained safe and sound?
5 Him who displaces mountains before they know it, as he has overthrown them in his anger; 6 Him who shakes earth loose from its place and its pillars quiver; 7 Him who says a thing to the sun and it does not break out, and seals off stars; 8 Sole spreader of sky, treader on heights of sea, 9 Maker of Aldebaran, Orion, and the Pleiades and the chambers of the south, 10 Doer of great things inscrutable and wonders innumerable.
11 Here he comes by me and I do not see him, goes past and I do not perceive him—12 Here he comes down on me, who will turn him back?

who will say to him 'What are you doing?' 13 God will not turn back his anger;
 Rahab's helpers sank under him, 14 Not to speak of such a thing as that I should answer him, choose my words with him, 15 I who if I were in the right would not answer, would beg as a favor for what was my right.
 16 If I called and he answered me
 I would not believe that he would give ear to my voice, 17 He who deals me hurts in a tempest and multiplies my sores for nothing, 18 Does not let me get back my breath but gives me all the bitter mouthfuls I can hold.
 19 As for stark strength, there it is!
 but as for judgment, who will set me a date?
 20 If I am in the right my own mouth will put me in the wrong;
 I am virtuous and he has made a crook of me.
 21 I am virtuous—I do not think of my person—I want nothing of my life—22 It is all one; therefore I say, he makes a clean sweep of virtuous man and rogue.
 23 If a scourge brings sudden death he makes fun of innocent men's despair.
 24 A country is given into a rogue's hands;
 he covers its judges' faces.
 If not then, who is it that does?
 25 And my days are swifter than a runner, have gone off without seeing anything good, 26 Have passed like reed boats, like a vulture shooting toward food.
 27 If I say I will forget my grievance, will quit my dismalness and brighten up, 28 I quail at all my woes,
 I know I shall not be acquitted.
 29 I am the one to be found guilty—what should I take useless trouble for?
 30 If I take a snow bath and clean my hands with alkali, 31 Then he will dip me in a mudhole and my garments will abominate me.
 32 For he is not a man like me whom I should answer, we should go into court together; 33 There is no adjudicator between us who will lay his hands on us both.
 34 Let him take his cudgel away from over me and his terror not overwhelm me;

35 I will speak and not be afraid of him, because I am not like that to my knowledge.

CHAPTER 10

1 My soul loathes being alive;
I will quit grieving to myself,
I will speak in the ache of my heart.
2 I will say to God 'Do not declare me guilty, let me know what you are prosecuting me for.
3 Does it do you good to deny justice, to repudiate what your hands have toiled on and beam upon the policy of wrong-doers?
4 Do you have a mortal's eyes or see as mankind sees, 5 Are your days like a human being's days or your years like a man's days, 6 That you hunt up my guilt and make a search for my sin, 7 Notwithstanding your knowledge that I shall not prove to be doing wrong
and there is nobody to deliver out of your hands?
8 Your hands molded me and made me; afterward you swing round and wipe me out.
9 Remember that you made me in clay and are putting me back in the loam.
10 Did you not pour me like milk and curdle me like cheese, 11 Clothe me with skin and flesh and frame me with bones and sinews, 12 Make life in me, befriend me, and your thoughtfulness guarded my spirit—13 And you had these things hidden in your heart;
I know you have had this in mind.
14 If I sinned you would watch me and not acquit me of my guilt; 15 If I did wrong, woe to me; or right, I should not lift up my head, Eating my fill of indignities and drinking my fill of misery, 16 Or if I bridled up you would hunt me like a lion and come back to your mysterious dealings with me, 17 Confront me with new witnesses and multiply your grievances against me, mobilize fresh divisions against me.
18 And why did you bring me out of a womb?
I should have perished and no eye have seen me,

- 19 Been as if I had not existed, been taken from mother's body to grave.
20 Is not my lifetime small? leave off, glance away from me and let me brighten up a little 21 Before I go, never to return, to a land of darkness and gloom, 22 A land of sable dusk, gloom and disorder, that beams sable rays.' "

CHAPTER 11

- 1 And Sophar the Na'amathite answered 2 "Is quantity of talk to go unanswered, or a loose-tongued man to pass for having right on his side?
3 Are your fine words to silence men, and are you to scoff uncriticized 4 And say 'My doctrine is flawless and I was irreproachable under your eyes'?
5 But I would that God would speak and open his lips to debate with you, 6 And tell you the secrets of wisdom, because he is double in sense!
 Know that God is overlooking part of your guilt!
7 Will you explore God or exhaustively investigate Shaddai?
8 Higher than the sky—what will you do?
 deeper than the realm of death—what will you know?
9 Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sky.
10 If he goes past and locks a door and convenes a court, who will turn him back?
11 For he knows paltry men and sees villainy without paying attention.
12 But an empty-headed man gets brains when a wild ass's colt is born human.
13 If you condition your heart and spread out your hands to him, 14 If there is villainy in your hands put it far away, and let foul play not lodge in your tents, 15 Why, then you will lift your face out of discredit and be in hard straits and not be afraid, 16 Because you will forget trouble, will remember it like water that has run past, 17 Life will stand up to surpass noontime, dusk will be like daybreak, 18 And you will rest assured, because there is hope,

- will look about at everything and go to bed in security 19 And lie with no one to alarm you, and many will seek your favor.
20 But wrong-doers' eyes will wear out with watching, they will not have any place left to run to,
and their hope will be exhaustion of heart."

CHAPTER 12

- 1 But Job answered
2 "You are indeed a people with whom wisdom will die!
3 I have brains like you,
am not inferior to you,
and who does not have things like these on hand?
4 'A butt for his neighbor's laughter' am I,
'one who called on God and he answered him, an honest conscientious man is a butt.' 5 'To the thinking of one who is at ease, disaster is to be pooh-poohed; for one whose foot is giving way it is a solid certainty.' 6 'Marauders' tents prosper and there is security for those who disturb Deity, for the one who brings God in his hand.' 7 But ask beasts and they will inform you, the birds of the air and they will tell you, 8 Or crawlers of the earth and they will inform you, and the fishes of the sea will tell you the story: 9 Who does not know by all these that Jehovah's hand made this, 10 In whose hand is the soul of everything living and the breath of all flesh of men?
11 Does not an ear test words and a palate do its tasting of food?
12 In graybeards is wisdom, and length of life is intelligence—13 With him is wisdom and efficiency, his are skill and intelligence.
14 Where he demolishes, there is no rebuilding;
he locks a man up and there is no unlocking; 15 When he shuts off the water, it dries out;
he lets it loose and it tears up the earth.
16 With him are might and sagacity; to him belong misled and misleader.
17 One who sets counselors to going stripped and judges to running wild, 18 Undoes kings' control and ties a loincloth on their waists,

- 19 One who sets priests to going stripped and upsets immemorial status, 20 One who makes reliable men's tongues slip and takes away old men's sagacity, 21 One who pours contempt on nobles and slackens irresistible men's girdles, 22 One who unveils abysmal things out of darkness and brings gloom to light, 23 One who makes nations immense and destroys them, spreads out folk upon folk and leaves them lying, 24 One who turns aside the minds of the heads of the populace and sets them wandering in pathless nothingness, 25 Groping in unlighted darkness; and he makes them wander about like a drunken man.

- 1 There, my eye has seen everything, my ear has heard and understood it; 2 I too know the same things you know,
am not inferior to you.
3 But I am speaking to Shaddai and would like to argue with Deity.
4 But you are whitewashers, quack doctors all of you.
5 Would that you would hold your tongues so that it should become wisdom for you!
6 Hear out my argument and listen to the contentions of my lips!
7 Will you talk unfairly for Deity and stream out fraud for him?
8 Will you be partial to his side, or champion Deity's cause?
9 Is it a good thing that he should investigate you, or would you hoax him as one hoaxes a man?
10 He will be calling you to account if you show private partiality.
11 Should not his majesty overwhelm you and the dread of him fall upon you?
12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, your shield-bosses turn out to be crockery.
13 Be still, and I will do the talking, come what may.
14 I will pick up my flesh in my teeth, take my life in my hand.
15 Suppose he slays me: I will not wait,
I will just argue my course to his face.

- 16 He will become salvation to me too, because an ungodly man will not be admitted before him.
17 Hear my word, do, and take my demonstration into your ears.
18 Here I have formulated my case:
I know I am the one that will turn out to be in the right.
19 Who will join issue with me?
for I would now hold my tongue and pass away.
20 Only do not do two things with me, then I will not screen myself from your face: 21 Take your hand away from me and let your terror not overwhelm me, 22 And call, and I will answer;
or I will speak, and return me a reply.
23 How much of guilts and sins do I have?
let me know my crime and sin.
24 Why do you veil your face from me and count me as an enemy of yours?
25 Would you terrorize a driven leaf or chase dry straw, 26 That you list bitter things against me and saddle me with the guilts of my boyhood 27 And set my feet in the stocks, and watch all my paths, and mark a line round the soles of my feet—28 And he is like a worn-out water-bag, like a moth-eaten blanket.

CHAPTER 14

- 1 "Man, the woman-born,
has a scanty lifetime and an overload of difficulties.
2 Like a flower he came out and wilted, fled away like a shadow and does not stand.
3 Upon even this you open your eyes and summon him to appear against you for trial!
4 Who shall produce a clean thing out of unclean?
not one.
5 If his time is decided, you have his number of months, you have drawn his bounds and he is not to go beyond, 6 Glance away from him and leave off till, like a hired man, he takes the satisfaction of his day.
7 For there is hope for a tree:
if it is cut down, it starts again, and its shoot will not fail to come; 8 If its root grows old in the ground

- and its trunk dies in the soil, 9 At the scent of water it will sprout and make a twig like a young tree newly set.
10 But a man dies and lies lifeless; a human being breathes his last, and where is he?
11 Water goes away from a sea and a river dries off and out, 12 And a man lies down and will not get up; till the sky wears out they will not wake nor rouse from their sleep.
13 O that you would stow me away in the world below, screen me till your anger turned back, fix a date for me and remember me!
14 If a man dies will he come to life?
I would wait all the time I had to serve till my relief came; 15 You would call and I would answer you;
you would have a yearning for the work of your hands.
16 For then you would be counting my steps, not watching for my sin, 17 My crime would be packed up under seal, and you would whitewash my guilt.
18 "But a mountain tumbles down, wears out, and a rock shifts from its place; 19 Water pulverizes stones; a cloudburst washes away soil;
and you have crushed man's hope.
20 You force him permanently out, and he goes;
you change his face and turn him off.
21 His sons rise to honor and he does not know it, or sink into insignificance and he does not find out about them; 22 Only his flesh feels pain upon himself and his soul is mournful over himself."

CHAPTER 15

- 1 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered 2 "Would a wise man answer with windy ideas and fill himself up with east wind, 3 Arguing with unserviceable talk and useless phrases?
4 You, besides, are breaking up fear of the Deity and lessening thoughtfulness before him, 5 Because your guilt is tutoring your mouth and you choose artful men's language.
6 Your own mouth shall prove you in the wrong, not I, and your own lips shall testify against you.

7 Are you the first of men to be born?
 were you brought forth before the hills?
 8 Did you listen into God's private conference and sequester some wisdom for yourself?
 9 What do you know that we do not, perceive that we are not aware of?
 10 We have among us graybeard and patriarch, further on in years than your father.
 11 Are Deity's consolations too little for you, and talk that is easy on you?
 12 Why does your heart carry you away, and what do your eyes fasten on, 13 That you send your breath back to Deity and pour phrases out of your mouth?
 14 What is man that he should be pure and that one born of woman should be in the right?
 15 Here, he does not put trust in his holy ones and sky is not pure to his eyes, 16 To say nothing of an abominable and degenerate being, a man who drinks rascality like water.
 17 "I will show you; give me a hearing;
 I have recognized this and will tell you about it, 18 What wise men state and their fathers have not kept back.
 19 They had the country given to them alone, and no stranger came through among them.
 20 All a wrong-doer's life he is in expectation, the number of years that are laid up for the violent man.
 21 Sounds of dread are in his ears, in peace there is a ravager coming to him; 22 He does not count on coming back out of darkness, and he is marked for the sword; 23 He has an appointment to be a meal for a kite;
 he knows his disaster is a settled thing; 24 A day of darkness will overwhelm him, distress and hard straits will overpower him, like a king ready for the onslaught, 25 Because he stretched out his hand against Deity and blustered against Shaddai, 26 Running at him headlong with thick shield-fronts.
 27 Because he covered his face with fat and put on flesh in his waist, 28 And planted himself in extirpated cities, houses that were never to be lived in, which had been made ready to become heaps of stones,

- 29 His means shall not be rich, shall not grow up to stalks, shall not bend ears earthward; 30 He shall not get out of darkness; flame shall dry up his shoot, and his buds shall blow off in the wind; 31 Let him not trust to rambling futility, for futility will be his purchase; 32 His fronds shall wither untimely and his new fronds not grow verdant; 33 He shall blast his berries like a grapevine and drop his blossoms like an olive-tree.
34 For a godless man's company is stony ground, and fire has devoured the tents of bribery; 35 There is breeding of trouble and giving birth to villainy, and inside them fraud is shaping up."

CHAPTER 16

- 1 But Job answered
2 "I have heard plenty like that; you are plaguy comforters all of you.
3 Is there any end to windy talk?
or what is galling you, that you answer?
4 I too might speak as you do if your souls were in the place of mine; I might string phrases together about you and shake my head over you; 5 I might brace you up with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips might check—6 If I speak my pain is not checked, and if I refrain what passes away from me?
7 He has just tired me out now; you have laid all my company desolate, 8 And you have gripped me, it has become a witness, and my leanness stands up against me, testifies to my face.
9 His anger tore me and flung me down;
he ground his teeth at me;
my foe sharpens his eyes for me.
10 They have opened their mouths at me, insolently struck my cheeks, collected in full force against me.
11 The Deity gives me up to a foul-player and thrusts me into the hands of wrong-doers.
12 I was in quietness and he jerked me, took me by the back of my neck and burst me,
And sets me up for his target, 13 his marksmen surround me,
And he cuts through my kidneys unsparingly,

- lets my gall run out on the ground, 14 Wounds me with wound across wound, runs at me like a warrior.
 15 I have stitched a sackcloth on my hide and run my horn into the clay, 16 My face is inflamed with weeping and there is gloom over my eyelashes,— 17 For no violence that I have on my hands; and my prayer is pure.
 18 Earth, do not cover my blood, and let there be no place for my outcry!
 19 Even now my witness is there, in the heavens, and I have my voucher aloft, 20 My friend is my interpreter; to God my eye drips, 21 That he would arbitrate for a man with a God and between a human being and his fellow.
 22 For a few years are to come and I shall go on the track I shall not come back on.

CHAPTER 17

- 1 My spirit is blighted, my days are snuffed out, graves are mine.
 2 Decidedly I have triflers about me and my eyes grow tired resting on their ungovernableness.
 3 Give yourself bail for me;
 who would there be to strike into my hand?
 4 For you have kept their hearts closeted from sense; therefore you will not set them on high.
 5 He notifies friends for a share, and his sons' eyes are worn out with looking and longing.
 6 But you have set me up for a byword of peoples, and I am a phenomenon before them, 7 And my eyes are dim with vexation and my figure dissolves like a shadow.
 8 Upright men will stand aghast at this,
 and an innocent man be stirred up against an ungodly; 9 But a right-doer will hold his course and a cleanhanded man grow increasingly resolute.
 10 But you may all come again and I shall not find a wise man among you.
 11 My days have gone past; I am annihilated; my heartstrings are snapped.
 12 They make night into day, 'light is near, coming away from darkness.'

- 13 If I hope, the realm of death is my house; I have made up my couch in the darkness; 14 I have called decay my father, the maggot my mother and sister,— 15 And where is hope of mine?
and who is to behold good fortune of mine?
16 Will they go down with me to the realm of death?
or shall we go underground together?"

CHAPTER 18

- 1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered
2 "How long will you be snaring phrases?
See the point, and afterward we may talk.
3 How comes it we seem like cattle to your eyes, 4 you that tear yourself in your anger?
Is earth to be forsaken on your account, and a rock shifted from its place?
5 A wrong-doer's light does go out, and the blaze of his fire gives no radiance.
6 Light turns dark in his tent, and his lamp goes out over him.
7 His vigorous steps will be cramped and his own purposes will upset him, 8 For he runs his feet into a net and walks along on wickerwork.
9 A trap will grip his heel and a noose clutch him.
10 The cord for him is hidden on the earth and the snare for him along the path.
11 On all sides wraiths overwhelm him and chevy him wherever he goes.
12 His vigor is famished and calamity stands ready for his weakening.
13 His skin is eaten away by disease;
the firstborn of death eats his members.
14 He is torn out of his tent, what he trusted to,
and is marched to the king of wraiths.
15 There shall be living in his tent something that is not his;
brimstone shall be sprinkled over his lands.
16 His roots shall die out underneath and his twigs wither overhead.
17 The memory of him is lost from earth and there is no name of his over the wide world.
18 He is pushed out of light into darkness and sent flitting out of the world.
19 He has neither chick nor child among his people

- nor any survivor in the places he has visited.
20 Over the day that comes for him men of the west shall stand aghast and men of the east be taken with a shudder.
21 Altogether such are the dwellings of a malefactor, and like this is the place of one who knows not Deity."

CHAPTER 19

- 1 But Job answered
2 "How long will you make my soul miserable and beat me down with phrases?
3 This is ten times you have been humiliating me, you are not embarrassed to keep saying spiteful things about me.
4 But even take it that I really have made a misstep:
it is with me my misstep is lodged.
5 If you are really taking high ground with me and proving my ignominy against me, 6 Know that it is God has done the unfair thing by me and set his toils round me.
7 Suppose I cry murder, I am not answered;
I shout an appeal and there is no administration of justice.
8 He has walled off my road and I cannot pass; he has spread darkness over my paths.
9 He has stripped my honor off me and taken away the crown from my head.
10 He tears down every side of me, and I am gone, and he has cleared away my hope like a piece of timber.
11 He is angry with me and thinks of me as he does of his foes.
12 His raiders come on unitedly and have built their road against me and are camped round my tent.
13 He has set my brothers to standing aloof from me, and my acquaintances are altogether estranged from me.
14 My nearest and dearest have quit, 15 my housemates have forgotten me,
And my serving-maids think me a stranger,
I seem to them a foreigner.
16 I have called my slave and he does not answer—
I beg him for favors with my own mouth.
17 My breath is hateful to my wife and I smell foul to the sons of my body.
18 Even children think nothing of me;
let me stand up, they talk at me.
19 All my bosom friends abhor me, and whom I loved have turned on me.
20 My bones stick to my skin,

- and I come off with my flesh in my teeth.
 21 Be kind to me, be kind to me, you friends of mine, because God's hand has touched me.
 22 Why is it you chase me down as Deity does and can never get enough of my flesh?
 23 O that what I have to say were written down, were registered in a document, 24 With iron pen and lead, carved in rock forevermore!
 25 But as for me, I know my vindicator is alive, and one in future will stand up above ground, 26 And behind my skin, which has borne this, out of my flesh I shall behold God, 27 Whom I shall behold for myself; it will be my eyes that saw, and not a stranger—my heart is spent in my bosom!
 28 When you think 'What of his shall we chase down and find ground for a case in him?' 29 Quail on your own account for fear of a sword, because those are offenses to bring down the sword, so that you may know there is an arbiter."

CHAPTER 20

- 1 And Sophar the Na'amathite answered 2 "For that my thoughts give me response, and by reason of it I am hurried on.
 3 I hear a tutoring that humiliates me and wind rather than sense answers me—4 Have you known this from of yore, since man was set on earth?
 5 For wrong-doers' caroling is shortsighted, and an ungodly man's merrymaking is momentary.
 6 If he lifts his crest to the sky and his head touches the cloud, 7 Like his dung he perishes utterly; those who saw him say 'Where is he?' 8 Like a dream he takes wing and one cannot find him; he flits away like a vision of the night.
 9 An eye has glimpsed him, but does so no more,
 and his place will not behold him again.
 10 His sons must give satisfaction to poor men, his hands give back his goods.
 11 His bones are full of his virility, but with him it lies down in the clay.
 12 If evil is sweet in his mouth, he hides it under his tongue,

13 Saves it up, will not let go of it, keeps it snug in the roof of his mouth, 14 His dinner turns in his bowels, he has vipers' gall within him, 15 He has swallowed wealth but must throw it up, Deity ousts it from his stomach.
 16 He sucks vipers' poison, a sand-adder's tongue will kill him.
 17 He must never look on outflows of oil, streams of honey and clabber.
 18 Because of old age he will not swallow what he has spent his strength on, he will not be gay in proportion to the wealth he has traded for, 19 Because he victimized and abandoned poor men, stole a house, and does no building on it.
 20 Because he had no quiet in his stomach, in his wishes he let nothing get away, 21 There was nothing left over from his eating, therefore his good time will not persist.
 22 In his full plenty let him come into distress, all the force of trouble come over him.
 23 Let him have his bellyful, let Him turn His anger loose on him and shower it on him into his entrails.
 24 He takes flight from arms of iron;
 a bow of bronze drives through him; 25 He pulls and it comes out of his back, comes flashing away from his gall.
 Terrors are upon him;
 26 all darkness lurks for him.
 Let an unblown fire consume him, feed on survivors in his tent; 27 Let the heavens uncover his guilt and earth be an adversary to him; 28 Let the progeny of his house be swept out of the country, drifted wreckage on the day of His anger.
 29 This is a wicked man's lot from God, and the estate named for him by Deity."

CHAPTER 21

1 But Job answered
 2 "Do hear what I have to say, and let this be your comforting.
 3 Bear me, and I myself will speak;
 and after I speak you shall make your fun.
 4 Is my grievance against man?

and how should I not be impatient?
 5 Face toward me and stand aghast and lay your hands over your mouths!
 6 And if I bethink myself I am in consternation, and a shudder seizes my flesh.
 7 How comes it that wrong-doers live, come to advanced age and are still notably robust?
 8 Their posterity is firmly established before them;
 their offspring is numerous under their eyes.
 9 Their houses are at peace from dread, and God's cudgel is not on them.
 10 His bull covers and does not miss, his cow calves and does not slink.
 11 They let out their brats like sheep and goats, and their children caper about.
 12 They sing with tambourine and lyre and make merry to the sound of the pipe.
 13 They wear out their days in comfort, and all of a sudden they go down to the world below.
 14 And they have said to the Deity 'Get out of our way, we do not care to know your courses.
 15 What is Shaddai that we should worship him, and what good should we do when we invoked him?' 16 Here it is not in their hands that their comfort lies, wrong-doers' principles are far from him—17 How often do wrong-doers' lamps go out and their calamity come upon them, cords grip them by his anger, 18 Do they become like straw before a wind and like chaff that a gale filches?
 19 Let him not lay his misfortune away for his sons; let him pay it up to himself and let him know it.
 20 Let his eyes see his calamity and let him drink ire of Shaddai.
 21 For what concern has he for his family after him, when his number of months has been cut off?
 22 —Should one teach the Deity knowledge, when it is he judges those on high?
 23 This one dies in perfect soundness, all quiet and at ease, 24 His crocks are full of milk and the marrow of his bones has its drink, 25 And that one dies in bitter soul and has never eaten a comfortable meal; 26 Together they lie down on the clay and maggots cover them over.

- 27 Here, I know your ideas and such designs as you contemplate against me, 28 That you say 'Where is an aristocrat's house?
and where are wrong-doers' dwellings?' 29 Have you not asked travelers, and do you not recognize their tokens?
30 That the bad man is kept back on the day of calamity, gets the better of the day of wrath?
31 And who tells him of his course to his face?
and if he has done a thing who pays him back?
32 And he is brought to burial and his mound is attended to.
33 Arroyo clods are sweet to him, and all men pour along after him and innumerable before him.
34 And how are you to comfort me with thin air, when your answers sift down to unreliability?"

CHAPTER 22

- 1 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered 2 "Is a man to be serviceable to God?
why, it is to himself that a capable man is serviceable.
3 Does Shaddai have any concern that you should do right, or any profit when you follow a conscientious course?
4 Would it be for your piety that he would reprove you and arraign you for judgment?
5 Is it not that your wickedness is great and your guilt infinite, 6 Because you demand pawns of your brothers without reason and strip off naked men's garments, 7 Do not give a drink of water to a fainting man and refuse bread to a hungry man, 8 But a strong-handed man has the country for his own, and an influential man is to live in it; 9 You turn widows away empty-handed and batter orphans' arms?
10 That is why there are traps around you and dread throws you into sudden consternation, 11 Light has turned dark for you, you cannot see, and spray of water covers you.
12 Of course, God stands high in the heavens and sees the heads of the stars, lofty though they be, 13 And you think 'What does God know?
will he judge through thick air?
14 Clouds are a screen to him and he will not see;
and he will be walking the vault of the heavens.'

15 Will you keep to the foul-players' path, the one villains have trodden, 16 Who were seized untimely, a river pouring upon their foundation, 17 Those who said to Deity 'Get out of our way' and 'What should Shaddai do to us?' 18 When it was he that had filled their houses with good things;
 wrong-doers' principles are far from him.
 19 Honest men see and are glad, and an innocent man derides them: 20 'They are positively annihilated, every mother's son, and fire has consumed the last remnant of them.' 21 Get used to him and on good terms with him; by that what comes to you will be good.
 22 Take an instruction from his mouth and lodge his say in your heart.
 23 If you go back to Shaddai, humbling yourself, put foul play far off from your tent, 24 Lay ore in dust and Ophir gold among arroyo rocks, 25 Then Shaddai will be your nuggets and peak-silver to you.
 26 For then you will be happy over Shaddai and raise your face to God, 27 You will invoke him and he will hear you and you will be paying your vows, 28 And you will decide on a thing and have it hold good for you, and light will be beaming over your paths.
 29 For he brings low the lofty and proud man, and the man of downcast eyes he saves.
 30 He will bring to safety one who is not innocent, and he shall be brought to safety by the cleanness of your hands."

CHAPTER 23

1 But Job answered
 2 "Today too my complaint is rebellion!
 my hand lies heavy on my moans.
 3 If only I knew how to find him, come to his seat!
 4 I would formulate my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments; 5 I should find out what points he would make in answer to me, should see what he would say to me.
 6 Would he maintain his contention against me by superior strength?
 not he, he would just pay attention to me.
 7 There I should have one who was candid arguing with me, and I should definitely get clear from my judge.

 8 Here I go east and he is not there, and west and I do not perceive him, 9 I look for him in the north and do not behold him, swing round to the south and do not see him, 10 While he knows which way I stand; were he to test me, I should come out like gold.
 11 My foot holds on to his tracks,
 I watch his course and do not swerve, 12 From the command of his lips I do not shift, in my bosom I have laid up the say of his mouth.
 13 But when he has his mind made up who will turn him back?
 he hankers and he acts.
 14 For he will go through with what he has marked out for me, and has in store plenty of things like that.
 15 That is why I am affrighted at him;
 I realize the situation and stand in dread of him, 16 And Deity has unnerved me and left me terror-struck.
 17 For I do not break down at darkness and at being covered with blackness.

CHAPTER 24

1 "How comes it times are not reserved by Shaddai and those who know him do not behold his days?
 2 These displace boundary-marks, steal a flock and pasture it, 3 Drive off orphans' donkeys, take a widow's cow and hold it as a pawn, 4 Force needy men off the road;
 earth's downtrodden go into hiding together.
 5 They go out in the wilderness like wild asses in their activities in quest of anything that can be eaten; he has desert wastes as food for the boys.
 6 On the range they make a harvest of its cattle-feed, they go through a wicked man's vineyard for belated grapes.
 7 They pass the night naked for want of clothing and coverless in the cold.
 8 They are wet with mountain rainstorms and hug rocks for lack of shelter.
 9 They steal orphan from breast and take in pawn a poverty-stricken man's baby.
 10 They go about naked for want of clothing, and while they go hungry they carry shocks of grain, 11 Between their walls they press oil, they tread winepresses and go thirsty.

- 12 Out of cities dying men groan and souls of men mortally wounded shriek.
And God does not find any fault.
- 13 Those are rebels against light, do not recognize its routes nor settle in its paths.
- 14 When it is not light a murderer stands up, kills a downtrodden and needy man;
and in the night a thief goes about.
- 15 And an adulterer's eye watches for dusk, thinking 'No eye will espy me,' and he muffles up his face.
- 16 One breaks into houses in the dark.
By day they shut themselves in;
they make no acquaintance with light;
- 17 For alike are morning to them and gloom, because they are familiar with the wraiths of gloom.
- 18 He is light on the surface of water;
their share in the land shall be cursed;
a treader shall not turn to their vineyard.
- 19 Drought, heat too, steal snow-water;
the realm of death, who have sinned.
- 20 The womb that fashioned him will forget him, his loftiness will not go on to be remembered, and foul play breaks like a piece of wood.
- 21 One who does injuries to a barren woman that bears no children, and no good to a widow,
- 22 And drags down needy men by his power, stands up and does not put faith in living;
- 23 He grants him to have confidence and reliance, and his eyes are on their courses.
- 24 They have been lofty a little while, and there is nothing of them and they are laid low, collapse like alkali-sorrel, and are cut down like heads of grain.
- 25 If not, then, who will show me up as a liar and reduce my claims to nothing?"

- 1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered
- 2 "Dominion and terror are about him; he makes peace in his realms aloft.
- 3 Is there any counting his regiments?
and over whom does his light not stand up?
- 4 How is a human being to be in the right with Deity?
and how is one born of woman to be pure?
- 5 Here the very moon is not bright

- and stars are not pure to his eyes, 6 To say nothing of a human being, a maggot; of a son of mankind, a worm!"

CHAPTER 26

- 1 But Job answered
2 "What a help you have been to one without strength, what a salvation to an arm without energy, 3 What a counselor to one without wisdom, and in what abundance you have imparted common sense!
4 Whom have you told what to say?
and whose breath came out from you?
5 The shades writhe underneath the water and its denizens.
6 The realm of death lies naked before him and the land of the gone forever has no cover.
7 He stretches the north over vacancy, hangs earth on nothing, 8 Bundles up water in his thunderclouds and the cloud does not tear under it, 9 Encloses the face of the full moon, spreading his cloud over it.
10 He has drawn a boundary circle on the face of the water at the extremity of light, where it meets darkness.
11 The pillars of the sky rock and are confounded at his rebuke.
12 By his power he stirred the sea and by his understanding he mangled Rahab.
13 By his wind the sky is swept bare, and his hand pierced the elusive snake.
14 There, these are the edges of his course, and what a whispered thing it is that we hear of him! but the thunder of his energies who may perceive?"

CHAPTER 27

- 1 And Job further struck up his lay and said 2 "By the Deity, who has brushed aside my rights, and Shaddai, who has embittered my life, 3 When my breath was still all in me and God's wind in my nostrils, 4 My lips shall not speak amiss nor my tongue voice false pretenses.
5 Away with the thought of my putting you in the right;
till I breathe my last I will not throw off my conscientiousness.
6 I hold fast to my righteous cause and will not loosen my hold;
my heart feels no remorse for any of my days.

7 May my enemy be in the state of a wrong-doer and my adversary in that of a knave!
 8 For what is an ungodly man's hope when God is cutting off and pulling out his soul?
 9 Will Deity hear his cry when distress comes upon him, 10 Or will he be happy over Shaddai, call on God on every occasion?
 11 I will instruct you as to the Deity's hand;
 what Shaddai has in mind I will not conceal from you.
 12 Here you have all of you seen the sights, what do you go into flights of fancy for?
 13 This is a wicked man's lot in the Deity's plan, and the estate violent men are to get from Shaddai.
 14 If his sons are numerous, the sword is for them, and his offspring will not have their fill of bread.
 15 His survivors will be buried in death and his widows will not weep.
 16 If he piles up silver like earth and lays up clothing as if it were clay, 17 He will lay it in and an honest man will wear it and innocent men share the silver among them.
 18 He has built his house like a spider's, like a booth a watchman makes.
 19 He goes to bed rich, but is so no more;
 he opens his eyes and it is not there.
 20 Dissolution descends upon him like water; in the night a gale snatches him, 21 An east wind picks him up and he goes, and it sweeps him out of his place.
 22 He pelts him unsparingly;
 he is in constant flight from his hand.
 23 He strikes his hands together over him and whistles at him from his place.

CHAPTER 28

1 "For there is a mine for silver and a place for gold that they wash out.
 2 Iron is taken out of earth, and one melts stone to copper.
 3 Man has set an end to darkness, and to every extremity he ransacks stone of blackness and gloom.
 4 An intruding people breaks into ravines that were forgotten by feet; they suffer privations, they rove from men

5 To a country from which bread has gone out and whose underpart turns to be like fire, 6 A place whose stones are malachite and which has clods of gold, 7 A path no bird of prey knows nor has a kite's eye glimpsed it, 8 Which boldest beasts have not trodden nor lion passed along it.
 9 He puts his hand to the pyrite rock, turns mountains up by their roots; 10 He rips out channels among the rocks, and his eye sees everything valuable.
 11 He explores the sources of rivers and brings to light an undiscovered thing.
 12 But where is wisdom to be had from,
 and what is the place for insight?
 13 No man knows the road to it, and it is not to be found in the land of the living.
 14 The deep says 'it is not in me' and the sea 'I do not have it here.' 15 Solid gold is not to be given for it nor silver to be weighed out as its price; 16 It is not to be balanced against nuggets from Ophir, against the most precious beryl, or lapis lazuli; 17 Gold and glass will not match it, a thing of red gold be an exchange for it; 18 Pearls and alabaster are not to be mentioned, and wisdom is more of a prize than coral; 19 The Nubian chrysolite will not match it, nor against pure nugget-gold is it to be balanced; 20 And where does wisdom come from?
 and what is the place for insight?
 21 It lies out of sight of any living thing and screened from the birds of the air.
 22 Death and the land of the gone forever say 'We have heard a hearsay of it.' 23 God understands the road to it, he knows the place for it, 24 Because he looks to the ends of the earth, sees under all the sky, 25 Determining a weight for the wind and proportioning the water by measure.
 26 When he made a law of nature for the rain and a course for the lightning of thunder, 27 Then he saw it and described it, made it sure and thoroughly searched it out,

28 And he said to man ‘Here, fearing the Lord is wisdom and shunning what is bad is insight.’ ”

CHAPTER 29

1 And Job further struck up his lay and said
2 “Would that I were as in old-time months, as in the days when God watched over me, 3 When he let his lamp beam over my head and by his light I walked through darkness!
4 As I was in my days of ripeness, when God had a fence round my home, 5 When Shaddai was still with me, my boys were around me, 6 When my callers washed their dust off in clabber and rocks on my grounds poured rills of oil.
7 When I went out of gate to town, prepared to take my seat in the square, 8 Young men saw me and hid and graybeards rose and stood; 9 Captains checked what they had to say and laid hand on their mouths; 10 Magistrates’ voices hid and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
11 For ears heard and deemed me happy, eyes saw and bore witness to me, 12 That I brought a downtrodden suppliant out of trouble, and an orphan, and one whom none would help; 13 The blessing of one who was perishing came upon me and I set a widow’s heart caroling.
14 I clothed myself in right, and like a robe and tiara justice clothed me.
15 I was eyes for the blind man, and feet for the lame man was I.
16 I was a father to the needy, and investigated the claims of the man I did not know 17 And smashed a knave’s fangs and knocked prey out of his teeth.
18 And I thought I should breathe my last with my nestlings and have my days as numerous as the sand, 19 With my roots spreading out to water and dew on my twigs through the night, 20 My honors fresh about me and my bow coming new in my hand.
21 They listened for me and waited, kept still to get my advice;

- 22 After my word they did not speak again, and my discourse came sprinkling down on them.
23 They waited for me as if for rain and held their mouths wide open for a spring shower.
24 I gave them a laugh, they did not believe;
and my face shone, they did not let theirs fall.
25 I chose their course and sat as head, and lived like a king in a raiding-party, as if he were comforting mourners.

CHAPTER 30

- 1 But now my juniors are laughing at me, whose fathers I had rejected for placing with my sheep-dogs.
2 Of what use was even the strength of their hands to me, men in whom solid vigor was lost, 3 gaunt with destitution and starvation?
Those who gnaw arid downs, the emesh of blast and blight, 4 Who pluck alkali-sorrel, wormwood leaves, and have broom-roots for their bread; 5 They are driven out of a community, they yell at them as they would at a thief.
6 They have to live in the sides of arroyos,
